Baldur's rage and maniacal behavior did not vanish along with the spell and Baldur chose to continue fighting Kratos despite being relentlessly assaulted with punches and arrows from Atreus. He actually enjoyed experiencing pain to his fullest and hated every time his mother tried to protect him. Free of the spell, Baldur is shown to be graceful as he appreciated both Kratos and Atreus for their efforts what his father, Odin couldn't. Despite given a warning by Kratos, Baldur still wanted to punish his mother and chose to strangle her even as she professed her love for him. Baldur's obsession for revenge to the point of patricide alarmed Kratos that the Spartan tried to reason with the maddened Aesir God, having understood what he felt too well from his past conflicts with Gods of Olympus which culminates of him murdering Zeus and realizing vengeance will bring nothing to its perpetrator. Sadly, Baldur refused to hear Kratos, and as a result, Kratos reluctantly put Baldur out of his misery by snapping his neck.

Baldur's final moments were not of anger or rage, but the joy that he could feel the snow on his face.

---

When he was done we were shocked and horrified! He was BEYOND PURE EVIL!

Me: Whoa man!

Nicole: He is an absolute monster and a prime example of what would happen if we break our code.

Me: Yeah.

Nico: Looks like we're going to kill him. He may be a god but he is not immortal like one.

Kratos: I know you have killed villains on your world before. But gods are another matter.

Molly Hale: (laughs) Buddy, we eat gods for breakfast!

Me: It's true. We have killed gods before and we have the one weapon that can do it.

I pulled out a dagger and cut my finger and dripped a drop of blood onto the ground and it burned a hole through the ground.

Me: My blood is poisonous and it can kill the mightiest of immortal beings.

Kratos: Amazing.

Arrietty: That is potent blood.

Nunnally: It sure is.

Kite Man: I'll take to the air and see if I can find Baldur.

Nico: Okay. Go for it.

Wonder Woman: I'll go with him.

Nico: Roger that.

Kratos: Nico, though I feel J.D. is the true leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm, you have also done a good job leading.

Nico: You sure? Because there are moments where I feel I don't do a good job.

Blot: You kidding boss? Look at what you've accomplished while J.D. and Zarya were gone. You took down Ronny Boxer and his crew, arrested Don Piero, killed Madkat, put a stop to the Haunted Mask permanently, took down Windsor and the Queen Tie, turned the Disciplinarian into scrap metal, stopped Sibini, defeated Mitch, took out Frank Jones, helped Charleston change his ways, and destroyed the Ghost of Morgan Le Fay and captured who she was really and sent her to prison.

Stewie: And you put an end to Bertram too. And me and Brian couldn't even figure out a way to permanently end him after we defeated him on our first Multiverse adventure.

Nico: Yeah you're right about that. That is a bunch of huge accomplishments.

Me: That's why I named you my second in command for a reason. You did so much and earned this right.

Nico: Thanks man.

Kratos: Tell me. What is your world like?

Whiplash: Well, no offense. But it's very modern then this world.

Me: Thousands of years more advanced. Technology has evolved tremendously over the course of the millennia.

I went over everything and he was amazed.

Kratos: Wow! That's amazing.

Eli: It sure is.

Me: A lot of events all over history have taken place too.

I showed him all over our events that took place.

Me: But it's not just Earth that went through so much. There are many worlds all over the universe that have experienced lots of things.

Manterror: But our world has been through wars like yours has even before our team formed. Like the Beast Wars, where I participated in.

Me: Horrible wars.

Eli: Yeah they were terrible.

Kratos: Amazing.

David Cain: But overall, our world is a good place to live in.

Me: That's why we call Earth The Oasis in The Milky Way. Lots of history and lots of stuff to learn from.

Jessie K.: And lots of events that have taken place over the years.

Wonder Woman and Kite Man came back.

Wonder Woman: We found him! He's up north about 30 miles.

Nico: Okay.

Gearhead: Guys, is there a vehicle around for me to use?

Kratos: Those chariots might help.

Gearhead: Well better than nothing.

Nico: Good.

Amorpho: Time to turn into someone suited for this kind of battle.

He turned into King Leonidas of Sparta.

Nico: King Leonidas of Sparta. Perfect for this.

Eli: Awesome choice.

Arrietty: I agree.

We flew out and we found Baldur.

Demolishor: Look at Baldur. Thinking he's safe. (laughs) He's dead wrong!

Nico: Care to launch the first shot J.D.?

Me: Don't mind if I do commander.

I fired a powerful energy blast and it hit Baldur head on and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion sent him crashing into a rock and it sent him crashing through a tree and then a into a cliff!

He emerged from the rubble mangled up and broken and we were facing him.

Kratos: (To Baldur) You will not live to see the end of this day!

Boomerang: Kratos, you just said what all of us are thinking right now!

Nico: Yep and Baldur you may have lived for hundreds of years, (Goes Super Saiyan 5) But you are no true god.

?: Just the kind of thing I would expect from you Chan.

A figure came out and it was FIORE!

Me: Fiore!

Nico: Go get him J.D.

Me: Right.

I went up to him.

Me: Fiore I am going to save you from this monster you became. Kisenian is going to destroy you and you have to realize that you are nothing but a pawn in her plots to fill the entire universe with hatred.

Kisenian Blossom: Don't believe him Fiore. I am doing this all for you.

Me: Quiet you Hatred Polyp!

Kisenian Blossom: Ah, yes. J.D. Knudson, the mighty hero and leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm. I don't think Fiore would like seeing you right now. So angry. So unwilling to think. (gets angry) You dare come after me? As if the Kisenian Blossom was the name of a common thug you can intimidate? Well, your days of a nuisance to me are over.

Me: Sorry to disappoint you Kisenian but your days of lying to people to get them to do your dirty work are over forever. I wanted revenge on you for everything you have done all over the universe. But now I don't want that anymore. I still will never forgive you for everything you've done but Fiore is an innocent soul that was turned into a puppet by your hatred just to destroy the entire universe.

Kisenian Blossom: You will never understand why I hate you so much J.D.!

My aura flared up with incredibly massive intensity and it was so powerful that my aura looked like pure rainbow fire times 100 googolplex!

Me: Oh I think I understand completely Kisenian.

I looked into her eyes and she looked into mine. I saw in her heart nothing but empty darkness with intense flames of incredible hatred burning inside them which showed an incredible burning hatred for all life in the entire universe. She used 50,908,235 pawns over the years and annihilated countless planets and killed countless innocent people and flooded all those planets in those very galaxies with her intense hatred. Kisenian looked into my eyes and I was the exact opposite of what she was.

Me: You are a heartless omnicidal monster Kisenian. Fiore did nothing to deserve being turned into a puppet by you. You are nothing but a monster of absolute pure evil.

I snapped my fingers and took the fight with me and Fiore and Kisenian to another planet.

Blizzard, Goliath, Villamax, Trickster, Mammoth, Trumpipular, KGBeast, Spymaster, Madame Masque and Cad Bane then appeared.

Nico: Blizzard, Goliath, Villamax, Trickster, Mammoth, Trumpipular, KGBeast, Spymaster, Madame Masque and Cad Bane.

Goliath: Looks like we got here in time for some fun.

Blizzard: I forgot how beautiful Ancient Greece was.

Mammoth: (to Kratos) How are you liking it with Nico, J.D., and the others?

Kratos: Actually, very good.

Goliath: Glad to hear it.

Trumbipular: (to Mina) We heard you and J.D. saw a Gila monster this morning.

Mina: We sure did. That was the Gila Monster from The Giant Gila Monster from 1959.

Blizzard: I remember that movie. I used to watch it all the time with my father.

KGBeast: (Russian Accent) Since J.D. is working out some… issues with the Kisenian Blossom, maybe you would like to tell us why the Gila monster wasn't killed.

Nico: J.D. put it in a tank for us to have in our zoo so that it can be treated with kindness and love

KGBeast: Smart thinking.

Nico: J.D. is facing Fiore and the Kisenian Blossom on another planet.

KGBeast: I see.

?: It will be the last fight you see!

2 figures came out and they were DOSU KINUTA and ZAKU ABUMI!

Nico: It's Zaki Abumi and Dosu Kinuta.

Twilight Sparkle: We knew Kin had a terrible past when she served under Orochimaru, but we don't know much about those two.

Lincoln: I can tell you, Twilight. Zaku Abumi and Dosu Kinuta were two of Orochimaru's servants, and they have a pretty nasty history.

Lincoln told the Mane 9 and the other new recruits about the histories of Zaku Abumi and Dosu Kinuta, and it's indeed nasty, as Lincoln said.

Zaku Abumi

Zaku Abumi (ザク・アブミ, Zaku Abumi) was a shinobi from Otogakure and a member of Team Dosu, which took part in the Chūnin Exams under covert orders from Orochimaru.

Background

In the anime, growing up as an orphan that lived on the streets and stole for a living, he was beaten for it. When Orochimaru found him, he told Zaku that he saw potential in him and offered to help him develop it in exchange for his loyalty, which Zaku accepted. Sometime later Zaku was seen singlehandedly fighting and defeating several Takigakure shinobi. From that day forward he refused to give up, even at the cost of his own life, not knowing that Orochimaru only took him in as a disposable pawn, a fact that his teammate started to suspect at the Chūnin Exams.

Personality

Like his teammates, Zaku was overconfident about his powers, especially the ones coming from his arms, as noted by Sasuke Uchiha and the fact he went into elaborate detail about his abilities. As such, he believed no one could beat him, and had a strong desire to win; however, he managed to be unaware of the enemies' plan until it was too late, as seen with his last opponent Shino Aburame. Zaku also had a tendency to say whatever he wanted without regarding the consequences, as he called Chōji Akimichi fat, and then had a difficult time blocking the enraged genin, and then told Sasuke that he is the one who injured Sakura Haruno, leading to the crippling of his arms. He was seen to have some sense of care for his teammates, as when Dosu was plummeting to the ground from Lee's attack, Zaku was seen using his air waves on the ground to soften the blow, though he showed no such concern for Kin, being fully willing to kill her when Ino Yamanaka took her hostage. He was also described as loyal, and a show-off.

Appearance

Zaku had spiky, black hair and dark eyes. He wore a beige shirt with two black stripes and three prints of the kanji for death (死, shi) down the front. His forehead protector had an attached happuri under the cloth rather than connected to the metal plate, resembling Yamato's. As with his teammates Dosu and Kin, he wore a snake-patterned scarf around his neck.

Abilities

Zaku, like many ninja from Otogakure, had been physically altered with unnatural enhancements that improved his abilities; in his case, he was fitted with hollow air tubes that extended through his arms and opened through his hands, allowing him to propel a combination of air pressure and sound in various ratios, controlled by his chakra. In his fight against Shino, Zaku claimed to be able to control the sound more precisely than simply firing it in one direction, but this was never shown. A proven downside of Zaku's ability was, that should the air tubes be clogged, it would result in a terrible backfire, as the air cannot escape out, instead they would burst out of the side of his arms, causing great backlash damage, to the point of having his arms being destroyed inside out.

Part I

Chūnin Exams

Team Dosu travelled to Konohagakure to participate in the Chūnin Exams with the secret goal of killing Sasuke Uchiha. Before the exam started, Zaku and his teammates overheard Kabuto Yakushi talking about their village and decided to attack him. After Zaku threw Kunai as a distraction, Dosu attacked Kabuto and damaged his hearing. To prevent the situation from escalating, the exam proctors, led by Ibiki Morino, appeared and settle things down. After Zaku passed the written portion of the Chūnin Exams, he moved onto the second phase alongside his teammates.

During the second phase of the exam, Dosu initiated the team's real mission of killing Sasuke. After several days in the Forest of Death, Team Dosu finds Sakura alongside her injured teammates. Seeing an open opportunity to kill Sasuke, Team Dosu attacks Sakura, activating her traps she had hidden in the process. After getting past the traps, Team Dosu was intercepted by Rock Lee. As Dosu got caught in Lee's Front Lotus, Zaku emitted air into the ground to soften his landing. Surviving the attack, Dosu resumed his fight and defeated Lee. With Lee out of the way, Kin captures Sakura, leading her to cut off her long hair to get free of Kin's grip and fight back. After numerous times attempting to attack Zaku, Sakura manages to finally injure him. Zaku immediately retaliated by punching her repeatedly, causing her to bleed. Observing the situation from afar, Team 10 arrives and intervenes. Because Chōji audibly pleaded his desire to leave and not fight, unlike his other two teammates, Zaku was willing to let Chōji go though angered him into a fight by insulting his weight. Zaku fought against his Chōji's Human Bullet Tank technique which overpowered his own jutsu. As Ino gained control of Kin's body, she demanded Team Dosu to hand over their scroll, using their teammates body as leverage. Zaku promptly attacked her, hurting both kunoichi in the process. After Zaku and Dosu began insulting Konohagakure, Neji and Tenten appeared and interrupted them.

After Sasuke recovered and activated his curse mark, he noticed Sakura was injured, which Zaku proudly took credit for, prompting Sasuke to enter the fight. Getting fed up with the battle dragging on, Zaku attacked with his most powerful technique in attempt to kill all of Team 7. Surviving the attack and rescuing both his teammates, Sasuke attacked and injured Zaku with shuriken. Distracted, Sasuke swiftly appeared behind Zaku and dislocated his arms, knocking him out in the process. Unable to bring himself to face Sasuke, Dosu handed his team's scroll over to Team 7 and retreated with his teammates. After Zaku and his team recovered, they manage to get both scrolls needed to proceed into the finals and manage to pass the second phase of the test.

After deciding to participate in the third stage preliminaries, Team Dosu reunited with Orochimaru, who was disguised as their Otogakure sensei. Throughout the beginning of the preliminaries, Zaku acted out that both his arms were still dislocated, even towards his own teammates. After watching Sasuke's fight, he was matched against Shino Aburame. Because Zaku's arm was in a sling from his encounter with Sasuke, Shino advised him to forfeit the match. Zaku refused, and instead attacked Shino with his one good arm. In attacking, Shino was given an opportunity to box in Zaku with bugs, forcing Zaku to choose between attacking him or attacking the bugs, leaving the other to attack Zaku from behind. Zaku chose to attack both, and pulled his other arm out of its sling. As Zaku prepared to blast the two opposing forces, his arms detonated, making them unusable and putting him in serious pain (in the manga, his right hand was even blown off of his body. In the anime, his arms were severely damaged but still attached to his torso). As Zaku writhed, Shino revealed that the tubes in Zaku's arms had been filled with his bugs, causing the pressure of Zaku's attack to go inward when it couldn't escape. Shino then dealt a finishing blow, knocking him out, and medics came to move Zaku on a stretcher, with his severed arm lying on top of his chest.

Konoha Crush

As the Konoha Crush occurred, Orochimaru summoned the First and Second Hokage, leading to the Third to use the Dead Demon Consuming Seal to seal the deceased Hokage. After successfully sealing the two at the cost of his life, it was revealed that Zaku, along with Kin were used as sacrifices to summon the former Hokage souls.

Dosu Kinuta

Dosu Kinuta (ドス・キヌタ, Dosu Kinuta) was a shinobi of Otogakure and also the unofficial leader of Team Dosu. He participated in the Chūnin Exams under covert orders from Orochimaru.

Personality

Dosu was demonstrated to be a very alert and logical ninja. He rarely rushed into anything before first observing and analysing the situation. Dosu seemed very loyal to Orochimaru's cause and, to a lesser degree, his teammates. Although he claimed that Oto-nin are willing to sacrifice their own teammates for their cause, he promised to avenge Zaku after his debilitating defeat by Shino Aburame. At first, he showed dedication to Orochimaru's task of killing Sasuke Uchiha, but later became disillusioned after learning that Orochimaru had given Sasuke a cursed seal. Realising that he and his team were actually pawns used to determine Sasuke's worth, Dosu's outlook changed as he lost any and all loyalty as well as respect towards Orochimaru and vowed to kill Sasuke for the purpose of undermining Orochimaru. Because of this, he would attempt to take down Gaara prior to the actual match to lessen the obstacles beforehand, a rather rash decision that ultimately cost Dosu his life. He was also described as courteous and reliable.

Appearance

Dosu had bandages covering most of his face, leaving only his left eye and eyebrow uncovered. He also wore a large poncho with long sleeves, a snake patterned scarf around his neck, a straw raincoat protruding from the back of his scarf, and a large amplifier on his right arm for most of his attacks. His back was hunched, which made him look smaller than he actually was. He had short black buzzcut hair.

Abilities

Dosu's battle style revolved around his ability to manipulate sound. He had a very keen awareness and understanding of sound-waves. During the first round of the Chūnin Exams, he simply listened to the strokes of other ninja's pencils to determine what they were writing for the written test.[3] His main attack was done with help from the Resonating Echo Speaker on his right forearm, which he used to generate sound for his attacks. His abilities attacked the inner ear, directing his sound deep into it, which would cause great pain, disorientation, vertigo and nausea. During their match, Chōji attempted to block his attacks by pulling his head inside his Human Bullet Tank, only to be thwarted by the fact that, by directing sound through the water in his body, Dosu could still generate the effect, instantly defeating Chōji. Dosu was also quite intelligent, perceiving Sakura's traps and Orochimaru's plan to test Sasuke.

Chūnin Exams

Team Dosu travelled to and arrived in Konohagakure to participate in the Chūnin Exam. Before the exam started, Dosu and his team overheard Kabuto dismissing their village as unimportant and decided to attack him because of it. After Zaku threw kunai to distract Kabuto, Dosu ambushed him and attacked with his Resonating Echo Speaker, damaging Kabuto's hearing. To prevent the situation from escalating, the exam proctors, led by Ibiki Morino, appeared and settled things down. After Dosu passed the written portion of the Chūnin Exams by interpreting the sound of others' pencil markings, he moved onto the second phase of the exam alongside his teammates. During the second phase in the Forest of Death, Dosu initiated his team's real mission; killing Sasuke Uchiha.

With Naruto and Sasuke unconscious due to their previous battle with Orochimaru, Sakura Haruno is left to fend on her own. Seeing an opportunity to kill Sasuke, Team Dosu leave their position and attack Sakura, who activates the traps she laid out. Dosu announces that they want to fight Sasuke and tells Sakura to wake him up with Sakura stating that she knows that a man named Orochimaru was pulling the strings which leaves Team Dosu stunned. After getting past the traps, Team Dosu was intercepted by Rock Lee. Dosu recklessly attacked Lee and ended up the victim of his Front Lotus technique. Seeing that his teammate was going to be killed, Zaku softened the ground, leaving Dosu to survive the attack. Suffering from the side effects of using the Front Lotus, Dosu effortlessly defeated Lee. With Lee out of the way, Team Dosu once again advanced towards Sakura, leading to Team 10 intervening. After the fighting began between the two teams, Dosu tried giving aid to Zaku who was fighting against Chōji but was caught in Shikamaru's Shadow Imitation Technique. With Shikamaru's jutsu coming to an end, Lee's teammates arrived. After noticing Neji's Byakugan, Sasuke woke up. Looking on in fear after witnessing Sasuke's curse mark he had received from Orochimaru activate, Zaku attacked the Uchiha before Dosu had the chance to warn him of the situation. After dodging Zaku's attack, Sasuke quickly defeated him and turned his attention towards Dosu. Seeing the predicament his was in, Dosu handed over his scroll to Team 7 and fled with his teammates.

During the preliminaries, Team Dosu reunited with Orochimaru, who was disguised as their Otogakure sensei. After watching Zaku lose his fight against Shino, he vowed to avenge him. During the last match of the preliminaries, he was matched up against Chōji Akimichi. Chōji used his Human Bullet Tank technique with the assumption that he was safe from Dosu's sound technique, but Dosu attacked and defeat him with one blow. After winning his fight, he was assigned to fight Shikamaru Nara during the first round of the finals.

When Lincoln was done, The Mane 9 and many of the new recruits were shocked and horrified at their histories.

Rarity: My word, they're just as evil as the snake they serve.

Ace Bunny: Naruto told me and the team about Orochimaru, and Kin telling us of what those two put her through makes me want to run my blade right through their black hearts.

Lincoln: Same here, and now that they're back, we'll make sure the last remnants of that filthy snake is wiped out forever.

Suddenly, the eight large planets and stars orbiting around Eli's legs, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs, the eight large crimson red orbs orbiting around Naruto's legs, and the eight large black orbs with the Eye of Horus orbiting around Cody (OC)'s legs were glowing, and that means trouble.

Suddenly, we see another version of Kin Tsuchi arrive on the field, but her eyes were red. This was when she was back when she was serving under Orochimaru.

Kin Tsuchi: Another version of me, but this was when I was under Orochimaru, until you saved me.

Evil Kin: You will pay for turning against Lord Orochimaru.

Kin Tsuchi: Orochimaru was a conniving liar and a monster. And I suspect you're not alone. You and Dosu can come out now, Zaku.

Just then, two figures came out. It was Zaku Abumi and Dosu Kinuta, who've returned from the dead.

Zaku: It's been a long time, Kin. Ever since you turned your back on Lord Orochimaru, we've been waiting for the chance to kill you.

Tayuya: Shut your fucking mouth, Zaku, it's also your fault that you and Dosu abused Kin. She told me everything that you and Dosu did.

Dosu was surprised to see Tayuya, Kimimaro, and Kabuto Yakushi with Team Loud Phoenix Storm, and that made him and Zaku enraged.

Dosu: What?! You all joined Team Loud Phoenix Storm, after everything Lord Orochimaru did for all of you?!

Kabuto Yakushi: Orochimaru was nothing but a conniving liar, Dosu. I already know the truth behind what happened to my mother, and that's not all, he also poisoned Kimimaro with a poison that was going to kill him, if Varie hadn't acted swiftly.

Tayuya: And when I found out that you two were abusing my only friend, let's just say I've been wanting to kick your asses.

Zaku: YOU WILL ALL DIE FOR BETRAYING LORD OROCHIMARU!

Nico: You shut your fucking mouth! You need to wait your turn.

?: Terrible reunion huh?

A figure came out and it was METALLOSAURUS from episolde 26 of Turbo!

---

The Metallosaurus is a dinosaur robot, resembling Godzilla, that General Havoc used against the Turbo Rangers. After the Rangers unsuccessfully used their Turbo Megazord Spinout move while attempting to destroy it, Metallosaurus did a counter-spin and broke the Turbo Megazord Saber's blade then tossed its part of the blade aside, slashed at it with its claws, and bit into the Megazord's shoulder with its fangs. Metallosaurus turned around and slapped the Turbo Megazord twice with its tail. Metallosaurus spun around a third time and wrapped its tail around the Megazord's arms and chest. General Havoc sent electricity through the tail into the Megazord, frying its controls and immobilising it in the dinosaur's shocking coils. His Chromite troops climbed into the Megazord's cockpit, overwhelmed the Rangers, and threw them out of the robot. Celebrating his victory over the Rangers, General Havoc began flying Metallosaurus high into the atmosphere, towing the wrapped Turbo Megazord into space.

---

TJ Johnson: Metallosaurus!

Metallosaurus: Been a while rangers.

Nico: Boy I remember you! You were a dinosaur robot used to destroy the Turbo Rangers. That was an intense battle!

Metallosaurus: It sure was. Nice memory on you.

Nico: Like J.D., I never missed an episode.

TJ Johnson: Wait. Vypra made you Sentient?

Metallosaurus: She did. And I actually like having a mind of my own!

Nico: That's very genius.

Suddenly, a pink energy aura flared up around Sakura Haruno, as she walked up to Evil Kin, Dosu, and Zaku.

Sakura Haruno: You three are nothing more than the last remnants of Orochimaru's twisted ambitions, and now, I'm going to see to it that the last of that perverted snake is wiped out of existence forever.

Then, a massive vortex of pink energy and pink flames surrounded Sakura Haruno. The vortex also had pink butterflies flying around in the vortex, and inside was a light green phoenix. Then, when the vortex faded, Sakura Haruno emerged, but she was changed forever.

(IMPERATRIX MUNDI PLAYS 1:45 TO 2:14)

Sakura Haruno now looked like she was 21 years old, she was now taller at 5'10" in height, and she had the body of a goddess, she has a pink butterfly emblazoned on her forehead, her eyes turned neon green, her pink hair has gotten longer, reaching the bottom of her neck, she has on a sleeveless red shirt with a pink phoenix, a red skirt with pink flames, black leather combat boots, large pink angel wings with pink flames, and a red sleeveless trenchcoat with pink flames on the coattails and the symbols of the Hidden Leaf, Haruno and Uzumaki Clan and Team Loud Phoenix Storm on the back. There's a pink kanji below the symbol of the Hidden Leaf that says, "Sakura Haruno, Trusted Student of Lady Tsunade Senju and Kakashi Hatake, Amazing Fiancé of Naruto Uzumaki-Namikaze, and Master of Pink Flames and Butterflies."

春野サクラ、綱手千住とはたけカカシの信頼できる学生、うずまきナルト波風の素晴らしい婚約者、ピンクの炎と蝶のマスター

Sakura Haruno has transformed into SUPER ANGEL 500,000,000,000 PINK INFERNO BUTTERFLY ANGEL OF LOVE.

The rest of us were amazed by Sakura Haruno's transformation, and Naruto had a blush on his face.

Nico: WOW! Sakura you look awesome!

Naruto: Wow, you look beautiful, Sakura, and how do you feel?

Sakura Haruno: (Divine Echoing Fiery Angelic Voice) I feel incredible, Naruto.

Then an anteater appeared and it was the dumb anteater from Ants In The Plants and so did Bluto.

Nico: That dopey anteater and Bluto.

Tierra: This is gonna be awesome.

Everyone got the usual battles underway.

Somnambula: (Egyptian Accent) Yeah they have no love for any humans.

Steel Lynn: I would never serve these gods here.

Samus: Me neither.

Janeen Aran: These gods are nightmares.

KGBeast was next.

KGBeast: (to Onewa) J.D. really hates the Kisenian Blossom, doesn't he?

Onewa: You have no idea Anatoli. That malignant flower has destroyed many planets all over the universe and killed countless people and flooded those planets full of pure unrestrained hatred. When J.D. saw what that flower did over 8 years ago, he vowed to get revenge on that flower no matter what and avenge all the people the Kisenian Blossom slaughtered with her intense burning hate towards all life in the entire universe.

Twilight Sparkle: Yeah that was terrible!

Star Swirl: What that flower did was completely unforgivable and awful.

Crystal Laney: Yeah no kidding.

Spyro: But thank goodness that we reminded J.D. that vengeance is never the answer to anything.

Aang: Yeah that's right. Back in the Air Temple, I was told that revenge is like a two-headed ratviper.

Katara: It's like a double-edged sword.

KGBeast: That's right. All revenge will lead you to is your own destruction. After you get revenge, death will be your only reward.

Onewa: That's right.

KGBeast: I agree. Lets do it!

They fired waves of energy, magic, crystal and elements and smashed him down.

Onewa: ALL RIGHT!

Twilight Sparkle: That was fun!

Timmy Turner: J.D. has a long list of hated enemies. Crocker is just one of those few.

Sunset Shimmer: Yeah and that list is as long as all the enemies we faced.

Pip-Squeak: (British Accent) It's amazing that J.D. has so many enemies.

Gusty the Great: How many enemies does J.D. have?

Sunburn: Tons of them. Many of them are from way before many of us were part of the team.

Fire Lori: Wow! That is literally a huge number of enemies!

Lois Griffin: It sure is intense.

Meg Griffin: It sure is.

Madame Masque: Wow! That's incredible. Lets do it!

Rainbow Dash: She was mostly eating apples. She almost destroyed Applejack's entire apple orchard.

Scootaloo: Yeah it was crazy! She turned into Flutter-Bat after Twilight's spell backfired.

Magma Gloom: She sure did. But Brittney and the Goths of Darkness all said she looked really cool as a vampire pony.

Flash Magnus: Yeah she sure did. But thank goodness no one got hurt.

Whirlwind: Yeah thank goodness.

Air Lincoln: That's a relief.

Aerrow: Yeah thank goodness we weren't turned into vampires.

SpongeBob: She wasn't really a vampire after blood, she was more like a vampire that was after fruit.

Fluttershy: I sure was. I'll be tasting apples for a long time though.

Mage Meadowbrook: That was a lot of apples you ate though.

Stealth Elf: No kidding.

Plant Lola: And I thought Lucy looked cool as a vampire.

Fox: Same here.

Spymaster: You said it. Lets do it!

Manterror: This is gonna be fun. Manterror, TERRORIZE!

He transformed.

Drill Bit: This always is fun. Drill Bit, TERRORIZE!

Cad Bane: (to Jack) Considering that Toki has Psychic Powers, she would make a fine Jedi.

Jack Landors: I think so too.

Princess Luna: I do too.

Anakin: But there are many things you have to know when learning how to be a Jedi.

Padme: That's right. One has to be completely aware of their surroundings and must protect the ones that they care about.

Snowdrop: It's a tough job but it's a big one in order to maintain peace all over the galaxy.

Gari: And it's a huge responsibility.

Ahsoka: A Jedi must always be ready to face any danger great or small.

Obi-Wan and be ready to take on any enemy no matter how strong.

Blackout: And must always be ready to overcome any obstacle.

Shadow Lucy: And must not give into the ways of the Dark Side of The Force.

Yoda: Dark Side is evil it is. But give into it they must not.

Cad Bane: Agreed there. Lets do it!

They ignited their lightsabers and fired blasters and fired waves of lightning, darkness and energy and smashed him down.

The Defenders of Candrakar, they're a collection of swords with the symbols of the elemental forces of Team W.I.T.C.H.J.E.M.M. etched on the 6'0" massive double-edged blades, long black handles, the angel wings crossguards, large gems for the hilts, and large sphere pommels with surrounding gems have colors matching the colors of your hair, and only those of Team W.I.T.C.H.J.E.M.M. can wield them.

Naruto transformed into Super Angel 500,000,000,000 Inferno Firestorm Fox Angel, and unholstered his Sword of the Jinchuriki.

Naruto: (Divine Echoing Fiery Feral Voice): My pleasure.

Sasuke: Don't think I'm letting you guys have all the fun, count me in.

Then, they charged right after Evil Kin, Zaku, and Dosu, intent on wiping out the last remnants of Orochimaru forever.

Zaku fired a blast of air from his hands, but they dodged it, and Sakura fired a powerful blast of pink fire, which hits and burns Zaku, as he screams in excruciating pain. Then, she and Naruto cut off both of Zaku's arms, as he screams in excruciating pain and blood was gushing out like fountains, and he's loosing blood fast. Kin Tsuchi and Tayuya were busy pummeling Evil Kin badly, and they fire powerful blasts of sound at her, which caused her ears to bleed, and they also severed her arms, causing her to scream in excruciating pain, as blood was gushing out like crazy.

Kin Tsuchi: You may be me from long ago.

Tayuya: But, you'll never take the place of the real Kin that I've known long ago. You have fucked around with my friend for the last time you putrid motherfucking pisspot fuckups!

Kabuto Yakushi and Sasuke were pummeling Dosu, and they fired powerful blasts of dark fire and chakra blades at him, which burned and cut him severely. Kimimaro formed a sword of bone, and he severed Dosu's left arm.

Kimimaro: This is for all of the lies that Orochimaru told us long ago.

Kabuto Yakushi formed a blade of Chakra in his hand, and approached Dosu, who was still bleeding from the wounds.

Kabuto Yakushi: And this is for shattering my glasses with that arm of your long ago.

Then, with one downward swing, Kabuto severed Dosu's right arm, and he screamed in excruciating pain, as blood was gushing out like a fountain.

Evil Kin, Zaku, and Dosu were already on their last legs, and they barely had the strength to fight.

Sakura Haruno: Alright, guys, now, let me end this, and send these three to The Warp to join that filthy snake. Evil Kin, Zaku, Dosu, give our regards to Orochimaru when you see him in The Warp.

That horrified Evil Kin, Zaku, and Dosu, and that means they're about to die and join their fallen lord in eternal torment.

Sakura Haruno: (Divine Echoing Fiery Angelic Voice) This is the end for all three of you and the end of Orochimaru's twisted ambitions. FIRE STYLE NINJA ART: DIVINE FIRESTORM RASENSHURIKEN!

Sakura Haruno formed a massive Rasenshuriken made of pink fire with butterflies flying around the core, which was made of white fire, and as she throws it, it slams into Evil Kin, Dosu, and Zaku, and it explodes with incredible power, killing Evil Kin, Dosu, and Zaku, and banished their spirits to The Warp to join Orochimaru in eternal psychic torment.

Naruto: Evil Kin, Dosu, Zaku, you three have failed this universe.

Sakura Haruno powered down and her neon green eyes changed back to green, but her new clothes, angel wings, and new body were permanent. Naruto also powered down, and his crimson red eyes changed back to sapphire blue, but the fox slits were permanent, as well as the nine massive, long crimson red fox tails, crimson red fox ears on his head, the crimson red angel wings, and his new body.

Kisenian Blossom: Kill him for me my servant!

POW!

I punched Fiore and knocked him out and then I removed the Kisenian Blossom from him.

Kisenian Blossom: NO! This is not supposed to happen!

Me: You will never torment anyone else or destroy anymore planets ever again! HAKAI!

The Kisenian Blossom screamed as she was obliterated and erased from existence forever.

Me: Good riddance.

I went over to Fiore.

Me: Fiore? Are you okay?

I picked him up and he was on my back. He was really weak and drained.

Me: You'll be okay.

I then teleported back to Earth with Fiore.

Back on Earth, a massive explosion blasted Baldur into a cliff and then the images of high tech weapons appeared and swirled around and we came out and we all came out. Me and Fiore arrived and I formed a shadow clone to stay with Fiore.

Nico: It's over Baldur! Now you die!

Baldur: YOU CANNOT KILL ME! I AM A GOD!

Troy: You're God of nothing!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Dragon Blitzkreig!

THE END

---

Another awesome chapter done.

God Of War was a great video game series. I never played it but I heard it was a great game series. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Drako1234658, Nflemingful, Etstheclarencefan and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. The next girl is gonna be Zombina the Zombie and she is gonna be in the world of the 1957 movie From Hell it Came and we're going to kill the Tree Monster or the Baranga and we're also going to meet a Beautifly Gene-Slammer named Nora Beneschevsky from Russia. Also the next chapter is gonna be a colorful one as we go on a much needed rest as we go to Hope Hollow and help them regain their color and figure out what had them all turn so grey. It's a non-combat chapter.

See you all tomorrow

MLP 15: Drained Color of Hope Hollow

Over the Pacific Ocean, me, Linka and Nina Fernandez were flying over the Polynesian Islands.

Me: The Islands of French Polynesia. This place has a lot of history that dates to the atomic age.

Nina Fernandez: It sure does.

We were flying.

Nina: It's supposed to be our day off and yet, we're still doing a rescue?

Nina concentrated and groaned as her arms began to vanish inside her body.

Me: It's not that bad, we still get to do fun rescues.

Nina turned into GYARADOS!

Me: YEAH!

We arrived at a Polynesian Island and it looked like a savage and terrible place.

Me: Whoa this island looks terrible.

Nina Gyarados: Yeah. It gives me the creeps.

We heard a scream and then we saw a living tree creature carrying a girl to a quicksand pit and I recognized the creature!

Me: Oh man! That's the Baranga from the 1957 movie From Hell It Came!

Nina Gyarados: That was a weird movie!

Me: Lets go!

We went at the creature just as it dropped her in and she was screaming for help and we fired energy blasts and they hit the creature and exploded and then Nina had the girl grab on to her tail and she pulled her out.

?: Let us help you out.

We saw 2 figures and one was a zombie and the other was a Beautifly.

Zombina: My name is Zombina and I'm a zombie.

Me: You're not like the zombies we faced are you?

Zombina: No I'm not.

Beautifly: (Estonian Accent) My name is Nora Benechevsky and I'm from Estonia.

Me: Pleasure to meet you both. Lets get this freak!

We blasted the Baranga all over and destroyed it and reduced it to nothing.

Me: Yeah!

Linka: That was awesome!

Beautifly: It sure was. Also I became like this on purpose to stop the Team Rocket Scientists.

Me: Wow.

Zombina: Thank goodness.

Me: Lets get you back to Human.

I put on my blind man glasses and snapped my fingers and Nora changed back to human and she had rainbow hair. She was naked.

Nina reverted back too.

Nina was human again. But naked,

Nina: (covers herself) Thank God you're not like the zombies J.D. and the others faced in the past.

Me: Yeah we faced many zombies and killed a massive number of them.

Zombina: That is a lot of zombies.

Nora Benechevsky: (Covers herself) That was crazy.

I gave Nina and Nora new clothes.

Nina: Thanks J.D.

They put on the clothes.

Linka: Those were really crazy adventures.

Me: They sure were.

We then went back to the estate and Miia was happily reunited with Zombina.

After meeting Zombina and destroying the Baranga, Lincoln, me, Nico, Nicole, Leni, Gaara, Temari, Kankuro, and The Beast Morpher Power Rangers were on our way to rescue another girl who was kidnapped by McWolf, and it turns out she's in The Hidden Sand Village.

Lincoln: Wow, so McWolf has chosen The Hidden Sand Village as the next location for the next girl for me to rescue.

Me: You said it, big guy.

Gaara: I remembered seeing McWolf building his new castle here just last night. He sure works fast.

Me: You've no idea, Gaara. But, that's McWolf for you, always up to something.

Nico: You know, we haven't even come here before, and this'll be our first time seeing The Hidden Sand Village.

We arrived at McWolf's castle, which was made of stones that can withstand the sand here. We got in the castle, and it was pretty amazing. We then arrive at the room where McWolf was keeping the girl. We then saw that the girl McWolf kidnapped was Litchi Faye Ling from the BlazBlue franchise.

Lincoln: Oh, wow, it's Litchi Faye Ling.

Nicole: From the BlazBlue video game franchise.

Lincoln went up to Litchi and freed her.

Litchi Faye Ling: Thanks for freeing me.

Litchi Faye Ling then saw Lincoln, and she had a deep red blush on her face once she saw the 7'0" tall, bare-chested, handsome, white-haired, and extremely muscular hunk.

Litchi Faye Ling: Oh, wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you.

Litchi Faye Ling: You too.

Litchi Faye Ling kissed Lincoln on the lips, which he returned, as he wrapped his abnormally large and powerful muscular arms around her, and we cheered wildly.

Then, McWolf came in.

Me: I'm surprised that you built a castle here in The Hidden Sand Village, McWolf.

McWolf: Yeah, and I'm planning on building some castles close to home here on Earth. And since you brought the Beast Morpher Power Rangers, I've got some old friends for you to play with. TRONICS!

Then, an army of Tronics teleported into the room.

Devon Daniels: Tronics!

Lincoln: It's time for action, and I've got just the form for this.

Beast Morpher Rangers and Lincoln: IT'S MORPHIN TIME! UNLEASH THE BEAST!

The Beast Morpher Rangers transformed, and Lincoln was in his new Beast Morpher Ranger form, he had on an orange Beast Morpher uniform for his body, and a large orange helmet in the shape of a wolf's head with an orange visor for the eyes, and it goes well with his Sword of Taranis holstered on his wider muscular back and the eight large orange orbs orbiting around his legs, but the one thing that ruled him out were his larger blue angel wings surging with super lightning with stars and blue nebulae reflecting in the feathers.

Devon: Cheetah Beast Power, Red Ranger!

Ravi: Gorilla Beast Power, Blue Ranger!

Zoey: Jackrabbit Beast Power, Yellow Ranger!

Nate: Mantis Beast Power, Gold Ranger!

Steel: Scarab Beast Power, Silver Ranger!

Lincoln: Wolf Beast Power, Orange Ranger!

Beast Morpher Rangers and Lincoln: Unleash the Beast! POWER RANGERS BEAST MORPHERS!

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive explosion erupted behind them.

Me: WHOA! Lincoln you look awesome as an Orange Beast Morpher Ranger.

Devon Daniels: Yeah no kidding!

Lincoln: Thanks guys.

The Beast Morpher Rangers and Lincoln went at the army of Tronics, and they blasted and slashed at them with their swords, and the army of Tronics exploded in a massive explosion. Lincoln changed back to his normal form, and he, Leni, and Nico jumped and tickled McWolf.

McWolf: (LAUGHING HYSTERICALLY)

After they ceased and helped him up, they were about to leave, but before they did, Lincoln spotted something on the pedestal. He went up to it, and saw that it was some sort of lock box, but there was no lock, and the lid had a blue thunderbird with a gold lightning bolt on it, just like the same one on Lincoln's forehead. He brought it up to us, and we were intrigued.

Me: It appears to be a lockbox, but there's no lock on it.

Leni: Which means I can't use a hair pin to unlock it.

Lincoln 2: That's no ordinary lockbox, guys. In fact, that's a lockbox I designed eons ago, and inside it is something for you, Lincoln. Here, let me open it.

The blue thunderbird with gold lightning bolt on its chest on Lincoln's forehead glowed, and it opened the lid of the lockbox. Inside the lockbox were thirteen stones surrounded by the elemental auras of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Lightning, Light, Darkness, Crystal, Time, Space, and Gravity.

Me: Whoa, what are these thirteen stones?

J.D. 2: I've heard about these stones, they're known as The Thirteen Stones of The Elements, these stones were made eons ago, and they were imbued with the powers of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Lightning, Light, Darkness, Crystal, Time, Space, and Gravity.

Lincoln 2: I recovered these stones long ago, and I put them in that lockbox, and only I could unlock it.

Suddenly, the thirteen elemental stones were glowing, along with the large blue gem on the hilt on Lincoln's Sword of Taranis. Then, they entered the large blue gem, and we saw something happen. The circle of lightning bolts on Lincoln's Sword of Taranis now had different colors representing the elements, and we saw the symbols of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness appear in a circle around Lincoln's lightning bolt with the Thunderbird and comic books cutie mark on his massive right pec.

Lincoln: Whoa, what just happened?

Lincoln 2: When the Thirteen Elemental Stones had entered in the large blue gem on the hilt of your Sword of Taranis, some of the blue lightning bolts now have different colors, and the symbols of Fire, Ice, Water, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness appeared around your lightning bolt cutie mark, and here's another surprise: you've gained Elemental Manipulation, along with Omnipotent Elemental Powers, the same powers as Hunter.

That amazed us, and as soon as we told the others when we got back to the Estate, they were stunned.

Lincoln: This might be due to the powerful bonds I have with everyone.

Nico: That appears to be the case, dude.

Me: That's incredible!

After lunch, we went down to Greendale to meet Sabrina Spellman's aunts, Hilda and Zelda Spellman, along with Salem Saberhagen, Sabrina's friend, Chloe Flan, and Harvey Kinkle.

Me: It's going to be awesome to meet your aunts, Salem Saberhagen, and your friends, Sabrina.

Sabrina Spellman: Yeah, and wait until we tell them of what I've done as a member of the team.

Lincoln: Plus, you'll also show them how much you've changed after joining the team, Sabrina.

We arrive at Sabrina's house, and it was a nice home. We rang the doorbell on the door, and as soon as it opened, we saw a 16-year-old girl with a red blouse, long strawberry blonde hair, blue eyes, glasses, a necklace with a star pendant, and blue bell-bottom jeans.

It was Zelda Spellman, one of Sabrina's aunts. As soon as she saw Sabrina, she was in shock.

Zelda Spellman: Sabrina, is that you?

Sabrina Spellman: Yeah, Aunt Zelda, it's me.

Sabrina and Aunt Zelda hugged.

Zelda Spellman: Oh, man, we've been looking all over for you after what happened.

Sabrina Spellman: Don't worry, Aunt Zelda, I'm okay, and I've got a surprise for you.

Sabrina stood to the side, and when she saw us, she was stunned and surprised to see us here.

Zelda Spellman: Oh my, Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Me: That's right, Zelda, it's a pleasure to meet you. May we come inside?

Zelda Spellman: Yes, please come in, and Lincoln, watch your head when you come in.

We came inside, and we were amazed by the décor of the house.

Lincoln: Wow, this is a really nice house, Ms. Spellman.

Zelda Spellman: Thanks, Lincoln, but you don't have to be formal, just call me Zelda.

Sabrina Spellman: So, where's Aunt Hilda and Salem?

Zelda Spellman: They're still upstairs, let me call them down. Hilda, Salem, come down here, I've got a surprise for you.

We saw two figures come down, the first was another 16-year-old girl, but she had on a strapless eggplant purple minidress, olive skin, necklace with a crescent moon pendant, and lavender eyes. She was Zelda's little sister, Hilda, and the other figure was a black cat with a gold collar on his neck and a red jewel for the collar tag, and was wearing a red robe with a black fur collar. The cat was Salem Saberhagen, who was turned into a cat as punishment by The Witches' Council.

Hilda Spellman: What is it, Zelda? I was in the middle of blow-drying my hair.

Salem Saberhagen: And I was busy taking a cat-nap.

Zelda Spellman: Look who's finally here.

Zelda stood to the side, and as soon as Hilda and Salem saw Sabrina, they went wide-eyed.

Hilda Spellman: It… it's Sabrina!

Salem Saberhagen: My eyes aren't lying, it really is her!

Hilda Spellman and Salem Saberhagen came down, and they hugged Sabrina.

Hilda Spellman: Oh, Sabrina, we're so glad you're okay.

Sabrina Spellman: I'm okay, Aunt Hilda.

Salem Saberhagen: We were so worried about you after that little portal incident, we were worried we'd never see you again.

Sabrina Spellman: Don't worry, Salem, I'm okay, and look who I brought here with me.

Sabrina stood out of the way, and when Hilda Spellman and Salem Saberhagen saw us, they went wide-eyed crazy.

Hilda Spellman and Salem Saberhagen: No way, Team Loud Phoenix Storm?!

Me: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you and Salem Saberhagen, Hilda Spellman.

Hilda Spellman: You too, J.D.

They eventually saw the girls who were in my harem and Lincoln's harem, and they were stunned, including Salem Saberhagen.

Salem Saberhagen: Well, look at you two knights-in-shining-armor, rescuing damsels in distress from McWolf.

Lincoln: That's what it looks like, Salem, and many of them are pretty good fighters.

Lori: He's right, and they've literally helped out in missions, and when not on mission, we hang out with them, and they've even went out on dates with J.D. and Lincoln.

We then head into the living room, and when we told them how Sabrina Spellman has changed ever since joining the team, they were stunned.

Zelda Spellman: That's incredible, and Sabrina has learned a lot when she joined you guys, after you rescued her in Columbia.

Sabrina Spellman: And I've got another surprise.

Sabrina Spellman showed her aunts her Moth Miraculous, Nooroo, and she had transformed into her Miraculous form, Undermoth.

Me: Sabrina now has Nooroo as her Miraculous, and Gabriel Agreste taught her everything he knows.

Lincoln: And combine that with the magic we've learned from reading all the spellbooks in our vast library and in Equestria's library, and Sabrina has become a force for good to be reckoned with.

Zelda Spellman: That's incredible.

We then invited Sabrina's aunts, her friend Chloe Flan, and Harvey Kinkle over to join the team, and they were going to enjoy being members of the team.

Back in the estate, we were on the computer. We were looking at funny pictures on the internet.

Me: Hey, check this out!

I pulled up a picture of Lincoln with all of his sisters trapped in his stomach!

Lincoln: (VOMITS) YUCK! THAT'S FUCKING GROSS!

Lily: DID I POOP INSIDE LINCOLN!? (VOMITS)

Lori: NOOOOOOOOOOOOO!

Lori falcon punched the computer screen!

Ralph: Hey! Only I get to wreck things around here!

Leni: That was totes gross!

Lana: I like filthy stuff but even this was too much for me.

Lola: I don't know about you guys, but I thought it was cute.

Lisa: Gadzooks! Lincoln's belly was large enough to hold us!

Lucy: A perfect hiding place.

Luan: Now that was Intestin-ing! (laughs) Get it?

Vanellope: I don't get it.

Luna: Lame joke Lunes.

Me: No problem, I can fix the computer.

I snapped my fingers, and the computer is immediately fixed.

Fix-it Felix Jr.: That's even more effective than my hammer!

We all laughed!

Later I came back from my room.

Nico: I'm off to the Aligned Universe again.

Me: Okay have fun.

May: See ya soon.

Nico went through the portal to the Aligned Transformers Universe.

Nico arrived in the world of the Aligned Transformers.

Aligned Bumblebee: Hey, Nico. How are things lately?

Nico: Busy as ever but it's finally our day off after so many adventures.

Aligned Bulkhead: That's good.

Nico told them about what happened with me and the Kisenian Blossom.

Miko: You're kidding. J.D. nearly lost it against the Kisenian Blossom?!

Nico: Don't worry. He kept his anger under control.

This didn't satisfy Miko at all.

Miko: That's it! Time I did something about J.D.'s self righteous attitude! Raf, get the camera!

Jack Darby: (facepalms) Oh, scrap. I hope Miko doesn't do anything rash.

Nico: Oh boy.

Miko: (to the camera) I know you can hear me, J.D. You think you can get away with treating Nico like shit?! Well, how about you and I throw down right now?! Let's go, J.D.! I can kick your butt! Anytime! Anywhere!

Nico: You should not have done that.

Aligned Bumblebee: Oh no.

Agent Fowler: Miko, I don't think saying all that was wise.

Aligned Bulkhead: Fowler's right. What if J.D. sees what you said?

Miko: I'm sure J.D. has better things to do than watching YouTube videos.

Nico: I agree. I better get back and see if he doesn't do anything he will regret.

Nico went back.

Aligned Smokescreen: I personally wouldn't mind seeing JD get his butt handed to him.

The Bee team glared at him.

Aligned Smokescreen: What? What?

Aligned Bumblebee: Look, if J.D. does come here to confront Miko, let's not be too hard on him. After all, he's still like a brother to Nico.

Aligned Bulkhead: Yeah.

Back in our universe, I was watching TV.

Laney: J.D. you got to see this.

Laney showed me the YouTube video on her tablet.

Miko: (to the camera) I know you can hear me, J.D. You think you can get away with treating Nico like shit?! Well, how about you and I throw down right now?! Let's go, J.D.! I can kick your butt! Anytime! Anywhere!

But I wasn't in the least bit intimidated by her challenge.

Me: She's not worth my time. Besides her threat is one empty word after another.

Laney: But aren't you worried about her threat?

Me: Nah. She knows that Nico was doing his job.

Nico came back and he saw me being shown the video by Laney.

Nico: (looks to see if anyone else is around) J.D., Miko posted another video. I just hope you don't freak out badly about it or think bad thoughts about her.

Me: Nah. She's not worth my time. Besides she doesn't know how powerful I am. I can take her head off with just a simple flick of my fingers. I'm not intimidated by her.

Nico: Good.

William and everyone that knew about Nico going to the Aligned Transformers Universe were shown the video.

William: You're seriously not considering on visiting the Aligned Autobots early before everyone else? I mean, Miko's not a bad person. She's just concerned that you're not treating Nico like a teammate and friend.

Me: Nah. I'm not intimidated by her challenge.

Nico: That's a relief.

Me: Yep.

May: So far, Laney and the others still think that Miko and the Aligned Autobots live on this world.

Maria: Which is good. If they find out the truth, they might confront Nico angrily about it.

Me: Yeah and we'll be ready for them.

Laney: Yep.

Later at Lynn's Table, we were having a great lunch and more.

Lynn Sr.'s new employee Mitch McDougall came in. You may think that Mitch is a nice guy. But think again. He is as MISERABLE as they come. He is not called the most miserable person in Gotham Royal York just for show. He is Mr. Grouse's best friend and he ABSOLUTELY HATE'S EVERYONE AND ABSOLUTELY LOATHES THE LOUD'S! He is IN EVERY WAY like Squidward was in Bikini Bottom. No one appreciates him, no one accepts his art, cooking, talents, nothing. He is a gloomy guy all the way.

Mitch came in.

Mitch: Pardon me!

Scooter: Whoa! Slow down, Speedster! [laughs]

Mitch: Go jump off a cliff you dirtbag!

He bumps into Lynn Sr.

Lynn Sr.: Mitch McDougall, how many times do I have to tell you? The customers' jokes are always funny! Now, give the gentlemen a chuckle.

Mitch: (Nonchalantly) Ha ha ha.

Scooter: I knew you would eventually get it, dude. [laughs.]

Mitch: Stop staring, Lincoln. You're affecting my productivity.

Lincoln: I'm not even looking at you.

Mitch: (Whispers) Oh boy.

Sandals: I would like to order one Ultimeatum

Mitch: That'll be five dollars.

Sandals: [with many pennies] Do you accept pennies?

Mitch: I don't have time to count all that!

Sandals: Oh, well, have it your way. I'll just take my loose change elsewhere!

Mitch: Oh, please do, I'm trying to get some work done here. Sheesh, some people just want to waste your time.

Me: I'll count those for you Sandals.

Sandals: Thanks J.D.

I counted them and he had $7.00 in pennies.

Me: You have $7.12 in pennies.

Sandals: Thanks J.D.

Me: You're welcome.

He got his burger.

Mitch: [Fred is tapping his feet] Hey, buddy! How am I supposed to focus with all of that incessant tapping? And what do you think you're doing, sir?

Nat: I'm holding the door for the nice lady.

Mitch: No, you're not. You're leaving your grubby finger prints all over the glass! And now yours truly is gonna have to clean it up! Why does everyone insist on making my job so difficult?! [to Dale] You always leave trash on the table! [to Mabel] Your teeth chatter! [to orange fish with a hat] Your hat annoys me! [to blue fish] You take too long in the restroom!

Me: Does that look familiar to you Squidward?

Squidward: It sure does. I got to talk some sense into him.

We went up to Mitch.

Mitch: What do you want?

Squidward: (to Mitch) Let me guess. You hate your job, and you think you live in a dead end town with neighbors you can't stand. And you think you're the most miserable person in Gotham Royal York. Am I right?

Mitch: Yeah. How do you know?

Squidward: I've been where you are. So, my advice? Stop complaining while you still can. Otherwise, things will only get worse for you.

Mitch: How can life in Gotham Royal York POSSIBLY get any worse!?

But then we felt a huge rumbling!

Natt: MOUNT ROYAL WOODS IS ERUPTING!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

We saw a volcano just on the outskirts of the city erupt right in front of our eyes!

Me: OH NO!

Lily: NOT GOOD!

Squidward: (to Mitch) See what I mean?

Me: EVERYONE HEAD TO OUR ESTATE!

We ran fast and went to the estate for shelter!

Mayor Davis was speaking in our auditorium.

Mayor Davis: No need to get excited, citizens. The government is working tirelessly to defeat this evil volcano.

Me: Madam Mayor if I may, Lily has something to tell you.

Mayor Davis: What is it?

Lily: I dealt with a volcano like this before and it was crazy.

Mayor Davis: Do you know how we can stop it?

Lily: I actually forgot. But HE might know.

We saw a warrior from a long lost tribe!

Mayor Davis: Who are you?

We saw him come up to the stage.

Volcano Warrior: [laughing] I am an ancient warrior from long ago. The last of my kind who ruled over this part of the land from before the dawn of time. But, alas, my people were wiped out by the same volcano that plagues you now.

Me: I'm sorry that happened to you.

Harold: Then how did you survive?

Volcano Warrior: [laughs] I survived, because I was the only one who knew how to stop it!

Harold: Well, don't keep us in suspense. How did you stop it?

Volcano Warrior: You must make… a sacrifice!

[everyone gasps]

Harold: What kind of sacrifice?

Volcano Warrior: A sacrifice must be made of the most miserable person.

Harold: I knew it! We have to sacrifice the most miserable person!

Monica: And who would that be?

Harold: Well, it certainly isn't me! [The crowd of citizens argues, pointing at each other. We look at Lola, Mitch, and Lynn Sr., as the citizens continue pointing at each other.]

Me: Squidward are you getting a strong sense of déjà-vu?

Squidward: I sure am.

Lola: Hey, Mitch, who do you think is the most miserable person?

Mitch: Don't know, don't care. [walks away]

Lincoln: But, Mitch, it's imperative that we…

Mitch: [imitating Lincoln] But, Mitch, it is imperative that we… [regular voice] Nothing! I think I'd rather take my chances with the volcano than be stuck in this miserable hell hole with you [the citizens who continue arguing hear Mitch talking] and the citizens of Dumb-Dumb Fuckfignewton Town!

Man: Oh, oh, we're idiots now! Oh, nice! Nice!

Woman: I'm a solitary smart woman.

Squidward: Hang on. Let's not get too carried away. How about we make a copy of Mitch's house that we give to the volcano?

Me: Good idea!

Lily: Leave this to me!

Man 1: [The mob of citizens angrily carrying Mitch marches to the volcano.] Miserable Mitch! Oh, you are miserable!

Mitch: You idiots! You've got the wrong guy!

Dale: We heard you complaining about the fingerprints.

Nat: And the foot tapping.

Sandals: And my loose change.

Mabel: And my teeth! [points to the man from earlier with a hat] And his hat!

Scooter: And you called your pipe stupid.

Lloyd: And the fact that you said you were the most miserable person in Gotham Royal York! [plays tape recorder]

Mitch: [on the tape recorder] I'm the most miserable person in Gotham Royal York! Oh, would you just… [grumbles] Let me down, you goons!

Mayor Davis: Sorry, Mr. McDougall. Throw him in, fellas.

Mitch: No!

Lily: Put him down!

Lily fired a massive wave of water and threw a copy into the volcano and plugging it up like a cork!

Volcano Warrior: Ah, now the volcano is appeased!

Mitch: But I thought you said a sacrifice had to be made of the most miserable person.

Volcano Warrior: [chuckles] No! You didn't let me finish. I was trying to say, a sacrifice of the most miserable person's house. No one ever listens to me. [laughs as he flies away on his scepter]

Mitch: You know what? I take back what I said before. I lied to you all. I am not grateful for anything!

Squidward: ARE YOU FUCKING KIDDING ME?! YOU SHOULD BE GRATEFUL THAT YOU STILL HAVE A HOUSE! MAKING THAT COPY WAS ALSO MY IDEA!

Eddy: (aims blaster at Mitch) Say the word, J.D., and I waste this prick!

Me: No guys! Stand down.

I went up to Mitch.

Me: Mitch, you are miserable because you don't get the respect you crave.

Eli: That's right. True respect comes from the heart.

Squidward: Mitch listen. Like you I once thought like you. I hated my neighbor SpongeBob because I thought he was a total nuisance. But he and Patrick are the best friends I've had. Also no one liked me because of my bad clarinet playing, my art or my dreams and I worked at the Krusty Krab and I absolutely hated my job. My former boss Mr. Krabs was a total tightwad and didn't give me any money to support my life. He made my life miserable just like what happened to you. No one accepted my talents in art, cooking, music, theater, dancing, anything. So please Mitch, don't make the same mistakes that I once did. Or you will go into the Warp like me.

We told him everything that happened with Squidward and how he went down a path of darkness because of his misery and all that and he was shocked.

Mitch realized what a fool he was. The last thing we want would be another incident with Rotwood, Frown, Morton and Squidward.

* * *

Later back at the estate, we were getting ready.

Maria: By the way, J.D.? It's your turn to lead today. Not that it really matters since it's our day off.

Me: I know. And this is gonna be a good one.

Zombina: I can't wait for my archenemy in the usual battles today!

Nico: There's not gonna be ANY usual battles today. It's our day off.

Me: And we just got a call from Rainbow Dash. We're going with her and her friends all to Hope Hollow for the Rainbow Festival.

Eli: Ooh this is gonna be cool to see.

Arrietty: It sure is Eli.

Nunnally: I'm looking forward to this.

The Masters of Evil all appeared.

Vypra: Can we go too?

Me: You all sure can. After a long amount of awesome adventures we all need a break. Lets head to Ponyville and meet up with Twilight and everyone.

We were off to Ponyville.

* * *

We arrived in Ponyville and it was a great day

Me: Looks like everyone is having fun.

Pinkie Pie : [singsongy] Road trip! [normal] Okay, not technically a road trip, because we're taking that.

We were gonna be taking the S.S. Harmony.

Pinkie Pie: Uh-huh. Whoa!

Rainbow Dash flew fast and spun Pinkie Pie around.

Rainbow Dash : Beat ya to the ship!

Pinkie Pie : Nope! I'm gonna beat you!

Me: OH YOU GUYS ARE ON!

We ran fast!

[zip!] [zip!]

Pinkie Pie : [humming]

Rainbow Dash : [laughs]

Pinkie Pie : Whoa!

[both grunting]

We were running fast to the ship.

Pinkie Pie : I'm gonna beat you!

Rainbow Dash : No, I'm gonna- [gasps]

Pinkie Pie : Eep!

Applejack : Howdy.

Pinkie Pie and Rainbow Dash : [grunting]

They rolled and landed by the ship.

I was already by the ship.

Rainbow Dash : [panting] Okay, I was fourth.

Pinkie Pie : Yeah? Well, I was fifth! [giggles]

Rainbow Dash : That's not even-!

Pinkie Pie : Aw, yeah!

Rainbow Dash : But I beat you!

Applejack : Y'all are both still late! We gotta shove off soon, or we'll miss the tailwind.

Fluttershy : Don't worry. We wouldn't have left without you.

Sunset Shimmer: No we wouldn't. But thanks for holding the ship for us.

Rarity : Well, that goes without saying, darling. After all, Rainbow Dash is the guest of honor at the Rainbow Festival.

[whoosh!]

Rainbow Dash : Ha-ha!

Me: What's the Rainbow Festival?

Nico: No idea.

Fluttershy : Has anypony seen Twilight? It's not like her to be late for an adventure.

Starlight Glimmer: I'm sure she is coming.

Twilight Sparkle : I'm coming, I'm coming! [panting]

Spike : [grunting]

Twilight Sparkle : [panting] Sorry. I just had to pack up a few books and papers to grade.

Me: Oh that's okay Twilight.

Spike : [straining] And by "few", she means "slightly less than I'm able to lift"! [grunts]

Rainbow Dash : Wait. You're bringing work to a festival ?

Me: Here Twilight, allow me.

I opened the door and we put our bags in the ship.

Pinkie Pie : Yeah! It's supposed to be a nonstop fun-o-rama party!

Rest of the Mane Nine : Yeah!

Trixie: The Great and Powerful Trixie is gonna make a grand entrance.

Twilight Sparkle : Grading papers is fun. It's relaxing and rewarding and-

Applejack : Too much to talk about right now.

Rainbow Dash : Miss us!

Pinkie Pie : Bye-bye!

Twilight Sparkle : Keep an eye on things!

Spike : See ya! And remember, whatever happens at the Rainbow Festival, I wanna hear all about it when you get back!

Me: No problem Spike. See ya soon!

Nico: Yeah!

[birds chirping]

Me: Here we go guys. We're off to the Rainbow Festival.

We were having drinks.

Rarity : Did somepony mention something about a spa in… where is it we're going again?

Rainbow Dash : Hope Hollow. Or, as I like to call it… [whoosh] "Rainbow Dash Fan Central"!

Me: That's interesting.

Applejack : Ugh. You're gonna be like this the whole trip, ain't ya?

Rainbow Dash : You know it! I mean, look at this letter! They love me there!

I looked at it with Twilight.

Twilight Sparkle : [reading] "Dear Rainbow Dash, thank you for agreeing to be our guest at this year's famous Hope Hollow Rainbow Festival. The many members of your fan club…"

Rainbow Dash : [clears throat]

Me: Wow! This is gonna be awesome to see.

Varie: It sure is.

Sea: I can't wait to see what this place is like.

Applejack : [sighs]

Twilight Sparkle : [continues reading] "… are looking forward to your visit. You and your friends will be staying at our famous luxury Rainbow Resort and Spa, where your every whim will be catered to."

Me: COOL!

Rarity : Oh, I accept that challenge. I have so many whims.

Lincoln: Rarity you are always gonna be beautiful no matter what people say.

Rarity: Oh thank you darling.

Fluttershy : Oh, look. There's a famous butterfly garden, too.

Laney: Ooh! That sounds like something I would like.

Arrietty: Me too.

Twilight Sparkle : Hmm. Y'know, it's strange that we never heard of this festival before, especially since everything in the town is so well-known.

Me: We've never been to either Hope Hollow or have heard of this festival before either. This is gonna be a first for all of us.

Aylene C.: It sure will.

Rainbow Dash : [reading] "At this year's festival, you can eat treats at the traditional Rainbow Bakery Booth, sing your favorite rainbow-themed songs at the karaoke competition…"

Pinkie Pie : Bakery and karaoke?! It's like they see into my soul!

Applejack : [reading] "… and try our famous rainbow trout catch-and-release activity." Huh. Now that sounds right up my river.

Me: Me too. Me and my dad would go fishing a lot.

Pinkie Pie : Plus, we get to watch the mayor give Rainbow Dash an award! I call dibs on the cheering section! [squeals] [party cannon]

Rarity : An award for what, exactly?

Rainbow Dash : I 'unno. Showing up? General coolness? [laughs] All of the above?

Twilight Sparkle : Well, we're so glad you invited us along.

Me: Same here R.D. This is gonna be really awesome.

Pinkie Pie : Yeah! It's gonna be one long party, which starts… now!

A hundred bottles of pop on the wall

A hundred bottles of pop

[Mane Six]

Take one down, pass it around

Ninety-nine bottles of pop on the wall

Ninety-nine bottles of pop on the wall

Ninety-nine bottles of pop… [fades out]

[Pinkie Pie]

Two bottles of pop on the wall

Two bottles of pop

Take it down, pass it around

One bottle of pop on the wall

And a-one more time!

A hundred bottles of pop on the wall

[muffled speaking] Six times too many?

Me: Obviously. Also Popeye and Bluto haven't stopped fighting since the ship started.

Rainbow Dash : Ugh. Shouldn't we be there by now?

Applejack : Huh. I thought so, too. Maybe we should've turned left at that last cloud instead o' right.

Fluttershy : Ooh, it's getting darker by the minute.

Me: It sure is.

Princess Luna: I think it's great.

Rarity : I can't see anything!

Lincoln pulled off her mask.

Rarity: Oh.

Pinkie Pie : I spy with my little eye… a rainbow!

Rainbow Dash : Great. We're playing that game now?

Pinkie Pie : No, I really do spy a rainbow!

We saw a giant rainbow arch!

Mane Six : [awed reactions]

Twilight Sparkle : Wow! That's the biggest rainbow I've ever seen.

Me: Almost looks like the real thing.

Varie: It sure does.

Rarity : [panicked] And we're headed right for it!

Jared: I think we're here guys. Let me land.

We landed the ship on the outside of a town and we got out

Fluttershy : Where… are we?

We went up to a sign

Pinkie Pie : Uh-huh! [reading sign] "Welcome to Hope Hollow: Home of the Famous Rainbow Festival"!

Me: We're here guys.

Rarity : We've arrived, and there's nopony here to greet us?

Me: That's odd.

Fluttershy : Rainbow Dash, did your letter say where our hotel is?

Rainbow Dash : Uh… [reading] "The middle of town".

Me: That's not very helpful.

Twilight Sparkle : Hmm… Doesn't really help much when you don't know where the middle is. Let's start looking.

Me: Right.

We went into the town and it was really ominous. Like something out of a creepy horror movie.

Me: Where is everybody?

Nico: No idea. This is too weird.

[music] [spooky music] [sign creaking]

Applejack : Huh. Funny. You'd think a big luxury resort would be sorta, well… easier to spot.

Me: Yeah just what I was thinking.

Pinkie Pie : Yeah! It seems like the whole town's shut down.

Me: Must be for the night probably. After everyone is probably asleep by now.

Fluttershy : Oh, look. There's somepony.

Twilight Sparkle : Hmmm.

We went over to her.

Twilight Sparkle: Hello!

Petunia Petals : [gasps] Oh.

Twilight Sparkle : Maybe you can help us. We're here for the Rainbow Festival.

Petunia Petals : [Minnesota accent] Oh, uh, "Rainbow Festival"?

Rainbow Dash : Yeah, you know, the one where I'm the guest of honor? [laughs] Yeah!

Petunia Petals : Oh, for cryin' in the mud, what's Sunny done now?

Applejack : Excuse me?

Petunia Petals : I mean, um, you'd best talk to Mayor Skies about that.

Twilight Sparkle : Great! And where would we find him?

Petunia Petals : City hall. Uh, but it's closed 'til tomorrow, don'tcha know? Is there somethin' I can help ya with?

Rarity : Uh, yes, please. Could you direct us to the Hope Hollow Luxury Resort?

Me: Yeah we are here for the Rainbow Festival. Sorry we are Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Petunia Petals: (Gasp) It's an honor to meet the great heroes of Equestria, don'tcha know? [giggles]

Me: Same here. Do you know where the Luxury Resort is?

Petunia Petals: Oh! Oh, you mean the hotel?

Mane Six : Mm-hmm.

Petunia Petals : That's easy. There's only one in town.

Applejack : Could you, uh, give us directions?

Petunia Petals : No need. You're there.

Me: Oh we're already here? That was easy.

[doors open]

Petunia Petals : I mean here!

We went in and it was amazing.

[lights click]

Petunia Petals : Hotel Hope, also known as the Town Information Center and Library! My name's Petunia Petals, by the way.

Helloooo!

Me: Pleasure to meet you Petunia.

[zip!]

Petunia Petals : I'm the librarian here and the information guide…

[ding!]

Petunia Petals :… and the hotel manager, historian, chef, portrait painter-

Rainbow Dash : Um, I'm Rainbow Dash, and this is everypony.

Rarity and Pinkie Pie : Hello.

Applejack : Howdy.

Me: Wow and I thought you were really busy all the time Bobby.

Bobby Santiago: I know amigo.

Petunia Petals : Well, hello, everypony! You just wait one hoofshake, and I'll take ya to the room.

Rarity : The room?

Petunia Petals : There's only one. Makes it easier to find! [chuckles]

Me: Well we'll have to think of something for it.

[music]

We went up the stairs to the room.

Petunia Petals : Here it is! The Royal Suite!

[door opens]

Mane Six : [gasp]

[lights flickering]

The room was a total dump.

Rarity : [gasping dramatically] How rustic and charming.

Petunia Petals : Isn't it just?

Rainbow Dash : I couldn't help noticing there are only three beds.

[thud]

One of the beds broke.

Rainbow Dash : Okay, four.

Petunia Petals : Oh, there's a pop-out, too! [grunts] It can be a little tricky.

[thud]

The pop-out bed came down.

Timon: Boy talk about your fixer-upper.

Petunia Petals : There she is. Sleeps two. You'll be all fresh and ready to see the mayor in the mornin'.

[door opens]

Me: Thanks Petunia.

Petunia Petals : Sleep tight.

[door closes]

[shatter]

Twilight Sparkle : Did anypony notice anything strange about Petunia?

Me: Yeah I noticed. Man this place could really use a tune-up.

Rarity : Other than that she just called this place "the Royal Suite"?

Applejack : Hard to tell in this light, but she looked a little gray, didn't she?

Me: Yeah. That is strange.

Rarity : Probably from all the dust up here. [blows, coughs]

Pinkie Pie : Aw, this room's not so bad. All it needs is some balloons, streamers… [humming] And… a piñata! Good thing I brought some!

Me: Never leave home without your party stuff.

Fluttershy : Huh? And look. It comes with a cute little spider. Hello, spider.

[spider squeaks]

Fluttershy : Awww.

Me: Cute little fella.

Rainbow Dash : [groans] Sorry, everypony. I didn't know what I was getting you into.

Twilight Sparkle : Aw. The most important thing is we're all together.

Me: That's right R.D.

Applejack : Yeah. As long as we have beds to sleep in, we're set.

[fwip!]

Applejack : Whoa! Ugh.

[music]

Lana: Leave that to me guys.

Lana got her tools and fixed up the whole room and made it better than ever.

Me: WHOA! Nice job Lana.

Nico: Thanks. Now it's perfect.

Later the next day we got to exploring the town and came out.

Twilight Sparkle : Well… [yawns]… it wasn't the worst night of sleep ever.

Rarity : But definitely in the top three… or would that be the bottom three?

Me: No idea. But I slept alright. Good thing we all brought our sleeping bags for just such an occasion.

[ponies murmuring]

Fluttershy : Why is everypony looking at us?

Me: I don't know. But I know those talks all too well.

Naruto: Same here.

Applejack : Maybe they recognize Rainbow Dash.

Rainbow Dash : Or Princess Twilight. But probably me.

Me: Maybe us too. But I don't know.

Rarity : No. I think they're staring because we're the only part of this town that isn't… gray.

Pinkie Pie : Whadaya mean?

Rarity : Look around. All the colors here are gone!

Me: Weird! What happened to all of the color!?

Deadpool: Where's all the color? Did we go over the budget for the story?

Eddy: Dude, this is Fanfiction. J.D.'s not making money off of any of this.

Jamesdean5842: Yeah I'm not doing this for money. It's all about fun!

Deadpool: Oh.

Me: Nice move there author me.

Jamesdean5842: Thank you.

Yumi: This is Hope Hollow? More like No Hope Hollow?

Me: Yeah what happened to all the color? Everything is all black and white.

Eli: This is too weird.

Laney: Yeah.

Celica: It's like all the color just vanished.

Bubbles: This is like what happened when Rainbow the Clown turned into Mr. Mime.

Me: Oh man! I've heard about that.

Varie: Is Mr. Mime here?

I pulled up my villain radar and it showed he was not present.

Me: Nope. Nothing. No villains in the area.

Nico: Is it the work of a Dark Orb?

I switched to my Dark Orb Radar and there was nothing around the area.

Me: Nope. Nothing. No dark orbs either.

Twilight Sparkle : That's so strange. It's just like I noticed about Petunia last night. Everything's mostly gray.

Me: Weird.

Petunia Petals : Oh! Hellooo!

Me: Hello Petunia.

Applejack : Except the stuff that's grayer.

Me: Yeah.

Fluttershy : Oh, my. I knew something was different, but-

Rainbow Dash : This is so weird!

Man Pony : Huh?

Rarity : And the way they're gawking at us, it appears they think we're the odd ones.

Naruto: I know that feeling.

Fu: Me too.

Fluttershy : Maybe they don't even notice. It might be rude to mention it.

Twilight Sparkle : I wonder what caused this.

Me: Hmm. We'll have to find out somehow.

Applejack : We can ask the mayor.

Rainbow Dash : Yeah, if we ever find him.

Me: Lets get to looking.

[ponies whispering]

Two Twin Ponies named Barley and Pickle Barrel were flying.

Barley Barrel and Pickle Barrel : [grunting]

Barley Barrel : Quit shoving!

Pickle Barrel : Shoving? These are pro-level moves I'm doing, sis.

Yeah- Ohhh!

Barley Barrel : C'mon! Let go!

Barley Barrel and Pickle Barrel : [gasp, grunt, gasp again]

I caught them.

Me: Whoa! Are you two okay?

[angelic choir]

Barley Barrel and Pickle Barrel : [whispering indistinctly]

Mrs. Hoofington : [upper-class accent] Don't pout, dear. It'll wrinkle your withers.

Mr. Hoofington : [upper-class accent] I'm not pouting, sweetums, but I am hurt by your comment. I thought the pie I baked was quite tasty.

Mrs Hoofington : I didn't say it wasn't.

Mr. Hoofington : You didn't say it was .

Mr. and Mrs. Hoofington : Oh!

Moody Root : Watch where you're goin'! You don't own the sidewalk, ya know?!

Mr. Hoofington : Well, I never!

Me: Sheesh someone got up on the wrong side of the bed this morning.

Mrs. Hoofington : Ugh.

Mr. Hoofington : Huh?

Mr. and Mrs. Hoofington : Oh!

Mane Six : Huh?

Me: Geez it's like they haven't seen people like us before.

[crane cranking]

Applejack : Well, look at that. Somepony's adding more to our ship.

Me: We appreciate that.

Mayor Sunny Skies : [Minnesota accent] Oh, goodness. This is unfortunate. Bad with a side of terribly awful. [to Mane 9] Excuse me. Sorry.

Mane 9 : [angry reactions]

Mayor Sunny Skies : [sighs] Eh? Ohhh! [laughs] Well, stuff me in an olive and call me a pimento! It's the Rainbow Dash! Ya made it! Uh, it is.. you, isn't it?

Rainbow Dash : Pretty sure, yeah.

Me: That's her.

Mayor Sunny Skies : Oh, thank Celestia! I saw the ship, thought the worst, and… Well, you're here, all o' ya! Welcome to the Hope Hollow Annual Rainbow Festival!

Me: Glad to be here.

Mayor Sunny Skies : I'm Sunny Skies, the mayor o' this lovely town, and pleased as a poplar tree to meetcha!

Firefly grabbed him.

Firefly: (to the mayor) You've got some nerve making false advertising about this place!

Mayor Sunny Skies: I can explain!

Me: Garfield drop him!

He did so.

Me: Sorry about that Mayor Sunny Skies. We should introduce ourselves first. We are Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Mayor Sunny Skies: Oh wow! The great heroes of all of Equestria!

Me: That's right and these are our frenemies in The Masters of Evil.

Vypra: Hello there.

Mayor Sunny Skies: It's an honor to meet you all.

Me: Same here. We've come here all the way from Gotham Royal York to see the Rainbow Festival.

Mayor Sunny Skies : Oh, don't give it a second thought. Also we're gonna add to your ship for you if you don't mind. Torque here will help you out.

Me: Oh thank you Mayor.

Torque Wrench : He volunteered me.

Mayor Sunny Skies : She'll have it upgraded in a jiffy.

Torque Wrench : If, by "jiffy", ya mean "this will take all day".

[torch flame]

Mayor Sunny Skies : Sooo ya got in last night. I wish I'd known. I would've been here to greetcha. Uh, where'd y'all stay?

Rarity : At the "Luxury Hotel".

Applejack : Petunia Petals let us in.

Me: Yeah she gave us the Royal Suite.

Mayor Sunny Skies : Oh, well, of course she did. She's somethin', I'll tell you what. I'd be lost without her. I mean, uh, th-the town would be.

[beat]

Me: I can tell that you two have a special love for each other. No need to hide it. I have a habit of picking up on these things.

Nico: Same here.

Twilight Sparkle : Mayor, I hope you don't mind my asking, but is there a reason your town is… faded?

Me: Yeah this whole town is totally black and white.

Mayor Sunny Skies : Oh! Heh. Ya spotted that, did ya? Well, it's a… long story. Uh, why don't I show you the town highlights first?

ManeNine : [confused reactions]

Me: Sure thing.

[plop]

Mayor Sunny Skies : Here's our famous outdoor spa with the all-natural mud bath. Pretty, huh?

[plop]

Rarity : Ah! Ugh.

Me: Doesn't look like a good mud bath if you ask me.

Rarity: Indeed.

Twilight Sparkle : Maybe we could see some of the Rainbow Festival activities from the brochure.

Mayor Sunny Skies : O' course! The bakery booth is there…

Fluttershy : Huh?

Me: I don't see anything.

Twilight Sparkle : Hmm?

Mayor Sunny Skies : Or… will be. We're… still settin' up, but we gotta lotta great things planned.

Fluttershy : And… the butterfly garden?

Mayor Sunny Skies : Oh, that's right over here.

Twilight Sparkle and Applejack : Huh.

[paper falling]

We saw that the Butterfly Garden was grey and the butterflies were just drawings.

Mayor Sunny Skies : Oh, uh, lemme fix that.

Fluttershy : So none of the butterflies are actually…

Mayor Sunny Skies : Real? Oh, no. Uh, what with the flowers not havin' color and all, the butterflies don't really come around much anymore.

Applejack : I'm almost afraid to ask, but the brochure mentioned fishin'?

Mayor Sunny Skies : Fishin'? Oh, I'm not sure whatcha mean.

Twilight Sparkle : "Our famous rainbow trout"?

Me: Yeah.

Mayor Sunny Skies : Oh, yah, sure! Uh, well, uh, you don't fish for him exactly. You just kinda, uh, talk to him. Uh, he's right over, uh… [sighs] That's funny. Where'd our trout go?

Trout Pony : Oh, Mr. Mayor! Uh, just, uh, taking my lunch now, okay? [slurp!]

Me: Okay that is just sad.

Eli: Yeah it sure is.

Mayor Sunny Skies : [chuckles nervously]

Pinkie Pie : Um, so no big deal - well, actually, okay, yes, kind of a big deal - but the brochure also mentioned a karaoke contest? [blink, blink]

Mayor Sunny Skies : Right here!

[sign falls]

[thud]

[microphone feedback]

Mayor Sunny Skies : The trout doubles on harmonica.

Trout Pony : [toots harmonica]

Fluttershy : How… multitalented of him.

Pinkie Pie : Good thing I bring my own karaoke party!

With me wherever I go

Whoa, whoa-oh!

Mayor Sunny Skies : Well, uh… that's the big tour. [hums]

Twilight Sparkle : Mayor Skies.

Mayor Sunny Skies : Eh?

Twilight Sparkle : I don't understand. Your Rainbow Festival isn't quite as you described.

Me: Yeah what is going on?

Rainbow Dash : And the resort hotel wasn't what it was cracked up to be either.

Applejack : 'Cept for all the cracks.

Me: And we had Lana fix those.

Rarity : None of these things are as pictured in your brochure.

Mayor Sunny Skies : Well, maybe I exaggerated a little, but I-I'd intended on havin' everythin' ready. It's just kinda hard gettin' anypony excited about any thin' in this town anymore! Ugh. I didn't think ya'd come if ya knew the truth.

Twilight Sparkle : The truth?

Me: What truth?

Mayor Sunny Skies : Oh… There is no Rainbow Festival!

We gasped!

Mane Six : [gasp]

Applejack : No Rainbow Festival?!

Rainbow Dash : No fan club?!

Mayor Sunny Skies : Believe me, I didn't mean to-

Rainbow Dash : Bring us here for nothing?!

Twilight Sparkle : Think of all the papers I could be grading!

Mayor Sunny Skies : If ya just let me-

Rarity : We should just leave this very moment!

Me: Guys calm down! There has to be an explanation.

Fluttershy : Maybe we should let the mayor explain.

Mayor Sunny Skies : [clears throat] Uh, guess I should start at the beginnin'. A long time ago, when my Grandpa Skies was mayor, Hope Hollow was different. They used to call this town "The End of the Rainbow", 'cause everything you'd ever want, you could find right here.

[Mayor Sunny Skies]

Next door neighbors chatting over white-wood fences

Stoppin' on the street to say hello

When friends did well, we sang their praises

Brought soup to comfort them when they felt low

That was our town at the end of the rainbow

(Before the town was all grey and depressing everyone was so full of color and happiness and it was beautiful and an awesome place to call home and a great tourist spot)

No pots of gold or buried treasure

Just everypony looking after each other

The truest riches cannot be measured

It was a lesson that had kept us together

In our town at the end of the rainbow

(Friendship was absolutely abundant and all over the place.)

To honor our fine town, my Grandpa Skies decided

To throw a party each and every year

They planned for weeks, cooked for days, celebrated fifty ways

So everypony would gather here

In our town at the end of the rainbow

(A party was held every year for a special occasion)

Grandpa made a gizmo called the Rainbow Generator

To paint the sky with lots of colors shining bold and bright

To remind us all together we are greater

And darkness never wins against the coming of the light

Grandpa passed it on to Dad, then it was my turn

To make the pretty rainbows in the sky

It filled my heart with pride to see our whole town gathered gratefully

Where we were sure there would never be

An end to the rainbow

(His great grandpa made an awesome machine called the Rainbow Generator and it filled the skies with the beauty of the lights of the rainbow and made everyone so happy)

Then fences went up, we lost track of our neighbors

Each year passing, dimming spirits all around

The happy days came to an end

Nopony had time to spend together in the town

I thought I knew exactly what the festival needed

A bigger, better rainbow would surely make them see it

But the extra magic was too much for the Rainbow Generator

And I'm the one who brought the rainbow to an end

That's how our town, our little pony town

That's how our town saw the end of the rainbow

(The town was starting to lose friends and he fixed up the generator. But then something went wrong and the town lost all its color! And because of that the whole town fell into disrepair and gloominess.)

Pinkie Pie : [bawls] That is the saddest story-song I've ever heard!

Me: Oh man. That's terrible. I'm sorry this all happened to you.

Mayor Sunny Skies: I know this looks bad. But I didn't drain the color from this town!

Sheila: (puts handcuffs on him) If I were you, I'd keep your mouth shut until you talk to a lawyer!

Me: Sheila let him go. He hasn't doesn't any crime. Also let him explain himself. Besides from the looks of things this is also a friendship problem.

Nico looked up his portable map of friendship radar and it showed Hope Hollow and all of our cutie marks were orbiting around it.

Nico: He's right! All of us were called here to Hope Hollow.

Twilight Sparkle: Wow!

Starlight Glimmer: That is a huge coincidence.

Trixie: What are the odds of that all happening?

Me: Probably astronomical.

Apple Bloom: But it's really cool.

Sheila let him go.

Dark turned into Splitlife.

Splitlife: This isn't a problem. We just need to paint the town.

Splitlife got out some paint cans before duplicating himself.

Bubbles: And I'll use my crayons to color it!

Me: It's worth a shot.

May: Maybe it has something to do wih the mood of the citizens.

Twilight Sparkle: That's just what I was thinking May.

Eli: I have that same feeling too. The Force is telling me that this has something to do with their moods.

Me: It's worth a shot to figure out but lets get to work.

They went and colored it with rainbow paints and more.

But nothing was working.

Robo Blaze: Tronics, get some paint brushes and start painting!

They did so and got to painting.

Nico: Wow.

Snake: Well, dude. Does the town have its' color back or what?!

We saw the town still gray.

Me: Oh what is a good question. The paints and crayons didn't work. This must be a magic problem.

Mayor Sunny Skies : I tried for a long time to get everypony interested in the Festival again. To remember what it's like to come together as a community and share the fun. But nopony even bothered listenin'. That's why I wrote to you, Rainbow Dash. You were my last hope. I figured if a pony of your stature came to town, it would get everypony excited about puttin' on the Festival again. I mean, "Rainbow"'s even part o' your name!

Rainbow Dash : Mmm, yeah, I can see that.

Me: That is a really good reason to call her.

Twilight Sparkle : Mr. Mayor, what kind of magic did you use on the Rainbow Generator?

Me: That's what I would like to know.

Mayor Sunny Skies : Oh, I'm not sure. I didn't know what I was dealin' with. I only wanted to help. But instead, I sucked all the color outta the town. That billboard's one o' the only things that didn't change. To me, it's a reminder of what we can be. Keeps the "Hope" in "Hope Hollow".

Me: Well it looks like it's something more than that.

Twilight Sparkle : Hmmm. If I could find out the type of magic you used, I might be able to reverse the spell.

Me: We all can try.

Mayor Sunny Skies : Ya mean, you're gonna stay?

Mane Nine : [agreeing]

Me: We sure will.

Applejack : Heh. Nothin' we like better than a challenge, 'specially when it comes to helpin' ponies.

Mayor Sunny Skies : You don't know how clam-happy this all makes me! Thank you kindly!

Me: You're welcome Mayor. You have the help of the Great Heroes of Equestria to help you in your time of need.

Twilight Sparkle : We'll do whatever we can to bring back your Rainbow Festival.

Nico: And bring the color back to this town.

Mayor Sunny Skies : I won't fib to ya, it won't be easy. It's gotten so nopony even talks to each other anymore.

Twilight Sparkle : Mmm, it might be tough, but we have a little experience bringing ponies together.

Me: We sure do.

Pinkie Pie : Yay! This is exactly like planning a party! Only bigger, 'cause it's a festival! [giggles] Which means more cupcakes! Whoo-hoo! Ooh. Ah! I've got a date with the Bakery Booth! Ha-ha!

[zip!]

Pinkie Pie : [giggling rhythmically]

Me: Okay we better split up and see what needs to be done. I'll go with Twilight to help her figure out the magic that caused this. Varie you go with Rarity, Nico you go with Applejack, Eli you go with Rainbow Dash, Laney you go with Fluttershy, Jared you go with Sunset Shimmer, Luna you go with Starlight Glimmer and Lincoln you go with Trixie.

Nico: Roger that!

Me: Lets do it!

Fluttershy : Um… I'd better go with her.

Rarity : Hmmm, an overall stylistic look to unify the sentiment of the celebration. That's what this festival needs.

Mayor Sunny Skies : Ya mean like a rainbow?

Rarity : Yes, darling, yes, yes, but more complex, more thematic, something like- Ooh! something like that! Formidable!

Twilight Sparkle : The biggest challenge is getting your town interested in a Rainbow Festival when everything's so… gray. I think if we can bring the color back, it'll solve everything.

Me: I agree.

Mayor Sunny Skies : Yah, I'm with ya there, but-

Twilight Sparkle : Rainbow Dash, I need your help.

Rainbow Dash : Mr. Mayor, seriously, is there a fan club?

Mayor Sunny Skies : Oh, you betcha! They're around… somewhere.

Rainbow Dash : Ugh.

Eli and Rainbow Dash and Arrietty went to find it.

Applejack : Any tools I can borrow, your Honor? I'm gonna spruce up that rainbow billboard to let everypony know this here Rainbow Festival's back in business!

Mayor Sunny Skies : Oh, that's music to my ears! Torque Wrench, let's get our guest tooled up, whadaya say? She's gonna put our rainbow to a new level.

Torque Wrench : [sarcastically] Oh, yippee.

[music]

Petunia Petals : Heh-heh.

Mayor Sunny Skies : Oh! Uh, if ya don't mind, I, uh, I have a speech to work on. See ya 'round.

Applejack : Hmm.

Rainbow Dash : So… what's your plan?

We were on a cliff.

Twilight Sparkle : If magic caused this, maybe magic can solve it.

[music]

Me: Lets do it!

I fired a powerful magic blast and so did Twilight.

[magic sounds]

Nothing happened.

Twilight Sparkle : [sighs] Oh, I was afraid of that. I've never seen any magic like this before.

Me: Me neither. This is a whole new different ball game for us.

Rainbow Dash : Heh. Let me try. I mean, "Rainbow"'s part of my name, right?

[music]

Rainbow Dash flew fast into the air.

[whooshing]

[boom!]

She made a Sonic Rainboom that rained down onto the town.

[ponies exclaiming]

Rainbow Dash : Ugh. Yeah, that's all I got.

Me: It was a good try though.

Twilight Sparkle : [sighs] Thanks for trying. I guess I need to do more research.

Me: We better get to work then.

[whooshing]

Barley Barrel : Look out!

Pickle Barrel : No, you look out!

Barley and Pickle Barrel : [screaming]

Twilight Sparkle : [gasps]

Me: Oh no!

Barley and Pickle Barrel : [grunt]

Pickle Barrel : [groans]

I flew over and caught them.

Rainbow Dash : Are you okay?

Barley and Pickle Barrel : Oh!

Barley Barrel : Why did you zig in front of me like that?

Pickle Barrel : I didn't zig! You zigged! I zagged!

Barley Barrel : That's no excuse for-!

Rainbow Dash : Guys, guys, hold on! It was just an accident.

Pickle Barrel : An accident that happened in front of you .

Barley Barrel : Ugh, I'm so embarrassed. All of our lives, we've been wanting to meet you, and-

Rainbow Dash : Wait. So you're the fan club?

[doing!]

Barley Barrel : You've heard of us?

Pickle Barrel : Barley's the president.

Barley Barrel : Pickle's the assistant president.

Rainbow Dash : Well, what do you know? The mayor was telling the truth about something!

Barley Barrel : Anyway, you're my brother's favorite Wonderbolt!

Pickle Barrel : And my sister's favorite Wonderbolt, too!

Barley Barrel : He knows all your best moves!

Pickle Barrel : So does she!

Barley Barrel : We practice all of 'em, every day!

Barley and Pickle Barrel : [grunting]

Pickle Barrel : But we really can't do them. [to Barley] Well, it's true!

Barley Barrel : [to Pickle] Go ahead. Ask her.

Pickle Barrel : No, you ask her.

Barley Barrel : No, you ask her!

Pickle Barrel : No, you!

Barley Barrel : No, you do it!

Pickle Barrel : No, you do it!

Barley Barrel : Mmm!

Rainbow Dash : Somepony ask me!

Barley Barrel : Do you think maybe… you could give us a lesson? Just a tiny one? Show us some of your moves?

Rainbow Dash : Heh. Well, you promise to listen and work hard and practice?

Barley and Pickle Barrel : [gasp]

Pickle Barrel : Yes!

Barley Barrel : Absolutely, practice!

Rainbow Dash : Heh, tell you what. If I like what I see, the three of us will put on a show at the Rainbow Festival.

Barley and Pickle Barrel : Oh!

Barley Barrel : There's still a Rainbow Festival?

Pickle Barrel : And we're gonna perform at it?

Rainbow Dash : I think the whole town should know there's a couple of future Wonderbolts living here. C'mon! We got work to do!

[whoosh!]

Barley Barrel : Did you hear that?!

Pickle Barrel : She called us "future Wonderbolts"!

[whoosh!]

[magic sounds]

A blade of a windmill got one of its colors back.

Applejack : I think some o' this can be saved, but we'll need some fresh lumber. Uh, Torque, the mayor said maybe you could lend a hoof.

Torque Wrench : [groans] Him and his crazy schemes. What's your business in this anyhoo? Hmm?

Nico: We're just here to help.

Applejack : Well, for one thing, we're helpin' the mayor. And for another, Granny Smith always says, "You break somethin', you fix it. And any job you do, you should be proud of."

Nico: That's right.

Torque Wrench : [laughs] Proud of bein' the repairpony? [laughs]

Applejack : Well, absolutely! It's a pretty rare talent to have. Nice work on our ship, by the way. Reweavin' all that straw is no joke.

Nico: That's right.

Torque Wrench : Oh. Yah, well, thanks for, well, noticin'.

Applejack : [grunts]

[hammering]

[magic sounds]

Some of the wood got its brown color back.

Rarity : [humming] Hmm? That's one of my designs!

Varie: Wow it sure is.

They went in.

Rarity: Hello?

Kerfuffle : [gasps] Whoa, no way! Stack my pancakes! Are you really the Rarity?!

Rarity : Uh, it's just "Rarity". Uh, and I-I couldn't help but notice that you've got-

Kerfuffle : [gasps] I love ya! I love ya so much! Your work, I mean! Your designs, your taste, your eye for beauty!

Rarity : Well, thank you-

Kerfuffle : They're the perfect canvas for me to fancy up!

Rarity : Yes, about that. The- the hat, the- the boa, the scarf, the-

Kerfuffle Do ya like 'em?

Rarity : Very charming.

Varie: And very pretty too.

Kerfuffle : [gasps] Thank ya! [giggles] Those are Kerfuffle originals! I'm Kerfuffle! Spelled like it sounds, with a double "ffff" for the "fuff"! [gasps] I should really stop talking now.

Rarity : I do hope you don't mind my asking. But with all this talent, why don't you simply display your own work instead of adding to others?

Varie: I agree.

Kerfuffle : [laughs] Oh. Oh, no, I-I couldn't. It's… not good enough by itself.

Rarity : Hmph, au contraire . Take this shawl. Hoof-dyed, nicely woven, a piece of art by itself. Imagine if you could work in color.

Kerfuffle : Oh, I do imagine. I mean, that's how I design things. I feel in my heart what the colors are. Like this scarf. This stripe is red, then orange, yellow…

Rarity : Like a rainbow. How would you like to work with me as the official assistant designer of the Rainbow Festival?

Varie: Yeah.

Kerfuffle : [gasps] Really? Work with you?! I can't believe it! [laughs gleefully] Wait, there's still a Rainbow Festival?

Rarity : Darling, if we have anything to do with it, not only will there be a festival, it will be the most stylish anypony in this town has ever seen! Now let's get started!

[magic sounds]

A hat turned back to neon pink.

[music]

Me and Twilight went to the Library.

[doors opening]

Twilight Sparkle : Wow…

Me: Look at all these books.

[music continues]

Twilight Sparkle : [gasps]

Petunia Petals : Ya like it?

Twilight Sparkle : I love it! I just never thought-

Petunia Petals : That a teeny town like Hope Hollow would have a library this grand? We may be small, but we're well-read. I make sure of it.

Me: Very well done.

Twilight Sparkle : Mayor Sunny was right. You are something!

Petunia Petals : Did he really say that? [giggles] Oh, that silly unicorn. Did he say anythin' else? I mean, uh, anyhoo, what can I do you for?

Twilight Sparkle : I don't suppose you have a magic section?

Petunia Petals : [laughs] "Arcane", "Elemental", or "Theory of"?

Twilight Sparkle : [squeals]

Me: Awesome. Lets get to work.

Pinkie Pie : Let's see. If fifty cupcakes makes a party, that means for the festival, we need… divide by two, carry the one…

Fluttershy : More?

Pinkie Pie : Super more! We're gonna need some baking help!

Laney: Lets do it.

[sign creaks]

Fluttershy : [gasps]

Pinkie Pie : Huh?

[crack]

Fluttershy : It looks like it's closed.

They looked in and it was a dump.

Pinkie Pie : Aw, that's so sad.

Mr. Hoofington : [distantly] We can only use the ones from our yard, lovey.

Mrs. Hoofington : Oh, darling, stop it.

Pinkie Pie : Excuse me. I see you're taking your pie for a walk, and I was wondering-

Mrs. Hoofington : We're not interested. Ugh, it's getting so a pony can't even walk down the street without being terrorized.

Pinkie Pie : [laughs] That's not terrorize. This… [babbles]

Mr. and Mrs. Hoofington : Aah!

Pinkie Pie :… is terrorize.

Mr. Hoofington : [sighs]

Pinkie Pie : So, how would you like to be a part of the official baking team of the Rainbow Festival?

Laney: Yeah you would like it.

Mrs. Hoofington : There's still a Rainbow Festival?

Pinkie Pie : Uh-huh. We'll have a booth with cupcakes and pastries and fun, and we're gonna start with this pie! Let the taste test begin! [chomps, gags] Blech! Bleghhht! [gagging] What kind of pie did you say this was s'upposed to be?

Mr. Hoofington : Apricot.

Pinkie Pie : Are you sure? It's kinda… crunchy.

Fluttershy : Not that there's anything wrong with that.

Mrs. Hoofington : Well, the apricots are from our very own tree.

Mr. Hoofington : In our very own yard.

Mrs. Hoofington : Behind our very own house.

Pinkie Pie : Yeah. Maybe we should get a look at this tree.

Laney: Good idea.

Barley and Pickle Barrel were exercizing.

Barley and Pickle Barrel : [grunting]

Rainbow Dash : All right, rookies. Show me what you got.

Barley Barrel : [whispering, to Pickle] She sounds just like we always imagined she'd sound!

Pickle Barrel : [whispering, to Barley] Only twenty percent cooler!

Rainbow Dash : Well? Aren't you gonna fly or something?

Pickle Barrel : Yes, sir! I mean, ma'am. Uh…

Barley and Pickle Barrel : [chuckle nervously]

They flew.

[music]

Barley Barrel : Okay? Break!

Barley and Pickle Barrel : [groan] Whoa! [grunt, yell]

[music]

Rainbow Dash caught them.

Rainbow Dash : Fancy flying is something you have to work up to. Even I didn't become "Rainbow Dash" in one day.

Barley Barrel : Two days?

Rainbow Dash : Everypony's got to learn the basics before they can show off.

[whoosh]

Rainbow Dash did some great tricks.

Barley and Pickle Barrel : Whoa!

[music]

Rainbow Dash : You'll get there. But first, let's start with a single flip.

Barley and Pickle Barrel : [gasp]

[magic sounds]

A patch of grass turned green again.

Fluttershy : If you don't mind my asking, you don't sound like the other ponies here in town.

Mr. Hoofington : Oh, we weren't born here. We're originally from Manehattan.

Mrs. Hoofington : But it was so big. All those ponies crammed together, never talking to each other. Ooh.

Mr. Hoofington : We heard Hope Hollow was just the opposite, so we moved here.

Mrs. Hoofington : And it was wonderful… uh, for a while.

Fluttershy : What happened?

Laney: Yeah.

Mrs. Hoofington : Uh, things changed. Oh! Here. This is the tree.

They saw the Apricot tree.

Mr. Hoofington : This is where the apricots in my pie came from.

[beat]

Pinkie Pie : Well, I'm no expert, but I don't think these are very ripe. Apricots are supposed to be orange.

Mr. Hoofington : Well, that's the problem, isn't it? With hardly any colors in this town, one apricot looks like another.

Fluttershy : What about that tree? Its apricots are big and juicy.

Laney: They sure look like it.

Mr. Hoofington : Oh. We can't use the apricots from that tree.

Pinkie Pie : Sure ya can! All you gotta do is-

Moody Root : Hey! Stay away from my tree!

Laney: What a grouch.

Fluttershy : W-What was that?

Mr. Hoofington : Just old Moody Root.

Mrs. Hoofington : He's made it quite clear he won't share his apricots. He hasn't even said "hello" in ages.

Laney: What a grouch. It's like he doesn't like talking.

Fluttershy : Have you tried saying "hello" to him ?

Mr. Hoofington : What? Well, no, but-

Fluttershy : Mr. Moody Root, are you there?

Moody Root : Who wants to know?

Laney: Laney Loud, Gardener of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Fluttershy : I'm Fluttershy, Element of Kindness for Team Loud Phoenix Storm. Your apricot tree is beautiful. So healthy. You must take very good care of it.

Moody Root : Well, I try to. Plant food. A good water now and then. Keeps my apricots happy.

Laney: They sure look great.

Fluttershy : I bet that's why you have so many of them. You must always be busy making things. Jam, cobbler, pie…

Moody Root : Nope, I just eat 'em. Although, pie does sound pretty good.

Laney: It sure is.

Mrs. Hoofington : What in Equestria is she doing?

Mr. Hoofington : I haven't the foggiest, dear.

Pinkie Pie : Doing what she does best.

Fluttershy : Your neighbors were just about to bake some pies. You know them, right? Mr. and Mrs. Hoofington, Mr. Moody Root.

Moody Root : Um… [clears throat] H-H-Hello, uh…

Mr. Hoofington : Yes. Hello.

Mrs. Hoofington : Hello, Mr… Root.

Moody Root : [clears throat]

Fluttershy : But they're a little short on apricots.

Pinkie Pie : If only there was some apricots we can use… [clears throat, clears throat more irritably]

Mrs. Hoofington : Oh, yes, of course! We'd be happy to bake you a pie.

Mr. Hoofington : Two or… three pies even.

Moody Root : So ya mean if I give ya my apricots…

Pinkie Pie : [gasps] What a great idea!

Fluttershy : Then everypony can share. What do you think, Mr. Moody Root?

[sloop!]

Mrs. Hoofington : Ugh. Oh, well.

Fluttershy : Wait for it…

[music building up]

[gate opens]

Moody Root : Got a ladder? We can just pick 'em from your side of the fence!

Mr. Hoofington : Um, yes, of course! Uh, this way!

[magic sounds]

An apricot got its orange color back.

[music]

Back at the library we were looking through the books.

[pages flipping]

Twilight Sparkle : A prism curse? An erasure spell? None of these are big enough to make a whole town lose its color on their own!

I was looking through several books all at once and looking for the answer.

Me: Hmm. I don't see anything myself Twilight.

Twilight Sparkle: Ugh! Unless…

Mayor Sunny Skies : [muffled] Oh, for the love o' cheddar!

Twilight Sparkle : Huh?

Me: Huh? That sounds like Mayor Sunny Skies.

We saw a bookcase door.

Me: A hidden bookcase door.

Mayor Sunny Skies : [muttering]

We saw Mayor Sunny Skies walking and pacing.

Twilight Sparkle : Mayor Skies.

Mayor Sunny Skies : Oh!

Me: Wow.

Twilight Sparkle : What is all this?

Mayor Sunny Skies : Princess Twilight! J.D.! Welcome to our town's Rainbow Room. Anything you want ta know about each year's festival from the very beginnin'.

Twilight Sparkle : The pictures! They're in color!

Me: These still have color in them.

Mayor Sunny Skies : Sure are. Oh. Those are from happier times. Back when there still was a festival. Seems even though we faded, the memory never did. I come here sometimes for inspiration. I need plenty for this speech I'm writin'. Biggest one of my life. [to Petunia] Oh! Didn't see ya there!

Petunia Petals : Sunny! I-I didn' know you were here.

Mayor Sunny Skies : Uh, Uh, j-just leavin'. [chuckles] I-I gotta finish this. W-Well, uh, s-see ya later!

Twilight Sparkle : Whoa. The festival was really something, wasn't it?

Me: It sure was. Look at all the beautiful color.

Petunia Petals : Used to be wonderful. It brought the whole town together for a long time, and these pictures are from the last festival. You can see it didn't go well.

Me: Hmm.

I looked at them.

Twilight Sparkle : Right. The mayor's magic in the generator caused the colors to go.

Petunia Petals : That's what Sunny thinks. He blames himself for it, but I'm still not convinced it was anythin' other than an accident!

Me: I have that same feeling myself.

Twilight Sparkle : There's something strange about this. I just can't put my hoof on it.

Me: Hmm. I can't put my fingers on it myself. But I have a feeling that these pictures may provide the answer.

Twilight Sparkle: If only the Generator hadn't been destroyed…

Petunia Petals : Not all of it was.

Twilight Sparkle : [gasps]

Petunia Petals : [grunts]

She pulled out the Rainbow Generator.

Twilight Sparkle : Wow!

Me: This must be the Rainbow Generator.

Petunia Petals : I don't keep it out because I know it hurts th' mayor to see it.

Me: Poor guy.

Twilight Sparkle : Mind if we borrow this?

[music]

Mayor Sunny Skies : [laughs] Great job! It's even better than it was before, don'tcha know?

Nico: It looks great! And the flowers are my touch. I added them to give it a little pizzazz.

[ponies chattering]

Pony #1 : Rainbow Festival?

Pony #2 : Didn't know it was still goin' on.

Mayor Sunny Skies : Sure is! Bigger and better than ever! I hope. Tell all your friends!

Colt : Can we go, Mama?

Pony #2 : I suppose so. Why not?

[magic sounds]

A young colt's hair came back and it was golden yellow!

Colt : [gasps, laughs]

Twilight Sparkle : Mr. Mayor. [grunts] I hope you don't mind, but-

Mayor Sunny Skies : Where'd ya find that?

Petunia Petals : I gave it to her, Sunny. She has an idea.

Mayor Sunny Skies : Best idea would just be to throw that thing in the trash heap.

Me: Now now Mayor. It can be fixed.

Twilight Sparkle : My theory is that the Generator magnifies whatever magic it uses, makes it stronger. So if we could rebuild it and use one of the reversal spells we just read about, it could work to bring color back to the town!

Me: It's a long shot but it just might work.

Mayor Sunny Skies : Even if we could get it workin' again, which is quite a tall order…

Applejack: Not for a gifted repairpony who I just happen to know.

Nico: Same with me.

Torque Wrench : Let me take a look-see. Yah, I could give 'er a go.

Mayor Sunny Skies : Huh. I don't wanna get my hope up, but… yahoo!

Torque Wrench : Don't worry. I'll get to work.

Petunia Petals : Um, how's your speech comin', Sunny? I'd be happy to help you with it if you'd like.

Mayor Sunny Skies : Uh, oh, no, you couldn't. Uh, t-thanks, but, uh, I have to do a little mayor-type business, don'tcha know? But I'll check back in a little bit to see how everythin's goin'.

[zip!]

Petunia Petals : Hmmm. He's actin' so peculiar.

Me: Yeah it's unusual.

Applejack : From what I've seen of the mayor, how can ya tell exactly when "peculiar" kicks in?

[music]

Moody Root : [chomping] Mm-mm-mm-mm! If I'd have known your pie was this good, I'd have given you those apricots ages ago!

Mrs. Hoofington : Mr. Hoofington did all the baking.

Mr. Hoofington : Mmm, inspired by you, Snookums. Mwah.

Laney: Also Pinkie Pie in Ponyville here is a great baker. She can make all kinds of awesome desserts.

Pinkie Pie: Oh thanks Laney.

Moody Root : Say, the whole town should know about this here pie.

Pinkie Pie : Oh, don't worry. They will. We're gonna give it away at the Rainbow Festival!

Laney: Yeah!

Moody Root : Wait, what? There's still a Rainbow Festival?

Fluttershy : Uh-huh.

Moody Root : [laughs]

[magic sounds]

The Apricots all got their colors of orange and green back.

[ding]

The Rainbow Generator was all fixed.

Torque Wrench : Well, here it is. Had to hoof-build some of the parts myself, but it's as good as new.

Me: It looks awesome Torque Wrench.

Applejack : Hoo-wee! This looks amazin', Torque. Nopony else could have pulled this off.

Nico: Lana and Applejack could. But yeah.

Twilight Sparkle : Thank you so much for your help.

Me: We owe you one.

Torque Wrench : Yep. It was a real challenge, but turns out that was part of the fun! [chuckles]

Me: Repairing stuff is always fun.

[music]

[magic sounds]

We saw a bit of the flowers get their color back!

Me: WHOA!

Applejack : Whoa! D-Did y'all see that?

Me: I sure did!

Twilight Sparkle : Now we need to test it.

Petunia Petals : Should we call the mayor?

Twilight Sparkle : Might be best to make sure it works first. I'd hate to disappoint him.

Me: Good idea.

Applejack : Uh, Twilight, I think I saw-

Twilight Sparkle : In a moment, Applejack. This is important.

Applejack : Yeah, but-

Twilight Sparkle : Turn on the Generator.

Applejack : Oh. Okay.

Me: Here we go.

We turned it on.

[clicking and whirring]

Twilight Sparkle and Petunia Petals : [gasp]

Applejack and Torque Wrench : [gasp]

[machinery continues]

[sheen!]

A rainbow appeared and it was magnificent!

Me: WHOA! That is amazing!

Nico: YEAH!

Applejack : Huh! Well, look at that!

Petunia Petals : Oh, isn't it beautiful? That's what the Generator has always done for years and years.

Twilight Sparkle : Now we just add magic, and…

We fired a wave of magic and then…

[boom!]

Nothing happened.

Twilight Sparkle, Applejack, Petunia Petals, and Torque Wrench : [sigh]

[music]

Me: Aw nuts!

Twilight Sparkle : [sighs] I'm sorry. I thought for sure it would work.

Petunia Petals : Let's not tell the mayor. It would break his heart.

Twilight Sparkle : No. We have to tell him we failed. We can't bring the color back.

Me: At least we tried.

Applejack : Hmm… Twilight! I really think you should see this. You betcha-

Pinkie Pie : We did it!

Twilight Sparkle and Petunia Petals : Huh?

Me: That sounds like Pinkie.

Applejack : [sighs]

We saw Pinkie, Fluttershy and Laney coming with the Huffingtons and Moody Root.

Pinkie Pie : [humming] Everything you need for the Rainbow Festival bake sale!

Moody Root : [grunts]

He kicked it and out came a bunch of apricot desserts.

Fluttershy : Courtesy of the Hoofingtons.

Mr. Hoofington : And Mr. Moody Root!

Moody Root : [chuckles]

Twilight Sparkle : Ooh! Everything looks delicious!

Me: Those look great!

Nico: (Slurps) They sure do.

Petunia Petals : Mr. Moody Root! Why, I haven't see ya in the library in ages.

Moody Root : High time I came back. Hey, you got any of them there cookbooks?

[whoosh!]

Moody Root : Wha?

Barley and Pickle Barrel : [laughing]

[music]

Me: WHOA! Wow!

Torque Wrench : Hey, they're pretty good.

Rainbow Dash : They've been practicing their tails off for the big show.

Me: Nice job R.D.

[whoosh!]

Torque Wrench : What big show?

Rainbow Dash : The Rainbow Festival. They're the official entertainment.

[music]

Barley Barrel : Mm!

Barley and Pickle Barrel : [grunting]

[thud]

Rainbow Dash : Uh, landing still needs a little work.

Me: They'll get there. But great job R.D.

Rarity : You're all here! Wonderful! You can help us set up our cart.

Kerfuffle's official Rainbow Festival accessories.

Me: Ooh!

Kerfuffle : Ta-da!

Rainbow Dash : Heh, whoa-ho-ho! Nice stuff.

Me: Wow! Varie you, Rarity and Kerfuffle did amazingly well.

Kerfuffle : And I designed color-matched assessories for each of ya!

Pinkie Pie : Um, I can't help but notice that the color-matched accessories don't have much color.

Rarity : Well, of course not, silly. The town doesn't have any color, remember?

Pinkie Pie : Oh, right.

Kerfuffle : Oh, but don't worry. I know where the colors are supposed to be. An orange scarf for Applejack, red leggings fer Fluttershy…

Fluttershy : Ooh.

Kerfuffle : The pink flower lei is for, well, you-know-who.

Pinkie Pie : No, who? [laughs] Mm-hmm.

Rarity : And look at my purple kerchief. Isn't it divine?

Me: It looks great Rarity.

Kerfuffle : The blue goggles are fer Rainbow Dash.

Rainbow Dash : Oh-ho-ho.

Kerfuffle : [to Barley and Pickle] And I think I have some that might match for you two.

Pickle Barrel : Whoa!

Barley Barrel : Whoa!

They got red goggles.

Kerfuffle : And somethin' very special for Princess Twilight and J.D. Knudson, Wing bling! In every shade of the rainbow, don'tcha know?

Me: WOW!

I spread my wings and then I got them put on.

Me: COOL!

They fit just like a glove.

Twilight Sparkle : [gasps] Kerfuffle, this is amazing!

Me: WOW!

Twilight Sparkle: Everypony, you've done great work. [sighs] I just wish I could've done my part. I hate to admit it, but I'm stuck. I don't know how to make the town's color come back.

Applejack : [spits] That's what I've been tryin' to tell ya! It is comin' back!

Me: Yeah look!

We saw the color starting to come back.

[magic sounds]

The flowers got their color back.

[ponies exclaim]

[magic sounds continue]

The pies, the twins goggles, the clothes, everything was getting their color back.

Pickle Barrel : Whoa!

Fluttershy : What's happening?

Rarity : Something wonderful!

Twilight Sparkle : But how? It wasn't the Generator. Which means something else must have drained the town's color in the first place!

Me: I knew some other force was at work!

Twilight Sparkle: I have to get back to the library!

Me: Lets go!

We went back to the library.

Twilight Sparkle : I thought so! Look. In the second photo, when the Generator goes off, this pony is walking away. But on the third photo, when all the color's gone, he's back where he was. Which means…

Petunia Petals : [gasps] We have to tell the mayor!

Me: And fast!

Mayor Sunny Skies : Tell me what?

Petunia Petals : Sunny! Have you seen what's happenin' outside?

Mayor Sunny Skies : No, I've been in here fer a while workin' on my speech.

Twilight Sparkle : Maybe we should just show him.

Me: Agreed.

Mr. Hoofington : Who wants apricot pies? Best pies in Hope Hollow!

Mrs. Hoofington : Pies for sale! Yummylicious!

Pony #2 : Hello there, Mr. Hoofington, Mrs. Hoofington. Been a while.

Mrs. Hoofington : How lovely to see you.

[magic sounds]

The pies and the Hoofingtons all got their color back!

Nico: WHOA!

Mr. Hoofington : [gasps]

Mrs. Hoofington : Oh!

Pinkie Pie : What's better than one pie? Lots of pies! Official Rainbow Festival goodness right here now!

[magic sounds]

The pies Pinkie was juggling got their color back!

Eli: So awesome!

Moody Root : [gasps]

Rarity : Over here, darlings! Just look what Kerfuffle has come up with!

Customer #1 : I never knew you did such great work. I have to visit your shop.

Trout Pony : Hey, ya got anythin' waterproof?

Kerfuffle : Mm-hmm. Whoa!

[magic sounds]

The Ponies next to her got their color back!

Mayor Sunny Skies : [gasps] Oh! But… colors! So you were able to reverse the Generator?

Petunia Petals : The Generator had nothin' to do with it and never did.

Me: Nope.

Mayor Sunny Skies : So none of it was my fault?

Petunia Petals : No, ya big doofus! How many times have I tried to tell ya that? All those years, ya blamed yerself for nuthin'.

Twilight Sparkle : These photos from the library explain everything. Once I realized they were out of order, it proved that the town's colors got dim before you turned on the Generator.

Me: It was because of everyone feeling down.

Mayor Sunny Skies : Boy howdy, am I glad to hear that! But then, what did cause it?

Twilight Sparkle : It's called "Hopeless Magic". Everypony was already giving up on each other, losing hope. Then, when the Generator blew up, it must have been the last straw. It took all the hope out of the town for good, along with the color. But now there's a different kind of magic. Of everypony coming together again. Just the way you wanted it, Mayor.

Me: It's a thing called friendship.

Torque Wrench : Whadaya know? There is still a Rainbow Festival.

Twilight Sparkle : And we'd better get it started. This town's been waiting long enough.

Me: Absolutely.

Torque Wrench : The Generator's workin' again, Mr. Mayor, just the way your grandpa built her.

Mayor Sunny Skies : Heh. I just hope my speech lives up to the occasion.

Twilight Sparkle : Attention, please! Welcome to the brand new Hope Hollow Annual Rainbow Festival! And here's the pony who made it all possible - Mayor Sunny Skies!

[ponies cheering]

Mayor Sunny Skies : I am as proud as a two-tailed peacock to see you all here today to once again celebrate our little town at the end of the rainbow.

[cheering]

Kerfuffle : Ohhh…

Mayor Sunny Skies : And I can't give enough thanks to Rainbow Dash, Princess Twilight…

Twilight Sparkle : [chuckles]

Mayor Sunny Skies :… Pinkie Pie…

Pinkie Pie : [giggles]

Mayor Sunny Skies :… Fluttershy…

Fluttershy : [giggles]

Mayor Sunny Skies :… Rarity, Sunset Shimmer, Trixie Lulamoon, Starlight Glimmer, Applejack and all of Team Loud Phoenix Storm and The Masters of Evil.

Applejack : Heh.

Mayor Sunny Skies : My grandpa started this festival to celebrate us, the ponies of Hope Hollow. It's you who brought friendship back to our town, and all the bright colors that come with it.

Girl Pony : Aw.

Electro: Are you all seriously down because you lost your color?! You should be glad you didn't lose anything else!

Me: Yeah you shouldn't be down because all of you lost your color. You have all the color you like because you have all your hearts filled with one thing that ALREADY brings you better color and that is friendship.

I unsheathed my sword and showed everyone the Elements of Harmony.

Me: You guys are more than happy with or without color. Because you have the 12 things that make you all happy.

Mayor Sunny Skies: And what are they?

Me: You have Honesty, Generosity, Loyalty, Laughter, Kindness, Hope, Love, Justice, Empathy, Humility, Valor and Forgiveness and you all have the most amazing thing of all. The Magic of Friendship

Maria: Sure, your color's gone. But your lives aren't!

Eli: That's right! With or without color, you are still you. And you all have amazing friends.

Nico: No matter how grey you get.

Varie: That's right! You still have the great magic of friendship in you with or without color.

Aylene C.: And you still have the things you love to do that make you who you are.

Apple Bloom: And you're you no matter what happens.

Sunset Shimmer: That's right.

Nico: Yeah! Because your friends are always gonna be there with you no matter what even in times of hopelessness. And they will always be there for you in your heart as well.

Mayor Sunny Skies : That's right. We just have to always remember to reach a hoof out to our neighbors, to respect and listen and talk to each other. You never know what just sayin' "hello" to somepony can do. So, without further ado…

[Pinkie Pie] :

Here we go

This is the moment, yeah

Let the Rainbow Festival begin!

Mayor Sunny Skies : [awkward laugh]

Poliwag: If that didn't do the trick, nothing will.

Then the town was getting its color back!

Me: IT'S WORKING! We just need to get a little more hope in!

[generator whirring]

[ponies gasping]

[magic sounds]

Colt : Whoa, what's happening?

Torque Wrench : Wow.

ALL THE COLOR WAS BACK IN EVERYONE AND EVERYTHING AND EVEN US!

Twilight Sparkle : [gasps] Whoa.

Kerfuffle : It's exactly as I imagined it!

[ponies cheering]

My wing bling was extravagant and beautiful.

Petunia Petals : That was a beautiful speech, Sunny.

Mayor Sunny Skies : What? Oh, no, uh, that wasn't my speech.

Petunia Petals : Uh, but, uh, then what have you been writin' all day?

Mayor Sunny Skies : Well, uh, another speech. I mean, it's for later, but… Oh, flapjacks. I guess now is as good a time as any. [sighs] Petunia, you've never given up on me or the town. You always had hope when we had none, and I can't imagine a day without you. You're the pony who brings color into my life. Petunia Petals, will you marry me?

Petunia Petals : Of course, ya silly goose!

[all cheering]

We cheered for them!

Me: Way to go Sunny Skies and Petunia Petals!

Nico: I always knew those two had it for one another.

Rainbow Dash : Attention, everypony! Introducing Hope Hollow's very own Junior Wonderbolts!

[cheering]

Barley Barrel : Did you hear what she called us?!

Pickle Barrel : Did you hear what she called us?!

Barley and Pickle Barrel : Junior Wonderbolts! [laugh]

Pickle Barrel : All right!

Me: Captain Spitfire, Wonderbolts, Shadowbolts, Show formation A-11 and Omicron 19!

Spitfire: Lets do it!

Barley and Pickle Barrel : [laugh]

[music]

Rainbow Dash : Okay, guys. Showtime!

Pickle Barrel : [chuckles]

[music continues]

[boom!]

They did an awesome Sonic Rainboom and amazing tricks!

[ponies cheering]

Me: YEAH!

Rainbow Dash : Heh. Now this is something I'm proud to be a guest of honor for! [gasps]

Butterflies came.

Vypra: Wow.

Fluttershy : And it looks like there's a butterfly garden after all.

Pinkie Pie : Only one more thing could make this Rainbow Festival better.

Rarity : Oh, not more karaoke, darling.

Pinkie Pie : What? No. A trout DJ!

Trout Pony : [toots harmonica]

[ponies cheering]

Pinkie Pie : [laughs] Now that's a party!

Poromon: Now we can start the Rainbow Festival!

Me: YEAH! LETS PARTY!

Pinkie Pie: LETS PARTY!

Nico: YEAH!

We got to having a great party as well as having a great time and all of Hope Hollow had all of its color back. It had all of its color and had all of them in the Seven Colors of the Rainbow.

The Whole Town was beautiful and happy and joyous as we solved one of the most colorful friendship problems ever. We later went back home and we had a great dinner and rest.

THE END

Another awesome fanfic done.

This is the 15th Installment of the My Little Pony chapters. It's for the My Little Pony movie Rainbow Roadtrip and that was a cute movie. The first part for this chapter is for the 1957 movie From Hell It Came and that was a freaky one. Also the 2nd part of this chapter is a land version of the SpongeBob episode Sponge-Cano. That was a crazy and freaky cool episode but it also featured Squidward at his gloomiest. It aired on January 28th, 2011 and that is one of my favorite episodes in the series. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Drako1234658, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Etstheclarencefan, Nflemingful and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. The next girl we're gonna rescue is Brunhilda the Valkyrie and we're going to meet her in the world of The Fly and we're going to kill the creature from the 1986 movie and also we're going to meet a Chandelure Gene-Slammer named Mikaela Florentine. Also the next chapter is for a 2nd Tai-Chi Chasers adventure and we're going to kill another Dragonoid and it's gonna be a brutal battle.

See you all tomorrow

Tiger VS Dragon In Iceland

In an abandoned building me and Nora were walking down the halls.

Nora: I honestly enjoyed our break while it lasted.

Nora concentrated and groaned as she sprouted wings.

Me: It was really fun and beautiful too.

She shrunk and turned into Beautifly.

I held on to her clothes for her and then we heard a scream and then we went into a room and saw the Fusion chambers from THE FLY!

Me: WHOA! It's the fusion chambers from The 1986 movie The Fly!

Nora Beautifly: That movie was freaky!

I then saw a woman in one.

Me: Oh no!

I kicked the glass of the door out and got her out and then the machine activated and then a few seconds later, out came Seth Brundle! And he was a grotesque fly mutant!

---

Sethaniel "Seth" Brundle, or better known as Brundlefly, is the titular main protagonist, as well as the main self antagonist of David Cronenberg's 1986 remake of The Fly .

He was portrayed by Jeff Goldblum, who also played the Grandmaster in Thor: Ragnarok, Calvin "Slick" Stanhope in Silverado, Verminous Skumm in Captain Planet and the Planeteers, Long Eared Jack in Robbie the Red Nose Reindeer, and Niagara / The Wolf King in Hotel Artemis . The character of Brundle was also played by Daniel Okulitch in Howard Shore's 2008 opera The Fly in its premiere at the Théâtre du Châtelet in Paris.

Brundle suffered from motion sickness beginning at a young age; once, during childhood, he vomited on his tricycle. As a result of his condition, he developed an intense dislike of vehicles. By the age of 20, he had become an expert in molecular physics, and was the leader of a project known as "F32", which very nearly earned him a Nobel Prize in Physics. He also earned his doctorate at some undisclosed point.

Years later, he focused his attention on creating a teleportation system, partially so he would no longer have to worry about his motion sickness when traveling. At some point, he became the sole occupant of an abandoned warehouse, the fourth (and top) floor of which he converted into a laboratory and living quarters. A shy and eccentric recluse, he also adopted a habit of Albert Einstein's when he bought five identical sets of clothes so as not to waste mental energy deciding what to wear each day. His experiments were funded by Bartok Science Industries, which was unaware of the nature of Brundle's project and did not interfere since his requirements were relatively inexpensive.

Despite his scientific brilliance, Brundle subcontracted the design and construction of various components out to other scientists, components which Brundle then put together himself (thus keeping the nature of the project secret). Eventually, the first prototype "Telepod" was completed, and when it proved successful, Brundle had two refined models built. All in all, the project took 6 years to complete, but at this point, Brundle could only teleport non-living objects successfully.

One night, while attending a meet-the-press party sponsored by Bartok, Brundle met Veronica Quaife, a journalist working for Particle magazine. After convincing Veronica that he was working on something that would change the world, he drove with her to his warehouse and demonstrated the Telepods for her. However, Brundle had been under the impression that their meeting was an off-the-record social affair, but Veronica felt otherwise and proceeded to tell her editor and former lover, Stathis Borans, about what she'd seen. Eventually, Brundle was able to convince Veronica that the project was not ready to be revealed to the world, since the Telepods could not yet cope with living matter. The pair then made a deal; Brundle would allow Veronica an insider's access to his work on the Telepods (with her end goal being a book documenting the project) in exchange for her keeping the project's existence quiet.

Veronica then set about documenting Brundle's quest to perfect the Telepods, including a disastrous experiment in which a live baboon was turned inside-out during the reintegration process. Brundle and Veronica soon became lovers, and during their first sexual encounter, he accidentally rolled onto a small circuit board, which created several small scratches on his back. Brundle's sexual awakening also provided him with a key moment of inspiration when an off-hand comment of Veronica's led him to realize that the Telepods were reinterpreting living flesh instead of reproducing it. As a result of this epiphany, Brundle reprogrammed the Telepod computer to be creative when reintegrating organic material. Soon after, a teleportation experiment with another baboon proved successful.

However, as Brundle and Veronica were about to celebrate this scientific triumph, Veronica became aware of the fact that the possessive and jealous Borans was threatening to reveal the Telepods' existence to the world prematurely. Keeping Brundle unaware of this so as to avoid hurting his feelings, Veronica abruptly left to confront Borans. Incorrectly suspecting that Veronica was still seeing Borans romantically, a drunken and jealous Brundle decided to teleport himself so as to deprive Veronica of the opportunity to see a historic moment in science. However, a common housefly slipped into the sending Telepod unnoticed by the preoccupied scientist. After his successful teleportation, Brundle went to bed, and was awoken some hours later by Veronica. He told her about his rash teleportation and the reasons behind it, and the two then reconciled and made love.

The next morning, Brundle awoke feeling strangely energized. He was surprised at his reflexes as he plucked a fly out of mid-air, and then performed a series of highly complex gymnastic exercises for Veronica. Unable to account for his new strength and agility, Brundle theorized that the teleportation process had somehow improved and purified his body. By this point, he and Veronica had begun to affect each other; he began wearing new clothes that she had bought for him, and she began wearing a necklace with a heart-shaped charm that he bought for her (despite her previous assertion that she never wore jewelry). However, Brundle's newfound energy, which now included incredible sexual stamina, quickly turned to all-out mania.

Brundle and Veronica then head to a restaurant. There, Brundle tells Veronica that he had asked the computer to improve him, yet the computer didn't understand what he was talking about, which made Brundle think real carefully. While talking quite fast, Brundle tells Veronica that he thinks the reason why he has strength and agility, is because of the process of his cells being taken apart atom-by-atom and being put back together has purified Brundle and made him realize the personal potential he's been neglecting all these years goal by goal. Due to Brundle consistently pouring sugar on his coffee while explaining his thoughts, Veronica questions Brundle if he "likes coffee with sugar". Brundle responds in confusion, and continues his subject without an answer. Brundle then says that the process has given himself the chance to be who he really is, and that it might also improve people as well.

He became arrogant and aggressive, and when Veronica discovered several coarse hairs growing out of the scratches on his back during a long lovemaking session, Brundle dismissed her concerns. Instead, he was obsessively focused on his new feeling of euphoria, and attempted to force Veronica to undergo teleportation, claiming that the process was like "a perfectly pure and benign drug." Shocked by his behavior, Veronica refused, and Brundle, seething with energy, abandoned her and stormed off into the night, determined to find someone who could "keep up" with him sexually.

Eventually, Brundle entered a local bar, where he volunteered to arm-wrestle a burly man, Marky, with the prize being the sexual favors of a young woman named Tawny. He then used his newfound super-strength to give Marky's arm a compound fracture, and spent the rest of the night bar-hopping with Tawny. The next morning, Brundle took Tawny to his warehouse, where he teleported himself once again during a lull in their sexual escapades. Soon after, Brundle, now feeling less energetic than before, tried to force Tawny to undergo teleportation. However, Veronica arrived in time to prevent this, and Tawny subsequently left the warehouse. Veronica then tried to warn Brundle that something went wrong during his first teleportation, and explained that scientific testing of the coarse hairs she had previously trimmed from his back revealed that they were not human.

Refusing to listen to her, Brundle threw Veronica out of his warehouse and told her never to return. However, after her departure, he went into his bathroom to examine himself, and was horrified to discover that lesions were appearing on his face, and that his fingernails were beginning to fall off. Humbled by this discovery, Brundle checked his computer's records and learned that the Telepod computer, confused by the presence of two separate life-forms in the sending pod, merged him with the fly at the genetic level.

After a month-long period of self-imposed isolation, Brundle finally mustered up the courage to call Veronica and reconcile with her. His body had been progressively degenerating during this period, with each day bringing new horrors and the loss of various body parts. Eventually, Brundle came to realize that his genetic fusion with the fly was slowly transforming him into a deformed hybrid creature, which he subsequently dubbed "Brundlefly". He soon began to exhibit fly-like characteristics, such as his need to vomit corrosive enzymes (which Brundle named "vomit-drop") on his food in order to pre-digest it. Brundle also developed a craving for sugary foods, and his lab quickly became a cluttered mess, full of half-eaten donuts, cakes, and other junk-food items. Overwhelmed by the horror of it all, Brundle began using gallows humor and took a perverse pleasure in certain aspects of his metamorphosis, such as his new ability to cling to walls.

He was also morbidly fascinated with his transformation from a scientific perspective, and even videotaped a demonstration of his new fly-like eating technique "for posterity", as well as keeping his sloughed-off human body parts in his medicine cabinet, which he dubbed the "Brundle Museum of Natural History". Regardless, Brundle still desperately searched for a cure to his condition, even as he continued to disintegrate mentally, emotionally, and physically. A scene deleted from The Fly, which would have fit in at this point, featured an experimental test of Brundle's "cure", in which the desperate scientist used the Telepods to fuse the surviving baboon and a cat together into one entity. However, the resulting "monkey-cat" creature was horribly deformed and in terrible agony, and Brundle put it out of its misery by beating it to death with a metal pipe. A small fly-like leg then burst out of Brundle's left side, and, unable to cope with this new appendage, he amputated it with his teeth.

As his diseased transformation progressed, Brundle installed a fusion program in the Telepod computer, and the computer suggested to him that the most logical way to make himself more human was to fuse genetically with one or more pure human beings. Veronica then came to visit him once again, but he explained to her that he was losing his human compassion and told her to leave him forever before he could hurt her. While on the roof of the warehouse to watch her depart-with her confidant, Borans-Brundle overheard Veronica say that she was pregnant with Brundle's child, and wanted an abortion.

He then proceeded to smash into the clinic Veronica and Borans had gone to, and abducted her before she could abort the fetus. On a nearby rooftop, Brundle begged Veronica to carry the child to term, since it could very well have been conceived before his fateful teleportation and thus might have been "all that's left of the real me." Veronica replied that she was too afraid to have the baby, and a distraught Brundle took her back to his warehouse.

Seeing that Borans, armed with a shotgun, had broken into the laboratory, Brundle leapt through the warehouse's open skylight and pounced on him. The crazed mutant dissolved Borans' left hand and right foot with his corrosive "vomit-drop", and only Veronica's pleading prevented him from killing Borans. Brundle then revealed his desperate plan to Veronica: he intended to use Telepods 1 and 2 (as well as the old prototype, which would serve as a receiving pod) to fuse with Veronica and their unborn child. He believed that this would make them the "ultimate family", an entity "more human than I am alone."

Veronica resisted, and in the ensuing struggle, she accidentally ripped off his jaw, prompting his final transformation. Brundle's body shed its outer layer of decaying flesh, revealing the monstrous combination of man and insect that had been growing underneath it. The now-mute "Brundlefly" then threw Veronica into Telepod 1 and stepped inside Telepod 2. However, the wounded Borans managed to stay conscious and used his shotgun to sever the power cables connected to Telepod 1, allowing Veronica to escape unharmed. Seeing this, Brundlefly attempted to break out of Telepod 2 just as the fusion sequence occurred, and was molecularly intertwined with chunks of metal and other components. As the mortally wounded Brundlefly-Telepod fusion creature crawled out of the prototype Telepod, he begged Veronica to end his suffering with Borans' shotgun by placing the barrel against his own head. A devastated Veronica hesitated for a moment, and then pulled the trigger, mercifully blasting Brundlefly's head off.

Several months later, Veronica died giving birth to Brundle's son, Martin. Martin was persuaded to continue his late father's work on the Telepods when he was shown videotape footage of his father being interviewed by Veronica about his work. Despite eventually transforming into an insect-like creature himself (one which proved to be far more deadly than its father), Martin eventually found a cure for his condition, and was successful in getting the Telepods to work again, thus redeeming his late father's legacy.

Me: WHAT THE FUCKING HELL!?

Nora Beautifly: Just like in the movie.

Me: MY GOD!

A woman and a Chandelure came out.

Brunhilda: Oh man!

Chandelure: What has he done to himself!?

Me: This was all an accident. But this is what happens when you mess with the laws of mother nature.

I then saw a 12 Gauge Shotgun on the floor and the woman picked it up and Brundle had it pointed at his head.

Veronica: NO I CAN'T!

Me: Veronica this is what he wants. He can't go on like this anymore! Look at him!

Brunhilda: J.D. is right! It's what he wants.

Veronica reluctantly agreed and then…

BANG!

She blew his head clear off of his body and killed him!

Veronica was crying hard as she had killed him and I comforted her.

Chandelure: Man that is a horrible way to die.

Brunhilda: Yeah it is. But he wanted it this way.

Nora Beautifly: Yeah.

Brunhilda: My name is Brunhilda and I'm a Valkyrie.

Chandelure: And I'm Mikaela Florentine and yes I'm a Chandelure. But I became like this to help kill Team Rocket Scientists. I was helping Team Loud Phoenix Storm from the darkness to kill them.

Nora Beautifly: Wow. Pleasure to meet you. That's amazing.

Me: We have to destroy these machines. But first.

I put on my blind man glasses and snapped my fingers and Mikaela reverted back and she was naked. Nora reverted back too.

Nora was human again. But naked.

Nora Benechevsky: (covers herself) That's one fly swatted. (laughs) Good thing I came along since I'm a Beautifly.

I gave Nora back her clothes.

Mikaela: (Covers herself) That was nuts. But thank goodness no one is gonna be using those fusion chambers again.

Me: I agree.

I gave her new clothes.

Brunhilda: Crazy movie.

I fired waves of energy and blew the fusion chambers apart and destroyed them. I then snapped my fingers and destroyed the Fly DNA inside Ronnie's unborn child and made it human. Perfect human DNA.

I went over to Stathis Borans.

Me: Hold on sir. We're gonna get you help.

I picked him up and made a basket to carry him in out of vines.

Me: You're gonna be all right.

I put him in it.

We all went back to the Estate. We got Stathis to the infirmary and Veronica was put on the couch to be consoled after making her first kill albeit a merciful one.

After killing the creature from the 1986 movie, The Fly, Lincoln, me, Nico, Nicole, Lynn Jr., Litchi Faye Ling, and the Megaforce Rangers are off to rescue another girl who's being held by McWolf, and they're in Harwood County.

Lincoln: So, McWolf has chosen to hold the next girl here in Harwood County, pretty nice.

Me: You said it, big guy. But, McWolf did say he'll build some castles close to home, and since we have Troy and his team with us, this is perfect.

Troy Burrows: It sure is good to be back in Harwood County.

Litchi Faye Ling: I don't know why, but the next girl McWolf has kidnapped may be someone that I know.

Nicole: Only one way to find out.

We arrive at McWolf's castle, and we head into the room where he's holding the girl, and the girl that McWolf has kidnapped was Makoto Nanaya from the BlazBlue series.

Lincoln: Wow, it's Makoto Nanaya.

Nicole: She's also from the BlazBlue series, just like Litchi.

Litchi Faye Ling: Now, that was something, first McWolf kidnapped me yesterday, now he's kidnapped Makoto.

Lynn Jr.: This was the same thing when Lincoln rescued Asuka Kazama when McWolf kidnapped two days ago, and then, Lili De Rochefort the other day.

Lincoln went up to Makoto Nanaya and freed her.

Makoto Nanaya: Thanks for freeing me.

When Makoto Nanaya saw Lincoln, she had a deep red blush on her face once she saw the 7'0" tall, bare-chested, handsome, white-haired, and extremely muscular hunk.

Makoto Nanaya: Oh, wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you, Makoto Nanaya.

Makoto Nanaya: (Seductively) Same here, big man.

Then, Makoto Nanaya saw Litchi Faye Ling with us, and she was surprised to see here.

Makoto Nanaya: Litchi? I'm surprised to see you here, did you get…?

Litchi Faye Ling: Yes, I was kidnapped by McWolf yesterday and I was held in his castle in The Hidden Sand Village, until Lincoln and his team came to the castle, and Lincoln freed me.

Then, McWolf came out.

Troy Burrows: I got to admit, picking Harwood County to hold the next girl for Lincoln to rescue was a pretty good plan, McWolf.

McWolf: I knew you would approve of it, and I've got some old friends for you to fight. LOOGIES!

An army of Loogies appeared from green blobs of slime.

Troy Burrows: Loogies, I would've thought you'd summon the foot soldiers of The Armada.

Orion: Same here.

McWolf: I decided to use the foot soldiers of The Warstar for this one.

Troy Burrows: Good choice, alright, guys, let's do this.

Lincoln: You got it, and you guys are going to be in for a big surprise.

The Megaforce Rangers and Lincoln walked up to the army of Loogies.

Megaforce Rangers and Lincoln: IT'S MORPHIN TIME! GO GO MEGAFORCE!

The Megaforce Rangers transformed into their Megaforce forms, and Lincoln transformed into his new Megaforce Ranger form, he has on an Orange Megaforce Ranger uniform with a large orange helmet and black visor, but for him, he has the Thunderbird motif, and it goes well with his Sword of Taranis holstered on his wider muscular back and the eight large orange orbs orbiting around his legs, but the one thing that ruled him out were his larger blue angel wings surging with super lightning with stars and blue nebulae reflecting in the feathers.

Troy Burrows: Fury of The Dragon! Megaforce Red!

Emma Goodall: Flames of The Phoenix! Megaforce Pink!

Noah Carver: Bite of The Shark! Megaforce Blue!

Jake Holling: Venom of The Snake! Megaforce Black!

Gia Moran: Claw of The Tiger! Megaforce Yellow!

Orion: SUPER MEGAFORCE SILVER!

Robo Knight: I am Robo Knight: Protector of the Environment, Guardian of the Earth!

Lincoln: Storm of The Thunderbird! Megaforce Orange!

Megaforce Rangers and Lincoln: EARTH'S DEFENDERS NEVER SURRENDER! POWER RANGERS MEGAFORCE!

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive explosion erupted from behind them.

Me: Whoa, Lincoln, you look awesome as an Orange Megaforce Ranger!

Troy Burrows: I got to say, it's really impressive, now, let's get them.

The Megaforce Rangers and Lincoln unholstered their weapons, and charged at the army of Loogies. They fired powerful energy blasts and slashed at the Loogies, which hits them, and they exploded. Then, Lincoln changed back to normal, and he, Nico, me, Nicole, and Lynn Jr. jumped McWolf, and we tickled him.

McWolf: (LAUGHING HYSTERICALLY)

We ceased tickling McWolf, and we left the castle, and we ordered smoothies for everyone back home from Ernie's BrainFreeze, and went back to the World Tree Estate. We then showed everyone Lincoln's new Megaforce Ranger form from the footage of the rescue, and they were impressed.

Lori: Wow, now that was literally impressive.

Lynn: Yeah, we already saw his Mystic Force Ranger form, and now, we saw his new Samurai Ranger form, then, his new Jungle Fury Ranger form, and now, we've seen his new Megaforce Ranger form.

Lincoln's siblings were really impressed at seeing some of Lincoln's new Power Ranger forms, but like he said, he's just getting started.

We were all impressed.

We went back to the Estate and we later went to Gotham Royal York Prison where Chris Griffin was being held.

Centaur Man: I'm surprised Chris isn't dead yet.

Nico: I am too. But man! He had his butt paddled all the way down to his bones.

Twilight Sparkle: What was Chris Griffin thrown in prison for?

Me: You would not like him Twilight. Chris Griffin is dumber than his so-called father. He's an electron-sized brain testicle-chinned freak and he is even stupider than his father. How he ever got to high school is beyond me.

Eli: Yeah what a freak!

We saw Chris being paddled.

WHAP! WHAP WHAP WHAP WHAP WHAP WHAP!

We went into the spanking chamber as it's called and we faced him.

Bianca: So you're the kid who abused his own sister.

Chris Griffin: Haven't you guys done enough to me already?!

Stewie: Not happy to see me and Brian, Chris?

Lois: Or me and Meg huh?

Chris Griffin: Mom? You got freed?

Lois Griffin: Long story. But I bet you aren't happy to see me huh?

Chris Griffin: Of course not! Everything was fine until you four sided with those so called heroes!

Nico: Well these "So-Called Heroes" are the ones who brought justice to all of Quahog for all of its crimes. By all accounts we did the world a big favor and saved the country from all of Quahog's evil.

Chris Griffin: QUAHOG WAS MY HOME!

Eli: It was home to no one!

Arrietty: That's right!

Nico: Don't worry. I'm still going to use my bugle to annoy Chris. But I want to experiment with something.

Nico blew his bugle to the tune of the Ben 10 theme song.

Astrotrain: That song sounds familiar.

Ben: Yeah it does.

Chris was getting annoyed!

Then Nico blew his bugle to the Generator Rex theme song.

Chris was getting more and more pissed! Then Nico blew the Reville call in Chris's ears and then CHRIS GOT ENRAGED!

Chris Griffin: THAT'S IT! I AM GOING TO FUCKING KILL YOU AND RIP YOUR FUCKING INTESTINES RIGHT OUT OF YOUR GODDAMN ASS!

Chris roared in fury!

Nico then touched him on the arm and kicked him in the face.

Nico: That'll be all for now. But I plan to experiment with more songs in the future.

Springer: That's perfectly fine.

Me: It's better than what Lincoln is doing to Chris.

Lincoln was firing lightning at Chris's crotch and electrocuting him as his crotch was lit on fire.

Laney: (Laughs) Serves that freak right.

Eli: Yeah what a clod.

Nico: Yeah. Lets go home.

We went back home.

Later on, we were busy watching TV. Suddenly, the thunderbird emblazoned on Lincoln's forehead began to glow.

Lincoln: Hey, Lincoln 2, what's wrong, trouble?

Lincoln 2: Yeah, Lincoln, and it's really bad. I've picked up on the energy signal of another Dragonoid, and he's out for revenge for what you guys did to Luka long ago.

We gasped in shock after what Lincoln 2 just told us.

Lori: Even after we got rid of that heartless sadistic jerk, Luka, for tricking Nico and giving him those necklaces, the Dragonoids are still out causing trouble.

Sena: They won't quit until they've conquered our world, but it's our job to stop them for good.

Lynn: Rai, I know Dragonoids happen to look like normal humans, but don't Dragonoids have an aura that'll show their true form?

Rai: That's right, Lynn, and in their true form, the dragon scales on their faces appear from blue flames, and their eyes turn into the eyes of a dragon.

Lincoln 2: I've got an idea on how to rat him out, and how we can stay one step ahead of him.

Suddenly, the thunderbird on Lincoln's forehead glowed, and we were surrounded by energy auras in our favorite colors and with the elemental powers we have.

Lincoln 2: There, I used a powerful magic spell to mark off our auras, but when we see a black aura surrounding someone, that's the aura of the Dragonoid, and that'll be the one we strike, so Eddy, keep your blaster holstered until then.

Eddy: Got it.

Me: Cool so now they are marked like a beacon. It will make hunting them down more easier.

Lincoln 2: Yep.

Teen Titans Thunder: Nico, I would like to remind you that it's your turn to lead today.

Nico: I know thank you. All right time to call in the team. (Pulls out his bugle and plays Reville)

We all came and stood in our lines.

Nico: ATTEN-TION!

We stood in attention.

Nico: All right maggots listen up! I just found out that the Tigeroid's archnemesis clan is on the move. Scans show that they are after another Tai Chi Character located in Iceland. It's in a canyon that has a really hard name to pronounce. Fjaðrárgljúfur Canyon.

Holly Guðmundsdóttir: (Icelandic Accent) I know where that is commander. It's located in southeastern Iceland.

Hunter: (German Accent) Und it means Feather River Canyon.

Nico: That helps guys. Thank you. All right we're going after this character and we're going to kill any Dragonoids that stand in our way. We leave in 25 minutes.

Blizzard, Goliath, Villamax, Trickster, Mammoth, Trumbipular, KGBeast, Spymaster, Madame Masque and Cad Bane then appeared.

Trickster: Can me, Blizzard, Goliath, Villamax, Mammoth, Trumbipular, KGBeast, Spymaster, Madame Masque and Cad Bane go with you guys?

Nico: You all sure can. And we're gonna go to Fjaðrárgljúfur Canyon to take down another member of the Dragonoids.

Trumbipular: I hope this doesn't turn out to be like what happened with that Luka guy.

Kairi Yano: Yeah, that was awful.

Nico: It sure was. But I have a feeling it won't be like that.

Bitstream: (to Rai) Why don't we head on over to your ship for preparations? After all, the Dragonoids are your bad guys.

Rai: Good idea. Lets head to the ship guys.

We went to the ship Rai and his team took and it was something.

Me: Wow! Your ship is amazing.

Rai: It sure is.

Sena: Nice ship huh?

Me: Yep.

Nico: It's amazing. We can use this as our ship for when we go after more of the Dragonoids and the Tai Chi Characters.

Eli: Good idea commander.

Nico: Lets get her ready and head on out.

We got the ship ready and we were off to Iceland.

The Tigeroid Ship was flying over the ocean.

Trumbipular: How about we have lunch while preparing for the battle? I'm getting hungry for peanuts!

Nico: Good idea. (Stomach growls) Oops. Colonel get food ready.

Me: Yes sir.

I used my imagination powers and made an awesome buffet for us with all our favorite foods including chicken wings, peanuts and more.

Eli: Oh boy!

Arrietty: That all looks amazing.

Laney: It sure does. Thanks Colonel.

Me: Anytime guys.

We got to eating.

Lugnutz: Why don't we see the Tai Chi cards you guys have so far?

Sena: Sure thing.

They pulled out their Tai Chi Characters that they had and newly acquired after the deaths of Luka and Ave.

Rai: Looks like it.

Eli: The Tai Chi Cards are amazing. I didn't know there were so many.

Arrietty: What do they all do?

Eli: These cards all have amazing powers. And there has been a major league deadly war between clans that has been going on for a long time.

Arrietty: Whoa.

Madame Masque: Geez. How many cards are there?!

Sena: There are 1,000 Characters.

We gasped.

Me: Wow! I didn't know about that.

Nico: Me neither.

Arrietty: That is amazing. J.D. how did you meet Rai and Sena?

Me: That is an interesting one. I met them after I killed one of their enemies: Ave.

Sena: He was a Dragonoid enemy of ours.

Me: And I made sure that he would never hurt anyone again. It's how I first met Rai and his friends.

Rai: It was so cool how J.D. killed him.

Me: Thanks Rai.

Arrietty: Wow. Why are the Tiger and Dragon Clans all fighting for these cards?

Me: Well that is just it. This war has been between going on for a long time. Centuries as a matter of fact.

Nico: The Dragon Clan wants to use the power of the Tai Chi Characters to destroy the world. But we don't know what they intend to really use them for exactly.

Eli: But whatever it is it can't be good.

Sour Sweet: By the way, Rai, how's your mom doing?

Rai: She's doing great thank you.

Me: Rai's mom was murdered by Luka and we killed him and brought justice to Rai.

Eli: Yeah that was awful.

Sasuke: Like what happened with myself and J.D. with the Kisenian Blossom, Rai too was wanting to get revenge on Luka. But we helped him realize that vengeance is never the answer to anything.

Nico: And it's good you did. The Dragonoids are totally honorless scumbags and they all deserve death.

Arrietty: What they are doing is terrible.

Laney: You have no idea. But what they don't know about us however is we have gotten more powerful the last time we faced them.

Eli: We sure have.

Blizzard: (to Rai) Have you told your mom that you and Sena are a thing?

Rai: I sure did.

Sena: (Blushes) And she approved.

Eli: I think it's really cute too.

Arrietty: Yeah. Who have you guys killed out of all the Dragonoids?

Me: We killed just two of them. I killed Ave. He was a snake humanoid.

I went over his history.

---

Ave

Ave is a member of the Dragonoid race and one of the major antagonists in Tai Chi Chasers. He is a vicious fighter who loves to torment Tigeroids using whips (real and Tai Chi influenced). He speaks in an eccentric tone, never hesitating to attack his foes. His voice actor in the 4kids dub is Wayne Grayson.

His favorite Tai Chi card lets him conjure up hordes of green whips, using them to lash out at enemies.

Ave was first introduced alongside Jahara, sent by General Vicious to bring Luka back to the base. At the moment, Luka was locked in a fight with his enemy Rai, not being able to be a threat due to not using his Tai Chi symbols. Though Luka quietly returned with Jahara, Rai's dares for a fight brought Ave in Luka's place. He maliciously beat down on Rai using his Tai Chi whips to deal heavy damage. But his torment ended when the other Chasers made the scene and, after giving him back his Hwa card and a new Geom card, Ave lost to the Chasers and fled.

He next faced off against Rai and Donha alone inside a church to capture the Tai Chi bell symbol. He used a group of Dragonoid robots in this next fight, soon putting Donha's rock Tai Chi against him by weighing it down and doubling its size with his own Tai Chi. Rai was unable to help due to being trapped in a cage by the enemy. But the symbol both sides were fighting for reacted to Rai and he used it to not only help Donha, but defeat Ave once again.

Ave's next fight against the Chasers came when Rai was with Finn trying to save an unconscious Tori from the Dragonoid's clutches. In return for his freedom, Ave demanded all their Tai Chi symbols. But Finn was able to divert Ave's attention away with arrogant bragging, causing him to become angered and attack a non attacking Finn.

That gave Rai enough time to free Tori and turn the tables on Ave with Finn.

As of late, Ave has been apart of the Dragonoid's joint efforts to attack their ship and was seen cutting down trees around Rai's hometown and used them to slam down on the ship when it was pulled close to a waterfall (the water carrying the logs down and they slammed into the ship as they came down the falls). But Rai came on the scene again and helped give the Chasers what power they needed to drive away the Dragonoids.

He again was seen with Jahara when the Dragonoids attack General Aidan and his ship. But, like before, Ave and the other Dragonoids were defeated. It seemed all their failure caused the Dragonoids to turn away from their general, not wanting to be pulled into any sort of punishment the emperor gave him (as Ave described it).

After Vicious was taken from the other Dragonoids, Ave had a cocky idea of taking over in his place, taking Durah with him and going after the Chasers alone in a new Dragonoid air ship. He found the Chasers in a forest that had been supersized by the effect of a nearby symbol. He previously used one of his Tai Chi cards to turn a swarm of giant beetles into his own malice servants, turning on their leader who teamed with Rai. Rai and the beetle thought they had chased Ave away after he was knocked out of the area by a head on charge, but he returned and snagged the Tai Chi card with his whip. However, the card's effect backfired on Ave and started to make him bigger, taller and soon inflated like a balloon. The Chasers used a new card given to Rai by Komorka, the Unification symbol, to combine their strengths and send Ave away, getting the symbol and sending Ave flying out of sight like a popped balloon. He was later seen, his clothes wrecked and his face bruised, when General Mischa came on the scene.

Ave was automatically against the new general, causing him to use Tai Chi sound to torture him with excruciating pain by multiplying sound around his ears. He was sent on a mission by Mischa to use one of his plans to defeat the Chasers. Though Ave himself considers it brilliant, the Chasers defeat him again. But rather than punish Ave the way he did Jahara, Mischa sent Ave back to their homeworld though a glowing orb, causing Garnia to wonder if it was just a set-up to get rid of him.

That was not the last of Ave as he was called back by Mischa, but now he is under the influence of the Monstrous Tai Chi character, a forbidden symbol that can make the target almost invincible, able to grow more powerful but could destroy the victim's mind. As described by Mischa, he has become the "ultimate Dragonoid warrior" as he was sent back against the Chasers alongside Jahara to take the Tai Chi cards. Ave proved more powerful this time, able to deflect Rai's Slice Tai Chi and shatter Donha's Stone attack with a super powered Whip attack. He eventually turned on Jahara when she refused to obey Mischa and the general ordered him to kill her. But the Chasers teamed up and drove Ave away before Jahara used a Tai Chi symbol to warp them away from the Chasers, just as Ave was using the Tai Chi symbol to bulge his muscles and power, glowing pitch black.

He is sent by the general again after Rai and Luka, trapped inside another dimension. This time, his power grows even worse as he is attacking both Rai and Luka with no mercy. But eventually, the two work together to defeat Ave.

Finale of Ave

His "last mission" involved him attacking the Chasers within a town holding the Time Tai Chi card, which caused a convergence that threw him and the Chasers back through time. Now in the past, Ave's transformed state is seen to be considered a "monster" amongst the locals. He later appears towards the end of the episode to attack

Rai's father is amazingly able to recognize the symbol on Ave's forehead and uses his own Tai Chi card (of which there is no explanation as to how he got it) to free Ave before his mind was completely destroyed by the card. He was returned to normal, confused as to what happened, before he tried to get the Time card before Rai did. Though he got it, the card converged again and flung them back into the future, where he loses the card and it is with Rai.

Though everything seems to be the same, we see Ave at the end of the episode transformed into a young boy. Its unknown what became of the Tai Chi cards that Ave owned.

When I was finished Arrietty was shocked and so was everyone that hadn't heard it.

Arrietty: That's terrible!

Eli: He was one of the worst.

Me: Luka tried to kill us all with deadly necklaces like in one of the LupinRangers adventures.

Eli: I remember that. I even still have the necklace you gave me right here.

He showed it around his neck.

Me: Thank goodness they aren't linked to that bomb anymore.

Nico: Yeah.

Arrietty: Who is Luka?

Me: His history is just as bad.

I went over his history.

Luka

Luka is one of the main antagonists of Tai Chi Chasers, a member of the Dragonoid race and arch enemy of Rai. When the Tai Chi Chasers came to Earth to try and escape the Dragonoid's pursuit, Luka was drawn towards Rai's home and destroyed it, aiming to take out all Tigeroids he comes me of his Tai Chi skills include the (su) water tai chi, (juum) steam, (gway) destruction, and the (ja) shuriken tai chi. He is voiced by Wayne Grayson.

Luka was aboard the Dragonoid battleship tailing after the Tigeroid ship through the skies over Earth. But when they lose sight of their enemy, Luka and Garnia are sent to Earth to hunt down and subdue the Tai Chi Chasers. But as he is tailing after Sena and Finn with Garnia and a group of Dragonoid robots, he senses Luka sensing the "power" a strange power nearby (possibly either Rai or his mom) and determines this is a power he must defeat. So he strays off his orders to raid Rai's home while both are away, smashing it to pieces just as Rai returns in shock.

He turns his attention on Rai, attacking him without hesitation. But Rai's mother returns in time to find the two in her destroyed home. She then forces Rai out of the house and locks him out, facing Luka herself. Luka then decides that it was Rai's mother that was giving out the power that he sensed. But as he drew his sword and prepared to attack, a giant explosion destroys the house and causes her to vanish, leaving Luka to go after Rai again. However, Rai soon gains the upperhand when his rage over losing his home and mother fuels him into transforming into a Tigeroid and uses his Hwa Tai Chi to overwhelm Luka.

When the other Chasers discover Rai, they rush to help and manage to knock him out before running off with Rai. Luka emerges from the rubble, enraged by his defeat and claims Rai is "one of them". He lies in wait around the ruined remains of Rai's home, knowing Rai would soon return, which he did. But this time, Rai tries to fight Luka with his own strength, almost losing before Luka is called back to the airship. Despite Rai's attempts to get him to keep fighting and the fact that he saw the boy as a threat, Luka dismisses Rai and departs.

Luka's next confrontation with Rai is while the two are inside a sunken ship, where it is said that Luka's nickname is the "Water Dragon", meaning he is impossible to defeat underwater. He overpowers Rai before a mysterious masked warrior steps in and diverts Luka's attention to her instead. Luka becomes slowly infuriated as he tries to fight this opponent but she continues to lead him further into the ship. He soon realizes this was so the force of his attacks would cause the ship to break loose of its holding and sink deeper into the sea, taking him with it, and decides to escape after losing sight of his opponent.

Recently, he has been seen each time the Dragonoids unleash a full scale barrage against the Chasers. Though he does not get into direct fights with Rai, he seems to be on the losing side as the Dragonoids are defeated each time. And when General Vicious was stripped of his position and replaced, he did not seem to care alongside the others. But when the new general, Mischa, appeared, it had Luka shocked to see his "friend" becoming their new and more merciless leader. Each time he lays eyes on Mischa, he is ordered to wipe that look off his face. After overhearing Jahara and Duran having a comical chat with one another, Luka is seen smiling.

Kind Warrior

Luka seems to be changing slightly as he watches his fellow Dragonoids punished by Mischa. He even pleaded that Jahara be sparred of the punishment dealt by his hands for betraying him. But she decides to accept what is coming and tells Luka not to forget her which he promises concluding that he might have some feeling for Jahara after all.

In the next episode, Rai and Luka wind up in a different dimension, along with Duran, and must work together to escape it while they are being hunted by a Tai Chi controlled Ave. M

Terra interrupts Luka. Mischa had set a trap for Luka, however Rai manages to overpower the conversion while Luka battles Ave. Now that they are out, however, they have gone back to being enemies.

Later, when the Dragonoid Assult Squad comes, Luka is found looking out from a balcony. He is interrupted by Terra, a member of the Dragoid Assult Squad, who is one of his biggest fans. He was last seen looking back annoyed.

Next, on the mission to stop the Tigeroids from going to the Sage's conference, Luka and Garnia meet the Chasers and had a battle. While Luka was battling Rai he asked why he was battling him. When Rai gave him his reasons, he simply called Rai a fool before battling him agian. Apparently, things changed when Jahara showed up. Like Garnia, Luka was also shocked to see Jahara, but he was even more shocked when he knew she was under the monsterous tai chi. Luka tried many times telling her to resist the effect, but it seemed like she did not care. When Rai came out of the trench he was a little shocked that he used whoo the wing card. Soon after an avalanche formed and it was aimed directly at Jahara. He ran to save her, saving her at the last moment. At the end, he was seen standing next to the unconcious Jahara as he remembered what she had told him.

Later Luka watched over Jahara in a room. Mischa came in after him saying that he knew a way to help Jahara. Luka heard his plan, which was to betray the emperor, and turned it down. Later he shows up in Mischa's office when the door was shot upon. Mischa sends him and Garnia to find an intruder. Luka and Garnia find the trespasser and Luka recognizes the person as the masked warrior form the submarine. The warrior fled, and Luka and Garnia discovered a secret passage way that the warrior somehow knew.

Luka goes back to Jahara promising her he would find a way to save her from the monstrous tai chi. Mischa appears again ordering him to join Garnia in defending the tigeroids' lost tai chi symbols the dragonoids found. Luka agrees but tells Mischa that it was the lat time he wold take his orders and that after the battle Luka would fight Mischa. Soon after words he discovers the boom character was going to be activated in a matter of minutes to hours. Luka tries to shutdown the system but Mischa had already turned off the control system so his plan would follow through. Luka then scream Mischa's name and runs to get Garnia. He finds Garnia about to attack the chasers and stops him. Luka then tells Garnia about Mischa's plan. Out of nowhere Jahara appears and knocks Luka off his feet. Luka again tries to reason with Jahara to break from the hideous character, however Jahara continues to attack him and would have prevailed but luckily Garnia stepped in a the last moment. When Jahara screams in agony Luka asks "What's happening." Garnia sees this and decides to take the full power of the symbol on himself, (to which Luka calls insane) somehow draining it from the struggling Jahara. Luka cries out Garnia's name as he dies and Jahara is cured. Luka then picks up the unconscious Jahara into his arms just as the destruction character activates. Luka tells the chasers that there was still time to save the trapped tigeroids. When Rai asks if he and Jahara would make it out ok he says that it would be the last time that they battled. He then left with Jahara and Duran though where they went is unknown.

Changing of the sides

After escaping Luftdrake, Luka took Jahara and Duran to his old house. There he was reunited with his sister Phoebe who invited the Chasers over. The caretaker of the house then decided to race the chasers along with another Dragonoid who was there on business. He spent the majority of the race with Phoebe who was cheering on Rai. when Rai got to the bridge Luka witnesses as the dragonoid tried cheating and Rai overcoming it. He was shocked that Rai went down to save the dragonoid voluntarily with the wing card. Later after the race the caretaker told Luka to lead the Chasers to where Mishka was headed leaving everyone except Phoebe less than excited.

Eli: They have no honor and they all must be eradicated.

Laney: Yeah I agree. They are all monsters.

Sword Man: (to Nico) Maybe you should practice using these cards before we locate the Dragonoids. You are the leader today after all.

Bomb Burst: Okay guys. I have some good news and bad news. Which do you want to hear first?

Nico: Give us the Bad News first.

Bomb Burst: Bad news: only one Dragonoid is in there area. Good news: Stewie and Lisa identified who he is.

Stewie: I'm afraid it's one you are most familiar with.

Lisa Loud: His name is Garnia.

Sena and Rai gasped in shock!

Me: Who is Garnia?

Sena: He is a big brute.

Rai: I thought he was dead.

Me: What can you tell us about him?

Sena: You would not like him.

We were told about his history.

Garnia

Garnia is a member of the Dragonoid race and one of the antagonists of Tai Chi Chasers. He is the most muscular member of the Dragonoid force trying to obtain the Tai Chi symbols before the Tigeroids do. His voice actor in the 4kids dub is Marc Thompson.

He wields a variety of different Tai Chi cards, one mostly being Pok, explosion, which Rai later receive from Luka after Garina's death.

Garnia is currently deceased, after he gave up his life to save Jahara from the "Monstrous" Tai Chi Character.

Chasing the Chasers

Garnia's first attack against the Tigeroids was in the series premiere, chasing down Sena and the others after Luka mysteriously left his side during the chase. He eventually catches Sena and Finn after a chase through the sewers and into the open, proving to be strong enough against both Chasers. But unfortunately for him, Tori and Donha arrive on the scene and manage to fool him with Tori's illusion Tai Chi. This gave Sena enough time to use the Tai Chi water symbol to summon a giant wave of water and washed him away down the canal.

His next attack against the Tigeroids came when Rai was part of the team and they were hunting for a symbol atop an eagle's nest. Though he proved to be more of a problem this time, Tori successfully used his tickle Tai Chi to cause him to start laughing uncontrollably. This gave Rai enough time to use his Tai Chi symbols and blast him clear off the mountain top.

One day, when the Tigeroids were docked on the ground as Finn and Sena searched for a Tai Chi symbol deep within a forest of trees, Garnia came on the assault with massive waves of Dragonoid robots, seeking to storm their ship and steal the symbol the Chasers had collected. He now had a new secret weapon, a Tai Chi symbol that turned the Activators of the Chasers utterly useless and forced them to fight him off with whatever strength they had. Though it seemed the Chasers were becoming outnumbered and powerless against the robots, Sena and Finn arrived and used their Activators to help. But by then, Garnia already entered the ship and was closing in on the symbols. Rai stepped in his way and challenged him to a fight, man to man, for the symbols. Despite having his Activator nullified, Rai used his strange power to activate his Hwa card directly in Garnia's face, blasting him away and keeping the symbols safe.

His two next attacks came when the Dragonoids starting to gang up on the Chasers. But both times, he is defeated by Rai (once aboard their own Dragonoid ship and another time when he aided in attacking the ship of General Aidan).

Garnia's next big shine as a villain came when he assisted Jahara in going after the Tai Chi symbol, Dream. But like Jahara, he is pulled into the card's convergance, bringing his greatest dream to life. And, to no real surprise, Garnia's dream makes him more powerful than any of the Chasers as he literally "blows" away Rai's attacks which gets weaker. From the way he acts, its wondered if he was actually still asleep or not when he attacked the Chasers. He is kept at bay, later in the episode, by Finn before the Tai Chi symbol that gave him his mighty powers converges dreams to nightmares and causes his new Explosion attack to grow enormous and attack him, defeating him. After the Chasers claim the card and the Dragonoids leave, instead of being furious that they failed again, Garnia is actually bursting out laughing, claiming that this failure was really a dream.

He attacks Rai, Sena and Tori when they visited Tori's orphanage looking for the Tai Chi card of sadness. When it converged on Tori's depression, it engulfed the school and caused everyone, including Rai, Sena and Garnia, to start crying uncontrollably. Tori tried to cure Garnia with his laughter card, causing him to switch between happy and sad randomly. It was broken after Tori stopped the card's convergance and claimed it. Garnia decides to use a new Tai Chi card, the Slow character, to slow down Rai and Sena's movements to that of snails. But Tori uses his Fast Tai Chi card to help speed them up before Garnia was sent running off after being burned by Rai's Flame attack (burning his rear in the process).

Later, when the he hears that the Dragonoid Assult Squad was coming, he got mad and claims that he was just as good as they are. But when they showed up, he was surprised about their behavoir.

Loyal to a Fault

In the next episode, Garnia was at the Dragonoid base with Luka trying to cheer him up. When Luka refused to smile, he gave up, and let Luka go on his own. Now Garnia sort of treats Luka like his brother, such as when Jakata dared Luka to battle, Garnia stopped him and begged him to leave Luka alone. Shortly later, Garnia and Luka go stop the Chasers from going to the Sages Conference. Garnia was battling the Chasers until he got hit with a break attack (caused by monster Jahara). He was the first one to find out that Jahara was influenced by the monsterous tai chi. Now Luka and Garnia is trying to stop Jahara. When the avalanche of snow came, Garnia was hurt so he had to rely on Luka asking him to help Jahara. Luka picked him up and they ran to save Jahara just in time. At the end Garnia was fine but he was more concerned whether or not Jahara was ok.

During the Luftdrake Invasion, Garnia was ordered by Mischka to guard the Tai Chi vault, despite his later curiosity as to why he has few guards at his side. When the Chasers arrived, Garnia began to attack without any idea as to what was going on. But it was until Luka entered that Garnia believed them and that Mischka betrayed them by turning the Luftdrake into a ticking time bomb. It was at that moment that Jahara attacked and began going after everyone. But Garina steps in the way to protect Luka from Jahara, trying to hold her down with his strength. However, the effects of the Tai Chi make Jahara become more powerful and she is beginning to cause Garnia to drop to his knees. He then decides that there's only one way to stop Jahara, by letting himself take the full force of the Monstrous Tai Chi card. This frees Jahara from the card and he allows Luka and the others to escape. He then tells Luka to take care of Jahara. The power of the Yun Tai Chi then consumes Garnia's body, and he screams in agony as he is enveloped in a flash of light, marking his death.

When she was done we were shocked!

Me: Whoa! That's intense!

Nico: Yeah! He should have stayed dead.

Eli: Looks like we're going to kill him again.

Varie: Yep.

Nico: All right everyone we should be there.

We arrived at Fjaðrárgljúfur Canyon.

Nico: Here we are guys.

Me: Wow. Fjaðrárgljúfur Canyon.

Laney: It's beautiful.

Lana: It sure is.

Eli: I've never been to this part of Iceland before. It's beautiful.

Lucy Loud: I think I see him down there.

We saw a figure.

Spymaster: I think I see him!

Nico: I do too. I'll fire the first shot this time. NUOVA STAR!

The 4 star dragonball glowed on Nico's bracelet and Nico fired a powerful fireball and it hit Garnia square in the back and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive pillar of fire exploded out of him and then the explosion sent him crashing into the rock wall. He got up and a massive fiery explosion blasted out of the pillar of fire and a phoenix cry was heard and then the symbols of the Power Rangers, Earth and Super Strength swirled around it and we landed in front of him.

Garnia: Who are all of you!?

Nico: Team Loud Phoenix Storm and we've come to kill you!

Me: Your time is up Garnia.

Garnia: (laughs) Do you even know how to use those cards, Chan?

Nico: (smirks) I do now. Guess we're not as reckless as you think.

Disk Wars Mandarin: I may not have my rings. But the powers I gained from J.D. and the others are perfect substitutes!

Me: This time we're going to make sure you stay dead Garnia. LIGHTNING!

I fired a blast of lightning from the Electro-Blast Ring and it hit Garnia and electrocuted him all over the place.

Disk Wars Mandarin: Well done J.D.

Me: Thanks Mandarin-sensei.

Nico: Oh and did we happen to mention Garnia that we killed both Luka and Ave?

Me: And you are looking at their killer: Me.

Garnia was shocked beyond all words! Then that shock turned into rage. Garnia roared and went at me and then I kicked him in the face and smashed him down.

Garnia: Cards or not, you're all still no match for me!

Goliath grew to the size of Humungousaur.

Goliath: Wanna bet, tiny?!

Goliath punched Garnia into the ground with devastating force and smashed him all over.

Me: Guess he is nothing but brawn and no brains.

Eli: Yeah what a brute.

?: You motherfuckers just don't know when to keep out of peoples business do you!

Tayuya: Oh no.

4 figures came out and they were THE SOUND 4 BUT WITH AN EVIL TAYUYA! This Tayuya had red eyes!

---

Tayuya

Tayuya is an antagonist in the anime and manga series Naruto .

She was voiced by Akeno Watanabe in the Japanese version, and Kari Wahlgren in the English dubbed version.

Tayuya also possessed a cursed seal (along with the other members of the Sound Four) which she could use to increase her strength if she ever found herself facing a difficult opponent. She was the second-strongest member of the group.

The only other known female who was ever in the Sound Village was Karin of Sasuke Uchiha's team pronounced Taka or Hebi. Anko Mitarashi was part of one of Orochimaru's squads but she never did stay in the Sound Village.

Along with the others members of the Sound Four, Tayuya was killed when she tried to deliver Sasuke Uchiha to Orochimaru. She proved to be too much of an opponent for Shikamaru Nara, though she was forced to use the second stage of her cursed seal to defeat him. Temari of the Sand Village showed up to assist him. When Tayuya's guard was down, Temari used a powerful wind jutsu that made a series of giant trees collapse on Tayuya, crushing her to death.

Although the spin-off series Rock Lee & His Ninja Pals is set in Naruto Shippuden and Tayuya is notably dead in the series, she notably appeared in several Orochimaru-related episodes. One of her most notable appearance was in Episode 31, where she is seen alongside with Kabuto and Sound Four celebrating Orochimaru's birthday.

Sakon & Ukon

Sakon and Ukon is the leader of the Sound Four and an antagonist in the series Naruto .

In the Japanese version, he was voiced by Shunsuke Sakuya. In the English dubbed version, he was voiced by Brian Beacock.

They are Siamese twins who are a part of the Sound Four. Like their teammates, they participated in the Invasion of Konoha, assisting Orochimaru by putting up a barrier to prevent anyone from interfering in the battle with the Third Hokage. They retreat after Orochimaru was immobilized in the arm by the Third Hokage. Their identities are unknown at this point, though they later become more prominent when they are sent to take Sasuke Uchiha to Orochimaru.

Sakon and Ukon were acknowledged by Orochimaru as the strongest of the Sound Four, and were very capable leaders. After the deaths of Jirobo and Kidomaru, he and Tayuya make note that they cannot delay in bringing Sasuke's coffin to Orochimaru, but are later intercepted by the Sasuke Retrieval Team. While Naruto takes off with the coffin, Kiba plants a paper bomb to separate the twins and Tayuya, throwing himself, as well as Sakon and Ukon, into a trench.

Sakon and Ukon quickly proved to be tough opponents, resorting to their second stage curse marks to defeat Kiba and Akamaru. After attempting the Fang Wolf Fang, Sakon and Ukon separate, and summon a massive iron barrier called Rashomon. Akamaru shoots acidic urine in Sakon's eyes, and while Sakon washes his eyes in a river, Ukon deals with Kiba, using his kekkei genkai to break his body down to a molecular level and merge with Kiba's own body. After Ukon threatens to kill him from the inside, Kiba stabs himself in his abdomen with a kunai knife, forcing Ukon out of his body.

Severely weakened, Kiba throws smoke bombs to cover his escape and an Akamaru decoy filled with explosives, but leaves a trail of blood that betrays his location. Ukon re-merges with Sakon and the twins agree to kill both of their opponents. All they find is Kiba's jacket, and that he has escaped into the river, but they keep the jacket so they could disguise their scents and ambush Kiba. By the time they catch up with him, Kankuro arrives and intervenes, trapping both brothers inside one of his puppets and killing them.

Kidōmaru

Kidomaru (in Japanese: 鬼童丸, Kidōmaru ) is an antagonist in the anime and manga series Naruto . He is a member of the Sound Four and is the smartest and third-strongest member of the group. He was also indirectly responsible of leading the Third Hokage's death. He could use his webbing to bind, trap and detect his group's enemies. Like the other members of the Sound Four, he was given a cursed seal that he could use to enhance his strength. He has had many appearances in Naruto video games as well such as Naruto Ultimate Ninja 3 .

He was voiced by Susumu Chiba in the Japanese version of the anime, and by Peter Lurie in the English dubbed version.

He was involved in the Invasion of Konoha along with the other members of the Sound Four, and helped put up a barrier to keep anyone from interfering in the battle between Orochimaru and the Third Hokage. He traps members of the Anbu Black Ops in a spider web to prevent them from following him as he escaped with Orochimaru, after the Third Hokage used the Fourth Hokage's forbidden Technique on the latter. His identity was unknown at this point, but was later revealed when he and his team were sent back to Konoha to escort Sasuke to Orochimaru. After Jirobo stayed behind to deal with Choji and the remainder of the Sasuke Retrieval Team caught up with him, Kidomaru handed Sasuke to his teammates and stayed to toy with his enemies. After Kidomaru incapacitates them and attempts to kill Naruto, Neji stays behind to deal with him. Neji proves himself to be a strong opponent with his Byakugan and Gentle Fist, leading Kidomaru to surmise that he cannot win in close-ranged combat, and fell back to fight from a distance.

Kidomaru eventually activates the first stage of his Cursed Seal. He summons a giant spider and creates kunai knives, cutting open the spider to release thousands of smaller ones. Neji resists the entire barrage of spiders and kunai knives, save one knife that cut his shoulder. Further testing revealed that the Byakugan had a blind spot, and after advancing to the second stage of his Cursed Seal, continued to attack that spot. He creates a bow and arrow, with the arrow attached to a chakra-filled cord to direct the arrow towards the blind spot. He succeeds in striking Neji the second time, but he sees the cord and sends some of his own chakra through it, hitting his heart. As Kidomaru lay dying, Neji remarked that he was the strongest opponent he had ever fought. Kidomaru, in turn, said that he had not been pushed so far since Kimimaro, and cursed his opponent with his last breath.

Jirobo

Jirobo (in Japanese: 次郎坊, Jirōbō ) is an antagonist in Naruto and a member of the Sound Four, Orochimaru's elite bodyguards, serving as the muscle of the group. He was indirectly responsible for leading the Third Hokage's death, who used the Fourth Hokage's forbidden technique to prevent Orochimaru from using techniques. He is a large teenage boy who can use earth style jutsu, and like the other members of the Sound Four, liked to call his opponents "trash" and generally taunt them.

He was voiced by Kenta Miyake in the Japanese version of the anime, and Michael Sorich in the English dubbed version.

Jirobo, along with the other members of the Sound Four, were involved in the Invasion of Konoha, assisting Orochimaru by putting up a barrier to make it so others could not interfere in his battle with the Third Hokage. Jirobo's identity is unknown at this point, but it is revealed when the Sound Four are charged with escorting Sasuke to Orochimaru. After the Sasuke Retrieval Team tracks them down in the forest, Jirobo stayed behind to fend them off while the rest of his team fled with Sasuke in tow. He trapped all five team members inside a stone prison, absorbing their chakra in the process. Shikamaru, the team's leader, offered to sacrifice his teammates and Sasuke, but Jirobo refused, admonishing him and saying that he deserved to die for being a bad leader. As it turned out, Shikamaru only pretended to parley with him to confirm his location, and determine where the chakra flow around the barrier was weakest. Choji successfully broke through the barrier, and stayed behind to fend Jirobo off while the rest of his team went after Sasuke.

Jirobo took pleasure in taunting Choji during their battle, calling him fat and further insulting Shikamaru. Choji had happened to bring his "secret weapon" to the fight, which happened to be three colored pills that increased his strength exponentially. Jirobo was forced to open his cursed seal to fend off his opponent, and even when his strength was at its greatest with the second stage of the seal open, an enraged Choji managed to kill him after consuming the third pill for insulting Shikamaru, eating his last chip and the Third Hokage's death.

Me: The Sound 4. You motherfucking douchebags just won't take a hint even after all these years.

Sakon: You didn't expect to be rid of us forever didn't you?

Kidōmaru: You are gonna pay for everything you did to us J.D.

Tayuya: I'm gonna enjoy making you pay for everything you did to me you fuckwad!

Jirobo: Tayuya watch your language.

Tayuya: Oh shut up fatso!

Me: How about you BOTH shut up you motherfucking sacks of fucking shit!

They were shocked that I would throw Tayuya's rotten mouth back at them and they came at me and I fired a wind blast and blew them back.

Manboy, Trapster, LaGrange, Speed Demon, Titanium Titan, Batroc, Killer Shrike, Girder, Multiple Man, Zavok, Vypra, Waffle Woman and Dark Spicer then appeared.

Nico: Manboy, Trapster, LaGrange, Speed Demon, Titanium Titan, Batroc, Killer Shrike, Girder, Multiple Man, Zavok, Vypra, Waffle Woman and Dark Spicer? Wow 13 this time?

Vypra: No it's for a theme that J.D. made for us.

Dark Spicer: We came to even it out.

Me: Good.

Dark Spicer: (Sena) Here's your warning, your ass is about to be kicked.

Sena: Come and try it little boy!

William: Glad you guys could make it.

Man Boy: Looks like we got here just in time.

LaGrange: Sorry if we're a little late. I had to use my car to drive all the way out here.

Speed Demon: And I had to transport the rest of us here from our HQ.

Trapster: (to me) We heard you faced a Fly mutant.

Me: We sure did.

Titanium Titan: Tell me he wasn't that disgusting!

Me: He was both repulsive and disgusting! YUCK! Remember seeing the movie The Fly from 1986?

Trapster: You guys faced that one?! Oh man! That was a grotesque movie! Did you guys kill it?

Me: No Veronica Quaife did. Blew his whole head off with a 12 gauge shotgun.

Trapster: WHOA!

Laney: He was suffering! He had to be put out of his misery.

Me: It's what he would have wanted.

Nico: Yeah.

Vypra: I hope she's doing okay.

Me: She will. She just needs a lot of counseling.

Vypra: Good. We also have some new recruits for you all.

3 figures came out. They were Sybil Dvorak A.K.A. GYPSY MOTH, QUEEN BEA and AMMIT!

---

Gypsy Moth

Sybil Dvorak was born in Focşani, Romania in the shadow of the Carpathians. She was raised by Romani and spent much of her time alone nurturing her gardens and focusing on her mutant powers - the ability to telekinetically manipulate and control materials with her mind. She loved how the sensation of fiber, such as soft weaves and flowers, felt to her mental touch; hard objects felt abrasive to her.

Wandering onto the set of a remake of the movie Dracula, which was being filmed on location in Romania, she met the star, Jason Reed. He romanced her and convinced her to come with him back to his home in Los Angeles. Dvorak was essentially a prisoner in the house, as she was an illegal immigrant since Reed would not marry her. Reed was constantly away on "trips", and Dvorak feared that he was having affairs. She wove herself a costume using her powers, began calling herself Gypsy Moth, and directed her feelings of anger and betrayal by attacking Hollywood social gatherings. Jessica Drew (Spider-Woman) confronted Gypsy Moth at one such gathering and offered her friendship, but Dvorak tried to kill her in response, insisting she has no use for friends. Drew's boyfriend, S.H.I.E.L.D. Agent Jerry Hunt, shot Gypsy Moth, knocking her unconscious. However, Spider-Woman flew Gypsy Moth away from the party so that the authorities would not take her.

Soon after, Sybil managed to get her American citizenship and an inclusion into her husband Jason Reed's will. When he died of a supposed obstructed blood vessel in his heart, she inherited his home and his wealth.

She took on the name of Sybarite and used these new assets to start a hedonistic cult. "Sybarite" paid her followers illegal drugs in return for soft garments and animal bodies, which they stole and scavenged from various sources. Her followers captured Spider-

Woman on one outing and brought her before Gypsy Moth. Spider-Woman attacked her and defeated her in battle. While she lay unconscious, Gypsy Moth was kidnapped by Locksmith and Tick-Tock.

Spider-Woman was also captured by Tick-Tock and Locksmith. Gypsy Moth was forced to work with her nemesis in order to escape, and then entangled Locksmith and Tick-Tock in their own clothing, leaving them out in the open for the police to find. She then reluctantly accepted an invitation from Spider-Woman to a victory party for Locksmith's former captives. During the party, Magnus the Sorcerer cast a spell removing all memory of Spider-Woman. Left with no idea where she was or how she got there, Gypsy Moth fled; however, the spell's effects dissipated shortly after.

The Shroud, another fellow prisoner of Locksmith, tracked Gypsy Moth down and recruited her for the Night Shift, a band of Los Angeles-based villains. Tick-Tock, her former captor, was also a member. The Night Shift used the Los Angeles sewers to move about the city; when these sewers were overrun with the mutated test subjects of the Power Broker, the Shroud employed the Night Shift in putting an end to the Power Broker's operations. She and the Night Shift battled Moon Knight in the Tower of Shadows. She then served as a member of Superia's Femizons. Gypsy Moth fought the second Spider-Woman (Julia Carpenter) during a fight between the Night Shift and the West Coast Avengers. Gypsy Moth asked Carpenter if she was related to the Spider-Woman she had encountered previously; Carpenter stated that she was not. They realized that Satannish had taken part of their souls and fought back against him.

Gypsy Moth later left the Night Shift, and joined the Crimson Cowl's Masters of Evil. Gypsy Moth aided the other Masters of Evil in their search for Justin Hammer's legacy, by helping them battle Plantman, Hawkeye and Songbird. Justin Hammer's legacy was a bio-toxin which could kill thousands of superhumans. Hawkeye attempted to convince Gypsy Moth and most of her teammates to switch sides, and to aide him in preventing the Crimson Cowl from obtaining the toxin. Gypsy Moth sided with Hawkeye "for kicks", designed a new costume for herself and changed her name to Skein

Sybil (Skein), as a part of Hawkeye's team of Thunderbolts, helped thwart the Crimson Cowl by effectively unraveling the Crimson Cowl's costume, rendering her powerless. As a member of the Thunderbolts, Sybil fought a S.H.I.E.L.D. team and was present when the original team of Thunderbolts returned to Earth after having their own adventure on Counter-Earth.

Afterwards, the two Thunderbolts teams came together for a celebration. Members of the two teams contemplated whether to stay with or leave the group; Sybil announced that she did not intend to stay. Part of the reason Sybil had stayed with the team was the challenge of seducing Songbird but once rebuffed she saw no reason to stay. She retained her powers following M-Day.

During the Dark Reign storyline Skein is revealed as a member of the Initiative's new team for the state of Delaware, the Women Warriors.

During the Spider-Island storyline, Sybil returned to the Gypsy Moth identity as well as her life of crime upon creating a new costume. After being hired by the Spider Queen to kidnap Alicia Masters, she used her powers to seal Spider-Woman's mouth shut and change her costume into another Gypsy Moth suit, which led to the Thing mistakenly attacking the gagged heroine. After removing her gag and mask, Spider-Woman managed to defeat Spider-Queen and rescue Alicia.

Sybil later appeared as a member of the Menagerie (which also consisted of animal-themed villains Hippo, White Rabbit, and a new villain named Panda-Mania). They were on a rampage stealing expensive eggs from an auction until Spider-Man arrived. When White Rabbit referred to her as "Gypsy Moth", Sybil told White Rabbit to call her Skein with White Rabbit protesting that she called the group the Menagerie because of the villains' animal themes. During the battle, Skein destroyed Spider-Man's outfit, save for the mask, leaving him naked in front of bystanders. She and the Menagerie are defeated by Spider-Man. Skein and the rest of the Menagerie soon after commit a diamond heist which led to another defeat at Spider-Man's hands.

During the "Opening Salvo" part of the "Secret Empire" storyline, Sybil is once again seen as Gypsy Moth where she is recruited by Baron Helmut Zemo to join the Army of Evil.

During the "Spider-Geddon" storyline, Sybil in her Skein alias is seen with Night Shift members Digger, Dansen Macabre, the Brothers Grimm, and new member Waxman when they rob a bus. During this robbery, Skein robs the bus' people of their clothes. The group is thwarted by Superior Octopus whose outfit was made to be immune to Skein's abilities. Superior Octopus agrees to spare them more pain in exchange that the Night Shift becomes his agents where he will compensate them from his own funds. They agree to the terms and are ordered to return the stolen items. Superior Octopus leaves advising them never to cross him or they won't live long enough to regret it.

Queen Bea (Secret Squirrel)

Queen Bea is a villain in the Super Secret Secret Squirrel segment of the 2 Stupid Dogs series. She and her honey bee minions capture Secret Squirrel during a Honey Bank robbery so that Queen Bea can force Secret Squirrel's hand in marriage with a love potion (it is suggested that she wants him to rule her hive with her as her king and husband). Morocco Mole is trapped in a pit of honey, but Penny comes to their rescue. Queen Bea was eventually stopped after Secret Squirrel broke out of the love potion's effects with his true hatred of her. Queen Bea almost ended Penny's life with a fatal neck sting.

Ammit

Ammit is a creature that appears in Egyptian folklore as a hybrid animal with the lower body of a hippopotamus, the upper body of a lion or bear, the head of a crocodile, and the mane of a lion.

This hostile monster is commonly rendered as a carnivore, eating hearts, carcasses, and occasionally, souls. When somebody was taken into the afterlife, Anubis, the guide, would weigh the person's heart, and ask the person a question about themself. If the person lied, Anubis would push the person over to Ammit, (always hungry) who would consume the person, eating them, soul, heart, and all.

The person would then be transported to the Underworld.

---

Me: Whoa! Sybil Dvorak A.K.A. Gypsy Moth, Queen Bea and Ammit.

Cody (OC): Ammit is Lord Anubis' pet that takes the souls to the underworld in Egyptian Myth.

Ammit: That's right.

Gypsy Moth: (Romanian Accent) It's an honor to meet you all.

Me: Same here. We haven't faced you yet in any of our adventures.

Queen Bea: And it's an honor to meet you all.

Me: Who have you chose for your archenemies?

Gypsy Moth: I chose Lena Isis.

Queen Bea: I chose Arrietty.

Ammit: And I Zombina.

Zombina: All right! I finally get my shot!

?: Don't forget me.

A figure came out and it was DARKONDA from In Space!

---

Darkonda was a ruthless and violent bounty hunter who had been directly involved in roughly a hundred different wars, assassinations, and crimes throughout known space. Little was known about Darkonda's past before becoming the deceptive bounty hunter that he was today. Over the years Darkonda had acquired extensive knowledge about countless locales throughout the Milky Way galaxy along with connections in the criminal underworlds of various planets, even Earth.

Approximately 15 years before Power Rangers in Space, Darkonda was hired by Dark Specter to travel to the planet KO-35 in the Karova System to capture Karone, the sister of Andros the Red Space Ranger.

It is later revealed that he murdered Astronema's mother and father and gave her as a young child to Ecliptor for him to train so she could become Dark Specter's heir.

In the years that followed Darkonda took an increasingly important role in KO-35 history. Although the specifics are still not known, Darkonda was a significant player in the events that led to the eventual evacuation of the planet including the Barillian Bug infestation that decimated much of the planet's population. After the complete evacuation of the planet, Darkonda used it as a base of his own. Unchallenged, he looted and pillaged all that the Kerovans left behind in their hurry to evacuate KO-35. At one point, Darkonda encountered Ecliptor. The two took an immense disliking for one another and became rivals.

Several years later Darkonda met up with Astronema, now the Princess of Evil, and won a place on her Dark Fortress as her second in command (co-ranking with Ecliptor) after he infected Carlos Vallerte, the Black Space Ranger, with the venom of a Barillian Bug. He also attempted to turn the Rebels of KO-35 against the Power Rangers by framing the Rangers for a mysterious ailment that was turning people into coral.

Secretly, Darkonda planned on killing both Astronema and Ecliptor and taking over her Dark Fortress. Although Ecliptor was aware of Darkonda's true intentions, Darkonda blackmailed Ecliptor into remaining silent by threatening to reveal the secrets behind Astronema's origin to her.

While in Astronema's service, Darkonda had many secret conversations with Dark Specter, in which he openly questioned Astronema's loyalties. After Astronema learned of her true past, Darkonda suggested that she be destroyed (along with Ecliptor). Dark Specter, however, was not (fully) persuaded despite Darkonda's insistence.

When Astronema briefly defected to the Power Rangers, Dark Specter gave Darkonda command over the Dark Fortress. Darkonda was also tasked with planting cybernetic implants on Ecliptor that would suppress any feelings he may have had for Astronema. After Astronema was captured, Darkonda altered her as well, turning her into a being of pure evil. To his surprise and anger, the newly reprogrammed Astronema promptly retook control of the Dark Fortress and threw him out despite his protests that she would have been destroyed without him. He teleported away, but not before reminding Astronema that he still had some lives left while she only had one.

Some time later, Darkonda was recruited again by Astronema, this time to lure the Rangers into a trap. It is unknown how or why she enlisted his aid, although Dark Specter may have ordered her to do so.

He later returned to aid the UAE in Dark Specter's Universal Conquest. He was with Astronema's army attacking the planet Earth. In a final act of betrayal, Darkonda commandeered a Velocifighter with two missiles powerful enough to destroy the Earth and planned to use one of them to destroy Dark Specter in an attempt to take power in controlling the universe for himself. He intended to use the other to destroy the Dark Fortress with Astronema and Ecliptor on board. However, after he fired the other missile, Dark Specter reappeared and swallowed the Velocifighter and Darkonda with it, killing both him and Darkonda in an instant as the missile exploded the instant he swallowed the traitor. Ironically, by using up the only planet destroying missiles the Alliance had, Darkonda unintentionally saved Earth from destruction.

Andros: Darkonda!

Darkonda: Been a while Andros.

Me: I remember you! You killed Astronima's mother and father and gave her to Ecliptor. And it was because of you that she became a bad guy!

Darkonda: That's right. You do have a good memory.

Vypra: Didn't I tell you he had a good one?

Darkonda: Yes you did mistress.

Andros: You better not think of betraying Vypra, Darkonda!

Darkonda: (laughs) Relax, Red Ranger! Unlike Dark Spector, Vypra's a good boss who's not afraid to get her hands dirty.

Zhane: Good. The last thing we need is for you to go rogue like Olympius.

Me: Or Mr. Burns and Quimby. I don't think Vypra can afford to kill a 3rd member.

Nico: You said it.

Eli: Yeah that's nuts.

Bluto then appeared.

Me: Looks like Bluto likes to take his punishments.

Sea: Yep he sure does.

Bluto: It's a living.

Me: I'll face the Sound 4 on another planet. It's time to plug the ears on these 4 fuckups of that fucking snakefucker.

I snapped my fingers and me and the Sound 4 went to Glaren.

Battle 1: Flora, Fluttershy, Tree Hugger, Tornado Bolt, Mage Meadowbrook, Life Skylanders, Plant Lola, Lori Loud, Belle, Prince Adam, Xaldin, Maurice, Thunder and Lightning VS Manboy

---

Manboy was first.

Man Boy: (to Flora) Nico should blow his bugle to the tune of various songs more often.

Flora: I agree. That was awesome. And it was so funny how Chris went nuts.

Fluttershy: Yeah it sure was funny.

Tree Hugger: It was far out dudes.

Tornado Bolt: And when Chris was touched by Nico he went nuts even more.

Mage Meadowbrook: That monster had it coming. He needs to be put out of his misery.

Stealth Elf: I hate that kids. He is as dumb as his father.

Plant Lola: Those two are made for each other.

Lori: They literally were. Chris is a pathetic excuse for a human being.

Belle: I agree. What a dumb moron. Even dumber than Peter.

Prince Adam: If not just as stupid.

Xaldin: Yeah it's crazy.

Man Boy: Yeah it sure is. And I see the theme here for the 13 groups today is for the 13 adventures of the battle with the fake Organization XIII.

Xaldin: That's right.

Lori: It's a good theme.

Man Boy: I agree. Lets do it!

They fired waves of nature, wind, leaves and energy and smashed him down.

Trapster was next.

Trapster: (to Rocket) Chris is so dumb that you probably don't need your guns to beat him up.

Rocket Raccoon: (Laughs) Yeah you're right on that. If I pistolwhiped him he would probably let loose nasty steroid farts.

They laughed at that one.

Applejack: (Laughs) That is really funny!

Apple Bloom: Yeah it was! (Laughs) That was great! But Chris is probably the dumbest kid we've ever seen.

Frozen Fright: Yeah you got that right. Like J.D. said, it's downright crazy that a kid like Chris with an IQ of 50 would even be let into a school in Quahog of all places.

Trapster: Yeah no kidding and I heard that when Lois gave birth to him, Chris was called an Elephant Baby.

Rockhoof: (Scottish Accent) Aye. That is crazy now.

Cocoa Axe: (Irish Accent) It sure is lad. She gave birth to a 50 pound elephant calf.

Steela Oresdotter: (Norwegian Accent) (Laughs) That's funny.

Autumn Blaze: (Laughs) That is hilarious! But yeah that was so funny and I agree with you all.

Coloratura: Yeah it sure was funny. But Chris should never have been allowed to go to school anyway or follow in his stupid father's drunken footsteps.

Flashwing: Yeah what was his father's IQ?

Stone Luna: I think J.D. said something around 25.

Leni: That is totes dumb.

Xigbar: He's even dumber than Homer.

Tron: You are not kidding.

Sam Flynn: Yeah that is nuts.

Quorra: Yeah.

Trapster: You said it. Lets do it!

They fired waves of earth, apples, gravity, rock, energy and fire and smashed him down.

Rocket Raccoon: YEAH!

Applejack: YEEHAW! That was great!

Vert: You should have seen it!

Rainbow Dash: It was so AWESOME! We saw Nico, Eli and J.D. use Tai Chi Cards and they mastered them amazingly.

Scootaloo: Yeah it was amazing!

LaGrange: Wow! Which ones did they use?

Magma Gloom: They used ones for Fire, Water, Lightning, Earth, Wind, Crystal, Lava, Steel, Explosion, Sword, Wing and Heat and tested them on dummies that looked like the footsoldiers and nemeses of the Power Rangers. All with amazing results.

Flash Magnus: It was so cool.

Whirlwind: Yeah it sure was.

Air Lincoln: I even got them all on my phone. Check it out.

Air Lincoln showed a video of use doing them and it was amazing.

LaGrange: WOW! That was amazing! They mastered the Tai Chi Cards perfectly.

Luan: They sure did. It was Masterful! (Laughs) Get it? But seriously, it was really cool.

Roxas: I thought so too.

Olette: But it was still some of the coolest we've seen.

Pence: Yeah it sure was.

Hayner: Yeah it was!

LaGrange: I can tell. Lets get it on!

They fired waves of energy, light, wind, lightning and rain and smashed him down.

Vert: All right!

Rainbow Dash: That was AWESOME!

Speed Demon: (to Jaden) Is there a Tai Chi card for speed as well?

Jaden: I have a feeling there might be. Sena and Rai said that there are 1,000 Tai Chi Cards.

Pinkie Pie: But finding them is gonna be really fun!

Maud Pie: (Monotonously) But finding them is not gonna be easy ate all.

Marble Pie: Yeah they are scattered all over the world and we have to find them all before the Dragonoids do.

Featherweight: Yeah and that is not gonna be easy to do.

Somnambula: (Egyptian Accent) But we will find them all. We just got to know where to look.

Sprocket: I can build a device that will allow us to find them.

Steel Lynn: Good thinking.

Lincoln: It will make finding them easier. But there are so many out there.

Larxene: I agree. But they will be easy to find.

Mulan: Yes they will be.

Mushu: YEAH BABY!

---

Titanium Titan was next.

Titanium Titan: (to Nuju) Who did J.D. rescue this time?

Nuju: Her name is Brunhilda and she is a Valkyrie.

Sunset Shimmer: She's like one of the famous Valkyries of Norse Myth.

Pepperdance: J.D. and Nora found her and Mikaela the Chandelure Gene-Slammer in a lab that was home to the 1986 version of The Fly.

Titanium Titan: I know that movie amigos! Let me guess, J.D. let Ronnie blow the creature's head off.

Cayenne: Yeah he sure did. That was a terrible way for him to die but it was what he wanted.

Firecracker Burst: It's one of the consequences of messing around with the laws of Mother Nature. But what happened to that creature was all an accident.

Wallflower: Yeah there was a common house fly that was in the pod when he transported and it fused with him.

Pip-Squeak: (British Accent) Terrible thing that happened to him.

Gusty the Great: Yeah after what we heard from J.D. this totally changes our views on flies.

Sunburn: Yeah I hate flies.

Fire Lori: They are literally a nuisance.

Laney: Flies are pests that won't leave you alone.

Marluxia: Yeah they drive you crazy.

Simba: Yeah they are pests.

Nala: Disease filled vermin.

Timon: Me and Pumbaa eat them all the time and they aren't that bad.

Pumbaa: Yeah they are good for me, Timon and Lana.

Titanium Titan: Right you guys love to eat bugs. Lets do it!

They fired waves of ice, fire, leaves, flowers and bugs and smashed him down.

Nuju: That was great!

Sunset Shimmer: Yeah it was!

---

Battle 6: Captain America, Starlight Glimmer, Cozy Glow, Trixie, Juniper Montage, Clover the Clever, Undead Skylanders, Lightning Lisa, Lily, Luxord, Jack Sparrow, Elizabeth Swann, Billy Gilbert and Acid Storm VS Batroc the Leaper

---

Batroc the Leaper was next.

Batroc: (to Captain America) Brunhilda would get along great with the Valkyrie that Thor knows.

Captain America: She sure would. Also the Valkyries all do come from Asgard in terms of Norse Myth.

Starlight Glimmer: Now it's really awesome that J.D. has a Valkyrie in his harem.

Cozy Glow: You said it. That's so amazing that she is a very powerful and fierce warrior.

Trixie: She has an amazing heart as well like The Great and Powerful Trixie!

Juniper Montage: Brunhilda is one of my favorite Valkyries in Norse Myth.

Clover the Clever: And she is smart and amazing.

Hex: She sure is. I think she is amazing too.

Lightning Lisa: Indeed. I think she has amazing skills and talents.

Lily: I agree. But what happened with Professor Brundle is awful. He turned into a fly monster.

Luxord: You aren't kidding. But he's in a better place.

Jack Sparrow: That's right mates.

Elizabeth Swann: Yeah.

Batroc: You said it. Lets do it!

They fired waves of magic, water, time, stars, energy, bones and lightning and smashed him down.

Captain America: Take that!

Starlight Glimmer: YEAH!

Battle 7: Rice Fitzgerald, Rarity, Sweetie Belle, Thunder Terror, Mistmane, Sable Spirit, Water Skylanders, Liquid Leni, Luna Loud, Demyx, Yuffie, Leon, Tifa, Aerith, Gulper and Grave Clobber VS

Simon Maddicks A.K.A. Killer Shrike from Marvel.

---

Killer Shrike was next.

Killer Shrike: (to Rice) J.D.'s right. Garnia's all brawn and no brain.

Rice Fitzgerald: Yeah he obviously doesn't know about using both your brawn and your brains in battle.

Rarity: Indeed darling. What Garnia is doing is all in absolute stupidity.

Sweetie Belle: Yeah it's like he took out his brain and threw it in a dumpster to replace it with all muscle.

Thunder Terror: Yeah like some certain villains that we all know.

They laughed.

Mistmane: Yeah that is funny!

Sable Spirit: Tirek was like that.

Gill Grunt: Yeah. But thank goodness we got rid of him.

Liquid Leni: Yeah thank goodness.

Luna Loud: What Garnia does makes him just as stupid as Chris.

Demyx: Yeah maybe stupider.

Yuffie: And a big dummy.

Leon: Yep.

Luster Dawn: It's like we're facing dad guys that all have no brains today.

Princess Cadance: Yeah no kidding.

Girder: Also I can see that those Sound 4 guys all hate J.D. with a vengeance.

Flurry Heart: Yeah they sure do because J.D. killed them in 150,000 years.

Star Swirl: Yeah and it's also because he killed Orochimaru.

Spyro: They had it coming. But somehow the villains we're facing are having more and more versions of bad guys we killed and banished to the Warp or erased from existence.

Crystal Laney: Yeah it's crazy. It's like history is coming back.

Lola: No kidding. But J.D. loves a good challenge.

Axel: This is always fun to face.

Jack Skellington: Yeah it sure is.

Tara: Yeah they sure did and that was one of the most disgusting sights I've ever heard.

Lynn: No kidding. Did you see the movie The Fly?

Waffle Woman: I sure did and after I watched that movie I couldn't sleep for days because of bad nightmares.

Lexaeus: I don't blame you. That movie was disgusting.

Aladdin: Yeah and I hate flies.

Jasmine: I don't think I've ever seen anyone that likes them.

Sultan: I most agree on that.

Luan: Yeah it sure was. But it had to be done because he was suffering.

Aqua: That's what happens when you mess around with the laws of Mother Nature.

Xion: It's horrible. All those mad scientists were doing it and they ended up paying for it.

Vypra: I agree. Lets do it.

Luan formed a sword of light and they went at her and clashed powerfully and fired waves of light and elements and smashed her down.

Luan: A most Enlightening victory! (Laughs) Get it?

Aqua: (Laughs) That was a good one.

Battle 13: Eddy, Lana, Vexen, Sora, Kairi, Riku, Star Man and Flash Man VS Dark Spicer

Dark Spicer was next.

Dark Spicer: The Fly is not nearly as bad as The Thing though.

Eddy: You got that right.

Lana: The Thing was a nightmare unlike any other and it traumatized Kate.

Vexen: But what Brundle was doing really messed around with the laws of mother nature.

Sora: It sure did.

Kairi: And he paid the price for it by turning into a fly mutant.

Riku: Yeah that was disgusting.

Dark Spicer: No kidding. Lots of terrible ordeals many people have gone through. Lets do it!

Nico teleported and opened it and in it was a massive number of swords.

Nico: Wow look at these swords.

Darkonda: These are called The Defenders of Jump City.

Defenders of Jump City - They're a massive collection of swords with their insignias etched on the 6'0" massive, wide, double-edged blades, the large gems on the crossguards match the colors of their hairs, the angel wings for the crossguards and large sphere pommels with surrounding gems match the colors of their clothes, and they also have long black handles, and only the members of the Teen Titans can wield these blades, and once in their hands, they'll get a massive power and energy increase, along with sleeveless trenchcoats matching their clothes, and Teen Titans-themed angel wings.

Nico: These are perfect for all the Teen Titans.

Nico took them and teleported back and gave the swords to all the Teen Titans.

Brunhilda: First let me have my fun with him.

Nico: Okay.

Brunhilda spread her wings and then went at him and kicked and slashed and punched him all over the place and smashed him all over the place and slashed him all over. She even blasted him all over with light blasts and smashed him down.

Brunhilda: All right! Lets do it!

Andros: SPIRAL BLASTER!

Carlos: QUATTRO BLASTER!

Nico: FIRE!

The group all fired powerful energy and elemental blasts and the blasts all hit him and Darkonda fell to the ground and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Zombina: Same with me.

Ammit: Me too. Lets do it!

Zombina blasted Ammit all over and smashed him down.

---

Battle 17: Arrietty VS Queen Bea (Secret Squirrel)

---

Queen Bea was next.

Arrietty: This is gonna be amazing. Borrower VS Bee. I always wanted to see what that's like.

Queen Bea: I won't disappoint you Arrietty. I'm looking forward to this too.

Arrietty unsheathed her sword and Queen Bea had her stinger ready and they clashed powerfully. They were flying all over the place and Arrietty smashed her down.

---

Battle 18: Sea VS Bluto

---

Bluto was next.

Sea: How long has Popeye been beating the living crap out of you just to win Olive Oyl's heart?

Bluto: We came out in 1929.

Sea: 92 years!? WHOA! That is a long time to be beating the living shit out of each other.

Bluto: It sure is. But we've been that popular for that long.

Sea: I remember. I read the Popeye comics as well as watched the cartoons on TV. Lets do it.

Bluto: You got it!

Bluto went at her and Sea punched and kicked him all over and smashed him into the ground.

---

Battle 19: J.D. Knudson VS The Sound 4

---

On Glaren, I was facing the Sound 4.

Dark Tayuya: You are a fucker that is always ruining evil's plans! Damn that pisses me off!

Jirobo: Tayuya, watch your language.

Dark Tayuya: Oh shut up fatso!

Me: You fuckwads BOTH should just shut the fuck up.

Sakon: We will still get our revenge on you for killing us!

Me: Even after 150,000 years, you 4 fuckpots just won't take a hint and you will never learn. Even after spending all that time in Hell and in The Warp. Like I already told you assholes when we fought the last time, I am far more powerful than I was when we fought the last time.

Dark Tayuya: Don't underestimate us you piece of crap! Got it!?

Me: Says the pot calling the kettle black you fucked up bitch! You are the ones who underestimated me. Because you had no idea that you were fighting the long lost leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm in that time. You guys are still as weak as you were the last time we fought.

Jirobo: I'm gonna shut that big mouth of yours for you!

Me: Seven words Jirobo: FUCK YOURSELF AND GO BACK TO HELL!

The Sound 4 charged at me and I flared up my Super Angel-Ebonwu-Phoenix-Harmony 500,000,000 power and went at them! I punched Dark Tayuya in the face and kicked Kidomaru in the stomach and punched Sakon and kicked Jirobo and fired a powerful blast of fire and energy and Dark Tayuya and the blast hit her and exploded. Blowing her chest open and I kicked her head and kicked Jirobo in the face and punched him in the stomach and punched Sakon & Ukon in the face and fired a powerful blast of lightning at them and electrocuted them all over and I kicked Jirobo and fired a powerful barrage of leaves and cut them up.

I landed in front of them and I asked them a question.

Me: (Divine Echoing Elemental Voice) I don't understand you fuckwits. Why are you serving someone like Vypra all just to get revenge on me for killing you 150,000 years from now? All you are is nothing but a bunch of tools to the Masters of Evil.

Sakon: What? We're nothing but tools? Is that what you called us?

Me: Uh yeah.

Sakon laughed.

Jirobo laughed too.

Kidomaru: You ignorant fool. We have nothing whatsoever to do with the Dragonoids or any part of the world.

Sakon: Our reanimation is simply because of our loyalty to Lord Orochimaru.

Me: (Sighs) Even after all this time you still follow someone as fucked up and as delusional as that snake fucker.

Sakon: Quite so. He made us a promise long ago and this is the result of that.

Me: Humor me.

FLASHBACK - 150,000 YEARS HENCE

Orochimaru was watching a bunch of prisoners fight each other mercilessly and Kabuto Yakushi was with him.

Orochimaru: Yes, that's it. Kill each other off. And if you are not taking this battle seriously, then I'll just kill you myself.

It was a gruesome and terrible battle and there were many people dead. The only ones left standing were Tayuya, Sakon & Ukon, Jirobo and Kidomaru.

Orochimaru: The feeling that's born when one transcends the fear of death. Yes that's it. That's what I wanted to bring out in you. Just look at those fine eyes of yours. Now I shall bestow upon you greater power and you shall carry out my bidding as my favored ones.

Sound 4: NINJA ART: 4 FLAMES FORMATION!

A powerful blackish purple barrier formed during the fight with Orochimaru and the 3rd Hokage.

Sakon: (Narrating) Standing at Lord Orochimaru's side, we've been witnessed to many jutsu. But the ultimate is the Reanimation Jutsu.

After I defeated Orochimaru and destroyed his entire career as a shinobi permanently, he was lying in bed and seething in rage and burning in pain.

Orochimaru: That fucking brat! I can't believe he ruined me! HOW DARE HE!?

He had the Sound 4 by his bedside.

Orochimaru: What? Do you have something to say?

Sakon: No.

Orochimaru: In the condition I am now, you four might be able to kill me. This is your chance if you dare to try.

But the Sound 4 wouldn't do so.

Orochimaru: Well it seems that as long as the Curse Mark binds you, you cannot bring yourself to raise your blade against me. Although the invasion was a failure from the start, you did make yourselves useful in the attack on the Hidden Leaf. For that I shall reward you. What do you wish for?

Sakon: There's only one thing Lord Orochimaru.

Jirobo: Power. Power as a shinobi. We wish for nothing more than that.

Orochimaru: So it shall be. That's quite impressive. All of you. I commend you on your choice. I'll add each of you to the sample. To access the next level of power within you, you will need a vengeful heart. Possessing an extreme desire for revenge will rapidly increase the power of the Curse Mark.

Kidomaru: What's the connection between that and the Reanimation

Jutsu?

Orochimaru: The emotions you 4 learned from overcoming the fear of death at that laboratory are resentment and hatred towards me. No, an even stronger feeling. I'm sure you swore to get back at me one day. Even if you were killed in the process. That emotion, when you can hate someone as strongly as that. Once you're actually killed you take it with you. That hatred towards the one who put you to death. You die thinking that you could be resurrected, it will be to only seek revenge. Yes. Through the Reanimation Jutsu, you will return as one seeking vengeance. You will attain power unlike anything you've ever had before. The source of your newfound strength will be your consuming desire for vengeance. Embrace that power. Take pleasure in it, revel in its might.

FLASHBACK ENDS

Sakon: Today just as it was in the future you killed us in, we belong to Lord Orochimaru!

A massive blast of wind blew and I felt their power increase dramatically!

Kidomaru: We are Lord Orochimaru's very own Seekers of Vengeance!

Malevolent dark purple auras flared up around the Sound 4 as their powers were rising dramatically at an accelerated rate!

Jirobo: The intense hatred and resentment that we harbor towards you will allow us to unleash the full depths of our power!

Sakon: The way it stands now, no one can stop us!

Dark Tayuya: And don't you even dare to lump us in with all those other fuckpots you fought you fucking piece of trash!

Storm clouds rapidly formed and the sky was darkened and lightning struck all over the place. My aura was getting stronger and stronger because of their hatred.

Me: So you all were brought back just to get revenge on me for killing you? You 4 are just as fucked up as ever. Then it's time for me to get serious and show you fuckers that I am far more powerful than I look right now.

I then flared up my power to an intense level and I went Super Angel-Ebonwu-Phoenix-Harmony Infinity!

Me: (Divine Echoing Cosmic Elemental Voice) Now lets see you face the pinnacle of my true power.

I went at them at a tremendously blinding speed and punched Jirobo in the face with devastating force and kicked Dark Tayuya in the face and sent them both crashing into a bunch of trees and I fired a powerful blast of fire at them and it hit them and exploded with incredible power.

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

I kicked Kidomaru in the face and teleported behind him as he fired gold arrows at me and I grabbed his four extra arms and pulled and I ripped them clean off and he screamed in excruciating pain! I kicked Sakon in the face and fire a blade of light and cut Sakon and Ukon in half and fired a powerful blast of lightning at him and electrocuted them both and fired a powerful blast of lava and burned them all over and fired powerful shards of crystal at Kidomaru and skewered him all over the place and I kicked him in the face and teleported and kicked him in the back and fired a blast of fire at him and burned him all over and I kicked him high into the air and dealt a spinning axe kick to his stomach and sent him crashing into the ground. I sensed Dark Tayuya coming at me from behind and she kicked at me and I dodged her strike and grabbed her leg and elbowed it and there was a nasty sickening crunch and she screamed in excruciating pain and I elbowed her in the face and swung her around and sent her crashing into the ground. I formed a Supernova energy ball and sent it at Tayuya and it hit her and exploded in a massive fiery explosion of incredible power.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Jirobo jumped at me and I sensed him coming from behind and I teleported as he did a powerful punch at an incredible speed and I fired a massive barrage of wind blades at him and cut him all over and I fired a powerful ball of light at him and it hit him and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

I then teleported and punched Sakon and kicked Ukon in the face and fired powerful blasts of water at them both and sent them crashing into a bunch of trees. The Sound 4 were down, but they were severely weakened and badly beaten. I have completely overwhelmed the Sound 4 like they were 150,000 years from now.

Dark Tayuya got up and she saw how much I've changed.

Dark Tayuya: I can't fucking believe it! He's changed so much!

Kidomaru: I HATE YOU J.D.!

My aura flared up with incredible power.

Me: You fuckers hate the fact that you're completely powerless to stop me. That you are completely outclassed and outmatched. Your power up fueled by revenge has only made you weaker than you were before. Well imagine feeling the way you do now all of the time like those that were killed by Orochimaru once felt. Fools! How do you think everyone felt when they were experimented on and turned into dangerous barbarian mutants like you guys were. They wanted to be put out of their misery. But I granted their wish after I killed Orochimaru. Now it's your turn you Sound fuckers. I hope you like the surprise I have coming for you.

Jirobo: We'll see!

Me: You don't even know what kind of monster that Orochimaru was. He was going to kill you even for making the slightest of mistakes. He was pure evil. He was only after one goal and that was to get Sasuke. You know that right? But he had no idea the kind of monster that Sasuke really was. He wanted revenge so badly that he would do anything to get it. Even hurt the very village he called home and even the people that lived there. They all feared him. Orochimaru wanted his body right? But what he really wanted was the Sharingan, the very bloodline eyes of a goddamned cursed clan plagued with nothing but evil. But how to get it? Itachi was out of the question. So you came after Sasuke, the fucked up lunatic runt of the clan. Isn't that right? And they say that Orochimaru was the genius out of the 3 Legendary Sannin. But it turns out he was just another lost soul of the run-of-the-mill ninja. And you know it. Orochimaru was nothing compared to his evil. Also Orochimaru is not even in the same league in the kind of power that I possess. I can destroy the entire universe in the mere blink of a cosmic eye. In fact, next to my kind of power and the power that Sasuke has, genius like Orochimaru's looks pretty ordinary. The way that he covets the power of the Uchiha, the way he fills himself up with medicines and go leaping from body to body. It's downright fucking disgusting. As the most powerful fighter in the universe, all I see when I look at him and his followers are nothing but a bunch of fucked up miserable fuckweeds and Orochimaru is a fucked up motherfucking pedophilic wretch. And on top of that I fucking hate his style more thank anything. What is it that he was hoping to accomplish? Scurrying from one hideout to the next, conducting his pathetic experiments, using up peoples lives one after the other, trying to unlock the mysteries of nature. All he did was toy with peoples lives for the sake of this worthless, fucked up, megalomaniacal and disgusting, vain and ridiculous cause of his. And you guys are all no better! YOU ALL FUCKING DISGUST ME!

Dark Tayuya: YOU MOTHERFUCKING BASTARD!

I flipped the bird at her and then all of the Sound 4 came at me from all 4 directions and just as they were about to hit me, I teleported into the air and they collided and they rammed into each other and fell down.

Me: Now you will go back to hell. SPECTRUM STYLE NINJA ART: VISIBLE LIGHT RASENSHURIKEN STORM!

I formed 70 Rainbow Rasenshuriken of each of the 7 colors of the rainbow. 10 for each color and I threw them all at the Sound 4 and they hit them all at once and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion was so powerful and so devastating that it blew much of the area apart and the power it had was incredible! When the smoke cleared, all of the Sound 4 were lying in the ground in the middle of a crater.

Me: You four have no right to live.

I landed on the ground and they got out of the crater.

Me: Got to admire their spirit.

They still had an incredible fighting spirit after everything I did to them.

They came at me charging and I held out my hand and it was pointed at them.

Me: SUPER HAKAI!

All 4 of them glowed purple and they were completely obliterated in an instant!

Dark Tayuya: DAMN YOU TO FUCKING HELL J.D.! (FADES AWAY!)

Kidomaru: WE WILL BE BACK! (FADES AWAY!)

Jirobo: YOU HAVEN'T SEEN THE LAST OF US! (FADES AWAY!)

Sakon: YOU WILL BE IN HELL WITH US! (FADES AWAY!)

They were obliterated from existence forever again as if they never were born in the first place.

Me: Not gonna happen ever again. Now to help everyone else.

I teleported back to Earth.

---

We regrouped and we were facing Garnia.

Nico: It's time for you to stay dead Garnia.

Garnia: We'll see about that!

Orion: You think the Tai Chi Cards are bad news for you? You haven't seen anything yet!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Samurai!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Samurai Rangers.

Nico: It's buttkicking time!

Suddenly, Carol's eyes turned neon purple, and she was surrounded by a purple energy aura, along with Gravity Lightning from King Ghidorah, and the skies turned dark with lightning crashing down from the heavens.

Carol: You Dragonoids really make me sick, it wasn't bad enough that Luka tried to kill us with those crystal necklaces and tricking Nico, but even after we killed and banished Luka to The Warp, you still don't know when to quit. This time, I'm going to put an end to you and your kind once and for all.

Then, a massive purple vortex of energy surrounded Carol, and it was accompanied by a circle of blue flame made by Godzilla's Atomic Breath, King Ghidorah's Gravity Lightning crashing down from the heavens, and Mothra flying around the vortex, and inside of the vortex was a glowing blue phoenix. Carol Pusateri has transformed into SUPER ANGEL 500,000,000,000 ATOMIC FIRESTORM KAIJU ANGEL.

We were amazed at Carol's new Super Angel 500,000,000,000 transformation, and Vince did some Tex Avery wild takes after seeing Carol in her new form.

Me: Wow, Carol, you've transformed into your new Super Angel 500,000,000,000 form. Incredible.

Lori: You said it, J.D. Carol, how do you feel?

Carol: (Divine Echoing Atomic Voice) I feel incredible, Lori, and this power is more than enough to take this ugly bastard down. Let's get him!

Carol charged at him and fired powerful blasts of atomic energy and Gravity Lightning, which hits Garnia and burns him badly, and slashes him with her Sword of the Kaiju.

She pulverized him all over.

We went at him and smashed and pulverized Garnia all over the place and pulverized him into pulp.

Nico: Take this! HI!

He fired a wave of fire from his hand and it hit Garnia and exploded and burned him.

Earthworm Jim: EAT DIRT YOU BIG PALOOKA! (BLASTS HIM ALL OVER) HAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA!

Ed Cowart: EAT DIRT YOU OVERGROWN SACK OF BULL MEAT! (BLASTS GARNIA ALL OVER) HAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA!

Ets: This will hurt too! TECH STYLE NINJA ART: GEARS OF TAI CHI VENGEANCE!

Ets fired a bunch of gears with the symbols of the elements and they hit Garnia all over.

Springer, Bianca, Astrotrain and Centaur Man used the Earth Cyber Planet keys and they enhanced Springer's Wind Funnel Laser, Bianca's Lightning Powers, Astrotrain's Ionic Disruptor Rifle and Centaur Man's abilities 100-fold.

Springer and Bianca: CYCLONIC LIGHTNING BLAST!

Astrotrain and Centaur Man: SMASHING IONIC BLAST!

Sunset Shimmer, Pepperdance, Cayenne, Wallflower, Firecracker Burst, Pip-Squeak, Gusty the Great, Fire Lori and the Fire Skylanders: FIRESTORM MEGABLAST INFERNO!

They fired waves of elements and fire.

They fired waves of elements and they formed into the many kinds of tigers that were all over the planet. Some were alive and some were extinct.

Lincoln, Litchi, Cassandra, Lili, Asuka, Perfuma, Frosta, Entrapta, Shantae, Toph and Jessica: TIGER FINAL SMASH: ELEMENTAL TIGER CLAW SLASH!

They made tiger claws from elemental energies which they they used to slash Garnia all over the place with incredible fury.

Sena, Rai, Eli, me, Nico and Mammoth: TIGER BLADE DANCE SMASH!

We fired blades of energy and the blasts of energy and the blasts all hit Garnia and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Garnia lost all his Tai Chi cards.

Gi / Slow

Bang / Disable

Rai and Sena got them.

Nico: J.D. finish him!

Me: You got it commander. Watch this!

I flew at Garnia!

Me: It's time for you to die!

I flew at him with my fist extended and my aura was ready.

Garnia then didn't expect this…

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOC

I plowed all the way through him and blew his torso and abdomenal area out with incredibly explosive force and blew a massively huge hole in his chest! UNBELIEVABLE!

Goku: HOLY COW! I didn't expect him to use what I did on King Piccolo.

Nico: No kidding Kakarot but that was awesome!

Then Garnia exploded in a massive purple fire explosion and his all were Super Hakaied.

Garnia was no more!

Nico: YEAH!

I flew back and powered down.

Nico: Awesome job Colonel!

Me: Thanks commander.

Rai: Another Dragonoid bites the dust!

Batroc: Couldn't have said it better myself.

Killer Shrike: So far, that's 3 Dragonoids down.

Girder: And still so many to go.

Me: Who knows how many there are out there.

Multiple Man: Let's not forget the boss of the Dragonoids.

Zavok: We'll deal with him when the time comes.

Me: And he will pay the ultimate price for his crimes.

Nico: Yes he will. Great job today everyone.

Eli: It was great.

Me: Yep.

Rai: (To the viewers) Garnia is gone and he will never be welcome on Earth again. Now we're one step closer to destroying all the Dragonoids for good.

Me: We sure are. Great job today though Rai.

Rai: Thanks.

We went back home and had a great dinner and went to sleep.

THE END

Another awesome chapter done.

Tai Chi Chasers was a great show and it was awesome. There will be a 3rd chapter later on in the future. The 1st part of this chapter was for the 1986 movie The Fly and that was a freaky movie with Jeff Goldblum. It was great too. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Drako1234658, Nflemingful, Etstheclarencefan and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. The next girl is gonna be another new one and it will be Suriko the Titania and she is gonna be in the world of Felix the Cat and we're going to meet her and a Kingdra Gene-Slammer named Sonnya Tetrapetrikov from Estonia. We're going to face Captain Kidd and give all the treasure he and his crew took. Also the next chapter is for the movie Arthur and the Invisibles and we're going to meet Arthur and his friends as well as take down the evil Emperor Maltazard and make that evil tyrant pay for his crimes.

See you all tomorrow.

Into the World of Minimoys

In Memory of David Bowie

---

In an amazing town, me and Joanna were flying over the buildings and we were in awe about the authenticity of it. It was a pirate town but it was a cool one. It was located in Florida and it was a nice town.

Me: This town looks nice. It's not like any other pirate town that we've been to.

Joanna: I think we're going to meet another old school cartoon character.

Joanna concentrated and groaned as her eyes turned dark pink.

Me: I have that same feeling too.

She turned into LUNALA!

Me: YEAH!

We arrived at the docks by the sea and we saw a pirate ship sailing off and we saw a little black cat wondering around.

Me: Wait a second. Is that? Oh wow! It's Felix the Cat! I loved watching him all the time!

Joanna Lunala: Wow!

We landed.

Felix: Oh wow! J.D. Knudson! It's an honor.

Me: Pleasure to meet you Felix and I love all your adventures.

Joanna Lunala: So do I. I'm Joanna and I'm a Lunala as you can see.

Felix: Pleasure to meet you. Thank you all for coming. I need your help to save Goldie. She is the Goose that Laid the Golden Egg.

Me: Whoa! I love that adventure. That was a great one. Let me guess, Captain Kidd took her.

Felix: That's right.

Joanna Lunala: We'll gladly stop him.

Me: Lets get him!

We set out for Captain Kidd's ship and we landed. We saw CAPTAIN KID!

---

Captain Kidd was the main villain of the Felix the Cat cartoon "The Goose That Laid The Golden Egg" - which was released in 1936.

In this story Felix was using the mythical Golden Goose to supply free golden eggs to the citizens of a town but Captain Kidd decided to steal the Golden Goose for himself - being a greedy pirate with no intention of sharing his wealth with others.

Disguising himself as an old woman he begged Felix to let him in only for his disguise to fall apart, foiling his plan and Felix locked the pirate out - however Captain Kidd simply used his brute strength to spin the door open, causing Felix to be locked out instead (cartoon physics is not the same as real-world physics).

Captain Kidd proceeded to capture the Golden Goose and tie it in a pillow sack and took it away to his ship, where he had is crew of pirates sail off into the ocean.

Captain Kidd became angry with the Golden Goose when it didn't lay golden eggs and planned on cutting it open with his sword - only to be stopped when Felix launched himself onto the boat with the aid of a cannon.

Felix then used Captain Kidd's own cannon to defeat his crew of pirates before engaging Captain Kidd in a swords-fight that climaxed in Felix defeating the pirate and locking him away under the ship.

Felix then used the cannon to distribute Captain Kidd's treasure across the town - resulting of all the pirate's ill-gotten riches being collected by the grateful towns-people, who declared Felix a hero and had a celebratory parade in his honor.

---

I swooped in and kicked him in the back and flipped back as he got his leg stuck in a knothole.

Captain Kidd: Go get them men!

They threw their mugs at us and they got into a cannon and I fired it and the mugs got stuck on their faces.

Felix: Take that.

Goldie dropped a sail onto the crew and I fired a spear and it tied them up in the sail like a bag and Joanna blew the bag over to the mast and Felix fired a cannonball and it hit the bag and dropped the bag into the brig.

Captain Kidd got his leg free.

Captain Kidd: You little rat! I'll tear you from stem to stern!

Me: Swordfight you want huh?

I unsheathed my sword and we clashed powerfully and sparks were flying all over and his sword saw getting red hot and then it got white hot and broke off.

Me: Try this on.

I slashed his forehead with the star of Satan.

Me: To let Davy Jones know who sent you.

Joanna Lunala: Take this you fiend!

She fired a blast of moonlight and sent him flying and he was locked in the brig with his crew.

Me: YEAH!

We went to the brig and in a room we saw the next girl and she was a Titania and she had a Kingdra with her and they were both tied up.

Me: Wow she's a Titania the Queen of Fairies from the play by William Shakespeare, A Midsummer Night's Dream.

Joanna Lunala: Wow.

We went over and freed them both.

Suriko: Whew. Thank you. Wow You're J.D. Knudson, Leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: That's right.

Kingdra: (Estonian Accent) A huge fight went on up there.

Felix: Yeah it sure did.

Kingdra: And you're Felix the Cat. Wow it's an honor. Sorry my name is Sonnya Tetrapetrikov. It's a pleasure.

Suriko: And I'm Suriko and yes I'm a Titania.

Me: It's a pleasure to meet you both.

Joanna: I'm Joanna and yes I'm a Lunala.

Suriko: Me and Sonnya here got tied up because of that pirate.

Me: That was one of Felix's most dangerous enemies, Captain Kidd.

Felix: Yeah.

Me: But when we get back to shore he has a lot to answer for. Lets get all the treasure he and his crew stole and give it all to the town.

Kingdra: Right!

We went back to shore and Felix and me loaded the cannons with coins and treasure and fired it all and the the townsfolk were collecting all the treasure and it was great as all the townsfolk held a parade for all of us.

I later put up a dome of darkness and put on my blind man glasses and Felix covered his eyes and snapped my fingers and Sonnya reverted back and she was naked. Joanna reverted back.

Joanna was human again. But naked.

Joanna: (covers herself) Sonnya, just wait until you meet Horsea!

Sonnya: (Covers herself) I can tell I will.

I gave Sonnya and Joanna new clothes.

Me: That was an awesome rescue and adventure.

Suriko: And I am forever in your debt for saving me J.D.

Me: You're welcome Suriko. Captain Kidd is gonna have a lot to answer for.

Felix: You got that right. He was a pirate that was not following the code. Lets head home.

We went back home to the World Tree Estate and Suriko was gonna love being part of the team.

After defeating Captain Kidd and giving everyone the treasure he and his crew stole to Felix the Cat and his friends, Lincoln, me, Nico, Nicole, Lynn Loud, Naruto, Sasuke, Sakura, and The S.P.D. Power Rangers were on our way to rescue another girl who's been kidnapped by McWolf, and was being held in a castle just to the north of The Hidden Leaf Village.

Lincoln: So, McWolf's holding the next girl just north of The Hidden Leaf Village.

Naruto: I remembered that Lady Hokage had told us that last night, some ANBU had seen McWolf just north of the village, and he was building a castle there.

Me: The same thing happened when Gaara saw McWolf building his castle in The Hidden Sand Village.

Sakura Haruno: That McWolf is pretty slick to sneak past the ANBU here in the village, so he can build his castle just north of the village.

Jack Landors: And knowing McWolf, he'll summon some old friends of ours to fight.

We arrived at McWolf's castle just north of The Hidden Leaf Village, and we went inside the castle. We then head into the room where the next girl was being kept, and to our surprise, the next girl McWolf is holding was Blaze Fielding from Streets of Rage.

Lincoln: Wow, it's Blaze Fielding.

Nicole: From the Streets of Rage video game series, wow, and she's a pretty tough fighter. I'm glad McWolf didn't get knocked out by her, and she's an ex-cop turned private detective. She was the leader of the three cops who quit the Wood Oak City Police Department's corrupt police force.

Jack Landors: Now, that's pretty interesting, and I'm glad that she and the other two cops quit the Wood Oak City Police Department's corrupt police force.

Lincoln went up to Blaze Fielding and freed her.

Blaze Fielding: Wow, thanks for freeing me.

Suddenly, when Blaze Fielding saw the 7'0" tall, bare-chested, handsome, white-haired, and extremely muscular hunk with deep sapphire blue eyes, she had a blush on her face upon seeing Lincoln.

Blaze Fielding: Oh, wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you, Blaze Fielding.

Blaze Fielding: Same here, along with all of you, and don't worry, McWolf explained everything as soon as he kidnapped me, so I didn't knock him out.

Then, McWolf came out.

Naruto: That was pretty sneaky of you to elude the ANBU, so you could build your castle, McWolf.

McWolf: At least, I didn't get caught by them.

Sasuke: Otherwise, you'd risk battling the ANBU, and getting the attention of Lady Hokage.

McWolf: Right, and since you have the S.P.D. Power Rangers with you and Blaze Fielding was once a cop, here's some old friends for you to fight. KRYBOTS!

Then, an army of Krybots had appeared from the darkness.

Jack Landors: Krybots! Alright, let's do this.

Lincoln: And I've got just the thing for this.

Blaze Fielding: Let me join in, as well.

S.P.D. Rangers: READY! S.P.D. EMERGENCY!

The S.P.D. Rangers transformed, and Lincoln transformed into his new S.P.D. Power Ranger form, and he was wearing an Orange S.P.D. Ranger uniform, which goes well with his Sword of Taranis holstered on his wider muscular back and the eight large orange orbs orbiting around his legs, but the one thing that ruled him out were his larger blue angel wings surging with super lightning with stars and blue nebulae reflecting in the feathers.

Jack Landors: One! S.P.D. Red Ranger!

Sky Tate: Two! S.P.D. Blue Ranger!

Bridge Carson: Three! S.P.D. Green Ranger!

Z: Four! S.P.D. Yellow Ranger!

Syd Drew: Five! S.P.D. Pink Ranger!

Lincoln: Six! S.P.D. Orange Ranger!

Chief Anubis Doggie Cruger: Sworn Defender of The Galaxy! S.P.D. Shadow Ranger!

Kat Manx: S.P.D. Kat Ranger!

S.P.D. Rangers and Lincoln: Space Patrol Delta! Defenders of Earth!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive explosion erupted behind them.

Me: Wow, Lincoln, you look so awesome as an S.P.D. Orange Ranger!

Nico: You said it, bro.

Anubis Cruger: I admit, he does look amazing as an Orange S.P.D. Ranger.

Blaze Fielding: Wow, that's incredible.

Jack Landors: Alright, team, let's get them.

The team piled on, and attacked the army of Krybots. Blaze Fielding also punched and kicked some Krybots with incredible power.

Lynn Loud: Wow, she's tough.

Jack Landors: As an ex-cop, she had training at the police academy, I think Shelia Castille and Tom Lair will like hanging with her.

Lincoln: You said it, Jack.

Lynn Loud fired blasts of lava at some Krybots, and melted them down into molten lava, and the team destroyed the remaining Krybots, and they exploded. Lincoln changed back, and he, Nico, Lynn Loud, and me jumped McWolf, and tickled him.

McWolf: (LAUGHING HYSTERICALLY)

We ceased tickling McWolf, and after helping him up, we left the castle and returned to The World Tree Estate, and Blaze Fielding was introduced to the rest of Lincoln's siblings, Lincoln's future wife, Lily the Mermaid, and the other future wives of Lincoln's harem. Lincoln showed them what Blaze Fielding did to some of the Krybots.

Ronnie Anne: Wow, Blaze sure is a tough fighter, not to mention, she also had police training, so any punk tries to get near her, she'll use judo on them.

Blaze Fielding: You got that right, Ronnie Anne.

Later on, we were working out in the gym, especially Lincoln, who's now doing 100,000,000 reps of wing push-ups, regular push-ups, pull-ups, crunches, leg lifts and leg curls, chest presses and bicep curls with 9,000-lb barbells, and going a few rounds on the punching bag, and doing an hour on the treadmill, and he was working up a sweat.

We were REALLY WORKING OUT!

Later Nico was getting ready to go to the world of the Aligned Transformers and Muscle Man saw him open the portal.

Muscle Man: Nico where are you going?

Nico: Muscle Man, I can explain!

Muscle Man: (smiles) No need, bro. I won't tell anyone else about this. After all, I know you need to go to your private place once in a while.

Nico: Thanks, dude.

Muscle Man: (smirks) You know who else needs her private place once in a while? My mom!

Nico laughed.

Nico: Good one.

Muscle Man: But seriously, your secret is safe with all of us that already know.

Nico: Thanks man.

Muscle Man: Anytime dude.

Nico left through the portal.

In the world of the Aligned Transformers, Nico arrived.

Aligned Bumblebee: Hey Nico.

Nico: Hey guys.

Miko: So, did J.D. fly off the handle and accept my challenge?

Nico: No need to worry. He knows you were just horsing around.

Aligned Smokescreen: That's a relief.

Agent Fowler: I'm actually glad you're here, Nico. We're about to bust an illegal string of activities. Ones committed by humans.

June Darby: (to Jack) You were the one who went behind my back to go street racing all those years ago. You explain the situation to Nico.

Jack: (sighs) Okay, Mom. (to Nico) Remember when I told you about the time when I went street racing.

June Darby: Yeah I sure do.

Nico: Uh oh. Are you thinking about doing a race?

Aligned Smokescreen: You bet.

Nico: Lets get them.

They went to a street and saw a huge race about to begin and they saw Jack Darby's enemy Vince!

Aligned Vince: Haven't seen you and that bike for a while, Darby. (sees Nico) Who's your friend? Did he come here to see you lose?

Jack Darby: No. He came to help me beat you.

Aligned Vince: Oh yeah and how does he plan to do that?

Nico: By teaching you a lesson in humility.

Aligned Vince: Come and prove it.

Nico: Gladly.

Nico got into Knock Out.

Nico: Here we go. Don't worry Knock Out, I won't make a mess in here.

Knock Out: I know you won't.

The race was on.

---

French Narrator: (French Accent) 2 Hours Later.

---

So far, Vince was in the lead, with Jack and Arcee gaining on him.

Knock Out: (with Nico inside his vehicle mode) Nico, permission to humiliate this prick?

Nico: Granted Knock Out!

Knock Out: Aw yeah! Lets do it!

They fired missiles and lasers and blew Vince's car to pieces and Jack Darby crossed the Finish Line first!

Nico: YEAH!

Aligned Vince: I'll beat you next time, Darby!

Agent Fowler then came to them.

Agent Fowler: There won't be a next time, kid. Jack Darby and Nico here were lent 6 vehicles to help bust this whole street racing business. The rest of you are all under arrest!

Nico: Vince you have failed this city. You're looking at about 24 Hours of Community Service for this.

Aligned Vince: (laughs) 24 hours of community service? Ha! I'll get out of this punishment in no time!

Nico: Be glad you still have your freedom, Vince. Because after the rest of my friends get here, the next time you slip up, I won't be there to save you!

Aligned Vince: Is that a threat?

Nico: No. It's a promise. One that I probably won't have control over.

Aligned Vince: We'll see about that.

Nico: Oh yes we will my friend.

He was taken away.

Aligned Bumblebee: That was great!

Nico: Yeah it sure was.

Jack Darby: Hope he learns his lesson after all this.

Nico: Some people won't change that easily. But one can only hope.

Back at the estate in our universe, Horsea was hopping around and she hopped on the sofa and saw Sonnya.

Horsea: (to Sonnya) I can sense something familiar in you? Are you part Kingdra?

Sonnya: I sure am. But I wasn't like this on purpose. I was minding my business shopping when it happened.

Horsea: YAY! I have a friend!

Sonnya: Yeah.

Maria: (to Horsea) Horsea, are you glad you met Sonnya?

Horsea: I sure am and it's awesome to have a Kingdra Gene-Slammer with us now!

Me: It sure is. And it's cool to have Felix the Cat with us.

Eli: Yep it sure is.

Arrietty: He sure is cool.

Goldie the goose was really cool and she was making golden eggs like crazy.

Me: But this is amazing. I read that story constantly about The Goose That Laid The Golden Eggs when I was growing up and it's amazing that Goldie can lay eggs made of 24K Gold.

Lola: It sure is. I'm gonna go to my room for a tea party.

Me: Have fun Lola.

Lola: Thank you.

She left.

Nico then came back.

Nico: I'm home.

Me: Hey Nico. How was your time in you know where?

Nico: It was great.

Nico told us what happened.

May: I'm glad that you didn't let that Vince jerk get to you, honey.

Nico: Well, we haven't put that Aligned world under our protection yet. So, he wasn't worth it. But after everyone else knows, he's definitely gonna get it if he tries anything else.

Me: You said it buddy.

Nico: Yep.

Eli: It will be cool to teach him a lesson after everything he did.

Arrietty: Yeah.

Nico: The Force sure knows how to tell you everything huh?

Eli: Yeah the Force is really strong with me.

Arrietty: I think it's amazing.

Eli: But don't worry, we're not telling anyone yet.

Nico: Good.

Later we were at the ruins of an ancient Kids Next Door Dig Site.

Mushroomon: I bet there's lots of ice cream here since this is KND territory.

Me: That would be nice except this is a very special place in Kids Next Door history.

Nico: What is this place?

Me: Nigel told me all about it. It's called the Alamode.

The Kids Next Door operatives took their hats off and put their hands on their chests in respect.

Nico: Something tragic must've happened here a long time ago.

Numbuh 1: It was tragic Nico. It was back in 1839.

Numbuh 1 told us what happened.

---

The Alamode was a battle site for the 19th Century KND. It took place at the home of the Annoyingly Cute Triplets Who Lived Upon the Hill. The name is a parody of the Alamo Mission in San Antonio, Texas and is also a reference to the French term "al la mode" which means "on the side"

In the battle, 5,000 KND members stormed the area and sent Numbuh 19th Century inside to retrieve the ACTWLUTH's mother's recipe. However, once Numbuh 19th Century took it, it triggered a massive strawberry ice cream explosion, presumably freezing everyone within the explosion's blast radius. It took 10 years to get everyone out and, since they were all over 13, they were all decommissioned. The last member discovered was Numbuh 19th Century, who was freed in the 21st century. He then developed a crush - to be more specific, he was charming her into getting what he wanted - on Numbuh 86, but she still decommissioned him.

The Alamode Ruins

The Alamode is now a bunch of ruins, possibly old 2x4 technology, and the remnants ACTWLUTH's mansion. KND operatives go there before a dangerous mission. Numbuh 4 refers to it as "learning" and would rather be at school. It is now run by Numbuh 50 Million B.C..

---

When he was finished we were shocked and horrified.

Me: WHOA!

Eli: That's bad.

Laney: No kidding. All those kids were decommissioned even after 182 years have passed!? That's crazy!

Me: The TLPS-KND Alliance wasn't formed when Father was still alive back then. But yeah.

Numbuh 86: (Scottish Accent) It's true.

Me: If it's possible we can help all those kids adjust to life here in the 21st century.

Numbuh 1: That would be most helpful.

Flash Magnus: Where are said kids right now?

Numbuh 86: We have them over in the KND Moonbase for showing what has happened over the course of all this time.

Me: Wow. Lots of things have happened over the course of 182 years. Lets head over there.

We went to the KND Moonbase.

We arrived at the Kids Next Door Moonbase and it was amazing.

Nico: Wow.

Me: Kids Next Door Moonbase. Just as amazing as ever.

Twilight Sparkle: It sure is.

We saw all the kids that were decommissioned from the 19th Century.

Bugly: How are you kids feeling?

Lola: If there's any ice cream still on you guys, can the mascots eat it? I'd melt it off but I don't want to be cruel and deny the mascots a chance to eat delicious ice cream.

Numbuh 19th Century: (Victorian British Accent) I'm sorry but who are you all?

Me: Let me refresh your memories.

I used the recommissioning ray on the KND Operatives from over 182 years ago and they all had their memories back.

Numbuh 19th Century: By jove!

Me: Are you okay?

Numbuh 19th Century: I'm all right. I'm sorry but who are all of you and are we in the Kids Next Door Global Command?

Me: Yes you are. We are Team Loud Phoenix Storm, Creators of the Team Loud Phoenix Storm Kids Next Door Alliance. I'm J.D. Knudson, Leader of The Team.

Numbuh 362: I'm Numbuh 362, Supreme Leader and Commander of the Kids Next Door.

Numbuh 19th Century: It's a pleasure to meet you all. What happened?

Me: Long story on that. 182 years have passed since you went to get the recipe for that cake. It's gonna take a while for you to adjust but you're in the 21st Century.

We told him everything that happened over the course of the last 182 years. The Battle of the Alamo, The American Civil War, The Gettysburg Address, The Assassination of President Abraham Lincoln, The Emancipation Proclamation, The Hatfields & McCoys Feud, The Assassination of President James Garfield, Thomas Edison invents The Light Bulb, First Ever Mass Produced Car Made by William Ford, Assassination of President William McKinley, Wright Bros. Numbuh 19th Century: Wow! So much has happened.

Me: I know. Shocking. And those are the big major events that have taken place over the last 182 years.

Eli: Lots of things have happened.

Wheelie: What did that strawberry ice cream taste like?

Manaphy: Really tasty.

Lana: It sure was good.

Numbuh 19th Century: My goodness. I've got so much to learn about here. But will you all be able to help us all and help us learn here in this new time and new era?

Me: We would be more than honored. Things have really changed ever since you went into that mansion almost 200 years ago.

Lola: Yeah.

Numbuh 19th Century: What year is it now if I may ask?

Me: You are in the year 2021. A lot of things have happened since 1839. It's gonna take a while for you to adjust being here. But we'll help you out in any way we can.

Yuko: Man the strangest part is that the Annoyingly Cute Triplets Who Lived Upon The Hill are really the ancestors of the Delightful Children.

Ashley: Hard to believe.

Me: Yeah. That is shocking. But thank goodness those monsters are gone forever.

Nico: Yeah.

We had all the members of the 19th Century Kids Next Door taken to the estate for a special 21st Century Adjustment Program we made.

Francis: BTW, J.D.? It's your turn to lead today.

Me: I know Francis. And I have just the mission for us all.

Nico: Lets hear it.

Me: We're gonna go to the world of Arthur and the Invisibles.

Eli: Oh wow! I love that movie!

Nico: That's one of my favorites.

Aylene C.: Mine too. It was great.

Laney: Yeah it was.

Me: Yep.

Killer Shrike, Speed Demon, LaGrange, Titanium Titan, Batroc, Girder, Man Boy, Trapster, Multiple Man, and Zavok then appeared.

Killer Shrike: Can me, Speed Demon, LaGrange, Titanium Titan, Batroc, Girder, Man Boy, Trapster, Multiple Man, and Zavok go with you guys?

Me: You all sure can.

Zavok: Awesome!

Multiple Man saw Felix.

Multiple Man: WHOA NO WAY! Is that the iconic Felix The Cat!?

Me: Yep.

Felix: It's awesome to meet you guys.

Multiple Man: Same here. I loved watching you back when I was a kid. You are awesome.

Felix: I'm glad..

LaGrange: So awesome. Also what is with all the new kids?

Me: Weird story. They are all Kids Next Door operatives from 182 years ago. They were frozen in time from a massive Strawberry Ice Cream explosion that froze them all in a state of suspended animation. For almost 2 centuries they were frozen.

Man Boy: Wow!

Speed Demon: That's amazing.

Me: Long story behind it. Anyway our next mission is going to the world of Arthur and The Invisibles. First we're gonna watch the movie.

We got to watching it.

---

In 1960, protagonist 10-year-old Arthur lives with his grandmother Daisy in a quiet farm house on a dirt road, in a small rural community in Northeastern Connecticut (based on Sterling). His grandfather Archibald has recently gone missing and he sees little of his parents (who are away looking for work). Daisy entertains Arthur with stories of his grandfather's adventures in Africa, featuring the tall Bogo Matassalai and the minuscule Minimoys, of whom the latter now live in Archibald's garden, protecting a collection of rubies. Arthur becomes enamored of a picture of Selenia, the princess of the Minimoys. When Daisy receives a two-day deadline to pay a large sum of money to a building developer named Ernest Davido, who plans to evict the two, Arthur looks for the rubies to pay off the debt and discovers various clues left by his grandfather. He is met in the garden by the Bogo Matassalai, who reduce Arthur to Minimoy size. From the Minimoys, Arthur learns that they are in danger from Maltazard, a Minimoy war hero who now rules the nearby

'Necropolis', after corruption by a weevil, by whom he has a son named Darkos.

Arthur, reflecting his legendary British namesake, draws a sacred sword from its recess and uses it to protect the Minimoys from Maltazard's soldiers; whereupon Sifrat, the ruler of the Minimoys, sends Arthur to Necropolis, with the princess Selenia and her brother Betameche. En route, they are attacked on two occasions by Maltazard's soldiers. In Necropolis, Selenia kisses Arthur, marking him as her husband and potential successor, and confronts Maltazard alone. When Maltazard learns that she has already kissed Arthur and thus can no longer give him her powers and cure his corruption, he imprisons all three, who discover a Minimoy form of Archibald. Thereafter Arthur and his grandfather escape and return to human form, with little time to spare before Maltazard's flood reaches the Minimoys. With the help of Mino, a royal advisor's long-lost son, Arthur redirects the flood to Necropolis; whereupon Maltazard abandons Necropolis and his son, and the water ejects the rubies above ground. Archibald pays Davido with one ruby; and when he tries to take them all, the Bogo Matassalai capture him and give him to the authorities. The film ends with Arthur asking Selenia to wait for his return, and her agreement to do so.

---

When the movie was done we cheesed wildly.

Nico: That was so awesome!

Lana: Yeah it was!

Me: And Maltazard was voiced by the Great David Bowie.

Luna Loud: I love all his songs dudes. They were great.

Lincoln: The costumes he wore were amazing.

Laney: Like Lady Gaga.

Lily: Lady Gaga's costumes are awesome.

Me: All right lets head out!

We were off to the world of Arthur and The Invisibles.

---

In the world of the Minimoy's we arrived and it was amazing. But we were also the size of the Minimoys.

Red Lantern Ratchet: Are we small?!

Me: We sure are and this is really cool!

Arrietty: Wow you guys are now my size!

We saw Arrietty and she was the size of us now and so were the littles. Actually WE were the size of her and the Littles!

Me: WHOA! Arrietty you and the Littles look amazing now that we're your size.

Nico: Amazing!

Arrietty: It sure is great.

Lucy Little: I'll say. Wow!

Lucy Little: Yeah it's awesome!

Henry Bigg: Wow!

Me: This is awesome! Lets find Arthur.

We went to find Arthur and we found him in his room.

Man Boy: Hey there. You must be Arthur.

Arthur: That's right. (Gasp) Team Loud Phoenix Storm! It's an honor.

Me: Pleasure to meet you too Arthur. And you look awesome as a Minimoy.

Lincoln: The white hair is amazing on you.

Arthur: Thanks Lincoln. Same with you and Linka.

Linka: Thanks Arthur.

Arthur: I'll show you all around.

Muscle Man: Hey, guys. You know who else likes being at this size?

Elec Man: (laughs) I know the answer to this one!

Muscle Man: My mom!

We laughed at his joke.

Arthur: That was funny!

Me: We think so too.

?: What's all the laughter about?

We saw Princess Selenia come out.

Selenia: Wow the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm! It's an honor.

Me: Pleasure to meet you too Princess Selenia.

Arrietty: It's an honor to meet you too.

Selenia: Same here. I love all your adventures and they are most incredible.

Me: We get that a lot.

Titanium Titan: (bows) It's an honor to meet you, Princess.

Selenia: It's a pleasure too.

Me: We came to help you and Arthur in dealing with a certain evil monster?

Selenia: Oh right! You all came at just the right time.

Arthur: You must speak with the emperor about that. Follow us.

We went to follow them to the Emperor's throne room.

We went to meet Selenia's father. We stood in the presence of Emperor Sifrat XVI.

Sifrat XVI: Ah Team Loud Phoenix Storm. Welcome to the world of the Minimoy's.

Me: (Kneels) It's an honor to meet you your excellency.

Needle Man: Thank God you're not Malthazard.

Everyone gasped in shock when they heard him say that name.

Needle Man: Was it something I said?

Sifrat XVI: Sorry about that. We are very paranoid about that name.

Me: It's all right your excellency. But we came to help you deal with him.

Sifrat XVI: We greatly appreciate it Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: Before we know who we are up against, we need to know more about, uh sorry about saying this, we need to know more about Malthazard.

Sifrat XVI: Certainly.

He told us all about him.

---

Emperor Maltazard, also known as Maltazard and The Evil M, is the father of Darkos, the emperor of Necropolis, and the main antagonist in the Arthur and the Invisibles franchise, which is based on the 2002 French book Arthur and the Minimoys by Luc Besson. He is one of the two main antagonists (the other being Ernest Davido) in the 2006 film Arthur and the Invisibles, the titular main antagonist in the 2009 film Arthur and the Revenge of Maltazard and the main antagonist in the 2010 film Arthur 3: The War of the Two Worlds. He is also the arch-nemesis of Arthur.

In the first film, he was voiced by the late David Bowie, who also played Jareth the Goblin King in Labyrinth. In the sequels, he was voiced by the late Lou Reed, who also did the singing voice of Mok Swagger in Rock & Rule.

Maltazard was a brave and proud knight in his youth, attaining several titles, and regarded by the Minimoys' king as a surrogate son. In a drought lasting a Milliem (equivalent in their calendar to a year), he was sent with a small band of troops into the wasteland beyond the seven kingdoms, in search of water. There, Maltazard faced several unknown dangers, bloodthirsty tribes, hideous creatures, and scalding heat. When he finally found water, he was the only remaining member of his team, and the tragic event twisted his young mind. He returned with the water and riches he captured, carried on enslaved creatures defended by mercenaries, but to find himself replaced by a new hero named Archibald, who brought scientific study and new philosophies that made fighters like Maltazard no longer necessary.

His forces were disbanded, his slaves were released, his spoils divided, and his precious sword plunged into a stone. When Maltazard complained, he was simply told to study the book of Archibald's teachings, which he refused. Maltazard was shocked by his own people creating such things without him, and sought sanctuary in various pubs telling his story to whomever would listen, every day going further in anger and depression among the worst of creatures, until he was seduced by a weevil and received a poisonous kiss that corrupted his body and confirmed his madness, and assembled an army to invade his former homeland.

Maltazard, along with Darkos (the son of Maltazard by the weevil) and their soldiers, guard rubies that Arthur needs to stop his grandparents' house from being demolished. He wished to kiss the Minimoy princess Selenia, so he could gain her powers and cure his corruption, but upon learning she has already kissed Archibald's grandson Arthur, he imprisons Selenia, her brother Betameche, and Arthur; only to have them escape, with the help of Archibald. Maltazard tries to flood the Minomoys' land, but is defeated by Arthur and the Minimoys and abandons Darkos and the soldiers to drown.

During the final movie, he and his force manage to grow to human size and decide to conquer the human world. Unfortunately, Maltazard's ignorance about human's superior technology cost him and his army since a small US army platoon come to the town and wipe out all his force and he is shrank back down to his mini-size. He is now imprisoned in the jar in the kitchen of Arthur's house.

When he was done we were shocked.

Me: WHOA MAN! That's terrible! He is a monster! Emphasis on the word Monster.

Eli: Yeah he sure is. He's a monster that's bad as Palpatine.

Arrietty: He sure is.

Girder: So, Malthazard went from brave knight to complete genocidal psychopath, huh?!

Sifrat XVI: That's right.

Me: He went from Hero to malevolent monster. Looks like we're gonna kill him.

Eli: Yeah. He is a true terror that must be destroyed.

Varie: Yeah no kidding.

Shadow Man: Does he have any minions?

Arthur: He has lots of them. They live in Necropolis.

Lucy Loud: Sounds like my kind of town.

Me: Then we better get rid of them first.

Brittney: Leave that to me. I can use my magic to make them get destroyed.

Speed Demon: First, I'll use my speed to find out where Necropolis is.

Me: Go for it.

ZOOM!

He ran fast. Then came back 4 seconds later.

Speed Demon: 4 yards to the south.

Me: That's not that far.

Lola: Yep.

Iguanus: While we're making battle plans, how about we tell you about the many benefits on Earth?

Sifrat XVI: I would like that.

Me: All right. Let's get to work on those plans.

We got to work and drew up strategical plans and we got to telling everyone in the Minimoys about what Earth has to offer and more.

Arthur: Is that strawberry ice cream?!

Batroc: It sure is. I stopped by the Alamode to get it.

Me: Really tasty flavor.

Arthur tried some and it was delicious!

Arthur: Awesome!

Selenia tried some too and it was great.

Selenia: Delicious!

Me: Glad you all like it.

Arthur: What was your favorite adventure you guys went of?

Me: Oh gosh that is a tough one.

Snaptrap: Well, one of our adventures was when we met the Lupinrangers and Patrangers in person.

Me: Yep and that was a cool one. We've had so many awesome adventures and they were all amazing and really cool.

Nico: Hard to pick out of all of them.

Laney: The most amazing adventure for us would have to be our Earth Day Week.

Nico: That was one of our most charitable weeks ever.

Linka (Captain Planet): (Russian Accent) It sure was.

Trapster: Wasn't that when you guys took on the enemies of Captain Planet for the first time?

Me: Yep and that was one of the most charitable adventures we've had. We cleaned up much of the planet and restored the forests and everything.

Fluttershy: Oh that sounds like my kind of adventure.

Me: It was really something Fluttershy. We did it all.

I went over everything from chapters 683 to 690 and it was something.

Eli: That is so cool.

Arrietty: It sure is.

Pirate Man: Skuum and those landlubbers won't be messing up Earth anytime soon!

Me: No but if they do we'll be ready for them and we'll banish them all to the Warp.

Linka (Captain Planet): And Skumm will get it.

Me: Yep. He will be in for a rude awakening when he sees Boris back from the dead.

Eli: He sure will.

Zavok: (to Arthur) Boris actually died because he overdosed on Bliss. I wouldn't recommend taking that drug.

Me: Me neither. That drug is poisonous.

Laney: Yeah that drug is dangerous.

Eli: Yeah.

Arthur: I won't take that drug.

Me: Me neither.

Brittney: Okay I have our plans. Maria and Multiple Man will destroy some of the minions with water and clones and I'll destroy the rest with my magic.

Nico: Good plan.

Me: Yep.

Burner Man: Let's go find Malthazard's minions. If we do that, we can find their boss.

Selenia: I know where Malthazard is at. We can take out his minions first.

Brittney: And I know how to do it.

Eli: Okay.

Me: Lets do it.

We were off to Necropolis.

Sifrat XVI: Good luck Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

* * *

In Necropolis all the minions were standing guard.

Maria came up to them.

Maria: Hey buttfaces!

They saw her.

Maria: We're gonna have to ask you guys to surrender.

Malthazard Minion: You and what army?

Maria: Me and THIS army!

Multiple Man: (smirks) Shouldn't have asked that question.

Multiple Man makes 310 copies of himself.

They blasted and pulverized many of the minions into oblivion and Brittney used her magic to kill the rest of them.

Me: YEAH!

Selenia: Follow me!

May: There's the entrance to Malthazard's lair.

RD Lucy: (smirks) It would be a shame if someone were to bust in.

Me: It's entrance time.

Malthazard was looking at his plans when suddenly…

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion blasted through the doors and a phoenix cry was heard and the symbols of strength, technology, earth and metal swirled around and then converged and we came out of the explosion and we were facing EMPEROR MALTHAZARD!

Me: Malthazard so we meet at last.

Golden Queen: You are hereby commanded to disband your throne!

Malthazard: On whose orders?

Me: Mine!

I fired an energy blast and it hit him and exploded and sent him crashing into the table and he got up.

LaStrange then smashed a car into him and he got back up.

Malthazard: (gets up) What the Hell was that? It felt like I was hit by a car!

LaGrange: (gets out of his car) You were. MY car! Too bad it didn't turn you into roadkill!

Me: And you were hit by an energy blast from me.

Nico: This time you die Malthazard.

Malthazard: Lets see how you like facing my associate first.

Me: What Associate?

?: You will die for ruining my ambitions!

Suddenly, the eight large planets and stars orbiting around my legs, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs, and the eight large black orbs with the Eye of Horus orbiting around Cody (OC)'s legs were glowing, and it means trouble.

Isarabi: Oh no, I thought I was rid of that voice forever.

Nicole: It's been a long time since I killed you, Dr. Amachi.

The figure came out, and it was none other than Dr. Amachi, the mad scientist who worked alongside Orochimaru, and the same mad scientist who destroyed Isarabi's humanity.

Dr. Amachi: It's been a long time, Nicole Knudson, and I also see that the traitor who also destroyed me is still alive.

Isarabi: I thought I'd never have to see you again, you bastard!

Me: Especially after everything you did in 150,000 years.

Twilight Sparkle: Lincoln, can you tell us more about Dr. Amachi? It sounds like he and Isaribi have a dark history, along with Nicole.

Lincoln: You got it, Twilight, but trust me, his history is quite bad.

Lincoln proceeded to tell Twilight and her friends about Dr. Amachi, and like he said, it's really bad.

---

Amachi

Amachi (アマチ, Amachi) is a medical-nin and scientist who was an accomplice of Orochimaru.

Background

He and Orochimaru terrorized the people of the Land of the Sea, and kidnapped the citizens for their deadly experiments (including Isaribi) which included making the ultimate underwater ninja for Orochimaru. He ordered Isaribi to attack ships, promising to return her to her normal form, but truly intending to dissect her once she was no longer of use. He also seemed to know Anko Mitarashi as well, since she was with Orochimaru at that time.

Abilities

Being a medical-nin, Amachi uses a scalpel as a tool and has good chakra control in general. Due to experiments on himself, he can transform into a fish-man hybrid. While in this hybrid form, he can use water nature techniques such as spitting a strong stream of water from his mouth. His movements are improved greatly due to his transformation and he is also able to breathe underwater. He can summon a sentient mass of water that takes a powerful Fire Release technique to defeat.

Part I

Kaima Capture Mission

Much later, Yoroi Akadō and Misumi Tsurugi joined him as bodyguards and assistants. He planned to steal gold from an arriving ship, and manipulated Isaribi into attacking it. It was also revealed that he planned on using his experiments to take revenge on Orochimaru, who cancelled the underwater ninja project due to lost of interest.

In the final confrontation with Anko, Naruto Uzumaki, Ino Yamanaka, and Shino Aburame, he also transformed into a complete Kaima Form and summoned the indestructible Umibōzu. He was defeated by Naruto when he used the Nine-Tailed Demon Fox's chakra and was captured by Anko. Upon his capture, he mentioned that he didn't know a way to cure Isaribi, and had planned to dissect her when she was no longer useful. Naruto grew infuriated and tried to strike him, but Anko held him back, only to slug Amachi herself after asking him about Orochimaru's whereabouts.

After Lincoln was finished, all our new recruits were indeed horrified at the acts of that mad scientist.

Nico: What a fiend, he's even worse than Orochimaru.

Me: Just as bad actually. Loves messing around with the laws of Mother Nature.

Nico: Yep.

Me: You haven't changed much since we last saw each other in 150,000 years.

Amachi: Nice of you to remember me after all these years J.D. Knudson.

Me: I thought I was rid of you forever Amachi

Isaribi: Same here! After everything you did to me.

Amachi: You will never be rid of me that easily.

Me: We'll see about that. You got what you deserved for following that motherfucking snake pedophile and for tampering with the laws of Mother Nature.

Isaribi: I've had it with him.

Suddenly, Isaribi's eyes turned neon ocean blue, and she was surrounded by an ocean blue energy aura, and it had ocean blue lightning, water waves, and mermaids, as she approached Amachi.

Isaribi: Amachi, you not only destroyed my humanity, but you've also destroyed the humanity of so many ninjas that you and Orochimaru have kidnapped from The Land of The Sea. Orochimaru already paid the price for his crimes, and now, you will suffer the same fate!

Suddenly, Isarabi was surrounded by a massive vortex of ocean blue energy, which was accompanied by waves of water, ocean blue lightning, the divine singing of mermaids, and an ocean blue phoenix inside the vortex. Then, as the vortex fades, Isarabi emerged, but she was changed forever.

(IMPERATRIX MUNDI PLAYS AT 1:45 to 2:14)

Isaribi now looked like she was 21 years old, she had the body of a goddess, her eyes were neon ocean blue, she had an ocean blue energy aura with mermaids and ocean waves surrounding her, her purple hair has gotten longer, and it was tied in a ponytail, she had on a sleeveless blue blouse with an ocean blue phoenix, a blue skirt with mermaids on it, black pants with ocean waves, ocean blue leather combat boots, she has on her own Bracelets of the Champions of the Universe with ocean blue gems around them, her own Belt of Elemental Bravery with a large ocean blue gem for the belt buckle, and an Eater of Sins revolver holstered on her right hip. She has a mermaid emblazoned on her forehead, a pair of mermaid earrings with the Water Kanji on their tails, and a silver Water Kanji necklace, she has a new sword in her hand called The Defender of The Oceans, a sword with a mermaid etched on the 6'0" massive, double-edged, wide blade, large ocean blue angel wings for the crossguard, a large blue gem for the hilt, a long black handle, and a large ocean blue sphere pommel with surrounding light blue gems. She also has on an ocean blue sleeveless trench coat with ocean waves on the coattails and mermaids, and on the back is the symbol of The Hidden Leaf Village, and underneath the symbol of The Hidden Leaf Village was an ocean blue kanji that says, "Isaribi, Ninja of The Hidden Leaf Village, Destroyer of Dr. Amachi, Emissary of

The Seas, and Master of The Seas."

イサリビ、木ノ葉隠れ隠れの忍者、アマチ博士の駆逐艦、海の使者、そして海の達人。

Isarabi has transformed into SUPER ANGEL 500,000,000,000 OCEAN MAELSTROM MERMAID ANGEL OF JUSTICE.

We were amazed that Isaribi achieved her own Super Angel 500,000,000,000 form, and to Amachi, it means that his fate has been sealed.

Me: Incredible!

Eli: Wow! Way to go sis!

Nicole: Wow, Isaribi, you've transformed.

Naruto: You said it, sis. Isaribi, how do you feel?

Isarabi: (Divine Echoing Watery Voice) I feel incredible, Naruto, and now, I'm going to make the man who destroyed my humanity pay for his crimes infinite-fold.

Lincoln: Show him no mercy, Isarabi.

Isarabi: (Divine Echoing Watery Voice) With pleasure, Lincoln, and trust me, I have no mercy to give this bastard.

Me: I can tell.

Scorcher, Heatwave, Pyro, Firebrand, Magma, Firefly, P'andor, Pyros, Molten Man, and Doctor Octopus then appeared.

Me: Scorcher, Heatwave, Pyro, Firebrand, Magma, Firefly, P'andor, Pyros, Molten Man, and Doctor Octopus.

Magma: Looks like we got here just in time.

Firefly: This actually isn't the first time we've been tiny before.

Arthur: It isn't?

Heat Wave: Nope. We've been tiny on several missions before this one.

Molten Man: It's still nice to meet you, though.

Pyro: (to Felix) You're Felix the Cat, right?

Felix the Cat: Yep that's me.

Pyro: WHOA NO WAY! I loved watching you all the time when I was growing up.

P'andor: (Russian Accent) It will be an honor to have you with us, comrade!

Felix the Cat: Thanks guys.

Pyro: How come Isaribi hates that Dr. Amachi fellow?

Me: Horrible history with him. She was experimented on by him.

I went over everything and they were horrified.

Pyro: Oh man!

Pyros: That is sick!

Zhuqiaomon: You are not kidding there.

Nico: Yeah.

?: No kidding.

A figure came out and it was GAARAGAARA from episodes 31 and 34 of GINGAMAN, the Japanese Version of Lost Galaxy!

---

Gaaragaara is a Kali-themed Majin. He intended to revive Daitanix using the palms of 333 hands. Gaaragaara posed as a fortune teller, using his special palm magic to mark his human customers. In battle, he could attack with his arms, causing them to stretch and strangle his opponents, particularly the Gingaman. Killed by Super

Armor Shine Gingaioh after being thrashed by GingaPhoenix and GingaRhinos.

He is one of the five majin revived by Illiess to protect her tower from the Gingaman. He holds off Hyuuga, only to disappear when Ryouma destroys the tower. He is killed once again by the Megarangers in Seijuu Sentai Gingaman vs. Megaranger.

---

Gaaragaara: Gaaragaara is my name!

Me: I don't remember seeing you in Power Rangers Lost Galaxy.

Nico: That's because he was only put in the Japanese version of the show and not in the America one.

Gaaragaara: That's right. I was supposed to revive Daitanix using the Palms of 333 Hands and I posed as a fortune teller.

Me: WOW! That's a shame you weren't in the American adaptation. What a ripoff.

Gaaragaara: I know. It is a shame.

Me: Yeah.

Gaaragaara: You guys are very different from the Gingaman.

Kendrix: How so?

Gaaragaara: (to Kendrix) For starters, only one person was the Gingaman's Pink Ranger. And she didn't die at all.

Nico: Wow.

Me: That is a huge difference.

Then a portal ring of fire appeared and it was Tiger's Eye!

Natilee: Tiger's Eye!

Tiger's Eye: Nice to see you Natilee. I have an additional battle for you all. Come on out Remless Garagara Girl.

His shadow extended and out came Garagara Girl and she was a snake girl.

Garagara Girl: Garagara!

Anko: Looks like I'll be facing this one. I love a good battle when it comes to snakes.

Garagara Girl: I'm glad you think so.

Bluto came out too.

Sea: Bluto. I love a good battle with you.

Bluto: I'm starting to get used to this.

Sea: That's good.

Me: Lets do it.

?: Not without me you don't.

A figure came out and it was MADAME WOE from episode 13 of Mighty Morphin!

---

Madame Woe is an elemental ghost monster and evil sorceress. She is an old friend of Rita who gets her name from bringing woe or trouble to everyone she touched. She serves as the main antagonist of the episode "Peace, Love and Woe".

It is unclear how Madame Woe came into existence. Rita contacted her and asked to came to her palace, while an earlier scene implied that Finster was to create her. It is possible that Finster created her before Rita and her minions were trapped in the Space Dumpster and Woe had remained on Earth, or Finster sent her to Earth, before Rita could give her mission. She refers her as old friend, which could indicate that Finster recruited her to the service.

Rita decided to destroy Billy, so she summoned Madame Woe and ordered her to send the other Rangers, except Billy to her dimension, and destroy him. Madame Woe's jewel allowed her to control rain, heat, wind and cold and send people to other dimensions. Woe confused Billy's girlfriend Marge for a ranger and sent her to another dimension. When the Rangers arrived she fought them and showed her abilities to teleport, use her braids, and fly. Then she sent the other Rangers, except Billy, to the same dimension Marge is, and Rita's plan nearly succeeded. But Billy managed to defeat her and break her jewel by snatching it from her forehead and crushing it into dust in his hand, which freed his friends. The Rangers overpowered the now powerless Woe with their hands and fists and Billy landed the final blow with a double punch to her chest before forming their Power Blaster and finishing off the evil sorceress for good.

Kimberly: Madame Woe!

Madame Woe: Been a while rangers.

Me: I remember you! You were sent to destroy Billy after Rita sent the rangers on a while goose chase and capture the other rangers.

Madame Woe: That's right J.D. Rita is a friend of mine as you know.

Me: Yeah she sure is. But she is also a monster I'm going to kill without a single shred of remorse to make her pay for her crimes.

Madame Woe: Well I am now part of the Masters of Evil and now I am Suriko's archenemy.

Suriko: Wow! Queen of Fairies VS Master of Sadness.

Nico: Good theme.

Me: Now we can get it on.

---

Rarity: Indeed they were darling and it was awful.

Sweetie Belle: Yeah what happened was a disaster.

Thunder Terror: After they were brought back after all these years they were technically over 13 and had to be decommissioned even though they were only 10 to 11 when it all happened.

Mistmane: 182 years passed since then and it was awful that they had to be decommissioned.

We had a great adventure though. We then had a great dinner and later went to sleep.

THE END

---

Another awesome fanfic done.

Arthur and the Invisibles was a great movie from the year 2006. It was a great movie! Also this whole chapter was made in honor of the late and great David Bowie who provided the voice work for the villain Malthazard in the movie. So awesome and I love his song Heroes. Also his costumes he put on at his concerts were awesome. He died of Liver Cancer 10 years after the movie was made and it was sad.

R.I.P. David Bowie: January 8th, 1947 - January 10th, 2016.

NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1955, Nflemingful, Drako1234658, Etstheclarencefan and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. The next girl is gonna be a new one and her name will be a new one. A Jubjub and her name is Vekora and she and a Tsareena Gene-Slammer named Malia Lauwiliwilinukunuku'oi'oi will be in the world of Little Audrey and we're going to take down the Devil's Food Cake and save both Vekora and Malia from him. Also the next chapter is for another awesome Babysitting adventure and it's Heidi's turn to babysit. She's going to babysit some of the Loud's while some of us are once again at the mercy of the unsanitary conditions of Aunt Ruth. But get ready for a great adventure. Also my aunt's birthday party is being held as well so I'll be doing the chapter late.

See you all tomorrow.

Heidi's Babysitting Adventure

Me and Ekaterina were flying over a world of cakes and sweets and it was all so tantalizing.

Me: Wow look at this place.

Ekaterina: (Russian Accent) I think we're going to meet yet another old cartoon character.

Ekaterina concentrated and groaned as a mane formed on her head.

Me: I have that same feeling too. But wow this whole place is really tasty and it's something Mary would love to eat.

Ekaterina turned into SOLGALEO!

Me: YEAH!

We saw a little red hair girl with pigtails and it was Little Audrey!

Me: Oh wow! It's Little Audrey! I have known her cartoons for years.

Ekaterina Solgaleo: Brings back memories. Now I remember where I saw this world. It's where the Devil's-Food Cake takes the princess.

Me: (Drools) That's one of my biggest weaknesses is Devil's Food Cake.

We then saw DEVIL-FOOD CAKE kidnapping Angel Cake!

---

The Devil-Food Cake is the main antagonist of the " Little Audrey " episode, Tarts, And Flowers .

History

The Devil-Food Cake appeared as he came out from his hideout after he heard that The Gingerbread-man takes The Angel Cake for his wife on the wedding.

The Devil-Food Cake refused to let that happen because he wants The Angel Cake for himself. He popped to the wedding and kidnapped Angel Cake. Little Audrey bought the Cop Cakes to stop The Devil-Food Cake. The Gingerbread-Man borrowed a horse from the "Animal Cracker" Zoo to rescue The Angel Cake.

As they chase after The Devil-Food Cake, He took The Strawberry Short Cut to The Old Milk Stream, took a boat and row off to The Devil's Cake Island . Little Audrey and The Gingerbread-Man got there too late. Little Audrey saw a sign says, " The Old Milk Stream ", which gave her an idea. She uses a manual hand-mixer to turn old milk into butter, which got the boat stuck in butter and made it difficult for The Devil-Food Cake to row straight to The Devil's Cake Island . The Gingerbread-Man runs into the buttered stream and pulverized The Devil-Food Cake. The Police captured The Devil-Food Cake, locked him in the Pie Wagon and took him to prison. The Devil Food Cake was voiced by the late, unaccredited Jackson Beck, who is the voice of Bluto.

Me: Lets go!

We saw the Devil-Food Cake going onto a lake of milk and Little Audrey whisked it into thick whipped cream and stopped them.

Me: HEY YOU BIG PIECE OF CHOCOLATE! LET HER GO!

I swooped in and ate the Devil-Food Cake in one bite and we got Angel Cake out and brought her to land.

Then we saw a Jubjub and a Tsareena appear.

Vekora: Wow great job.

Me: Wow you're a Jubjub and you have a Tsareena with you.

Vekora: Yep. Wow! You're J.D. Knudson the famous leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Tsareena: (Hawaiian Accent) Wow! It's an honor.

Vekora: My name is Vekora and yes I'm a Jubjub. We're a type of Harpy.

Tsareena: And I'm Malia Lauwiliwilinukunuku'oi'oi.

Me: (Sparks came out of my head) Whoa that's a long name.

Tsareena: I'm from Hawaii and also do you know someone named Kanaloa Ikaia?

Me: We sure do. That's my friend Hunter's friend.

Tsareena: Oh wow! She must be with you all. I was trying to find her when I got turned into this.

Me: Oh man.

Audrey then came up to us.

Audrey: Wow J.D. Knudson of Team Loud Phoenix Storm! It's such an honor.

Me: And it's an honor to meet you too Audrey. I loved watching all of your cartoons when I was growing up.

Ekaterina Solgaleo: It's an honor. I'm Ekaterina.

Audrey: It's a pleasure.

Me: Malai I'm going to revert you back and you will also have your powers as a Tsareena.

Malai: Cool!

I put on my blind man glasses and snapped my fingers. Malai reverted back and she had green and pink hair and she was naked.

Ekaterina reverted back too.

Ekaterina was human again. But naked.

Ekaterina: (covers herself) Audrey, you're gonna love it with J.D. and the others.

Audrey: Awesome! I can't wait.

I gave Ekaterina and Malia new clothes.

Malia: Thanks J.D.

Me: Malia are you a friend of Hunter?

Malia: I actually know his friend Kanaloa.

Me: Kanaloa is one of our teammates.

Malia: Wow! It will be awesome to see her again.

Vekora: But it's gonna be awesome being part of the team.

Me: Yes it sure will be.

Audrey: J.D. you have cake on your face.

Me: Huh?

I wiped it off with a napkin.

Me: Oh sorry. Devil's-food cake is one of my favorite desserts. I can't eat enough of it. It's one of my biggest weaknesses.

Ekaterina: Now I see where Mary got her love of sweets.

We laughed.

Malai: that's funny!

Audrey: (Laughs)

We later went back home to the World Tree Estate. Malai and Kanaloa were so happy to be reunited.

After saving Vekora and Malia from the Devil's Food Cake, Lincoln, me, Nico, Keiko, Nicole, and The Lost Galaxy Power Rangers were off to rescue another girl that was kidnapped by McWolf, and we found out the girl was being held by McWolf in a newly built castle in Osaka, Japan.

Lincoln: So, McWolf is holding the next girl here in Osaka, Japan.

Me: That's right, and we've gone to Japan more than once before in the past.

Nico: But, not to Osaka, Japan, bro.

Keiko: You guys are going to love visiting Osaka, it's really beautiful.

Me: And home to amazing years of history.

We arrived at McWolf's castle in Osaka, and we went inside. We headed into the room where the girl was being held, and to our surprise, the girl McWolf is holding in his castle was Tyris Flare from Golden Axe.

Lincoln: Wow, it's Tyris Flare.

Nicole: From the video game, Golden Axe, awesome.

Me: Man I haven't played that game in forever.

Lincoln went up to Tyris Flare, and he freed her.

Tyris Flare: I thank you for freeing me.

Then, when Tyris saw who freed her, she had a small blush on her face when she saw the 7'0" tall, bare-chested, handsome, white-haired, and extremely muscular hunk with deep sapphire blue eyes, she had a blush on her face upon seeing Lincoln.

Tyris Flare: Why, you must be Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you, Tyris.

Tyris Flare: You too, handsome. Nicole Knudson, Great Goddess of Games, it's an honor.

Nicole: You too Tyris. It's an honor to meet you too.

Then, McWolf came in.

Keiko: I'm impressed that you chose Osaka, Japan to build your new castle here, McWolf.

McWolf: I thought that Osaka, Japan would be more beautiful to build the castle here, and since you have The Lost Galaxy Power Rangers here, I've got some old friends for you to fight. SWABBIES!

Then, an army of Swabbies appeared inside the room of the castle.

Leo Corbett: Swabbies, alright, guys, time to take action.

Lincoln: And I've got just the thing for them.

Tyris Flare got out her short sword, and joined with them.

Tyris Flare: Allow me to join in, as well.

Lost Galaxy Rangers and Lincoln: GO GALACTIC!

The Lost Galaxy Rangers transformed, and Lincoln was now in his new Lost Galaxy Ranger form, but his Lost Galaxy Ranger uniform and helmet are orange, which goes well with his Sword of Taranis that he unholstered from his wider muscular back, along with the eight large orange orbs orbiting around his legs, and he spreads his larger blue angel wings surging with powerful super lightning and with stars and blue nebulae reflecting in them.

Leo Corbett: GALAXY RED!

Kai Chen: GALAXY BLUE!

Damon Henderson: GALAXY GREEN!

Maya: GALAXY YELLOW!

Kendrix Morgan: GALAXY PINK!

Mike Corbett: MAGNA POWER!

Lincoln: GALAXY ORANGE!

Lost Galaxy Rangers and Lincoln: POWER RANGERS LOST GALAXY!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive explosion erupted behind them.

The Lost Galaxy Rangers and Lincoln unholstered their weapons, and charged at the Swabbies, and slashed them with their Quasar Sabers and blasted them. Tyris Flare slashed them with her short sword, and blasted them with powerful blasts of fire, and the Swabbies exploded with incredible power. Lincoln changed back, and he, Nico, me, and Keiko jumped him, and tickled him.

McWolf: (LAUGHING HYSTERICALLY)

Then, we ceased, and we returned home to the World Tree Estate, and Tyris was introduced to Lincoln's future wife, Lily the Mermaid, and the many future wives of Lincoln's harem, and she was happy to meet them. Plus, she was introduced to Wonder Woman, who was surprised to meet another Amazon.

Wonder Woman: It's an honor to meet another fellow Amazon.

Tyris Flare: You too, Daughter of Hippolyta.

It was gonna be cool to have Tyris Flare with us.

* * *

Later at school we were getting ready for class and then we saw the Bev Girls. They were the girl versions of Ed Edd N Eddy.

Me: Wow the girl in the middle of them must be Bevv. But she doesn't wear a hat like you do Double D.

Edd: Yeah.

Lincoln went up to them.

Bevvy: Well, look who it is. Mr. Sunshine!

Lincoln: Hey, girls. About the other day-

Bevv: (glares) What gives you the right to approach us after you accused Bev and Bevvy of working for Xehanort?

Lincoln: Listen, I didn't mean what I said back then.

Bev: (grabs Lincoln by the collar) Well, believe me when I say I'm about to give you a black eye!

Lincoln: Guys, a little help here?

Notacon: Oh no! Your angry attitude was what got you into this situation. Now, you have to get yourself out!

Me: Notacon!

Notacon: Well he did.

I went over.

Me: Girls drop him!

They did so.

Me: I'm sorry Lincoln said what he said to you. We were under a lot of pressure and paranoia with the War with Xehanort around the corner and Lincoln was just under a lot of stress when he said all that.

Lisa Loud: That's right. We apologize for anything our brother has said.

Audrey: What did he say exactly?

Eli: Strange story there.

Arrietty: I've heard all about that. It was crazy what happened.

Eli: Yeah it was.

Me: But girls, Lincoln didn't mean any of that. The Universe was in danger and Lincoln was just under a lot of stress from Paranoia.

Bevv: Oh Lincoln we had no idea.

Bevvy: Yeah that must've been crazy.

Bev: Cool.

Bevvy: Shut up Bev.

Eddy: You girls are REALLY like us in every way.

Bevv: Are we really?

Edd: Indeed.

Me: Also I know you two are upset for your parents punishing you for your bad reports cards. But Double D was just doing what he was told by the School. You know how good an academic student he is.

Edd: It's true.

Lori: (to Bev and Bevvy) It's not like you two were literally so innocent yourselves that day. Though I am glad me, Lynn and Lola literally weren't the ones who screwed up.

Lola: Yeah! You tried to sabatoge the routine school system of sending reports cards to your parents. Me, Lynn, and Lori might get angry most of the time but even we understand the value of education.

Mario: (to Bevv) (Italian Accent) Speaking of-a which, it's nice to meet-a you, Bevv.

Bevv: The pleasure is all mine, Mario.

Lynn: What exactly did you get on your report card anyway?

Bevv: A+ in everything.

Edd: Intriguing! You and me are so very much alike Bev.

Me: Yeah we found out during that day that you girls are so much like Ed, Double D and Eddy here 100%.

Bevvy: Wow.

Eddy: Do you girls like Jawbreakers?

Bevvy: We actually use scams to go after Licorice Logs.

Lincoln: Ooh Licorice!

Me: As long as it's not black licorice. I HATE Black Licorice.

Bevvy: Thank goodness we do too.

Eli: Me too.

Me: You and the Ed's have so much in common.

Ed: Yeah.

Me: And I'll bet you were also on the same kinds of adventures that the Ed's were on right?

Bevvy: We sure were.

Me: Lets head to the cafeteria so we can talk.

We went to the cafeteria and sat at our special table as we call it for our talks and I left a note with the teachers to tell them that we'll be in shortly.

G1 Bombshell: Look, girls. I think it's time we showed you what the Eds have been through. That way, you can learn from those mistakes.

Bevvy: Okay.

Me: First of all what adventures did you go on?

Bevvy: Lets see.

They told us everything they went on and to our surprise, they went on EVERY SINGLE adventure that the Ed's went on over in Peach Creek, Georgia and it was very coincidental.

Eddy: Wow! That is very surprising!

Luan: Very coincidental! You guys were on the very same adventures as the Ed's.

Bevvy: You guys went through the same things we did!? Wow!

Edd: A most amazing sense of déjà-vu.

Ed: Yeah!

Me: Did you girls also go through what happened in Peach Creek when Atlanta was torn apart by the Kanker Sisters?

Bevvy: No I don't think so.

Me: Here.

I pulled out from my bookbag the newspaper we found on Atlanta completely destroyed by the Kanker Sisters.

Me: This is a newspaper from July 14th, 2014 and it was called The Ultimate Kanker Hissy Fit.

I went over everything that happened.

It was shocking for them to see.

G1 Perceptor: Now do you girls understand? If you don't improve your lives, what happened to the Eds will happen to you three as well.

Eddy: Perceptor's right. Me, Sockhead, and Lumpy used to be selfish long ago. Well, me and Ed were. And now look! I've got a cool blaster, Sockhead has an Iron Man inspired suit, and Lumpy can turn into a monster that acts like the Hulk.

Me: Eddy used to be completely selfish because his brother Tyrone here was a total jerk to him and he would hurt him a lot and Eddy would spout lies about him just to think he was cool.

Tyrone: You said all those lies about me Pipsqueak?

Eddy: Yeah I sure did.

Tyrone: Oh thanks bro.

Me: But yeah girls. But that's not the worst thing that happened to the Ed's.

Bevvy: What happened to them?

Me: The Kankers tortured and raped the Eds and were ruthless bullies to everyone in the neighborhood. They were the worst bullies ever.

Marie K.L.: That's right. Me and my former sisters not only destroyed much of Atlanta but we did all that to the Ed's. It was horrible.

Me: I busted the Kankers 7 years ago and got them sent to prison twice.

Luan: And I helped Marie realize her mistakes.

Bev: Wow.

Bevv: My lord. I didn't know that happened with you guys!

Eddy: Yeah it was horrible.

Me: And if the Tankmont's are in every way like the Kanker Sisters then we're gonna be in for one dangerous battle when we face them.

Nico: Yep.

We then went to class.

---

Later the next morning, we were getting up and getting ready for a new day.

Rita: RISE AND SHINE KIDS! WE'RE GOING TO AUNT RUTH'S TODAY! YAY!

Me: Oh it's time for another Babysitting adventure. And it's gonna be Heidi's turn to do it.

Muscle Man: You know who else can't wait for the next babysitting adventure? My Mom!

We laughed at his joke.

Me: Good one!

After we had breakfast, we went down to the door.

Jared: You know what to do right honey?

Heidi: I sure do dad. I learned so much from my aunts and grandma and grandpa and it's gonna be so fun.

Jared: Awesome. You have fun with the Loud's.

Heidi was babysitting Lincoln, Laney, Lori, Lucy, Lana, Lola, Luan and Luna.

Jared: Awesome. Have fun.

They left.

Lynn Sr.: If I have to see that extra toe so help me…

Teresa: Nico, since J.D.'s not here, it's obvious that you're leading the team.

Nico: Yep and since it's Heidi's turn to babysit that means that she is in charge of this.

Lincoln: It's gonna be awesome having her babysit us.

Heidi: And I cant wait to show you all the awesome adventures I have planned for you all today.

The doorbell rang.

Laney: Come in!

The elevator door opened and in came the Fox Quint's.

Lynn: Hey guys!

Pam Fox: Been a while Coach Lynn.

Lynn: It sure has.

Ron Fox: You guys are doing well.

Nico: Yeah we have been busy. Your mom sending you guys to be with us while they are gone?

Pam Fox: Yep.

Nico: Cool cool.

Then Scorcher, Heatwave, Pyro, Firebrand, Magma, Firefly, Lynn, P'andor, Pyros, Molten Man, and Doctor Octopus appeared.

Firefly: I guess it's time for another babysitting adventure.

Heidi: Yep and it's my turn to babysit this time.

Lori: Literally gonna be cool.

Scorcher: Can me, Heatwave, Pyro, Firebrand, Magma, Firefly, P'andor, Pyros, Molten Man, and Doctor Octopus go with you guys on the babysitting adventures?

Heidi: You sure can. And the first part of the adventure is B-Movie Battle-o-rama. We're going into some of great grandpa's favorite movies from his past and we're gonna not only face the monsters in those movies but also have the usual battles in each movie.

Laney: COOL!

Eli: This is gonna be amazing to see!

Arrietty: I'm looking forward to seeing this one.

Heidi: Yep. First Maria better call the ones for the Usual Battles today.

Maria: Okay.

She did so and Shendu, Selene, Amora the Enchantress, Larxene, Xiao Fung, Spymaster, Toiletnator, Mr. Mittens, Fixer, and Leonard then appeared.

Heidi: Shendu, Selene, Amora the Enchantress, Larxene, Xiao Fung, Spymaster, Toiletnator, Mr. Mittens, Fixer, and Leonard.

William: It's time for the usual battles already?

Leonard: (laughs) Of course not!

Larxene: We're just here to tell you guys that each of us will be in each of the movies you're going to.

Toiletnator: That way, you guys got something to look forward to after killing each monster.

Maria: I called them here for that reason.

Xiao Fung: (to Audrey) It'll be nice to have you on board, Audrey.

Audrey: It's a big honor.

Selene: Can we try some of your cakes? Specifically, the Devil's Food Cake?

Audrey laughed.

Heidi: That laugh always is so awesome. But Mary and Audrey will gladly help make one for you. Devil's food is my favorite too like Grandpa.

Selene: It's my favorite too.

Heidi: Okay lets head into the Simulator for this part.

They did so.

In the Simulator they got ready for the adventures and the first group went in and the Simulator activated.

Arpeggio: Interesting. We're in the Atlantic.

Lori: We're not just in the Atlantic. Look behind us. We're literally in London.

Teresa: Beautiful place.

But then they saw a huge dinosaur creature! It was Orga from the 1961 movie GORGO!

In Gorgo, Ogra first appears when her son Gorgo is captured by a group of fisherman. She first attacks the island where Gorgo was captured in, then proceeds to swim to London, England. She runs into the military, who tries to stop her, but she proves to be too powerful to stop. Eventually, after destroying most the city, Ogra rescues her son, Gorgo and the two monsters return to the sea.

Applejack: Woo man! Who is that?

Lori: Whoa that's Orga! We're in the 1961 movie Gorgo!

Scorcher: Wow! I remember this movie! I watched it with my father long ago.

Then a flare was fired and it hit the river and a massive wall of fire erupted out and she roared and then the military blasted Orga all over but nothing was stopping her.

Lori: Lets go help stop her!

They went to her.

Scorcher: (to Ogra) Look, if you calm down, we can help you!

Orga roared ferociously!

Applejack: Where's Fluttershy when you need her!?

Lori: I got this!

Lori transformed into her Super Angel 500,000,000 form and flew out and brought Orga's son Gorgo to her.

Lori: (Divine Echoing Wind Voice) There you are.

Orga was gentle again and Gorgo was reunited with his mother.

Lori: Aww.

Orga nodded to them as if to say thank you and they went back to sea.

Lori: That was a close one.

Leonard came out.

Leonard: (to Lori) Who did J.D. rescue this time?

Lori: Her name is Vekora and she is a Jubjub. It's a type of Harpy.

Applejack: Yeah it sounds crazy doesn't it.

Rockhoof: (Scottish Accent) Aye. She is amazing now.

Flashwing: She sure is.

Stone Luna: Rockin dudes.

Bobby: Yeah sure is amigos.

Ronnie Anne: Yeah!

Leonard: Wow that's cool. Lets do it!

They fired waves of earth, apples, wind, fireworks, fire, elements and energy and smashed him down.

Lori: Literally awesome!

Applejack: YEEHAW! That was fun!

They came out and everyone cheered for them.

Heidi: Awesome! That was thoughtful to do that for Orga.

Nico: It sure was. Well done.

Aylene C.: That was great.

Heidi: Yep. Well done. Claire you and your group are next.

They went in and the Simulator activated and they found themselves in a strange building.

Azula: Now where are we?

Volcana: I think I might know.

They then heard a scream and they went into a room and saw an UGLY INSECT WOMAN! It was JANICE STARLIN THE WASP WOMAN!

---

Janice Starlin (also known as the Wasp Woman) is the fictional character and the titular main antagonist of the 1959 science-fiction horror film The Wasp Woman. She was a woman who was later mutated into a human-wasp hybrid as a result of an experimental rejuvenation technique derived from the royal jelly of a wasp queen.

She was portrayed by the late Susan Cabot.

Biography

Janice Starlin was the CEO of a cosmetics company called Janice Starlin Enterprises. Approaching middle-age, she started to worry about her appearance and how it could affect sales. The brilliant scientist Dr. Eric Zinthrop, who had been experimenting with wasp's royal jelly, came to her to offer her a special serum he developed from the jelly which could cause near instantaneous rejuvenation, as demonstrated in rats and cats. Miss Starlin was highly interested, seeing the revolutionary potential of such invention. However, Dr. Zinthrop warned her that he hadn't tested it on humans yet. Despite being aware of the danger, Starlin offered herself as a test subject.

At first, the treatment seemed to have little to no effect during the first three weeks. One night she decided to apply an extra dose, unaware that some of the animal test subjects were at that very moment beginning to exhibit symptoms of viciously violent behavior. Soon afterward, Starlin started mutating, developing insectoid features such as huge compound eyes. To make matters worse, the transformation also altered her behavior, sending her in a mindless murderous rampage, killing people by tearing their throats apart with her insectoid mouthpieces. She killed an employee named Arthur Cooper, a security guard and a nurse. She later attacked Mary Dennison, prompting Dr. Zinthrop to throw a bottle of carbolic acid on the Wasp Woman's face, which in turn allowed Bill Lane to hit her with a chair and through the window, leading to her death.

Volcana: Oh man! That's Janice Starlin!

Firefly: The Wasp Woman! I remember watching that movie with my father! Really ugly!

Volcana: Very ugly!

Firefly: (aims heat lasers at her) Janice, you need to calm down! Don't make us hurt you!

Volcana: She's a mindless insectoid creature Garfield! Blast her!

They fired waves of fire and incinerated her as an inhuman scream was heard from her as she was burning.

Zuko: Terrifying.

Volcana: She had it coming.

Larxene then appeared.

Larxene: (to Volcana) Vekora would definitely get along with Star Sapphire.

Volcana: She sure would. I think she has amazing talents that make her skilled.

Princess Celestia: I think so too.

Spotlight: Yes indeed.

Light Lily nodded.

Human Torch: Yeah it's great!

Firestar: It sure is.

Larxene: I think so too. Lets do it!

They fired waves of fire and light and energy and smashed her down.

Volcana: Fire wins.

Princess Celestia: That was fun!

They came out and everyone cheered for them.

Heidi: That was great!

Nico: Yeah also that movie believe it or not is what Muriel watches.

Francesca: It's true.

Laney: That's right I remember that.

Lana: Scary.

Nico: Yeah.

Heidi: Layla you're up.

Layla and her group went in and the Simulator activated again and they were in the city.

Jessie: (Pokemon) I wonder where we are this time.

Layla: No idea.

They then heard a scream and saw a reptilian creature heading into the city and it ripped a cop to pieces. It was Dr. Gilbert McKenna THE HIDEOUS SUN DEMON!

---

When research scientist Dr. Gilbert "Gil" McKenna (Clarke) falls unconscious after accidentally being exposed to radiation during an experiment with a new radioactive isotope, he is rushed to a nearby hospital. Attending physician Dr. Stern (Robert Garry) is surprised to find that Gil shows no signs of burns typical for five-minute exposure to radiation and informs Gil's co-workers, lab assistant Ann Russell (Patricia Manning) and scientist Dr. Frederick Buckell (Patrick Whyte), that he will keep the patient under observation for several days.

Later, Gil is taken to a solarium to receive the sun's healing rays. While he naps, he transforms into a reptilian creature, horrifying the other patients. Fleeing from the scene, Gil discovers his new appearance. Stern notifies Ann and Dr. Buckell about the incident, theorizing that the exposure to radiation caused a reversal of evolution, transforming Gil into a prehistoric reptile after exposure to sunlight. Stern suggests that Gil can control his symptoms by staying in the dark and remaining in the hospital, but admits that the patient cannot be held against his will.

Having reverted to normal, a disconsolate Gil notifies Ann of his resignation. Confining himself to his house and only coming out at night, Gil spends his hours drinking and wandering aimlessly around the grounds of his estate. He later drives to a bar where sultry piano player Trudy Osborne (Nan Peterson) is performing.

Buckell soon receives word that noted radiation-poisoning specialist Dr. Jacob Hoffman (Fred La Porta) has agreed to help Gil and plans on arriving in the area within a few days. When radiation poisoning studies offer no leads on solving Gil's own particular symptoms, the distraught scientist contemplates suicide, but soon changes his mind. Instead, Gil returns to the bar where Trudy joins him for a drink and comments that the evening is not over because it is "never late until the sun comes up." Although Gil is disturbed by the comment, his loneliness draws him closer to her. When bar patron George insinuates that he has purchased Trudy's company for the evening, Gil defends her, causing a fight between the two men. After knocking George unconscious, Gil flees with Trudy into the night. Later that evening, after walking the shoreline, they make love, falling asleep in the sand until the morning light awakens Gil. Horrified, Gil flees in his car leaving Trudy stranded on the beach. Arriving at the house, Gil runs in, but not before the transformation occurs.

Ann soon arrives, discovering Gil cowering in the cellar in a state of shock. Believing that he is beyond help, Gil at first refuses to see Dr. Hoffman, but after Ann's tearful pleading, Gil reluctantly agrees. During the examination, Dr. Hoffman orders Gil to remain in the house at all times as a precaution until he can return with help. Feeling guilty for leaving Trudy, Gil returns to the bar but is brutally beaten by George and his gang. Gil regains consciousness the next morning and discovers that Trudy, having felt sorry for him, brought him home to her apartment. George soon arrives and, upon seeing Gil, forces him at gunpoint out into the daylight. Transforming into the creature, Gil murders George in front of the horrified Trudy before fleeing into the hills. Returning to the house, Gil finds Ann, Dr. Hoffman and Buckell waiting there and returns to his normal human state. A disturbed Gil later admits to the murder, with the others assuring him that he acted in self-defense, but when the police arrive with an arrest warrant, the hysterical Gil flees from the grounds in his car and accidentally hits a police officer.

Hiding inside an oil field shack while police comb the area and set up roadblocks, Gil is discovered by young Suzy who offers to fetch him cookies. Hurrying back to her house, Suzy is caught hoarding cookies by her mother and is forced to reveal who they are for. While her mother calls the police, Suzy slips out of the door to return to Gil. Her mother chases after her into the oil field, and police cars soon arrive. Realizing Suzy is endangered by being with him, Gil carries the girl out of the shack into the sunlight where he lets her go. He soon transforms into the creature. In the ensuing police chase, Gil slaughters one of the officers and then climbs the stairs to the top of a tall natural gas tank, where the remaining officer chases after him. As Gil begins to strangle him, the officer shoots Gil in the neck. Mortally wounded, the mutated Gil falls several stories to his death while Buckell, Hoffman and a sobbing Ann watch in dismay.

Layla: WHOA MAN!

Pyro: That's Gilbert McKenna the Hideous Sun Demon! I watched that movie growing up too. Also when he is exposed to the Sun's ultraviolet radiation he turns into this.

Rarity: That's terrible! Lets get him!

Pyro: (shoots flames at him) We just need to hold out until the sun goes down!

Layla: That will take hours. Heidi! We need you to send in Nightingale and have her bring a huge syringe full of knock out drops!

Heidi: I'm on it!

Nightingale came in and she formed a dome of darkness over the creature and it turned him back to human and then she injected him with knockout drops.

James: That was close.

Meowth: Man what happened that caused him to become like this?

Pyro: Radiation accident. It caused him to become like then when he is exposed to the sun's light. A Solar Werewolf in a sense.

Sweetie Belle: That's terrible!

Mistmane: Lets take him to the infirmary and find a cure for him.

Heidi: I have Lincoln and Raven coming for that.

They teleported in and took Dr. McKenna to the Infirmary.

Then The Toiletnator appeared.

Toiletnator: (to Layla) Malia would definitely get along with Flora due to their relation to nature.

Layla: I agree with you completely on that.

Rarity: Indeed darling. Malia is amazing.

Sweetie Belle: It's so cool that Hunter's friend Kanaloa knows a great friend.

Mistmane: I think so too.

Gill Grunt: I think so too.

Liquid Leni: And she is totes amazing.

Bloom: You got that right.

Toiletnator: You said it. Lets do it!

They fired waves of water, jewels, ice and energy and smashed him down.

Layla: AW YEAH!

Rarity: Rapture darling that was grand!

They came out and everyone cheered.

Heidi: That was great! Nice job with saving Dr. McKenna. What happened to him was horrible.

Nico: No kidding.

Laney: Yeah.

Heidi: Ulrich you and your group are up.

They went in.

Cloud Man: Looks like we're on some kind of island now.

Ulrich: Yeah it looks like a nice place.

They then heard screaming and out came a creature and a mad doctor and he was laughing like a REALLY FUCKED UP PSYCHO! He was really Dr. Lorca from the 1969 movie THE MAD DOCTOR OF BLOOD ISLAND!

---

A woman running naked through the jungle on Blood Island is killed by a green-skinned beast that resembles a man. At the same time, a ship arrives at the island carrying American pathologist Bill Foster, who is investigating a strange chlorophyll disease among the islanders; Sheila Willard, who has come to Blood Island seeking to reunite with her father; and Carlos Lopez (Ronaldo Valdez), who wants to get his mother, Mrs. Lopez, to move off the island. The captain of the ship claims that the island is cursed and tells a story of a man they picked up on a raft who bled green blood before he escaped into the sea.

Sheila discovers that her father is a hopeless alcoholic. Mrs. Lopez does not want to leave the island, even though her husband, Don Ramon Lopez, died there recently under mysterious circumstances. The suspicious Dr. Lorca will not reveal any details about Don Ramon's death to anyone. When Foster and Lopez exhume the grave of Don Ramon, it is empty.

Rumors abound about a green-skinned monster with chlorophyll blood that has been killing the local natives. One night, a native with green sores on his body tries to break into the government house, but runs off into the jungle when he is confronted. Sheila is attacked in the jungle by the chlorophyll monster, but manages to escape when an unfortunate native who comes to her rescue is gruesomely mutilated by the creature. Sheila and Dr. Foster fall in love during their stay on the island.

It is revealed that Dr. Lorca has been experimenting on the natives, including the unfortunate Don Ramon, who had sought Dr. Lorca's serum as a treatment for his cancer, but was turned into a monster instead. They learn that Don Ramon is actually the green-blooded beast that has been killing people on the island. Don Ramon kills his wife, and almost kills his son Carlos, but at the last moment a glimmer of humanity returns to the creature and realizing what a monster he has become, he attacks Dr. Lorca in his hidden lab instead. A fire breaks out in Lorca's lab, resulting in a huge explosion, killing Dr. Lorca, his assistant and the monster.

Sheila, her father, Dr. Foster and Carlos all return to the ship, glad to finally leave Blood Island. But as the ship leaves port, a grisly hand appears from underneath a boat tarp, dripping green blood.

---

Cloud Man: WHOA! He looks insane!

Heatwave: Whoa man! I know that monster! That's Dr. Lorca! He's a mad scientist that turned all of the natives here into that creature!

Heatwave blasted the plant creature into ashes.

Heatwave: I watched the movie The Mad Doctor of Blood Island all the time.

Ulrich: Just what the universe needs, another fucked up monster running amok.

They went over and blasted the Chlorophyll Creature and obliterated it.

Heatwave: That's one threat down. (looks at Dr. Lorca) And one to go!

Dr. Lorca: Do your worst! I've got nothing to say to you all!

Ulrich: How about "Goodbye"?

Blast Man: And good riddance you fucking son of a bitch!

They blasted him with blasts of energy and lightning and wind and fire and obliterated him in a massive explosion!

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

He was dead.

Xiao Fung the Demon Sorcerer of Wind appeared.

Xiao Fung: (to Ulrich) Did J.D. really meet a Tsareena Gene Slammer this morning?

Ulrich: He sure did. Her name is Malia. She's from Hawaii and she is one of Hunter's friend Kanaloa's friends.

Rainbow Dash: She is awesome. She knows so much about nature.

Scootaloo: She sure does and she loves all flowers and plants.

Flash Magnus: Yeah she sure does.

Whirlwind: Yeah and it's great.

Air Lincoln: You got that right.

Jeremie: Yeah it is.

Aelita: I think so too.

Xiao Fung: That is amazing. Lets do it!

They fired waves of wind, lightning, energy and lasers and smashed him down.

Ulrich: All right!

Rainbow Dash: That was AWESOME!

They came out and everyone cheered for them.

Nico: Awesome Job!

Heidi: Yeah that was great! Sam you guys are up and Carol you better go in with them.

Carol: Okay.

They went in and the Simulator activated and they found themselves on another island.

Wallflower: Another island?

Sam Simpson: I know this island from somewhere.

They heard a screech and they saw Godzilla battling the giant shrimp kaiju EBIRAH from 1966!

---

Ebirah (in Japanese: エビラ, Ebira) is the main antagonist of the Godzilla Showa film Ebirah, Horror of the Deep (also known as Godzilla vs. the Sea Monster), a minor antagonist in All Monsters Attack, and a supporting antagonist in Godzilla: Final Wars. He is a giant crustacean kaiju and one of Godzilla's enemies.

In the Showa films, he was portrayed by Hiroshi Sekita (who would later portray Gorosaurus and Godzilla in Son of Godzilla), while in Godzilla: Final Wars, he was portrayed by Toshihiro Ogura.

Ebirah, Horror of the Deep (1966)

An island and its inhabitants were controlled by a terrorist organization known as the Red Bamboo. Ebirah was one of the monsters mutated by the radioactive wastes. The Red Bamboo used Ebirah to guard the island, he would destroy any ship that got too close to the island or attempted to escape. Ebirah would not attack the Red Bamboo ships due to a special extract fruit. When a small group of people found Godzilla resting on the island, healing from wounds inflicted on him by King Ghidorah, they woke him up in hopes he would defeat Ebirah so they could escape the island. This succeeded and Ebirah was injured by Godzilla's atomic breath, but the group is caught by the Red Bamboo anyway.

The next day, Ebirah destroyed a Red Bamboo ship that unintentionally had placebo on board instead of the fruit extract. Ebirah attempts to fight Godzilla again as he destroys the Red Bamboo base, but has his claws torn off in the process. The defenseless lobster retreats back into the water.

Sam Simpson: Whoa that's Ebirah!

Carol: Awesome! This is a cool one! Also we're going to kill the Red Bamboo terrorist group here. Follow me.

They followed Carol and they saw the camp of the Red Bamboo.

Magma: You think Godzilla needs our help?

Carol: Godzilla will be all right. Right now we have more important things to do. Lets go get everyone out of here.

They went to the base of the Red Bamboo and they saw the Red Bamboo crew treating the people of Infant Island like slaves.

Carol: This sickens me.

Sam Simpson: Yeah it sure does.

Carol: Godzilla will be coming here shortly. I'll launch the first attack.

Carol fired streams of Gravity lightning and blew up the machine gun tower and the power generators in powerful fiery explosions.

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!
KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!

Carol then fired Atomic Ray blasts and they all hit the Machine Gun turrets and destroyed them.

Godzilla then showed up just like Carol said.

Carol: Come on lets get those people they caught out of here!

They went to the cave where the captured people of infant island were at and just as they were about to leave the Red Bamboo showed up.

Carol: You are not touching these people again!

She fired a wave of lava with Baragon's powers and destroyed them.

Carol: Come on!

They went into the factory of the base.

Man: Stay where you are! I touch this button and the whole island is gonna be destroyed in an atomic explosion!

Yoshi: Don't touch it.

Then the ceiling came down as Godzilla crushed the ground and a pipe landed on the man and Carol lifted it off him and saved him.

Man: (Weakly) In 2 hours the island is going to be destroyed in 2 hours. That's all.

Carol: Not on my watch. Heidi send a medical for him.

Heidi: Roger that.

She did so and they found the self-destruct button and lifted a pipe and they turned it off.

Carol: There.

The man was taken to the infirmary. Ebirah came out of the water and screeched.

Carol: Lets get him!

They fired waves of energy and elements and destroyed Ebirah.

Carol: Never underestimate the Queen of The Kaiju.

Selene then appeared.

Selene: (to Sam) I really hope you guys rant at Icky Vicky after this.

Sam Simpson: We haven't done one of those in a long time.

Princess Luna: Yeah no kidding. It will be good to give that red-haired psycho a piece of our minds.

Snowdrop: Yeah she deserves the worse kinds of rants ever.

Gari: Big time. She is nothing but trouble.

Blackout: Yep.

Shadow Lucy: She needs to be taught a big lesson.

Clover: You got that right.

Selene: And how. Lets do it!

They fired waves of darkness, energy and fire and smashed her down.

Sam Simpson: YEAH!

Princess Luna: A true victory of the night.

Sam Simpson: Lets see if we can use the stuff here at the Red Bamboo base for our own benefits.

Carol: Good idea. Lets go.

They went and gathered all kinds of weapons and supplies and materials for the estate and came out with all kinds of stuff and then they teleported the people the Red Bamboo caught back to Infant Island. They came back out and everyone cheered for them.

Heidi: YEAH! Way to go guys!

Nico: That was great!

Laney: Yeah it was!

Carol: Thanks guys.

Sam Simpson: That was fun.

Heidi: Kendra you and your group are up.

They went in and the Simulator activation and they found themselves in a small town.

Koichi: Now we're in some kind of village.

Kendra: But where is everyone?

Sunset Shimmer: I've got a really bad feeling about this.

Pip-Squeak: (British Accent) Yeah I do too.

?: You are here to stop us?

They turned and saw THE CHILDREN from the 1960 movie VILLAGE OF THE DAMNED!

---

The Children are the central antagonists of the Village of the Damned, as well as Children of The Damned and the 1957 science fiction novel The Midwich Cuckcoos by the late John Wyndham. This group of human-like alien youths were all albino and had powerful psychic abilities which manifested as glowing eyes when angered or provoked: unlike most horror villains, the children only attacked when they felt threatened but they were very easily provoked and believed in violent punishment for any who harmed them (this was especially prevalient in the remakes - where they tortured and killed in very gruesome ways). Despite appearing as human children, the Children are actually not of this world and were the result of a mysterious mass pregnancy. The children possesses strong psychic energies as well as a common emotionless personality. They exert a powerful mind control which makes them extremely dangerous.

The inhabitants of the British village of Midwich suddenly fall unconscious, as does anyone entering the village. The military arrives and establishes a cordon around Midwich, but not even wearing protection gears save them from fainting, as soldiers who wore masks also passed out feeling cold sensation. The pilot of a military reconnaissance plane is contacted and asked to investigate. But when he flies below 5,000 feet, he too loses consciousness and the plane crashes. A five-mile exclusion zone around the village is established for all aircraft. After approximately four hours, the villagers regain consciousness, and all are seemingly okay.

2 months later, women and girls of child-bearing age in Midwich village are discovered to be pregnant, sparking many wild accusations of both infidelity and extramarital sex. The accusations are quickly silenced as the unusual nature of the pregnancies is exposed: these fetuses are actually larger and more mature than what normal fetuses should be at their current month of gestation.

Eventually, all pregnant women of Midwich give birth on the same day. Their children, when born, possess unusual appearance, including eyes with unwavering stare, odd scalp hair construction and colors (platinum blonde), and abnormally narrow fingernails. As the children grow and develop (once again) at an unusually rapid rate, it becomes clear they also have a powerful telepathic bond with one another. They can communicate with each other over great distances, and as one learns something, so do the others. At the age of 3, the children are precocious, physically and mentally the equivalent of children four times their age. Their behavior has become even more unusual and striking. They dress impeccably, always walk as a group, speaking in an adult manner, and behave maturely. But they show no conscience or love, and demonstrate a coldness or even hostility to others, causing the villagers to fear and be repulsed by them. The children begin to exhibit the power to read minds and to force people to do things against their will: there have been a number of villagers' deaths since the children were born, many of which are considered unusual, and some citizens began to believe the children are responsible. This is confirmed when the children are seen killing a man by making him crash his car into a wall, and again when they force his suspicious brother to shoot himself.

Professor Gordon Zellaby, whose wife Anthea gave birth to David Zellaby who is one of the children, attends a meeting with British Intelligence to discuss the children. There he learns Midwich was not the only place affected; follow-up investigations have revealed that similar incidents occurred in other areas of the world. Zellaby is at first eager to work with them, trying to teach them while hoping to learn more about them. The children are placed in a separate building where they will learn and live. But the children, even in isolation and confinement, continue to exert their will, and Zellaby learns the Soviet government has used an atomic cannon to destroy the sole remaining alternate village containing their own spawn of mutant children. Zellaby ultimately compares the children's resistance to reasoning with a brick wall and uses this motif as self-protection against their mind reading after the children's inhuman nature becomes clear to him. He takes a hidden time-bomb to a session with the children and tries to block their awareness of the bomb by visualizing a brick wall. David scans his mind, showing an emotion (astonishment) for the first time. The children try to break down Zellaby's mental wall and discover the truth a moment before the bomb detonates, consuming the building in flames and killing them all.

Kendra: The Children from Village of The Damned!

Sydney: These children were scary!

Nanette: Yeah they sure were.

Sheila: You had better come quietly with me children.

P'andor: (Russian Accent) You kids won't even scratch my armor!

Mara Chaffee: We won't have to.

Kendra: Your psychic powers may be strong. But you are no match for us.

Gusty the Great: Normally it goes against our code to destroy people like you.

Sunburn: But in this case we'll make an exception.

They fired waves of fire and incinerated all the children and obliterated them.

Shendu the Demon Sorcerer of Fire appeared out from the fire.

Shendu: (to Kendra) Maybe you can do participate in the karaoke part of the day.

Kendra: I would like that.

Sunset Shimmer: It will be cool to see how Kendra and the Underground Girls do in singing.

Pip-Squeak: I think so too. It will be amazing to see them sing.

Gusty: Yeah it sure would.

Sunburn: Yeah you got that right.

Fire Lori: Literally amazing.

Sydney: Awesome.

Nanette: Yep.

Shendu: That is gonna be awesome. Lets do it!

They fired waves of fire and energy and smashed him down.

Kendra: YEAH!

Sunset Shimmer: Yeah that was great!

They came out and Heidi and the group cheered for them.

Heidi: Yeah you showed those bad kids.

Nico: That was creepy how those kids were able to do all that.

Laney: Yeah it sure was.

Heidi: Cat, Dog, you and your group are up.

They went in and the Simulator activated and they found themselves in a city.

Doofenshmirtz: Why do I get the feeling that I may have to cover my eyes for this one?

Fluttershy: Why do you say that.

Cat: I think SHE is the reason!

They turned and saw a HUGE WOMAN! It was Nancy Archer from the 1958 movie ATTACK OF THE FIFTY FOOT WOMAN!

---

A television announcer reports sightings of a red fireball around the world. Facetiously, he calculates its path will take it to California. Nancy Archer (Allison Hayes), a wealthy but highly troubled woman with a history of emotional instability and immoderate drinking, is driving on a road that night in an American desert. A glowing sphere settles on the deserted highway in front of her, causing her to veer off the road. When she gets out to investigate the object, a huge creature exits and reaches for her.

Nancy escapes and runs back to town, but nobody believes her story due to her known drinking problem and a recent stay in a mental institution. Her philandering husband, Harry Archer (William Hudson), is more interested in his latest girlfriend, town floozy Honey Parker (Yvette Vickers). He pretends to be the good husband in the hope that Nancy will "snap" and return to the "booby hatch," leaving him in control of her $50 million estate.

Nancy bargains with Harry, asking him to search the desert with her for the "flying satellite," agreeing to a voluntary return to the sanatorium if they find nothing. As night falls, they find the spacecraft and the alien creature emerges, revealed as an enormous male human. Harry fires his pistol at the giant, but the gunfire has no effect. Harry flees, leaving Nancy behind.

She is later discovered on the roof of her pool house in a delirious state and must be sedated by her family physician, Dr. Cushing (Roy Gordon). The doctor comments on scratches he finds on Nancy's neck, and theorizes that she was exposed to radiation. Egged on by his mistress Honey, Harry plans to inject Nancy with a lethal dose of her sedative, but when he sneaks up to her room, he discovers that she has grown to giant size. In a scene paralleling Nancy's first alien encounter, only an enormous hand is seen as Harry reacts in horror.

Cushing and Dr. Von Loeb, a specialist brought in by Cushing, are at a loss on how to treat their giant patient. They keep her in a morphine-induced coma and restrain her with chains while waiting for the authorities to arrive. The sheriff and Jess (Ken Terrell), Nancy's faithful butler, track enormous footprints leading away from the estate to the alien sphere. Inside the sphere, they find Nancy's diamond necklace (containing the largest diamond in the world) and other large diamonds, each in a clear orb. They speculate that the jewels are being used as a power source for the alien ship. The huge human reappears, and the sheriff and Jess flee.

Meanwhile, Nancy awakens and breaks free of her restraints. She tears off her mansion's roof and, clothed in a bikini-like arrangement of bed linens, heads to town to avenge herself on her unfaithful husband. Ripping the roof off the local bar, she spots Honey and drops a ceiling beam on her rival, killing her. Harry panics, grabs Deputy Charlie's pistol, and begins shooting, but she picks up Harry and walks away. The gunshots have no apparent effect on her. The sheriff fires a shotgun at her, which causes a nearby power line transformer to blow up, killing her. The doctors find Harry lying dead in her hand.

Beekeeper: Whoa man! That's Nancy Archer from Attack of The Fifty Foot Woman! I haven't seen that movie in years!

Tornado Bolt: Whoa! She is huge!

Mage Meadowbrook: Yeah! Heidi I think we're gonna need Ginormica's help.

Heidi: She's coming in.

Ginormica came in.

Ginormica: Wow! Looks like you guys called the right woman.

Pyros: (to Nancy) Good thing I'm the same size as you!

Ginormica: Yeah. But Nancy let us help you. You did nothing to deserve to be made this tall. I know how you feel.

Nancy Archer: How could you know!?

Ginormica: Because like you, I was turned into a giant like you were. I got this way from a strange energy.

Nancy gasped and she knew that Ginormica was right.

Nancy then went over and hugged her and cried hard.

Ginormica: You don't want to cry when you are this size.

Nancy: (Crying)

Ginormica: It's all right. Lets get you back to the estate and we can help you.

They went and did so.

Mr. Mittens came.

Mr. Mittens: (to CatDog) Good thing Lincoln apologized to what he said to the Bevs. Although Bevv was absent that day.

Cat: No kidding. But it was just paranoia from all the things that were happening before the war.

Dog: Yeah it was crazy Cat.

Fluttershy: It sure was.

Tornado Bolt: But thank goodness that we never will face Xehanort again.

Mage Meadowbrook: That is a good thing.

Stealth Elf: Yeah no kidding.

Plant Lola: Thank goodness.

Mihiramon: Yeah.

Mr. Mittens: But thank goodness we won't be going into war for a while. Lets do it!

They fired waves of leaves, energy and fruit and smashed him down.

Cat: All right!

Dog: HI HO DIGGETTY!

Fluttershy: That was fun.

They came out and Heidi and group cheered for them.

Heidi: Great job guys!

Nico: That was clever that you called Susan to help out. Coincidentally Nancy and Susan both went through the same thing.

Stealth Elf: I remember that.

Heidi: That was crazy huh. Sakura you and your group are up.

They went in and they found themselves on a moon.

RD Lisa: It appears that we're on a new planet.

Sakura Avalon: I don't think so. Look up there!

They looked and saw that they were on an Earth moon in orbit around the planet Uranus! They were in the world of the 1962 movie JOURNEY TO THE SEVENTH PLANET!

---

In the year 2001, while an international five man team is on their way to Uranus, an alien presence briefly assumes control of the crew's minds. They awaken safely but notice that a long - and unexplained - period of time has passed. Upon landing, the crew finds a forested land oddly like Earth's, rather than the cold, bleak world they were expecting. This forest is surrounded by a mysterious barrier. One of the crew pushes his arm through the barrier, only to have it frozen.

New features and forms begin to appear each time they are imagined by the crew. A familiar-looking village appears, complete with attractive women the various male crew members have known in the past. Soon, they must face a series of strange beasts including a giant bipedal cyclopean rodent and a lobster-like insect. The crew realizes that they have been the victims of mind control by a gigantic one-eyed brain living in a cave. There, they are confronted by the "Being", whose mysterious brain cuts to the inner thoughts of the explorers and causes their thoughts to appear as seemingly real. The brain-Being plans to possess the astronauts' bodies and have them take it with them back to Earth where it will implement a plan for global domination. The crew gradually come to realize their peril and start to fight back against the presence, even eliciting aid from the sympathetic women. They must then confront the Being in its lair while it assaults each with monsters spawned from their fears.

---

Molten Man: WHOA! This is the world of the movie Journey to The 7th Planet! I loved that movie.

Li Syaoron: Scary place.

Yue: No kidding.

Sakura Avalon: Then we must be here to destroy the Brain Being.

Twilight Sparkle: Yeah.

They went and found it and it was a GIANT BRAIN WITH A BIG EYE!

Spyro: That is one ugly brain!

Molten Man: Time to make your brain pop! Literally!

Brain Being: You will never destroy me.

Sakura Avalon: Want a bet? BRAIN BUSTER BLAST!

She fired a wave of energy from her staff and it hit the Brain Being and it exploded and the brain splattered all over the place. YUCK!

Sakura snapped her fingers and made everything on the Uranus moon stay.

Twilight Sparkle: Whoa! Your powers must be evolving.

Sakura Avalon: I think so.

Amora came out.

Amora the Enchantress: (To Sakura Avalon) If the Tankmont's try to finish what Marie's sisters started, I'll personally send them to Valhalla myself!

Sakura Avalon: You and me both! But there is no doubt that they will do it!

Twilight Sparkle: Yeah if they are in every way like the Kanker Sisters when they destroyed Atlanta, they will no doubt face the same level of consequences.

Star Swirl: They need to be stopped.

Spyro: Yeah you got that right.

Crystal Laney: Monsters that need to be destroyed.

Li Syaoron: You got that right.

Amora: I agree. Lets do it!

They fired waves of magic and elements and smashed her down.

Sakura Avalon: All right!

Twilight Sparkle: YEAH!

They came out and everyone cheered for them.

Heidi: Way to go guys!

Nico: That was well done! Now we have 2 planets in our solar system fully terraformed.

Lola: That is gonna be awesome to see.

Luan: Yep.

Heidi: SpongeBob you're up.

SpongeBob and his group went in and they saw that they were on an island.

Manterror: Are we on another island?

SpongeBob: It sure looks like it.

They heard a scream and then they saw a man with ugly spider features! He was going after a girl. It was GARY WEBSTER from HORRORS OF SPIDER ISLAND from 1960!

---

Gary Webster (Alexander D'Arcy), a nightclub manager, flies a group of women from New York City to dance in his club in Singapore. While flying over the Pacific Ocean, their plane catches fire, splits in half, and plummets into the ocean; oddly enough, no one in Gary's group is killed. We next see the group a few days later, suffering from dehydration on a life raft, before they finally spot a small island and stagger to dry land.

Shortly thereafter, they discover fresh water and decide to go exploring. They are quickly relieved to find a cabin, but delight turns to horror when they open the door to discover a dead man hanging from a gigantic spider web. According to his journal, the man was a Professor Green researching and mining for uranium, but he feared something terrible was about to happen to him. There's no indication how long the professor planned to be on the island, but the women estimate there is enough food to last them about a month.

That night, Gary proceeds alone out onto the island where he is bitten by a giant spider and turns into some type of spider-man beast. He flees into the woods, leaving the women to wonder what has happened to him. The next day, seemingly possessed by uncontrollable violent urges, Gary kills one of the girls. The remaining women, still unaware of what has happened to him, have no idea that he is the one who has done this.

Twenty-eight days pass, and the women are running low on food when they spot a ship on the horizon. They are unable to signal it before it leaves, but two men arrive in a rowboat with supplies for the professor. They soon find the women, who tell them the professor is dead. As they all wait for the ship to return, they celebrate their last night on the island with a wild party. One of the men sneaks off to rendezvous with a woman, but both end up being killed by Gary. Finally aware of Gary's fate, the remainder of the group hunts him down with torches until he flees into quicksand and dies.

Firebrand: Oh man! This is the world of Horrors of Spider Island. My father and I loved this movie.

Mr. Krabs: What happened to him lad?

Firebrand: He was bitten by a huge spider and it turned him into a freak of nature.

Squidward: Oh man!

They went at Gary.

Firebrand: Step away from the girl right now!

Spider Gary: (Roars)

Mr. Krabs: Leave her alone you spider freak!

Firebrand: Or burn!

He went at them and Firebrand fired a wave of fire and burned him.

He was reduced to nothing.

SpongeBob: Take that!

Then Spymaster came out.

Spymaster: (to Spongebob) Heidi sure loves B Movies like these, doesn't she?

SpongeBob: She sure does. Just like her dad, grandpa and great grandpa.

Pinkie Pie: Yeah no kidding! She knows a lot of them.

Somnambula: (Egyptian Accent) She sure is talented.

Sprocket: It's amazing.

Steel Lynn: Yeah it is!

Squidward: Good tastes too.

Mr. Krabs: I agree with you on that Mr. Squidward.

Spymaster: I think so too. Lets do it!

They fired waves of water, gears, metal, lightning, energy, fire and ink and smashed him down.

SpongeBob: (Laughs) That was great!

Pinkie Pie: BEST USUAL BATTLE EVER!

They came out and everyone cheered for them.

Heidi: Way to go guys!

SpongeBob: That was great!

Nico: Yeah it was.

Laney: Awesome! If Leni were still afraid of spiders, she would freak out at that movie.

Nico: She sure would.

Heidi: Piper you and your group are next.

They went in and they found themselves in another city.

Metal Man: This place isn't so bad.

Piper: Yeah but look there!

They saw a big bunny and it was Fatso Bunny from Fantastic Max!

Starlight Glimmer: Whoa! That bunny sure wants all those carrots!

Doctor Octopus: (to Fatso) Why don't you share? There's plenty of carrots for everyone.

Fatso: Never! Sharing is for losers!

Cozy Glow: I'm gonna make you eat those words!

Cozy Glow flew at him and pulverized his brains out and then beamed him to jail for Grand Theft Carrots.

Fixer came out.

Fixer: (to Piper) What's your favorite movie that you guys have been in so far?

Piper: That's a good question. I like them all.

Starlight Glimmer: They all were really cool.

Cozy Glow: It's amazing that there are so many of them.

Clover the Clever: Yeah it's amazing.

Hex: I think it's cool myself.

Lightning Lisa: Indeed. Most amazing feats of entertainment.

Zarya Moonwolf: Yep.

Fixer: Awesome. Lets do it!

They fired waves of elements, magic, bones, energy and lightning and smashed him down.

Piper: ALL RIGHT!

Starlight Glimmer: That was cool!

They came out and everyone cheered for them.

Heidi: All right! Way to go guys.

Nico: That was awesome!

Carol: Yeah it was!

Nico: Now for the Power Rangers Battle.

?: That's for me.

A figure came out and it was CARD SAIMA BEAST GODAI from episode 32 of the Japanese version of Lightspeed Rescue!

---

Card Psyma Beast Godai (カードサイマ獣ゴダイ Kādo Saimajū Godai, 32) is a multi-eyed Psyma Beast under Beast Baron Cobolda.

Godai was summoned by Cobolda to assist him and Denus in gathering the magical energy to create a portal to hell in order to resurrect their brother, Dark King Zylpheeza, after growing tired of the leadership of youngest brother Salamandes. Capturing a group of humans within cards, including the fiance of a man Matsuri knew from her paramedic practice, he uses the cards to create a gate which opens while Cobolda and Denus fish Zylpheeza's soul out of the gate. Angered by the girl being taken by them, GoPink thrashes the Psyma Beast before the team destroys him with the V-Lancers, which likewise destroys the hell gate and releases those within the cards from captivity.

After Pierre resurrects Godai, it uses its cards on Victory Mars, preventing the mech from moving, before Liner Boy arrives and removes the cards by blasting them off with it's Blaster Shield. This allows the team to destroy the magical Psyma Beast with the Mars Flare.

---

Nico: Godai!

Godai: Glad you know me Nico.

Nico: It's good I do and I remember you. You were sent to gather a Magical Energy to resurrect Cobolda and Denus' brother the Dark King Zylpheeza after they were tired of serving Salamandes.

Godai: Your memory is just as sharp as J.D.'s memory.

Nico: I never missed an episode.

Godai: You guys sure are different from the GoGoV Rangers.

Ryan: Such as?

Godai: Such as the fact that the GoGoV Rangers never had someone who wore your suit.

Nico: That's because the Titanium Ranger is from America.

Godai: That makes sense. Also I can see all over the place.

Nico: I know and you have 360˚ Vision.

Godai: Cool huh?

Heidi: Your group is next Carter.

They went in and they were in the world of the 1954 movie Them.

Nico: The world of the 1954 movie Them. I remember we took down those huge ants.

Godai: Crazy huh? Shall we dance? I don't have any weapons this time.

Nico: That's okay. But yeah lets do it!

Lightspeed Rescue Rangers: LIGHTSPEED RESCUE!

Ryan: TITANIUM POWER!

They transformed!

Carter: "Red Ranger Rescue ready!"

Chad: "Blue Ranger Rescue ready!"

Joel: "Green Ranger Rescue ready!"

Kelsey: "Yellow Ranger Rescue ready!"

Dana: "Pink Ranger Rescue ready!"

Ryan: "Titanium Ranger Rescue ready!"

All: RESCUE READY! POWER RANGERS LIGHTSPEED RESCUE!

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off behind them and they were ready to kick some butt!

Megaforce Rangers: LEGENDARY RANGER MODE! LIGHTSPEED RESCUE!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Lightspeed Rescue Rangers too.

Godai: WHOA!

Nico: Didn't expect that did you. 46+ Years of rangers. Lets do it!

Rangers: V-LANCERS! BLASTER MODE! SPECTRA BLAST!

They fired rainbow lasers and converged them together into a powerful blast.

Nico: FIRE!

They fired waves of energy and the blasts all hit Godai and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Godai was dead!

Nico: OH YEAH! Godai you have Failed this universe.

Carter Grayson: Yeah he has! First ever Japanese Monster we took down.

Nico: For your group yes.

Troy Burrows: Rangers that's a Super Mega Win.

They came out and everyone cheered wildly.

Heidi: Way to go guys!

Nico: That was great!

Lola: It sure was.

Vekora: Now it's my turn.

Nicole: I have just the archenemy for you Vekora. You'll like it.

She and Dirt Lana went into the simulator and Nicole activated it and they found themselves in the world of Secret of Evermore and they were in a swamp and were facing the Swamp Snake, SALABOG!

Vekora: WHOA! This is gonna be cool!

Vekora fired waves of energy and Dirt Lana fired waves of mud and rock and smashed Salabog all over and destroyed him.

Salabog was now gonna be part of the Masters of Evil.

Vekora: Take that!

Dirt Lana: YEAH!

They came out and everyone cheered.

Heidi: YEAH!

Nico: That was awesome!

Then Yukimaru and Gozu came in.

Nicole: Yukimaru, Gozu!

Naruto: Uh oh what's wrong!?

Yukimaru: (Crying) It's Guren! She has been acting strange and she disappeared!

Gozu: We saw her get taken over by a strange parasitic creature.

Nicole: Oh no! The Aparoids got her!

Naruto hugged Yukimaru.

Naruto: Yukimaru we will find her. I promise.

Nicole: We sure will. But it's Sea and Bluto's turn.

Sea: Awesome.

They went in and when they found themselves on an Abandoned Cruise Ship in the middle of the ocean.

Sea: Whoa. We're on a cruise ship.

Bluto: No people. Wonder where everyone is.

Sea: Good question. Lets go!

They went at each other and pulverized the living crap out of each other and Sea was punching and kicking him all over the place and slapping him all over with her tail. They were brutally smashing each other all over in a fight cloud.

They went at each other for over 45 minutes and Bluto was a mess and they stopped and they came back in and Bluto was put on the floor and they cheered wildly

?: I will destroy you all for ruining my plans!

Suddenly, the eight large planets and stars orbiting around Nico's legs, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs and the eight large black orbs orbiting around Cody (OC)'s legs were glowing, and everyone had an uninvited guest.

Nico: Uh oh, I was hoping I wouldn't hear that voice ever again.

Lincoln: It's been a long time since J.D. killed you, Obito Uchiha.

The figure came out, and it was none other than Obito Uchiha, the man responsible for the Nine-Tailed Fox attack on The Hidden Leaf Village long ago as well as the murder of Naruto's parents and causing all kinds of unholy calamities all over the world..

Naruto: You should've never come back, traitor.

Rin Nohara, Kakashi, and Minato saw Obito return, and they knew it was going to be trouble.

Rin Nohara: Obito.

Minato: I should've known you'd return, you just can't stay dead, can you, my former student?

Obito: I will never stay dead until I've brought peace to this world.

Sasuke: Your idea of peace would've meant the destruction of the entire planet, and the deaths of so many innocent people, Obito. You should've stayed dead long ago.

Itachi: Sasuke's right, what you and Madara have done had forever condemned our family as the most hated family in The Hidden Leaf, with the exceptions being me, Sasuke, Naori, Shisui, and our mother and our two sisters.

Shisui: You'd become more than a traitor, you're a monster, and you'll be destroyed once again.

Twilight Sparkle: Lincoln, can you tell us more about Obito?

Lincoln: Of course, and for the rest of you, I hope you're ready for what I've got to tell you. He went from hero to Genocidal Monster.

Lincoln told The Mane 9 and the rest of the new recruits about the history of Obito Uchiha, and it's not good.

Obito Uchiha

Obito Uchiha (うちはオビト, Uchiha Obito) was a member of Konohagakure's Uchiha clan. He was believed to have died during the Third Shinobi World War, his only surviving legacy being the Sharingan he gave to his teammate, Kakashi Hatake. In truth, Obito was saved from death and trained by Madara Uchiha, but the events of the war left Obito disillusioned with reality, and he inherited Madara's plan to create an ideal world. Resurfacing under the names of Tobi (トビ, Tobi) and Madara Uchiha himself, Obito subtly took control of the Akatsuki, using them as a means to advance his machinations, eventually going public and starting the Fourth Shinobi World War. However, towards the war's conclusion, Obito had a change of heart and, as atonement, sacrificed his life to save the same world he sought to replace.

Early life

Obito grew up not knowing who his parents were; in the anime, he was left in the care of his grandmother. Feeling alone in the world, Obito dreamed of becoming Hokage so that the people of the village would acknowledge his existence. He enrolled in the Academy to help him achieve that goal, where he developed a one-sided rivalry with Kakashi Hatake, whose natural talent and popularity he was jealous of. He also became a close friend of Rin Nohara, whom he eventually fell in love with. After finally graduating some years later, Obito, Rin, and Kakashi were placed on a team under the leadership of Minato Namikaze.

In the anime, as a final qualifying test, Minato gave the team a bell test to test their cooperation skills. Obito could not accomplish this on his own but, by joining forces with Rin and Kakashi, they succeeded in taking the bells, teaching Obito the value of teamwork. The team later participated in the Chūnin Exams, where Obito was defeated in the third round in a one-on-one match with Might Guy. Kakashi would go on to defeat Guy in a subsequent match, promoting him to chūnin and impressing Rin. Eager for Rin's attention, Obito trained relentlessly, eventually rising to the rank of chūnin himself. His excitement was short-lived as Kakashi soon afterwards became a jōnin, once again earning Rin's praise and Obito's resentment.

During the Third Shinobi World War, Kakashi was placed in charge of the team for a mission to destroy the Kannabi Bridge, which would hinder Iwagakure from using Kusagakure as a relief point. Before beginning the mission, Minato and Rin gave gifts to Kakashi to celebrate his promotion to jōnin, though Obito had "forgotten", straining their already poor relationship. Minato was soon called to the front lines, leaving the team to complete the mission alone under Kakashi's command. The three were discovered by Iwa-nin along the way and Rin was captured. Kakashi elected to abandon Rin, believing it was more important to finish the mission before concerning themselves with her safety. Obito became enraged at the idea and insisted that they focus on her rescue. When Kakashi refused, Obito left on his own, remarking that Kakashi was worse than trash for abandoning his friends.

Obito located the cave the Iwa-nin were using as a hideout, but was found by a camouflaged Taiseki before he could launch a rescue. Kakashi, moved by Obito's earlier words, arrived in time to save him from Taiseki's attack, but lost his left eye in the process. From his desire to help Kakashi, Obito awakened his Sharingan, allowing him to see through Taiseki's camouflage and kill him. Obito and Kakashi infiltrated the cave and released Rin from her restraints. Her captor, Kakkō, caused the cave to collapse around them. As the team ran for the exit, Kakashi was struck in his blind spot and fell. When Obito noticed that Kakashi was about to be hit by a falling boulder, Obito pushed him out of the way and became trapped in his place.

With the right side of his body crushed and no way to free himself, Obito accepted his fate and made an offering: to give Kakashi his left Sharingan as an apology for not getting him a present earlier. Rin performed the transplant and, once the procedure was finished, Kakashi used his new Sharingan to kill Kakkō. Iwa reinforcements quickly began to further compress the rubble, forcing Kakashi and Rin to leave Obito behind. As the rocks tightened around him, Obito reflected that he had finally started to get along with Kakashi and that he couldn't confess to Rin that he loved her. Kakashi and Rin were rescued by Minato and, when they returned to Konoha, Obito's name was engraved on the village's Memorial Stone.

Saved from Death

In actuality, Obito was rescued by White Zetsu under orders from an elderly Madara. He brought Obito to Mountains' Graveyard and tended to his injuries, removing those body parts too damaged to be healed and replacing them with limbs cultivated from the cells of Hashirama Senju. Despite his injuries, Obito's right Sharingan had survived intact. Although frightened by Madara, Obito felt indebted to him for saving his life and was willing to render any assistance he could, an offer Madara made clear he would collect upon. Obito began a long rehabilitation process, eager to recover enough for him to return to Konoha and help his friends and the village with the still-ongoing war. With the help of White Zetsu and another spiral-faced Zetsu he nicknamed Guruguru, Obito became accustomed to his replacement limbs and the abilities they granted him. All the while, Madara would tell Obito about the harsh realities of the world and his plan to save it, which the young Uchiha disregarded.

During the end of his recuperation process, White Zetsu informed Obito that Kakashi and Rin were elsewhere about to be killed by Kirigakure ninja. Obito was insistent on helping them, which Guruguru offered to help with by encasing Obito with its body. Before leaving, Obito thanked Madara for all his help but said he wouldn't be returning. Madara made clear his conviction that Obito would return to him. Guruguru directed Obito to Rin and Kakashi's location, along the way informing him of Minato's absence. When they arrived they found Rin and Kakashi surrounded by Kiri-nin and Kakashi plunging his Chidori through Rin's heart. Rin's death caused each of their Sharingan to mature into Mangekyō Sharingan, a process that also caused Kakashi to pass out. Enraged by what had happened, Obito used a combination of his Mangekyō Sharingan's Kamui and the Wood Release of Guruguru's body to slaughter the Kirigakure ninja. When all of them were dead, Obito cradled Rin's lifeless body, ignoring the unconscious Kakashi.

Obito returned to Mountains' Graveyard, vowing to do anything for Madara if it could bring him together with Rin and Kakashi again.

Madara explained his Eye of the Moon Plan, which would replace the contemporary world of violence and death with one where nobody ever needs to die. Obito was intrigued, determined to create a reality where he, Rin, and Kakashi could exist alongside each other. Madara imparted all of his knowledge and plans to Obito, taught him about abilities he would need moving forward, entrusted him with his possessions, and manifested Black Zetsu to act as a guide. Having left almost all that he had to Obito, Madara disconnected himself from the Demonic Statue of the Outer Path that was keeping him alive and told Obito that until his revival, he was to act as Madara Uchiha.

Moving the Plan Forward

Using Madara's name and concealing his identity, Obito moved in the shadows of the ninja world to acquire the remaining pieces of the Eye of the Moon Plan. Shortly after Madara's death, Obito and Zetsu went to Amegakure and approached the fledgling Akatsuki with an offer of support in creating the world of peace they envisioned. In truth he only needed Nagato, in whom Madara had implanted his Rinnegan several years earlier and who would be needed in the final stages of the Eye of the Moon Plan. While Obito was almost able to sway Nagato, the Akatsuki leader, Yahiko, declined; Obito claims he eventually agreed without informing Akatsuki's other members. In the anime, Obito learned of a conspiracy between Hanzō and Danzō Shimura to eliminate Yahiko. He intercepted and killed the members of Akatsuki that tried to rescue Yahiko and, once Yahiko was dead, encouraged Nagato in a new direction for the organisation, one focused on acquiring the tailed beasts. While Nagato became the Akatsuki leader and recruited powerful missing-nin for their cause, Obito took on the alias of "Tobi", and changed his personality around members to conceal his identity.

In Kirigakure, Obito at some point took control of the Fourth Mizukage, Yagura (in the anime being accompanied by Pain and Konan) in effect making him the de facto Mizukage. After Kisame Hoshigaki became disillusioned by the lies of the world, Obito (as "Madara") revealed himself to Kisame and promised to help make a world of truth. Kisame became his loyal servant, one of the few Kiri-nin to knowingly work for him. During this time Obito discovered the circumstances of Rin's death: that Kiri had sealed the Three-Tails into her to make her a timebomb that would destroy Konoha. At Rin's insistence, Kakashi killed her to prevent this from happening. Obito's manipulation of the Mizukage was eventually discovered by Ao and he was forced to abandon it.

Twelve years before the start of the series, Obito visited Rin's grave in Konoha. Kakashi was already there when he arrived and Obito, watching secretly, heard him confide to Rin's grave that Minato's wife, Kushina Uzumaki, would soon be giving birth. Knowing that Kushina was the Nine-Tails' jinchūriki and that the seal keeping the Nine-Tails contained within her would weaken during childbirth, Obito tracked her down on the night of October 10. He killed her Anbu bodyguards and midwives, which included the Third Hokage's wife, and took her newborn son, Naruto Uzumaki, hostage to prevent Minato from interfering. Minato was able to take Naruto from him, which distracted him long enough for Obito to escape with Kushina. He extracted the Nine-Tails from her body, placed it under his control with his Sharingan, and ordered it to destroy the village.

Minato soon afterwards arrived to help in the village's defence. Before Minato could contribute much or even tell anyone what had happened, Obito located him and tried to use Kamui to send him away and prevent further interference. Minato was able to escape with his Flying Thunder God Technique, but Obito pursued him. Minato did not recognise Obito as they fought, instead suspecting he was Madara Uchiha. He initially struggled to successfully strike Obito but, after several failed attacks, Minato finally hit him with a Rasengan and branded him with a Flying Thunder God seal, allowing him to teleport to Obito whenever he wanted. He then used a Contract Seal on Obito to release the Nine-Tails from his control. Wounded and deprived of his best weapon, Obito fled. Minato gave his life to save the village by sealing the Nine-Tails into his son, and thus never had the chance to inform anyone of Obito's involvement. Konoha's leadership nevertheless suspected an Uchiha's involvement, and to that end placed all members of the clan under heavy scrutiny.

Years later in the anime, Obito attacked the Fire Daimyō's convoy en route to Konoha, placing everyone in a genjutsu and killing Tenma Izumo, but swiftly retreats after sensing Kakashi approaching. Years later, the Uchiha, as a result of their mistreatment, began plotting a coup d'état. Obito returned to the village with the intention of exacerbating the conflict, but was discovered by Itachi Uchiha. Believing Obito was Madara, Itachi asked for his help in wiping out their clansmen, offering revenge against them for their treatment of Madara decades earlier in exchange for Obito's agreement to spare the village. Obito accepted and offered Itachi a position in Akatsuki. In the anime, during the night of the massacre, he slaughtered the Konoha Military Police Force and killed Izumi Uchiha. Afterwards, he collected several Uchiha corpses in order to extract their Sharingan for his own use. He also met Danzō around this time, for unknown reasons. Following the attack, he cut his hair and brought Itachi into his organisation.

When Lincoln got done discussing the dark history of Obito Uchiha, The Mane 9 and the rest of the new recruits were horrified by his history.

Rarity: My word, he's a traitor and a monster.

Buster Bunny: He's followed the same path as the Devil Incarnate, Madara Uchiha, and he's turned his back on his old friends and teachers.

Nico: What a hypocrite! He made that famous line: 'Those Who Break The Rules Are Trash, But Those Who Abandon Their Friends are Worse Than Trash." And in the end he becomes the very thing that makes him worse than trash.

Ace Bunny: And he's the one responsible for The Nine-Tailed Fox Attack on The Hidden Leaf Village all those years ago.

Lexi Bunny: This guy has got to go now!

Tech E Coyote: And he'll be Super Hakaied, just like the rest of the evil Uchiha.

Lincoln: No one will say anything about him at his funeral, not for all the harm he's caused to so many in the past.

Nico: Not in here. Rin, you go into the Simulator and face him.

Rin: Okay.

Obito: Lead the way.

They went in to the Simulator and they saw that they were in the Crystal Cave from the 1959 movie Journey to The Center of the Earth.

Suddenly, Rin Nohara was surrounded by a powerful orange energy aura and fire, as her eyes turned neon orange.

Rin Nohara: I can't believe how low you sunk, Obito. You were my friend and I trusted you, but I was wrong, you are just as evil and corrupt as the other demonic members of your family. Now, I shall cut my ties with you, once and for all!

Then, Rin Nohara was surrounded by a massive vortex of orange energy and fire, phoenixes were flying around the vortex, and inside the vortex was a red phoenix. Then, when the vortex faded, Rin Nohara emerged, but she was changed forever.

(IMPERATRIX MUNDI PLAYS AT 1:45 TO 2:14)

Rin Nohara looked like she was 21 years old, and she had the body of a goddess. She had neon orange eyes and they were overflowing with justice, her black hair had gotten longer and it was tied up in a ponytail, she had an orange phoenix emblazoned on her forehead, she had on a sleeveless orange blouse with a flame-colored phoenix, a red skirt, black pants with orange flames on the legs, black leather combat boots, she had large black angel wings with flame tips on the feathers, and they were surrounded by intense flames. She had on a pair of phoenix earrings with the Fire Kanji in its claws, and a silver necklace with a phoenix pendant and the Fire Kanji in its claws. She had on her own Bracelets of The Champions of The Universe with orange gems around them, and she had on her own Belt of Elemental Bravery with a large orange gem for the belt buckle around her waist, and an Eater of Sins revolver holstered on her right hip. She had a sword in her hand called The Sword of The Firebird, it's a sword with the phoenix etched on the 6'0" massive, wide, double-edged blade, red phoenix wings for the crossguard, a large orange gem for the hilt, long black handle, and a large crimson red sphere pommel with surrounding orange gems, and she had on a black coat with flames on the long sleeves and on the coattails, and the symbol of The Hidden Leaf Village on the back. Below the symbol of The Hidden Leaf Village was an orange kanji that said, "Rin Nohara, Phoenix Angel of The Hidden Leaf Village, Student of Minato Namikaze, Dear Friend of Kakashi Hatake, Angel Emissary of The Phoenix, and Master of The Flames."

野原凛、木ノ葉隠れの鳳凰天使、波風ミナトの学生、はたけカカシの親愛なる友人、鳳凰の天使使者、炎の達人。

Rin Nohara has transformed into SUPER ANGEL 500,000,000,000 INFERNOSTORM PHOENIX ANGEL OF HONOR.

Everyone was stunned at Rin's transformation, including some of us who were at Aunt Ruth's house. I felt Rin's energy and it was unbelievable!

Nico: WHOA! Look at Rin!

Heidi: Wow! She transformed into a beautiful woman.

Naruto: Wow, (Telepathically to Rin) Rin, you've transformed. How do you feel?

Rin Nohara: (Divine Echoing Fiery Voice) I feel incredible, Naruto, and now, I'm more than ready to put an end to my former friend.

Lincoln: (Telepathically to Rin) Show him no mercy, Rin.

Rin Nohara: With pleasure, Lincoln. (To Obito) Alright, you bastard, let's do this. This time, you'll join the rest of your evil family in oblivion.

Rin Nohara charged at Obito, and fired powerful blasts of fire, phoenixes made of pure fire, and orange energy blasts at Obito, which came together, and exploded with incredible power, as soon as they hit Obito. Obito fired a blast of fire at Rin Nohara, but Rin dodged it, and with her new sword, she slashed off Obito's arms, as he screamed in excruciating pain, and blood was gushing out from his bloody stumps.

Lincoln: Whoa, that was incredible!

Naruto: She's already got Obito on the ropes now.

And Naruto was right, Obito was now on his last legs, his strength was fading fast, and he was losing blood fast after having his arms cut off

Rin Nohara: This is the end of you, Obito. May you burn forever in Oblivion, along with the rest of your evil family. As far as I can tell you are dead to me. FIRE STYLE NINJA ART: PHOENIX FIRESTORM RASENSHURIKEN!

Rin Nohara formed a powerful red Rasenshuriken surrounded by flames, and it had a phoenix orbiting around the fiery core, and it was infused with Super Hakai energy, as traces of purple were inside of the sphere. Rin throws it, and once it hits Obito, it exploded with incredible power, killing him, and it Super Hakaied Obito forever.

They cheered wildly for her!

Rin Nohara: Goodbye forever, "old friend".

Rin Nohara powered down, but her jewelry, clothes, and weapons were permanent. She looked at the ashes of her former friend, as they were swept away in the waters of the river in the Grotto.

Then a crystal cluster came out and out of it came GUREN!

Rin Nohara: Guren!

She saw ugly purple blotches on her and that meant that she was infected by the Aparoids!

Rin: Hold on Guren!

She fired a wave of lightning and freed Guren from the Aparoids and she fell down and Rin caught her. Guren was exhausted but she will be all right.

Guren: (Groans Weakly)

Rin: You'll be okay Guren.

Rin picked her up and put her on her back and they came out and everyone cheered for Rin. Everyone cheered wildly at what Rin Nohara did. Finally, Obito Uchiha was gone forever, and he'll never return to terrorize the world again, along with some of us who were at Aunt Ruth's.

Naruto: Way to go Rin!

Minato: That is my student right there son.

Sakura H.: She did amazingly.

Nico: She sure did. You taught her really well Minato. Way to go Rin!

Rin: Thanks guys. I'll take Guren to the Infirmary.

Heidi: Grandpa's gonna have one helluva report to file to Lady Tsunade.

Rin: And I'll tell everything with him.

Rin took Guren to the Infirmary.

Heidi: That was amazing. Now for the grand finale with the simulator adventures. I am going to face an Evil Sasuke and show you all what I can do against him. And then we'll all face him when I have him against the ropes.

Nico: Ooh! This is gonna be good.

Heidi: Lets do it guys.

Heidi went in and she found herself in the Final Valley.

Heidi: Figured I would be here and from the looks of things the fight is already starting.

She saw Young Naruto and Evil Sasuke and it was a brutal fight.

Young Naruto was punching the Evil Sasuke all over the place with incredible power and brutality and he kicked him in the face and sent him crashing into a cliff.

Heidi: Wow. For a ninja that was supposedly dead last in the Academy, Naruto fights really good.

But then Evil Sasuke had Naruto pinned and he grabbed him and had a Chidori ready for him.

Heidi: Oh no you don't!

She flared up her Aqua Blue Aura and flew at him.

Evil Sasuke: This is as far as you go you fucking monster! Die and go to hell you fucking demon!

But then…

KRABLAM!

Heidi swooped in and kicked Evil Sasuke in the face with devastating force and she sent him crashing into the statue of Madara Uchiha and the whole thing came down onto him.

Evil Sasuke got up and he saw Heidi ready to fight and he WAS INFURIATED!

Evil Sasuke: WHO THE HELL DO YOU THINK YOU ARE YOU FUCKING BITCH!?

Lightning struck around her and it was intense.

Heidi: I'm someone you don't want to mess with Sasu-gay.

Evil Sasuke: THIS IS NOT YOUR FIGHT!

Heidi: It is now you dickless motherfucker. Prepare to face my ultimate power.

Heidi's eyes then glowed neon aqua blue and she had water swirl all around her and there were fish, mermaids, whales, prehistoric fish and more swirling around her.

Heidi: You and your clan fucking disgust me! Naruto is not the real demon around here, it's you and your clan that are the true monsters. Your lust for power and desire for vengeance and your egomaniacal and megalomaniacal pride has led you and your family down the road to ruin. Your family, except for Naori, Mikoto, Itachi, Shisui, and even your true self that we know, have now been exposed as the true demons to The Hidden Leaf and the 5 Great Nations, because of the crimes they've committed against the village and against the Hokage and to everyone all over the 5 Great Nations over the years. Now I shall put you down like the mad dog you've become, and after you die, you shall join Fugaku, Obito, and Madara and all of your clan in Oblivion forever, you pathetic traitor!

Evil Sasuke roared in rage and went at her and just as he was about to land a blow, a massive surge of energy exploded out and blew him back and then a massive vortex of water exploded out and it formed into a mermaid with fish and creatures of the sea as well as Seiryu, the Blue Dragon of The East. When the vortex faded, Heidi emerged forever changed.

(IMPERATRIX MUNDI PLAYS 1:45 to 2:14)

Heidi had neon Aqua Blue eyes and they were overflowing with pure hope and justice, her aqua blue hair had gotten longer and it was tied up in a ponytail and went down to her upper legs, she had blue dragon of the sea with a mermaid on it emblazoned on her forehead, she had on a sleeveless aqua blue blouse with a water-colored dragon, an aqua blue skirt, black pants with blue flames and blue water on the legs, black leather combat boots, she had large aqua blue angel wings with blue fire tips on the feathers, and they were surrounded by intense flames. She had on a pair of mermaid earrings with the Water Kanji in the Mermaids Tail, and a silver necklace with a Mermaid and Dragon pendant and the Water Kanji in the Dragon's Claws. She had on her own Bracelets of The Champions of The Universe with Aqua Blue gems around them, and she had on her own Belt of Elemental Bravery with a large Aqua gem for the belt buckle around her waist, and an Eater of Sins revolver holstered on her right hip. She had a sword in her hand called The Sword of Seiryu, it's a sword with the Blue Dragon etched on the 6'0" massive, wide, double-edged aqua blue blade, Blue Dragon wings for the crossguard, a large blue gem for the hilt, long black handle, and a large Ocean Blue sphere pommel with surrounding blue gems, She had the Scythe of Seiryu on her back, and she had on a sleeveless black coat with ocean waves and mermaids on it all over and on the coat tails, and the symbol of Seiryu the Blue Dragon of The East on the back. Below the symbol of Seiryu was a kanji that said, "Heidi Rosalinda Allenby Knudson, Daughter of Jared Knudson, Granddaughter of James Dean Knudson, Master of Water, Emissary of Seiryu the Blue Dragon of The East, Champion of the Water and the Ocean and the Master of All things in the Water."

ハイジ・ロザリンダ・アレンビー・ナドソン、ジャレッド・ナドソンの娘、ジェームズ・ディーン・ナドソンの孫娘、水のマスター、東の青いドラゴン、セイリュウの使者、水と海のチャンピオン、そして水のすべてのもののマスター。

Her aura was also neon aqua blue with water and ocean blue lightning swirling around her. She had transformed into a SUPER ANGEL 750,000,000,000 MERMAID SIREN SONG WAVE!

Everyone seeing this in the control room was absolutely floored!

Nico: WHOA! Heidi looks amazing!

Lincoln: Incredible!

Isabelle: Way to go big sis!

Eli: Wow! Look at Heidi! She looks incredible!

Arrietty: Yeah she sure does!

Nunnally: So awesome!

Even the rest of us at Aunt Ruth's house could feel how powerful Heidi has become. Everyone all over the Five Great Nations fell the sheer full force of Heidi's incredible power! Orochimaru was screaming in excruciating pain and then he exploded in a massive and disgusting pile of blood and guts and gore. Even the Akatsuki felt the force of her power. And even those poisoned with Orochimaru's Curse Mark felt it and they too all died.

Heidi: (Divine Echoing Cosmic Water Voice) Get ready Sasuke, you are gonna pay the ultimate price for everything you and your clan have done. After today, the age of the Uchiha comes to an end with you.

Evil Sasuke then accessed his 2nd state of the Curse Mark and went at her and Heidi teleported and kicked him in the face with incredible force and smashed him into the cliff. He exploded out of the cliff and fired a massive fireball at her and Heidi kicked it into the air and it exploded.

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Heidi erupted out of the smoke and kicked him into the ground and he got up. Evil Sasuke then fired a massive flurry of fireballs and they all missed her and then he had them all fly at her and Heidi encased herself in an energy barrier and sent them flying all over the place and they hit all over the place and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Everything was set on fire.

Evil Sasuke then formed his Susanno and had a massive energy arrow of pure lightning ready to fire!

Heidi: So that's it. (Cups hands to side)
KAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA MEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEE
HAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA MEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEE!

Evil Sasuke: THIS IS FROM ME TO YOU! INDRA'S ARROW!

He fired the massive lightning arrow!

Heidi: HAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA

Heidi fired a massive green Kamehameha Wave and the blasts collided and the resulting explosion was unbelievable!

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion was so powerful, so massive and so devastating that it shook much of the 5 Great Nations to the Core and shook the very foundation of the entire planet to the brink! Everyone all over the Five Great Nations saw the massive explosion from the blast and ducked and covered from its intense power! The explosion was a massive and powerfully ferocious mushroom cloud that could be seen for miles and even the surrounding villages within the blast radius were completely destroyed! When the Smoke Cleared, the entire Final Valley was completely reduced to flaming rubble and it was all now nothing more than a flaming crater as smoke and ash came down from the sky! Heidi landed on the devastated land and she was not in the slightest bit exhausted.

Nico: WHOA! HOLY FUCKING SHIT! What power!

Eli: Unbelievable! Evil Sasuke is not gonna like that.

Lola: Yeah!

Evil Sasuke got up and he was brutally mangled and cut up all over and he had blood dripping from almost every limb and his power was severely weakened bad and he was badly bruised and battered. His clothes were all partially torn up.

Evil Sasuke was infuriated beyond all form of recognition and he saw Heidi still standing even after using an incredible blast of that magnitude.

Evil Sasuke: YOU WRETCHED GIRL! HOW DARE YOU!? HOW DARE YOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOUUUUUUUUUUU!?

He was completely out of his mind with so much rage, fury and madness that it was unbelievable! He unleashed the full extent of his power with that of the Curse Mark in a massive explosion of incredibly insane anger!

Nico: I think we've seen enough! Lets go!

They all went in.

Troy: Time to feet ninja with ninja!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Ninja Steel!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Ninja Steel Rangers!

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion blasted above the valley and a phoenix cry was heard and then fireballs rained down and they hit Evil Sasuke all over the place and everyone came out.

Heidi: Perfect timing guys.

Nico: Thanks Heidi. Wow! You look amazing!

Eli: No kidding! Wow!

Naruto: Yeah! How do you feel?

Heidi: Incredible. Lets take this bastard down for good.

They all went at the Evil Sasuke and he was too blinded by rage and anger that he couldn't see straight! They punched and pulverized Evil Sasuke all over the place.

Mudenu, Kamengareth, and Seeryn blasted Evil Sasuke all over the place. Massive fiery explosions were blasting the area apart all over.

Nico: That was so awesome!

Shendu: Another babysitting adventure complete.

Mr. Mittens: Got that right.

Heidi: We always have fun with these kinds of adventures.

Nico: We sure do.

Amora the Enchantress: We're not done yet though.

Spymaster: Right. Now, we're going to rant at Icky Vicky.

Fixer: And then it's Karaoke time!

Heidi: You read my mind. Lets head to the Jupiter Prison for another rant fest.

They came out of the Simulator and Heidi's cell phone rang.

Heidi: Hold a sec.

Heidi answered her phone.

Heidi: Hello?

Me: Heidi it's me.

Heidi: Hey there grandpa.

Me: We sensed 2 incredibly powerful energy signals. Are you guys all right?

Heidi: Yeah we are fine grandpa. Me and Rin unlocked our ultimate transformations in the simulator adventures. We have quite an amazing story to tell.

Me: We'll have to hear it later. But I was just checking up on you.

Heidi: Thanks grandpa. See you soon.

Me: Will do.

She hung up.

They went to the Jupiter Prison.

JUPITER PRISON

In the Jupiter Prison, Heidi and the group were walking down the hall.

Heidi: We haven't done a rant session with Icky Vicky in a while.

Nico: No we sure haven't.

Laney: Yeah it has been a while.

They arrived at Icky Vicky's cell.

Icky Vicky: Well if it isn't the fucked up losers! You've totally humiliated me and Trina here!

Trina Riffins: I HATE YOU GUYS!

POW!

Courtney punched Trina in the face and sent her crashing into the wall as their auras flared up with incredible intensity.

Courtney: You deserve it you fucking bitch!

Prisoner 1: Boy we haven't seen you guys in a while.

Prisoner 2: Yeah we were starting to worry about you guys.

Prisoner 3: Lincoln those were some REALLY funny jokes you said about Vicky and Trina! We have never laughed so hard!

Lincoln: They were really funny.

Nico: Glad you guys liked them. We're here for another rant session. We haven't done these for a while.

Prisoner 1: It has been a while. Go get that bitch!

Prisoner 2: And nice punch to that Trina girl Courtney. She has so much anger in her.

Courtney: Trina has ALWAYS been like that. She has massive anger management issues.

Heidi: Yep. Lets get this party started!

Nico: Lets get ready to (HAIR FLARES UP) (ECHOING) RUMBLE!

Keiichiro: I'll start us off.

He went up to her.

Keiichiro: (Clears Throat) (Takes a Deep Breath) (SCREAMING AT THE TOP OF HIS LUNGS) YOU ARE THE WORST AND MOST DISGUSTING MOST FUCKED UP BABYSITTER THAT HAS EVER LIVED! Prisoner 2: NICE ONE!

Kairi Yano: My turn.

Kairi Yano went up to her.

Kairi took a deep breath.

Kairi Yano: (SCREAMING AT THE TOP OF HIS LUNGS) YOU MAKE ME FUCKING SICK! NO WONDER EVERYONE IN YOUR FAMILY HATES YOUR FUCKING GUTS BECAUSE YOU DON'T GIVE A FLYING FUCK ABOUT ANYONE BUT YOUR FUCKING GODDAMN SELF! Everyone: EW!

Heidi: GROSS!

Nico: No kidding.

They cheered for him.

Prisoner 1: YEAH! Nice one Kairi!

Prisoner 3: YEAH!

Kameo: My turn. I've never done this before.

Nico: It's fun Kameo.

Kameo: But who is Icky Vicky?

Nico: Right some of you don't know who she is. She is the most evil babysitter of all and she is a true spawn of Satan.

Nico told the people who haven't heard about Icky Vicky's history.

---

Vicky is the central antagonist of The Fairly OddParents . She is one of Timmy Turner's archenemies (alongside Denzel Crocker and Francis) and his sadistic, arrogant and cruel babysitter. She was also the main antagonist of the TV movie, " Channel Chasers ".

She was voiced by Grey DeLisle, who also voiced Azula in Avatar: The Last Airbender, Asajj Ventress in Star Wars: Clone Wars, Mandy in both Grim & Evil and The Grim Adventures of Billy & Mandy, Vexus in Crossy Road: The Series, the High Priestess in Samurai Jack, Major Doctor Ghastly in Evil Con Crane, and Pixie Dusters in Onward . In the live-action A Fairly Odd Movie: Grow Up, Timmy Turner!, she was portrayed by Devon Weigel.

Background

As revealed in Abra-Catastrophe!, Vicky first started babysitting Timmy Turner when he was eight and she was fourteen. Timmy had found a flier advertising Vicky's babysitting service, and panicked and called this number when his parents tricked him into thinking he was being left alone. When Vicky arrived, she convinced Timmy's parents that they could use a babysitter so that they would have time for each other to go out and do adult things. From that point on, Vicky tormented Timmy whenever she babysat him, and his parents would continue to spend time away, leaving him under Vicky's cruel care. Timmy became so miserable that he needed fairy godparents. With them, he was able to use magic to get even with Vicky. Even with his fairies, Timmy is still challenged by Vicky over the course of the show. She has also worked other non-babysitting jobs, usually if they involve hurting others or holding sharp objects. In most of her early appearances, the simple act of saying her name would cause thunder and lightning to flash in the sky.

Early life

Vicky appears to have started babysitting at age fourteen or possibly earlier. When she first met Timmy when he was eight, she was just as mean as she is now. It is never explained why Vicky is the way that she is, although several conflicting plots have been put forth. In the episode " Snow Bound ", she reveals that she had a rough childhood. In " Tiny Timmy ", it is said that her niceness never showed up to work inside her brain. In " Vicky Loses Her Icky ", the cause of her evilness is attributed to an evil bug that crawled up her butt (although it is equally likely that the bug was a pure concentration of her evil personality). In the episode " The Switch Glitch ", after Timmy wished for Vicky to turn into a five-year-old, she was actually nice but turned bad when she wanted revenge on Timmy for being a mean babysitter. It has also been suggested in fanon that her sister Tootie being born was the cause of her disliking younger kids, and although this has never been explicitly stated, in the episode " The Masked Magician ", Vicky lists Tootie first as she went through various enemies she had made in her life, as well as her own parents. Hanging in her house is a picture of an infant-aged Vicky that is shown with the same evil scowl she has in her later life, so it's possible she was born this way.

Future

After Timmy Turner successfully defeated Vicky in the past and changed the bad future into a good one, twenty years passed by and Timmy is revealed to have two children, a son and a daughter. The children bear a resemblance to Vicky's little sister Tootie among other characters, meaning that these children would be Vicky's nephew and niece if Tootie married Timmy. Some fans even believe that Vicky herself could have been the mother, and even if so, it's possible that her children could have inherited genes from their grandmother. The two children are babysat by a robot that looks and acts like Vicky, so it is likely that Timmy has some connection with her in the future, or has at the very least reconciled with her. It is also possible, even implied in some of Adult Timmy's dialogue, that because he forgot about his fairies in his later life, Timmy eventually assumed that it was his parents, and by extension Vicky, who helped shape him into becoming a responsible adult instead of his fairies, and therefore he believes that hiring a babysitter that resembles Vicky will help shape his own children into responsible adults too. Vicky's exact connection with the robot is unknown, but if she makes and designs these robots, she is likely very rich and successful like she always wanted to be.

Alternate reality

In the episode " Vicky Gets Fired ", Timmy's parents attend a cinema and leave Timmy alone with Vicky, but this time, Timmy, determined to prove Vicky is evil, shows his parents a video in which she tapes over their extremely important videotape, causing her to be fired. Vicky then attempts to seek a new line of employment, although she only succeeds in torturing others, resulting in her getting fired by all her bosses, both literally and figuratively. Eventually, she goes to the mayor and reveals to Chompy the Goat that the mayor indulges himself in eating goat meat, causing the goat to chase him out of his office. Vicky then names herself the new mayor and takes over Dimmsdale, renames it "Vickyland" and attacks it with her newly established ape army. Timmy, who is enjoying the time of his life with his god-family, soon discovers that getting Vicky out of his life causes her to ruin everyone else's. Wanda proposes that they take fire-breathing battle-rhinos and a lion-cloth warrior to Vicky to depose her; however, they lose badly, and Timmy tries wishing that Vicky wasn't the mayor. Unfortunately, Vicky, not being mayor, becomes president of the U.S.A. instead and attacks the country with another armored ape army. Timmy tries unwishing that Vicky dominated reality again, only for Vicky to become the "Dark Empress of Everything that Breathes", and began attacking Earth with her Star-Destroyer-like warship. To save the Earth, Timmy reluctantly wishes that Vicky was his babysitter again in order to maintain peace.

Leadership

Vicky was formerly a member of B.R.A.T. (Babysitters Raging Against Twerps) until she was rescued by Timmy Turner and felt grateful. Vicky tried to make a new life being Timmy's friend but he rejected her favors and Vicky returned to her organization more abusive than ever, so much so that their companions named her their new leader. On another occasion, she joined and subsequently lead L.O.S.E.R.S. (composed of Crocker, Dark Laser and Foop) and advised them on how to destroy Timmy once and for all, but after Timmy wished that these four enemies wanted to be him, all members (including her) ended up destroying each other. Vicky subsequently left the team after their initial failure and ends up being replaced by Timmy's dad (who thought he was joining a sewing club).

Plots

In the 2003 video game " Breakin' Da Rules ", Vicky served as the main villain. After picking up Cosmo and Wanda's copy of Da Rules, Vicky received their wishing power and spent the game accidentally wishing Timmy into strange situations such as turning him into a dog or sending him into the past.

The 2004 movie Channel Chasers also featured Vicky as the main antagonist. After taking the Magic Remote away from Timmy and sabotaging the Turner house to frame Timmy for its destruction as well as getting Timmy in even more trouble with his infuriated parents with Timmy's parents still refusing to listen to their son about Vicky, Vicky discovered its power and planned on using it to get to the Biographical Channel and make herself a dictator. The film includes a look into the future where Vicky is victorious and leads an army of masked soldiers. A visit from the future Timmy to his young self assures Vicky's defeat in this plan and she ends up not remembering the events. In the end following her defeat, Timmy's parents fire Vicky for lying to them and being a mean and nasty babysitter to Timmy after finally discovering that Timmy was right about Vicky all along, thanks to "Deep Toot" (Tootie in disguise) clearing Timmy's name. This was Vicky's only significant movie role, and she served as the main antagonist for most of the movie.

In the 2009 three-part movie Wishology, Vicky joins forces with Timmy in exchange for twenty dollars. When Timmy "sacrifices" himself to The Darkness, she even shows a moment of remorse for Timmy. However, by the end of the movie, and definitely after Jorgen's memory wipe, she has reverted to her old self.

---

When he was done they were shocked and horrified!

Kameo: Oh man! I can't believe she is that evil!

Kairi Yano: Yeah she has no love for anyone!

Laney: It's why she is in her and we also killed all her friends in an evil cult called B.R.A.T.

Nico: It stood for Babysitters Raging Against Twerps. They are a rare example of us killing kids only when the situation calls for it. Also Timmy's Parents were brainless peanut-brained numbskulls for hiring a psychotic homicidal maniac babysitter.

Laney: By any count they should have never been parents in the first place.

Prisoner 1: Poor kid. Having to go through all that is worse than being locked up in a concentration camp.

Nico: You're telling me.

Kameo: I think I know what you mean.

Kameo went up to Icky Vicky's cell and then she cleared her through and took in a deep breath.

Kameo: (SCREAMING) YOU ARE THE MOST WORTHLESS PIECE OF FUCKING TRASH I HAVE EVER SEEN! IT MAKES MY STOMACH CHURN LOOKING AT YOU! I WOULD RATHER THROW UP FIRE ALL OVER YOU THAN HAVE YOU AS MY BABYSITTER! YOU PUTRID FUCKING WASTE OF FILTHY FUCKING LIFE!

Everyone cheered wildly.

Prisoner 1: YEAH! No bad!

Nico: Nice job Kameo!

Princess Luna: I think I have a few choice words for this monster.

Nico: Go for it Princess Luna.

She went up to her cell.

Princess Luna: (IN THE CANTERLOT VOICE) YOU ARE THE MOST DESPICABLE BABYSITTER THAT I HAVE EVER LAID MY EYES ON! I AM A BABYSITTER MYSELF AND I WOULD NEVER ABUSE KIDS THE WAY YOU DO! THEY ARE PEOPLE TOO WHERE YOU ARE NOT! YOU SHOULD HAVE BEEN SENT TO

THE DARKNESS OF TARTARUS FOREVER!

THUNDERCLAP THUNDERCLAP!

They cheered wildly!

Nico: WHOA! That was amazing!

Prisoner 1: That was like yelling through a megaphone!

Heidi: That was the Royal Canterlot Voice. It's been part of the Equestrian history for years.

Princess Celestia: It's true but well done sister.

Princess Luna: Thanks sister.

Heidi: Princess Luna used to babysit the Cake's kids before they got their powers.

Pumpkin Cake: It's true. We learned so much from Princess Luna.

Pound Cake: She is a great teacher.

Right Suzuki: My turn.

Right went up to her.

Right Suzuki: (Takes a deep breath) (SCREAMING) YOU MAKE ME ABSOLUTELY SICK! I WOULD RATHER CLEAN BARON NERO'S TOILET THAN HAVE YOU AS A FUCKED UP BABYSITTER!

In the base of Mr. Mind, Baron Nero sneezed as he was reading books.

Mr. Mind: Sounds like someone is talking about you.

Baron Nero: Yeah that is probably right.

Right Suzuki: YOU ARE THE WORST EVER HUMAN BEING THAT EVER LIVED! YOU ARE WORSE THAN A HUMAN! YOU ARE A FUCKING SPAWN OF SATAN!

When he was done everyone cheered.

Heidi: Yeah you tell her!

Princess Celestia: That was awesome!

Rainbow Dash: Yeah it was!

Animated Optimus: My turn.

He went up to her cell.

Animated Optimus: YOU ARE THE MOST REPULSIVE AND MOST DISGUSTING MONSTER THAT EVER LIVED AND YOU WOULD MAKE A TERRIBLE HOUSE WIFE AND A TERRIBLE MOTHER! I WOULD RATHER THROW UP LAVA THAN HAVE YOU AS MY FUCKING BABYSITTER YOU GOOD FOR NOTHING WHORE!

They cheered for him!

Heidi: YEAH YOU TELL HER!

Eruptor: That would have been awesome to see.

Marcus: My turn.

He went up to Icky Vicky's cell.

Marcus: (SCREAMING) YOU MAKE ME SICK FUCKY VICKY! YOU WOULD RATHER STEP ON KIDS TO DO WHATEVER YOU WANT TO GET SOME MONEY! YOU DON'T CARE ABOUT ANYONE BUT YOURSELF FUCKY VICKY!

POW!

Marcus punched her in the face and knocked out one of her teeth!

Nico: Nice shot!

They cheered for him.

Eli: YEAH! Take that you psycho!

Prisoner 1: Right in the kisser!

Axel Manning: I've got some funny pranks.

Nico: Anything is fun.

Axel went up to her and then he threw a pie bomb into her face and it hit her and exploded!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Icky Vicky was burned all over.

Icky Vicky: You are one angry bird.

Axel Manning: What do you mean by that? Are you sayin' dat I'm some game on yer mobile phone here to launch at pigs from a slingshot for your amusement? Is DAT what you're saying!?

Icky Vicky: Uh yes?

Axel Manning: THAT'S IT!

He pulverized her in a massive and powerful fight cloud and smashed her all over the place in a brutal fight.

Everyone was laughing hysterically.

Later everyone was back at the estate. It was Karaoke Time. In Luna's room, everyone was getting ready.

Heidi: It's karaoke time. Who want's to go first?

Qin: I will. I have a song. I'm going to sing Fear a Bhata by Alison Helzer.

Heidi: Ooh that's a good one.

Natilee came in.

Natilee: May I listen too? That is one of my favorites.

Heidi: Sure Aunt Natilee.

Natilee sat down.

Qin played on a guitar and she was singing and the room turned into the beautiful Irish forest and river.

Qin: (Singing in Irish Gaelic)

Fhir a' bháta, na hóro eile

They saw beautiful Irish lands and it was amazing and when it was done they cheered.

Nico: Well done Qin!

Eli: That was amazing!

Arrietty: Yeah it was!

Heidi: That was great!

Sydney Burlington: I have a song. It's called Coinleach Glas an Fhómhair by Maria McCool.

Nico: That's gonna be an interesting one.

She went up and the song played.

Sydney Burlington: (Singing in Irish Gaelic)

Are chonnlaigh ghlais an fhoghmhair

The room turned into a beautiful autumn land and it was beautiful and when the song was done they cheered wildly.

Heidi: That was awesome!

Natilee: (Irish Accent) Very well sang lass!

Arrietty: I didn't know you could sing so well Sydney.

Sydney: It's a hidden talent.

Nanette: I have a good one. It's called The Green Man by Martin Donnelly.

Natilee: That's a good choice.

Nanette went up and she was playing the guitar and the room turned into a beautiful Irish forest with a Red Stag in the background.

Nanette: (Signing)

The Eostre Sun

It cuts my eyes

Open to the wind and rain

All around, the Earth breathes deep

I come alive again

I am the Green Man of the woods

The wounded and the broken land

I am the fire in the red stag's eye

The touch of lover's hand

Of a lover's hand

Oh, let me speak

Lend me your tongue

To sing the trees and streams

Sing the dark blood of the hills
The Moon on goose's wings
I am the Green Man of the woods
The wounded and the broken land
I am the fire in the red stag's eye
The touch of lover's hand
Of a lover's hand
Oh, if you meet me in the fields
Don't you be alarmed
I've come to bring you joy
I'll do you no harm
Let us dance beneath the stars
The pale Moon in our eyes
And celebrate the mysterious
That keeps us all alive
That keeps us all alive
The time has come
For us to rise
From the wreaths and thorns
Return now from exile deep
Back where we belong
I am the Green Man of the woods

The thistle and the corn

The spark in every creature's heart

The dancer in the storm

I am the Green Man of the woods

The thistle and the corn

The spark in every creature's heart

The dancer in the storm

The dancer in the storm

The Red Stag was beautiful and when she was done they cheered wildly for her.

Natilee: (Irish Accent) That was well done lass!

Nico: Yeah it was! Great job.

Laney: So pretty.

Sheila: I have a song. It's Ready for The Storm.

Natilee: Good choice on that one.

Sheila went up and the song began and the room turned into an extremely violent storm at sea with lightning, rain, wind and huge waves.

Sheila: (Singing)

The waves crash in and the tide pulls out

It's an angry sea but there is no doubt

That the lighthouse will keep shining in the night

To warn the lonely sailor

The lightning strikes and the wind cuts cold

Through the sailor's bones, to the sailor's soul

'Till there's nothing left that he can hold

Except the roaring ocean

But I am ready for the storm, yes oh ready I'm

I'm ready for the storm, I'm ready for the storm

Give me mercy for my dreams, 'cause every confrontaion

Seems to tell me what it really means to be a lonely sailor

But when the sky begins to clear and the sun it melts away my fear

I cry a silent, weary tear at those that mean to love me

And I am ready for the storm, yes oh ready I'm

I'm ready for the storm, I'm ready for the storm

Distance it is no real friend, and time will take its time

And you will find that in the end it brings you near a lonely sailor

But when you take me by your side, you love me warm, you love me

And I should've realized I had no reason to be frightened

And I am ready for the storm, yes oh ready I'm

I'm ready for the storm, I'm ready for the storm (x2)

The storm was powerful and terrifying and when it was done everyone cheered wildly.

Natilee: That was great! Tells us all about the dangers of a violent storm at sea.

Nico: It sure does. Wow!

Rice Fitzgerald: I have a good one. Greensleeves.

Nico: That's a good one.

Laney: Yeah!

Natilee: It tells us all about the life of King Henry VIII.

Eli: Wow.

Rice went up and the song began and the room turned into 16th Century England.

Alas my love you do me wrong

To cast me off discourteously;

And I have loved you oh so long

Delighting in your company.

Greensleeves was my delight,

Greensleeves my heart of gold

Greensleeves was my heart of joy

And who but my lady Greensleeves.

I have been ready at your hand

To grant whatever thou would'st crave;

I have waged both life and land

Your love and goodwill for to have.

Greensleeves was my delight,

Greensleeves my heart of gold

Greensleeves was my heart of joy

And who but my lady Greensleeves.

Thy petticoat of slender white

With gold embroidered gorgeously;

Thy petticoat of silk and white

And these I bought gladly.

Greensleeves was my delight,

Greensleeves my heart of gold

Greensleeves was my heart of joy

And who but my lady Greensleeves.

They saw the terrible deeds of King Henry VIII and it was terrible. When it was done they cheered.

Natilee: (Irish Accent) Well done lass! That was great!

Nico: Yeah it was!

Lola: It was awesome!

Georgina: I have a song. It's actually one that J.D. knows. Forsaken by Within Temptation.

Brittney then came in.

Brittney: I heard you say that song and it's one of my favorites. May I listen with you guys?

Heidi: Sure Aunt Brittney.

She sat down.

The song played and Georgina got to singing and then the room turned into the major and epic wars we all went in.

Now the day has come

We are forsaken this time
We lived our lives in our paradise
As gods we shaped the world around
No borderlines we'd stay behind
Though balance is something fragile
While we thought we were gaining
We'd turn back the tide, it still slips away
Our time has run out, our future has died
There's no more escape
Now the day has come
We are forsaken
There's no time anymore
Life will pass us by
We are forsaken
We're the last of our kind
The sacrifice was much too high
Our greed just made us all go blind
We tried to hide what we feared inside
Today is the end of tomorrow
As the sea started rising
The land that we conquered just washed away
Although we all have tried to turn back the tide

It was all in vain

Now the day has come

We are forsaken

There's no time anymore

Life will pass us by

We are forsaken

Only ruins stay behind

Now the day has come

We are forsaken this time

Now the day has come

We are forsaken

There's no time anymore

Now the day has come

The day has come

The day has come

The room was lit up with the events of the massive battles we all had in the wars with Pariah Dark, Nerissa, The Royal Defenders, Barodius, The Zombie Argentinosaurus, The Capitol District, The War with The Zombies of Resident Evil, Necrafa, The Doomsday 23, Xehanort and more. It was all epic!

When the song was done everyone cheered wildly!

Eli: WHOA That was awesome!

Heidi: Yeah it was!

Twilight Sparkle: Wow! Those must've been some of the big major battles everyone has been on before we all joined the team.

Laney: That's right. They were some of the most intense battles we've ever had.

Eli: Wow! They sure looked incredibly brutal.

Nico: It was guys. Those were the most epic battles we've all been on.

Maxxine: I have a song.

She went up next.

Maxxine: It's called Drunken Sailor by The Irish Rovers. It's a Sea Shanty.

Popeye: Now that's more like it.

Nico: Love a good sea shanty.

Natilee: Go for it lass.

The song got underway and the room turned into the waves of the ocean.

Maxxine: (Singing)

What will we do with a drunken sailor?

What will we do with a drunken sailor?

What will we do with a drunken sailor?

Early in the morning!

Way hay and up she rises

The ocean was beautiful and when the song was done they cheered wildly.

Popeye: That was beautiful! Sailing be with you. (Laughs)

Nico: That was awesome! I love a good sea shanty.

Mr. Krabs: (Laughs) Me too lad.

Kendra: And I have a good one too. It's called Sailing Over the Dogger Bank.

Luna Loud: Rockin dudes!

Kendra went up and got a banjo ready.

She started playing and the ocean came.

Kendra: (Singing)

Sailin' over the Dogger Bank: Oh, wasn't it a treat?

Wind a-blowing east-nor'-east, we had to give a sheet!

You ought to see us runnin' the wind a-blowin' free,

On a passage from the Dogger Bank to gray Grimsby.

Watch out, twigger, she's a proper ju-be-ju.

Give 'er a sheet and let her rip we're the boys to pull her through!

You ought to see us runnin', the wind a-blowin' free,

On a passage from the Dogger Bank to gray Grimsby!

Our captain he's a Shanghai roush, he loves a pint of good ale.

Our mate he is a road stone-inspector, been seen in many's a jail.

Our third mate he's a bush ranger, he comes from the African Isle.

And take a look at our old cook it gets the bugger wild!

Watch out, twigger, she's a proper ju-be-ju.

Give 'er a sheet and let her rip we're the boys to pull her through!

You ought to see us runnin', the wind a-blowin' free,

On a passage from the Dogger Bank to gray Grimsby!

Watch out, twigger, as down the street she came.

High heels and painted toes, Jenny is on the game.

Jenny is one of your flash girls, can't she cut a shine?

She can do the double shuffle on the Knickerbocker line!

Watch out, twigger, she's a proper ju-be-ju.

Give 'er a sheet and let her rip we're the boys to pull her through!

You ought to see us runnin', the wind a-blowin' free,

On a passage from the Dogger Bank to gray Grimsby!

We are the boys to make a noise when we come home from sea.

We get right drunk, we roll on the floor, we have a jubilee- Eee!

We get right drunk and full of beer, we roll all over the floor,

And when our rent it is all spent we go to sea for more.

Watch out, twigger, she's a proper ju-be-ju.

Give 'er a sheet and let her rip we're the boys to pull her through!

You ought to see us runnin', the wind a-blowin' free,

On a passage from the Dogger Bank to gray Grimsby!

When the song was done they cheered wildly for her!

Nico: WOOHOO! That was awesome!

Lola: Yeah it was!

Luna Loud: Rockin dudes!

Heidi: Yeah!

Then their stomachs growls.

Heidi: Looks like it's time for us to eat. Lunch time everyone.

Supernova Zap: Good idea.

They went to the dining room.

Heidi: What do you guys want for lunch?

Eli: Hmm. How about Burgers?

Heidi: Ooh burgers are good. Lets do a vote. All for Burgers?

They all had their hands up.

Heidi: It's unanimous.

Heidi got to work and whipped up good burgers for everyone.

Heidi: Burgers for everyone and for Nico, a big bucket of chicken wings for him.

Nico: Oh boy!

They got to eating.

---

French Narrator: (French Accent) 45 minutes later.

---

All the burgers and wings were eaten and there were empty plates and a bucket of bones and they were burping all over.

Heidi: Ahh. (BURP) Pardon me.

Twilight Sparkle: (Burps) Sorry. That was great.

Nico: Man some of the best there was. (BURPS) Pardon me.

They were stuffed.

Later it was time for watching TV and then at 4:00 PM we all came back.

Heidi: Hey guys welcome back.

Me: Hey guys. You all have fun?

Heidi: We sure did grandpa.

She told us about everything that happened and we were amazed.

Leni: Wow! That was totes amazing.

Me: Glad you all had so much fun. A really great babysitting adventure in the books.

Nico: Can I talk to you and Eli in private J.D.?

Me: Sure.

Eli and Nico came with me into my room.

Me: What's up Nico?

Nico: (looks to see if no one else is there) J.D., is it okay if I take a vacation to the Aligned Universe?

Me: Well you more than earned a vacation buddy. You've done a really great job and a vacation for you is just what the doctor ordered.

Eli: Yeah man you earned it.

Me and Holly the Jirachi Gene-Slammer were flying over the beautiful Ural Mountains. It was a beautiful sight.

Me: Wow the Ural Mountains. These mountains are always so pretty.

Holly: (Icelandic Accent) I've always wanted to see this part of the world. It's amazing.

We then saw a nasty lightning and rain storm and it was over a terrifying castle. It was the castle of COUNT DRACULA from the 2004 movie Van Helsing.

---

In 1887 Transylvania, Dr. Victor Frankenstein, aided by his assistant, Igor and Count Dracula, creates a monster. Dracula kills Frankenstein, and as an angry, torch-bearing mob storms the Castle, the monster flees to a windmill with his dead creator cradled in his arms. The windmill burns down, apparently destroying the floor underneath the monster.

One year later, monster hunter Van Helsing kills Mr. Hyde after a brawl in Notre-Dame de Paris. Van Helsing pursues evil on behalf of the Holy Order, which has protected mankind "from time immemorial." Van Helsing, who remembers nothing before he was found crawling up the steps of a church, hopes to earn pardon for his forgotten sins and thereby regain his memory.

At the Order's Vatican City headquarters, Cardinal Jinette gives Van Helsing a mission: Go to Transylvania, destroy Dracula and protect the two survivors of an ancient Romanian family, the Valerious. Their ancestor vowed that his descendants would kill Dracula, or spend eternity in Purgatory. He gives Van Helsing the corner of a Medieval painting that reads "In the name of God, open this door" and bears the same insignia as Van Helsing's ring.

In the Order's laboratory, men of every faith create devices to battle evil. Carl, an eccentric friar and inventor, equips Van Helsing and joins him. Meanwhile, In Transylvania, Anna and Velkan Valerious attempt to kill a werewolf controlled by Dracula, but it falls with Velkan into a deep river gorge.

A month later, Van Helsing and Carl arrive in the village and join Anna's fight with Dracula's brides - Verona, Marishka, and Aleera. Van Helsing slays Marishka. That night, Velkan, now a werewolf, visits Anna. When clouds cover the moon, he reveals that Dracula has a secret, but the moon emerges before he can finish. He flees to Castle Frankenstein, pursued by Anna and Van Helsing.

Dracula is duplicating Frankenstein's experiments to give life to his thousands of undead children, using Velkan as a conduit. He greets Van Helsing as an old acquaintance, "Gabriel".

Velkan succumbs to his curse. Dracula's children disintegrate. Van Helsing and Anna escape. In Anna's castle, Carl discovers a hidden painting of two knights fighting by moonlight. He reads the inscription aloud. It comes to life, and the knights transform into a vampire and a werewolf, at each other's throats.

Van Helsing and Anna find Frankenstein's monster in a cave. He is the key to Dracula's plans. En route to Rome, they are ambushed by the brides and Velkan, near Budapest. Verona and Velkan are killed, but Van Helsing is bitten. Aleera kidnaps Anna and offers to trade her for the monster at a masquerade ball. Van Helsing locks the monster in a crypt, but the undead retrieves him for Dracula. The masquerade ball is a vampires-only affair, but Van Helsing and Carl rescue Anna, destroying the vampires with Carl's light-emitting bomb.

At Anna's castle, Carl explains that Dracula is the son of Valerious the elder. When he was killed in 1462 by "the left hand of God", Dracula made a covenant with the Devil and lived again. Valerious was told to kill Dracula and gain salvation for his entire family.

Unable to kill his son, he imprisoned him in an icy fortress. The fragment the Cardinal gave Van Helsing reveals the way.

The captured monster tells them that Dracula possesses a cure for lycanthropy-because only a werewolf can kill him. Van Helsing, fighting the curse, sends Igor, Anna, and Carl to retrieve the cure, while he frees the monster. Unfortunately, the monster is struck by lightning, bringing Dracula's children to life. Dracula, spotting Van Helsing, transforms into a demonic form, fighting Van Helsing in werewolf form. Dracula tells Van Helsing "It was you that murdered me!". Van Helsing rejects his offer to restore his memories and bites Dracula, destroying him and his children. Anna injects the cure; he kills her, howling in grief as he becomes human.

Van Helsing and Carl burn Anna's body on a cliff overlooking the sea. The monster departs by raft, and Van Helsing sees Anna's spirit reuniting with her family in Heaven. She smiles at him. Van Helsing and Carl ride off into the sunset.

---

Holly: Oh wow! That's a great movie!

Me: One of my favorites and the castle here looks like a true fortress from Hell.

Holly: It sure does. This is a scary place.

We landed.

Holly: This place gives me the creeps.

Holly then started shrinking.

Me: It sure is a terrifying place.

Holly turned into JIRACHI!

Me: YEAH!

We went into the fortress and it was a scary place. Creepy as all get out. I held on to Holly's clothes.

Me: What a scary fortress.

Holly Jirachi: Yeah. How come Dracula is like this?

Me: From what I remember it was not a very well liked one.

I went over his history.

Count Vladislaus Dracula was the main antagonist in the 2004 dark fantasy horror action film Van Helsing . He was another version of the Dracula character. He was the arch-enemy of Gabriel Van Helsing and his main goal was to bring life to his vampire children, thus allow his vampire people to live forever.

He was portrayed by Richard Roxburgh, who also played Hugh Stamp in Mission Impossible II and the Duke of Monroth in Moulin Rouge .

Background

Born in 1422, Dracula was actually the son of Valerious The Elder and lived in the very castle his descendants did 450 years onwards. In 1462, Dracula was apparently murdered by the left hand of God, but his spirit made a pact with Satan for a new life, which Satan agreed to yet he had to sustain his life by drinking the blood of others. Valerious The Elder was ashamed that he had sired the evil being and banished him to an icy fortress, sending him through a door from which there was no return, but the Devil then gave Dracula wings so he was free to come and go. Valerious The Elder then sought forgiveness from God and made his own vow for future generations to have Dracula slain so they may enter heaven. The descendants of Valerious The Elder were unsuccessful for centuries however because Dracula resisted every known form of vampiric weaknesses and escaped death, but learned that Dracula had a Werewolf cure for unknown reasons.

1887

Dracula recommended to Dr. Frankenstein to make a creature that could show that God wasn't the only one who could make life, in an attempt to bring his children to life. After the creature was created, Dr. Frankenstein refused to give it away for such a malevolent use against God's will. Dracula murdered the Doctor, but the creature woke up and threw a giant machine towards Dracula, who was sent backwards against the fire of the smokestack. While the creature escaped with Frankenstein's dead body, Dracula came out of the fire, barely bleeding and with some burns that healed almost instantly. After the creature escaped, Dracula began looking for a new way of bringing his children to life. Dracula tried a similar process with Boris Valerious as a substitute for the monster, but the experiment had not worked, which brought sorrow to Dracula's Brides.

---

He was awoken from his icy sleep when his Bride Marishka died, shouting out her name in grief. He also felt the presence of Van Helsing, like someone familiar to him but he couldn't understand why. He planned to awaken his children again, but his Brides told him not to, as another loss would be too much pain to hold. He screamed to them in a vampiric way, making his Brides frightened, but he pleaded with them not to fear him and said that everybody feared him, but his Brides did not, whereupon they sprang at him and nuzzled and caressed him. Before leaving with his Brides, he ordered Igor (a former assistant of Dr. Frankenstein's) and the Dwergi to move to Frankenstein's lab, where they will try to bring the children back to life.

After Velkan Valerious (Anna's brother who had been bitten by a werewolf) went to Frankenstein's lab, Dracula told him about Velkan's father (who had disappeared a year ago). Velkan's father was used as a power source to bring Dracula's children to life. Though Velkan tried to fight Dracula in a sudden burst of rage, Dracula hold him off with nothing but his finger, and put him in the machine to use him as power source.

Moments after his children came to life, Van Helsing (who followed the werewolf with Anna) started shooting the children, so Dracula attacked him. Though Dracula couldn't find Van Helsing he was still able to hear his heart beat. After some minutes, Dracula gave up looking for him, only to be suddenly stabbed in the heart with a silver stake. Though Van Helsing thought he had killed him, Dracula took out the stake after greeting Van Helsing, calling him by name. He asked Van Helsing how long has it been, something to which Van Helsing couldn't understand. Dracula knew he had lost his memories, and so he asked if he had nightmares of ancient battles. In a final attempt, Van Helsing used a crucifix, that only melted in Dracula's hand. Dracula replied that they would talk in another moment. After Van Helsing escaped with Anna while they were been chased by the werewolf Velkan, the children died and Dracula ordered the werewolf to kill them both.

After the Werewolf found the location of Frankenstein's monster, Dracula ordered him and his Brides to retrieve it and bring it to the castle, so they could finally gave eternal life to his children. Though one of his Brides, Verona, and the werewolf died (though biting Van Helsing) the remaining Bride, Aleera, kidnapped Anna in an exchange between Anna and the monster. Though Van Helsing hid the monster in a graveyard, Dracula seemed to have thought ahead and placed Igor in the graveyard, who captured the monster. During a masquerade ball in Dracula's summer palace, he tried to bite Anna and turn her into his newest Bride, but Van Helsing and Carl were able to save her, though Dracula only cared for having the monster. Later at his castle, he had the monster hoisted up to bring life to his children, knocking Van Helsing from the top of his tower when he arrived and tried to prevent this.

When his children revive successfully, Dracula confronts Van Helsing with this, and to his shock his foe transforms into a Werewolf. Transforming into his Hellbeast form to match Van Helsing's strength, the two engaged in a brutal fight, which leaves Dracula scratched up by the end of the first round. Attempting to ally with him and again offers to restore his memory after Helsing returns to human form following the moon being dimmed out, Van Helsing verbally refused Dracula and finally killed him for good after transforming back by biting his throat, with the Werewolf venom coursing through his veins rotting the very flesh from Dracula's skeleton.

---

Holly Jirachi: Whoa that is a bad history.

Me: Yeah. That's why the only known thing to kill Dracula is a werewolf.

Holly Jirachi: Like J.D. the Nocturnal?

Me: Bingo.

I then growled and I turned into J.D. THE NOCTURNAL!

Me: (Beastly Voice) Now things are gonna be good.

I sniffed the air.

Me: Dracula is this way.

We went down the hall and then we went into a big lab.

Me: Wow what a lab.

Then we felt a massive surge of electricity.

Dracula (Van Helsing): (Transylvanian Accent) GIVE ME LIFE!

Me: Whoa what power.

Holly Jirachi: Yeah.

Dracula (Van Helsing): One more bolt and my young will live!

Me: If you survive that long!

Me and Holly came out!

Dracula (Van Helsing): Who are you?

Me: J.D. Knudson, Leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm and direct descendent of Van Helsing and your worst nightmare!

Dracula (Van Helsing): (Laughs) So you are a werewolf too.

Me: That's right. And I'm also known in this form as J.D. The Nocturnal! (ROARS)

Dracula (Van Helsing): You have full control over your werewolf powers!? How is that possible!?

Me: Guess I'm really special. (ROARS)

Dracula turned into his demon vampire form and I went at him and slashed him all over and kicked him in the face and fired blasts of moonlight at him and burned him all over. Dracula then got kicked in the face and I smashed him down.

I then saw Van Helsing come out and he landed on the ground and he got up.

We landed by him.

Van Helsing: You are a werewolf too?

Me: A special one. But it's a pleasure to meet family.

Van Helsing: Family?

Holly Jirachi: We'll explain later.

The clock struck 12 and tolled for midnight. Then Van Helsing screamed in pain and we saw the Full Moon! Van Helsing was changing!

Dracula: NO! This cannot be!

Van Helsing turned into THE WOLFMAN!

Van Helsing: (ROAR!)

Dracula (Van Helsing): (Laughs)

Me: Control it Van Helsing. Reign it in with the strength of your will and tame it.

Van Helsing then tamed his werewolf side and he turned into like me as J.D. the Nocturnal!

Van Helsing: (Beastly Voice) Wow! I did it!

Me: YEAH! Way to go! Now lets kill this son of a bitch!

Holly Jirachi: YEAH!

?: Let us help too.

7 figures came out and they were a Humpty Egg, Eevee, Espeon, Glaceon, Leafeon, Umbreon and Sylveon!

Me: Wow a Humpty Egg and an Eevee and the rest of the Eevee Evolutions.

Galus: That's right. I'm Galus. We can introduce ourselves later. Lets get him.

We went at Dracula and punched and slashed and blasted him all over and then we had him pinned down.

Van Helsing then reverted back because the Full moon was covered by the clouds.

Dracula (Van Helsing): Did I mention that it was you who murdered me? It must be such a burden, such a curse to be the Left Hand of God.

Dracula came down to us.

Dracula (Van Helsing): What I want is life Gabriel. The continuation of my kind. And perhaps J.D., the return of my ring.

I saw that I had Dracula's ring on my right ring finger.

Me: I think it looks better on me than it did you.

Dracula (Van Helsing): Don't be afraid Gabriel. Don't be afraid. I shall give you back your life. Your memories.

Van Helsing: Some things are better left forgotten.

The full moon came out again and Van Helsing turned into his werewolf form again and we jumped at Dracula and then I bit him and ripped his neck open!

Me: BLECH!

Dracula then disintegrated into a skeleton and was destroyed.

Me: YEAH!

Holly Jirachi: In the words of Nico, Dracula you have failed this universe.

Me: Yes he has.

Anna Valerious came and me and Van Helsing reverted back.

Me: Nothing is gonna get the bad taste of Dracula's blood out of my mouth.

Van Helsing: Thank you all for helping me out.

Me: Anytime ancestor.

Anna Valerious: (Romanian Accent) What happened here?

Me: Lots of things.

Carl then came and we told them everything that happened.

Van Helsing: Wow that's incredible.

Me: It is.

Carl (Van Helsing): That is amazing.

Me: It sure is. And it was a great honor to fight alongside family.

Van Helsing: Indeed J.D. You have done the Helsing line proud.

Me: I'm honored.

We shook hands.

We later went over to the beach.

Van Helsing, Anna and Carl rode off into the sunset together. Anna's family can now rest in peace and go up to Heaven now that Dracula is dead.

Glaceon: That was intense.

Eevee: It sure was. By the way J.D. we never introduced ourselves. I'm Natalee Emerson and these are my sisters Moira (Espeon Nods), Taylor (Leafeon Nods), Laura (Glaceon Nods), Lucillia (Umbreon Nods), And Birdie (Sylveon Nods).

Me: Pleasure to meet you all.

Holly: Same here.

Galus: Thank goodness we killed Dracula.

Me: Yeah. I can give you all the power to change at will and use your powers.

Leafeon: We would like that.

Moira: We sure would.

Me: Awesome. We have 3 more Gene-Slammers for the rest of the Eevee evolutions and they are a Jolteon, Vaporeon and Flareon.

Umbreon: That's cool!

I put on my blind man glasses.

Me: Here we go. (Snaps fingers)

The girls turned into said Pokemon reverted back and they were naked.

Holly reverted back and she was naked too.

Holly: (Covers herself) Thank goodness Van Helsing and Carl didn't see us like this.

Natalee: (Covers herself) Yeah that's good.

Laura: (Covers herself) No kidding.

I gave them all new clothes and they put them on and I gave Holly her clothes and she put them on.

Me: Lets head back to the estate.

We went back home.

---

Later me and Sydney were walking to the Orphanage.

Sydney: Thanks for coming with me to the orphanage J.D.

Me: Anytime Sydney. I'm never too busy to help out to the kids of the orphanage.

Sydney: (to me) What stories should we tell at the Orphanage?

Me: I was thinking we can share the stories of some of our most amazing adventures.

Sydney: Good idea. The kids will like that.

Me: Especially all the gifts for donations that we give them.

We were pulling a red wagon with presents for the kids.

Sydney: The kids will love all these presents.

We arrived at the Gotham Royal York Orphanage.

We went in and all the kids saw us.

Me: Hey kids.

Kid 1: Hey J.D.!

Kids: Hey J.D.! Hey Sydney!

Sydney: Hey kids. Look what we have for you.

We gave them great gifts. We got them toys, games and a brand new TV for them because their TV broke.

Kid 2: Oh boy! A new TV!

Me: Lets get it set up for you.

We got the TV set up for them and it worked amazingly. We later got to story time.

Kid 1: J.D. what are some of your adventures like?

Me: They are always really fun and adventurous. We go to places never before seen and never thought possible.

Girl 1: What was the scariest adventure you've had?

Me: Well that kind of adventure will give you guys nightmares. The scariest adventure we've had would be this.

I told them what happened in chapter 784. When I was done the kids were in awe and somewhat scared.

Girl 2: Wow! Were you all scared?

Me: Yeah I was scared. But my will to not give into fear was very strong for that whole adventure.

Boy 1: Wow! You are really brave.

I told them all about what happened during the events of chapters 575, 901, 927, 1000 and more. Everyone was amazed! It was a fun time at the Orphanage.

Lincoln, Earth Chan, and Sari Sumdac were heading to Ocean City in Maryland. Earth Chan was in a two-piece bikini with colors and designs based on the Earth and stars, and Sari Sumdac was dressed in a two-piece peach-colored bikini decorated with crimson flames and the Autobot symbol.

Lincoln: Now, this is what I call an awesome start to a week of awesome dates to the beautiful beaches in The United States and across the world.

Earth Chan: You said it, Linky, and there's so many places here in Ocean City to visit, such as the souvenir shop.

Sari Sumdac: We'd better make sure to get some souvenirs for everyone back in the Estate, and we'd better get some for Nico, May, and Maria.

Lincoln, Earth, and Sari were enjoying swimming in the ocean, playing in the sand, and resting out in the sun to work on their tan. Suddenly, they saw the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs glowing, and then, they heard the sound of a cage closing.

CLANG!

Sari Sumdac: What on Earth was that?

Lincoln: That was something I set up, just in case there's trouble while going out to the beach. Follow me.

Lincoln, Earth Chan, and Sari Sumdac went to where they heard the clanging, and once they arrive to the sight, they saw a steel cage and inside of the cage were none other than Trump's supporters, who were still out for blood.

Earth Chan: Trump supporters, what are they doing here?

Lincoln: I should've known they'd come out to attack us, so I decided to set up cage traps, targeting Trump supporters, and once they set foot on the traps, the cage will close on them, and that'll cause the eight large orange orbs orbiting around my legs to glow.

Trump Supporter: When we get out of this, we will kill you all for killing Trump!

Lincoln: Don't count on it.

Lincoln called Agent Waco and the FBI, who arrived in Ocean City, and with armored trucks in tow, and they started loading the Trump supporters into the truck, and by their count, there was about 9,990 of them. Once they were loaded into the trucks, the Trump supporters were then sent packing and were on their way to federal prison, just like the rest of the supporters of the madman.

Lincoln, me, Nicole, Yusuke, Luna Loud, and The Lightspeed Rescue Power Rangers were off to rescue another girl who's been kidnapped by McWolf, while Nico, May, and Maria were on their vacation in the Aligned Transformers universe. The next girl McWolf's holding is in Lansing, Michigan.

Lincoln: So, the next girl McWolf is holding is right here in Lansing, Michigan.

Me: He's chosen a spot close to home.

Yusuke: You and your family haven't travelled to Lansing before, have you, Lincoln?

Lincoln: No, the only places we've travelled to here in Michigan are Great Lakes City, Endsville, and Detroit.

We arrived in McWolf's castle, and we went to the room where he was holding the girl. We saw that the girl McWolf kidnapped was Hana Uzaki.

Lincoln: Wow, it's Hana Uzaki from Uzaki-chan Wants to Hang Out!.

Nicole: That's from one of your favorite Manga, Lincoln.

Lincoln went up to Hana and freed her.

Hana Uzaki: Thanks for freeing me.

Then, when Hana Uzaki saw who freed her, she had a small blush on her face when she saw the 7'0" tall, bare-chested, handsome, white-haired, and extremely muscular hunk with deep sapphire blue eyes, she had a blush on her face upon seeing Lincoln.

Hana Uzaki: Oh, wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you, Hana.

Hana Uzaki: Same here, handsome.

Then, McWolf came out.

Yusuke: That was rather unexpected of you to pick an area not that far from Gotham Royal York to build your castle, McWolf.

McWolf: I decided on a little rescue close to home for this one, and since you have the Lightspeed Rescue Power Rangers with you, here's a little something from me and Vypra. BATLINGS!

Then, an army of Batlings appeared from the darkness.

Carter Grayson: Batlings, I should've guessed you chose to summon them. Alright, guys, let's do this.

Yusuke: Count me in, as well.

The Lightspeed Rescue Power Rangers, Lincoln, and Yusuke walked up to the army of Batlings.

Lightspeed Rescue Rangers and Lincoln: LIGHTSPEED RESCUE!

The Lightspeed Rescue Rangers transformed, and Lincoln transformed into his new Lightspeed Rescue Power Ranger form, but his Lightspeed Rescue Power Ranger uniform is orange, and it goes well with his Sword of Taranis he unholstered from his wider muscular back, along with the eight large orange orbs orbiting around his legs, and he spreads his larger blue angel wings surging with powerful super lightning and with stars and blue nebulae reflecting in them.

Carter Grayson: Red Ranger Rescue Ready!

Chad Lee: Blue Ranger Rescue Ready!

Joel Rawlings: Green Ranger Rescue Ready!

Kelsey Winslow: Yellow Ranger Rescue Ready!

Dana Mitchell: Pink Ranger Rescue Ready!

Ryan Mitchell: Titanium Ranger Rescue Ready!

Lincoln: Orange Ranger Rescue Ready!

Lightspeed Rescue Rangers and Lincoln: RESCUE READY!
POWER RANGERS LIGHTSPEED RESCUE!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive explosion erupted behind them, and then, Yusuke's eyes turned red with demon slits, and he'd transformed into his Mazoku form, and that caused McWolf to scream and his fur fell off, and regrew.

McWolf: W-what did I just see?!

Yusuke: I guess Vypra never told you about it, McWolf. You see, I'm known as a Mazoku-Human Hybrid, and I'm the descendant of Raizen, who's known as a Mazoku, a powerful demon in The Demon Realm.

McWolf: Vypra's going to have to explain this later, anyways, let's do this.

Lincoln: Right.

The Lightspeed Rescue Rangers, Lincoln, and Yusuke went after the Batlings, and blasted them with powerful blasts of spirit energy, neon blue energy blasts, and elemental blasts, and destroyed them. Then, Lincoln changed back to normal, and he, Luna Loud, and me jumped McWolf, and tickled him.

McWolf: (LAUGHING HYSTERICALLY)

We ceased the tickling, helped McWolf up, and left the castle to head back to the Estate. It was right then from there that Vypra came in. She saw the fight, and even seeing Yusuke transform into his Mazoku form.

Vypra: I saw the fight, and I saw Yusuke transform into his Mazoku form, so it's true, Yusuke is indeed the blood descendent of Raizen, the Mazoku.

Me: You have, Vypra?

Vypra: Yes, I have, J.D. Raizen was known as the most powerful Demon King in the Demon World, and his power is no joke, even Bansheera was afraid of what he'll do to her.

Me: Wow!

Vypra: Cool huh?

Me: Yep.

Hana Uzuki: Wow. That's so cool.

Me: It sure is. Lets head home.

We went back to the estate.

In the world of the Aligned Transformers, Nico, May and Maria arrived.

Nico: Guys, I'd like you to meet May and Maria.

May: Hello there.

Maria: Nice to meet ya.

Aligned Bumblebee: Pleasure to meet you girls. Nico told us so much about you all.

Strongarm: Yeah you girls are awesome.

May: Thanks.

Maria: We are great with him.

Miko: Did you two come with Nico to get away from J.D.? If you did, I don't blame you.

Nico: No we did not come to get away. We're on vacation. J.D. said we earned it.

May: That's right. We could use one after everything that happened.

Maria: Yep.

Miko: Oh that makes sense.

Nico: And if possible we would like recruit Knock Out into the Redemption Squad.

RID Optimus: That is a wise choice.

Knock Out: (to Maria) So, this Redemption Squad of yours includes Decepticons as well?

Maria: Just about every Decepticon except G1 Starscream and G1 Megatron.

Knock Out: Where do I sign up?

Maria: With me because I'm the 2nd in Command of the Redemption Squad.

Nico: Also I'm the new leader of the Decepticons.

Nico showed his leadership medal.

Knock Out: Whoa a Decepticon Leadership Medal.

Nico: Long story on that.

Knock Out: I'm in and my allegiance is with you Nico.

Nico: Well said.

May: Lets go shopping first.

Nico: Sure.

They went to the mall.

Maria: I hope this mall doesn't get attacked by terrorists.

Miko: Why do you say that?

May: In our universe, the Mall that we go to for some good shopping is constantly being attacked by terrorists and they are always ruining our good shopping excursions.

Nico: Yeah it's crazy. But we save a lot of people from them as a result from them.

Miko: That's good you do.

Sierra: Hey, Jack! Long time no see!

Jack: Same here Sierra. (Blushes)

Nico: I can tell that you two have feelings for each other.

Sierra: (Blushes) We do?

Nico: In my team we have a habit of picking up on these things.

May: Yeah it's part of our powers.

Sierra: Oh I get it.

They had a great time at the mall.

Back at the estate, the Trinity of Violence came to Poromon.

Poromon: (to the Trinity of Violence) Hey, girls. What's up?

Lynn: Well, me and one of my sports teams have a game coming up. And me, Lola, and Lori are handing out t shirts to promote the game. (gives us all said T Shirts)

Poliwag: These are very nice.

Lola: Glad you think so? (looks around) Have you guys seen Nico, Maria, or May lately?

Lugnut: They are on vacation. And we cannot tell you where they are. They wish to keep it a secret.

Lori: Well, if you literally don't want to tell the three of us right now, we'll respect your decision.

Lynn: Just be glad it's us asking and not Lincoln, Laney, Lily, Lisa, Luna, or Luan.

William: What do you mean?

Lori: Lately, they've literally been taking offense to some of Nico's leadership decisions. I can't imagine what might happen if they confront you guys about this secret.

Lola: But we'll let you guys tell us this secret when you feel like it. Same with Lucy, Lana, and Leni.

Lucy Loud: We understand.

Lola: Good.

Me and Hayley Schmidt were flying over the town of Silverton in Oklahoma and what we saw was shocking! We saw tornadoes appearing left and right all over the town! We even saw a firenado!

Me: WHOA! I've never seen a storm this violent!

Hayley Schmidt: No kidding! This is incredible!

Me: GEEZ!

Hayley: The fire shouldn't burn me too much.

Me: It won't. But it's THAT that we have to worry about.

We saw how bad the storm was and it was incredible!

Me: We got to get everyone out of here! I think I know what this is. This is the town from the 2014 movie Into The Storm!

Hayley Schmidt: WHOA!

In the town of Silverton, Oklahoma, the local high school senior class is preparing for graduation. The high school's vice-principal, Gary Fuller, has asked his two sons, Trey and Donnie, to record messages from the seniors 1 and 2 for a time capsule to be opened in 25 years. Elsewhere, Pete, a veteran storm chaser, has been attempting to intercept and film tornadoes using a Tornado Intercept Vehicle nicknamed Titus, but has come up short all year long. Upon learning of a major line of developing storms, the chasers decide to head for Silverton in hopes of filming tornadoes. After arriving in Silverton, the team discovers that the cell they had been chasing has dissipated, but the Silverton cell abruptly strengthens, resulting in a hailstorm and tornado. As the team films, the funnel shifts course and heads for the high school.

At the high school, the weather suddenly sours. The students are marshaled into the school building. In the aftermath of the tornado, shaken students emerge from the damaged building to view the destruction, while Gary sets out to rescue his eldest son Donnie, who had gone to an abandoned paper mill to help his friend Kaitlyn with a project; both were subsequently trapped when the tornado brought the building down on them.

As Pete's storm chase team stops in a small part of town, a tornado takes shape just as Gary and Trey arrive, destroying several buildings. Before the tornado dissipates Gary must save Pete's meteorologist, Allison Stone. Then, Pete's team agree to help Gary get to the paper mill. While en route, another round of tornadoes form and encircle Pete's team, in the process destroying a residential neighborhood and a car lot. An explosion turns one of the tornadoes into a firenado, which Jacob the cameraman, tries to film, only to be caught up in the storm and killed. This causes friction in the team, as Pete's concern seems to be more on collecting data than ensuring his team's safety. After recovering their vehicles, Allison leaves with Gary to continue their trip to the paper mill.

At the mill, a water pipe abruptly breaks and begins to flood the hole in which the two students are trapped. Injured and at risk of drowning, the two record messages for their loved ones, then prepare for the worst. At the last minute, Gary and Allison arrive and successfully free them.

In the skies above Silverton, a convergence of two large tornadoes results in a colossal EF-5 tornado that threatens to level the town. The town's citizens have taken shelter at the school, but Pete's team determines that the school's storm shelter will be inadequate. Unable to alert the school's staff with mobile devices, Pete's team rushes to the school. While citizens rush to board school buses, Pete and his team follow the storm, but the last school bus and a handful of cars are cut off from the retreat due to a downed transmission tower.

The storm chasers and school refugees take cover in a storm drain at a construction site, but debris from the tornado damages one of the storm grates, compromising the shelter. In an attempt to save lives, Pete hands over his research hard drives to Gary, then sacrifices himself by leaving the shelter to move Titus down to the storm grate, to use the vehicle to anchor the storm grate to the concrete face. Titus's equipment proves unable to anchor the vehicle to the ground, and the tornado picks up the vehicle. From the camera turret aboard Titus, Pete observes the funnel of the tornado as the vehicle is lifted above the clouds, before then crashing to the ground, killing him and wrecking Titus. Shortly thereafter, the EF-5 tornado dissipates.

In the aftermath of the tornado outbreak, the townspeople begin to clean up and rebuild. As Gary's sons complete their time capsule film, many of those they interview express a newfound appreciation for their lives. Allison praises Pete's sacrifice and dedication to science.

The last footage shows two local daredevils Donk and Reevis, who were sucked up by the tornado, to have survived the storm.

---

We then saw 2 tornadoes appear and we saw them merge!

Me: HOLY SHIT!

Hayley Schmidt: WHOA! Look at that!

Me: That is a Category 6!

Hayley Schmidt: Category 6!? That would make it over 318 miles per hour!

Me: Yep. This whole town is gonna be wiped off the map!

The whole tornado had a base that was over a mile wide! The warning systems and everything were out and everyone was sitting ducks.

Hayley Schmidt: We got to stop that tornado!

She grew dark fire wings.

Me: We can only form a force field to prevent the damage.

She turned into GALAR MOLTRES!

I formed a force field and encased the whole town in it and the Tornado went over it and it was intensely strong! I was straining from the sheer magnitude of the power the tornado had!

Me: (STRAINING) THIS IS TOO MUCH!

Hayley Moltres: HOLD ON J.D.!

?: Let us help!

A figure came out and it was a Nurarihyon from Japanese Legend.

Me: Whoa you're a Nurarihyon from Japanese Legend.

Yomika: That's right. We are known as the Darkness Spirits. I'm Yomika. It's an honor.

A Copperajah appeared.

Copperajah: (Indian Accent) And it's an honor to meet you J.D. My name is Aarna Ramachandran.

Me: Pleasure to meet you both.

Yomika: Lets help him out!

They channeled their energy and the force field was holding and then 43 minutes later the tornado vanished and it was gone.

Me: WHEW! That was intense!

Hayley Moltres: WHOA! That was powerful!

Copperajah: But thank goodness this whole town is safe.

Yomika: Thanks to you J.D.

Me: All of us had a hand in it. Aarna, Yomika thank you all.

Yomika: Anytime.

Me: Aarna how would you like to have the power to change at will and use Copperajah's powers?

Aarna: I would like that J.D.

Me: Awesome.

I put on my blind man glasses and snap my fingers and Aarna reverted back. She was naked.

Hayley reverted back too and she was naked too.

Aarna: (Covers herself) That was an intense tornado.

Hayley: (Covers herself) Wow no kidding.

I gave them new clothes and Aarna's outfit was a Sari and it was green and copper.

Aarna: Thanks J.D.

Me: This had to be the most intense storm ever.

Yomika: You aren't kidding. That had to be the most tornadoes I've ever seen from one storm.

Me: Yeah no kidding. Lets head home.

We went back home.

---

Later Varie and Nanette were heading to a great restaurant.

Nanette: (to Varie) Varie, you know how to cook, right?

Varie: I sure do. I know many recipes and everything.

Nanette: Awesome. Thanks for coming to help me out in this.

Varie: Anytime Nanette.

They went to an awesome and amazing restaurant that was most incredible. It was called The Jeweled Diamond.

Varie: Whoa! The Jeweled Diamond is where we're going!? This is one of the most expensive restaurants in all of the city and the world. It's a 10 Diamond Restaurant and getting reservations for this place is almost impossible.

Nanette: It sure is. But I'm up for the challenge.

They went in and they made amazingly exquisite food that the gods would worship and it was amazing. They made everything from all over the world and more and everyone loved it.

Lincoln, Lily the Mermaid, Nanami Simpson, Yuna Kamihara, Ariel's sisters, and Tatsumaki (One Punch Man) were heading off to the beach in Florida. Tatsumaki is dressed in a dark green two-piece bikini with green flames.

Lincoln: Wow, the beach here in Florida is quite amazing.

Lily the Mermaid: You said it, Linky, and it'll be great to have a vacation after our adventures.

Lincoln and the girls were having fun in the ocean, especially when they were deep-sea diving, and getting a tan out in the sun. Suddenly, they saw the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs glowing, and it means trouble. Then, they heard the sound of a clang not far from here.

CLANG!

Nanami Simpson: What was that?

Lincoln: My trap's gone off. You see, while off on our dates, those Trump supporters are going to try and ambush us, so I had to be prepared. Yesterday, my trap in Ocean City had caught a ton of Trump supporters who were out to kill me, Sari, and Earth.

Lincoln and the girls went up and as they got to the cage, they saw who they caught: 9,643 Trump supporters, who were out for blood, and they had weapons. Lincoln called Agent Waco and The FBI, who got here to Florida, and loaded the Trump supporters into armored cars, and carted them off to jail.

Later we were heading to California.

Lincoln, me, Nicole, Kimiko, Luan Loud, and The Zeo Rescue Power Rangers were off to rescue another girl who's been kidnapped by McWolf, and the next girl McWolf's holding is in Los Angeles, California.

Lincoln: So, the next girl McWolf is holding is right here in Los Angeles, California.

Me: Los Angeles, a city that's known as The City of Angels.

Kimiko: But, this city does have its demons, and they're in the form of serial killers.

Lincoln: There's been some murders reported here in Los Angeles, and you're right, Kimiko, The City of Angels has its demons.

We arrived in McWolf's castle which was north of Los Angeles, and we went to the room where he was holding the girl. We saw that the girl McWolf kidnapped was Solange Blanchefleur de Lux from Code of Princesses.

Lincoln: Wow, it's Solange Blanchefleur de Lux.

Nicole: From Code of Princesses, looks like McWolf has decided to pick out girls from royal families for you to rescue, Lincoln.

Lincoln went up to Solange Blanchefleur de Lux and freed her.

Solange Blanchefleur de Lux: Thanks for freeing me.

Then, when Solange Blanchefleur de Lux saw who freed her, she had a small blush on her face when she saw the 7'0" tall, bare-chested, handsome, white-haired, and extremely muscular hunk with deep sapphire blue eyes, she had a blush on her face upon seeing Lincoln.

Solange Blanchefleur de Lux: Oh, wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you, Solange.

Lincoln and the rest of us bowed before Solange Blanchefleur de Lux, in respect since she's of royal blood.

Solange Blanchefleur de Lux: Same here, handsome, and there's no need to bow.

Lincoln: I know, but just like J.D., we have to show our respect for royalty.

Solange Blanchefleur de Lux: Very appropriate.

Then, McWolf came out.

Kimiko: Building your castle here in Los Angeles was probably a great idea, McWolf.

McWolf: Hey, I always liked the big city with lights and parties, and since you have the Zeo Power Rangers with you, I've got just the baddies for you to fight. TENGA WARRIORS!

Then, an army of Tenga Warriors appeared from the darkness.

Tommy Oliver: Tenga Warriors, I should've known you'd summon them, McWolf. Alright, guys, let's do this.

Kimiko: Count me in, as well.

The Zeo Power Rangers, Lincoln, and Kimiko walked up to the army of Tenga Warriors.

Zeo Power Rangers and Lincoln: IT'S MORPHIN TIME!

The Zeo Rangers transformed, and Lincoln transformed into his new Zeo Power Ranger form, but his Zeo Power Ranger uniform and helmet is orange with black visor in the form of a lightning bolt, and it goes well with his Sword of Taranis he unholstered from his wider muscular back, along with the eight large orange orbs orbiting around his legs, and he spreads his larger blue angel wings surging with powerful super lightning and with stars and blue nebulae reflecting in them.

Lincoln: Zeo Ranger VIII: ORANGE!

Tommy Oliver: Zeo Ranger V: RED!

Adam Park: Zeo Ranger IV: GREEN!

Rocky DeSantos: Zeo Ranger III: BLUE!

Tanya Sloan: Zeo Ranger II: YELLOW!

Katherine Hillard: Zeo Ranger I: PINK!

Jason Scott Lee: Gold Zeo Ranger!

Zeo Rangers and Lincoln: POWER RANGERS ZEO!

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive explosion erupted behind them.

Me: Wow, Lincoln looks awesome as a Zeo Power Ranger.

Luan: Light those birdbrains up, Lincoln, and burn them down.

McWolf: Alright, let's do this.

Lincoln: Right.

The Zeo Rangers, Lincoln, and Kimiko went after the Tenga Warriors, and blasted them with powerful blasts of fire, neon blue energy blasts, and elemental blasts, and slashed them with their weapons, and destroyed them. Then, Lincoln changed back to normal, and he, Luan, and me jumped McWolf, and tickled him.

McWolf: (LAUGHING HYSTERICALLY)

We ceased the tickling, helped McWolf up, and left the castle to head back to the Estate.

In the Aligned Universe, Nico, May and Maria were getting ready for some training.

Aligned Bumblebee: (to May and Maria) Alright, girls. Nico already has a Decepticon Hunter. So, maybe you two should have one each as well.

May: WOW! Thanks Bumblebee.

Maria: Awesome! This is so cool!

Aligned Ultra Magnus: Now, these don't come for free. You'll need to get some training in as well.

May: We'll gladly learn all we can from you all.

Maria: Yeah this is gonna be fun.

Nico: It's not all fun girls.

May: But we're up for the challenge.

Aligned Ultra Magnus: Excellent. Lets do it!

They got to training.

August 15

Over in the deserts of Arizona, me and Valentina Jimenez the Tangrowth Gene-Slammer were flying and we saw a huge fire.

Me: Whoa looks like a grass fire is burning.

Valentina: Yeah no kidding.

We saw a nasty fire and it was the Yarnell Hill Fire!

Me: WHOA! That's the Yarnell Hill Fire!

Valentina: That nasty fire that burned 8 years ago?

Me: The very same and this must be the world of the movie Only the Brave from 2017.

Eric Marsh, superintendent of Fire and Rescue Crew 7 in Prescott, Arizona, receives a call to a wildfire. Due to Crew 7's status as municipal firefighters, Eric's prediction that the fire will threaten a nearby neighborhood is ignored by a hotshot crew from California. The fire behaves as Eric anticipated, and the neighborhood is destroyed.

Eric's wife Amanda suggests that he should talk to Duane Steinbrink, the town's fire chief, to complete Crew 7's certification as wildfire hotshots. Duane warns that the crew will now have to commit to a longer working season. This frustrates Amanda, who resents how the time commitment already keeps Eric from wanting to start a family.

Brendan McDonough is unemployed, listless, and abuses drugs. His ex-girlfriend Natalie is pregnant with his baby, but she feels that he is too irresponsible to be in her life. When he is arrested for larceny, his mother kicks him out of the house. When his daughter is born, he wants to provide for her, so he interviews with Eric, who hires him despite the reservations of some of the crew.

The crew trains hard and is finally deployed to a wildfire for evaluation. They pass and become the Granite Mountain Hotshots. Natalie begins to accept Brendan and lets him spend time with their daughter.

The crew fights several fires, including saving a historic juniper tree, but Brendan is bitten by a rattlesnake while walking a fire line. While he recovers in the hospital, his mother suggests that Brendan should reconsider his career for his daughter's sake. Brendan later approaches Eric about transferring to a different station within the department, joining a structural firefighting crew. Eric snaps, suggesting that Brendan's criminal past makes a transfer nearly impossible, and that he will return to drugs without the purpose being a hotshot provides.

Eric and Amanda argue about Eric's attitude towards Brendan's sense of priorities, and his reluctance to start a family. Eric has a heartfelt talk with Duane, apologizes to Brendan and then returns home and tells Amanda he's ready to start a family.

The Granite Mountain Hotshots are called to the next wildfire, thirty miles from Prescott. Traveling to the area, Eric tells his second-in-command Jesse that he will be stepping down and will appoint Jesse as the superintendent in the near future. Walking into the fire zone, Eric tells Brendan that he will help him secure a transfer so that he can spend more time with his family.

The crew begins a counterattack to contain the fire, but an air tanker mistakes it for a secondary fire, and extinguishes it. The crew now has to relocate, so Eric sends Brendan to higher ground as a lookout. When the wind suddenly intensifies and shifts, Brendan is rescued by another hotshot crew, and they evacuate to the mobile fire headquarters. The rest of the Granite Mountain Hotshots head to a designated safe zone after realizing that the fast-moving fire is too intense to go up against.

The fire picks up speed and jumps the safe zone, continuing towards the Granite Mountain Hotshots and cutting off their escape route. The crew clears a small site, and Eric calls in an air tanker to douse the rapidly advancing fire front. The tanker misses the crew, and they deploy their compact personal fire shelters. As the fire sweeps over the crew, multiple radio calls go unanswered. Brendan hears the radio call from the first helicopter to reach the site: all 19 crew members are confirmed perished.

The devastated families of the hotshots gather at Prescott Middle School, where they hear reports of a lone survivor of the twenty firefighters. Brendan insists that he should be taken to the school and enters the gymnasium. Upon seeing Brendan, knowing that he was one of the hotshots, they realize that he is the only one who survived, and that their loved ones have perished. As they grieve, Brendan storms out of the gym and has a psychological breakdown, where Amanda consoles him, all the while Brendan saying that he should've died alongside them.

Three years later, Brendan takes his daughter to the juniper tree that was saved by the crew. During the credits, photos are shown of the actual Granite Mountain Hotshots and their actor counterparts.

---

Valentina: That movie didn't do well back then. It was a flop.

Me: Yeah no kidding.

The fire then started gathering speed and went at the 19 crew members.

Me: Oh man!

Valentina: Lets go help them out!

Valentina grew vines and turned into her Tangrowth form!

We flew at the crew and landed in front of them and absorbed all the fire.

Me: WHOA! This fire is intense!

Valentina Tangrowth: NO KIDDING!

?: Hold on J.D.!

A figure landed in front of us and it was a slime! It was Quess the Queen Slime.

Me: WHOA You're a Queen Slime.

Quess: That's right. I'm Quess.

A Liepard then appeared.

Liepard: And I'm Melanie Krudsky.

Me: Pleasure to meet you both. Lets get this fire out.

We fired waves of water and extinguished the flames and got it put out.

Me: Whew! That was close.

Quess: Yeah no kidding.

Me: Thanks for helping us.

Quess: You're welcome.

Me: Melanie how would you like to have the power to change at will and use Liepard's powers?

Liepard: I would like that.

Me: Cool.

I put on my blind man glasses and snapped my fingers and Melanie reverted back and she was naked and Valentina reverted back and she too was naked.

Melanie: (Covers herself) That was intense.

Valentina: (Covers herself) Yeah.

I gave them new clothes and they went behind a rock to change and they came out wearing their clothes.

Me: (To the firemen) It's all right guys. You can come out now. The fire is out.

They came out and we left.

---

In the Aligned Transformers Universe, Nico, May and Maria were getting ready for the beach.

Nico: Me, May, and Maria are heading to the beach. Anyone want to come?

Aligned Sideswipe: I do!

Nico: (smiles apologetically) Anyone that's not an Autobot? Sorry, Sideswipe.

Aligned Sideswipe: Aw nuts.

Miko: I'll go. I want to get a tan.

May: All right.

They got to the beach and changed into their swimsuits.

Miko: Nice one piece swimsuit, Maria!

Maria: Thanks Miko.

May: Aren't I smoking?

May came out wearing an aqua blue smoking hot bikini and she struck a pose.

May: (Seductively) Like what you see Nico? (Blows a kiss)

Nico tooted like a steamhorn.

They got to having fun and relaxing.

Maria: Ahh. This is the life.

Miko: (to Maria) So, whenever you're in a swimsuit, do assholes hit on you?

Maria: Yep they sure do and I just punch their faces in.

Miko: Good. Wow! Look at May! She is a great surfer!

They saw May surfing on amazing waves and her Vaporeon and Glaceon were on her board.

Maria: WAY TO GO MAY!

Miko: (to Maria) So, Maria. How did you get your powers? Were you sucked into a radioactive whirlpool?

Maria: (Laughs) No. I didn't get sucked into a radioactive whirlpool. I first got my powers over water from being exposed to an experimental biohazardous mutagen and it turned me into pure water. It was an event in Dakota City we called the Big Bang or the Birth of The Bang Babies. I then got my humanity back along with my newest powers from The Egyptian

Goddess of Water, Tefnut.

Miko: WHOA! That's cool!

Nico: It sure was. But it wasn't all cool for her.

---

Later Eli was with Sheila at the Police Station.

Sheila: (to Eli) Which crooks should we bust today?

Eli: Lets see.

He went to a bulletin board and saw some wanted posters and they were for a bunch of dangerous criminals. They were Decapitating Stanley - A Serial Killer who keeps his victims heads as trophies, Dr. Dumb - the Stupidest Criminal who keeps his victims garbage as money, Max the Facepuncher - a criminal that robs his victims by their faces in and knocks them out and then steals from them as they are knocked out.

Eli: How about these guys here?

Sheila: Good choices Eli. We have been after these guys for years but we have never been able to find them.

Eli: With my abilities I will be glad to help you out.

Sheila: We would greatly appreciate it.

Eli: Lets get to finding them.

Eli used the Force and was searching for them. In a patrol car Eli was using the Force to search for the criminals they were after.

Eli: Decapitating Stanley is close. He's down that alley over there!

Eli pointed to an alley in between an abandoned haircut shop and an a pizza shop.

Sheila: That's the last place we would look. (Through the Radio) Officer Sheila to dispatch. I need immediate backup. Decapitating Stanley is in the Alley on 33rd and main.

Dispatch: Roger that on the way.

She turned on the sirens and Eli and Sheila got out.

Eli: Ready when you are Sheila.

Sheila: Lets do it!

They went into the alley as a bunch of cop cars came and then they saw a figure sitting.

Eli: That's him.

Sheila: Stanley Figero you are under arrest.

Decapitating Stanley: (Insane Laughter) I'm not going down without a fight.

He went at them and Eli fired a blast of Force Lightning and electrocuted him all over and they slapped the cuffs on him.

Sheila: Way to go Eli!

Eli: Thanks Sheila. This bastard is looking at life in the Miranda prison.

They busted Dr. Dumb in a convention center room and Max the Facepuncher was caught red-handed. All three of those douchebags got life for their crimes.

Lincoln, Ronnie Anne, Paige, Mollie, Girl Jordan, and Colette Brunel, in their new swim clothes, were heading to the beach in Muskegon, Michigan, which was a perfect playground for all beachgoers either from Michigan or who are tourists here in Michigan. Colette Brunel was dressed in a light purple two-piece bikini with a cross on it.

Lincoln: Ah, Muskegon, Michigan, I've always wanted to visit the beach here.

Paige: You said it, it's so beautiful.

Ronnie Anne: One day, we should definitely invite everyone to come here, including our families.

Girl Jordan: Me and my parents haven't gone to the beach in Muskegon in a long time, and it's still beautiful as I remember it.

Lincoln and the girls from Michigan were having an awesome time swimming in the clear blue water, and having a blast. Suddenly, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs were glowing, and that means trouble is coming. Then, they heard the sound of a clang in the distance.

CLANG!

Mollie: What was that?

Lincoln: My trap must've gone off. You see, yesterday, we caught a bunch of Trump supporters who were out to kill us, and we called Agent Waco and The FBI, and had them carted off to prison.

Lincoln and the girls from Michigan went up to the cage, and Lincoln was right, his cage trap's caught 9,569 Trump supporters, and they had weapons with them. Eventually, Lincoln called Agent Waco and he arrived with The FBI, and the agents loaded up the Trump supporters into armored cars, and sent them off to prison.

Lincoln, me, Nicole, Kaz, Lucy Loud, and The Time Force Power Rangers were off to rescue another girl who's been kidnapped by McWolf, and to our surprise, the next girl that McWolf's holding is in Transylvania, Romania.

Lincoln: So, the next girl McWolf is holding is right here in Transylvania.

Me: Now, this is really spooky, but at least, we won't be facing off against another werewolf.

Kaz: This place sure is home to some of the spookiest monsters of legend, such as vampires and werewolves.

Lucy Loud: Wicked.

We arrived in McWolf's castle, and the castle looked like something from a vampire movie, tall, dark, and scary. We went right to the room where he was holding the girl. We saw that the girl McWolf kidnapped was Hsien-Ko.

Lincoln: Wow, it's Hsien-Ko.

Nicole: From the Darkstalkers franchise, oh, now that's so awesome.

Lucy Loud: She's known as a Jiang Shi, a Chinese vampire.

Me: Whoa.

Lincoln went up to Hsien-Ko and freed her.

Hsien-Ko: Thanks for freeing me.

Then, when Hsien-Ko saw who freed her, she had a small blush on her face when she saw the 7'0" tall, bare-chested, handsome, white-haired, and extremely muscular hunk with deep sapphire blue eyes, she had a blush on her face upon seeing Lincoln.

Hsien-Ko: Oh, wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you, Hsien-Ko.

Hsien-Ko: Same here, handsome.

Then, McWolf came out.

Kaz: You must've been pretty frightened when you chose to build your castle here in Transylvania, McWolf.

McWolf: You have no idea, but luckily, I've got a way to defend myself from the creatures of the night, if they try to attack. And since you have the Time Force Power Rangers with you, I've got just the villains for you to fight. CYCLOBOTS

Then, an army of Cyclobots appeared from the darkness.

Wes Collins: Cyclobots, I should've guessed you chose to summon them. Alright, guys, let's do this.

Kaz (Chaotic): Count me in, as well.

The Time Force Power Rangers, Lincoln, and Kaz walked up to the army of Cyclobots.

Time Force Rangers and Lincoln: TIME FOR TIME FORCE!

The Time Force Rangers transformed, and Lincoln transformed into his new Time Force Power Ranger form, but his Time Force Power Ranger uniform is orange with an orange and black helmet with an orange visor, and it goes well with his Sword of Taranis he unholstered from his wider muscular back, along with the eight large orange orbs orbiting around his legs, and he spreads his larger blue angel wings surging with powerful super lightning and with stars and blue nebulae reflecting in them.

Wes Collins: Time Force Red!

Jen Scotts: Time Force Pink!

Lucas Kendall: Time Force Blue!

Katie Walker: Time Force Yellow!

Trip: Time Force Green!

Eric Myers: Quantum Power!

Lincoln: Time Force Orange!

Time Force Rangers and Lincoln: POWER RANGERS TIME FORCE!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive explosion erupted behind them.

Me: Wow, Lincoln, you look awesome as a Time Force Power Ranger!

Wes Collins: I got to admit, that's awesome. Alright, let's get them!

The Time Force Rangers, Lincoln, and Kaz went after the Cyclobots, and blasted them with powerful blasts of fire, neon blue energy blasts, and elemental blasts, and destroyed them. Then, Lincoln changed back to normal, and he, Lucy Loud, and me jumped McWolf, and tickled him.

McWolf: (LAUGHING HYSTERICALLY)

We ceased the tickling, helped McWolf up, and left the castle and Transylvania to head back to the World Tree Estate, and Lincoln made a powerful cloud of darkness to protect Hsien-Ko from the sun.

---

Muscle Man: Alright, bros. If Lincoln, Laney, Lily, Lisa, Luna, and Luan are getting suspicious of Nico, we need to throw them off the trail. And I just got a good idea!

William: Which is?

Muscle Man: I'm gonna call Luan and say My Mom jokes over the phone.

Me: Good idea Muscle Man.

Muscle Man: You know who else likes coming up with good ideas?

Me: I know the answer to this one.

Muscle Man: MY MOM!

We laughed at his joke.

Me and Luciana the Electivire Gene-Slammer were walking around in the Chernobyl Exclusion Zone in Ukraine.

Luciana: What is this place?

Me: It's the Chernobyl Exclusion Zone. This whole part of Ukraine was rendered unlivable for the next 1,000,000 years because of the 1986 Chernobyl Nuclear Power Plant Accident. Everyone was forced to move away because of it. Its been 35 years since that happened and no one has lived here since.

Luciana: Wow that's bad. This whole place is a ghost town.

Me: Yep. And it's full of radiation.

We walked around and we heard a roar and then out came RADIOACTIVE MUTANTS! They were the Radioactive Mutants from the 2012 movie Chernobyl Diaries!

---

Chris (Jesse McCartney), his girlfriend Natalie (Olivia Taylor

Dudley), and their mutual friend Amanda (Devin Kelley), are traveling across Europe. They stop in Kyiv, Ukraine, to visit Chris' brother, Paul (Jonathan Sadowski), before heading on to Moscow, Russia, where Chris intends to propose to Natalie.

Paul suggests they go for an extreme tour of Pripyat, an abandoned town which sits in the shadow of the Chernobyl Nuclear Power Plant, the site of the 1986 Chernobyl nuclear disaster. Chris is against going on the tour and would rather stay on the original plan of going to Moscow, but Paul insists. They meet tour guide Yuri (Dimitri Diatchenko) and are joined by a backpacking couple, Norwegian Zoe (Ingrid Bolsø Berdal) and Australian Michael (Nathan Phillips). Yuri drives them through Ukraine, before they arrive at a Chernobyl Exclusion Zone checkpoint, where they are refused entry by the Ukrainian military. He then takes them to an alternate entry he discovered years ago.

The group stops at a river where Yuri points out a large, mutated fish apparently able to live on land; while returning to their van several other mutant fish are seen. The group is worried about radiation poisoning, but Yuri assures their safety with a Geiger counter. After spending a few hours exploring, Yuri takes them to the upper floor of an apartment building and shows them the Chernobyl nuclear plant on the near horizon. After hearing noises at the other end of the apartment, it is found to be a bear which runs through the hallway past them, but not harming them.

The group prepares to leave Pripyat, but Yuri finds the wires in his van have been chewed through. He tries to radio for help, to no avail. As night falls, the group decides on whether to hike to a nearby checkpoint which is 20 km (12 miles) away, or to stay put and wait for help. Suddenly, strange noises come from outside, where Yuri goes out to investigate and Chris follows. Shots are heard and Paul runs out, returning with Chris, whose leg has been severely mauled, and claiming that Yuri has been taken. While they decide to stay the night in their locked vehicle, they are attacked by dogs.

The next day, Paul, Michael, and Amanda go out to look for Yuri. They follow a trail of blood to an abandoned cafeteria and find Yuri's mutilated body. They take his gun and are chased by a creature through the building before returning to the van. Amanda checks her camera and one of the pictures shows a humanoid creature inside one of the apartment buildings. Natalie stays with the wounded Chris while the others begin the hike to the checkpoint.

During the hike, Paul, Amanda, Michael, and Zoe find a parking lot, where they find parts for Yuri's van. On the way back they are chased by dogs and also attacked by mutant fish in a stream. Night falls as the group returns to the van, only to find it upside down and ripped to shreds. They find Natalie's video camera, showing that she and Chris were attacked and captured by humanoid mutants. While searching for the two inside an old building, the group is chased by more mutants.

During their escape, a traumatized Natalie is found and rescued, but when the group gets distracted by a mysterious young girl, Natalie is captured again. The rest of the group is swarmed by a horde of mutants and are forced to retreat. While fleeing through an underground passage, Michael is captured. As they continue, they find Chris' engagement ring for Natalie, with no sign of Chris. While climbing a ladder, a gang of mutants drags Zoe back down, forcing Amanda and Paul to leave her behind, emerging from the passage right beside the exposed nuclear reactor core. Paul recognizes that extremely high radiation levels are causing their skin to blister. They come upon Natalie's body just before they are confronted by some of their mutant attackers. Fighting them off, the two survivors then encounter Ukrainian military forces outside the reactor building. Blinded by radiation, Paul stumbles toward the soldiers, who kill him.

Amanda falls unconscious and later awakens on a gurney. Several doctors, in protective hazmat suits, inform her that she is in a hospital and they will help her. The doctors reveal that the "creatures" were escaped patients, and after realizing that Amanda "knows too much," she is then forced into a dark cell and is swarmed and eaten alive by the recaptured patients.

Me: WHOA! Radioactive Mutants!

Luciana: Good god! What happened to them!?

Me: Radioactive fallout called by radiation. Wait a second. These are the mutants from the movie Chernobyl Diaries!

Luciana: That was a scary one! Lets get them!

She had lightning swirl around her as she had her muscles grow.

She turned into ELECTIVIRE!

Me: YEAH!

?: Let us help you.

A Creeping Coin then appeared and so did a Muk!

Me: Whoa a Creeping Coin.

Corina: Yep my name is Corina.

Muk: And I'm Oracle Leveon and yes I'm a Muk.

Me: Pleasure to meet you both. Lets get them!

We fired blasts of fire, lightning, energy and coins and blew the mutants apart.

Corina: All right!

Me: Lets get out of this place.

We went back to the estate and as we flew I reverted Oracle back and she got new clothes and so did Luciana.

Later Rice and Lincoln were lifting stuff at the warehouse.

Rice: Thanks for helping me today, Lincoln.

Lincoln: Anytime Rice.

Rice: We have a lot of things to load into the warehouse today so I'll need all the muscle I can get.

Lincoln: Okay.

They got to lifting lots of heavy boxes and it was hard work.

Nico, May and Maria and the Autobots released Underbite and 5 more Decepticons for the Masters of Evil.

Underbite: You Autobots just made a big mistake letting the 6 of us out of our pods!

Underbite then ate some of Denny's lawn gnomes and got stronger as a result.

Aligned Bumblebee: Now, hold on. We just want to talk to you guys.

Underbite: (about to attack Bumblebee) Talk to Thundercruncher and Boltsmasher as they're beating your face in!

Nico: Underbite stop! That's an order!

Underbite: You are in no position to give me orders.

Nico: Actually I AM!

Nico showed his Decepticon Leadership Medal.

Nico: Nicolas Chan, New Leader of The Decepticons.

Underbite: That's a Decepticon Leadership Medal! How did you get that!?

Nico: Me and my team where we come from destroyed Unicron and I was officially made new leader of the Decepticons after we killed him and Megatron where we're from.

Bisk: Whoa! That's amazing!

Underbite: I'm sorry guys.

Nico: It's okay. Also we released you so you can be new members of our frenemies in the Masters of Evil.

Fracture: If it means I get some action, I'm in. I've been locked up in my stasis pod since the Megatronous Prime incident.

Nico: Wow. I've heard about Megatronous Prime. He was a Prime gone bad.

RID Optimus: That's right Nico. Megatronous Prime was a prime gone bad as you put it.

May: Whoa he must've been bad news.

Maria: Yeah. What can you tell us about him?

RID Optimus: It's not good.

He went over Megatronous Prime's history.

---

Megatronus, also known as The Fallen, is a major antagonist in the Transformers Aligned Continuity. He was one of the original Thirteen Primes created by Primus, before he was banished after killing Solus Prime and sealed in another dimension.

He is mentioned throughout the Aligned universe; he was the namesake for the Decepticon leader Megatron and his fall was depicted in The Covenant of Primus . Megatronus later appeared as the overarching antagonist of the Season One of the 2015 TV series Transformers: Robots in Disguise, being the one responsible for the crash of the Alchemor and later enlisting Steeljaw and his pack to serve as his lieutenants.

He was voiced by Gil Gerard in Robots in Disguise .

The Covenant of Primus

Molded after Prime, Megatronus was his dark opposite. He was the most complex of all the Primes, caught between warring impulses of immense passion that never allowed him to have inner peace. While dedicated to Primus, but felt like an outsider when faced with Primus' nature on a daily basis, as well as Prima's emulation of it. His ruthlessness, ambition, conviction, and ability to take any course of action gave him near-limitless potential. His personal artifact was crafted for him later by Solus Prime at his request and design, the almighty Requiem Blaster.

At the same time, Megatronus felt these qualities earned him the disfavour of the other Primes, with them feeling he was too close to Unicron. Haunted by feelings of unworthiness, feeling he took on the darkness so the others could be assured of their rightness. He was too proud to recognize how vulnerable this left him, as he could never admit any weakness. He covered his fears with zealotry. Ever with those closest to him - Maximo, Micronus, Onyx, and even his lover Solus - he could blow hot or cold depending on how his paranoia fared.

Eventually he was manipulated by Liege Maximo and something snapped inside Megatronus. Consequentially during a murderous rage, he accidentally killed Solus Prime with the Requiem Blaster. The blast was so powerful that Solus disintegrated but not before she vowed undying love for him. After a battle between the remaining Primes, Megatronus banished himself to the stars out of shame for his actions and forever dubbed himself "The Fallen".

Transformers: Exodus

Megatronus Prime is mentioned as one of the original thirteen Transformers. Megatron is shown originally calling himself Megatronus, after this particular Prime, and is a gladiator, who then takes the name Megatron after the name is shortened by cheering fans at one of his matches. Megatronus, though the namesake of the Decepticon leader Megatron in the book, holds no sway over Megatron, who took the name simply because he had none of his own and wished to be associated with power and grandeur.

Transformers: Exiles

According to the book Transformers: Exiles, Megatronus Prime commissioned Solus Prime to create the Requiem Blaster. Later, Megatronus murdered Solus, triggering the first breaking among the Thirteen.

Transformers: Prime

The Fallen is briefly mentioned in the episode "Partners" when Starscream tells the Autobots that he wishes to join them. Bulkhead jokes by saying that he was "lobbing with The Fallen". In the episode "One Shall Rise", the Thirteen Primes were mentioned, as one of the Primes who vanquished Unicron. It is implied that the Fallen was one of these. According to Ratchet, Megatron named himself after the Fallen's original name: "Megatronus".

Transformers: Robots in Disguise (2015)

At some point, Megatronus was imprisoned in another dimension, and held both Earth and Cybertron responsible for his defeat. He still could affect his native universe, and was able to influence the prison ship Alchemor to crash on Earth, allowing the Decepticon prisoners to escape. After some time, in Lockout, Megatronus contacted Steeljaw, the leader of the Earthbound Decepticons, who had just been humiliatingly defeated by Bumblebee's Autobots. Introducing himself as "the first Decepticon", Megatronus persuaded Steeljaw to ally with him, claiming that if he freed him from his prison, Steeljaw could have the Earth.

---

When he was finished they were shocked!

May: Oh man!

Maria: That's horrible!

Nico: No kidding.

Bisk: Yeah that's intense.

Nico: Yeah.

Bisk: What other benefits do we get from joining the Masters of Evil?

May: Well, you can play video games with Nicole.

Bisk: Really?! I love video games!

May: But Nicole is REALLY good at Video Games. She is not called the Goddess of Video Games for show.

Maria: She is unstoppable and undefeatable.

Nico: Yep. She is that good.

Bisk: I can't wait to see. Just as long as you don't turn me into lobster stew.

They laughed.

---

William: I've got a great idea, guys. Lisa can't investigate Nico if she's distracted, right? Well, what's more distracting than texts about dinner plans?

Me: Smart thinking William.

William: Thank you.

Me: Also just for the record, Laney already knows too.

William: Oh. Okay.

Eli: But dinner calls are good too.

Arrietty: I agree with that too.

William: How did you know about Nico?

Eli: The Force tells me everything.

William: I had a feeling.

Lincoln, Akko, Ruby Rose, Weiss, Blake Belladonna, Yang, Emerald Sustrai, Dew Gayl, and Minerva Mink were heading to Acme Acres to have a swim at the beach, and they had on their new swim clothes.

Lincoln: Ah, now this is what I call a relaxing swim.

Minerva Mink: You said it, Linky, and it's also a beautiful day.

Ruby Rose: After the adventures we've had, we need this time to relax.

Suddenly, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs were glowing, and he fired a blast of neon blue energy at the bushes, and forced a bunch of figures out. They were none other than the big-time enemies of Acme Acres, Perfecto Prep, they'd heard Buster Bunny and the Acme Acres crew joined Team Loud Phoenix Storm, and they'd helped in destroying Xehanort and the True Organization XIII in The Keyblade Graveyard forever, and it pissed them off to no end.

Minerva Mink: Perfecto Prep, I should've known you dirty rats were hiding out!

Lincoln: Buster Bunny warned us about you creeps, so I'll ask once: why the heck were you stalking us while we were out on our date?

Roderick Rat: You bastards destroyed Xehanort and the True Organization XIII, and to make it worse, those Acme Losers joined you, as well. When the news hit that Xehanort was destroyed, we wanted nothing more than to take revenge on all of you!

Danforth Drake: Not to mention, you also threw Montana Max and Elmyra Duff in prison forever.

Lincoln: You're an idiot, Roderick Rat, Xehanort and the True Organization XIII were out to destroy the universe, and we couldn't let that happen. Plus, Montana Max was a greedy, power-hungry, and completely sadistic psychopath who hated everyone, and Elmyra Duff is a constant animal abuser.

Yang: Yeah, Xehanort was a monster who wanted to destroy the universe and everything in existence so he could remake it in his image, and he needed to be stopped, and like Lincoln said, Montana Max was a psychopath, and Elmyra's a danger to all animals, and that included all of you.

Danforth Drake: We don't care, and now, you will all die!

The Perfecto Prep Students charged with murder in their eyes. But, Lincoln, Akko, Ruby Rose, Weiss, Blake Belladonna, Yang, Emerald Sustrai, Dew Gayl, and Minerva Mink dodged the attacking students, and fired powerful blasts of water, lightning, magic, and energy at them, knocking them down. But, as soon as they got up, Rhubella Rat and Margot Mallard, two of Perfecto Prep's students, had turned against them, and knocked them out. Lincoln tied them all up with powerful neon blue energy ropes, and Rhubella Rat called the police on them. Rhubella and Margot hated their now former boyfriends who'd gone off the deep end, because of their hatred for Team Loud Phoenix Storm and Acme Acres, As a result of the brazen attack on them and damning testimonies of Rhubella and Margot, Roderick Rat and the rest of his crew were then sentenced to Life in Prison Without Possibility of Parole in The Neptune Prison for Traitors in Solitary Confinement. Babs Bunny put them in straitjackets with glue in them, and she strapped them in, so they can't get out, and Perfecto Prep was also closed down, with more of the Perfecto Prep staff heading to prison, as charges were filed against them.

Lincoln, me, Nicole, Eli, Shope, Lana Loud, Hsien-Ko, and The Mighty Morphin Power Rangers were off to rescue another girl who's been kidnapped by McWolf, and the next girl McWolf's holding is in Central Park in New York. Alex the Lion, Marty, Melman, and Gloria were with us.

Lincoln: So, the next girl McWolf is holding is right here in Central Park in New York.

Me: Alex, Marty, Melman, and Gloria did tell us they once lived in The Central Park Zoo in New York.

Shope: But, this city has it share of crime here in New York.

Alex the Lion: True, but those criminals are going to think twice before they try to commit any crimes in the Big Apple.

Hsien-Ko: But, why do I feel like the next girl McWolf's kidnapped is someone I know?

Nicole: There's only one way to find out.

We arrived in McWolf's castle which was north of The Central Park Zoo in New York, and we went into the room where he was holding the girl. We saw that the girl McWolf kidnapped was Felicia from the Darkstalkers franchise.

Lincoln: Wow, it's Felicia.

Nicole: She's also from the Darkstalkers franchise, as well.

Hsien-Ko: Felica, oh man, first, I got kidnapped by McWolf yesterday, and now, he's kidnapped Felicia.

Lincoln went up to Felicia and freed her.

Felicia: Thanks for freeing me.

Then, when Felicia saw who freed her, she had a small blush on her face when she saw the 7'0" tall, bare-chested, handsome, white-haired, and extremely muscular hunk with deep sapphire blue eyes, she had a blush on her face upon seeing Lincoln.

Felicia: Oh, wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you, Felicia.

Felicia: Same here, handsome.

The rest of us introduced ourselves to Felicia, and when she saw Hsien-Ko, she was surprised to see her.

Felicia: Hsien-Ko, I'm surprised to see you here, did you…?

Hsien-Ko: Yeah, yesterday, I was kidnapped by McWolf, and he held me in his castle in Transylvania, until Lincoln freed me yesterday.

Felica: Interesting.

Then, McWolf came out.

Alex the Lion: I was surprised you built your castle here in Central Park, McWolf, without alerting the New York Police Department.

McWolf: I'm just glad I was quick to build the castle before the cops found out, and since you have the Mighty Morphin Power Rangers with you, I've got just the baddies for you to fight. PUTTIES!

Then, an army of Putties appeared from the darkness.

Tommy Oliver: Putties, I should've known you'd summon them, McWolf. Alright, guys, let's do this.

Shope: Count me in, as well.

The Mighty Morphin Power Rangers, Lincoln, and Shope walked up to the army of Tenga Warriors.

Mighty Morphin Power Rangers and Lincoln: IT'S MORPHIN TIME!

The Mighty Morphin Rangers transformed, and Lincoln transforms into his new Mighty Morphin Power Ranger form, but his Mighty Morphin Power Ranger uniform and helmet is orange with black visor and the theme is a falcon, and it went well with his Sword of Taranis, which he unholstered from his wider muscular back, along with the eight large orange orbs orbiting around his legs, and he spreads his larger blue angel wings surging with powerful super lightning and with stars and blue nebulae reflecting in them.

Jason Scott Lee: TYRANNOSAURUS!

Zach Taylor: MASTODON!

Billy Cranston: TRICERATOPS!

Trini Kwan: SABER-TOOTHED TIGER!

Kimberly Ann Hart: PTERADACTYL!

Tommy Oliver: TIGERZORD!

Lincoln: FALCON!

Jason: "We're back and ready to morph into Action!"

Tommy: "Six working to together to fight evil!"

Zack: "And stop Rita!"

Billy: "And all her menacing monsters!"

Trini: "From destroying our Planet Earth!"

Kimberly: "And ruling the Universe with evil!"

Lincoln: And destroying all hope and good!

Jason: "Look out, Rita, we're not backin' down because we're the…"

Mighty Morphin Rangers and Lincoln: Power Rangers!

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive explosion erupted behind them.

Me: Wow, Lincoln, you look awesome as a Mighty Morphin Power Ranger!

Lana: Take them down, guys, and burn them down.

McWolf: Alright, let's do this.

Lincoln: Right.

The Mighty Morphin Rangers, Lincoln, and Shope went after the Putties, and they blasted them with powerful blasts of fire, neon blue energy blasts, and elemental blasts, and slashed them with their weapons, and destroyed them. Then, Lincoln changed back to normal, and he, Lana, Eli, and me jumped McWolf, and tickled him.

McWolf: (LAUGHING HYSTERICALLY)

We ceased the tickling, helped McWolf up, and left the castle to head back to the Estate.

Me and Victoria were in an underwater research and mining colony.

Me: This looks like some kind of underwater mining colony.

Victoria: Wonder how far down we are.

I looked at my scanners and it showed that we were at 25,000 feet down.

Me: Whoa 25,000 feet down. But this whole colony is familiar to me.

Then we went into a room and we saw a horrifying sight! We saw an ugly fish creature! It was the creature from the 1989 movie Leviathan!

---

Miss Martin, the CEO of Tri-Oceanic Corp., hires geologist Steven Beck to supervise an undersea mining operation for three months. The crew consists of members Dr. Glen 'Doc' Thompson, Elizabeth 'Willie' Williams, Buzz 'Sixpack' Parrish, Justin Jones, Tony DeJesus Rodero, Bridget Bowman and G.P. Cobb. While working outside their deep sea station in a pressure suit, Sixpack discovers a Soviet shipwreck, Leviathan . The crew salvage a safe from Leviathan, finding records detailing the deaths of several crew members as well as a video log from the captain. Sixpack also finds a flask of vodka which he shares with Bowman. Doc and Beck review the captain's video, which describes puzzling medical problems amongst his crew. They also discover that Leviathan was scuttled.

The following morning, Sixpack feels sick and Doc discovers lesions along his back. He dies a few hours later, but Doc and Beck keep it quiet to avoid a panic. Doc checks the crew to confirm no one else is sick, but does not have the chance to examine Bowman. While Beck and Doc confer with Martin on the surface, Bowman begins feeling ill. She finds Sixpack's corpse, which is mutating and growing. When Bowman's hair starts falling out, she realizes the same thing is happening to her. Beck and Doc request emergency evacuation, but Martin reports a severe storm on the surface that will delay evacuation for 12 hours.

Doc finds that Bowman killed herself. Her body is taken to sickbay, where it merges with Sixpack's. When the crew discovers the mutating bodies, they decide to dump both of them in the ocean. As they are about to "flush" the cadavers, the body bag begins squirming. Believing someone inside may be alive, the crew opens it. The creature inside claws Cobb before they eject it. They realize that Leviathan was experimenting on its unwitting crew with mutagens. The mutagen was mixed with the vodka that the crew, and later Sixpack and Bowman, drank. The ship was scuttled when the experiment escaped control.

A tentacle was severed when the corpses were ejected; it mutates into a lamprey-like creature that attacks DeJesus in the kitchen. Jones seals the kitchen's pressure doors and goes for help. He asks Cobb to watch the door, but when he searches for a weapon, the creature assimilates DeJesus and rips its way out of the kitchen. It then grows tentacles that attack the crew.

The creature attacks the medical bay, devouring blood and plasma from the cooler. This inspires Beck to use a pint of his blood to attract the beast, then attempt to flush it the same way they did with the Sixpack and Bowman creature. Doc ejects the escape pods so that no one can escape and risk bringing the mutagen to the surface. Beck consults with Martin for emergency evacuation. Martin assures them that they will not be left behind, but that she cannot carry out the rescue because of a hurricane.

Cobb's injuries worsen, causing him to mutate and infect Doc. Williams escapes as Beck and Jones try trapping the creature. They escape to another part of the station. The crew tries accessing weather information through the computer, but it is blocked. Williams asks the computer for a financial report from the company and they discover that Tri-Oceanic Corporation has declared them dead, labeling it an accident.

The creature damages vital systems, causing the pressure to drop and an implosion to occur. They decide to use their dive suits to escape. The creature attacks them, but is crushed by the lift as Beck escapes. They make it to the surface, which is calm and sunny. As they are met by a Coast Guard helicopter, the mutant surfaces nearby and tries to take Jones. He keeps it from escaping at the cost of his own life, and Beck throws a demolition charge into the creature's mouth, causing it to explode.

After they are dropped off on a Tri-Oceanic oil drilling platform, the two survivors are greeted by Martin. Martin tells them she believed they would make it, smiling insincerely and asking how Beck feels. Beck punches Martin in the face, knocking her out, and then answers her question by saying "Better. A lot better."

---

Me: WHAT THE FUCKING HELL IS THAT!?

Victoria: Is that a giant fish!?

Me: NO IT'S NOT! That's all an experiment gone horribly wrong. That's the monster from the 1989 movie Leviathan! What a horrible abomination. I don't know what the hell Russia was thinking when they tried to make a man that can live underwater!

Victoria: No kidding! They really were playing with fire!

Me: And it came back to bite them in their ass big time!

Victoria: Well he's not gonna get us!

Victoria had her temperature go up and the floor turned red hot and she turned into MAGMORTAR!

Me: YEAH!

?: That is one ugly monster!

A figure came out and it was a Nereid!

Me: Whoa a Nereid!

Nayari: Yep my name is Nayari and it's an honor to meet you J.D.

Me: Same here.

A Pyroar then appeared too.

Me: A Pyroar.

Pyroar: Yep. My name is Jeria Mensia. Pleasure to meet you.

Me: Same here. Lets get this monster!

We fired waves of fire and water and energy and blew the monster to pieces and destroyed it.

We got out of there and I gave Jeria the power to change at will and gave Jeria and Luciana new clothes.

Later in the Aligned Transformers world, Nico and the group were deciding what to do next.

June Darby: How about we go to the zoo during your vacation here?

Nico: Good idea. I've always wanted to have fun at the zoo.

May: Me too.

Strongarm: Mind if I give you guys a lift there?

Nico: Thanks Strongarm.

May: So, June. When the Cybertronian Wars reached Earth for the first time, what state did its' battles take place in?

June: It was over on the Arizona-Utah Border.

Miko: Yeah it was crazy.

Nico: Boy no kidding.

Jack: Specifically, the battles for the Cybertronian Wars took place in Jasper, Nevada.

Nico: Wow. That's incredible.

May: Yeah. We'll have to look that up on the map when we get back soon.

Maria: Yeah no kidding. But that is amazing.

At the Gotham Royal York Mall, Leni and Maxine were shopping.

Maxxine: Thanks for going shopping with me, Leni.

Leni: You're totes welcome Maxxine. I love a good shopping trip to the mall.

Maxxine: Me too. It's so much fun.

They had lots and lots of bags full of stuff.

Lincoln, Jessica Shannon, Lucy Liberty, Princia Ramode, and The Mane 9 were heading to the beach in Equestria, and they had on their new swim clothes. Jessica Shannon was in a two-piece crimson red bikini with wasps on the bikini. Lucy Liberty was in a two-piece orange bikini with an Arwing and flames on it and Princia Ramode was in a two-piece crimson red bikini with an Arwing on it.

Lincoln: You know, I've never been to the beach here in Equestria before.

Rarity: You're going to love it, Linky, it's absolutely divine.

They went for a swim in the water for a few minutes, and they had the time of their lives. Suddenly, they heard the sound of a cage closing from far away, and Lincoln's eight large orange orbs orbiting around his legs were glowing, and that meant trouble.

CLANG!

Twilight Sparkle: What was that?

Lincoln: That must've been my trap going off, let's go see who we caught.

Lincoln, Jessica Shannon, and The Mane 9 went to where he heard the sound, and they went up to a cage that was set up by Lincoln, and inside the cage were more of Trump's supporters, who were out to ambush them and kill them, there was about 9,987 of them. Agent Waco and The FBI were called in, and loaded the caged Trump supporters inside armored vans, and carted them off to jail.

Jessica Shannon: Honestly, don't those dirt-bags quit?

Lincoln: Nope, since they're too stupid to know when to quit.

Lincoln, me, Nicole, Eli, Julie Yamamoto, Lola Loud, and The Turbo Rescue Power Rangers were off to rescue another girl who's been kidnapped by McWolf, and the next girl McWolf's holding is in Great Lakes City. Ronnie Anne was also with us.

Lincoln: So, the next girl McWolf is holding is right here in Great Lakes City.

Me: I hope McWolf didn't get mauled badly by The Great Lakes City Alley Cats.

Julie Yamamoto: Those little hairballs have always attacked The Casagrandes, and they're a big-time nuisance to everyone in Great Lakes City.

Lincoln: You're right about that one, Julie, but the cats can be of help, especially when it comes to shredding the villains to shreds.

Ronnie Anne: But, we'll have to dump a bucket of catnip on them, after spraying them with pickle juice.

We arrived in McWolf's castle which was north of Great Lakes City from The Casagrande's apartment, and we went to the room where he was holding the girl. We saw that the girl McWolf kidnapped was Super Sonico.

Lincoln: Wow, it's Super Sonico.

Nicole: From the video game of the same name. She's an awesome guitar player, and she sings beautifully, and her favorite musicians are Nirvana, Foo Fighters, Sonic Youth, Iggy & The Stooges, The Clash, Patti Smith, Avril Lavigne, and AC/DC.

Lincoln: When she meets Luna and our rockers, they're really going to rock the house down on the villains.

Lincoln went up to Super Sonico and freed her.

Super Sonico: Thanks for freeing me.

Then, when Super Sonico saw who freed her, she had a small blush on her face when she saw the 7'0" tall, bare-chested, handsome, white-haired, and extremely muscular hunk with deep sapphire blue eyes, she had a blush on her face upon seeing Lincoln.

Super Sonico: Oh, wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you, Super Sonico.

Super Sonico: Same here, handsome.

Then, McWolf came out.

Ronnie Anne: I'm surprised that you managed to build your castle here in Great Lakes City without getting shredded by those alley cats, and without waking Abuela and the rest of the familia, McWolf.

McWolf: I actually gave those cats a big fish and they left me alone for the rest of the night, and I was careful not to wake the rest of the family, and since you have the Turbo Power Rangers with you, I've got just the baddies for you to fight. PIRANHATRONS!

Then, an army of Piranhatrons appeared from the darkness.

T.J.: Piranhatrons, I should've known you'd summon them, McWolf. Alright, guys, let's do this.

Julie Yamamoto: Count me in, as well.

The Turbo Power Rangers, Lincoln, and Julie Yamamoto walked up to the army of Piranhatrons.

Turbo Power Rangers and Lincoln: SHIFT INTO TURBO!

The Turbo Rangers transformed, and Lincoln transformed into his new Turbo Power Ranger form, but his Turbo Power Ranger uniform and helmet is orange with black visor, and it goes well with his Sword of Taranis he unholstered from his wider muscular back, along with the eight large orange orbs orbiting around his legs, and he spreads his larger blue angel wings surging with powerful super lightning and with stars and blue nebulae reflecting in them.

T.J: Red Turbo Ranger!

Justin: Blue Turbo Ranger!

Carlos: Green Turbo Ranger!

Ashley: Yellow Turbo Ranger!

Cassie: Pink Turbo Ranger!

Lincoln: Orange Turbo Ranger!

All: Alright! Power Rangers Turbo!

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive explosion erupted behind them.

Me: Wow, Lincoln looks awesome as a Turbo Power Ranger.

McWolf: Alright, let's do this.

Lincoln: Right.

The Turbo Rangers, Lincoln, and Julie Yamamoto went after the Tenga Warriors, and blasted them with powerful blasts of fire, neon blue energy blasts, and elemental blasts, and slashed them with their weapons, and destroyed them. Then, Lincoln changed back to normal, and he, Luan, and me jumped McWolf, and tickled him.

McWolf: (LAUGHING HYSTERICALLY)

We ceased the tickling, helped McWolf up, and left the castle to head back to the Estate.

Suddenly, we heard the familiar sounds of yowling.

Ronnie Anne: Wait, did you hear that?

All: THE CATS!

And right in front of us were The Great Lakes City Alley Cats, yowling and in a huge fight cloud in front of us.

Eli: Those little hairballs.

Lincoln: I got this, Eli. Scram, gatos.

Lincoln fired a powerful wave of water, and sprayed the Great Lakes City Alley Cats, which caused the cats to disperse and head back to the alley.

We head back to The World Tree Estate, and without a single scratch from those mangy alley cats.

Over in the town of Cedar Creek in California, me and Nina Fernandez the Gyarados Gene-Slammer were walking around and we saw that no one was outside.

Me: Whoa this is weird. Where is everyone?

Nina Fernandez: No idea. This is creepy.

We saw a newspaper and it said "DEADLY VIRUS SCARES CEDAR CREEK."

Me: Whoa man! This whole town has a bad version of Ebola.

Nina Fernandez: The Motaba Virus from the movie Outbreak.

---

In 1967, during the Kisangani Mutinies, a virus called Motaba, which causes a deadly fever, is discovered in the African jungle. To keep the virus a secret, U.S. Army officers Donald McClintock and Billy Ford destroy the camp where soldiers were infected.

Twenty-eight years later, Colonel Sam Daniels, a USAMRIID virologist, is sent to investigate an outbreak in Zaire. He and his crew-Lieutenant Colonel Casey Schuler and new recruit Major Salt-gather information and return to the United States. Ford, now a brigadier general and Daniels' superior officer, dismisses the latter's fears that the virus will spread.

A white-headed capuchin monkey that is host to the virus, is smuggled into the country. James "Jimbo" Scott, a worker at an animal testing laboratory, is infected when he steals the monkey to sell on the black market. Jimbo fails to sell the monkey to Rudy Alvarez (who also becomes infected), a pet-store owner in the coastal-California village of Cedar Creek. After releasing the monkey in the woods outside of the nearby community of Palisades, he develops symptoms on a flight to Boston and infects his girlfriend, Alice. Their illness is investigated by Dr. Roberta Keough, a CDC scientist and Daniels' ex-wife. Jimbo, Alice, and Rudy die, but Keough determines that no one else in Boston was infected.

A hospital technician in Cedar Creek is infected when he accidentally breaks the vial of Rudy's blood. The virus quickly mutates into a strain capable of spreading like influenza, becoming airborne and causing a number of people to be infected in a movie theater. Daniels flies to Cedar Creek against Ford's orders, joining Keough's team with Schuler and Salt. As they begin a search for the monkey, the Army quarantines the town and imposes martial law. Schuler is infected when his suit tears and Keough accidentally sticks herself with a contaminated needle while treating him.

When Ford provides an experimental serum which cures the original strain, Daniels realizes that his superiors were aware of the virus before the outbreak. Daniels learns about Operation Clean Sweep, a plan for the military to contain the virus by bombing Cedar Creek, incinerating the town and its residents, ostensibly to prevent Motaba's expansion to pandemic proportions. However, McClintock, now a major general, plans to use the operation to conceal the mutated virus' existence so the original strain can be preserved for use as a biological weapon.

To prevent Daniels from finding a cure, McClintock orders him arrested for carrying the virus. Daniels escapes before he and Salt fly a helicopter to the ship at sea which carried the monkey. Daniels obtains a picture of the monkey and releases it to the media; a Palisades resident, Mrs. Jeffries, realizes that her daughter Kate has been playing with the monkey (which she named Betsy) and calls the CDC. Daniels and Salt arrive at the Jeffries' house where Salt tranquilizes Betsy after Kate coaxes her out of hiding in the woods nearby. When he learns from Daniels about Betsy's capture, Ford delays the bombing.

On their return flight, Daniels and Salt are chased by McClintock in another helicopter. Salt fires two rockets into the trees to deceive him into thinking that they crashed. Once back in Cedar Creek, Salt mixes Betsy's antibodies with Ford's serum to create an antiserum; although Schuler has died, they save Keough. McClintock returns to base and resumes Operation Clean Sweep, refusing to listen to Ford. Daniels and Salt fly their helicopter directly into the path of the bomber's approach to its target.

With Ford's help, Daniels persuades the bomber's flight crew to detonate the bomb over water and spare the town. Before McClintock can order another bombing, Ford relieves him of command and orders his arrest. Daniels and Keough reconcile as Cedar Creek's residents are cured.

Me: This is bad. This virus is dangerous. We got to cure all the residents here.

?: Let me help out.

We saw an Ignis appear.

Me: Whoa you're an Ignis from Arabic Myth.

Pyris: That's right. I'm Pyris and I was helping the military burn the deceased bodies of the town.

Me: Wow.

A Ninetales appeared.

Ninetales: I'm Leona Ketranak and it's an honor.

Me: Same here. Leave this to us.

Nina grew longer and she turned into GYARADOS!

Me: YEAH!

The military came.

Me: It's all right sirs. We got this.

I fired a rainbow cure field and cured all the people in the town and destroyed the virus.

Me: Take that virus.

Nina Gyarados: YEAH!

We went back to the estate and I reverted Leona back to human and she has all her powers as a Ninetales and I gave Nina and Leona new clothes.

Fowler came to Nico and everyone.

Fowler: Guys, me and my fellow Government Agents just spotted some bad eggs roaming around the area. (to the original Team Prime members) You're not gonna believe who they are.

Nico: Let me guess, MECH Agents that are still out and about.

Fowler: That's right. Bumblebee must've told you about them.

Nico: Yeah he did. Lets get them shall we?

May: Lets do it.

They went to face MECH and they found them.

MECH agent: We know you're harboring those Cybertronians. Tell us where they are and you might live through this.

Maria: I've got a better idea. How about we beat you guys up and then throw you in jail?

Nico: That's right!

Nico formed his Decepticon Hunter into a war hammer and smashed the ground and sent waves of lightning and electrocuted the agents.

Nico: You MECH Agents have failed this universe.

They were knocked out from the high electricity.

May: YEAH!

May fired blasts of ice and froze them.

Nico: They weren't much of a challenge.

Aligned Bulkhead: Well, don't underestimate them. In the past, they managed to torture Breakdown after capturing him.

Aligned Bumblebee: And when I still couldn't speak, they took my T Cog with Starscream's help.

Nico: Whoa that is sick and horrible!

May: No kidding!

Nico: Looks like we're not done yet!

Nico fired waves of energy and they hit a bunch of walls and blew more MECH Agents out into the open and May fired ice blasts and froze them.

Nico: Take that!

May: That was too easy.

Nico: If me and the Transformers of our universe were here we would take them down.

Sierra: Yeah like I've known.

Jack: Wait. You know about the Autobots?

Sierra: Agent Fowler told me.

Maria: (to Fowler) You did?

Fowler: Hey, the Autobots are probably gonna reveal themselves to the world after J.D. and the others come here. So, I might as well take the first step.

Sierra: It will be so awesome to meet J.D. and everyone on Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Nico: You guys will love my friends. They are awesome.

May: So awesome.

Sea and Kendra were facing Bluto.

Bluto: (to Kendra) You gonna participate in this battle as Armorsight or as human?

Kendra: I'm facing you as a full-fledge human.

Sea: It's always fun to beat the living crap out of you Bluto.

Bluto: Bring it on!

Sea gave Kendra a can of spinach.

Sea: Down the hatch.

POP!

They popped the cans open and ate the spinach.

GULP! BOING! DING!

They flexed their muscles and Sea's biceps had an image of Bob Barker kicking Adam Sandler's ass and in Kendra's biceps was an image of Yellowstone exploding in the 2009 movie 2012.

They beat and pulverized Bluto all over like in the cartoons.

Lincoln, Mai Shiranui, R. Mika, Ibuki, Makoto, Asuka Kazama, Lilli De Rochefort, Litchi Faye Ling, Makoto Nanaya, and Menat were heading to a beautiful beach in Monaco, Lilli's hometown, and they got a chance to see the sights, and Lincoln got a chance to meet Lilli's father, who was glad to meet him.

Lincoln: Wow, the beach here in Monaco is really beautiful.

Lilli De Rochefort: I knew you'd like it, Lincoln, and my father was delighted to meet you, along with the rest of us.

Lincoln and the girls were enjoying their time on the beach in Monaco, and were having fun in the sun and ocean. Suddenly, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs were glowing, and that means trouble is coming. Then, they heard the sound of a clang in the distance.

CLANG!

Asuka Kazama: What the heck was that?

Lincoln: That was the sound of trouble getting caged, Asuka.

Lincoln and the girls walked up, and inside another cage Lincoln set up, were more Trump supporters, 9,632 of them, and they also had weapons. Lincoln called Agent Waco and The FBI, who came here to Monaco, and had them carted off in armored cars, which took them to prison in the United States.

Lincoln, me, Nicole, Kimiko, Lisa Loud, and The In Space Power

Rangers were off to rescue another girl who's been kidnapped by McWolf, and the next girl McWolf's holding is in London, England.

Lincoln: So, the next girl McWolf is holding is right here in London, England.

Jeri: I've never been to London before, it's so amazing.

Me: London has thousands of years of history, and for centuries, it has been ruled by a powerful succession of kings and queens to the British throne.

Eli: And I heard that you guys also stopped Cruella De Vil long ago.

Lincoln: Oh yeah, we had to stop her and we rescued Pongo, Perdita, and their children from getting turned into fur coats by that heartless she-demon.

We arrived in McWolf's castle which was north of London, and we went into the room where he was holding the girl. We saw that the girl McWolf kidnapped was Ulala from Space Channel 5.

Lincoln: Wow, it's Ulala.

Nicole: From Space Channel 5, she's a well-known reporter of news from the distant parts of the galaxy. If Shanan meets her, she'll faint.

Lincoln went up to Ulala and freed her.

Ulala: Thanks for freeing me.

Then, when Ulala saw who freed her, she had a small blush on her face when she saw the 7'0" tall, bare-chested, handsome, white-haired, and extremely muscular hunk with deep sapphire blue eyes, she had a blush on her face upon seeing Lincoln.

Ulala: Oh, wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you, Ulala.

Ulala: Same here, handsome.

Then, McWolf came out.

Eli: I'm surprised you built your castle here in London, McWolf, especially since England has so many castles here.

McWolf: Perhaps, but I don't think anyone wants me holding someone here in those castles since it's private property, and since you have the In Space Power Rangers with you, I've got just the baddies for you to fight. QUANTRONS!

Then, an army of Quantrons appeared from the darkness.

Andros: Quantrons, I should've known you'd summon them, McWolf. Alright, guys, let's do this.

Jeri: Count me in, as well.

The In Space Power Rangers, Lincoln, and Jeri walked up to the army of Quantrons.

In Space Power Rangers and Lincoln: LET'S ROCKET!

The In Space Rangers transformed, and Lincoln transforms into his new In Space Power Ranger form, but his In Space Power Ranger uniform and helmet is orange with a black visor, and it goes well with his Sword of Taranis he unholstered from his wider muscular back, along with the eight large orange orbs orbiting around his legs, and he spreads his larger blue angel wings surging with powerful super lightning and with stars and blue nebulae reflecting in them.

Andros: Power Red!

Carlos: Power Black!

T.J: Power Blue!

Ashley: Power Yellow!

Cassie: Power Pink!

Zhane: Power Silver!

Lincoln: Power Orange!

All: Power Rangers Power Up!

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive explosion erupted behind them.

Me: Wow, Lincoln looks awesome as an In Space Power Ranger.

Eli: You said it, bro.

McWolf: Alright, let's do this.

Lincoln: Right.

The In Space Rangers, Lincoln, and Jeri went after the Quantrons, and blasted them with powerful blasts of fire, neon blue energy blasts, and elemental blasts, and slashed them with their weapons, and destroyed them. Then, Lincoln changed back to normal, and he, Lisa, Eli, and me jumped McWolf, and tickled him.

McWolf: (LAUGHING HYSTERICALLY)

We ceased the tickling, helped McWolf up, and left the castle and London to head back to the Estate.

Me and Nora the Beautifly Gene-Slammer were over in an abandoned oil field.

Me: Wow this place has seen better days.

Nora: Yeah.

We then saw a man.

Me: Sir are you all right?

Then he turned and we saw his eyes glowing neon orange like he was possessed by an evil force!

Me: WHOA!

He fired a blast of fire at us from his eyes and we dodged it and it hit the ground and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMM!

Nora: What's wrong with him!

Me: I don't know! I've never seen something like this before!

J.D. 2: I have! He's possessed by a Fire Serpent.

Me: Fire Serpent? (Gasp!) You mean that snake made of pure fire from the 2007 movie Fire Serpent!?

A solar flare from the sun sends a serpentine alien composed of fire to Earth where it begins to wreak havoc throughout a small community. During its search for more fuel to consume it stumbles upon a large military oil reserve. It soon becomes clear that an old man may hold the key to destroying it in the form of a Halogen Gun which may be used as a makeshift fire extinguisher of sorts. A small group of citizens decides to use this technology to make a stand against the creature only to face additional resistance from the beast, as well as a government employer who voluntarily helps the snake because he believes it is the spirit of a god.

J.D. 2: The very same one!

Me: Oh man!

Nora: That's not good!

The man formed a tendril of pure fire and we dodged it and fired waves of fire at it and they hit him all over and exploded!

KRABBBOOOOOOOMMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

The man got up and fired blasts of fire at us and I fired waves of energy and the blasts collided and exploded.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMMM!

Nora: This guy is too hot to handle!

She shrunk and grew butterfly wings and then she turned into Beautifly!

?: Let us help!

2 figures came out and they were a Honey Bee and a Pidgeot!

Honey: My name is Honey and I'm a Honey Bee.

Pidgeot: And I'm Emilia Rhodan. Pleasure to meet you.

Me: Same here. We got to cool this guy down!

We fired blasts of water and they hit the Fire Serpent and the man and cooled him down we then trapped the Fire Serpent in a ring of fire and we decided to take it back to the Estate for Analysis. I reverted Emilia back and gave her new clothes as we flew and I gave Nora back her clothes.

At the Canterlot Boutique, Rarity and Irena were making new clothes.

Irena: (to Rarity) Thanks for helping me today, Rarity.

Rarity: Oh it is my pleasure darling. And the fashion lines I have in store are going to be most amazing with your help.

Irena: Sure Rarity.

Rarity had Irena pose in magnificent glamourous outfits. They were in rainbows of colors and they had jewels and sequins and they were some of the most beautiful dresses ever seen.

Rarity: (Gasp) That is so beautiful!

Irena: It sure is! Wow! I look amazing in this dress.

Rarity: Indeed you do Irena.

In the Aligned Universe, Nico, May and Maria were sightseeing and looking at all the great attractions of the universe and it was amazing.

Squidward: Guys, I just texted Lily while she's at the Krusty Krab to distract her. And she's trying to call me.

William: Aren't you gonna answer it?

Squidward: No. I'm gonna send it to voicemail, then call her back, but pocket-dial her while I walk a few blocks.

Manaphy: You do that.

Sure enough, Squidward was walking around the block.

Lily: (muffled, from Squidward's phone) Squidward? Squidward? Hello? I'm getting very little work done!

Me: Okay Squidward.

Lincoln, Perfuma, Frosta, Entrapta, and Hilda were heading to the beach in Bournemouth, England. Frosta, Perfuma, and Entrapta were in two-piece bikinis, but for Frosta: navy blue with snowflakes, Perfuma: pink with flowers, and Entrapta: dark purple.

Lincoln: Looks like I picked a beautiful beach to head to.

Hilda: (British Accent) You said it, Linky, the beach in Bournemouth is amazing here, and there's so much to do.

Frosta: It also has awesome activities during the nighttime.

Lincoln, Frosta, Perfuma, Entrapta, and Hilda were having the time of their lives here, swimming in the ocean, and resting in the sun. Suddenly, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs were glowing, and that means trouble. Then, they heard the sound of a clang in the distance.

CLANG!

Frosta: Uh oh, trouble.

Lincoln: Yep, let's go see who got snagged trying to ambush us.

Lincoln, Frosta, Perfuma, Entrapta, and Hilda went up to the cage, and inside the cage were more of Trump's insane supporters, 5,634 of them, less than last time. But, they met the same fate as the rest of them, as they were carted off to prison in armored cars by Agent Waco and The FBI, who were called by Lincoln, and arrived in England.

Lincoln, me, Nicole, Eli, Penny, Lily Loud, and The Dino Thunder Power Rangers were off to rescue another girl who's been kidnapped by McWolf, and the next girl McWolf's holding is in Madrid, Spain.

Lincoln: So, the next girl McWolf is holding is right here in Madrid, Spain.

Me: This is so cool, and if I remember from a Droopy Cartoon, McWolf was a matador before he got rammed out by that mean bull.

Penny: I've never been to Madrid, Spain before, it's beautiful.

Me: Madrid, Spain was once home to the kings and queens of Spain who've ruled this land for many centuries.

We arrived in McWolf's castle which was north of Madrid, and we went into the room where he was holding the girl. We saw that the girl McWolf kidnapped was Shizuka Marikawa from the anime Highschool of The Dead.

Lincoln: Wow, it's Shizuka Marikawa. She's from the anime Highschool of The Dead.

Nicole: Oh man, I've watched that series, and it was horrible that a zombie apocalypse struck while she and the rest of the students were in high school.

Lincoln went up to Shizuka Marikawa and freed her.

Shizuka Marikawa: Thanks for freeing me.

Then, when Shizuka saw who freed her, she had a small blush on her face when she saw the 7'0" tall, bare-chested, handsome, white-haired, and extremely muscular hunk with deep sapphire blue eyes, she had a blush on her face upon seeing Lincoln.

Shizuka Marikawa: Oh, wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you, Shizuka.

Shizuka Marikawa: Same here, handsome. Wait, none of you are…?

Lincoln: No, we're not zombies, and we've fought against a lot of zombies during our adventures.

Lincoln showed Shizuka Marikawa our many adventures of us fighting against zombies, and she was impressed by that, and we also showed her that we're also part of a tactical unit that rescues survivors of a zombie apocalypse, and we've also rescued a lot of survivors, who are now part of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Then, McWolf came out.

Eli: I was surprised that you found Shizuka Marikawa and brought her to your castle in Spain, McWolf.

McWolf: She's been through a lot and she's seen many of her friends get killed by zombies, and since you have the Dino Thunder Power Rangers with you guys, I've got just the baddies for you to fight. TYRANNODRONES!

Then, an army of Tyrannodrones appeared from the darkness.

Connor McKnight: Tyrannodrones, I should've known you'd summon them, McWolf. Alright, guys, let's do this.

Penny: Count me in, as well.

The Dino Thunder Power Rangers, Lincoln, and Penny walked up to the army of Tyrannodrones.

Dino Thunder Power Rangers and Lincoln: DINO THUNDER POWER UP! HA!

Trent Fernandez: WHITE RANGER, DINO POWER!

The Dino Thunder Rangers transformed, and Lincoln transformed into his Orange Velociraptor Dino Thunder Power Ranger form, but his Orange Velociraptor Dino Thunder Power Ranger uniform and helmet is orange has gotten bigger for his body, and it went well with his Sword of Taranis, which he unholstered from his wider muscular back, along with the eight large orange orbs orbiting around his legs, and he spreads his larger blue angel wings surging with powerful super lightning and with stars and blue nebulae reflecting in them.

Conner McKnight: Tyranno Power! Red Ranger!

Ethan James: Tricera Power! Blue Ranger!

Kira Ford: Ptera Power! Yellow Ranger!

Tommy Oliver: Brachio Power! Black Ranger!

Trent Fernandez: Drago Power! White Ranger!

Lincoln: Velociraptor Power! Orange Ranger!

Dino Thunder Rangers and Lincoln: Dino Power! Dino Rangers! Ha!

A massive explosion erupted behind them.

Eli: Wow, Lincoln, you look awesome as a Dino Thunder Power Ranger!

Lily Loud: They're going to put the hurt on those Tyrannodrones, alright, but at least they're loyal to McWolf.

McWolf: And not Mesogog, alright, let's do this.

Lincoln: Right.

The Dino Thunder Rangers, Lincoln, and Penny went after the Putties, and they blasted them with powerful blasts of jewels, energy blasts, and Lincoln fired neon blue energy and elemental blasts, and slashed them with their weapons, and destroyed them. Then, Lincoln changed back to normal, and he, Lily, Eli, and me jumped McWolf, and tickled him.

McWolf: (LAUGHING HYSTERICALLY)

We ceased the tickling, helped McWolf up, and left the castle to head back to the Estate.

Me and the Arceus Gene-Slammer, Christina were flying over the beautiful forests of Brazil and we saw lava explode out of the ground and then we fired waves of ice and froze it solid.

Me: Whoa that was close.

Christina Schumacher: (German Accent) Ja. What caused that?

Me: No idea.

I then realized something.

Me: Oh no! It's like what happened in the movie Magma: Volcanic Disaster.

---

The Trollsvatn volcano in Iceland violently erupts and kills a USGS survey team. Volcanology professor Dr. Peter Shepherd takes four of his graduate students to study Grímsvötn, a dormant volcano. It also erupts suddenly, but the group is able to escape. While escaping by helicopter, Brianna witnesses Grimsvotn producing pyroclastic flows that could be pyroclastic surges, an unusual amount of ash, and extremely runny lava. Meanwhile, Shepherd visits Dr. Oscar Vallian, a wheelchair-using volcanologist who recently quit working for the USGS. He explains his story about many dormant volcanoes, and he had formulated a theory known as Exodus, in which all of the Earth's volcanoes could erupt within a short period of time. Vallian leaves for Honshu, Japan, to be on the front lines when Mount Fuji erupts.

Shepherd travels to Washington, D.C. to explain the Exodus theory. Dr. William Kincaid, the head of the USGS, is having a conflict of interest with O'Neil and Shepherd, and is given the task of reviewing their data. He promises the president's representative, Stephen Daugherty, to disprove the theory. Shepherd returns to his students to explain that the government will not act unless they get proof.

Natalie, a Park Ranger, arrives at work at Yellowstone National Park to be told that Old Faithful hasn't done anything for the last day. In Honshū, Vallian and his companion, Melanie, wait for Fuji's expected eruption. Shepherd makes plans with his students to go to South America to check out another volcano. That night, Shepherd calls his estranged wife. The next day, Fuji erupts, destroying much of the island of Honshū and triggering large tsunamis. Vallian calls Shepherd to bid farewell before he and Melanie are killed by a pyroclastic surge. Shepherd spends the night in a bar, mourning his friend. His student Brianna offers comfort and advice while listening to him explain how his marriage ended.

In the morning, news explains that Mount Kilimanjaro has erupted, so the group heads to Pasto, Colombia to do some investigating in a mine. The leader of the miners halts the group with a gun and Peter tells of the group's presence and asks what is going on. He then explains why the mine is closed saying that some men were working earlier until liquid fire poured from the earth causing havoc, killing some miners, and resulting in the mine's inactivity. Exploring the mine, they do not realize that they had unknowingly moved from the mine's shafts into attached lava tubes. Students Jacques and CJ take samples while Shepherd and Brianna head back. Sudden tremors result in Jacques and CJ to fall. Magma falls from the ceiling as it collapses, and lava spills into the tunnel, killing Jacques, severely injuring CJ, and blocking the entrance to the mine. The others survive, but the magma which has some iron from the earth's core mixed in with it given CJ severe burns which will require a skin graft. The magma surprisingly has molten iron mixed in with it which is the reason for its violently hot temperature and why it moves unusually fast.

The news reports that Mount Vesuvius and Mount Etna have erupted and destroyed most of Italy. Kai tells Dr. Shepherd that the samples from the mine were of the same composition to that of iron which is the main reason why it not only looks similar to that of molten iron, but why it moves at speeds normal lava can't usually reach, and why the lava is above its default temperature, and that someone from the USGS had hacked into their server. Kincaid admits to the hacking and stealing the data, and that he plans to present the findings to Washington as his own. During his presentation to the President and to Daugherty, Shepherd and his group interrupt and explain that they have additional evidence that Kincaid had not managed to steal. Dr. Shepard explains to President about the full Exodus theory. Predicting that the Earth will head into another Ice Age within two weeks, Dr. Shepard explains his solution that the Earth's pressure in a controlled manner under the ocean rather than letting the Earth choose. He plans to use nuclear warheads at strategic points within oceanic faults.

After the meeting, Shepherd calls his ex-wife again and demands that she leaves Yellowstone National Park as Yellowstone is also becoming more volcanically active as the Old Faithful geyser has given previous signs earlier, but she doubts Peter's warning as she states Yellowstone hasn't had a violent eruption in years though a supervolcano can erupt at any time regardless of its condition. While he's on the phone, Daugherty calls to let him know that the President has approved their plan and they now have all of the resources of the CIA at their disposal to map the ocean and figure out the plan. With the coordinates set, Daugherty lets Shepherd know that he and one of the students will work hand in hand with the naval fleets from two of its flagships, the Hyperion and the Reprisal. Brianna is left at the USGS as the go between.

Shepherd boards the Hyperion, in the Pacific Rim, by jumping from a helicopter and diving down to the sub. Kai boards the Reprisal in the Atlantic. Shepherd shows the Hyperion captain where the explosions must go in the middle of the Mariana Trench. In the morning, Natalie starts packing up her campground, while another Ranger and some scientists examine Old Faithful. Kai contacts Brianna to confirm the coordinates for his sub, which will also be passed on to Russian and British sub who will aid in the attack. Meanwhile, the Hyperion gets bounced around by volcanic activity in the trench which pummels them with debris. Natalie arrives at the next set of campgrounds, only to find an eruption already taking place, and she flees. The Hyperion suffers heavy damage, but is able to reach its coordinates and launch the warheads. It fires its first round of torpedoes, but one goes off track and hits the trench wall. Two more are fired and hit successfully.

At the same time, the Reprisal has also fired its first four torpedoes, however it takes heavy damage from the resulting debris. Shepherd loses contact with Kai, while the Hyperion continues to strike its remaining targets. Natalie tries to flee Yellowstone as geysers start spewing molten magma that starts killing multiple park visitors. The President explains that the earth for the past few weeks has been experiencing a series of violent volcanic eruptions, most of which spew molten lava more than anything else regarding volcanic ash and pyroclastic flows, and that a total of forty four nuclear tipped torpedoes are being fired to try and heal the Earth. As Shepherd prays for his wife, the lava flow at Yellowstone stops just before reaching Natalie and a large group of visitors. The Reprisal sinks, killing its crew and Kai. With the last of the torpedoes fired, the plan succeeds and the Hyperion is able to stabilize. The volcanoes of the world return to normal. Shepherd turns down a position as head of the USGS and reconciles with his wife.

Christina: Mein Gott! We got to stop it!

Christina then grew and she turned into ARCEUS!

Me: We got to move fast!

?: Let us help too!

We saw a White Hair and with her was a Pachirisu!

Hakuto: I'm Hakuto and I'm a White Hare.

Pachirisu: And I'm Honou and I'm a Pachirisu.

Me: Pleasure to meet you both. Lets go!

We got to work and healed the world by blasting the Pacific Rim and healing the world. We got back to the estate and Christina and Honou were given new clothes.

In the Aligned Transformers World, Nico, May, Maria and the group were gonna watch a movie.

Russel: I got a movie for us to watch before you guys go back home tomorrow.

Nico: Ooh what is it?

They got to watching Marvel's Dark Phoenix and it was really something.

---

In 1975, eight-year-old Jean Grey is involved in a car crash which seemingly kills both her parents, leaving her an orphan. Professor Charles Xavier takes her to Xavier's School for Gifted Youngsters, where he promises to teach Grey to use her gifts for good.

In 1992, during the first mission of the Space Shuttle Endeavour, the shuttle is critically damaged by solar flare-like energy. The president calls upon the X-Men to save the astronauts, and Jean is struck by the energy. Miraculously, she survives the blast and absorbs the rays, saving her team's aircraft. Her psychic powers are greatly amplified, but her emotional state begins to deteriorate, leading Raven Darkhölme to scold Xavier, claiming he puts the team in unnecessary danger. As she becomes increasingly stressed, Jean's powers become harder to control. She accidentally unleashes her power on mutants celebrating at Xavier's school.

Xavier reveals to the rest of the X-Men that he placed mental blocks in Jean's mind to supress her trauma. Raven is shocked at Charles' revelation. Meanwhile, the blocks in Jean's mind are destroyed by her enhanced power and her childhood trauma returns. She travels to her hometown after seeing visions of her father.

Jean finds her father alive; he had survived the car crash and forsaken her. She recovers complete memory of the accident and realizes that, unable to control her powers at the time, she had accidentally rendered her mother unconscious at the wheel with telepathy, causing the crash and killing her. This realization causes Jean's powers to spiral further out of control. The X-Men arrive and, after a brief skirmish in which Peter Maximoff is injured, Xavier freezes everyone to allow Raven time to persuade Jean to come home. Jean lashes out against Raven, accidentally killing her, and flees, while Hank McCoy weeps over Raven's body.

Hank confronts Charles, considering him responsible for Raven's death. Jean travels to the island of Genosha, a mutant refuge run by Erik Lehnsherr. She asks for help in controlling her rage, and he initially agrees. U.S. military helicopters land on the island demanding Jean's surrender. Jean attacks them, but Erik stops her and angrily banishes her, refusing to help.

Jean is found by Vuk, the leader of a shape-shifting alien race known as the D'Bari, who assumes human form. Vuk explains that the cosmic force she absorbed had wiped out the D'Bari home planet and consumed everything in its path until it was drawn to Jean. She offers to help Jean learn to use the force safely.

Hank leaves Xavier's school and allies with Erik and his faction of mutants in an attempt to kill Jean in New York City. Learning of Erik's plan, Kurt Wagner teleports the X-Men to New York to save her. While the two factions battle, Erik confronts Jean, and is defeated by her amplified powers. Xavier arrives, and convinces her to read his memories, which helps her former personality resurface. Feeling remorseful, she offers to let Vuk take the force from her. While the transfer takes place, Charles realizes that it will kill Jean and that Vuk intends to use the force to conquer Earth. Scott Summers blasts Vuk away with his optic beam, and Jean loses consciousness. U.S. government troops arrive and subdue both mutant factions.

All of the mutants are placed on a train headed towards a containment facility. Vuk and her D'Bari forces attack the train. When the D'Bari overpower the soldiers, one frees the mutants from their restraints. Charles and Scott convince Hank, Erik, and his allies that Jean is still inherently good and not beyond help. Now united to protect Jean, the mutants deal with most of the D'Bari attackers before Vuk arrives and heads for Jean, defeating each mutant who attempts to stop her.

Charles confers with Jean within his mind, and she forgives him for his errors, understanding that he did what he did out of love and that the X-Men became her real family when her father abandoned her. Jean awakens, saving the mutants from Vuk's attack and an ensuing train wreck. She then disintegrates the remaining D'Bari. Vuk once again attempts to drain the force from Jean, but Jean grabs hold of Vuk and flies into outer space. She unleashes all of her power and kills Vuk, but the strain causes her to vanish in a burst of energy in the form of a phoenix.

In the aftermath of the incident, Xavier's school is renamed the "Jean Grey School for Gifted Youngsters". Charles retires as dean, and Hank takes his place. In Paris, Charles is surprised at a café by Erik, who invites Charles for a game of chess. As they begin, a flaming phoenix appears high in the sky.

---

The movie was one of the most awesome they have seen. And Jean Grey in that movie was shown to be the most powerful mutant ever in that movie as she destroyed Vuk and the men out to kill them as well as the D'Bari. Her power was incredible.

When the movie was done they cheered wildly.

Nico: YEAH!

May: Wow that was amazing!

Maria: It sure was! I didn't know that Jean would be so powerful with the Phoenix Force.

Jack: I don't know why people thought this movie was crap.

Nico: I know it was awesome!

May: Yeah it sure was. The special effects were awesome.

Maria: It sure was.

May: Good thing people don't hate mutants anymore.

Maria: Yeah thank goodness. All mutants are human no matter how people look at them.

Nico: Well said sis.

Miko: Yeah those blockheads! They have no right to hurt mutants like that.

Nico: Yeah.

Lincoln, Sam, Clover, and Alex, who are in their new swim clothes were heading to the beach in Los Angeles, California.

Lincoln: It's good to come here to the beach in Los Angeles.

Sam Simpson: You said it, Lincoln, and it's really beautiful here.

Lincoln and The Totally Spies were having fun in the sun and in the ocean, but it wasn't going to be a fun time. Suddenly, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs were glowing, and that means trouble. Then, they heard the familiar sound of a cage dropping from far away.

CLANG!

Sam Simpson: What was that?

Lincoln: Trouble, and I know who's behind this.

Lincoln and the Totally Spies got to the cage, and they saw the Trump supporters, this time, it was about 7,953 of them, less than last time. But, Lincoln still called Agent Waco and the FBI, who then loaded them up in armored cars, and took them to prison.

Lincoln, me, Nicole, Eli, Nanette, Lyra Loud, and The Wild Force Rescue Power Rangers were off to rescue another girl who's been kidnapped by McWolf, and the next girl McWolf's holding is in Peru, South America. Ronnie Anne, Greiger, The Dark Signer of The Whale, and Arturo Santiago were with us.

Lincoln: So, the next girl McWolf is holding is right here in Peru.

Me: Wow, and Ronnie Anne told us her dad was in Peru for two years.

Arturo Santiago: That's right, J.D.

Ronnie Anne: Did you meet Greiger's siblings when you were in Peru, Dad?

Arturo Santiago: Si, mija, I did, and they were very nice people.

Greiger: Wait, I did remember meeting Arturo when he was working in Peru two years ago. We gave him a tour of our village, and we had a great time.

Me: We'll have to set up a day to meet your siblings, Greiger.

We arrived in McWolf's castle which was north of Greiger's village, and we went to the room where he was holding the girl. We saw that the girl McWolf kidnapped was Ajna.

Lincoln: Wow, it's Ajna

Nicole: From the video game, Indivisible. She was trained in the martial arts when she was a child, and she knows how to wield weapons, and she speaks Spanish.

Ronnie Anne: That's incredible.

Lincoln went up to Ajna and freed her.

Ajna: Thanks for freeing me.

Then, when Ajna saw who freed her, she had a small blush on her face when she saw the 7'0" tall, bare-chested, handsome, white-haired, and extremely muscular hunk with deep sapphire blue eyes, she had a blush on her face upon seeing Lincoln.

Super Sonico: Que guapo, you must be Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you, Ajna.

Ajna: Same here, handsome.

Ronnie Anne: It's an honor to meet you, Ajna.

Ajna: You too, Ronnie Anne.

Then, McWolf came out.

Greiger: I'm surprised that you built your castle here just north of my village, McWolf.

McWolf: I thought that setting my castle up in Peru was rather appropriate, and I was careful not to alert your brothers, Greiger, and since you have the Wild Force Power Rangers with you, I've got just the baddies for you to fight. PUTRIDS!

Then, an army of Putrids appeared from the darkness.

Cole Evans: Putrids. Alright, guys, let's do this.

Nanette: Count me in, as well.

The Wild Force Power Rangers, Lincoln, and Nanette walked up to the army of Putrids.

Wild Force Power Rangers and Lincoln: WILD ACCESS! HA!

The Wild Force Rangers transformed, and Lincoln transformed into his new Wild Force Power Ranger form, but his Wild Force Power Ranger uniform and helmet is orange, and going with his animal spirit, The Buffalo, his large orange helmet is shaped like a buffalo's head with silver buffalo horns on top and blue eyes, and it goes well with his Sword of Taranis he'd unholstered from his wider muscular back, along with the eight large orange orbs orbiting around his legs, and he spreads his larger blue angel wings surging with powerful super lightning and with stars and blue nebulae reflecting in them.

Cole: Blazing Lion, Wild Force Red!

Taylor: Soaring Eagle, Wild Force Yellow!

Max: Surging Shark, Wild Force Blue!

Danny: Iron Bison, Wild Force Black!

Alyssa: Noble Tiger, Wild Force White!

Merrick: Howling Wolf, Lunar Wolf Ranger!

Kendall: Magnificent Peacock, Wild Force Aqua!

Lincoln: Powerful Buffalo, Wild Force Orange!

Cole: "Guardians Of The Earth, United We Roar! Power Rangers… !"

All: "… Wild Force!"

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive explosion erupted behind them.

Me: Wow, Lincoln looks awesome as a Wild Force Power Ranger.

Merrick: That's awesome, and we did see his Jungle Fury Buffalo Ranger form when you guys went to Wumpa Island.

Cole: And with a Jungle Fury Ranger form, he now has a Wild Force

Ranger form. Nice.

McWolf: Alright, let's do this.

Lincoln: Right.

The Wild Force Rangers, Lincoln, and Nanette went after the Putrids, and blasted them with powerful blasts of fire, Lincoln fired powerful neon blue energy blasts and elemental blasts, and elemental blasts, and slashed them with their weapons, and destroyed them. Ajna went after a few of them, and she punched, kicked, and slashed them with her axe, destroying them. Then, Lincoln changed back to normal, and he, Eli, and me jumped McWolf, and tickled him.

McWolf: (LAUGHING HYSTERICALLY)

We ceased the tickling, helped McWolf up, and left the castle to head back to the Estate.

Later Laney was in the garden helping Georgina.

Georgina: Thanks for helping me today, Laney.

Laney: Anytime Georgina. I always like gardening. It's amazing.

Georgina: I do too. You plant all kinds of beautiful flowers and everything.

Laney: You sure do.

They were planting everything.

August 21

---

It was the morning of August 21, 2021, we knew exactly what that day was, today was the one-year anniversary we went into battle with The Royal Defenders, who were turned into tyrannical monsters, corrupted by the dark magic of Sindri Myr, The Chaos Sorcerer. We were having breakfast, and we saw The Royal Defenders come in, but they, except RD Me, had bloodshot eyes, and they looked like they hadn't had a good night sleep last night.

Me: Whoa, you guys look like you didn't sleep good last night.

The Royal Defenders versions of The Loud Siblings and their friends told us of their nightmares last night, pertaining to when they were still tyrannical monsters under the corruption of Sindri Myr, and we gasped in shock, and then, they broke down and cried. Lincoln and his sisters went up to their Royal Defenders counterparts, and the sisters hugged their counterparts, and Lincoln picked up RD Lincoln and hugged him, wrapping him in his abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and The Royal Defenders cried heavily into their chests. That really broke our hearts, seeing them cry like this, including RD Me.

Our new recruits from the past few months saw this, and they had some questions for us about this.

Ace Bunny: The Royal Defenders sure had some horrific nightmares last night, any reason why they broke down like this, J.D.?

Me: There's a reason why The Royal Defenders had those nightmares last night, Ace. You see, today is the one-year anniversary that we went into battle with The Royal Defenders in their universe.

The new recruits from the past few months gasped, and they knew about that day, and that we and The Masters of Evil triumphed, and we defeated The Royal Defenders, and destroyed their version of Royal Woods in the process.

Zadavia: I heard about the war, and it was a momentous triumph. But, I suspect that there's more to the story.

Lincoln: You're right, Zadavia, there's more to the story. Before we met Dan and The Bakugan Battle Brawlers and we went into battle with Barodius, we'd met The Royal Defenders version of J.D., and he told all of us, including Ed Cowart, everything, and we found out the dark truth as to why The Royal Defenders were acting like tyrannical monsters: they were corrupted by the dark magic of Sindri Myr, The Chaos Sorcerer from Warhammer 40,000, and Hunter knows him all too well.

Hunter: (German-Hungarian Accent) Ja, he was a monster.

Hunter told the new recruits everything about Sindri Myr, and Lincoln told them about the events of The War with The Royal Defenders, and as soon as they finished, the new recruits gasped in horror, now they knew the truth about why The Royal Defenders turned into tyrannical monsters. It was due to Sindri Myr's corruption.

Tech E Coyote: My God.

Danger Duck: So, that's why… , oh man.

Rev Runner: This… is horrible, now we know the truth.

Buster Bunny: They say the truth hurts, Rev, but this, from what we were told about him by Hunter, and what we were told about the war by Lincoln, this has gone way beyond bad. That monster, Sindri Myr, if we so much as go after that monster, he will die such a horrible death, and he will be forever obliterated from existence.

Me: Actually, that won't be necessary, Buster.

RD Me: He's right, after I was freed, I was the one who obliterated Sindri Myr from existence for what he did to my friends, and after coming here, we went to their prison and administered the cure, thus freeing them from Sindri Myr's influence, but the trauma over the horrible things they did under that monster's corrupting influence, came back at them in full force, and we comforted them.

Bugs Bunny: That's horrible, doc.

The rest of us and the new recruits joined in on the hug, comforting them, and that'd caused tears to fall from our eyes. We didn't let go of them until three hours later, and they needed that comfort from us.

Ace Bunny put his hand on RD Lincoln's head in comfort.

Ace Bunny: This wasn't your fault, RD Lincoln.

RD Lincoln: I know, Ace, but… , sometimes, it still hurts. I can't believe what Sindri Myr did to us, and we caused so much pain and suffering to others. I'm glad you guys destroyed FutureTech and their weapons stores, and our headquarters. We were supposed to be heroes to others, instead we became nothing but tyrannical monsters, thanks to Sindri Myr.

Lincoln: But, thanks to J.D. and RD J.D. freeing you and your family and friends from Sindri Myr, you guys are now on the road to redemption, and RD J.D. is now back to being the leader of The Royal Defenders.

RD Lincoln looked Lincoln in his deep sapphire blue eyes, and he had a smile on his face and tears in his eyes, Lincoln spoke the truth, and it felt like Lincoln just cut through the darkness in RD Lincoln and the rest of The Royal Defenders, as soon as he looked into Lincoln's deep sapphire blue eyes. RD Lincoln continued hugging Lincoln, who didn't let go.

RD Lincoln: Thank you, Lincoln.

Lincoln: You're welcome, little buddy.

We had tears in our eyes, and a smile on our faces at the scene we saw. The girls in Lincoln's harem saw just how comforting Lincoln really is, and they also smiled, and they had tears in their eyes.

Later, Me and Janelle the Jolteon Gene-Slammer were walking through the streets of Tokyo, Japan.

Janelle Kerumma: I wonder who we're rescuing this time.

Janelle concentrated and groaned as she fell to all fours.

Me: We'll find out shortly.

Janelle turned into JOLTEON!

Me: YEAH!

Suddenly we felt a massive earthquake!

Me: WHOA!

Janelle Jolteon: WHAT AN EARTHQUAKE!

It measured at 9.4 on the Richter Scale!

Me: WHOA! 9.4! That is powerful!

I formed a force field and stopped a bunch of buildings from falling onto us.

When the quake stopped we thought our troubles were done. But they were just starting.

Janelle Jolteon: Where was the Epicenter of that quake?

Me: Hmm. It says that the epicenter was located 50 miles away from Honshu in the ocean. UH OH! LOOK!

We looked out and we saw a massive 200 foot high tsunami heading right for us!

Me: WHOA! LOOK AT THAT WAVE!

Janelle Jolteon: We have to get to higher ground!

Me: NO TIME!

I formed a huge force field wall and it protected all of Japan.

?: Let us help you all!

We saw a Cupid and she had a Girafarig with her!

Me: Whoa a Cupid, the Personification of Love.

Janelle Jolteon: And a Girafarig.

The Wave smashed into the huge force field and it was immensly powerful and then the wave died down 3 hours later and then I dropped the force field.

Me: Whew! That was intense.

Nima: That's right. My name is Nima and yes I'm a Cupid.

Girafarig: And I'm Kira Takinawa and yes I'm a Girafarig.

Me: Pleasure to meet you both.

I put on my blind man glasses and reverted Kira back. She was naked. Janelle reverted back too.

Janelle was human again. But naked.

Janelle: (covers herself) It takes a while for my human mind to reemerge.

Nima: That's understandable.

Kira Takinawa: (Covers herself) That wave was huge though! Thank you saved all of Japan.

Me: Yeah that wave was huge!

I gave Janelle and Kira clothes.

Kira Takinawa: Thanks J.D.

They put the clothes on.

Nima: That was quick thinking forming that force field to save all of Japan.

Me: I had to think fast. It was a life or death situation. If I didn't think of something millions would have died.

Nima: It's good that force field held.

Me: Yeah.

We went back to the Estate.

---

Nico, May and Maria were ready to come home.

Aligned Bumblebee: It really was good having you three over.

Nico: Thanks guys. It was awesome hanging out with you guys for the week. It was the best vacation we've had.

May: You said it and we got to have so much fun.

Maria: We sure did.

Nico: Lets go home.

Aligned Bulkhead: Like I said, if you 3 ever feel that J.D.'s anger is becoming too much for you, you're welcome to stay with us full time.

Nico: Thanks Bulkhead. See you all shortly.

Nico opened the portal and he, May and Maria went through it.

They went through the portal.

Aligned Grimlock: Well, there go 3 good friends back into the neverending battle against evil.

RID Optimus: It's an endless battle Grimlock. But Team Loud Phoenix Storm is always ready for anything.

Aligned Bumblebee: They always are.

---

In my room, I was having a secret conversation with Eli Shane on my holographic phone.

Eli Shane: Thanks for calling J.D.

Me: Anytime Eli and we owe you big time for helping us when the war with Xehanort broke out.

Eli Shane: You're welcome J.D. Things are getting really intense here. It's been one battle after another down here in Slugterra against the forces of Blakk. He has been sending enemy after enemy.

Me: Sounds like you guys have your hands full. I've heard about Blakk and all the evil deeds he has caused to the 99 Caves. But it's hard to imagine that he wants nothing more than to kill you like he did so to your father.

Eli Shane: I know.

Me: But we'll do everything we can to help you out when the time comes. Just hold on for as long as you can till September 8th and we'll be there.

Eli Shane: Okay J.D. and you also may need this for your adventures too.

He beamed in a case and I opened it and in it was 2 Slugslinger blasters as well as a slug for me. It was an Infernus and the second Slug was a Narwhaddle.

Me: My own Slugslinging Blaster.

Eli Shane: Figured I can help you be prepared.

Me: Thanks Eli. Nico will love the second one. See you soon.

The call Clicked off.

I went down.

Squidward: J.D., don't you think we have more important matters then pissed Blakk off? The Loud Kids are starting to get suspicious of Nico running off all the time!

Me: I'm well aware of that. But I don't plan to attack Blakk just yet.

Poromon: Maybe keeping this secret was a bad idea!

Poliwag: Damn right it was! Why did I ever agree to this? This isn't who I am! I looked in the mirror this morning and felt like I was staring at someone else!

Horsea: Was it Scott Bakula?

Poliwag: How did you know?

Horsea: Lucky guess.

Me: If that were a guessing game you would get $1,000.00.

They laughed.

William: (to me) No offense, dude. But we wouldn't be in this position right now if it weren't for your angry attitude toward criminal scumbags. Still think getting Blakk pissed off is a good idea?

Me: None taken but William I'm not angry at anyone yet. But I will be when the time comes. Besides William, I'm cool now. But don't worry, the time will come for that.

The portal appeared and Nico, May and Maria appeared.

Me: Welcome home guys.

Nico: Thanks man.

Me: You guys have fun?

Nico: You bet we did. What did we miss?

Me: Lots of things.

I told him everything and they were shocked and amazed.

They told us everything they did and it was awesome.

Later, Nico and Qin were going with Nicole and Daring Do.

Nico: Kairi and his team are gonna be sad that they didn't come with us!

Qin: I know but they always have fun kicking monsters butts. That's good enough for them.

Nicole: That's right.

Nico: What treasure are we gonna try and find this time Nicole?

Nicole: You'll love it Nico. It's called the Spear of Xiuhtecuhtli. Legends say that it's located in the middle of Utila Volcano in Honduras.

Qin: Wow! This is gonna be interesting.

Nicole: Xiuhtecuhtli is the Aztec God of Fire and the Spear is said to be as powerful as 100 billion volcanic eruptions combined.

Nico: WHOA That is amazing!

Daring Do: It sure is something.

Qin: This is gonna be so cool!

They went into the volcano and Qin got the spear and it gave her an incredible power boost! It was a 7 foot long spear made of pure gold and it had a snake made of pure fire on the spear tip and had red jewels on the shaft and spear head.

Lincoln, Shantae, Tyris Flare, Blaze Fielding, Cassandra Alexandra, and Julie Makimoto were heading to Coney Island, New York. Shantae was in her new two-piece dark purple bikini with magic smoke on it.

Lincoln: Ah, Coney Island, New York, this is what I call an awesome vacation here.

Blaze Fielding: You said it, Lincoln. Coney Island is one of the most famous beaches here in New York.

Lincoln, Shantae, Tyris Flare, Blaze Fielding, Cassandra Alexandra, and Julie Makimoto were having fun in the ocean and resting in the sun. Suddenly, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs were glowing, and that means trouble. Then, they heard the familiar sound of a cage dropping from far away.

CLANG!

Blaze Fielding: Trouble again?

Lincoln: Yep.

Lincoln and the girls walked up to the cage, and they found more Trump supporters trapped inside the cage, 4,241 of them, and they had weapons on them. They were eventually carted off to jail by Agent Waco and the FBI, who loaded them up into armored cars and took them away.

Lincoln told us everything that happened on his dates, and we were surprised to find out Lincoln set up those traps, and to our shock and awe, they caught tons of Trump's supporters, 66,649 of them, and he, Ruby, Weiss, Blake, Yang, Akko, Emerald Sustrai, Dew Gayl and Minerva Mink took care of Perfecto Prep, who were pissed off at us for destroying Xehanort and the True Organization XIII and for throwing Montana Max and Elmyra Duff in prison. We put Rhubella Rat and Margot Mallard under our protection, after Lincoln told us what they just did to their former boyfriends, and we found out Roderick Rat and his goons got Life Without Parole for their crimes against Acme Acres, and Perfecto Prep was closed down, as more of the staff was arrested and sent to prison for good, and the 66,649 Trump supporters who were caught were given Life Sentences in Federal Prison Without Possibility of Parole, and that was a major blow to the Trump supporters.

Lincoln, me, Nicole, Eli, Sydney, and The Dino Charge Power Rangers were off to rescue two girls who've been kidnapped by McWolf, and they're being held in The Great Outback in Australia. Ty the Tasmanian Tiger and Sly the Tasmanian Tiger were with us, along with Shazza, Valon, and Crash Bandicoot.

Lincoln: So, the two girls that McWolf is holding are right here in The Great Outback in Australia.

Sydney: I've never been to Australia before, it's so amazing.

Me: And we've been to Australia many times before, and not only do we know a lot of heroes and villains who were born in Australia, we also stopped some villains there before.

Ty the Tasmanian Tiger: (Australian Accent) That's right, villains such as Boss Cass and The Sinister 6 before they joined The Masters of Evil.

Lincoln: Hmm, I know that Boss Cass is dead, but doesn't Boss Cass have an accomplice, Ty?

Ty the Tasmanian Tiger: (Australian Accent) You mean Fluffy, Boss Cass' top inventor? Oh, yeah, and ever since she heard Boss Cass was destroyed and banished to The Warp, she's now wanting one thing: revenge on J.D. for destroying Boss Cass. But, she has a dark side inside her, and I need you to get that monster out of her, Lincoln.

Valon: (Australian Accent) You're right about that, Ty, and once Dark Fluffy shows up, you'll show no mercy on her.

Sly the Tasmanian Tiger: (Australian Accent) That's right, and we'll be with you when that happens.

We've arrived in McWolf's castle which was north of The Great Outback, and we went into the room where he was holding the girls. We saw that the girls McWolf kidnapped were Kyoko and Misako from River City Girls.

Lincoln: Wow, it's Kyoko and Misako.

Nicole: From River City Girls, awesome. They're also some pretty tough fighters, as well.

Lincoln went up to Kyoko and Misako and freed them.

Kyoko: Thanks for freeing me.

Misako: Same here.

Then, when Kyoko and Misako saw who freed them, they had a small blush on their faces when they saw the 7'0" tall, bare-chested, handsome, white-haired hunk with abnormally large and powerful muscles, eight-pack abs, and deep sapphire blue eyes, they had a blush on their faces upon seeing Lincoln.

Kyoko: Oh, wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you and Misako, Kyoko.

Kyoko: Same here, handsome.

Misako: Hmm, big, tall, strong, handsome, and a tough fighter, I think we'll get along great together, along with your future wife, Lily the Mermaid, and your other future wives.

Then, McWolf came out.

Eli: I'm surprised you built your castle here in The Great Outback in Australia, McWolf.

McWolf: Yeah, and since Ty, Sly, and Shazza are here, I think it's time that we got rid of Fluffy's dark side once and for all.

McWolf disabled the cloaking devices, and right on the four walls of the castle were the four talisman cards. Then, they started glowing purple, and a portal opened up. Then, they saw a figure pulled out of the portal and lands in front of the team, and the portal permanently closed. It was Boss Cass' top inventor and former hench-lizard, Fluffy, and another enemy of Ty and his friends, before she became a member of Ty's group.

Fluffy: Ugh… , where am I?

Then, Fluffy saw the team, and she was indeed enraged at seeing us. The news of Boss Cass' death and banishment to The Warp has left her with only one thing: revenge for Boss Cass' death.

Fluffy: Team Loud Phoenix Storm?!

Ty the Tasmanian Tiger: (Australian Accent) That's right, the killers of Boss Cass, and now, we're here to put an end to the dark side of you, Fluffy, for helping Boss Cass in his schemes.

McWolf: And you're not going anywhere except to The Warp forever.

Just like what happened to Octoroo and Sharkjaw, the talisman cards pulled you out from your hiding place, and once you were in the castle, the portal closed forever. And there's another thing, I also put a bomb in your secret lab right near the remains of Boss Cass' lair, and it's about to detonate… right… now!

Then, the bomb in Fluffy's lab exploded and was reduced to smoldering ruins, and we all felt the vibrations from inside the castle.

Ty the Tasmanian Tiger: (Australian Accent) Now, Lincoln.

Lincoln fired a blast of light at Fluffy, which separated her and her dark side, now born as Dark Fluffy. We got Fluffy to safety, and Eli was with her.

Fluffy woke up, and she saw us.

Fluffy: Team Loud Phoenix Storm, ugh, what happened?

Eli: It's a long story, Fluffy.

Then, she saw Dark Fluffy, and she knew that she's been separated from her dark side for good.

Fluffy: Ty, everyone, don't let that monster live.

Ty the Tasmanian Tiger: (Australian Accent) You got it, Fluffy, and now, it's time to end this, Dark Fluffy.

Suddenly, Ty the Tasmanian Tiger unholstered his Sword of The Ancient Tasmanian Clan, and he was surrounded by a red energy aura, along with red lightning and Tasmanian tigers, and his green eyes turned neon green.

Ty the Tasmanian Tiger: (Australian Accent) Dark Fluffy, you and Boss Cass have tormented me, Fluffy, and my mates, and terrorized my home for the last time. Boss Cass has bitten the dust, and was banished to The Warp, and now, it's your turn to join him in eternal torment in The Warp forever!

Then, a massive vortex of crimson red energy surrounded Ty the Tasmanian Tiger, and the vortex was surrounded by crimson red lightning, Tasmanian tigers running around the vortex, and boomerangs flying through the air, and inside of the vortex was a crimson red phoenix. Then, as the massive red vortex faded, along with the Tasmanian tigers and boomerangs, Ty the Tasmanian Tiger emerged, but he was changed forever.

(IMPERATRIX MUNDI PLAYS AT 1:45 TO 2:14)

Ty the Tasmanian Tiger was now 6'10" in height, he now had large and powerful muscles and eight-pack abs, due to the intense training we put him through and thanks to his constant adventures of stopping Boss Cass, his green eyes became neon green, he had a crimson red energy aura with red lightning, boomerangs, and Tasmanian Tigers surrounding it, he had large crimson red angel wings with orange tips, he has a Tasmanian tiger with the symbols of fire, ice, and thunder emblazoned on his forehead. Ty now has a full head of hair, and he has on a pair of silver Tasmanian tiger earrings with the kanjis of Fire, Ice, and Thunder, and a silver necklace with the Fire, Ice, and Thunder Kanjis arranged in a triangle, and his red neckerchief has gotten bigger. He now has on his Bracelets of The Champions of The Universe, and the gems around them are crimson red, and he has on his own Belt of Elemental Bravery, and the belt has a large red gem for the belt buckle. He has an Eater of Sins revolver and his boomerangs holstered on his left and right hips. Ty's red sleeveless trenchcoat has gotten longer, along with his red shorts decorated with yellow flowers, and he now has on a pair of crimson red leather combat boots with his pawprint on the bottom of the boots, he also has on a pair of black fingerless gloves with a red phoenix on the back of the gloves. Ty's red sleeveless trenchcoat is now decorated with boomerangs and Tasmanian tigers, and right on the back of the red sleeveless trenchcoat is a boomerang, Ty's signature weapon. On the bottom of the boomerang is a yellow kanji that says, "Ty the Tasmanian Tiger, Australia's Brave Boomerang-Flinging Hero, Master of Fire, Ice, and Thunder, Loyal Friend to Many, Destroyer of Boss Cass, and Loving Boyfriend of Shazza" Ty the Tasmanian Tiger has transformed into SUPER ANGEL 500,000,000,000 TRI-ELEMENTAL TASMANIAN TIGER ANGEL OF BRAVERY!

We were stunned upon seeing Ty's new Super Angel

500,000,000,000 form, and Shazza was already blushing at what happened to Ty.

Eli: Wow, Ty's transformed, and he's also hit a serious growth spurt.

Me: Awesome. How do you feel, Ty?

Ty the Tasmanian Tiger: (Divine Echoing Elemental Voice) I feel incredible, J.D., and now, I'm going to take you down once and for all, Dark Fluffy.

Ty the Tasmanian Tiger flew after Dark Fluffy, and he attacked her with his boomerangs, and he fired powerful blasts of fire, ice, and lightning, along with red energy blasts. He also slashed her with his Sword of The Ancient Tasmanian Tiger Clan, and he also fired red energy boomerangs from every swing of his sword. Lincoln flared up his massive neon blue energy aura with lightning, and his deep sapphire blue eyes had turned neon sapphire blue, as he transforms into Super Angel-Ebonwu 500,000,000,000,000 Supercell Lightning Thunderbird Furious Hyperstorm of Justice, and attacked Dark Fluffy with powerful blasts of neon blue energy, super lightning, and elemental blasts, and slashed her with his Sword of Taranis.

Ty the Tasmanian Tiger: (Divine Echoing Elemental Voice) Sly, Shazza, you ready to use a combo and destroy Dark Fluffy once and for all.

Sly the Tasmanian Tiger: (Australian Accent) You got it, bro.

Shazza: (Australian Accent) With you all the way, Possum.

Ty the Tasmanian Tiger, Sly the Tasmanian Tiger, and Shazza: ELEMENTAL BOOMERANG BARRAGE!

Ty the Tasmanian Tiger, Sly the Tasmanian Tiger, and Shazza fired powerful boomerangs made from the elemental forces of Fire, Ice, Thunder, Earth, Water, Nature, Light, and Darkness, and they hit Dark Fluffy, and explode with incredible power, killing her and banishing her to The Warp to join Boss Cass in eternal psychic torment.

Ty powered down, but his new form and body, along with his new and longer clothes, jewelry, angel wings, and new weapons were permanent. Lincoln powered down, and his neon deep sapphire blue eyes changed back to deep sapphire blue. Misako and Kyoko were impressed by how much of a tough fighter Lincoln really is.

McWolf: That's the end of Dark Fluffy, and since you have the Dino Charge Rangers with you, I've got some old friends for you to fight. VIVIX!

Then, an army of Vivix appeared from the darkness.

Tyler Navarro: Vivix, I should've known you'd summon them, McWolf. Alright, you guys, let's do this.

Sydney: Count me in, as well.

The Dino Charge Power Rangers, Lincoln, and Sydney walked up to the army of Vivix troops summoned by McWolf.

Dino Charge Power Rangers and Lincoln: It's Morphin Time! Dino Charger Ready! Energize! Ha! Unleash The Power!

RRRRRROOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOAAAAAAAAAA
CHOMP!

The Dino Charge Power Rangers have transformed, and Lincoln transformed into his new Dino Charge Power Ranger form, but his Dino Charge Power Ranger uniform and helmet is orange with a black visor, and it goes well with his Sword of Taranis he unholstered from his wider muscular back, along with the eight large orange orbs orbiting around his legs, and he spreads his larger blue angel wings surging with powerful super lightning and with stars and blue nebulae reflecting in them.

Tyler: Power Rangers Charged! Tyrannosaurus Rex! Power Ranger, Red!

Chase: Parasaurolophus! Power Ranger, Black!

Koda: Stegosaurus! Power Ranger, Blue!

Riley: Velociraptor! Power Ranger, Green!

Shelby: Triceratops! Power Ranger, Pink!

Ivan: Pterodactyl! Power Ranger, Gold!

Kendall: Plesiosaurus! Power Ranger, Purple!

Prince Phillip III: Pachycephalosaurus! Power Ranger, Graphite!

James Navarro: Ankylosaurus! Power Ranger, Aqua!

Zenowing: Titanosaurus! Power Ranger, Silver!

Lincoln: Acrocanthosaurus! Power Ranger, Orange!

All: Dinosaur Might, Ready To Fight! Power Rangers Dino Charge!

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off behind them and they were ready!

Eli: Wow, Lincoln looks awesome as a Dino Charge Power Ranger.

Me: You said it, bro.

Tyler Navarro: Alright, team, let's get them.

The Dino Charge Rangers, Lincoln, and Sydney charged after the army of Vivix, and blasted them with energy blasts, and Lincoln fired neon blue energy blasts, lightning, and elemental blasts, Sydney fired blasts of stars, and Kyoko and Misako pummeled another group of Vivix, and they also slashed them with their weapons, and destroyed the Vivix troops. Then, Lincoln changed back, and he, Eli, me, and Sydney jumped McWolf, and tickled him.

McWolf: (LAUGHING HYSTERICALLY)

We ceased tickling McWolf, and we left the castle, and returned home to The World Tree Estate.

Vypra: Well, Dark. You know what today is.

Dark Spicer: Yep. The anniversary of the Royal Defenders' defeat.

(sheepishly) Looking back, I wonder if that's worth celebrating.

Me: In our eyes it is. This day is a very big part of our history.

Ed Cowart: Yeah it was a big part.

RD Lincoln: It was a big part. But I can't believe we were like that in our universe.

RD Me: Yeah but thank goodness I managed to free you all when the battle with Barodius was about to break out.

Nico: Yeah that was crazy.

Me: Yep. Lets head to Lynn's Table to celebrate.

We did so and we were having a great party.

Maria: I remember that it was J.D. who discovered your universe.

RD Lincoln: How did he find out about it?

Me: I was surfing the internet and that's when I saw a story about you guys. I immediately called everyone in and told them all about whats been going on in your universe.

Sunset Shimmer: Wow that's amazing.

Eli: Boy it sure is.

Arrietty: I think so too.

RD Lincoln: It sure is cool.

Firefly: Many of us had a few… ideas on how to deal with you guys.

Nico: Yeah it was nuts.

Me: Yeah.

RD Lincoln: We enslaved Twilight Sparkle and Friends, Demoralized many heroes and did all kinds of terrible things.

Me: Yeah and that made us mad. After the war was over, your universes version of Ben made the ultimate sacrifice and turned into Alien X to reset the whole of universe 23.

Eli: Wow that is a big sacrifice.

Arrietty: It sure is. He's a true hero.

Young Ben: Yeah I'll say.

Me: But what happened when we faced you guys was incredible.

RD Me: But thank goodness you guys stopped my friends. Otherwise I wouldn't have been able to get myself free and kill Sindri Myr.

Robo Blaze: I remember me and Robo Roxy joined up to prepare for said war.

Me: I remember that. But the most terrible thing that was crazy for the Royal Defenders to do was recruit Bill Cipher.

RD Girl Jordan: I don't know what the hell we were thinking in doing that!

RD Lana: Yeah we had to be out of our minds for that!

Discord: Oh really? Out of your minds doesn't even begin to describe it.

Hunter: (German Accent) Ja. Und recruiting someone like Bill Cipher is dangerous.

Me: No kidding!

Tracer: (British Accent) Yeah that's crazy!

Winston: What happened with us in Overwatch is crazy.

Tyler Bowman: As well as us and the Benevolent Alliance.

Akira Akatsuki: And the way they mocked us for calling DISKS stupid.

Penn: And how RD Lincoln pulverized me for getting into his body.

Phineas: And for pampering Candace and treating her like a princess.

May: And let's not forget what happened to that other version of Ruth.

Me: Yeah. That was essentially the straw that broke the camel's back.

Nico: Yep.

Leni: Can that happen to a camel?

Me: No Leni it's just a figure of speech. It means it's the one thing that causes you to get mad.

Eli: Wow that's nuts! (To RD Lincoln) You guys killed your version of Aunt Ruth!?

RD Lincoln: Yeah because she was a tyrant.

Carol: Yeah that's nuts!

Linka: Not only that but you guys threw the entirety of my version of my family in your universe into prison and had her disown the entirety of the family.

Nico: Because of the Bad Luck travesty.

Lynn: That's brutal.

Lynn Jr.: Yeah that's nuts! I can't believe that I would take superstitions that far!

Eli: No kidding! I would kick that version of you in the crotch for that.

Lynn Jr. covered his manhood and gulped in fear.

Me: I guess that's what happens when you take stupid superstitions way too far.

Nico: Yep.

Vince: That is crazy.

Ets: But thank goodness it didn't happen here.

Me: Yeah thank goodness. But the cutest thing we saw in that universe is that RD Lincoln and RD Girl Jordan are a couple.

Girl Jordan: Just like me and Linky.

Me: It's cute.

Snake: What about those Gyro, Hollow, Jack Cyber, and Neil Spellman dudes?

RD Me: I found out that Sindri Myr had them sent to make sure that the Royal Defenders stay corrupted under his influence.

Me: Whoa! I guess it's good that we banished them to the Warp.

Eli: No kidding!

Hunter: Sindri Myr always had a bad reputation of corrupting und brainwashing people into doing his bidding.

Nemo: That's horrible. What he was doing to everyone in Universe 23 was absolutely evil.

Edwayl: (Breton Accent) It sure was terrible.

Delizia: (Italian Accent) That is-a terrible.

Nico: No kidding.

Electro: (to RD Lincoln and RD Luna) You two were actually the ringleaders of your entire team even though they were evil.

RD Lincoln: That's right we were.

RD Luna: But now that our J.D. is back we can be officially reinstated as 2nd and 3rd in command.

RD Me: You see I am the true leader of the Royal Defenders. I was stripped of my position because of Sindri Myr.

Nico: Whoa that's crazy!

Me: Yeah no kidding.

Vypra: But thank goodness that you got freed when Universe 23's Ben reset the universe.

Laney: That is a good thing.

Poliwag: (to RD Lincoln) I think you were also able to wield Thor's hammer before.

RD Lincoln: That's right I was.

Me: That's incredible! No one other than Thor was able to use his hammer and I tried to lift it with all my strength but it was impossible!

Thor: J.D. is right. No one other than me cannot lift it.

Nico: Yeah.

RD Lincoln: I guess it has something to do with my lightning powers.

Me: And Thor is the God of Thunder in Norse Myth.

Lincoln: Maybe I can use your hammer Thor. Me and Linka got our powers from the Iroquois God of Thunder.

Paula: Maybe all the lightning power masters can use it.

Me: That's a possibility.

Shiv: (to RD Lincoln) I also remember you breaking Nico's back and Gabriel immediately beating you up for it.

Nico: OH YOU HAD TO BRING THAT UP DIDN'T YOU!?

Shiv: Sorry.

RD Lincoln: Yeah I'm sorry I did that Nico.

Nico: It's all right. I got all better thanks to Sabretooth's accelerated healing.

Me: Good thing too.

Poromon: Most of us did a lot of combo attacks in the war.

Me: Yeah we sure did.

RD Lincoln: We totally underestimated your teamwork and skills. You taught everyone in your entire team well J.D.

Me: We all have to work together to win. Also when you get cocky you get sloppy and you're bound to make mistakes.

Nico: That's right.

Manaphy: I think we faced you guys a few more times even after the war ended.

Me: Yeah we sure did. The most crazy one was during the adventures of The Zombie Apocalypse.

Shizuka Marikawa: Zombies!?

Me: These are unlike the zombies you all faced in your world Shizuka. These were the zombies from movies and video games like Resident Evil, I Am Legend, Ghosts From Mars, Army of Darkness, The Simpsons, Dawn of The Dead, those movies.

Shizuka Marikawa: Oh that's a relief.

Lincoln hugged her close.

Me: Yeah. We actually used you guys as live bait to get Dark Ace that was over in that world out into the open.

Nico: That plan backfired bad.

Me: Yeah it sure did.

Eli: I remember that.

Nico: Sindri Myr might be gone but we should always remember to not become corrupt with our powers.

Me: That's right. With great power comes great responsibility.

Eli: Yep.

RD Lincoln: I'm glad you guys didn't become like us.

Me: Yep and now we can rub the fact that Justice Lord Superman was completely wrong in his face.

We laughed at that.

Nico: Yeah that's true!

RD Lincoln: Justice Lord Superman?

Me: He is a version of Superman from an alternate universe that killed his version of Lex Luthor because he murdered their version of Flash. Ugly story.

RD Lincoln: Okay.

We went to the park and we saw an amazing statue of me and Nico & Vypra and Dark Spicer facing RD Lincoln and it had a plaque on it that commemorated the date today for it. It was amazing.

* * *

Later in the Early Morning Hours, at 2:11 AM, I was having a really interesting dream and I saw that I was in the Crystal Empire over 1000 years ago and it showed a terrible story.

1000 years ago when Sombra was at the height of his power and Princess Celestia was acting as general for the front lines while Luna stayed back to protect the capital. Celestia was losing when a male alicorn offered his aid. At first she was hesitant but an attack on an outpost and the outlander army pushing back the assault caused Celestia to trust him and give him a chance. Lyrix became a very valuable ally and over the months the two fell in love and one thing lead to another and Amber Morning was born. Amber Morning was 1 month old when King Sombra suddenly attacked. Lyrix had Celestia retreat since she as still weakened from giving birth to their daughter. However, Celestia had become an unwilling witness to her lovers' death, King Sombra brutally hacking him to pieces and his blood spraying onto her. In her weakened and shell shocked state she could do nothing as Sombra encased Amber Morning in eternal ice crystals.

I gasped in absolute shock!

Me: Oh man! I didn't know this happened to her.

I saw Princess Celestia absolutely devastated. Not only did she lose her husband Lyrix but she had her daughter Amber Morning imprisoned in ice. I saw Princess Celestia crying in her room and my heart hurt for her and then I saw where the dream was taking me and it took me to the Frozen North into an ice cave and it showed me where to find her.

I woke up at 3:02 AM.

Me: (In my head) Oh man. I got to fix Princess Celestia's wounded heart.

I went to a coat hanger and got my cloak and I went down to the elevator and went down to the surface and flew off to the Frozen North to the cave that my dream showed me and I went in and formed an energy ball that was being used as a flashlight.

Me: Hmm. She has to be in here.

I looked around and saw a huge crystal.

Me: There it is.

I went over and fired a blast of magic and thawed Amber Morning out and freed her and she was the most cutest baby ever.

Me: Aww you are so cute.

Amber Morning: (Coos)

Me: Aww.

I went back to Equestria and went to the castle in Canterlot.

Me: Your mother was devastated when she lost you.

I went in and went to Princess Celestia's chambers as she was sleeping and then there was a knock on the door.

Princess Celestia: (Groggily) Come in.

I opened the door.

Me: Princess, I'm sorry to come in so late at night in the morning. But I have something great for you to see.

Princess Celestia: What is it?

Me: I believe you know this little face.

I showed her Amber Morning and Princess Celestia gasped in absolute shock to see her own daughter alive and back after 1,000 years!

Princess Celestia: (Tears well up) Amber Morning? How did you find her?

Me: I had a dream that was a vision into the past and it showed me everything that happened to you and your husband Lyrix and Amber Morning.

Princess Celestia: Oh J.D.

She cuddled Amber Morning for the first time in a millennium.

Princess Celestia: (Crying) J.D. thank you so much for returning my daughter.

Me: It was my pleasure. You have my condolences for what happened to Lyrix. Now I'm really glad that we all killed King Sombra. What a heartless, pitiless, remorseless and ruthless monster.

Amber Morning cooed and laughed in her mother's arms. It was adorable. I healed Princess Celestia's heart after 1,000 years.

Meanwhile in the world of Ninja City, Lloyd and his friends were getting ready for when we arrive.

Lloyd: This is gonna be good. I can't wait to meet J.D. and his friends. Everything they do is amazing.

Skylor: Same here. It's gonna be so cool.

Nya: Awesome!

Lloyd: Lets do it! SPINJITZU!

They spun in tornadoes.

THE END

Another awesome fanfic done.

I'm back in business after a week long hiatus. This was a good one to show what happened during my break. Today is the 1 Year Anniversary of when we defeated the Royal Defenders and that was a big battle. The movies used in the chapter were Van Helsing, Into The Storm, Only The Brave, Chernobyl Diaries, Leviathan, Outbreak, Fire Serpent, Magma: Volcanic Disaster and Tidal Wave. Those were awesome movies. Never saw Chernobyl Diaries or Tidal Wave. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Drako1234658, vinjedi1995, Nflemingful, Darkhai, Etstheclarencefan and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this and so did the guest reviewer. Thanks guys. The next girl is gonna be Peace the Pixie and she is gonna be in the world of The Purge and we're going to kill all the Purgers. Also the next chapter is gonna be for where we face one of the enemies of Ninjago and we're gonna be ready for when we face Captain Soto and his pirates. We're going to kill some pirates.

See you all tomorrow.

Into The World of Lego Ninjas

Over in a small town in Oklahoma, Me and Hailey Kerumma the Flareon Gene-Slammer were flying. We arrived in a small town.

Hailey Kerumma: Wonder where we are this time.

Hailey concentrated and groaned as her temperature got very hot.

Me: Whew! That is hot. But from the looks of things I would say that we've entered a world that's a dystopian nightmare.

Hailey turned into a Flareon!

I held on to her clothes for her.

We then walked around and saw that the place was a terrible environment.

Me: My god. What the hell happened here?

Hailey Flareon: Was it zombies?

Me: No zombies wouldn't cause this much destruction.

I then saw a red screen on a TV in a house that said THE PURGE was in effect!

Me: THE PURGE!? OH MAN!

Hailey Flareon: What's the Purge?

Me: It's the event from the movie series for it.

I went over what it was.

---

The Annual Purge was an annual event created by the NFFA that legalized all crimes for 12 hours. It was held from March 21-22, starting from 7pm until 7am. However, it was founded under a lie to reduce the American population.

History

The NFFA overthrows the U.S. Government in 2014 and established a totalitarian government as well as a police state. To balance the economy and to stabilize the society, they devised a plan to ratify the 28th Amendment of the US Constitution.

With the ratification executed, the plan was revealed to be "The Purge", an event that made all crimes, including murder, legal for 12 hours, and the suspension of emergency services like the police forces, medical services, and fire departments.

2016 test run

The annual Purge began as a test run confined only in Staten Island, New York. During the early stage of the experiment, crimes were mostly criminal misdemeanors, small felonies, as well as acts of disorderly conduct such as vandalism, looting, rowdy parties and other peace disturbing acts. However, in order to make it looked successful, corrupt NFFA officials tamper with the experiment and planted mercenaries to kill people on the island.

As mercenaries committed the murders, they also dropped weaponry in various areas of Staten Island in order to provoke participation from the residents.

With the success of the 2016 test run, the NFFA announced of a nationwide Purge, the first of which commenced in 2017. However, for unknown reasons, the 2017 Purge wasn't count as the first Annual Purge. It was considered the First Experimental National Purge.

2023 Uprising 2040: End of the Purge

Charlie Roan's presidential candidacy marks the first step of the NFFA losing influence due to her advocacy ending the annual Purge. In order to prevent the 28th Amendment from being overturned, the NFFA abolishes the rule granting immunity to government officials under the pretense of regaining public trust, allowing the public to target them for the first time.

Roan's candidacy is also endangered when NFFA presidential candidate Edwige Owens and other top ranking NFFA officials plan to murder her. This fails, however as Roan managed to survive the Purge night and her anti-purge supporters managed to kill Caleb Warren, leader of the NFFA and most of its member in a church which they used in an attempt to sacrificially kill Roan.

Abolition

Following Roan's election to the presidency, she overturns the 28th Amendment. With the United States safe again, the NFFA loses influence although their supporters stage violent protests in response to the results.

Rules

Upon the establishment of the Purge, rules were also implemented. Emergency broadcast systems are activated and broadcast these rules.

The rules for the annual Purge are as follows:

Sirens blare throughout the land to signal the start and end of The Purge.

All police, fire, and medical emergency services remain unavailable or suspended for the twelve-hour Purge.

Government officials of ranking 10 or higher are granted immunity (revoked in 2040 to legalize the murder of a political opponent).

"Class 1-4" weaponry are permitted for use while use of "Class 5" weaponry (explosive devices such as grenades, rocket launchers, bazookas, weapons of mass destruction, and viral/biological and chemical agents) is prohibited.

Public hanging is the penalty for violators of any rules.

When I was done she was shocked.

Hailey Flareon: We got to stop this.

Me: And we will as well as bring down the NFFA.

Hailey Flareon: What are the NFFA?

Me: That means The New Founding Fathers of America.

I went over what they were.

---

The New Founding Fathers of America (also known as the "' NFFA" for an abbreviation) is the main antagonistic faction of The Purge franchise.

Controlled by Caleb Warrens, it has taken over the United States government and established a new regime after an economic collapse and rising social unrest. Their main alleged goals, which often have ultra-nationalist and religious undertones, is to usher the nation into a new phase of prosperity and they achieved this by sanctioning a 12-hour period of lawlessness and rampant crime, including murder, every year, known as The Purge.

In 2014, the New Founding Fathers of America have established a new totalitarian government and a police state, following economic collapse and rising social unrest. And a year later, the NFFA devises a plan to help stabilize American society. After being approached by the late psychologist and behavioral science expert Dr. May Updale with the idea for a social experiment, they agree that for one night on Staten Island located in New York to legalize all crime. In 2018, after the successful results of the experiment, which the NFFA manipulated for their own agenda. The 28th Amendment to the U.S Constitution is ratified. This amendment establishes one night a year, a nationwide event called "The Purge", which occurs on March 21 to 22, in which all crimes (including murder, arson, and theft) are all legal, and all police, fire, and medical emergency services remain unavailable for twelve hours, from 7 P.M. that night until 7 A.M. the next day.

The only rules are that no government officials with authorization levels of 10 or higher can be attacked (that changes in The Purge: Election Year as the NFFA is trying to assassinate Charlene "Charlie" Roan, an anti-Purge political candidate), and all weapons above Class 4 (explosive devices such as grenades, rocket launchers, bazookas, etc, weapons of mass destruction, and viral/biological and chemical agents) are forbidden. Anyone who violates the rules of The Purge would be publicly executed by hanging. The Purge has resulted in crime and unemployment rates plummeting to 1%, and a strong economy. Although it is thought to be used as an act of catharsis for the U.S. populace in order to supposedly lessen the motivation for people to commit crime for the rest of the year, the NFFA purposely sends its own agents to target and kill people living in low socio-economic communities, as a method of artificial population control.

Actions of the NFFA

The NFFA acts most to ensure the Purge through its horrific decision to cut off all emergency services during the event. Assuming control of these services, all police stations, firehouses, and hospitals decline help for the victimized (and thus potential interference) while giving those who partake in the Purge a chance to act out. Ideally, from their position, it is meant to encourage the higher numbers of people who wish to Purge.

In The Purge: Anarchy, however, reveals that there are more people who refuse to participate in the Purge than initially understood and that the killing rates are not as high as they seem. To ensure a "successful" Purge, i.e. one that results in a high body count, the New Founding Fathers of America dispatch military groups consisting of SWAT-level soldiers and tractor-trailers armed with heavy weapons to track down, capture, and execute people from lower-income homes and neighborhoods as a part of ensuring the Purge "cuts down on poverty". This is reflected with agents such as Big Daddy.

Another method of somewhat indirect involvement is through the participation of wealthier individuals who wish to Purge, and thus receive opportunities to bid on victims. Given the status of those connected to or involved with the NFFA, it is very likely that they fund and offer support to such individuals. This is supported in The Purge: Anarchy by the rich elite being able to summon emergency services even when they are cut off to everyone else for the duration of the Purge.

End of the NFFA and purge

The New Founding Fathers play their biggest (and most direct) role in the series in The Purge: Election Year . Incensed by Senator Charlie Roan's campaign, which seeks to put an end to The Purge, their leader, Caleb Warrens, calls for an immediate action to terminate her threat to their candidate, Minister Edwidge Owens. To achieve these ends, the NFFA revokes the rule that prevents governmental figures from being targeted and plant double agents among her security entourage. Leo Barnes, the head of Roan's security, saves her from their initial capture and assassination attempt. However, a neo-Nazi paramilitary force that is led by Earl Danzinger, is sent out by the NFFA to track her.

Ultimately, their main scheme involves Minister Owens' ritualistic sacrifice at the cathedral Our Lady of Sorrow on the night of the Purge, before his congregation of the NFFA and like-minded NFFA supporters. Although their efforts are initially thwarted, Danzinger and his surviving men capture Roan and bring her to Owens. Overseen by Warrens himself, Owens has an NFFA assistant, Harmon James, sacrifice a drug addict during the annual midnight Purge Mass, and then set the leaders to kill Roan. However, Barnes and her allies with the resistance, storm Owens' church and save Roan with a timely sniper shot, which kills Warrens. In the ensuing chaos, many of the NFFA members are killed and the rest are ambushed by Bishop and his men outside the church. By the end of the night, Owens is left in disgrace, and Warrens and many members of the NFFA, who were now assassinated, lose much of their power as Roan gains more and more public approval. However, despite this defeat, it is shown that NFFA sympathizers are still active and rioting to prevent the end of the Purge. Whether Roan's plan to terminate it succeeds is left open.

The Purge: Election Year ends with an ominous shot of the American flag, which implies that Senator Roan, who now won the presidential election, succeeds in abolishing the Purge and is now restoring democracy to the country, ending the NFFA's power and influence over the nation. NFFA supporters are seen violently protesting in the streets as a result of the election at the end of the film, making it a possibility that there will be another revolution that will act as a catalyst for the revival of the Purge. However, due to Roan's landslide electoral victory, this is unlikely to happen as many people in the US and the world have grown sick of the Purge because of its senseless killing.

Final Stand and total collapse of the NFFA

During the event of the Forever Purge, after two terms of presidency after Charlene Roan became president, the NFFA managed to regain power in the government and restarted the Purge all over again. However, years of accumulated and built-up violent and psychopathy tendency among the supporters of the Purge along with heavy surge in racism cause the Purge to spiral out of control. Consequently, the phenomenon called "Ever After Purge" occurs across the US as purgers unable to stop their purging rampages even after the siren that announces the ending of the Purge. This causes purgers to engage in open warfare with the police and the military as well as anti-NFFA resistance force.

The NFFA also becomes the victims of their own doing as anger and rage among those that opposes them also become out of control as anti-NFFA resistance actively attacks the NFFA for coming into power and installing the purge all over again. Due to past experience in dealing with NFFA protection details, the resistance murders score of NFFA members, causing the NFFA to declare martial laws.

As violence grows uncontrollably, many Americans people have to seek refuge toward Canada and Mexico until order is restored.

Eventually, the Congress, Senate, Supreme Court and military have enough with what the NFFA has done and forcefully disband them permanently. The new US government then reinstall back Charlene Roan's policy to end the purge, this time for good and joins force with the anti-NFFA to take down the purgers to restore order back to the US.

Ideology

The New Founding Fathers established the Purge as an attempted means of catharsis for the American people. On one night a year, from 7 PM to 7 AM, all crime (barring those that directly affect the NFFA themselves, except for the case of Senator Roan in Election Year ), including murder, arson, and theft are all legal. As part of their philosophy of the matter, the Purge will help those under the New Founding Fathers of America to free themselves of their sinister and violent urges and tendencies, which, in turn, will allegedly reduce rates of crime and poverty in the process. This is encouraged through NFFA propaganda and strict consequences (including public executions) for those who attempt to go beyond the rules of the Purge, such as directly attacking government officials and using weapons above Class 4-namely.

Most citizens view the NFFA as something that serves their interests by liberating them from the hatred and violence that they keep within themselves. However, the NFFA is extremely hypocritical and despite claiming to usher in a utopia free of crime and unrest, they enforce strict laws upon citizens as shown previously that they impose during the Purge, similar to real life totalitarian regimes. The NFFA also has a neo-Nazi paramilitary force that is led by Earl Danzinger, alluding to their fascist ideology.

Disturbingly, the ideology of the NFFA has deep religious undertones, which fittingly suits their agenda of ushering in a new phase of prosperity, akin to paradise. Every TV screen in America prior to the Purge shows a prayer announcement, which blesses "NFFA" for allowing citizens to act upon their sinful desires, which retrospectively "cleanses" their souls according to their ideology. In The Purge: Election Year, the NFFA is seen to be inspired by Christian, particularly Catholic, beliefs but the NFFA itself heavily relies on the cult of personality as most of the Purge prayers are centered around the NFFA rather than on a specific deity. High-ranking NFFA members often empty out churches, replace traditional religious icons with NFFA banners and congregate, where they perform human sacrifice upon supposed sinners to "cleanse" society. Throughout the series, the NFFA is shown to be a very influential cult that holds immense power over politics and society in America.

When I was finished she was shocked.

Me: Lets get these sons of fucking bitches!

We went at the Purgers and blasted them and killed them.

?: Let us help too!

We saw a Pixie and a Gengar and they were helping us.

Me: Wow! Thanks.

We blasted them everywhere.

Me: Now for the grand finale.

I raised my hand.

Me: PURGER GENOCIDE BLAST!

I fired a massive volley of energy blasts and they rained down onto the planet and killed all the Purgers all over the country. I killed a grand total of 32,352,565 Purgers.

I landed.

Me: That's that.

Peace: That was intense! I'm Peace by the way and I'm a Pixie.

Gengar: I'm Vina Tsiolkovsky. Pleasure to meet you both.

Me: Same here. I'm gonna revert you back Vina and give you the power to change at will and use your Pokemon Powers at will.

Vina: Thanks J.D.

I put on my blind man glasses and snapped my fingers and she reverted back and she was naked. Hailey reverted back too.

Hailey was human again. But naked.

Hailey: (covers herself) Our world will be much happier then here.

Peace: I think so too.

Vina: (Covers herself) Yeah I think so too.

Me: No kidding. But at least we killed all the Purgers.

I gave Vina new clothes and gave Hailey back her glothes.

Peace: Thank goodness those monsters will never torment the world again.

Me: Yeah no kidding. One more thing before we head back. We're going to Washington D.C. and forcibly disband the New Founding Fathers of America.

Peace: Lets do it.

We went to Washington D.C. and overthrew the NFFA and brought it back to the right people of America and went back to the estate. Caleb Warrens was sent to prison for high treason and genocide and he was placed into the Neptune Prison for Traitors.

After rescuing Peace the Pixie and killing all of The Purgers in the world of The Purge, Lincoln, me, Nico, Eli, Nicole, Baloo, Maximum Ride, and The Alien Rangers were on our way to rescue two girls who've been kidnapped by McWolf, and they're at his new castle in Cape Suzette.

Lincoln: Wow, so the two girls that McWolf has kidnapped are here in Cape Suzette.

Me: Sure looks like it, big guy, and we only came to Cape Suzette to stop Don Karnage and The Sky Pirates.

Baloo: That's right, and when Rebecca and Kit heard about it, they cheered wildly. Plus, they're okay with Don Karnage in The Masters of Evil, and him being CJ's archenemy.

Nico: Same with Ronnie Anne, Bobby, and the rest of the Casagrandes. Plus, Lincoln, I heard what you did in spraying those Great Lakes City Alley Cats with water, nice one.

Lincoln: Thanks, Nico, and we didn't get clawed or scratched by those mangy hairballs.

We arrived at McWolf's castle just north of Cape Suzette, and we went inside the room where McWolf is holding the girls, and to our surprise, the girls McWolf kidnapped were Hime from CrunchyRoll and Sheena Etranzi from Contra.

Lincoln: Wow, it's Hime and Sheena Etranzi.

Nicole: Hime's from the magna Crunchyroll, and Sheena Etranzi is from the game Contra, and she's skilled in guerilla tactics and weapons.

Me: Awesome.

Lincoln went up to the captive girls and freed them.

Hime: Oh man, thanks for freeing us.

Then, when they saw the 7'0" white-haired hunk with abnormally large and powerful muscles, eight-pack abs, and deep sapphire blue eyes, Hime and Sheena Etranzi were blushing like mad.

Sheena Etranzi: Oh wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you and Hime, Sheena.

Hime: You too, handsome.

Then, McWolf came out.

Baloo: I'm surprised you set up your new castle here in Cape Suzette, McWolf, without alerting any of the police.

McWolf: I'm just glad your boss and Kit didn't call the cops on me, and since you have the Alien Power Rangers here, I've got some old friends for you to play with. SUPER PUTTIES!

Then, an army of Super Putties were summoned to the fight.

Aurico: Super Putties, alright, let's do this.

Lincoln: Count me in.

The Aquitar Rangers and Lincoln walked up to them.

Aquitar Rangers and Lincoln: It's Morphin Time! Rangers of Aquitar, We Need Full Power!

The Aquitar Rangers transformed, and Lincoln transformed into his new Aquitar Power Ranger form, but Lincoln's Aquitar Ranger uniform and helmet is orange, which goes well with The Sword of Taranis which he unholstered from his wider muscular back, the large eight orange orbs orbiting around his legs, and the larger blue angel wings surging with powerful super lightning, and with stars and blue nebulae reflecting on them.

Delphine: White Aquitar Ranger Power!

Corcus: Black Aquitar Ranger Power!

Cestro: Blue Aquitar Ranger Power!

Tideus: Yellow Aquitar Ranger Power!

Aurico: Red Aquitar Ranger Power!

Lincoln: Orange Aquitar Ranger Power!

Aquitar Rangers and Lincoln: Power Of Water, Power Of Light, Powers Unite!

KRASPLASH!

A massive explosion of water and light erupted behind them.

Me: Wow, Lincoln, you look awesome as an Aquitar Power Ranger.

Nico: Awesome.

Lincoln: Thanks, J.D., alright, let's get them.

The Aquitar Rangers and Lincoln charged at The Super Putties, and fired powerful blasts of water and light at them, and slashed them with their Aquitar Sabers and Sword of Taranis. Hime also attacked them by firing powerful blasts of fire, and Sheena got out two M-16 machine guns and fired at the Super Putties, and shot them down, and caused them to explode. Lincoln changed back, and he, Nico, Eli, and me jumped McWolf, and tickled him.

McWolf: (LAUGHING HYSTERICALLY)

We ceased tickling McWolf, helped him up, and we left the castle to head back to the Estate, but we're also going to be looking out for any signs of Don Karnage's henchmen, Mad Dog and Dumptruck. With old foes returning from the dead, there's an obvious chance that those two are going to show up, but they're going to be in for a surprise.

---

In the Demon World, we all were flying off to search for one of the 3 Kings of the Demon World. Her name was Mukuro and she was very powerful from what Hiei told us about.

Me: I heard all about Mukuro. She is said to be powerful and she managed to help Hiei get as powerful as he is today.

Nico: If she is that powerful then she would make a great asset to us.

We arrived in Mukuro's castle and sitting on her throne was Mukuro.

Dive Man: Are you Mukuro?

Mukuro: That's right and it's a pleasure to meet you Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: Same to you Lady Mukuro. Hiei told us so much about you and how you have been helping him out.

Mukuro: I'm glad Hiei speaks highly of me. I take it you have come here to ask me to join the team?

Me: Well that's one of our intentions.

I then saw that Mukuro had injuries all over her.

Me: What happened to your face and all that?

Mukuro: I don't usually tell this to all of you but you have a right to know.

She went over her history and it was not good.

---

Mukuro (軀) is a powerful demon who lives in demon world and part of a triumvirate of upper S-class demons known as the The Three Kings, who rule over Demon World.

Mukuro is voiced by Minami Takayama in the original Japanese version and is voiced by Wendy Powell and Vaughn Jackson in the Funimation English dub. In the Filipino Dub of the anime, she is voiced by Charmaine Cordoviz.

In the anime, Mukuro was abandoned on a freezing-cold snowy night. She was found by a wealthy humanoid demon, who became her "father". He would go on to abuse and rape her at his own leisure. He placed a micro chip in her to show the 'goodness' in him- so that when she ever thought about killing him, the chip would activate and show how good he was to her.

The manga is a little different, and far more graphic in that regard. It depicts Mukuro as having been born into slavery, her insides surgically altered in order for her owner (her father Chikou) to be able to "play" with her that much easier. In a particular macabre and sadistic twist, he would go on to rape her on her birthdays as a present. As a result, Mukuro came to view everything about her childhood with disgust at both Chikou and herself.

Eventually, at the age of seven, Mukuro poured acid over her head in order to avoid his desire, only leaving her left side unharmed. He tossed her out, which she describes as 'rebirth'. She then replaced her damaged limbs with robotic parts. She swore to seek power at all costs and gained a reputation for violence, covering her face with bandages and leading many to believe that she was a man.

Three Kings Saga

With Yusuke joining Raizen, and Kurama joining Yomi, Mukuro sends a video message (a spirit of words) to Hiei, asking him to come see her. The friends come to Demon World together and then head their separate ways. Mukuro asks Hiei to show his true strength by meeting the man that gave him the Jagan eye. It ends with both dying, but Mukuro saves them. She puts Hiei into a regeneration tank and strips naked to show him her true form.

Mukuro agrees to join the Demon World Tournament, hosted by Yusuke, and in the manga goes to pay her respects to Raizen's tomb, leaving some flowers.

While fighting Hiei in the anime, she continues to test his strength, and he proves to be no match for her in hand-to-hand combat, and she provokes him into using his Jagan eye. They both seem to accept that their bout can only have one appropriate conclusion; thus, Hiei releases his Dragon of the Darkness Flame, but not with the intent to kill her. Mukuro seems to do the impossible, catching the Dragon's mouth and splitting it in half, sending Hiei soaring backwards as a result. However, Hiei gets the last laugh (so to speak) when he reveals that through his efforts, he managed to break the shackle around her left wrist, effectively freeing her from her tragic past. Following this, a drained Hiei walks slowly towards her and Mukuro catches him in an embrace as he drops to his knees. The two connect in this anime-exclusive moment, and are seen closing their eyes, seemingly content.

During the finals, in both the anime and the manga, Mukuro faces off against Natsume, one of Raizen's sparring buddies, she defeats her, but narrowly. Later, she loses to Enki, another of Raizen's friends and the title of King of Demon World ends up going to Enki.

Epilogue

In the manga, after the Demon World Tournament, Hiei learns of the nature of Mukuro's power. When he confronts her about it, on her birthday no less, she pushes him away, in no mood to deal with his abrasive personality.

When he mentions Chikou, she bristles. When he asks why she never sought revenge, she inexplicably experiences a flashback to the one time that Chikou had decided, on a whim, to act like a father should have behaved towards his daughter.

Hiei says that she was clinging to that one moment and that she had become strong because she was confused, not because she had suffered, and added that she disgusted him. She responds by promptly blasting him out of her room with a burst of power that nearly blows a hole in his torso.

When he returned after a consultation with Kurama and a confrontation with Chikou, he reveals that the memory, of that one time Chikou had acted like a father should have, was actually manufactured memories conducted with simple hypnosis; false images implanted into her subconscious mind, programmed to flood her mind's eye whenever she had the urge to harm or kill Chikou. This served as a defense system that prevented her from taking revenge upon him, now that she had become an S-class demon; he had assumed that her inner conflict would paralyze her forever, which had left him complacent and unprepared.

Hiei vowed to break her inner conflict and did so by giving her Chikou, who was infected by a plant parasite that Kurama had supplied Hiei with, that kept him in place and regenerated any wound inflicted upon him. He then suggests that she mutilate her former tormentor however she wants.

He added that when she grew tired of torturing Chikou, destroying his brain would be the only way to kill both the plant and her father. She simply smiles at this, to which he smirks and wishes her a happy birthday.

She is seen in Eizou Hakusho with a somber look on her face after Hiei's departure. While Hiei avenging her by trapping her father in the plant isn't shown, one can still see the body of her father bonded to the plant in shadow proving that the manga storyline indeed happened in the anime as well. It is revealed that he still lives in Mukuro's castle and is training for the next tournament in Human world. It also appears that Hiei gave Mukuro his tear stone, as she is seen wearing it as a necklace in the same manner that Hiei did.

---

When she was finished we were absolutely sickened, horrified and shocked.

Me: OH MY GOD!

Nico: I think I'm gonna be sick.

Eli: How can you have gone through so much over the centuries?

Arrietty: That's awful.

Me: No kidding.

I went up to her.

Me: Mukuro you did nothing to deserve such a horrible way of life. What happened to you was totally unforgivable. If I could turn back the clock I would gladly hunt down every single one of those demons and kill them all on the spot for doing this to you. I would never treat anyone like that.

Peace: Wow. J.D. is a true gentleman.

Galus: He sure is. He is a brave man.

Me: Mukuro, you did nothing to be made this way. And for that…

I placed my hand on her shoulder and channeled my energy into her and she screamed in pain as her wounds and scars were healing all over and she regained her arm and lost the part of her body that was destroyed because of all the years of abuse and torture that she got. When it was done, Mukuro was fully healed and back to what she was!

Mukuro: What happened?

Me: Take a look.

I formed a mirror and showed that she was fully healed and restored to normal! She was restored and she had her arm back to what it was before she lost it and her eye was fixed!

Mukuro gasped.

Mukuro: I'm fully healed and without scars!

Me: Yes I healed you. I gave you back the piece of your life that was stolen from you for over 1,000 years. You did not deserve to have that happen to you. It was not right.

Mukuro then hugged me and cried hard into my chest and I comforted her.

Me: It's all right Mukuro. You're free now. It's all right.

After 45 minutes, Mukuro was all better. She had the bandages all over her body removed.

Mukuro: Thank you so much J.D.

Me: It was my pleasure.

Laney: Lady Mukuro, now that you're healed, would you mind teaching me some of your moves?

Olga Orromov: Kind of weird that you would be asking that question.

Laney: I know.

Mukuro: I would be honored Laney. Think of this as my way of saying thank you.

Laney: Thank you.

Me: Laney, Mukuro is an Upper S-Class Demon and she has incredible power. From what Hiei told us about Raizen, Mukuro and Yomi, the three kings of the Demon World are the most powerful people here and a force not to be trifled with.

Yusuke: That's right. My ancestral dad was one of the most powerful people here. You know that right?

Nico: Sure do.

Vypra: And the Mazoku are nothing to be trifled with.

Lana: WHOA!

Lola: How rare is a Mazoku?

Yusuke: It only happens once every 40+ Generations.

Me: Whoa! Once every 1,200 years or more.

Nico: That's incredible. The Atavism of The Mazoku.

Vypra: That's right. It's a very powerful process of transmigration.

Yusuke: Yep and I had my Mazoku Genes traced back to 44 generations.

Me: Whoa! 1,320 years.

Nico: That's amazing.

Eli: What an ancestry.

Laney learned many moves from Mukuro. She learned so much while being taught under her wing. She was even taught some of Kurama's techniques as well as Hiei's.

Tentakill: Well, Laney? Are you satisfied now that you know Mukuro's moves?

Laney: Actually, no.

Eddy: Seriously?!

Me: Laney what more is there?

Laney: I feel like I'm missing more moves.

Me: I can teach you more of my moves if you want.

Laney: Really? Wow! Thanks J.D.

Me: You're welcome.

We later went back to the estate. We were watching TV and Laney learned so many more new techniques from me in the training grounds and more. But to her it was not enough.

Wreck Gar: Look, Laney. If you want to learn more ninja techniques, why don't we go see if the Ninjago heroes are available?

Me: That's a good idea. And we owe them a huge debt after they appeared and helped us as we were going after Snake's Tail.

Nico: We sure do. Also it's my turn to lead today. (Pulls out bugle and plays Reville)

Everyone gathered.

Nico: ATTEN-TION!

We stood in attention.

Nico: All right maggots listen up! We're going to the world of Ninjago. We're going to the Lego World and Master Frown, Unikitty, Puppycorn, Richard, I'm sure you all know that world too.

Unikitty: Yes we do Commander Nico.

Puppycorn: It will be awesome to see more of our world.

Nico: (Chuckles) I had a feeling you would like that.

Bai Tza: I think the Ninjago heroes are the first fully Lego characters that we're going to meet.

Nico: Indeed they are. But actually they are the second fully Lego characters we are going to meet. Unikitty and her friends and Master Frown are all from the world of Unikitty and believe it or not they are from the Lego Universe too.

Eli: Oh wow! That is amazing!

Nico: Indeed it is Lieutenent. I was doing some extensive research on the worlds we all went to over the last few years and found this out.

Laney: Wow! That makes a lot of sense.

Lana: So awesome!

Puppycorn: YEAH!

Then Selene, Shendu the Demon Sorcerer of Fire, Amora, Larxene, Xiao Fung the Demon Sorcerer of Wind, Spymaster, Toiletnator, Mr. Mittens, Fixer, and Leonard appeared.

Selene: Can me, Shendu, Amora, Larxene, Xiao Fung, Spymaster, Toiletnator, Mr. Mittens, Fixer, and Leonard go with you all?

Nico: You all sure can. We're going to the Lego universe to meet the Ninjago Masters.

Fixer: AWESOME! I heard they all helped you guys when J.D. and you all went after Snake's Tail.

Me: That's right. It was awesome. We owe them a huge debt.

Spymaster: It's gonna be cool meeting them.

Nico: It sure is. Lets move out everyone!

We were off to the Lego Universe.

---

NINJAGO CITY, WORLD OF LEGO

---

We arrived in Ninjago City.

Nico: Here we are guys.

Me: Wow so this is Ninjago City.

Eli: So awesome.

Laney: It's so cool to be here. Legos are amazing.

Lana: They sure are. I love building with them.

Me: Me too. The largest Lego Projects are really amazing.

Lola: What was the largest Lego Project ever done?

Nico: That's an easy one. It's a full scale replica of the X-Wing Starfighter. That is amazing.

Varie: That must've taken a really long time to build.

Me: Yeah no kidding.

Lily: Where are the Ninjago Heroes?

Ri'oha: I see them. And they look like they're fighting someone.

Ghuul: I see them too.

We looked and we saw that they were fighting their deceased enemy EYEZOR!

---

Eyezor, also known as Silvereye and Eyezor'rai in his Anacondrai form, was one of the two acting generals of the Anacondrai warriors, who oversaw the transportation of goods from the noodle factory to Chen's Noodle House. Along with several other Cultists, Eyezor ensured the ninja's awareness of the Tournament of Elements and Zane's survival. Eyezor helped Chen to steal the Elemental Masters' powers. After the competitors rallied against Chen, Eyezor helped to complete the spell that transformed him and his allies into fake Anacondrai.

Eyezor and the other Anacondrai warriors attacked Ninjago, eventually fighting the Elemental Masters at the Corridor of Elders. When Garmadon sacrificed himself, the Anacondrai generals banished Eyezor and the cultists to the Cursed Realm. Later, Nya drowned the Preeminent, the physical manifestation of the Cursed Realm. With the realm destroyed, Eyezor died and his spirit went to the Departed Realm. Some time after his demise, a statue of Eyezor's Anacondrai form was placed in the Ninjago Museum of History.

On the Day of the Departed, Cole accidentally opened the Departed Realm and the spirits of the ninja's old enemies were released, after which they possessed their statues. Chen allied with Eyezor and Zugu and confronted Kai and Nya, who attempted to escape on their Raider Bikes. During the chase, Eyezor's Condrai Crusher crashed, sending his spirit back to the Departed Realm.

---

Nico: Whoa man that's Eyezor.

Eli: He sure looks tough.

Nico: Yep.

Xiao Fung: I got this snake freak.

Xiao Fung took in a deep breath and blew Eyezor away with a massive blast of wind. Eyezor went flying far.

Lloyd Montgomery: WHOA!

Skylor: Did you do that Lloyd?

Lloyd Montgomery: No that wasn't me.

Nico: That was from us. Nice job Xiao Fung.

Xiao Fung: Thanks Nico.

Lloyd: Hey guys!

Me: Good to see you all again.

Xiao Fung: Hope you didn't mind that I ended that battle.

Kai: Not at all.

A familiar song was then playing on a record player Jay brought with him. He was playing Surfin Bird by The Trashmen.

A-well-a bird, bird, bird, b-bird's the word/A-well-a bird, bird, bird, well the bird is the word.

Kai: (winces) Now we just have to solve the other problem my team have been facing before Jay gets killed.

Me: That was Surfin Bird by The Trashmen.

Stewie Griffin: If the Fat Man were here he would dance to that.

Jay: Oh, c'mon! Eyezor's gone now, isn't he?

Kai: Not him! The rest of the team!

Cole, Zane, Nya, and Lloyd were glaring at Jay murderously.

Nya: (gets out her spear) I'm this close to killing you, Jay.

Zane: I can't take this anymore! (to Luna) Luna, quick! What are you listening to?

Luna: (glances nervously at her MP3 player) Um… Skillet?

Zane: (snatches her headphones) That works!

Zane went into a euphoric trance when he could hear something other than Surfin' Bird.

Luna: You okay, Zane?

Zane: No, I'm not fucking okay! Jay bought a fucking box of records, and there's this one that he keeps playing, and it's fucking driving us all crazy!

Brian: Zane you are not the only one that has had problems with Surfin Bird.

Zane: Really?

Stewie: Yeah me and my family when we lived in Quahog before it was destroyed had to put up with Peter listening to Surfin Bird all the time and it was driving us insane.

Zane: Wow.

Me: Surfin Bird is really funny and one of my favorite songs from the 1960's. But it can get really annoying to some people.

Nico: Yeah. But it is interesting how Jay likes Surfin Bird.

Me: And funny too.

Cree Lincoln: We owe you guys one for holding off Spydah.

Kai: No problem. Sorry that he got away.

Maria: Don't worry about it. The important thing is that you guys kicked his ass.

Me: That's right. After how you kicked his butt, that douchebag is never gonna live that down. But we will kick his butt in the future.

Laney: Yeah that's right!

Mukuro: It will be good retribution for us.

Galus: Yeah it will.

Nima: Yeah!

Lloyd: Yeah. Lets head to our dojo. Sensei Wu will be honored to meet you all.

We went to the dojo and it was nice.

Toiletnator: This base of yours is really nice.

Nico: It's actually a dojo but yeah it''s really cool.

Sensei Wu then saw us.

Sensei Wu: Ah the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm. (Bows) It's an honor that you all would grace my dojo.

Nico: (Bows) Sensei Wu it's an honor to meet you.

Me: (Bows) Same here sensei.

We bowed to him.

Me: We are honored to be here at your dojo.

Morton Koopa: You guys actually aren't the only ninjas around.

Larry Koopa: Yeah we have many ninjas.

Naruto: That's right. Me and my friends are all ninjas.

Sasuke: That's right and we have amazing abilities and powers.

Sakura H.: The powers we have are amazing.

Fu: And the villages we all come from are amazing too.

Ino: They sure are.

Kiba: Yeah and we all have so many things that make us different from every other ninja.

Me: It's true. (Snaps Fingers)

I was in my shinobi attire.

Me: I am a ninja for the Hidden Leaf Village and it's amazing what we can all do as ninjas.

Eli: It's really cool.

Kai: Is there any reason why you guys were looking for us?

Amora the Enchantress: Laney wants to learn new ninja techniques.

Me: She has been learning so much in many fields these last few hours.

Lloyd: We would be happy to teach her.

Me: Awesome!

Nico: And we can teach you guys everything we know.

Pakura: It will be the least we can do after how you helped us with Spyder.

Lloyd: Thanks guys.

They got to training Laney.

Family Guy Penelope: Pardon me, Laney. But the fact that you're a little too eager to learn new techniques has us concerned. Is there a particular reason?

Laney: Well, new villains are popping up every day. So I want to be able to learn new powers to protect the innocent.

May: Well, there's nothing wrong with that.

Me: That's a really admirable reason Laney. Expanding ones technique repertoire always adds new skills for us. But it's what we do with all those abilities that helps keep our enemies guessing.

Nico: That's right.

Mr. Mittens: While you guys are teaching Laney, is there any cat food around here?

Cat: I think I have some sushi for us Mr. Mittens.

Mr. Mittens: Ah perfect. Thanks Cat.

Cat: Anytime.

Cat pulled out some sushi.

Me: As long as we are also training we might as well get some grub.

Nico: Good idea colonel.

I formed some burger and meat trees with my imagination powers.

Lloyd: WHOA! That was awesome!

Me: Learned so much over the years.

Lincoln: Yeah we sure have.

Muscle Man: You know who else likes learning stuff the way you do?

Cybertron Scourge: I know the answer to this one!

Muscle Man: MY MOM!

We laughed at his joke and Lloyd and his friends found it funny.

Lloyd: That was funny! I didn't get it but that was really funny.

RD Girl Jordan: So, what are you guys going to teach Laney first?

Lloyd: We're going to teach her what we know in the ways of Spinjitzu and we're going to teach her everything we know.

Kai: Elemental control and all that.

Me: Awesome. This is gonna be something to see. Can you show us some of your techniques?

Lloyd: Sure. Watch.

He had his sword ready and spun fast and formed into a powerful energy tornado and slashed a bunch of dummies apart and it was incredible.

Me: WHOA! That was awesome!

Nico: YEAH!

Saffron Masala: (Indian Accent) That was really something to see.

Nico: It sure was.

Shendu: Let's see if Laney can do it as well.

Laney: Okay. Here I go.

Laney then unsheathed her sword and spun REALLY fast in a green vortex and rose petals and flowers spun around her and she slashed numerous dummies apart and destroyed them. Turning them into sawdust. When she stopped we were awestruck!

Me: WHOA!

We cheered wildly for her.

Nico: AWESOME JOB!

Laney: WOW! That was amazing!

Eli: Way to go Laney!

Arrietty: That was so amazing!

Laney: That was awesome!

Me: Yeah!

Arixam: (to the Ninjago heroes) None of you guys have a Flower element, right?

Lloyd: No we sure don't.

Sensei Wu: Flower Element is a most rare and very unheard of Spinjutzu Style. It's the first time I've ever seen it.

Me: Well Laney sure surprised you all today.

Laney: Yeah. Thank you all for teaching me.

Sensei Wu: Anytime Laney.

Tigress: I always knew that Laney was really special ever since she helped Po take on Tai Lung.

Me: I had that feeling too.

Nico: Wow.

Lloyd: By the way J.D. what techniques do you guys know?

Me: Well we have so many of them. But watch this one.

I went up to a dummy.

Me: LIGHTNING STYLE NINJA ART: THUNDERSTORM RASENSHURIKEN!

I formed a Rasenshuriken made of pure lightning with a pitch black core and threw it and it slammed into the dummy and exploded with the powerful force of a massive thunderstorm and released a massive sonic boom that was as loud as thunder and it obliterated the dummy and sent waves of lightning that electrocuted and blew apart dummies everywhere.

When the technique faded, Lloyd and the Ninjago heroes were floored.

Lloyd: WHOA! That was powerful!

Kai: That was awesome!

Jay: YEAH!

Me: Many more techniques where that came from.

Larxene: J.D. and the others like using techniques in battle.

Me: We sure do. We made a massive plethora of techniques that we have used in many battles throughout all of our adventures.

Nico: They are so awesome.

Laney: It's amazing too.

Lusamine: What kind of enemies have you guys fought?

Lloyd: We have tons of enemies. Some of them were the most dangerous enemies we've faced.

Skylor: Yeah they are powerful too. They gave us all a really tough challenge.

Nico: Are there any enemies active right now?

Lloyd: Yes there are. Captain Soto and his evil crew of pirates.

Nico: What can you tell us about them?

Lloyd: Well we found out so much about him.

He told us his history.

---

Captain Soto is the leader of a band of pirates, and the original captain of the Destiny's Bounty. Two hundred years ago, Soto and his crew sailed the seas of Ninjago, eventually defeating the Sky Pirates and their captain, Nadakhan. Soto imprisoned Nadakhan in the Teapot of Tyrahn while his crew was marooned across realms. Sometime later, the Bounty accidentally crashed into a rock, resulting in the deaths of Soto and his crew.

Many years later, Lord Garmadon forged the Golden Weapons into a single weapon, which he used to accidentally resurrect Soto and his men. The pirates attacked Garmadon and the Serpentine before taking the Bounty and terrorizing Ninjago City. Fortunately, the ninja managed to stop them, leading Soto and his men to eventually be locked away in Kryptarium Prison.

Around the time Clouse freed Nadakhan from the Teapot of Tyrahn, the ninja were framed for being criminals and were imprisoned in Kryptarium. While there, Soto told them of his past with Nadakhan and how the Djinn could be weakened. The ninja later escaped Kryptarium alongside Soto, and they continued on their quest. After they were all trapped in the Djinn Blade, and Nya was captured by Nadakhan, Jay formed a rag-tag team to raid Djinjago, with Soto being a member. The ninja managed to weaken Nadakhan, causing New Djinjago to collapse onto the city below. Before further damage could be done, Jay's final wish reversed recent events, putting Soto back in prison with no memory of the events.

Eventually, Soto alongside The Mechanic and Ultra Violet escaped Kryptarium, making his current status unknown.

Soto was the captain of his crew of pirates and sailed among the seas of Ninjago, two hundred years prior to the age of the ninja. At some point, he took down the Misfortune's Keep, a feared pirate ship under the command of Nadakhan, and trapped him in the Teapot of Tyrahn. Afterward, he trapped the rest of Nadakhan's crew across the Sixteen Realms through unknown means. Presumably around this time, Soto learned a good amount of djinn lore such as the limitations of wishes, how to stop a djinn, and the functions of the Djinn Blade. Sometime later, Captain Soto set sail across the Endless Sea in search of the Island of Darkness, keeping a log of the journey. Unfortunately, his quest was cut short when No-Eyed Pete accidentally turned the ship back towards Ninjago and crashed into a rock in what would become the Sea of Sand, causing Captain Soto to perish along with the rest of his crew. By the time the Destiny's Bounty was found by Zane two hundred years later, there were no signs of its former crew.

---

When he was finished we were shocked.

Me: Whoa man!

Nico: He is one bad pirate.

Jack Sparrow: Not sticking to the pirate code he is.

Eli: He gives all pirates everywhere a really bad name.

Laney: Yeah he sure does.

Nico: Looks like we're gonna have to kill him.

Jay: But first, you guys should know about one of our main bad guys that we fought.

Fixer: Was he that guy called Lord Garmadon?

Nico: What can you tell us about him?

Jay: You would not like this guy. He is an absolute monster.

He went over his history.

---

Lord Garmadon is the power-hungry Lord of Destruction, as well as the revived evil form of the ninja's former mentor, Master Garmadon. He is the First Spinjitzu Master's firstborn son, Wu's older brother, Misako's estranged husband, and Lloyd's father. Garmadon grew up learning the art of the ninja alongside his brother. As a child, Garmadon was bitten by the Great Devourer and infected with evil, which led him down a darker path through which he would be continually tempted during his time as one of Ninjago's heroes. Around the time of the Serpentine War, Chen had Garmadon sign Wu's love letter for Misako, leading her to choose Garmadon. Misako had a son named Lloyd, whom he cared for deeply despite his corrupted soul. Ultimately, he lost himself to the venom's influence and became an evil warlord, banished to the Underworld after a climactic battle with Wu.

After allying with the Skulkin and Serpentine to claim the Golden Weapons, Garmadon later joined The Overlord-only to be used as a vessel for his rebirth. After Lloyd defeated The Overlord, Garmadon was purified of evil and reunited with his family, hoping to atone for his misdeeds.

Garmadon became a master, and during the Nindroid crisis, he grew closer to his son. After Zane sacrificed himself, Garmadon and the ninja journeyed to an island to rescue Zane. There, they were caught up in a conflict with Master Chen and his cult. Garmadon was banished to the Cursed Realm in a bid to defeat Chen's army. Later, during the ghost's invasion, Lloyd met with his father one last time and wore his robes into battle. When the Preeminent was drowned by Nya, Garmadon died in the Cursed Realm's destruction and passed on to the Departed Realm.

Lloyd honored his father's life by pursuing the role of a master. In time, however, a criminal syndicate known as the Sons of Garmadon sought to resurrect Garmadon's evil form. Harumi led the group to success, reviving Garmadon as a monster with no good left in him. After nearly killing Lloyd and seemingly defeating the ninja, Garmadon reigned as Emperor Garmadon and wreaked havoc across Ninjago City.

He oppressed its citizens and sought out his son, who led a brave Resistance. After Wu and the original ninja returned to Ninjago, Lloyd defeated Garmadon by refusing to fight, and his father lost his powers. Garmadon was sent to Kryptarium Prison but warned of coming darkness.

When the Oni invaded, Garmadon managed to convince Lloyd to release him, to help the ninja fight. After using the Tornado of Creation with Wu and the ninja to vanquish the Oni, he headed off to parts unknown.

---

When he was done we were shocked!

Nico: Whoa man! Lloyd that must have been a devastating shock to know that your father is one of your enemies.

Lloyd: It was.

Nico: Geez.

Eli: Yeah no kidding. That's like what happened with Anakin when he was Darth Vader and Luke found out that he was really his father.

Skylor: Yeah.

Luke Skywalker: That was crazy.

Merrick: You're not the only one with a villain for a parent. Lots of parents have ended up as villains.

Me: Yeah. We've seen many kids realize their family is a bunch of evil monsters.

Laney: It's crazy but it's true.

Lana: And we stopped them.

Me: My friend Kidah was disowned by her family and they wanted me to kill her and I sent them to prison for eternity.

Lloyd: Wow. What did they do?

Me: You would not like it.

Lloyd: Try me.

I told them everything about what happened and how they were part of a massive multi-billion dollar sex-trafficking ring for the Italian Mafia and we sent them to federal prison forever. When I was done Lloyd and friends were shocked and horrified!

Lloyd: Oh man! You were right! That was horrible!

Gabriel: I'm actually one of the villain parents who actually reformed.

Spymaster: Same with Lusamine as well.

Anakin: And me. I was corrupted by the Dark Side of the Force and I was saved thanks to J.D.

Lola: We have so many parents that we saved from themselves.

Lana: It's true.

Slinkman: I'm just glad Captain Soto isn't as dangerous as Lloyd's father.

Mr. Smithers: I agree with you on that.

Me: Me too.

Nico: Same here. Before we go into battle against him lets demonstrate some of our power with our usual battles.

Lloyd: It will be cool to see how you guys do.

Nico: You'll love them. We always have fun with them.

Leonard: (to his pigs) Go find out where Captain Soto is hiding while the usual battles are going on.

Foreman Pig: You got it boss!

They went out.

Nico: Our frenemies should be here right about… now.

Hydro Man, Mysterio, Blizzard, Killer Croc, Deadwood, Oculous, Chillyfish, Thundermon, Harpymon, and Black Lance then appeared.

Nico: Hydro Man, Mysterio, Blizzard, Killer Croc, Deadwood, Oculous, Chillyfish, Thundermon, Harpymon, and Black Lance.

Mysterio: Looks like the fun has come early.

Oculous: It sure has.

Kai: It's really nice to meet you guys.

Hydro Man: Honor's all ours, Kai.

Mysterio: It's nice to meet ninjas like Naruto and the others.

Jay: Well, I wouldn't call us the same kind of ninjas like them.

Blizzard: But you guys are still ninjas nonetheless.

Me: That's right.

Killer Croc: (to me) Heard you went to the world of the Purge.

Me: We sure did.

Deadwood: Was it really that bad?

Me: Worse than you could ever imagine. It was a sight of total anarchy and lawlessness.

Nico: I watched The Purge movies and they were good but those guys were absolutely ruthless.

Eli: No kidding.

?: Lots of things happened huh?

A bunch of figures came out and they were SAMURAI FAN MAN, MONTANA MAX, BAKEMON, DARK JADEN YUKI THE SUPREME KING, FIRE WASP from Episode 32 of Lightspeed Rescue, THE GHOST OF ZEN TUO, THE GHOST OF ELIAS KINGSTON, TEMPLE FUGATE A.K.A. CLOCK KING, CHARCOAL BRIQUETTE and the COBWEB HOTEL SPIDER!

Samurai Fan Man

Samurai Fan Man (usually referred to as just "(the) Fan Man") was the fan-wielding samurai monster created by Finster. He serves as the main antagonist of the episode "Calamity Kimberly".

Samurai Fan Man was created by Finster to make Kimberly's already awful day even worse and Rita teleported him down to Earth. Samurai Fan Man then ambushed Kimberly and Tommy in the Park and opened up his gourd to quickly neutralize Tommy (putting him in a temporary coma) and then captured Kimberly with it. Inside his jug is an alternate dimension, where he trapped Kimberly. It was said by Alpha that if the jar broke, she would be trapped there forever. Weapons in his arsenal include his fan (which fires electrical sparks and a huge gust of wind, the main purpose of which is to blow his adversaries long distances away from him), a large steel rake, a lance, and explosive quills on his helmet that seem to regenerate themselves. The Rangers, after a briefing from Zordon met him there and a battle then ensued between them, Samurai Fan Man, and Goldar who had joined him right after his capture of Kimberly. Samurai Fan Man proved too much for Jason and Trini and ended the skirmish by summoning his fan and blowing away the Rangers. This was intended to send them to another dimension forever but Alpha and Zordon managed to rescue them. Thinking the Rangers gone, Samurai Fan Man went to a café swarmed with Putties (called the Putty Bowl Restaurant) alongside Squatt, Baboo, and Goldar to celebrate until the Rangers went to fight him once again.

Kimberly was still trapped inside the jug when Rita made Samurai Fan Man and Goldar grow to a giant size. Jason then called on Tommy, who had just woken up from his coma who then morphed and joined the others (against Alpha's wishes, as Tommy was recovering from an injury at the Command Center). Tommy called on the Dragonzord, which combined with the other Zords to form the Dragonzord Battle Mode. None of its attacks could harm Samurai Fan Man, although they did catch him by surprise and made him drop his rake. The battle continued to go poorly, with their best efforts only pushing him back a bit (before taking some hits of their own). Luckily, they began to turn the tide when they summoned the Power Staff managed to cut the monster's gourd loose with a stab from the Power Staff, freeing Kimberly. After a quick battle with the samurai lance which overpowered the Rangers. Kimberly had summoned her Pterodactyl Dinozord so Jason, knowing that they needed more power, had the team form the Megazord. They called on the Power Sword, breaking Samurai Fan Man's lance, but he then blew blow both the Megazord and Dragonzord away simultaneously with his fan, which were stopped by a nearby mountainside. Goldar ordered him to kill them and he charged but the Rangers recovered. Jason then called on Titanus to form the Ultrazord, which was finally able to destroy the monster and his fan which forced an angry Goldar to retreat.

Montana Max

Montana Max is the main antagonist of the Tiny Toon Adventures franchise.

He is a recurring menace who varies from a simpleminded bully to a full-fledged supervillain depending on his mood. He is obscenely rich and proud of it, loving to use his wealth to better his own enjoyment while caring little for that of others. He is the arch-nemesis of both Buster and Babs Bunny in a similar fashion as Yosemite Sam was the nemesis of Bugs Bunny. In fact, Montana Max is seen as Yosemite Sam's main admirer and mentee in Acme Looniversity (which makes sense, as their names both consist of a location and an actual given name).

He was voiced by Danny Cooksey, who also voiced Victor in The Ren & Stimpy Show, Hotstreak in Static Shock, Jack Spicer in

Xiaolin Showdown, Django of the Dead in El Tigre: The Adventures of Manny Rivera, Brad Buttowski in Kick Buttowski: Suburban Daredevil and Brett and Chet in The Lorax .

Despite his loud and bullying nature, Montana Max was the focus of Elmyra Duff's manic affection on numerous occasions.

Montana Max's love of money is highlighted by the fact his doorbell rings out the phrase "Money!" when rang and despite usually being a high school bully he has also become a ruthless business villain in special episodes revolving around Plucky, who imagines himself as the eco-based hero the Toxic Revenger (a parody of the 1984 cult film The Toxic Avenger ).

Montana Max is not only the nemesis of Buster Bunny but a rival to the entire Tiny Toons cast, it was revealed in one episode that Montana Max was originally to air his own show but he was so obnoxious that it was rejected in favor of the Tiny Toons (a case of breaking the fourth-wall): this enraged Montana Max and he's been causing trouble ever since.

He shares Yosemite Sam's explosive temper but is considerably smarter (at least sometimes) than his role model, he is also one of the few Looney Tunes villains that could be viewed as a regular threat to the heroes (though, like many things, this may be down to personal opinion). He is similar to Yosemite Sam and his mentor in Acme Looniversity.

As mentioned above Montana Max has often been pursued by Elmyra Duff and has sometimes returned the feeling, albeit reluctantly.

Although he is an antagonist in the series, the two-episode segments " Fit to Be Toyed " and " My Dinner with Elmyra " depict him as the main character. This is because, in the series, his parents finally assert themselves into his life, but in reality, it is because Danny Cooksey, the boy who had voiced him since he was 14 years old, complained about being the "bad guy".

In the final episode " It's a Wonderful Tiny Toons Christmas Special " Montana Max, being the equivalent to Mr. Potter in the original " It's a Wonderful Life ", serves as the main antagonist. Like his original counterpart, he is in a wheelchair, but for a real reason: he had an accident while skiing with Morgan Fairchild and broke his leg.

Bakemon

Bakemon are frightening Ghost type Digimon and characters in the Digimon universe. They can flex out their hands as punches, and can also disguise themselves as humans. Their weakness is the chanting "Bakemon, lose your power.".

The Bakemon first appeared in "The Dancing Digimon", disguising themselves as preachers. They attempted to eat Sora and Joe, but were saved by Biyomon and Gomamon. The Bakemon fused into a huge Bakemon called Lord Bakemon. With the help of Joe chanting, "Bakemon, lose your power.", Birdramon and Ikkakumon killed him with their powers combined.

Later on, the Bakemon were the minions of the sinister Myotismon, led by Phantomon. They were all destroyed when Myotismon is defeated.

Digimon Adventures 02

Some Bakemon were used by the Digimon Emperor to bluff Davis into believing that he had his friends hostage above a Deltamon and forced Davis to make a choice between which of them lived. This bluff was called when the real ones appeared. They later appear as being controlled by dark rings but before they can be freed they are killed by Kimeramon.

Dark Jaden Yuki The Supreme King

The Supreme King is one of the main antagonists of the third arc and season of Yu-Gi-Oh! Duel Monsters GX ; Dimension World. He is considered one of the darkest characters in the anime, especially due to the fact that he's the dark alter-ego of the main protagonist Judai Yuki. Specifically, he serves as the main antagonist starting in episode 136 until his defeat in episode 143 even then having crucial effects for the rest of the season and early season 4.

Rise of the Supreme King

The Supreme King was first mentioned by Birdman, after the latter was defeated by Judai. Amazed by Judai's courage and equity, Birdman begged Judai to defeat the evil that rules his world (the Supreme King) and to become himself the King.

As Judai went deeper into the alternate dimension, he could not control his emotions, especially anger and hatred, which resulted in the awakening of his dormant powers. When Zure, Knight of Dark World killed a boy who resembled Johan Anderson, a glowing aura appeared around Judai and Zure remarked that he is not like the other duelists. When several of Judai's friends were sacrificed during the Duel with Brron, Mad King of Dark World, Judai let his hatred and anger take control over him which awakened the Supreme King's powers inside himself. Judai used those powers in the duel to get revenge on Brron for the loss of his friends. Although the Duel ended with Judai's victory, his remaining friends were disappointed by his actions and left him alone.

Reign of Terror

After the Duel, the spirit of the Supreme King sensed Jaden's negative emotions and tempts him to evil with the Super Polymerization card that Brron previously tried to complete. He suggests that to truly defeat evil, Jaden himself must become evil. He successfully convinces Jaden and thus became the dominant personality. While in control, his first action was mobilizing an army to slaughter numerous Duelists in order to complete the "Super Polymerization" card. He later began to oppress many local villages, coercing their allegiance through strong-arm tactics and sets his eyes on a village that serves as his primary resistance for a trap for the survivors of his attacks.

After slaughtering a village, the Supreme King was challenged by Jim Crocodile Cook, who was utterly horrified when he saw the dark lord's face. Nevertheless, he Dueled the tyrant. In the Duel, he used the Eye of Orichalcum to see the evil inside Jaden and tried to destroy it though Professor Viper's words were stronger than Jim's which was proven once despite the eye's power and reducing the Supreme King's Life Points to 50, Jim eventually lost and was slain by the Supreme King.

Fall of the Supreme King

After Jim's death, the Supreme King focused all his power on eliminating the last pockets of resistance and completing Super Polymerization. But Austin O'Brien arrived and challenged the Supreme King. After a fierce Duel, the Supreme King finally made the winning move, but at the same time, Austin activated an effect from his Volcanic Counter card to ended the Duel in a draw and destroyed the Supreme King once and for all. Using the Eye of Orichalcum, Austin and Jim's spirit rescued Judai and brought him back as the dominant personality. Judai would later use his alter-ego's power against Yubel later in the season after overwhelming his guilt.

Fire Wasp

The rangers faced this nameless insect monster when they enter the Shadow World.

Temple Fugate A.K.A. The Clock King

Temple Fugate, the Clock King, was an efficiency expert with a grudge against Mayor Hill. He became a genius serial killer and thief, and later found himself working for Task Force X.

A professional efficiency expert, Temple Fugate was advised to deviate from his schedule for once in his life by future Gotham mayor, Hamilton Hill, only to have an unfortunate accident delay his arrival to an important court date and cause the financial ruin of his company. Swearing revenge because he believed Hill had done it on purpose, Fugate returned seven years later, now going by the name "Clock King," causing havoc and running afoul of Batman. However, Fugate had prepared himself well for this by studying news footage of Batman and learning his every move, making him a worthy adversary.

Fugate's vendetta against Hill eventually lead to him tying the mayor to the hands of a huge clock to crush him when they reached 3:15, but Batman intervened and fought Fugate inside the wheels of the clock tower. In the ensuing fight, Fugate accidentally jammed the wheels with his sword, causing a wreckage, and he vanished. Batman was certain that they would cross paths again.

Fugate later returned unharmed in the guise of a butler and assistant named Harold to a reclusive scientist, Dr. Wakati, who was studying time manipulation. This gave Fugate the opportunity to steal the prototype time manipulation device which allowed him to maneuver untouched and unseen in Gotham. He tried several times to exact his revenge on Hill with his new weapon, but Batman and Robin were able to acquire an identical machine from Wakati and foil Fugate once again. Fugate was then sent to Stonegate Penitentiary.

Sometime after his release from Stonegate, Fugate was enlisted by Task Force X for his organizational skills when they snuck into the Justice League Watchtower. Specifically, he designed much of the overall mechanics of the actual plan including the timetable of events, which included the compromise of some extra time allotted in the schedule to allow the agents some flexibility. In this role, he also acted as sort of a mission controller; providing status updates and guiding agents in the field in which he operated with his usual rigid efficiency. When last seen Fugate was still a member of Task Force X, and what happened to him following the end of Project Cadmus is unknown.

Charcoal Briquette

Charcoal Briquette is a woman who is one of the villains of Radioactive Man and also one of the members of The Fossil Fuel Four. Radioactive Man calls her a "French Femme Fatale".

Fire Wasp: That's all right. But I'm impressed you remember that.

Me: Never missed an episode.

Twilight Sparkle: What were the ghosts of Zen Tuo and Elias Kingston known for?

Qin: The Ghost of Zen Tuo was really a major international smugling ring mastermind named Mr. Fong and the Ghost of Elias Kingston was really Sharon Weatherby's uncle Stewart. He wanted the fortune of the Weatherby Estate all for himself.

Sunset Shimmer: Greed will make people do evil things.

Qin: Yep. Mr. Fong got 10 years in prison and Stewart got 20 years. They both died in prison of Cancer.

Ransik: It's true. Unlike with other monsters, mutants are born with the power to turn human.

Me: That's right I remember that. Contemptra can turn human so it should be applicable to all the Time Force Mutants.

Nico: That's right. And if she can do it then so can you.

Klawlox: We'll have to see if we can do that to get jobs to help out.

Rainbow Dash: Yeah but those transformations you all do are Awesome!

Scootaloo: Yeah they sure are. It's amazing how they turn from kids to full fledge adults as a result.

Yusei: Good choice and I don't blame her either. What she is doing has a lot of merit.

Rarity: Indeed. The little darling has already come a long way and we're proud of her.

Sweetie Belle: Laney has the right idea to learn so many techniques to keep our enemies guessing.

Thunder Terror: That's one of the good rules of combat. Keep your enemies guessing.

Mistmane: Yep. They never suspect what they have learned.

Sable Spirit: It's great merit for Laney and she is bound to unlock a new transformation after what she learned.

Liquid Leni: She totes earned it.

Jack Atlas: I agree completely on that.

Akiza: What she learned has merit.

Luna (5Ds): I agree on that.

Carly Atlas: I agree and Bane is so lucky to have her as an archenemy.

Misty Tredwell: That's right. She is so gifted.

Mysterio: She sure is. Lets do it!

Blizzard: I would freeze him and shatter him into a million pieces.

Steela Oresdotter: (Norwegian Accent) Well said!

Autumn Blaze: Those kinds of people have no love for anyone when they defile people like that!

Coloratura: I would call what happened to women when they go through something like that a fate worse than death.

Stone Luna: Not cool dudes.

Emma Goodall: No kidding. It's horrible!

Gia Moran: No kidding.

Blizzard: What they do is horrid and they have no love for anyone other than their own fantasies. Lets do it!

Troy Burrows: LEGENDARY RANGER MODE! ANIMAL KINGDOM PLATOON!

AHHAHHAHA!

Tree Hugger: What happened to her was not cool dudes.

Tornado Bolt: Yeah it makes me mad that people are that crazy!

Mage Meadowbrook: (Cajun Accent) Yeah it's absolutely disgusting!

Stealth Elf: It sure is. What happened to Mukuro is awful.

Plant Lola: She has our sympathies as women for what happened to her.

Yusuke: I may be a jerk most of the time but I still love and treat Keiko with respect.

Hiei: What those demons did was terrible. I may have been heartless many times but that doesn't mean that I don't have honor.

Kuwabara: Yeah what they did shows how evil they are.

Kurama: You got that right Kuwabara.

Yukina: Just like what happened with me when I was being used for jewel harvest.

Boton: (British Accent) Shows how dangerous some people can get.

Killer Croc: No kidding! I may have done some terrible things in the past but doing all that stuff to Mukuro is not some of them. Mukuro you have my sympathies for everything that happened to you.

Mukuro: Thank you. I'm glad J.D. healed me and returned me to my former self.

Killer Croc: Me too. Lets do it!

They fired waves of energy, elements, leaves and flowers and smashed him down.

Fluttershy: That was fun.

---

Steel Lynn: Those jokes were funny!

Marina Kerumma: This place looks like it was digitally programmed.

Marina concentrated and groaned as something grew in her pants.

Me: It's worse than that Marina. This is the city of Zion from the movie The Matrix. One of the most amazingly technologically advanced robotic cities I've ever seen.

Marina turned into Vaporeon!

Marina Vaporeon: What happened to everyone?

Me: The movie says that the humans are all hiding underground. They are at war with sentient robots.

Marina Vaporeon: Whoa.

Me: Not only that but we have to destroy Program Smith.

Marina Vaporeon: Who is Program Smith?

Me: A terrible Computer Virus.

I went over his history and it wasn't good.

Agent Smith is the main antagonist of The Matrix trilogy and a posthumous antagonist in the 2005 video game The Matrix Online . He is the leader of Agents who later became a computer virus within the second and third films, as well as Neo's archenemy. He refers to Neo as "Mr. Anderson".

He was portrayed by Hugo Weaving, who also portrayed Red Skull in the Marvel Cinematic Universe, V in V for Vendetta, Thaddeus Valentine in Mortal Engines, David Melrose in Patrick Melrose, and Megatron in the Transformers movie franchise.

Creation

Agent Smith and his two allies were created by The Architectto secure the Matrix for 600 years. During the first five centuries, he had pursued the five Ones but was unsuccessful.

The Matrix

600 years have passed and the sixth One was created. Smith was one of the three Agents sent to deal with Morpheus. After Neo (the sixth One) is successfully removed from the Matrix, Smith arranges Morpheus's capture by bribing Cypher, a disillusioned member of Morpheus's crew with being reintegrated into The Matrix. When Neo manages to free Morpheus, Smith and his fellow Agents engage in a lengthy cross-town chase. He and Neo fight, with Smith dominating most of the fight. Shortly after Neo escapes the fight, Smith guns him down. Neo revives, realizes his power as the One, and enters Smith, to destroy him from within.

The Matrix Reloaded

As a result of his contact with Neo, Smith is "unplugged"; no longer an Agent of the system but a "free man". His appearance is changed drastically as his sunglasses take on an angular shape and his suit is now black instead of dark green and his earpiece has disappeared. He still possesses the abilities of an Agent, but instead of being able to jump from one human to another, he is able to copy himself over any human or program in the Matrix through direct contact; this includes humans wired into the Matrix, non-Agent programs with human forms, red pills, and humans already possessed by Agents. Smith retains the memories and abilities, if any, of the one over which he copies himself. This ability is much like how a virus replicates, creating an ironic contrast with where Smith likens humanity to a virus during his speech with Morpheus.

He makes the claim that Neo has set him free, indicating that he now has not only the vision but also the ability to break free of the Machines' control and exist as a singular being. He is now allied with no one but himself, rendering him an outlaw to both the Matrix and the human minds which populate it. Being free of burden, however, Smith is also compelled to feel that he is still crushed by the weight of purpose.

He essentially correlates purpose with imprisonment, and because he still exists within the Matrix, there is an unseen purpose which binds together Neo and himself. He tries to copy his programming onto Neo, but when this fails, he and several of his clones attack him, forcing Neo to flee. Later, he and his clones try to stop Neo from reaching the machine mainframe, but this too fails.

The Matrix Revolutions

Smith has managed to copy himself over nearly every humanoid in the Matrix, giving him complete control over the "Core Network" (the underlying foundation of the inner workings of the Matrix), thus rendering him immutable by even the machines themselves. The Oracle explains to Neo that he and Smith have become equal in power and that Smith is Neo's negative, a result of The Matrix equation trying to balance itself. Also, she reveals that if he is not stopped, Smith will destroy everything. For this reason, the only way Smith can be eliminated, is for the equation to be "unbalanced". The Oracle herself is eventually taken over by Smith, granting him her power of foresight, or omniscience, as well as reality-bending powers equivalent to those possessed by Neo.

Neo engages in battle with Smith on the Machines' behalf in exchange for Zion's safety. The Smith created from the Oracle battles Neo alone; as he explains, he has foreseen his victory, and has no need for the help of his copies. The two are almost evenly matched, though Neo's combat abilities seem arguably superior to that of Smith, the latter who seems to attack more out of brute force, rather than the technical skill he used when he was an agent. In the midst of this battle, Smith explains to Neo his final nihilistic revelation: "It was your life that taught me the purpose of all life. The purpose of life is to end.".

When Neo is near defeat, Smith demands to know why Neo continues to fight, knowing he cannot win. Neo responds, "Because I choose to" and is beaten unconscious by the enraged Smith as a result. Suddenly recognizing the scene from his prophecy, Smith is compelled to deliver the line he said in it: "I say… Everything that has a beginning has an end, Neo". This is the only point where Smith does not refer to Neo as "Mr. Anderson".

Confused by his own behavior, Smith suddenly becomes frightened by the effect Neo has on his words- then, on the effect his words have on Neo. Unable to overpower Smith, Neo seems to concede to Agent Smith that he can never win, and thus submits to defeat. Neo's successfully 'sells' his 'defeat' to Smith. Smith, unaware of Neo's subterfuge, absorbs him, and for a moment, believes himself to be the victor; however, after copying himself onto Neo, Smith has exposed himself to the machines' mainframe. As such, the machines delete Smith, with him and his clones exploding in a simultaneous flash of white light, ending the war for good.

When I was finished she gasped in shock!

Marina Vaporeon: That's horrible!

Me: I know. Time for me to make sure he never hurts anyone again.

?: Let us help.

A figure came out and it was an Empusa from Greek Myth and a Steelix.

Me: Whoa an Empusa from Greek Myth and a Steelix.

Em: My name is Em and it's an honor to meet you J.D.

Steelix: And I am Zion Markov. Pleasure to meet you.

Me: Same here.

I snapped my fingers and we went into the Matrix and it was REALLY raining and I was wearing all black clothes and I had black sunglasses and I was ready for action as I was walking down the street and there was a massive number of Agent Smith clones.

I then saw the real Agent Smith come out and he looked at me.

Agent Smith: Mr. Knudson welcome back. We've missed you.

Me: Can't say the same.

Agent Smith: You like what I've done with the place?

THUNDERCLAP!

Me: This ends now Smith.

Agent Smith: I know it does. I've seen it. That's why the rest of me is gonna sit back and enjoy the show. We already know that I'm the one that beats you.

Me: Your overconfidence will be your undoing.

I threw my black coat off.

Me: Marina hold on to that for me will you?

Marina Vaporeon: Sure thing.

Me and Smith went at each other and we were punching and kicking and blocking punches at an incredible level of power and speed and really fighting. I was blocking his punches and then I punched him in the face and sent him flying and I flipped back and landed safely on the street and he crashed onto the street and skidded and he was mad. Then he flew into the air and I went after him and we collided and a massive shockwave of water exploded out and then we were fighting in the air with brutal power and I punched and kicked him all over the place and sent him crashing through a building and I landed in front of him.

Me: Had enough?

Agent Smith got up and had anger in his eyes at me.

Agent Smith: I'd like to share a revelation that I've had during my time here.

Me: And what's that?

Agent Smith: It came to me when I tried to classify your species and I realized that you're not actually mammals. Every mammal on this planet instinctively develops a natural equilibrium with the surrounding environment, but you humans do not. You move to an area and you… multiply and multiply until every natural resource is consumed. The only way you can survive is to spread to another area. There is another organism on this planet that follows the same pattern. Do you know what it is? A virus. Human beings are a disease, a cancer of this planet; you are a plague and we are the cure.

Me: That's bullshit and you know it. It's the other way around. You are the virus. Evil is the virus. Me and my friends and everyone I love, we are the cure.

We went at each other some more and I punched and kicked him all over again and kicked him in the face and sent him flying out of the building. Then we flew at each other and collided and a massive shockwave exploded out and shattered the windows and we fought as we flew in the air and punched and kicked all over. Lightning struck all over as the fight raged on above the city and I kicked him far and he came at me and I went at him and when we collided…

KRABBBBBBLLLLLLAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAMMM

A massive shockwave exploded out and it was made of rain and water and lightning and I kicked him in the face and then I fired a massive blast of energy it hit him and exploded and sent him falling. Then he flew at me and grabbed me and flew towards the ground with incredible speed. The just as he was about to hit the ground I teleported away and he slammed into the ground with devastating force!

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The shockwave smashed some of the buildings and blew the cars away. The Rest of the Program Smith army came and saw into the crater with Agent Smith looking for me.

Me: Looking for someone?

He saw me flying above him.

I landed.

Me: You are through Smith.

I fired a wave of energy and it hit him and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

I then concentrated and fired an energy field and destroyed all of program Smith and returned him to what the citizens of the Matrix were before he took them over.

Em: YEAH!

Steelix: Take that!

Marina Vaporeon: Way to go J.D.!

We teleported back to Zion. I had my blind man glasses on and snapped my fingers and Zion Markov had reverted back to human and she was naked. Marina reverted back too.

Marina was human again. But naked.

Marina: (covers herself) As Devon and his team would say, virus eliminated!

Me: Well said Marina.

Zion: Program Smith is dead.

Em: Thank goodness for that. Now Zion can heal and the machines and humans can live in peace. But J.D. that was incredible how you took on Smith like that. He was no match for you.

Me: He had no idea who he was fucking around with.

Zion: Well said.

I gave Zion new clothes and gave Marina her clothes. We then went back home.

After meeting Em the Empusa and we Super Hakaied Program Smith, Lincoln, me, Nico, Eli, Hawkgirl, Nicole, Lana Loud, Killer Frost, and The ToQger Rangers were off to rescue three girls who've been kidnapped by McWolf, and he's holding them in his newly-built castle in Antarctica. We were dressed in parkas, due to the extreme cold, and we found out that Lincoln is also capable of adapting to the cold, thanks to the fact that he has ice elemental powers too.

Lincoln: Wow, so McWolf has built his new castle here in Antarctica.

Me: Brr, you said it, big guy. I hope that his castle has tons of heaters running.

Killer Frost: A place where it's cold all the time, I like it.

Lana Loud: It's just as cold as in Russia, and this is where The Lake Vostok Prison is at, and we've thrown a lot of criminals in there over the years.

We arrived in McWolf's castle, and he had tons of heaters running, which warmed us up greatly, and we took our parkas off and wrapped them around our waists. Then, we went to the room where McWolf was keeping the girls, and to our surprise, the girls that McWolf has kidnapped were Mine and Ryuko Matoi from Akame Ga Kill, and Jolyne Kujo from Jojo's Bizarre Adventure.

Lincoln: Wow, it's Mine, Ryuko Matoi, and Jolyne Kujo.

Nicole: From Akame Ga Kill and Jojo's Bizarre Adventure, incredible, and I'm surprised McWolf kidnapped three girls in one day.

Lincoln went up to the three girls and freed them.

Mine: Oh man, thanks for freeing us.

Ryuko Matoi: Me too.

Jolyne Kujo: Same here.

Then, when the three girls saw who freed them, they had a large blush on their faces, as they lit up like a red Christmas light upon seeing the 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired hunk with abnormally large and powerful muscles, eight-pack abs, and deep sapphire blue eyes.

Mine, Ryuko Matoi, and Jolyne Kujo: Oh wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you, Mine, Ryuko Matoi, and Jolyne Kujo.

Lincoln made two Shadow Clones as he and the two other clones picked up Mine, Ryuko Matoi, and Jolyne Kujo, and kissed them on the lips, as red steam came out of their ears, and they returned the kiss with equal passion.

Ryuko Matoi: Same here, handsome.

Lincoln and his clones gently let the girls down, and as the two clones vanish, McWolf came out.

Nicole: I'm surprised you kidnapped three girls in one day, McWolf, but let me ask you two questions: 1. How did you manage to build your castle here in Antarctica without turning into a wolf popsicle, and 2. How did you kidnap Mine and Ryuko Matoi without getting caught by the imperial guards or Night Raid?

McWolf: For the first question, I packed a parka and a ton of heaters, and for the second question, I went after Mine and Ryuko Matoi after Mine got finished killing Syura, who was apparently the son of that shmuck, Prime Minister Honest, and since you have the ToQger Rangers here, I've got some old friends for you to fight. KUROS!

Then, an army of Kuros appeared from the darkness.

Right Suzaki: Kuros, I should've known you'd summon them, McWolf. Alright, guys, let's do this.

Hawkgirl: Count me in.

The ToQger Rangers, Lincoln, and Hawkgirl went up to the army of Kuros.

ToQger Power Rangers and Lincoln: TOQ CHANGE!

NOW TRANSFORMING! PLEASE STAND BEHIND THE WHITE LINE!

In a flash of rainbow light, The ToQger Rangers transformed and Lincoln transformed into his new ToQger Power Ranger form, but his ToQger Power Ranger uniform and helmet is black with a white visor, and it goes well with his Sword of Taranis, which he unholstered from his wider muscular back, along with the eight large orange orbs orbiting around his legs, and he spreads his larger blue angel wings surging with powerful super lightning and with stars and blue nebulae reflecting in them.

Right Suzuki: ToQ Ichi!

Haru Tokashiki: ToQ Ni!

Mio Natsume: ToQ San!

Hikari Nonomura: ToQ Yan!

Kagura Izumi: ToQ Go!

Akira Nijino: ToQ Roku!

Conductor: ToQ Nana!

Lincoln: ToQ Kyu!

ToQGer Rangers and Lincoln: The Victorious Imagination! Ressha Sentai ToQger!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive explosion of rainbow fire erupted behind them.

Me: Wow, Lincoln, you look awesome as a ToQger Power Ranger.

Right Suzuki: A White ToQ Ranger is awesome!

McWolf: Alright, let's do this.

Lincoln: Let's do this.

The ToQger Rangers, Lincoln, and Hawkgirl went after the Kuros, and they blast them with powerful blasts of fire, neon blue energy blasts, and elemental blasts, and slashed and bashed them with their weapons, and destroyed them. Then, Lincoln changed back to normal, and he, Nico, Eli, Lana, Killer Frost, and me jumped McWolf and tickled him.

McWolf: (LAUGHING HYSTERICALLY)

We ceased the tickling, and we helped McWolf up. But before we were about to head back to The World Tree Estate, suddenly, we heard the familiar sound of a gun being pointed at us, and the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs and the eight large planets and stars orbiting around my legs were glowing.

Me: Do you ever have the feeling that someone's followed you?

Mine: Well I do, and that's when someone aims a gun at me. There's only one person who would aim a gun at me.

And right in front of us was Prime Minister Honest, pointing a gun at us, and man was he livid over the death of his son.

---

Honest, also known as Prime Minister Honest, the Prime Minister and the First Minister, is the main antagonist of the manga/anime series Akame Ga Kill! . He is the Prime Minister of the Empire and himself seized control over the Empire while the emperor is a child. He manipulates Emperor for his own ends, bringing suffering through his orders by manipulating his innocence. Honest secretly rules the Empire in the shadows, bringing misery, hunger and poverty throughout the land.

He is voiced by Kōji Ishii in the Japanese version of the anime, and Marty Fleck in the English version.

It is stated that Emperor only won the battle of succession due to the Prime Minister's influence and planning. The Prime Minister before him was Chouri, a man that was a kindhearted but strong willed and a strong adviser to the former emperor, who desired to return to the capital to stop the decline of the empire.

When the Prime Minister became aware of this, he had Esdeath's force's (The Three Beasts') tasked to kill him. He is known to have one son, and he is also known to have one blood relative named Iwokura, who was killed by Night Raid.

When he was executed for his crime in the manga, Revolutionary soldiers, numbering in millions, decided to share their bounty on Honest's head… By each soldiers taking a piece of Honest's flesh .

---

Me, Mine, and McWolf: PRIME MINISTER HONEST!

Honest: You'll pay for killing my son, Night Raid.

Me: We aren't Night Raid, you old buzzard.

Honest: I DO NOT CARE! I WILL KILL YOU NO MATTER WHAT!

McWolf was about to unholster his Dark Slayer of The Netherworld zanbato from his back, and sever Prime Minister Honest's head, but Lincoln stopped him from doing so.

Lincoln: Relax, McWolf, I got this.

Lincoln fired a powerful wave of wind, and he blew Prime Minister Honest back-first into an armored prison van, which appeared inside the castle, and he gave the police evidence of all of Prime Minister Honest's crimes, which was in the form of a videotape created by Lincoln, when he'd fired a blast of neon blue energy and it hits Honest on his head.

We headed back to The World Tree Estate, and after the evidence of Former Prime Minister Honest's crimes were presented in court, Honest was convicted on all charges, and he was sentenced to Life in Prison Without Possibility of Parole in the Neptune Prison, and he was put in a special cell in Solitary Confinement.

Later Nico was having Lunch and Poliwag was on edge.

Poliwag: (panicking) You guys, I can't take it anymore! I've been giving it a lot of thought. And I think we all need to confess!

Muscle Man: What?! Now, hold on, Poliwag. You start blabbing to the others and we're gonna end up in the Warp for the rest of our lives!

Lincoln: Hey, guys.

Me and the others that know about the Aligned Dimension turned and gasped to see Lincoln, Laney, Lily, Lisa, Luan, and Luna.

May: Um… hey, Lincoln. What are you, Laney, Lily, Lisa, Luan, and Luna doing here?

Luan: We have a question to ask Squidward and the others. (to Squidward) Do you know where May, Nico, and Maria went for the past 8 days?

Squidward: (sweating) Not really. They didn't exactly specify where they were.

Laney: Really. Then it's kind of peculiar that Lisa found something.

Lisa: (Takes out video camera) I recorded this footage on the security cameras.

Me: (on the footage) Now, remember, guys. We have to keep the Aligned Dimension a secret.

Muscle Man: (on the footage) Gotcha. (laughs) You know who else likes keeping secrets? My mom!

Muscle Man: Um… oops?

Luna: That's a piece of evidence that hurts all of us, dudes.

Poromon: Hey, you're not making us the bad guys here. Nico probably wouldn't have been going to the Aligned Dimension if the 6 of you, Girl Jordan, and J.D. weren't so angry in battle!

Me: Now everyone just calm down!

Eli: Yeah! This has nothing to do with us getting angry.

Me: I gave Nico authorization to go to the world of the Aligned Transformers just so he can have some fun and know what it's like there. This was not out of spite but just for him to have a break when it's my turn to lead.

Lori: Oh I get it. So that's why you have been so secretive.

Me: Yes and I apologize for that.

Lori: It's okay J.D.

After lunch, Nico was heading off to the Aligned Transformers Universe with William so that Nico can introduce him to them, but before he could, he was stopped by Lincoln, Lily, Luna, Luan, and Lisa.

Nico: Lincoln, Lily, Luna, Luan, Lisa.

Lincoln: Nico, we already know about that little secret of yours, but to tell you the truth, we were a bit mad at you, at first. But, as soon as Lincoln 2 told me everything that you've been doing for the past few days, such as sneaking out in secret to meet with the Aligned Transformers, I understood all of the details, and I also relayed it to Lily, Luna, Luan, and Lisa, and they also understood, as well, and they're not mad at you.

Nico was surprised at how Lincoln 2 knew about what he was doing, along with me, Eli, Lori, Lynn, Lola, Leni, Lana, and Laney, who just came into the room.

Nico: Wait a second, how did your counterpart/ancestor and you know about that, along with the rest of your sisters?

Lincoln: (laughs) Well, dude, you're in for a big surprise, along with the rest of you guys, especially you, Eli. You see, Lincoln 2 is also a Master of The Force, both The Light and Dark Sides, but still known as a pure-hearted warrior, just like Eli. And when he merged with me, let's just say that my powers with The Force have also evolved and have gotten stronger as well.

Me: Also Lisa's security camera found out about Muscle Man and you and all that.

Nico was stunned to hear that, along with me, the rest of Lincoln's sisters, and Eli, but none more so than Eli, whose eye was now twitching like crazy, and he started bouncing off the walls and laughing crazily like Daffy Duck, until he was stopped by Lincoln, grabbing him by his shoulders. Then, he went back to Nico, who then put his hands on Nico's shoulders.

Lincoln: And we did take offense to your leadership tactics, at first, but now, we finally understand all of your leadership tactics, and why you formed them. I know you don't want us to go rogue, and trust me when I tell you this from the bottom of my heart, that's never going to happen, and it was because of you and everyone that we've met for the past five years, that we've never gone rogue and we stayed on the path of being true heroes, and what we're going to say to you from the bottom of our hearts is the truth. Nico, we love you for who you are and for the man you've become.

Then, Lincoln's sisters came up to Nico.

Lori: Linky's right, you're strong both physically and mentally.

Leni: You're incredibly brave.

Luna: You're rocking.

Luan: You have an amazing sense of humor.

Lynn: You're tough and courageous.

Laney: You're awesome.

Lucy: You're a ray of hope to us, in times of darkness.

Lola and Lana: (hugs Nico tightly) You're kind.

Lisa: You're smart and wise.

Lily: You're incredibly caring.

Me: You're an awesome brother to us, an amazing husband to May, and a loving and awesome father to your kids.

Eli: You have a heart of gold, just like Lincoln, me, J.D., and the rest of us.

Lincoln and Lincoln 2: And you're an awesome planner when it comes to planning out attacks on the villains, and that's what makes you Nicholas Chan, our awesome brother, an awesome second leader of the team, a loving husband and father, and I also can't forget this, you're known as the avenger of The Saiyans for what you did to Frieza, you avenged your race's honor and ended that tyrant, and you're leading the Saiyans down the path of redemption.

Nico was stunned at what we said about him, and he had tears and a smile on his face, as soon as he saw the truth in Lincoln's deep sapphire blue eyes.

Nico: (voice breaking) Guys, that was really deep with what you said about me. You really thought this all through.

Lincoln had a warm smile on his face and tears in his eyes, along with the rest of his sisters, Eli, and me.

Lincoln: We did, Nico, and we love you with all of our hearts.

We enveloped Nico in the biggest group hug ever, and we had tears running down our faces from what we said to Nico. Then, after a few minutes, we let go.

Lincoln: Now, come on, you don't want to be late with your friends from the Aligned Transformers Universe.

Nico: Oh man, you're right.

Then, Poromon gave Nico the video of what we just did.

Nico: Wow, you taped it, Poromon?

Poromon: Yep, and it was Lincoln's idea.

Lincoln: Make sure you show this to everyone in the Aligned Transformers Universe, and this'll make Miko see the truth.

Nico: (small laugh) You sure are known as The Man With A Plan, Lincoln, and your planning has really improved lately.

The girls in Lincoln's harem also stood with him, with Lily the Mermaid wrapping her arms around Lincoln's waist, as he picks her up, and they shared a kiss.

Lily the Mermaid: And that's also another trait that makes you who you are, Linky.

Nico: (sly smile on his face) Well, you girls play nice with Lincoln now, We'll be back soon, guys.

Me: Have fun Nico.

We had a good laugh, as Nico and William went through the portal left for the Aligned Transformers Universe.

Nico and William arrived in the Aligned Universe.

Nico: Guys, I'd like you to meet William Dunbar. X.A.N.A.'s former general, Maria's boyfriend, and the leader of the Redemption Squad.

Miko: Hello William.

Aligned Bumblebee: Pleasure to meet you.

William: Same here guys. It's an honor to meet you all.

Strongarm: Pleasure is ours.

They saw Nico thinking.

June Darby: So, what's been going on lately in your world?

Aligned Arcee: Let me guess. JD did something reckless as usual and you came here to-

Nico: Our secret's out.

Miko: What?! Who squealed?! Was it Laney?

Nico: No it's actually Lisa's Security Cameras that helped the Loud Kids all figure it out.

Miko: Wow Lisa must be very smart.

Nico: Genius actually. She was born with an IQ of 180.

June Darby: 180 IQ at birth!? Wow! She is REALLY Smart.

Nico: Yeah. She has an IQ of 300 now at 4 years old.

June Darby: WHOA! SHE'S THAT SMART FOR A KID HER AGE!?

Nico: I'm not kidding. She knows everything in the fields of science. She even won a junior Nobel Prize in physics and she's a college professor.

Miko: WHOA! Lisa must be amazingly smart.

Nico: No kidding. I was amazed myself. But here look at this video that Poromon made for us.

He showed the video.

It was really awesome.

Miko: Okay. So, maybe we're being a little unsympathetic to J.D. and the Loud Kids. But we're still having that honestly brutal talk with them!

Jack Darby: Just to make sure they're good friends to you in addition to being good heroes.

Nico: J.D. may pee his pants if you do anything rash.

June Darby: We'll try not to be too rash. But that video was really touching.

Nico: It sure was.

Nico and William saw Knock Out.

William: (to Knock Out) Maria said you'd be a good Redemption Squad candidate. And I agree with her.

Knock Out: Thanks William. It will be an honor to be part of the Redemption Squad as well as under the allegiance of Nico Chan.

Nico: Thanks Knock Out.

William: Awesome.

Knock Out: I should probably explain more about myself. Back in the days of the war, I served as the Decepticon's medic.

Nico: Really? Good to know. In my world, Hook is the Decepticon Medic.

Knock Out: I think I'll get along with him just fine. Anyway, Breakdown was also my partner. (clenches his fist) Until Airachnid killed him.

Nico: I take it back. Airachnid's gonna die when it's time to take out Mr. Mind.

Knock Out: Did I mention she's a Terrorcon Vampire now thanks to Starscream's bright idea on mixing Synthetic Energon with Dark Energon?

Nico: That's playing with Cybertronian Fire!

Miko: No kidding! That's horrible!

Nico: When we come here, we'll make sure that Starscream pays for his crimes. Our Starscream may be known as the most notorious traitor of them all but thank goodness he is not as smart as the one here.

Miko: Yeah what Starscream did was horrible!

Nico: No kidding and he will pay for all of them.

Back in our universe, we were talking with the Loud's.

Squidward: (To Lily, Lisa, Luan, Luna, Lincoln, and Laney) Do the 6 of you know what you've done?

Lily: We just wanted to know where Nico's been going.

Me: Well have you ever heard of the saying "Curiosity Killed the Cat?"

Cliff and Opal meowed.

Me: No offense.

Cliff and Opal meowed saying None Taken.

Maria: Well, he might have seemed happy earlier. But for all we know, he was probably hiding how hurt you guys made him by snooping around.

Squidward: The Aligned Dimension was Nico's private place to get away from all of his troubles here. And you guys ruined it for him! I'm actually speaking from personal experience.

Maria: The 6 of you better hope Nico stays on the team!

Laney: Actually I have known about it since I showed J.D. that video Miko made.

Me: Yeah Laney has known about it for a while. So she's off the hook. But Squidward the secret was bound to come out eventually. I know you guys are upset with everything that has been happening. But also Squidward, Nico wasn't going to the Aligned Universe because of our spite. He wanted to get to know the Aligned Transformers just so we can be ready for when the time comes when we ALL go there in the future to help them out.

Squidward: Oh. That makes sense.

Lily: Yeah it does.

Nico and William came back.

Me: How was it?

Nico: Good news: Knock Out's definitely on the Redemption Squad when the time comes. Bad news: the Aligned Autobots and their human friends are still gonna have that brutally honest talk with you and the Loud's.

Poromon: (to me) Don't say I didn't warn you.

Me: I'm prepared for what they have to say.

Lori: We all are.

Eli: Oh boy. I hope they don't do anything they will regret or I will give them the worst ever death glare they ever seen.

Arrietty: What kind of glare is that Eli?

Eli: It's a glare that's so scary that it will kill them in an instant.

Me: (Gulps) That must be one scary glare.

J.D. 3: It is J.D. You don't want to know what it can do. It's a deadly version of Fluttershy's stare.

Me: Oh boy.

* * *

Later Lily was sitting on the sofa watching TV.

Supernova Zap: (sees Lily just watching TV on the couch) Well, you seem a bit lazy today.

Lily: Yeah not much to do.

Me: Yeah things have been quiet haven't they?

Lily: Yeah. Nothing to do but sit back and relax.

Me: How about playing some video games?

Lily: Did that with Nicole 20 minutes ago.

Me: Okay.

Lynn Sr. came out covered in soap and was all wet and in a bath robe.

Lily: (Lynn Sr. blocks the TV) Hey! What gives?

Lynn Sr: What gives is that I ran out of water in the shower… again. It's your job to keep the water running, Lily.

Lily: I will. Just later.

Me: Let me clean you up Mr. Lynn.

Lynn Sr.: Thanks J.D.

I fired waves of water and spun him around and cleaned him up and I snapped my fingers and got him dressed.

Lynn Sr.: Ahh. That was great! Thanks man.

Me: Anytime. Darn pipe must be clogged.

Lana: I'll go take a look at it.

Lana went to the basement to check the water.

Lily: Sorry. I will. Just Later.

Rita: (sarcastically) The same way you're "going" to make your bed or take out the trash.

Linka: Not to mention that I'm doing the dishes that you said you'd do an hour ago!

We saw a huge pile of dishes.

Me: Whoa! We have been eating a lot haven't we? But I guess that can't be helped with so many people living in a place as big as this.

Rita: You're right J.D.

Lori: Lily, you can't just be lazy all day. You have to help out around the house.

Lily: This is coming from one of the Trinity of Violence?

Lola: Believe it or not, I actually do hard work around here.

Lynn: And I've learned the importance of hard work during my whole sports career. You think I got those tropies by lying around all day?

Doubledealer: And Lori's the oldest. So it's her job to help around the house most of all.

Lori: Thank you, Doubledealer.

Doubledealer: You're welcome.

Me: Also you know who else likes to be lazy around here?

Lily: Who?

Muscle Man: MY MOM!

We laughed at his and my joke.

Me: (Laughs) Good one Muscle Man but that's not who I meant. I was talking about Ed, Eddy, Billy, and the TTG Versions of Beast Boy and Cyborg. I said those last two because it's true.

Lily: Oh.

Lily used her water powers to clean the dishes and she made them all sparkly clean.

Me: That was helpful. You need to understand the importance of hard work.

Lily: What are you guys gonna do? Take me to a farm?

Applejack: That would be a good idea.

Angry Birds Stella: No. That would be too simple. I've got a better idea.

Ultra Magnus: Does it have anything to do with new heroes?

Angry Birds Stella: It does. We're going to the Dojo of the Golden Dragon in Tibet and we're going to meet Ang and Ling Leung.

Me: WHOA! I heard about them.

Cybertron Ransack: By the way, J.D.? It's your turn to lead today.

Me: Yep I know that. But Stella how did you meet Ang and his friends?

Angry Birds Stella: I met them after they helped take down some mutant pigs when we were going after Zeta.

Me: Wow! So that was them that took down those pigs from the shadows. We owe them a huge debt for that.

Éclair: That was amazing.

Me: It sure is. But lets get ready and we'll have them help Lily realize that being lazy is not cool.

Blizzard, Hydro Man, Mysterio, Killer Croc, Deadwood, Oculous, Chillyfish, Thundermon, Harpymon, and Black Lance then appeared.

Blizzard: Can me, Hydro Man, Mysterio, Killer Croc, Deadwood, Oculous, Chillyfish, Thundermon, Harpymon, and Black Lance come with you guys?

Me: You all sure can. We're going to Tibet to the Golden Dragon Dojo to meet Ang and Ling Leung and their friends.

Mysterio: Oh wow! That's cool!

Black Lance: I heard that they are known for great things. And if what we're gonna do when we meet them is true then we must be going after The Emperor of The Darkest Yin.

Me: I have that same feeling too.

Eli: I've heard legends about him. He is evil to the core.

Applejack: What do you know about him Eli?

Eli: He's the most ruthless emperor ever.

Eli told us all about him.

---

The Emperor of Darkest Yin is a villain in Legend of the Dragon.

Biography

He is the former (most likely first) Shadow Dragon and the elder brother of Yin Wi. He He was the previous shadow dragon prior to Ling before being locked up and he also has a younger sister named Yin-Wi.

He is the number one enemy of Ang and Lingwho are the Golden Dragon Twins, and he will do anything in his power to destroy them and the rest of the non-Shadow Guardians, as well as any of his own who defy him, such as K Ho and Tex.

The Emperor was restored back to life by The Zodiac Master and Ling by collecting four Power Bands (Shadow Snake, Shadow Ram, Shadow Ox and light Rooster), in the final episode of season one. He then proceeded to breathe life into his terracotta army, and told Ling to kill Ang and bring back his Power Band, only to get very angry when he found the Shadow Dragon Band had been destroyed, converted into another Golden Dragon Power Band.

---

When he was done we were shocked and horrified!

Laney: Whoa! He's really bad news!

Lincoln: He's pure evil!

Me: Yeah! And his is immortal too. It will be epic to face him. Lets head out everyone. We're going to Tibet.

We were off to Tibet.

TIBET

We arrived in Eastern Tibet and it was beautiful.

Me: Wow. I've always wanted to come here to Tibet. It's so beautiful.

Nico: It sure is. I love Tibet because of its history and it's beautiful views of the Himalayas.

Eli: It's magnificent.

Me: Now we got to find Ang and Ling.

Donna: Me and Scream see them.

Scream: And they're fighting a guy using some sort of cooling gun.

We looked and we saw that they were fighting the former guardian of the Pig Temple, Tommy!

Eli: That's Tommy. He's the Former Guardian of the Pig Temple.

Me: Looks like he has some hatred towards the Leung Twins.

Nico: Yeah.

Maria: Me and Bai Tza will drive him away.

Bai Tza: Lets do it.

Tommy: I will crush you!

Ang Leung: We'll see about that!

Then suddenly a massive blast of water appeared out of nowhere and smashed into Tommy and send him flying far!Deadwood: His cooling gun flew far away with him.

Maria: I think we can leave him be for now. I'm just glad me and Bai

Tza showed him who's boss just now.

Eli: Hey look.

We saw his cooling gun on the ground. The Water knocked it out of Tommy's hands when it smashed into him.

Eli picked it up.

Eli: I could use this.

Arrietty: Go for it Eli.

Ang: Whoa was that from you?

Eli: Not me. From Maria and Bai Tza here.

We all came out.

Me: Ang and Ling Leung. (Bows) It's an honor to meet you in person.

Ang: (Bows) J.D. Knudson and all of Team Loud Phoenix Storm it's an honor to meet you all too.

Ling: (Bows) Same here. We love all your adventures. I take it Stella told you about what we did when you were on Bird Island?

Me: She sure did and we owe you a big debt for helping us with those Dark Orb Mutated Pigs.

Ang: You're welcome J.D.

Xuan Chi the Guardian of The Temple of The Monkey was with them.

Xuan Chi: It's such an honor to meet you.

Me: You must be Xuan Chi the Guardian of the Temple of The Monkey.

Xuan Chi: That's right.

Me: An honor.

Ang: So, did you guys killed that Zeta girl that was in charge of the Demon Pigs?

Impact Man: Actually, we didn't. It was all a misunderstanding that was talked over.

Me: Yep. It turns out it was a wedding that went sour.

Xuan Chi: So we fought those pigs for nothing?!

May: Not really. We were busy tending to Éclair so we couldn't exactly fight them.

Elena Potato: But me and Malchior knew Stella didn't take those pigs out on her own!

Me: Yeah we knew that someone helped her out. We owe you big time.

Ang: Think nothing of it.

Me: We also heard how you can use the powers of the 12 Powers of The Animals of the Chinese Zodiac. That is so cool.

Ang: It sure is. Want to see it in action?

Me: Sure.

Ang: POWER OF THE DRAGON!

He turned into his Golden Dragon Form and it was really awesome!

Me: WHOA! That is awesome!

Nico: So cool! The power coming from it is amazing!

Me: Awesome!

Oculous: How about we go see your temple?

Ang: Sure thing.

We then were taken to the Dojo of The Golden Dragon.

Ang: Welcome to the Dojo of The Golden Dragon.

Me: Wow!

Eli: This is so cool. I remember learning all I can from here when J.D. and me were here.

J.D. 3: It was a long time ago.

Me: I can see that. Wow.

Jack Spicer: This is almost like the Xiaolin Temple.

Clay Bailey: I was just about to point that out.

Omi: (Tibetan Accent) It's most amazing that this is here.

Kimiko: It's really cool.

Me: And it sure is amazing. Ang, I take it you know about the Shen Gong Wu and everything that has been going on with the Xiaolin Warriors?

Ang: Yeah that is amazing that the Heylin are after the Shen Gong Wu. We actually had a run in with that Chase Young guy. He is dangerous.

Me: He wants to destroy the entire universe. But did you guys ward him off?

Ling: We sure did. He may be over 1,500 years old but he was no match for us together.

Me: That's good you stood a chance like that. Great job.

Eli: Yeah!

Ang: Thanks guys.

Me: But if we see him he will die. He lived for far too long.

Grim: (Jamaican Accent) No kidding mon.

Ling: By the way, Stella? Thanks for keeping our involvement a secret.

Angry Birds Stella: You're welcome Ling.

Ang: Oh J.D. I found this for you all.

He went and came back with a Shen Gong Wu. It was the Moonstone Locust.

Me: The Moonstone Locust. Where did you find this one?

Ang: I found it in the jungles of Borneo.

Me: All the way down in Southeastern Asia.

Ang: Yep. You can have it. I can tell you all have been gathering them for some reason.

Me: Thanks Ang.

I took it and it was in our possession.

Ang: Now, what brings you guys here?

Chillyfish: Long story short, Lily's been acting very lazy lately. So, we brought her here to teach her the value of hard work.

Me: Yeah.

Ben: This reminds me when me and Gwen met the Mummy the first time and we were being lazy.

Gwen T.: That is very interesting.

Me: Wait this was when you all met the Mummy?

Ben: Yep.

The Alien Mummy appeared.

Mummy: Did you guys call?

Me: We made a reference. But Lily is very lazy and it reminded Ben and Gwen about the time they were lazy when they met you.

Mummy: The time I was digging for Corrodium in that farm area and I mutated those cows and that guard at that dairy plant.

Me: That's very coincidental.

Ang: I agree with J.D. and the others, Lily. Being lazy isn't good.

Frightwig: I know, right? Also, is your sensei here?

?: (Tibetan Accent) I am.

Master Chin then appeared.

Eli: Master Chin. (Bows) It's great to see you again sensei.

Master Chin: And to you Eli and Team Loud Phoenix Storm it's an honor to have you all here. (Bows)

Me: (Bows) It's an honor to be here Master Chin.

We bowed to him.

Master Chin: You want me to train Lily and help her understand the importance of hard work as well as my temples moves.

Eli: Yes sensei if you have time.

Master Chin: I would be honored.

Me: Awesome.

Lily: Okay.

Black Lance: Look on the bright side, Lily. Maybe you'll find your Spirit Animal from all this.

Lily: It's possible.

Casey Rhodes: Go for it. If Emma and Jake can do it then so can you.

Nico: Yeah.

Lily: Okay I'm ready!

Me: That's the spirit!

Blizzard Man: Ready to start, Lily?

Lily: I am ready!

Nico: Wow! She really turned around.

Lincoln: That's my little sister.

Lily got to work in her training.

French Narrator: (French Accent) 15 Hours Later

Thundermon: How's Lily doing so far?

Eli: She's doing really well.

We saw Lily going at a bunch of kung fu training dummies and really tearing them apart as well as taking on some of the students in the dojo and she was mastering all kinds of weapons and more with incredible ease. She even mastered the styles of the 12 Animals of The Chinese Zodiac with ease!

Me: WHOA! The student has surpassed the master!

Nico: WOW! Look at her go!

Laney: My little sister is really going at it.

Lily cooled down and she was dripping sweat like no tomorrow.

Spark Man: How do you feel, Lily?

Lily: Better than ever! I feel like a new girl.

Me: You did us proud Lily.

Killer Croc: Can you use an animal spirit like Ang can?

Lily: Lets find out. TIGER POWER!

She went Tiger Guardian Mode and she looked amazing!

Me: WHOA!

Nico: That is awesome!

Ang: Yeah! Way to go Lily.

Laney: YEAH!

Mihiramon: That was great!

Me: Yeah it is! Awesome job!

Lily: Many more where that came from.

Me: We'll have to see more of it as we go along.

Ling: You know, I wasn't always close to Ang as I am today.

Plant Man: Let me guess. You were evil before, right?

Ling: That's right. The reason is because when Ang was chosen to be the Guardian of The Dragon, I was jealous. I was full of arrogance, overconfidence, hatred and jealousy. I wanted that title more than anything. But Master Chin chose Ang over me and I turned to the dark side and joined the Zodiac Master as his protegee.

We gasped.

Jarrod then went up to her.

Jarrod: Ling, I totally sympathize with you. I once thought the same way you did. I was one of the guardians to make sure that the evil Dai Shi never returns. But because of my arrogance, I was expelled from the Dojo and attacked my master, Master Mao and in doing so I accidentally released Dai Shi and he possessed me as his vessel.

Me: I remember that. That was nuts. And I was even more shocked when I saw Dai Shi's true form.

Nico: A terrifying 7-Headed Golden Dragon.

Carol: I bet he would give King Ghidorah a run for his money.

Me: Maybe. Dai Shi is the Embodiment of Murderous Chaos and Animalistic Rage.

Ling: Wow. I didn't know that happened to you Jarrod.

Jarrod: Yeah. But thanks to Casey and my friends I realized what a monster I was. It took every ounce of my will to beat Dai Shi.

Me: I remember that.

Eli: No kidding.

Xuan Chi: Although Ling did go from good and evil at times before eventually choosing her brother.

Hydro Man: When did that happen?

Ang: Shortly after we faced the Emperor of The Darkest Yin.

Eli: I remember that. Also that's another reason why we're here.

Me: We came to help you all kill The Emperor of The Darkest Yin.

Ang: It's impossible. He's immortal.

Me: But we also have the one thing that can kill him.

I pulled out a dagger and cut my palm and dripped my blood onto the ground and the blood burned a huge hole into the ground.

Ang: Whoa! That is some strong blood!

Nico: J.D.'s blood is poisonous. It has enough power to kill even the strongest of immortal beings.

Aylene C.: It's true. We saw him use it several times before.

Ling: Wow! That blood is incredible.

Bomb Burst: Before we discuss any further, can we know more about the Zodiac Master?

Ang: Sure thing. He's our secondary enemy. His name is Woo Yin.

He went over his history.

---

The Zodiac Master is the main antagonist in season 1 of the English/American animated series Legend of the Dragon. He got demoted to a secondary villain when his evil master, the Emperor of Darkest Yin, immediately took over and deposed his loyal underling to his place.

The Zodiac Master is voiced by Dan Russell (in a British accent), who also voices Master Chin (Ang's mentor) and Chow (Guardian of the Temple of the Dogs) in the show.

Early life

Woo Yin was born in the Year of the Snake, and thought he was destined for the Snake Power Band, becoming its Guardian. However, the Snake Guardian was selected, but it wasn't Woo Yin, but a lady called Cobra. Angry, he ran away, and became evil. He then sought to gain all 12 Power Bands of the Chinese Zodiac (Dragon, Dog, Rat, Ram, Ox, Pig, Snake, Tiger, Monkey, Rooster, Rabbit and Horse), in order to become invincible, thanks to the various powers offered by each band (Rabbit could let you clone oneself, Rat could let you assume any form you wanted, etc.)

Soon, Woo Yin fell under the influence of the Emperor of Darkest Yin, who gave him the task of resurrecting him, with four Power

Bands. After this, he befriended Ling Leung, whose twin brother Ang had become the new Golden Dragon. The Zodiac Master, as he became known from his goal to get all 12 Power Bands, gave Ling a gift: the Power Band of the Shadow Dragon. He then promised her that she'll get the band of her brother.

It was revealed that one time when he fought the previous golden dragon with the horse and ram power band, Ling watched as the Golden Dragon struggle, although she and the Zodiac Master were unaware that the Golden Dragon was actually Ling's father. As the Zodiac Master took notice of Ling before Master Chin took her away, he question the Golden Dragon why she was concerned about him. The Golden Dragon replied by saying, "Because a young student should not witness what I am about to do to you," before finishing him off by shooting green fire at him. This indicates that the Zodiac Master might haven taken an interest to Ling after they first saw each otherr and that he might have found out that she was related to the Golden Dragon.

Season 1

Throughout season one, the Zodiac Master's only aim appeared to be getting his hands on four of the 12 Power Bands, which would restore his 'master', the Emperor of Darkest Yin, back to life. However, his imaginably 'favourite' target was the Power Band of the Snakes, as he felt as though it should've been his own. To get said Bands, he primarily used Ling to command a small group of his Zodiac Warriors to attract the attention of Ang, Xuan Chi and any other Temple Guardians featured in that episode.

In the final episode of season 1, entitled "Double Dragons", the Zodiac Master got his hands on the Shadow Power Bands of Snake, Ram and Ox, and he used the power to attack Lo Wang, the Sean Connery James Bond-themed Guardian of the Temple of the Roosters; he then took the band and fled.

At his hideout, the Zodiac Master resurrected his evil master, the Emperor of Darkest Yin, with the four Bands. Once resurrected, the Emperor made Zodiac his servant, and sent Ling to kill Ang. He then participated in the fight against all 13 light Temple Guardians (the Shadow Dragon Power Band, which had belonged to the Emperor and been given to Ling, had been destroyed by Master Chin and reborn as the second Golden Dragon Power Band).

Season 2

In retaliation of the destruction of his Shadow Dragon Power Band, the Emperor of Darkest Yin sent his servants (the Zodiac Master, Yin Wi and Sabreclaw) and a small army of his stone soldiers to destroy the Temple of the Golden Dragon. The mission was successful, but Master Chin had moved the team from Hong Kong to San Francisco, and converted the Temple of the Shadow Dragon into the Temple of the Double Golden Dragons.

In season 2, the Zodiac Master had a very reduced role, with the Emperor being the leader of the group. He only acted as a field commander, in charge of some stone soldiers. Even his Zodiac Warriors disappeared altogether, replaced by the expandable army of the Emperor.

---

When he was done we were shocked.

Eli: And I remember him all too well. I killed him.

Me: WHOA! You killed him Eli?

Eli: Yep. I defeated him with a powerful Kamehameha Wave that I learned from you and he was completely obliterated as a result.

Nunnally: I heard about that.

J.D. 3: It's true. Thanks to Eli, he took down the Zodiac Master.

Me: Good riddance. That's one of your major enemies that we don't have to worry about. But I can't believe he was like that.

Akira Nijino: This will be the Emperor of the Darkest Yin's place to die.

Me: Absolutely Akira. He lived for far too long. And now it will end with me delivering him the fatal blow.

Nico: Yeah. But first we have our usual battles to do.

Me: Agreed. Ang, Ling, Master Chin, how would you all like to see a demonstration of our power in our usual battles with our frenemies in the Masters of Evil?

Ang: That would be awesome!

Ling: It will be cool to see how you fight.

Me: Yep. And we can have a meal too as we have the usual battles.

Nico: Good thinking. I'm hungry.

I made a good meal appear and we got to eating.

Harpymon: I'll go into the air to find out where the Emperor is.

Me: Okay. Just be careful and don't let him see you.

Harpymon nodded and flew off to find him.

Me: Our frenemies should be here right about now.

Then out came Duskmon, Evil Green Ranger, Koragg, Cantwell, Rich Texan, Skinner, Snake, Multiple Man, Comic Book Guy, and Six Gum Gang.

Me: Duskmon, Evil Green Ranger, Koragg, Cantwell, Rich Texan, Skinner, Snake, Multiple Man, Comic Book Guy, and Six Gum Gang.

Multiple Man: Awesome finding you all here.

Koragg: Amazing place. Ang it's an honor to meet you and Ling.

Ang: Same to you.

Duskmon: So, how's everyone's day today?

May: Pretty good. Lily's learning a valuable lesson about hard work.

Me: Lily was being lazy so we decided to take her to Ang and friends to help her out.

Evil Green Ranger: At least you didn't take her to a farm.

Koragg: (to Applejack and Liam) We mean no offense to you two.

Applejack: None taken.

Liam: We know what y'all mean.

Cantwell: (to me) We heard you went to the world of the Matrix this morning.

Me: We sure did. And that was really intense. Agent Smith was no laughing matter.

Rich Texan: I hope you deleted Agent Smith.

Marina: (laughs) J.D. sure did! And I even borrowed Devon and his team's catchphrase.

Devon Daniels: That's what I heard!

Me: It was perfect for it. And yes I did delete him along with his entire army of clones and rebooted the Matrix. It was as powerful as the fight in the movies.

Nico: Yeah it was awesome.

?: Boy that must've been some fight.

A figure came out and it was CHARCOAL GRILL ORG from episode 34 of Gaoranger, the Japanese version of The Wild Force Rangers!

---

An Org born fifty years ago, he caused great damage with his powers. However, he found no pleasure in his work until he found something worth grilling and took on human form to be a traveling chef. The Gaorangers find Charcoal Grill Org when he was teaching two punks a lesson, for insulting his food though he evaded both them and the Dukes, who Rasetsu sent to get for him. The Gaorangers find him, unaware that he was an Org as they enjoyed his food. By the next time they meet, Soutarou realizes the truth and attempts to help Charcoal Grill Org with Gaku's help. But the Dukes managed to enrage Charcoal Grill Org, terrorizing an industrial site. GaoBlack & GaoYellow attempt to snap Charcoal Grill Org out of it, reminding him of his dream. Though he calmed down, Rasetsu kills the traitor. Tsue Tsue then revives Charcoal Grill Org, purging him of his humanity. Though seemingly killed by Gao Icarus, Charcoal-Grill Org was revealed to be alive and back to normal, cooking for Futaro.

---

Me: WHOA!

Eli: Charcoal Grill Org!

Me: I never saw you before.

Eli: That's because he's from the Gaoranger, the Japanese Version of The Wild Force rangers. I remember him too. He wassent to cause a lot of damage with his power but he didn't want to do any harm. He is a great chef and cooks for the orgs and he went on a rampage at an industrial site. Rasetsu, the Japanese version of Mandilok killed him and the TsueTsue the Japanese version of Toxica revived him and stripped him of his humanity. Then after the battle, Charcoal Grill Org went to work for Futaro.

Nico: Wow! So he's one of the Orgs that defected in a sense.

Eli: That's right.

Charcoal Grill Org: Your memory is just as sharp as J.D.'s Eli.

Eli: I know all about the Japanese Power Ranger Monsters and all that.

Me: That's my bro.

Charcoal Grill Org: When the Gaorangers defeated me, I actually survived and cooked for humans.

Maria: That's cool. You can be one of the cooks for the Masters of Evil.

Charcoal Grill Org: Not a bad idea and I know how to make great burgers.

Nico: Awesome! At our next party we'll call for you to help out.

Charcoal Grill Org: Awesome!

Me: Cool. What's sad is you didn't have your own episode where you were fought by the Wild Force Rangers. What a ripoff.

Charcoal Grill Org: I know it's a darn shame. It would have been awesome to face the American Version of the Gaorangers.

Me: Yeah it sure would have been awesome. But it looks like you're gonna get your chance today.

Charcoal Grill Org: Yep.

?: And I get to face Em.

A big figure came out and it was THE SHROPSHIRE SLASHER of Looney Tunes!

Me: Whoa! The Shropshire Slasher! I loved watching you on Looney Tunes all the time.

Shropshire Slasher: Glad you liked me on TV.

Em: And I'm honored that you will face me.

?: This will be your final fight when I kill you all!

Suddenly, the eight large planets and stars orbing around my legs, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs, the eight large crimson red orbs orbiting around Naruto's legs, and the eight large black orbs with the Eye of Horus orbiting around Cody (OC)'s legs were glowing, and that means big trouble.

Hokuto: Oh no, I was hoping that I wouldn't hear that voice ever again.

Nicole: It's been a long time since I killed you, Akahoshi.

Then, a figure came out, and it was none other than Akahoshi, the traitorous Hoshikage of The Hidden Star Village, who's come back from the dead and was wanting revenge.

Akahoshi: It's indeed been a long time, Nicole Knudson, and I can't forget that you and the traitor destroyed me and ruined my ambitions!

Nicole: That was all your doing, since you murdered the former Hoshikage, and lifted the star training ban, and it led to so many deaths when so many people were exposed to the meteorite.

Twilight Sparkle: Lincoln, can you tell us about Akahoshi? It sounds like you guys have a nasty history with him.

Lincoln: Of course, Twilight, this was when we were in Team Cosmic Dragon when we went to The Hidden Leaf Village but I should warn you and the new recruits: he has a bloodstained history.

Lincoln told The Mane 9 and the new recruits of Akahoshi's history, and it's indeed stained with blood, blood that he spilled for his own selfish ambitions.

---

Akahoshi

Akahoshi (アカホシ, Akahoshi) is a shinobi from Hoshigakure in the Land of Bears, and the self-proclaimed Fourth Hoshikage (四代目星影, Yondaime Hoshikage, literally meaning: Fourth Star Shadow).

Background

Akahoshi took over as the Hoshikage after the Third suddenly "grew ill" and died. In truth, he and his followers Shisō and Yotaka murdered the Third Hoshikage, when their appeal to lift the ban on the star training was denied. Upon taking control of the village, Akahoshi reinstated the star training, believing that with the powers from the meteor, their ninja would become invincible and they could compete with the five main countries. When he never told anyone about the side effects of the star training, some of the villagers went against him as Natsuhi and Hotarubi try to hide the star.

Personality

Akahoshi was, in his own way, extremely loyal to his village, but that was mostly shown in his ambition for it to become as strong and respected as the five great villages. His methods of obtaining that status and importance showed him as a ruthless and ambitious person who was even willing to endanger the village children in the quest for power. He was also quite willing to commit murder as he brutally slew the Third Hoshikage when his request were denied for the star training to be resumed, proving to be both treacherous and cruel. Akahoshi often showed a maniacal side especially during battle and when talking about his crimes, showing a psychotic grin in the meantime, having neither remorse nor fear of retribution. He even publicly and contemptuously degraded the Third as an incompetent leader for not reinstating the star training. Once he implanted the meteorite into his own body, he relished the newfound power it granted him, expressing that he would have done so sooner had he knew of such power, and that he would have it all to himself, showcasing his selfishness and forsaking the village. Despite these factors Akahoshi was shown to be more inclined to make people do as he pleased by manipulating them and their feelings rather than using raw might, proving him to be, at heart, a schemer.

Appearance

Akahoshi was a man of pale tone, he had a thin and bony face, blue eyes and a narrow nose. Akahoshi also had lilac-coloured hair with a ponytail and a blue forehead protector.

Abilities

Ninjutsu

Akahoshi showed excellent skill in the use of the Mysterious Peacock Method, having been self-trained in its use during the rule of the Third Hoshikage. He could let his chakra take the form of a beast for offensive usage and was also able to form wings for short flight. Akahoshi also displayed great defensive capabilities utilising the special chakra, being able to catch incoming shuriken and return them with a wave of Chakra. He could also absorb the chakra of his comrades to improve his own strength.

After placing the Meteorite into his chest, he effectively fused with it, causing the meteorite to take control of him. His appearance also changed, and his chakra underwent a drastic increase in power. With this increase in chakra, as well as with the meteorite's influence, he was able to create a dragon with the star chakra. With said dragon, Akahoshi could easily overwhelm a large number of Hoshi-nin, as well as Naruto Uzumaki with blasts and waves of chakra.

Other Skills

Akahoshi showed proficiency in tracking and deception, continually deceiving opponents and his fellow villagers, often for prolonged periods of time, proven that none even suspected that the Third Hoshikage had been murdered. His deception and scheming even landed him the position of Substitute Hoshikage. He was also proficient in using a crossbow with deadly accuracy.

Part I

Star Guard Mission

Some time later, Akahoshi called upon the services of Team Guy and Naruto Uzumaki to help protect the meteor. He later posed as the mysterious masked ninja and managed to kidnap Sumaru to lure out the mysterious bandit to use as bait for Natsuhi. When Natsuhi arrived, she and Akahoshi battled each other as Akahoshi sends Shisō and Yotaka to fetch the leaf ninja. Akahoshi used his Mysterious Peacock Method: Beast to knock Naruto and Natsuhi into the Valley of Death, which they managed to secretly get out of using the Mysterious Peacock Method: Wings. Akahoshi told Neji Hyūga that Naruto got in the way and that their mission is over.

Akahoshi's true colours were shown to the leaf ninja when Rock Lee and Tenten find Sumaru in his quarters hospitalised and rescued him. Later Naruto and Natsuhi tracked them down by tracking her chakra trail. Akahoshi claimed the meteor after using Sumaru to force Natsuhi to surrender it. Akahoshi then laid a trap at the Star Training Building the which resulted in Natsuhi's death.

Akahoshi gave orders to the adult ninja to eliminate Sumaru, Hokuto, and the leaf ninja shinobi at first sight. Akahoshi later had the adult ninja fire arrows at the Star Training Building that Sumaru was mourning Natsuhi in. When Hokuto and Mizura exposed the side-effects of the Star Training, the adult ninja turned against Akahoshi, especially in that moment when an insane Akahoshi accidentally confessed that he murdered the Third Hoshikage. Akahoshi proclaimed that he was the Fourth Hoshikage and planted the meteor in his chest to get the meteor's ultimate power. Therefore enabling him to use his Mysterious Peacock Method: Dragon. None of the ninja could defeat him until Naruto used the Rasengan to destroy the meteor and defeat Akahoshi with the help of Natsuhi's ghost who was able to save Sumaru. Though he is a prisoner in his own village, Tsunade mentioned that he, Shisō, and Yotaka will be subjected to "severe punishment".

Tommy was watching as we stood victorious.

Tommy: Damn Leung Twins. As soon as I get another cooling gun, they're gonna get it!

Suddenly, Man Bat dropped down in front of him and roared, causing him to back away in shock.

?: Enough, my pet! You'll have to excuse Man Bat. He tends to be more feral now that his human side is seperate from him.

Tommy turned to see Eyezor and Mr Mind in the IronWarhawk armor walking towards him. Mr. Mind was the one who spoke.

Tommy: How are you two?

Eyezor: Name's Eyezor.

Mr. Mind: And I am Mr. Mind. How would you like a chance to get revenge on the Leung Twins?

Tommy: Sure. As long as you can give me another cooling gun.

Eyezor: (laughs) Buddy, come with us and we'll give you a weapon more stronger then a cooling gun!

Tommy: I'm in.

I sensed that Tommy was now in Mr. Mind's group but didn't say anything.

Ang: Is he?

Multiple Man: (to Ang) He's dead, alright? We're never going to be seeing him again.

Ang: I'm fine with that. But it was fun fighting alongside you guys.

Skinner: It was our pleasure.

Snake: (to Ling) Also, how would you like to join the Redemption Squad?

Ling: That's fine with me.

Comic Book Guy: Trust me. You won't regret it.

Xuan Chi: Now how about Charcoal Grill Org makes us those burgers?

Wilbur: Sure thing.

Dixie: Right after he respawns.

Nico: We spared him from death. He's right here.

Charcoal Grill Org: Yo.

Me: Awesome. Lets go home.

Hydro Man: (To the viewers) This was an awesome adventure! Now we've seen the last of both the Zodiac Master and The Emperor of Darkest Yin.

Nico: Good riddance.

We went back home and had a good meal and went to sleep.

Meanwhile in another part of America, a bunch of Dinosaur Skeletons were talking over. These were the skeletons of THE DINOZAURS!

Tyranno: It will be great to have Team Loud Phoenix Storm help us.

Ptera: Yeah it sure will. I can't wait to make Gigano Dragon Pay.

Brachio: Me too. What he did to us shows that he has no honor.

Tyranno: Lets get ready!

They glowed and transformed as a bright flash of light formed.

THE END

Another awesome fanfic complete.

The Legend of The Dragon was a great series. I thought it was so cool how it incorporated the 12 Spirits of The Chinese Zodiac. The first part of the chapter was for the Matrix Series and it was an awesome and epic movie series. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Drako1234658, Nflemingful, Etstheclarencefan and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. The next girl we're going to rescue is Iormu the Jormungand and she will also have a Meloetta Gene-Slammer with her named Tina Torivowsky. Me and the Meganium Gene-Slammer will go meet her in the world of The Shadow from 1994. We're going to kill Genghis Khan too. Also the next chapter as you saw at the end is for the awesome anime DINOZAURS! They helped us as the 2nd Harvester Invasion was about to begin for the 4th of July and we're going after Gigano Dragon and finishing him for good. It will be so cool to have Kaito, Rena, Rick and the Dinozaurs help us.

See you all tomorrow.

The Space Dinosaur Defenders

Over a really awesome old version of New York City, me and Megan Kirlian the Meganium Gene-Slammer were flying over the city and we landed in the streets.

Megan Kirlian: Why do I get the feeling we're about to see a lot of Darkness.

Megan Kirlian concentrated and groaned as her neck got longer.

Me: But this world is familiar. I know it's New York City from the 1920's.

Megan turned into MEGANIUM!

I then remembered something.

Me: Whoa! This is the world of the 1994 movie The Shadow!

Megan Meganium: Wow! That's one of my favorite movies!

Me: Mine too.

Following the First World War, Lamont Cranston sets himself up as a drug kingpin and warlord in Tibet. The Tulku, a holy man who exhibits otherworldly powers, has his servants abduct him and offers Cranston a chance to redeem himself and become a force for good. Believing himself irredeemable, Cranston initially refuses and is attacked by the Tulku's Phurba, a mystical flying dagger. Ultimately, Cranston becomes the Tulku's student and learns how to hypnotize others and bend their perceptions so that he becomes invisible, save for his shadow.

Cranston returns to New York City seven years later and resumes his former life as a wealthy playboy, while secretly operating as The Shadow-a vigilante who terrorizes the city's underworld. He recruits some of the people he saves from criminals to act as his agents, providing him with information and specialist knowledge. Cranston's secret identity is endangered upon meeting Margo Lane, a socialite who is also telepathic.

Shiwan Khan, a rogue protégé of the Tulku, arrives in New York inside Genghis Khan's sarcophagus. As Khan's last descendant, Shiwan plans to fulfill his ancestor's ambitions of world domination. He proposes an alliance to Cranston, who refuses. After acquiring a rare coin from Khan, Cranston learns that it is made of bronzium, a metal that theoretically could generate a nuclear explosion, and that Margo's father Reinhardt-a scientist working on energy research for the War Department-has become uncharacteristically reclusive and aloof. Cranston deduces that Khan has hypnotized Reinhardt to create an atomic bomb.

Khan hypnotizes Margo and commands her to kill The Shadow. Cranston breaks Khan's hypnotic hold on her, but she learns his secret identity. Reinhardt's assistant Farley Claymore allies with Khan to produce a working bomb, which Khan uses to hold New York at ransom. The Shadow discovers Khan's location: the luxurious Hotel Monolith, a building in the middle of the city that Khan has rendered forgotten and invisible to everyone. Upon entering the hotel for a final showdown with Khan, The Shadow is subdued by the Phurba before he turns it against Khan, disrupting Khan's hypnotic control over Reinhardt and the city. While Margo and Reinhardt disarm the bomb, The Shadow pursues Khan into the bowels of the building and defeats him by hurling a broken shard of glass into his frontal lobe.

Khan awakens in the padded cell of a mental hospital. One of the doctors (also an agent of The Shadow) tells Khan that they were able to save his life by removing a part of his brain, removing Khan's psychic abilities. Cranston and Margo begin a relationship and join forces to fight the criminal underworld.

---

Megan Kirlian: We must be here to kill Genghis Khan.

Me: I have that same feeling myself. But we're actually here to kill

Shiwan Khan who is really the last descendant of the 13th Century Warlord Genghis Khan.

I went over his history.

---

Shiwan Khan is the main antagonist in the 1994 superhero film The Shadow.

He was portrayed by John Lone, who also played Joey Tai in Year of the Dragon and Ricky Tan in Rush Hour 2.

In "The Shadow"

The self-proclaimed "last descendant" of the Mongolian warlord, Temujin, better known as Genghis Khan, Shiwan was a student of the Tulku, a Holy Buddhist preacher who captured killers and taught them to error of their ways as well as schooling them in psychic abilities to be used for good. Shiwan however only pretended to be reformed so that the Tulku would teach him the art of "mind-clouding." When he had learned all he needed to from him, Khan killed the Tulku with his own magic dagger, the Phurba. He then traveled to New York City in his ancestor's tomb which was delivered to a museum. Khan opened the sarcophagus with his telekinesis and used his psychic power to force the lone security guard into suicide. After this, he escapes the museum and in a frightening display of his powers, makes a taxi driver commit suicide by crashing his vehicle in order to avoid paying the fee and having his hideout location known. Khan later infiltrates the secret lair of Lamont Cranston, the film's protagonist, a socialite and fellow student of the Tulku. Cranston uses his mind powers for good under the alias "The Shadow" and is an urban legend in New York. Before being rehabilitated by the Tulku, Cranston was a brutal drug lord and warlord who went by the alias of Ying-Ko. As Ying-Ko he was particularly well-known for a massacre he committed in the village of Lahsa and as a result of this, Shiwan Khan idolizes him, although Cranston feels immense remorse for his previous life. The two exchange pleasantries over Bourbon and Khan tries to persuade Cranston to join him in conquering the world and embrace his darker side. Cranston refuses, and Khan leaves, but not before leaving behind a coin (as payment for the Bourbon) and a promise to meet again.

Khan goes on to take refuge with his Mongol Warriors in an expensive hotel called the Monolith which he ordered built for his own personal use and has hidden from the eyes of all of New York by hypnotizing them. He brainwashes genius atomic physicist Reinhardt Lane into constructing a nuclear explosive for him with which to blackmail the US Government into paying him a large ransom before detonating it anyway to blow up New York so that the world will bow before him in fear. He makes further attempts to make Cranston give into his darker side and join him by hypnotizing Lane's daughter Margot with whom Cranston is in love to go and kill them in the hope that Cranston will give into his rage and kill her. He also reveals to Cranston that he killed their mentor, the Tulku. He also sends his willing servant, Farley Claymore, a clever but arrogant scientist who works with Reinhardt Lane, to kill Cranston. Claymore shoots the Shadow and leaves him to drown in a room filling with water but Cranston uses his psychic abilities to communicate with Margot who is also psychic and summons her to save him. Cranston ultimately catches wise to Khan's plan and locates his hideout in the Monolith. Sensing his presence, Khan sends Claymore, accompanied by a phalanx of Mongol guards to kill Cranston but they fail. Cranston infiltrates Khan's inner sanctum and an almighty battle takes place during which Khan's powers prove superior to Cranston's but Cranston finds inner peace and is able to wrest control of the Phurba, the Tulku's magical dagger, from Khan whom he wounds with the dagger. His powers waning, Khan flees into a room full of mirrors and is pursued by Cranston who uses his growing powers to shatter all of the mirrors before psychically impaling Khan in the forehead with a shard of glass.

Shiwan wakes up to discover himself in a hospital cell and restrained by a straitjacket. He attempts to hypnotize Leonard Livinski, an attending doctor, to release him, only to discover that his hypnotism doesn't work. Livinski (secretly an agent of the Shadow) tells Khan that they saved his life by a removing a part of his frontal lobe - the source of Khan's hypnotic powers! Livinski then leaves the now mortal Shiwan Khan in his cell, with the latter's grandiose rantings drowned out by the sound of the lunatics around him.

When I was finished she was horrified!

Megan Meganium: He's gonna build an atomic bomb!? That's madness!

Me: I know. We need to stop him and fast! Lets go!

We went down the street and went into the building he was at and we saw a huge silver ball with a timer on it and it was the bomb.

Me: Whoa this must be the bomb.

Megan Meganium: Wow this bomb looks dangerous.

Me: Well Atomic Bombs usually are. This bomb is over 200 megatons. We better hurry. We only have 59 minutes left.

?: Boy this bomb is big.

A figure came out and it was a Jormungand, the World Serpent from Norse Myth and with her was a Meloetta.

Me: Whoa you're a Jormungand.

Iormu: That's right. I'm Iormu and it's an honor to meet you J.D.

Meloetta: (Polish Accent) Same here. I'm Tina Torivowsky.

Me: Pleasure to meet you both.

Megan Meganium: Same here. I'm Megan Kirlian and I'm a Meganium Gene-Slammer.

Me: Lets use this bomb for our next mission.

Megan Kirlian: Good thinking.

Iormu: I got this.

Iormu got the bomb down and I stopped the countdown on the bomb at 30 seconds.

Me: That should be enough time for the next mission.

Iormu: Yep.

We heard something and then we turned and saw SHIWAN KHAN!

Me: Shiwan Khan. Time for you to die!

I fired a massive blast of blue fire and it hit him and obliterated him in an instant.

Me: Good riddance. Now Tina lets give you the ability to change at will and use Meloetta's powers.

I put on my blind man glasses and snapped my fingers and she reverted back and she was naked. Megan reverted back too.

Megan was human again. But naked.

Megan Kirlian: (covers herself) That's one bomb that won't blow up anytime soon.

Me: But maybe we can use that bomb for a later use in the future.

Iormu: Good idea. It will be good to use against one of your enemies.

Tina T.: (Covers herself) But it's good we disarmed it.

I gave Tina and Megan new clothes.

Megan and Tina put on their clothes.

Mega Kirlian: Thanks J.D.

Iormu: Now Shiwan Khan is where he belongs: In the fire of Hell.

Me: Yep.

We went back home.

After meeting Iormu the Jormungand and Tina Torivowsky and killing Shiwan Khan in the world of The Shadow, Lincoln, me, Nico, Nicole, Eli, Luster Dawn, Lori, Leni, Luna, Luan, Lynn, Laney, Lucy, Lana, Lola, Lisa, and Lily were heading into the world of The Day After Tomorrow to rescue three girls in this world. We arrived in the U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix and it was horrifying at what we were seeing when we got to the world. We saw a massive and incredibly huge Global Superstorm. It was 3 massive and huge hurricanes that were thousands of miles wide over North America, Europe and Russia and the temperature in the eyes of the storms was at -150˚Fahrenheit and was capable of flash-freezing anything in an instant. We saw the devastating that it caused and it was horrifying. We'd met up with climatologist Dr. Jack Hall, his wife, Dr. Lucy Hall, their son, Sam Hall, Sam's friends, and helped the people of New York evacuate, because global warming has spawned a superstorm, and it was causing a ton of natural disasters.

Lincoln: Whoa, we're in the world of The Day After Tomorrow.

Me: Oh man, I remembered watching this movie.

Nicole: Me too, Dad. A disruption in The Larson Ice Shelf is causing catastrophic natural disasters, and it threatens to usher in a new ice age.

Nico: This isn't good, we've got to get the people of New York out of here.

We began evacuating everyone in New York who've taken shelter inside of the library in Pennsylvania and we began beaming the survivors onboard The U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix.

?: Help!

Just then, Lincoln heard the sound of three girls calling for help with his superhuman hearing, and with his cyborg eyes and superhuman height, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from, and it was just north of Manhattan, and he saw they were almost about to be attacked by a pack of hungry wolves who escaped from The Central Park Zoo. Lincoln swooped in faster than a bolt of lightning, and he saved them from the wolves, and he and the three girls he rescued got onboard The Valorous Phoenix, and we left back for our home.

We saw the three girls that Lincoln rescued from the hungry wolves. We got out of there, and we saw the ice sheets now extending across the northern hemisphere, but we got everyone out of there, and we got the survivors warmed up, and Lincoln was tending to the three girls he rescued. Then, Nicole saw who those three girls that Lincoln rescued were. They were Xianghua from Soul Calibur, Scarlett from Space Dandy, and Zola from Blue Dragon.

Nicole: Oh man, that's Xianghua from Soul Calibur, Scarlett from Space Dandy, and Zola from Blue Dragon. Nice job rescuing them, Lincoln.

Lincoln: Thanks, Nicole. They were almost about to be attacked by a pack of hungry wolves, who've escaped from The Central Park Zoo.

Then, Xianghua, Scarlett, and Zola looked up, and when they saw Lincoln, their faces lit up like a red Christmas light upon seeing the 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful muscles, eight-pack abs, and deep sapphire blue eyes.

Xianghua: Oh wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you three.

Scarlett: You too, handsome.

Zola: Thanks for saving us from those wolves.

Lincoln made two clones of himself, and they hugged the three girls tightly, wrapped them in their abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and they were also getting really warmed up by his immense body heat, and they also returned the hug. Lincoln and his two clones also kissed the three of them on their lips, which they returned with the same fiery passion.

Scarlett: (Seductively) Ooh, a hugger and a good kisser too, I like that.

Luster Dawn: He also a golden heart, and he has a lot of love for everyone in his harem, and in his family, along with many other traits that make him who he really is.

The three girls were definitely going to enjoy being part of Lincoln's harem. We evacuated the whole planet and everything and saved everyone.

After the rescue in the world of The Day After Tomorrow, we were in the gym working out and doing 100,000,000 reps of crunches, wing push-ups and regular push-ups, pull-ups, bicep curls, leg curls, and chest presses with 9,000-lb barbells, squats, and going a few rounds with the punching bags, and we were really sweating like crazy, and we then got a shower after that.

Lynn: Whew, that was quite an intense work-out session, J.D.

Me: You said it, Lynn, but this is something we're now incorporating into our routine, since we've got to stay fit and be ready for anything.

Luna Loud: You're right about that, dude.

Lori: (snickers) Plus, all of the girls in Lincoln's harem were blushing like crazy when they saw him working out.

Lynn: Yeah, thanks to all those intense hard workouts, our bro's now got the ripped body of a god and a bodybuilder with abnormally large and powerful muscles and eight-pack abs, and he's also gotten really tall, combine that with his charm with girls who meet him, and his personality and you've got a real ladies man, just like J.D.

Luna Loud: Plus, those deep sapphire eyes of his can pierce through the darkness and save someone from their tragic past, and really attract the girls.

Suddenly, the alarm sounded, and Nico checked the computer, and we found out who triggered the alarm. To our shock, it was none other than Don Karnage's henchmen, Mad Dog and Dumptruck, who've returned from the dead.

Me: It's Mad Dog and Dumptruck.

Nico: Don Karnage's henchmen, and it looks like they've returned from the dead.

Salem (RWBY): We don't exactly know much about them, but Nico, can you pull up their crime files?

Nico: Doing that right now.

Nico pulled up their crime files, and we saw that Mad Dog and Dumptruck have indeed participated in plundering cargo from unsuspecting planes over the years, and helped Don Karnage in his crimes.

---

Mad Dog

Mad Dog is the second-in-command of Don Karnage's Air Pirates. His partner is Dumptruck. He is an anthropomorphic canine who flies in hybrid propeller airplanes.

Personality

Mad Dog is usually the brains and Dumptruck is the muscle when it comes to doing dirty work for Karnage. Karnage usually beats Mad Dog when he is angry. Mad Dog is something of a coward, and he will do whatever his boss tells him to do, like in "Polly Wants a Treasure" when he tortured Kit Cloudkicker, to get Baloo and Ignatz the Parrot's attention. He is a mean, arrogant, determined, defiant, obnoxious, grouchy, menacing, annoying, dishonest, dramatic, obedient and gluttonous dog.

Dumptruck

Dumptruck is a large stalky canine who is third-in-command to Don Karnage, even though he made himself captain of the Iron Vulture in Karnage's absence in the episode "Stuck on You". He was voiced by Chuck McCann with a Swedish accent.

Personality

Dumptruck is the typical dumb brute of the Air Pirates.

CJ Casagrande: Don Karnage wasn't kidding when he warned us about those two.

Lincoln: You said it, CJ, but we've got to stop them and fast, but we'll need Don Karnage to help out with them.

Nico: I'm already on that one, Lincoln. (To Maria) Maria, call Don Karnage, and tell him to meet us in the middle of Gotham Royal York. Tell him we've found Mad Dog and Dumptruck, and they've escaped from Hell.

Maria made the call to Don Karnage, who agreed to meet us in the middle of Gotham Royal York, and we then took off and headed right into the middle of Gotham Royal York, and we saw Mad Dog and Dumptruck causing havoc.

Lori: There they are.

Lincoln: Let me deliver the shot, and get their attention.

Lincoln fired a powerful neon blue energy blast, which hits Mad Dog and Dumptruck and knocks them into the concrete. They got up, and once they saw us, they were enraged.

Mad Dog: Well, if it isn't the killers of Don Karnage.

Dumptruck: And now, we will have our revenge on you for killing Captain Karnage and The Sky Pirates.

Me: We have no remorse for doing so, you Sky Pirate freaks.

Maria: (smirks) And since you've returned from the dead, I think you two are in for a big surprise.

Mad Dog: And what would that be?

Suddenly, Mad Dog and Dumptruck were hit by two powerful blasts of dark blue fire, and they landed flat on the concrete. After they got up, they were stunned from the surprise attack. Suddenly, they see who it was that fired those blasts of dark blue fire, and the figure was none other than Don Karnage.

Mad Dog and Dumptruck: C-Captain Karnage?!

Don Karnage: That's right, Mad Dog and Dumptruck. I should've known that you two would return from the dead by escaping from the depths of Hell. Maria Rockell told me everything.

Mad Dog: And we're now mad that you've ditched the Sky Pirates to side with The Masters of Evil, you bastard!

Dumptruck: You're nothing but a disgrace to the Sky Pirates, Karnage, and now, you will die here, along with Team Loud Phoenix Storm and The Masters of Evil.

Don Karnage: You two still haven't changed, but it was because of my actions that I was killed, and I had to deal with the consequences for the last four years. Now, I've changed my ways, and I'm now a member of The Masters of Evil and an archenemy of CJ Casagrande, and now, let me show you how much I've changed since being recruited into The Masters of Evil.

Suddenly, Don Karnage held out his left hand, and a kaleidoscope of dark blue fire and darkness had formed. Then, the kaleidoscope of dark blue fire and darkness faded, and Don Karnage's new sword appeared. It was a large sword with a massive, wide, double-edged blade measuring 6'5" in length and it was covered in a dark substance resembling hardened lava, it had a large dark blue gem for the hilt, dragon talons for the crossguard, a longer black handle, and the pommel is a large dragon's claw and in its grip was a large dark blue gem. Don Karnage's new sword was known as Blade of The Blue Dragon.

Then, Don Karnage was now in his new outfit consisting of a long dark blue trenchcoat with the symbol of The Masters of Evil, a black shirt, black pants, and black leather combat boots, and thanks to Vypra's intense training, he was now much taller and much more muscular.

Me: Just like what happened with McWolf, you now have a brand-new weapon and a new outfit, Don Karnage.

Don Karnage: Yes, and now, it's time to put those two in their place.

Don Karnage went after Mad Dog and Dumptruck, and fired blasts of dark blue fire at them, along with dark blue energy, and he slashed at them with his Sword of The Blue Dragon, and left tears in their outfits.

Dumptruck charged at Don Karnage, but he dodged him, and he'd punched him real hard in the eye, giving him a nasty shiner. Mad Dog tried to attack, but Don Karnage grabbed him, and he hurled him right at Dumptruck, a clear sign that he'd gotten stronger. We piled on, and pummeled Mad Dog and Dumptruck, and knocked them into the dirt. Nico tied them up with energy ropes, so they couldn't escape.

Don Karnage: I'll be sure to ask Vypra for me to punish them. But, they might be good candidates for The Masters of Evil, possible for Carl and Sergio.

CJ Casagrande: Hmm, that might be a good idea, Sergio will prove to be a handful to Dumptruck, same with Carl and Mad Dog.

Don Karnage teleported out with Mad Dog and Dumptruck back to the lair of The Masters of Evil, and indeed, they're in for some serious punishment when Vypra gives him the approval to punish them.

---

We later were walking down the street of the city. But then the alarm at the bank went off.

Me: Uh oh!

Stewie: Seriously? These robbers really should know how to make a withdrawal or deposit at the bank.

Me: Yeah they just don't know how to take a hint. Lets go guys! We have a 2-11 in progress!

We went after the robbers.

We beat them up and the robbers were holding hostages and I was facing the main robber.

Mother: (cries) It's over! Those scumbags are gonna kill everyone in that bank! Including my daughter!

Lana: Hey, don't give up just yet! As long as there's a way to stop those creeps, your daughter has a chance!

Plant Man: Lana, for that pep talk, you've earned the right to rescue the hostages.

Lana: Deal.

Robber: Its 8 pounds of C4 strapped to each and every on of them. This is spring loaded dead mans switch. If my thumb comes off it… BOOM! And now since we had a little change of plan Between the police showing up and you fuckwads sucking out all my associates I want you to break into the vault. You'll find ¾ ton pallets with small bills inside: $30,000,000.00.

Me: That's small change compared to what we have.

Robber: So I have heard. And you're gonna carry it for me. You're gonna get me safely away from here with the money. Or else they will be cleaning up these hostages with a mop.

Me: Not gonna happen. We're only here to stop you.

Robber: I will blow up this entire building you asshole.

Me: I would like to see you try you shitsucking motherfucker.

Robber: I will blow them sky high and their blood will be on your hands! Do you hear me asshole!?

Lana came in and she hid behind a column.

Me: I'm not gonna do anything you motherfucking fuckwipe.

Lana: But I am!

Lana threw a sawblade of ice and slashed off the robber's hand and he screamed in excruciating pain offscreen and Lana had the detonator and his severed hand in her hand.

Me: Great job Lana.

Lola and everyone were getting the Hostages out.

Skullcruncher: Think we should give Lana a hand?

Lola: (laughs) I see what you did there. But no. Lana's earned the right to decide this asshole's fate.

Me: No need guys. Lana had it all under control.

Nico had the robber tied up as he was clutching the stub of his arm that was slashed off.

Nico: You're looking at doing some REALLY hard time in the slammer you one armed fuckwad.

Robber: I WILL KILL YOU FOR THIS J.D.!

POW!

Nico punched the robber in his mouth and knocked out all his teeth and they fell out of his mouth and Nico put them in his pocket.

Nico: Maybe I can get some quick money for these. He's all yours officers.

Chief: Thanks Nico. We've been after this guy for years.

Sheila: He is a fine catch for you guys.

Me: Thanks but it's Lana that deserves most of the credit.

Everyone cheered wildly for all of us and another bank robbery was foiled.

We went back to the estate.

---

We were watching TV.

Warpath: Those comforting words were really inspiring, Lana!

Me: I heard Warpath. Good job today.

Lana: Thanks guys. Just glad to provide some support and hope.

Me: You got the makings of a fine Blue Lantern in you.

Nico: Yep.

Master Frown: By the way, Nico? It's your turn to lead today. We just need to find a good mission.

Nico: We'll think of something.

Poromon: Um… I think I know the perfect one.

Nico: What is it Poromon?

Poromon: We can go meet the Dinozaurs and help them destroy one of their enemies.

Me: How do you know the Dinozaurs?

Poromon: I met them while you all were away destroying the Harvester Aliens. The Harvester Aliens were coming back to Earth and the Dinozaurs helped take them down while you were away.

Nico: Whoa! That's amazing!

Me: We owe them big time for helping us.

Eli: Also that explains why the ground was littered with the carcasses of Harvester Aliens as well as the scrap metal of Harvester ships.

Arrietty: Wow that's amazing.

Lana: It sure is.

Cantwell, Duskmon, Evil Green Ranger, Koragg, Rich Texan, Skinner, Snake, Multiple Man, Comic Book Guy, and Six Gum Gang appeared.

Cantwell: Can me, Duskmon, Evil Green Ranger, Koragg, Rich Texan, Skinner, Snake, Multiple Man, Comic Book Guy, and Six Gum Gang go with you guys?

Nico: You all sure can. Time to call the troops. (Pulls out bugle and plays Reville)

We all came and gathered.

Nico: COMPANY ATTEN-TION!

We stood in attention.

Nico: All right maggots listen up! We're going to meet the Dinozaurs. Poromon met them after they helped take care of some of the Harvester Alien ships that were coming to Earth while we were away destroying the Harvester Homeworld. We're going to take down one of their enemies and I have a good idea on who it might be. So we leave in 10 minutes so get everything you need for this adventure. It's gonna be awesome. But before we leave I have one rule. This is for all you new people. You do the mission to the end. When the battle comes, everyone fights and no one quits. You don't follow that and you will be sent back here for the rest of the mission. Do you get me?

Everyone: WE GET YOU SIR!

Nico: Welcome to the Roughnecks.

Me: NICO'S ROUGHNECKS!

All: (SPARTAN GRUNT)

Nico: All right! We leave in 10 minutes. Take that time to get what you need for the mission. Dismissed!

We later got everything we needed and we were off.

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA

We arrived in Los Angeles, California.

Dusk: This is where the Dinozaurs live, right?

Nico: Yep. The coordinates are right.

Eli: I sense powerful energy signals coming from there.

Eli pointed to the museum.

Nico: That must be where they are. Lets go.

We went into the museum and we saw that it was an amazing place.

Nicole: I know this museum. It's the Los Angeles Museum of Natural History.

Nico: Cool.

We saw the skeletons of dinosaurs and they were incredible.

Nico: Wow look at these skeletons. These have to be them.

Evil Green Ranger: (to the skeletons) Excuse me. I don't know whether or not you can hear me. But are you guys the Dinozaurs?

Poromon: It's me, Poromon. Don't you remember?

Tyranno: Poromon I sure do. Glad you guys found us.

Me: WHOA!

Nico: Whoa so you guys are the Dinozaurs. We all owe you big time for helping us while we were away.

Ptera: Think nothing of it guys.

Saber: We're glad we could help out.

Brachio: It was great that we got to help you all while you were away.

Nico: Awesome. Can you show us your true forms?

Tyranno: We sure can. Lets head outside.

The skeletons glowed and they vanished and we went outside and we saw the Dinozaurs in their true forms! They looked like Cybertronian Dinosaurs.

Nico: Oh wow! That is so cool!

Poromon: Yeah it is!

Tyranno: Poromon, thank you for keeping our battle against the Harvesters a secret.

Poromon: No problem.

Leozack: Good thing you guys were there when they tried attacking the Estate. Otherwise, it would've been a pile of rubble.

Me: Yeah we owe you guys big time.

Nico: We heard so much about all your awesome adventures in protecting the universe from the Dragozaurs.

Tyranno: That's right. Very epic series of adventures. Here's our Dino Knight Forms. Watch.

Arrietty: Yeah!

Laney: That is amazing!

Snake: Dude, you guys are like a combination of the Dinosaur Megazords and the Autobots!

Optimus Prime: I was just about to point that out. That is very interesting.

Tyranno: Yeah we do look like both huh?

Nico: I'll say! So cool!

Laney: It sure is amazing.

Aylene C.: Our friends in the Great Valley would love meeting you guys in the future.

Littlefoot: It's a great place to see.

Me: Yeah.

Viceroy: So… does this museum get much visitors besides us?

Tyranno: It sure does. In fact they are here now.

We turned and we saw two kids. One was a boy named Kaito and a girl named Rena and they looked really down.

Tyranno: That's Kaito and Rena. They have helped us all on our adventures against the Dragozaurs.

Nico: I wonder what has them so upset.

Tyranno: They have been down ever since our last battle with Gigano Dragon.

Me: Oh man.

Shanan: I've heard of Gigano Dragon. He is bad news.

Shanan went over his history.

---

Gigano is a vicious fighter who is indifferent to Diamond Ryugu's plans and would rather focus on getting his revenge against Tyranno, not caring about the Earth's lifeforce. He is destroyed in a final battle with Tyranno, bidding his old enemy farewell before exploding.

---

When she was done we were shocked!

Me: Whoa! So he is a rival out to get revenge.

Optimus Prime: Just like me and Megatron.

Nico: Very similar. Lets go see what has Kaito and Rena so upset.

We went over to them.

Skinner: (to Kaito and Rena) Hi there. You two must be the Dinozaurs human friends.

Kaito: Yeah we are.

They saw us.

Rena: Whoa you're Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Kaito: Wow it's an honor to meet you all.

Nico: Same here to you. We heard about your last battle with Gigano Dragon. He must've really put up one helluva fight to get you all down.

Rena: He sure did and it ended in a draw.

Me: He must be really powerful to have given you guys a challenge every time.

Kaito: You can say that again.

Me: Wow.

Disk Wars Deadpool: Man, you two have never felt this down in the actual cartoon.

Kaito: Say what?

Maria: (Sweatdrops) Don't mind him. He talks like that most of the time!

Jamesdean5842: Leave the 4th wall breaking for the end Deadpool.

Disk Wars Deadpool: Sorry.

Runt: Disk War Deadpool's right. You guys have never felt this down before.

Lunk: Who wants to give them a pep talk?

Goof: Not it!

Wilbur: Not it!

Dixie: Not it!

Loud's minus Lana: (Touches their noses) DIBS NOT IT!

Lincoln: Dang it! I always get singled out for that.

Nico: Lets let Lana have her chance like she did earlier this morning.

Lana: Thanks Commander Nico.

Nico: You're welcome.

Lana went up to them.

Blast Man: Whenever you're ready, Lana.

Lana: Okay. (to Kaito and Rena) Look, you shouldn't let something like this get you down.

Kaito: He's too strong. We'll never beat him.

Lana: But you shouldn't give up hope just because every battle with him ends in a draw.

Rena and Kaito then perked up.

Kaito: You're right. We were giving up too easily!

Rena: Yeah! Gigano is bound to make one mistake.

Me: That's the spirit!

Nico: Yeah! And there's one thing that Gigano didn't count on with you two.

Rena: You all showing up to face him.

Nico: Bingo!

Dino Ptera: Those were inspiring words, Lana.

Rich Texan: She's been on a roll with those kinds of words, lately.

Me: Yep. She gave them to a woman in fear during a bank robbery earlier this morning.

Nico: Lets not give her a swollen head guys.

Disk Wars Silver Samurai: Before we discuss anything else, why don't you all tell us how you all came to Earth?

May: We want to know if it's anything similar to how the Cybertronians came to Earth as well.

Tyranno: Certainly. We can tell you all. We came here to Earth 66,000,000 years ago.

He told us their history.

---

66,000,000 years ago, aliens known as the Dragozaurs came from space to Earth in order to absorb the planet's life force. The planet responded by converting a select number of prehistoric animals, including dinosaurs, into the Dino Knights in order to defend it. The Dragozaurs resurfaced in the present day to collect the planet's life force, and the Dino Knights re-awakened from their long slumber in order to stop them.

---

When he was finished we were shocked.

Nico: Whoa! Very similar in every way to the Cybertronians as well as the War with the Autobots and The Decepticons.

Starscream: Very similar.

Nico: The Dragozaurs in a way are the Decepticons - Destructive Scourge of The Galaxy, and the Dino Knights are the Autobots - Peaceful Defenders of The Universe.

Optimus Prime: Very coincidental.

Sonar: Yeah it sure is.

Jetstorm: That's really something.

Runway: Yeah.

Rena: Very interesting.

Koragg: The difference is that the Decepticons and their Beast Wars counterparts the Predacons are leaning towards a more honorable path. Unlike the Dragozaurs.

Nico: Yeah the Decepticons and the Predacons are now in the Redemption Squad and as the new leader of the Decepticons after we killed Unicron and Megatron, I'm leading them on the road to redemption. But what the Dragozaurs do is unforgivable.

Eli: They want to steal the life force from planets and turn them into desolate wastelands.

Me: Like the Ōtsutsuki Clan from the planet Orion. They were a clan of Planet Pirates that want to turn planets into lifeless husks.

Nico: Wow. Thank goodness you destroyed their planet in 150,000 years.

Lincoln: What they did is unforgivable.

Me: Yeah and they paid for it all. Anyway we're getting off track here. But yeah the Dragozaurs totally honorless slimeballs that need to be destroyed.

Nico: Yeah. But those daggers are cool.

Duskmon: Have you used those to restore the Dinozaurs to full power before?

Kaito: Many times yes.

Rena: They have amazing power.

Me: Wow.

Laney: That is amazing and I'll bet that Rick has one too.

Rena: He sure does.

Me: Wow. So you guys make one amazing team.

Kaito: We sure do.

Nico: That's a big adventure and we're more than willing to help you all out.

Rena: Thanks guys. But before we join officially can you guys do one thing for me?

Nico: What's that?

Rena: Teach me how to swim and help me conquer my fear of spiders, scorpions and ghosts.

Nico: You don't know how to swim?

Rena: No I don't.

Eli: Hey no sweat. We can teach you.

Me: And we'll gladly help you with your fears. We know a few people in our frenemies that can help you.

Nico: We sure do.

Carly Atlas: I think Scorpion and Spiderman can help you conquer your first two fears.

Me: Yeah and Naruto and Danny here can help you conquer your fear of Ghosts.

Naruto: Yeah I conquered that fear. My fear of ghosts was bad. I was terrified of ghosts but I quickly conquered it. Now I have a much bigger fear. Losing those that are precious to me.

Danny: But we'll gladly help you conquer your fears.

Rena: Thanks guys.

Nico: You're welcome. But lets focus on destroying Gigano Dragon first.

Comic Book Guy: All the Dragozaurs are pretty bad. But Gigano is probably the worst. Dragozaur. Ever.

Me: You're not kidding on that Jeff.

Kaito: There was a monster worse than Gigano actually.

Tyranno: That's right and her name is Diamong Ryugu.

Shanan: Oh man! I've known about her. She is the brains behind all the Dragozaurs.

She went over her history.

---

Diamond Ryugu (Daimon Ryugu) is possibly the creator of Drago Wing, Gigano Dragon and the Drago Clones and not only that she is also the leader of the Dragozaurs, but also the main villain of the series as well.

Throughout most of the series, only her eyes are seen and her effeminate voice heard. When she is fully shown in battle on different occasions, she is a very large Ankylosaurus which breathes blue fire. Her warrior form comes out of the Ankylosaurus back, which gives her a centaur-like appearance.

Diamond Ryugu uses her minions, which include Dark Dragon, Drago Wing, Gigano Dragon, the Drago Clones and the Dragozaur Army Forces, to do her dirty work.

It becomes known that Diamond Ryugu devours Lifeforce in order to rule the universe.

---

When she was finished we were shocked!

Me: So Diamond Ryugu is behind it all!

Nico: Whoa! So Gigano, Drago Wing and the rest of the Dragozaurs are all her minions.

Nico's Cell Phone rang.

Nico: Hold on.

Nico answered.

Nico: Talk to me.

Dark Spicer: Nico it's Dark.

Nico: What's up Dark?

Dark Spicer: Sorry to eavesdrop like this but we found out where Diamond Ryugu is and with your permission we can use our superlaser to blow the world of the Dragozaurs to oblivion.

Nico: Great! Go for it. Where is the planet at?

Dark Spicer: 12,323 light-years from here.

Nico: Fire when ready.

Dark Spicer: Right.

Then Ryugu Tamatebacco, Pterodactyl Ghost, Samon Shakekisutanchin, Krusty, Zavok, General Schwarz, Metal Sonic, Marionette Shadow, 10,000 Volt Ghost, and Seadramon appeared.

Krusty: Hey hey kiddies! (Goofy Laugh)

Nico: Ryugu Tamatebacco, Pterodactyl Ghost, Samon Shakekisutanchin, Krusty, Zavok, General Schwarz, Metal Sonic, Marionette Shadow, 10,000 Volt Ghost, and Seadramon.

Ryugu Tamatebacco: Did we miss anything?

William: Just Lana giving a good pep talk.

Metal Sonic: Good to know.

Pterodactyl Ghost: (to Ptera) It's nice to meet a fellow Pterodactyl.

Dino Ptera: Same here.

10,000 Volt Ghost: (to me) (Electrified Voice) We heard you deactivated a bomb this morning.

Me: We sure did. It was a nuclear bomb.

Samon Shakekisutanchin: Do you still have it?

Me: Yep and we're gonna use it to shove it down Gigano's throat.

Nico: I made a remote detonator for it. It will be used to blow him up from the inside. Oh Kaito, Rena, we're gonna have our usual battles now. You and the Dinozaurs are more than welcome to enjoy the show.

Rena: Awesome!

?: It's gonna be a good show.

A figure came out and it was GLIDING NINJA MUSASABISTAL from episode 35 of Hurricaneger!

---

A flying squirrel Karakuri Chunin, created by Sargain without an AI of its own. Taking Musasabistal as a second body, Sargain uses amber-colored crystals to capture people to power the Musasabi Laser and incinerate the Earth. He was able to withstand the Victory

Gadget, driving the Rangers away. However, once mastering the Ninjamisen, the Hurricanegers and the Gouraigers use their sonic attacks to disrupt Musasabistal's guidance systems before Shurikenger scraps it with his own "Shuriken Sonic" technique. Sargain was blasted out of Musasabistal's cockpit as his victims were freed. Wendinu recreates the mecha, with Sargain using a remote control to maneuver his creation to tear down the city, only for it to be destroyed by Revolver Gourai Senpuujin.

* * *

Shane Clarke: We never faced you.

Eli: Whoa! Gliding Ninja Musasabistal! I remember you! You were made by Sargain to capture people to power a deadly Musasabi Laser to incinerate the Earth.

Musasabistal: That's right Eli. Your memory is just as sharp as J.D.'s except for us in the Japanese Series.

Eli: Like my bro, I never missed an episode.

Nico: You glad Vypra gave you an A.I.?

Musasabistal: I sure am! (to the Ninja Storm Rangers) I hope you guys are just as awesome as the Hurricangers.

Shane Clarke: You bet we will!

Dustin: This is gonna be awesome!

Me: First ever battle for you in America in a way.

Shane Clarke: Yep.

?: I will destroy you all for ruining my plans to rebuild the Fuma Clan!

Suddenly, the eight large planets and stars orbing around my legs, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs, the eight large crimson red orbs orbiting around Naruto's legs, and the eight large black orbs with the Eye of Horus orbiting around Cody (OC)'s legs were glowing, and that means big trouble.

Sakura H: Uh oh, I was hoping that I wouldn't hear that voice ever again.

Sasame Fuma: I should've known you'd be here, Dark Arashi!

Then, a figure came out of the shadows, and it was none other than Dark Arashi, the dark side of Arashi.

Naruto: Dark Arashi, so you've come back for revenge, have you?

Twilight Sparkle: Lincoln, who is that?

Lincoln: That's the Dark Side of Arashi, and he's also another one of Orochimaru's allies. Let me tell you about the history of Arashi, so that way, everyone here knows more about who we've dealt with long ago.

Lincoln proceeded to tell The Mane 9 and the new recruits about Arashi, and like Lincoln said, Arashi has a history of a clan's hope now turned to darkness by the lies of Orochimaru.

---

Arashi

Arashi (アラシ, Arashi) was the hope of the Fūma clan's shinobi who tried to rebuild their clan and Sasame's cousin.

Background

After the Fūma clan finished a war with a neighbouring country, they wandered into the Land of Rice Fields hoping to settle down. But, near the end of their journey, they met Orochimaru, who offered them a chance to return to their former glory by following him. Arashi, seen as the hope of the Fūma clan, along with Jigumo, Kamikiri, Kotohime, and Kagerō, accept the offer to restore the Fūma clan.

Appearance

Arashi had long, smooth, chin-length purple hair and grey-coloured eyes. His bangs hung just over his eyebrows. He wore a green short sleeve shirt, but the collar and sleeves were white. He also wore two black arm sleeves on his lower arms and long grey pants.

Abilities

Arashi was one of the most talented members of the Fūma clan. He could perform his clan's most secret technique that creates a pyramid shaped barrier that constricts and potentially crushes the opponent. After absorbing the bodies of two other Fūma clan members, he became a large malleable mass able to unleash the signature techniques of his absorbed kin.

Part I

Land of Rice Fields Investigation Mission

Posing as Orochimaru before being found by Naruto Uzumaki, Sakura Haruno, and Sasame, Arashi killed his kinsmen Jigumo and Kamikiri and used Casualty Puppet on them to increase his powers to use the Curse Mandala at the cost of his sanity. In the fight that followed, Naruto ripped the corpse puppets off of Arashi's back while snapping him back to his senses. However, the fight caused the lair to collapse as Arashi, with his puppets holding him in place, remains behind as he reveals that he has no intention of leaving as it meant his death either way.

---

When Lincoln finished telling everyone about Arashi's history, The Mane 9 and everyone was horrified about what Arashi did. Especially to himself.

Twilight Sparkle: I can't believe what Arashi did to Jigumo and Kamikiri, that was horrible.

Lincoln: Yeah, Twilight, Arashi's history was pretty bad, but we'd freed Arashi from his Dark Side, and destroyed Dark Arashi for good, and restored the Fuma Clan, and they severed their ties with Orochimaru for good.

Me: Terrible that all that happened to him in 150,000 years.

Sasame Fuma: I've had just about enough of you, you monster. You make the Fuma Clan and my cousin look bad.

Suddenly, Sasame Fuma was surrounded by a purple energy aura and her eyes turned neon orange.

Sasame Fuma: Dark Arashi, the crimes that you've committed under Orochimaru had disgraced our clan. I thought we were rid of you long ago, but now that you've returned from the dead, I'm going to put you down for good, you monster.

Then, Sasame Fuma was surrounded by a massive vortex of purple energy, and it was also surrounded by purple lightning, sound waves, and a purple phoenix inside the vortex. Then, when the vortex faded, Sasame emerged, but she was changed forever.

(IMPERATRIX MUNDI PLAYS AT 1:45 TO 2:14)

Sasame looked like she was 21 years old, and she was taller at 5'9" in height, she had the body of a goddess, she had a sleeveless purple blouse with a phoenix on, a purple skirt, and black combat boots. She had on a pair of Sound Kanji earrings and a necklace with the Fuma Clan's kanji. She had on her Bracelets of The Champions of The Universe, and they had purple gems on them, and she had on a Belt of Elemental Bravery with a large purple gem for the belt buckle, and an Eater of Sins revolver holstered on her right hip. She had a purple phoenix emblazoned on her forehead, she has a new sword in her hand called The Restoration of The Fuma Clan, it's a sword with the symbol of The Fuma Clan etched on the massive, wide, double-edged 6'0" blade, purple angel wings for the crossguard, a large purple gem for the hilt, a long black handle, and a large purple sphere pommel with surrounding purple gems, she had purple angel wings on her back, a purple energy aura with soundwaves surrounding her, neon orange eyes, and she had on a sleeveless purple trenchcoat with soundwaves and the symbol of The Fuma Clan on the back. Below the symbol written in purple fire was a kanji that said, "Sasame Fuma, Angel of The Fuma Clan, Master of Sound, Slayer of Dark Arashi, and Good Friend of The Hidden Leaf Village."

笹目ふま、ふま一族の天使、音の達人、闇嵐の殺し屋、木ノ葉隠れ

隠れの仲良し

Sasame Fuma has transformed into SUPER ANGEL 500,000,000,000 SOUNDWAVE PHOENIX ANGEL OF HONOR!

We were amazed that Sasame Fuma achieved a Super Angel 500,000,000,000 form, and to Dark Arashi, it means his time is up.

Me: Wow, Sasame has transformed.

Lincoln: You said it, J.D. (To Sasame) How do you feel, Sasame?

Sasame Fuma: (Divine Echoing Angelic Voice) I feel really incredible, Lincoln, and now, I'm going to make this demon pay for what he did to our clan.

Me: This is gonna be epic.

Laney: Yeah!

Sakura H.: Just like in 150,000 years.

Lord Drakkon and Bluto then appeared and so did another figure. It was THE GHOST OF HYDE!

Shaggy: ZOINKS! It's the Ghost of Hyde!

Qin: Not this insane nut!

Twilight Sparkle: What was he known for?

Qin: He was really Dr. Jekyll. He worked on some crazy experiments and when they all failed he decided to turn to a life of crime. He became a crazy jewel thief.

Varie: That's right and he stole this necklace that J.D. bought for me.

Twilight saw the necklace.

Twilight Sparkle: Wow that necklace is beautiful.

Rarity: Wow Varie that is one amazing necklace.

Varie: It sure is.

Qin: Yep. He came up with the idea of framing his housemaid Helga. But he was busted and he got 20 years in prison. He died of cancer shortly after Fluttershy: Goodness.

Me: Yeah that was a crazy case.

Iormu: I'll face him.

Me: Great.

Nico: Lets get this party started! Kaito, Rena, you two and the Dinozaurs are in for a great show.

Rena: We can't wait.

We got the battles underway.

Mera: Lets.

They fired waves of magic, water, energy, jewels, ice, lightning, music and flowers and smashed him down.

Mera: Atlantis Wins!

Rarity: Rapture darling that was grand!

Starlight Glimmer: So awesome! this makes the 7th of the 12 Myth Wild Zords.

The Cerberus Zord looked at Starlight Glimmer and it knew that he would be perfect for her. A purple light then appeared in front of Starlight and she held out her hand and then it landed in her hand and the Cerberus Zord Animal Crystal was hers.

Gigano Dragon: NO! THIS CAN'T BE HAPPENING! I AM GIGANO DRAGON! I AM INVINCIBLE!

We got out of there. Inside Gigano the bomb counted down.

Seadramon: After the battle we just had, we prefer to watch the explosion from a safe distance.

Me: Yeah. But here.

I opened a viewing window and it showed the Dragozaur homeworld and then we saw a red Superlaser Blast fire high into the sky and then it hit the Dragozaur Homeworld and blew it apart into oblivion in a massive explosion.

Dino Tyranno: (To the viewers) The Dinozaurs and our friends are now part of the team and the Dragozaurs and Gigano Dragon are all destroyed and sent to the darkness of the Warp forever. Now the universe can be at peace without the Dragozaurs causing problems.

Nico: Yep.

We went back home and had a great dinner and went to sleep.

Another awesome fanfiction complete.

Dinozaurs is another great cartoon from my past and it was awesome how they fight amazingly. It is so cool! It aired from July 28, 2000 - November 30, 2000 and was only on for 1 season. What a ripoff. But it was still cool. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, Drako1234658, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Nflemingful, Etstheclarencefan and ninjakingofhearts gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. The next girl is gonna be Lorica the Dark Matter and we're going to meet her and a Bellossom Gene-Slammer named Maya Noriko in the great movie Little Shop of Horrors. Also tomorrow is vinjedi1995's birthday and for his birthday I have just the chapter and party planned for him. We're going after the evil supervillain BRIGHTBURN and we're going to make sure that kid pays for all his crimes.

See you all tomorrow.

Wrath of The Last of The Thalionians

HAPPY 26TH BIRTHDAY VINJEDI1995!

---

Me and Celine Szczepanski the Celesteela Gene-slammer were walking through the middle of the city.

Celine Szczepanski: It certainly looks peaceful. (narrows her eyes) Too peaceful.

Celine concentrated and groaned as she got longer.

Me: It sure is peaceful.

Celine turned into Celesteela!

Me: Yeah!

We walked around.

Me: Busy as always.

But then we saw a really strange shop.

We looked in through the window and we saw that it was full of monster plants. It was the shop from LITTLE SHOP OF HORRORS!

---

In the early 1960s, a three-girl "Greek chorus"-Crystal, Ronette, and Chiffon-introduce the film, warning the audience that some horror is coming their way ("Prologue: Little Shop of Horrors"). Seymour Krelborn and his colleague, Audrey, work at Mushnik's Flower Shop in a run-down, rough neighborhood in New York City referred to as "Skid Row". They lament that they cannot escape the neighborhood ("Skid Row (Downtown)"). Struggling from a lack of customers, Mr. Mushnik decides to close the store, but Audrey suggests he may have more success by displaying an unusual plant that Seymour owns. Immediately attracting a customer, Seymour explains he bought the plant-which he dubbed "Audrey II"-from a Chinese flower shop during a solar eclipse ("Da-Doo"). Attracting business to Mushnik's shop, the plant soon starts to wither. Seymour accidentally pricks his finger, and discovers that Audrey II needs human blood to thrive ("Grow for Me").

Audrey II begins to grow rapidly and Seymour becomes a local celebrity. Meanwhile, Audrey suffers at the hands of her abusive sadistic boyfriend, Orin Scrivello; however, she has feelings for Seymour and secretly dreams of running off with him to the suburbs ("Somewhere That's Green"). Seymour continues to feed Audrey II his own blood, draining his energy ("Some Fun Now"). Seymour soon attempts to ask Audrey out, but she turns him down because she has a date with Orin, who is revealed to be a dentist ("Dentist!"). After Seymour closes up shop, Audrey II begins to talk to Seymour, demanding more blood than Seymour can give. The plant proposes that Seymour murder someone in exchange for fame and fortune, as well as the ability to woo Audrey; Seymour initially refuses, but eventually agrees after witnessing Orin beating Audrey ("Feed Me (Git It!)").

After Orin finishes with his masochistic patient, Arthur Denton, who had requested "a long, slow, root canal", Seymour draws a revolver on Orin, but cannot bring himself to use it. Orin, who abuses nitrous oxide, puts on a type of venturi mask to receive a constant flow of the gas, but breaks the valve, and Seymour watches as he asphyxiates. Seymour dismembers Orin's body and feeds it to Audrey II, which has grown to enormous size, but is unknowingly witnessed by Mushnik, who flees in fear.

Audrey, feeling guilty over Orin's disappearance, is comforted by Seymour and the two admit their feelings for each other ("Suddenly, Seymour"). That night, Mushnik confronts Seymour about Orin's death and holds Seymour at gunpoint, blackmailing him into turning the plant over and leaving town. With no choice, Seymour begins to tell him how to care for Audrey II but before he can reveal the secret, the plant swallows Mushnik whole ("Suppertime").

Despite widespread success, Seymour worries about Audrey II's growth and unbridled appetite ("The Meek Shall Inherit"). Offered money and a contract for a botany TV show, Seymour becomes overwhelmed and decides to escape Skid Row with Audrey using money coming the next day, and leaving the plant to starve. After Audrey accepts Seymour's marriage proposal, Audrey II catches Seymour leaving and demands another meal: Seymour agrees, but insists on meat from a butcher. While Seymour is gone, the plant telephones Audrey, coaxes her into the shop, and then tries to eat her ("Suppertime II").

Seymour, returning in time to save Audrey, escapes the store with her. Explaining that he fed the plant to become successful and win Audrey's heart, Seymour discovers she has always loved him ("Suddenly, Seymour" (reprise)). Approached by an executive named Patrick Martin from a botanical company, Seymour is offered a contract to breed Audrey II and sell the saplings worldwide. Horrified by the idea, Seymour drives Martin away and realizes he must destroy Audrey II for the sake of humanity.

Returning to the shop, Seymour learns that Audrey II is actually an alien from outer space ("Mean Green Mother from Outer Space"). Audrey II traps Seymour and destroys the shop, but he grabs an exposed electrical cable and electrocutes it, resulting in an explosion. Leaving the destroyed shop, Seymour safely reunites with Audrey. The two wed and move to the suburbs. As they arrive at their new home, a smiling Audrey II bud can be seen among the flowers in their front yard, leaving the ending ambiguous.

Me: Whoa! It's The Little Shop of Horrors!

Celine Celesteela: That was a great movie made back 35 years ago.

Me: It sure was. Creepy too. Lets go stop this shop!

Inside the Shop, Audrey II was roaring and then…

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off and then spirits of creatures of land, air and sea appeared and swirled together and converged and we appeared.

Me: Now lets dance!

?: Let us help!

A Dark Matter Spirit appeared and so did a Bellossom.

Lorica: I'm Lorica and I'm a Dark Matter, we're Darkness Elementals.

Bellossom: I'm Maya Noriko and I'm a Bellossom too.

Me: Pleasure to meet you both. Lets get them!

We fired waves of energy and blew the Little Shop of Horrors into oblivion in a massive fiery explosion!

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

It was destroyed and burning in a huge pillar of fire.

Celine Celesteela: That's that.

Lorica: Yep. Good riddance.

Me: Lets get Maya her humanity back and she can have Bellossom's powers too.

I put on my blind man glasses and snapped my fingers and Maya reverted back and she was naked and Celine reverted back.

Celine was human again. But naked.

Celine: (covers herself) Kameo's Snare form is much better then that plant monstrosity!

Me: You aren't kidding. But man that was brutal.

Lorita: Yeah no kidding. But thanks for saving us.

Maya Noriko: (Covers herself) Yeah that was crazy. But that shop deserved to be destroyed.

Me: It sure did.

I gave Celine and Maya new clothes.

Maya Noriko: Thanks.

Me: You're welcome.

We went back home and I told everyone what happened.

---

After dealing with the vicious Venus Flytrap in Little Shop of Horrors, Lincoln, me, Nico, Eli, Nico, Lana Loud, Nicole, and Silverstream (MLP) were heading into the world of Lake Placid to rescue six girls who are located in that world, and we're also going to deal with the giant crocodile.

Lincoln: Whoa, we're in the world of Lake Placid.

Me: Oh man, I've watched that movie long ago with my dad, and it looks like we're also going to deal with that vicious giant crocodile.

Lana Loud: Good thing Lincoln included me in this rescue, he knows that I love wrestling alligators. But, it's too bad Mrs. Chang is busy at the Gotham Royal York Zoo, she would've also helped out with wrestling that gator.

Lincoln: That giant gator's going to be turned into a ton of crocodile purses, bags and leather boots.

Me: It's not a gator Lincoln, it's a crocodile. Big difference.

Lana Loud: Ooh, going to give them to your harem as a gift, Linky?

Lincoln: You know me all too well, Lana.

?: Help!

Suddenly, Lincoln heard the sound of six girls calling for help with his superhuman hearing, and with his cyborg eyes and superhuman height, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from.

He saw six girls and the giant crocodile was about to attack the six girls. The were part of THE BLACK LAKE CROCODILES who were being fed by the BICKERMAN FAMILY!

---

BLACK LAKE CROCODILES

The Black Lake Crocodiles are enormous and very aggressive crocodiles, and the main antagonists of the Lake Placid film series. They are generally fed by the Bickerman Family.

Lake Placid

In the first film, a Male and a Female Crocodiles are the main antagonists.

A couple of saltwater crocodiles somehow arrived at Black Lake in Maine, possibly by migrating from a location across the Pacific Ocean. They are discovered by Bernie and Delores Bickerman, who decided to feed them, considering them as their pets. One day, the crocodiles devoured Bernie but Delores continued to take care of them.

Two years later, one of the crocodiles devours officer Walt Lawson, therefore a team comes to Black Lake to investigate. They become aware of the existence of the crocodiles after they see the Male devouring a Grizzly Bear. Shortly after that, they see Delores feeding the Femalewith a cow so they oblige her to tell them everything. Later, the team members decide to trap the crocodile by luring him outside the water with a cow and then capture him. They finally manage to capture the Male, however the Female attacks them soon after but she is blown up by a grenade launcher. Unknown to them, Delores continues to feed of the four offsprings of the two crocodiles.

Lake Placid 2

In the second film, the four infants crocodiles Martha, Max, George Jr. and Gracie are the main antagonists.

The four crocodiles eventually devoured Delores, but her sister

Sadie inherited her house and continued to feed them. A few years later, the crocodiles eats several inhabitants and tourists of Black Lake, therefore Sheriff James Riley comes to investigate along with Officer Emma Warner and hunter Jack Struthers. The crocodiles also attack a group of teenagers, including the sheriff's son Scott, and kill many of them. However, the sheriff and his teammates ultimately manage to kill the crocodiles one by one.

Lake Placid 3

In the third film, five crocodiles appear and their Alpha is the main antagonist.

Several years later, the crocodiles are presumed extinct. However, Connor, the son of Sadie's nephew Nathan, discovers some young crocodiles in the lake and decides to feed them. After two years, his parents realize the truth and Nathan goes hunting the crocodiles while Connor and his mother stay in their house but they are attacked by the crocodiles. The crocodiles also attack a group of teenagers and a team of poachers, and kill most of them. Finally, Nathan come back to his house and flees with his family to the town, followed by the crocodiles. They break into a supermarket and manage to kill most of the crocodiles inside, except for the Alpha. He continues to chase the family to a gas station, but Nathan causes an explosion that kills him. However, some crocodiles are revealed to be still present in the lake.

Lake Placid: The Final Chapter

In the fourth film, a large number of crocodiles are present and are again the main antagonists.

Due to the crocodiles' presence, a military corps puts up an electric fence around Black Lake to contain them. However, a group of poacher led by Jim Bickerman trespasses in order to capture crocodiles and to steal eggs, but most of them are killed. A group of students also accidentally enters inside the fence and are attacked by the crocodiles. Many people are devoured, but a few survivors manage to escape alive. Some times later, the crocodiles are presumed to have all died of starvation, but a crocodile still alive is seen attacking a woman.

Lake Placid vs. Anaconda

In the crossover fifth film, several crocodiles appear but they share the role of main antagonists with the Anacondas.

Jim Bickerman is hired by Sarah Murdoch to return to Black Lake and capture one of the crocodiles, in order to create a hybrid with some Anacondas. Jim successfully captures a crocodile and places him in a laboratory truck, however he manages to break out and frees the three anacondas also present. The truck thereupon explodes, which damages the fence and allows the reptiles to escape. Sarah sends some mercenaries to recapture the crocodiles and the snakes, but the crocodiles devour several of them. Later, they also eat many sorority girls at the beach of Clear Lake, however they are eventually confronted to the anacondas. Several animals of both species fight the other, but the snakes manage to kill most of the crocodiles.

Lake Placid: Legacy

In the sixth film, a mutant crocodile appears as the main antagonist, ignoring the events of the previous films and not featuring the Bickerman Family.

The crocodile is a hybrid of a Black Lake Crocodile and the extinct species Purussaurus brasiliensis, planned to be used as a biological weapon.

As the movie starts, Gomez is attacked and killed by an unknown assailant. A group of activists, Jade, Alice, Sam, Billy and Spencer, travel to an island that appears to be in the middle of an old research facility within a lake, as a challenge by their old friend Dane. The group, along with two boat rangers, Pennie and Travis, come across Gomez's corpse on a tree.

The group attempts to leave, but the crocodile attacks the boat and makes it drift into the lake, with Travis inside, causing Pennie to be dragged into the water by a rope. The crocodile attacks and kills Travis, while the others help Pennie to escape. The group enters the facility, and is forced to split up after another attack. As the group continues attempting to leave, the crocodile murders most of it, which includes dragging Spencer into the water and devouring him, attacking and killing Pennie in a tunnel, decapitating Billy, brutally killing Dane, killing Henderson, who was trying to capture it, and killing Sam, who was unsuccessfully attempting to sacrifice himself to kill the crocodile. The crocodile finally meets its demise when Jade traps it with an excavator, then igniting the excavator's fuel and causing an explosion, killing the crocodile.

However, the ending of the film reveals to have a second crocodile, as Jade and Alice's fate remains unknown.

BICKERMAN FAMILY

The Bickerman Family are the main human antagonists of the Lake Placid film series (except in the third film where they are the protagonists). They are the ones who take care of the crocodiles of Black Lake, but they almost all ended up devoured by them.

Lake Placid

In the first film, a Male and a Female Crocodiles are the main antagonists.

A couple of saltwater crocodiles somehow arrived at Black Lake in Maine, possibly by migrating from a location across the Pacific Ocean. They are discovered by Bernie and Delores Bickerman, who decided to feed them, considering them as their pets. One day, the crocodiles devoured Bernie but Delores continued to take care of them.

Two years later, one of the crocodiles devours officer Walt Lawson, therefore a team comes to Black Lake to investigate. They become aware of the existence of the crocodiles after they see the Male devouring a Grizzly Bear. Shortly after that, they see Delores feeding the Femalewith a cow so they oblige her to tell them everything. Later, the team members decide to trap the crocodile by luring him outside the water with a cow and then capture him. They finally manage to capture the Male, however the Female attacks them soon after but she is blown up by a grenade launcher. Unknown to them, Delores continues to feed of the four offsprings of the two crocodiles.

Lake Placid 2

In the second film, the four infants crocodiles Martha, Max, George Jr. and Gracie are the main antagonists.

The four crocodiles eventually devoured Delores, but her sister Sadie inherited her house and continued to feed them. A few years later, the crocodiles eats several inhabitants and tourists of Black Lake, therefore Sheriff James Riley comes to investigate along with Officer Emma Warner and hunter Jack Struthers. The crocodiles also attack a group of teenagers, including the sheriff's son Scott, and kill many of them. However, the sheriff and his teammates ultimately manage to kill the crocodiles one by one.

Lake Placid 3

In the third film, five crocodiles appear and their Alpha is the main antagonist.

Several years later, the crocodiles are presumed extinct. However, Connor, the son of Sadie's nephew Nathan, discovers some young crocodiles in the lake and decides to feed them. After two years, his parents realize the truth and Nathan goes hunting the crocodiles while Connor and his mother stay in their house but they are attacked by the crocodiles. The crocodiles also attack a group of teenagers and a team of poachers, and kill most of them. Finally, Nathan come back to his house and flees with his family to the town, followed by the crocodiles. They break into a supermarket and manage to kill most of the crocodiles inside, except for the Alpha. He continues to chase the family to a gas station, but Nathan causes an explosion that kills him. However, some crocodiles are revealed to be still present in the lake.

Lake Placid: The Final Chapter

In the fourth film, a large number of crocodiles are present and are again the main antagonists.

Due to the crocodiles' presence, a military corps puts up an electric fence around Black Lake to contain them. However, a group of poacher led by Jim Bickerman trespasses in order to capture crocodiles and to steal eggs, but most of them are killed. A group of students also accidentally enters inside the fence and are attacked by the crocodiles. Many people are devoured, but a few survivors manage to escape alive. Me: Whoa! Look at the size of that crocodile!

Silverstream: It's huge!

Lincoln: Oh man, is that Panty, Stocking Anarchy, Kei, Yuri, Fuu, and Faye Valentine?

Nicole: From Panty and Stocking, Dirty Pair, Samurai Champloo, and Cowboy Bebop? Oh man, that croc's going to turn them into its next meal!

Lincoln swooped in faster than bolts of lightning and they went after the crocodile, and they thrashed the crocodile with incredible superhuman strength. Then, Lincoln fired powerful blasts of neon blue energy and elements at the crocodile, and he destroyed the crocodile, turning into tons of crocodile leather boots and purses, which he put into a scroll to give to his harem, except for those for the six girls he rescued.

Me: YEAH!

Lincoln went up to the six girls to check on them.

Lincoln: Are you ladies okay?

Panty: Yeah, we're okay.

Stocking Anarchy: That croc was a real beast.

Kei and Yuri: That monster was almost close to having us for lunch.

Then, when Panty, Stocking Anarchy, Kei, Yuri, Fuu, and Faye Valentine looked to see who it was that rescued them, their faces lit up like a red Christmas light upon seeing the 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful muscles, eight-pack abs, and deep sapphire blue eyes.

Fuu: (Samurai Champloo) Oh wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you, and I'm glad none of you were injured by that vicious crocodile.

Lincoln made five clones of himself, and he and his five clones went up to the six girls, and he picked them up and hugged them in his abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and he kissed them on the lips, which they returned with equally intense passion.

Panty: Ooh, same here, handsome.

Lincoln gave the six girls their crocodile purses, bags, coats, and crocodile leather boots, and when we got back to The World Tree Estate after arresting the Bickerman Family and sending them to prison, he gave the rest of the girls their crocodile purses and crocodile leather boots, and they loved them.

Lana Loud: You should've seen how Lincoln wrestled that crocodile, he was incredible!

Me: Yeah! He has what it takes to be a great Wrestler.

Lana Loud showed the rest of the group what Lincoln did to that crocodile, they were impressed by what Lincoln did.

Lynn: Wow, Linc, you're now an awesome crocodile wrestler, just like Lana.

Lincoln: Now, Lynn, don't give me a swollen head. But, I had to stop that crocodile from turning my six new members to my harem into crocodile food.

Plus, Lincoln also revealed to the members of his harem that he, like Lana and the rest of us, is also a Blue Lantern, which impressed them, and it revealed a lot about him.

---

After the rescue in the world of Lake Placid, we got a call from Vypra to head to McWolf's castle in the north of Cairo, Egypt. He's got a surprise for us, but we have no idea what it is.

Nico: I wonder why Vypra and The Masters of Evil have called us to McWolf's castle in Cairo, Egypt? He has not kidnapped any girls for Lincoln to rescue.

Me: No idea, but if this is from Vypra, this seems to be serious.

We arrived in McWolf's castle in Cairo, Egypt, and we met up with Vypra and the rest of The Masters of Evil, and entered the castle.

Vypra: Glad you guys arrived, we've got something to show you.

We went to the center of the room, and McWolf turned on the lights, and to our surprise, shackled with black chains and bleeding like mad from the constant attacks from The Masters of Evil was Quan Chi, the sorcerer responsible for murdering Mortal Kombat Scorpion's family, and turning him into a revenant, and lied to him by saying Sub-Zero murdered his family.

---

Quan Chi is one of the two secondary antagonists (alongside Shang Tsung) of the Mortal Kombat series. He is Shinnok's right-hand-man and the archenemy of Scorpion.

He is a powerful demon necromancer from the Netherrealm, who is responsible for the founding of the Brotherhood of Shadow, the ancient demonic cult who worshipped his deity Shinnok. He also killed Hanzo's family, wiped out his clan, and framed the first Sub-Zero for his crime. Along with Shinnok, his reboot counterpart, also helped Kronika with her scheme, even though they likely did not do it intentionally. This makes him one of the most important villains in the franchise. Without him, some of the most important events would have likely never happened.

He was voiced by Herman Sanchez in Mortal Kombat 4, Mortal Kombat: Deception, and Mortal Kombat: Armageddon, Nick Chinlund in Mortal Kombat: Defenders of the Realm, and by Ronald M. Banks for Mortal Kombat vs. DC Universe, Mortal Kombat (2011), and Mortal Kombat X . In live-action, he has been portrayed by Richard Divizio in Mortal Kombat Mythologies: Sub-Zero, Michael Rogers in Mortal Kombat Legacy and by Adoni Maropis in Mortal Kombat Konquest .

Not much is know about Quan Chi's past, except that he is a source able to travel between realms without being detected by the Elder Gods, which he used to his advantages to amass great powers.

At some point, Quan Chi came across the fallen Elder God Shinnok, who was being tormented by Lucifer, the ruler of Netherrealm. In exchange for power and a place at Shinnok's side, he assisted Shinnok in overthrowing his tormentor and helping him ascend to become the new ruler of the Netherrealm. Shinnok honored his deal and gave Quan Chi incredible powers, as well as a place as his right-hand sorcerer. When Shang Tsung took hold of Kung Lao's soul after he was defeated by Goro, he was able to somehow learn where Shinnok's long lost amulet was. Shang Tsung later traded this information with Quan Chi. But in return, Quan Chi would help to revive Sindel and allow Shao Kahn to take control of Earthrealm when the time came.

Mortal Kombat Mythologies: Sub-Zero

In order to get Shinnok's amulet back, he made a deal with the Lin Kuei that he would destroy their rival, the Shirai Ryu. The Lin Kuei sent their best assassin Sub-Zero in order to get the amulet back. Sub-Zero did exactly that, killing Scorpion in the process, something which Quan Chi would later use to his advantage, resurrecting

Scorpion as one of his soldiers by claiming Sub-Zero killed his family and clan. Once Sub-Zero acquired the amulet, Quan Chi snatched it from Sub-Zero. Revealing his deception, he explained its origins before leaving to give the amulet back to Shinnok. Unknown to Shinnok, Quan Chi gave him a fake amulet and kept the real one for himself for his own selfish goals. Quan Chi would soon after be confronted by Sub-Zero, who had been sent by Raiden to retrieve the amulet. Quan Chi was temporarily defeated by Sub-Zero who grabbed Shinnok's fake amulet.

Mortal Kombat - Mortal Kombat 3

Quan Chi is never seen in the first three games, but he does play a role in them. He is the reason Scorpion is at the three tournaments, Scorpion also succeeds in getting his revenge on Sub-Zero killing him, Quan Chi uses this situation to his advantage resurrecting him as Noob Saibot. He also later helps Shao Kahn with the resurrection of Sindel, which would enable Shao Kahn to attempt to invade Earthrealm. Though Shao Kahn's invasion failed, it gave Quan Chi the opportunity to make his move.

Mortal Kombat 4

Quan Chi spends the following years assisting Shinnok in preparation for his grand return, as well as leading the cult known as the Brotherhood of Shadow. In order to defeat the younger Sub-Zero, Quan Chi was able to convince Scorpion that the younger Sub-Zero was the one that killed his family and clan. Scorpion was able to defeat Sub-Zero and was ready to kill him, but Quan Chi appeared and informed Scorpion that he was the true murderer, not Sub-Zero. Quan Chi attempted to banish Scorpion to the Neatherrealm, but thinking quickly Scorpion tackled him and banished them both to the Neatherrealm.

Mortal Kombat: Deadly Alliance

After getting banished to the Netherrealm, Quan Chi was tortured by Scorpion for months, with Scorpion was getting stronger and Quan Chi was getting weaker. He was eventually rescued by Drahmin and Moloch. Quan Chi promised to help them get out of the Neatherrealm, but when he spotted a portal to Outworld, he broke his promise and left Drahmin and Moloch behind, making them angry. The portal led Quan Chi to discover the mummified army of Onaga, the former ruler of Outworld. He also realized the army was unbeatable since they were able to revive constantly. This gave Quan Chi an idea, but he would need help to put it into action.

But before he could do anything, Scorpion caught up to Quan Chi, which made him end up in fellow sorcerer Shang Tsung's garden. Shang Tsung helped Quan Chi fend off Scorpion. This gave Quan Chi a plan, and he made an offer to Shang Tsung he could not refuse. He would help Quan Chi revive Onaga's army, and he would open up a route to the heavens, providing Shang Tsung with an unlimited supply of souls. Shang Tsung accepted Quan Chi's offer, and this was the beginning of the titular "deadly alliance".

In order to ensure their victory, the alliance would need to eliminate their two greatest enemies, Shao Kahn and Liu Kang. They first went after Shao Kahn, initially pledging their loyalty falsely to him before they turned on him. Shao Kahn, outnumbered, unprepared, and weakened from his failed invasion of Earthrealm, was defeated and killed. In actuality and unbeknownst to the villains, that Shao Kahn was a clone. They next went after Liu Kang in Earthrealm's Wu Shi Academy, where Liu Kang was practicing. Shang Tsung shapeshifted into Kung Lao and then snuck up from behind and snapped Liu Kang's neck and consumed his soul.

But neither of the sorcerers really trusted one another, as Shang Tsung had secretly made a deal with Drahmin and Moloch. Quan Chi also had his suspicions himself.

The deadly alliance soon took over the troops of several other Mortal Kombat villains, including Kano, Drahmin, and Moloch, and used them to conquer an Outworld village. The two leaders of the deadly alliance defeated the champions that Earthrealm sent against them, including Kung Lao and Raiden, but Quan Chi soon learned of Shang Tsung's deception. So once all their enemies were defeated, they turned against each other, and Quan Chi would be the victor.

Mortal Kombat: Deception

However, Quan Chi had barely any time to celebrate before the newly resurrected dragon king Onaga showed up. Onaga shrugged off all of Quan Chi's attacks so quickly, him, Shang Tsung and Raiden teamed up in order to defeat Onaga. But Onaga was too powerful and they stood no chance, so in a last-ditch attempt, Raiden blows himself up to defeat Onaga. Quan Chi is able to quickly escape, however. It's unknown how he got away, but it's likely he teleported away.

Mortal Kombat: Armageddon

Quan Chi is able to return in Mortal Kombat: Armageddon, likely with some help from Shinnok. Knowing the realms are on the brink of the apocalypse and wanting the powers of Blaze, he formed a temporary alliance with Onaga, Shang Tsung, Shao Kahn, and even Scorpion, along with many more in the Forces of Darkness.

Quan Chi participates in the battle at the Pyramid of Argus for Blaze's power. He eventually ends up fighting the blind warrior Kenshi, but Quan Chi's alliance ultimately falls apart and he is thrown off the Pyramid of Argus by Shang Tsung, who was in disguise as Ermac.

Quan Chi is shown to have made it about midway up the stairs, but he is ultimately one of many killed in Armageddon, ending this version of Quan Chi once and for all.

Mortal Kombat vs. DC Universe

Quan Chi is first in the game after Shao Kahn's failed attempted to conquer Earthrealm, presumably the events of the third game. Quan Chi tells Shao Kahn of Shinnok's anger at Shao Kahn's failure to conquer and merge Earthrealm. Shao Kahn then becomes outraged, something Quan Chi finds amusing. Raiden then arrives at Shao Kahn's place for breaking the rules of Mortal Kombat, by attempting to conquer Earthrealm with Mortal Kombat. Quan Chi attempts to escape through a portal, only to be knocked aside by Shao Kahn's hammer.

Quan Chi is then captured by Raiden and taken to the Elder Gods to face judgment for his many crimes, once the trial is over he is banished to the Neatherrealm. Despite his current state, he is somehow contacted by Sub-Zero during the beginning of the DC and MK universes merging. Quan Chi informs Sub-Zero about what fortress that appeared outside the Lin Kuei's headquarters was, and who the fortress belonged to. While the crisis keeps getting worse and the merging continues, Quan Chi manages to get Scorpion to bring Sub-Zero to the Netherrealm where he is imprisoned, promising Scorpion revenge for his clan and family's murder. Scorpion confronts Sub-Zero ready to avenge his family and clan, Sub-Zero tries to deny this, but Quan Chi mockingly asks who else could have done it.

While Sub-Zero and Scorpion fight, the merging of the realms continues and breaks Quan Chi out of his chains, freeing him from the Neatherrealm. Quan Chi tells Sub-Zero to inform Raiden that he will have to work with him and the Forces of Darkness to save Earthrealm from destruction due to the merging. Quan Chi then sends Sub-Zero through a portal back to Earthrealm. Quan Chi then orders Scorpion to find Kitana.

Quan Chi then gathers Shang Tsung and Baraka so they can help him, He is not seen for a while until Scorpion captures Kitana. Quan Chi then shows up and places Kitana under his control, he succeeds, but shortly after spots Shazam flying. Quan Chi, for unknown reasons, tells Shang Tsung, Baraka and Scorpion lure Shazam to the Netherrealm, where he will be weak so they will be able to kill him.

Quan Chi then arrives at Raiden's temple to ask Raiden for help and releases Kitana to show what would happen to everyone. Quan Chi, in order to convince Raiden to help, uses the last of his power to free Kitana from the combat rage, which leaves him to Raiden. This is able to convince Raiden to unite the Forces of Light and Darkness against their new common enemy.

Quan Chi is not seen again after this.

Mortal Kombat (2011)

Quan Chi is first seen in the game with Shang Tsung during the first tournament when Scorpion appears demanding to face Sub-Zero. Quan Chi, who had sent him there, tells Scorpion to restrain himself, but Shang Tsung initially denies Scorpion his request. after Scorpion defeats Kung Lao and Nightwolf he is able to face Sub-Zero and defeats him. However, Scorpion decides not to kill him as he remembers the deal he made with Raiden. Quan Chi however, senses this and, not wanting all of his plans to be ruined pushes Scorpion to kill Sub-Zero by showing him fake images of Sub-Zero slaughtering his family and clan, when Quan Chi himself did it, which is enough to get Scorpion to kill Sub-Zero. Quan Chi uses the situation to his advantage more by resurrecting Sub-Zero as Noob Saibot to be one of his loyal soldiers. He also later teams up with Scorpion to fight against Liu Kang.

Quan Chi also appears during the second tournament on Outworld, where he is once again the one who sent Scorpion. After the younger Sub-Zero defeats Reptile, Shao Kahn says that Scorpion is Sub-Zero's next opponent. Quan Chi summons Scorpion from the Neatherrealm in order to make that happen. Later in the tournament, Quan Chi partners with Shang Tsung to defeat Kung Lao, but they fail, and Shao Kahn is eventually defeated. Quan Chi helps Shao Kahn heal when Liu Kang punches a hole through his chest with his sorcery and in order to make Shao Kahn's invasion of Earthrealm happen he helps Shao Kahn with resurrecting Queen Sindel and brainwashing her to be completely loyal to Shao Kahn, which meant the Sindel's magic no longer protected Earthrealm.

During the invasion of Earthrealm, Quan Chi is in Shao Kahn's throne room when Mileena returns from Earthrealm with the body of Motaro, who had been killed by Raiden. He also witnesses Shao Kahn sacrifice his right-hand, Shang Tsung in order to enhance Queen Sindel's powers, which causes her to be able to murder almost every Earthrealm warrior. After Kabal wins his battle with Noob Saibot and Mileena, Shao Kahn orders Quan Chi to seal the portal to Earthrealm that Mileena came through so Kobal is unable to escape, but while Quan Chi success in closing the portal Kabal is able to escape just before the portal closes. Quan Chi also with Noob Saibot's assistance opens a Soulnado to the heavens, but is stopped by Nightwolf, so Quan Chi retreats to the Neatherealm.

After Sindel murders, almost every Earthrealm warrior, Raiden, in an act of desperation, goes to the Netherrealm to plead for Quan Chi's assistance. Raiden offers the souls of all of the fallen Earthrealm warriors and even his own soul, any future fallen souls to try and seal the deal. However, Quan Chi refuses, stating he already has a deal with Shao Kahn giving him the souls of everyone who has died in Mortal Kombat, and demonstrates this by summoning undead versions of Kung Lao, Nightwolf, Sindel, Kitana, Jade, Cyber Sub-Zero, Smoke, Jax Briggs, Kurtis Stryker, and Kabal. He orders the undead revenants to attack Raiden showing him that they are under his control. After Raiden defeats the revenants of his former friends, he is forced to flee with nothing. Just before Raiden leaves, Quan Chi informs Raiden that Shao Kahn will soon arrive in the Earthrealm to merge it into the Outworld, giving Raiden the idea if he lets Shao Kahn win, which would cause the Elder Gods will have to get involved because Shao Kahn would be attempting to merge the realms without winning Mortal Kombat. Raiden thanks Quan Chi and leaves.

Raiden is victorious, but everyone fits perfectly into Quan Chi and Shinnok's, who he had been taking orders from the whole time, plan. Since most of the Earthrealm warriors are dead and Outworld is significantly weakened, soon Shinnok would be able to take Earthrealm and Outworld and nobody would be able to oppose him.

Mortal Kombat X

Quan Chi is first seen leading an army of Netherrealm demons on an all-out assault on Raiden's Sky Temple. Quan Chi summons the revenant versions of Stryker, Sindel, and Kabal to attack Raiden and Fujin, they are able to fend off their attackers. Eventually, Shinnok arrives outside of Earthrealm's Jinsei chamber, intending to corrupt its life-force, to become the ruler of Earthrealm. However, Raiden with help from Johnny Cage successfully imprisons Shinnok inside of his own amulet, causing Quan Chi to retreat to the Netherrealm and go on the run.

Several years later, Quan Chi is confronted by Johnny Cage, Sonnya Blade, and a bunch of Special Forces soldiers. Quan Chi fends them off by summoning the still undead Scorpion, Sub-Zero and Jax. Quan Chi is also nearly able to kill Johnny Cage and turn him into a revenant as well, after discovering his ancestral powers from him defeating Shinnok, but is stopped by Raiden and Sonnya

Blade. Sonnya Blade also personally challenges Quan Chi and defeats him. As a result, which severs the link between Quan Chi and Johnny Cage, which Raiden is able to use to reverse the spell Quan Chi placed on Johnny Cage. As an unintended side effect, this also frees Scorpion, Sub-Zero, and Jax from Quan Chi's control and restores them to there human form after years of being Quan Chi's slaves. After this, Quan Chi is forced to flee into hiding having almost no resources left.

During Outworld's civil war and with Kotal Kahn keeping Shinnok's amulet, it's revealed that D'Vorah was secretly working for Quan Chi in order to get Shinnok's amulet back, and now D'Vorah is in the perfect position to do so. Unfortunately for Quan Chi, the Special Forces agents learn about this and storm Neatherealm in order to capture Quan Chi and also release the remaining Earthrealm heroes on his side. They are able to capture Quan Chi, but Scorpion arrives ready to kill Quan Chi, due to learning that Quan Chi was the one truly responsible for his clan and family's death. The Special Forces agents refuse to hand Quan Chi to Scorpion, however, and a fight breaks out. Scorpion is able to win and get ahold of Quan Chi. He beats Quan Chi mercilessly pushing him to a near-death state. Scorpion then prepares to kill Quan Chi, but just before he can, D'Vorah appears with Shinnok's amulet and she throws the Amulet to Quan Chi. Just before Quan Chi is decapitated by Scorpion, he chants a spell to resurrect Shinnok.

Me: Quan Chi!

Raiden: Quan Chi.

Sonnya Blade: We've been planning to go after him in the future, but it looks like you guys have taken care of that for us.

Me: That's true, we were planning on going after him, but, how did you manage to capture Quan Chi, Vypra?

Vypra: After McWolf built his castle in Cairo, Egypt, we put up the talisman cards in the four corners of his castle, but these talisman cards have some powerful magic that not only pulled Quan Chi from the Netherrealm, but it also destroyed all of his powers, and closed the portal to The Netherrealm forever.

McWolf: Then, we piled on and brutally attacked Quan Chi, but we were also careful never to let our guard down, since he's still a formidable fighter, even without his powers. Then, Goro broke his arms and legs, and I used my own Ninja Art Technique called Dark Style Ninja Art: Chains of Torment, which fired those pitch black chains you see before you, and it snared Quan Chi with them.

Shiv: We then found out something pretty disturbing: he was planning on resurrecting Simone Lenoir, Lena Dupree, and Jacque on October 11th, so they can take their revenge on you guys for destroying them, but also take revenge for what you guys did to Shang Tsung, and we also found out he had a contingency plan: in the case if he gets Super Hakaied, he put up a spell that'll activate on October 11th, when the sun sets on Moonscar Island, and it'll bring them back.

We gasped in shock over what Shiv told us from the interrogation. McWolf also handed us the tape with his confession, and his plan.

Me: We were planning on facing them on October 20th, that's when The Harvest Moon rises, but you guys did an awesome job with finding out a disturbing truth. Now, I think it's time that we got rid of Quan Chi once and for all. But also the next Harvest Moon is not till September 20th. So it looks like the Werecats are gonna be revived almost 1 month too late.

Nico: Yeah on The Hunters Moon.

Mortal Kombat Scorpion: Leave this to me.

Mortal Kombat Scorpion unsheathed a katana, and the blade was glowing purple with Super Hakai energy, and walked up to Quan Chi, who had a look of shock and horror on his face, that told him his time was finally up, and without his powers, he has no way to escape back to The Netherrealm.

Mortal Kombat Scorpion: This is for murdering my family, and lying to me, you bastard!

Mortal Kombat Scorpion brings his katana down, and chops Quan Chi's head off, and he exploded in purple flame, and Quan Chi was Super Hakaied forever. Plus, we found out that Vypra put a spell, and it also Super Hakaied Shang Tsung, who was still imprisoned in The Book of Vile Darkness.

We cheered wildly, we finally got rid of Quan Chi and Shang Tsung, two of Outworld's most dangerous sorcerers, and we left the castle. Now, we're more than ready for when The Werecats come back from the dead on October 11th, and we'll be ready for Mr. Mind and his goons once they make their move.

Back at the Estate, in the briefing room, I had everyone but Vince in there.

Me: Now I'm sure you are wondering why we're here. Today is Vince's 26th Birthday.

Nico: Cool!

Eli: Awesome!

Me: And it's also his and Carol's 2nd Wedding Anniversary.

Rainbow Dash: Awesome! It's their Birth-iversary.

Me: Exactly. We have a huge party planned for him and also I have just the mission planned for Vince while you all get everything set up.

Pinkie Pie: You can count on us J.D.!

Laney: This is gonna be awesome.

We then got to work.

Nico: Do what you can to stall Vince. I'll go visit the Aligned Autobots.

Me: All right Nico. Have fun. Also I know just the mission for him. A bunch of villainous chickens are terrorizing the city.

Nico: (Laughs) If Ed went on that mission with you he would be in Heaven.

Me: He sure would. See ya soon.

Nico went through the portal and I went and took Vince out on the mission while everyone set up everything for his party.

In the Aligned Universe, Nico arrived.

Nico: Hey guys!

Aligned Bumblebee: What's new, Nico?

Nico: Well, Vince's birthday's today.

Jack Darby: Please tell me it's not the one from this world!

Nico: (laughs) Relax! It's the one from MY world. His name is Vince Pusateri and he turns 26 Today.

Aligned Bumblebee: Awesome! Tell him happy birthday from us.

Nico: I will.

A new Transformer came out and it was Cyberwarp, former member of the fake Autobot High Council.

Nico: (to Cyberwarp) You must be Cyberwarp. Bumblebee told me about how you betrayed the Cyclonus of this world and the Decepticons pretending to be the Autobot High Council.

Cyberwarp: That's right. I didn't like how Cyclonus wanted to hurt innocent lives. I just wanted a way for Autobots and Decepticons to coexist peacefully.

Nico: Well, you'll be happy to know that what you wanted exists in my world.

Cyberwarp: Really?

Nico: Yep. After me and my friends killed Megatron and destroyed Unicron, we ended the great war between the Autobots and Decepticons and now they are living together in peace. I also have this.

Nico showed his Decepticon Leadership Medal.

Nico: I was made the new leader of the Decepticons and I'm leading them on the road to redemption.

Cyberwarp: Wow that's incredible!

Nico: It sure is.

Later Nico had let Thunderhoof and Fracture out of their Stasis pods and was now talking to them.

Nico: Do you two understand what I'm telling you?

Thunderhoof: Of course we are. (scowls) Just wish we didn't have to work with Steeljaw again.

Nico: It's only after he and Aligned Starscream use a Dark Orb to get you two and the other Decepticons out of your pods. The minute me, my friends, and the Autobots here make an entrance, you guys show your new allegiance to me.

Fracture: Who exactly are you throwing in Stasis?

Nico: Steeljaw and the Soundwave of this world will go going into stasis pods in case the Masters of Evil have use for them. The Starscream of this world and any other bad Decepticons with him are going to the Warp.

Thunderhoof: I never liked that monster Starscream.

Nico: No one likes him. Starscream here is a monster. He is worse than the one that we know in my universe.

Aligned Bumblebee: No kidding.

Nico then gathered his strength.

Nico: Guys, there's no other way to say this. (sighs) It's best that I hold off on visiting you guys until the 28th.

Everyone was shocked to hear that.

Miko: (sadly) So… this is goodbye?

Nico: (Smiles) Don't think of it as "Goodbye". Think of it as "See you later".

Miko: Oh at least it's not forever.

Nico: No it's only for 3 days.

Miko: That's short.

Nico: I'll be back then with all of my friends.

Aligned Optimus: Good luck out there, Nico.

Aligned Bumblebee: And keep being the good hero you always are.

Nico: (salutes with a smile) Till all are one, you two.

Aligned Autobots: TILL ALL ARE ONE!

They saluted him and Nico went through the portal back home.

Back home, everything was all set up for the party and Nico was back at the estate.

May: Why do I get the feeling that this Aligned visit will be the last one for a while?

Nico: It's just till the 28th.

May: Oh that's only three days.

Varie: Places everyone!

Everyone got to hiding and then the lights turned off. Me and Vince came in.

Vince: Whoa it's dark.

Me: I'll turn on the lights for you Partner.

I turned them on and then…

Everyone: SURPRISE!

Poliwag, Poromon, Manaphy, Horsea, Tentacool, Jirachi and Emolga: HAPPY BIRTHDAY VINCE!

Vince: (Gasp) OH WOW!

Carol: Happy Birthday honey!

Evelyn: Happy birthday dad!

Carol and his kids hugged him.

Sarah Pusateri: Happy birthday bro!

Vince: Oh you guys are the best! Thank you so much!

Me: You're welcome partner. You ready to have one of the most amazing birthdays ever!?

Vince: Yeah I am! And Carol happy anniversary.

Carol: Thanks dear.

Me: I had to go with Vince on a mission while everything was being set up. Chickens were robbing egg storages.

Ed: Aww! I wanted to see some chickens with you guys!

Me: Sorry Ed. But if you came you would hug them any chance you got. Besides these chickens were rotten eggs.

We laughed.

Me: Also Partner your party is A pool Party!

Vince: Awesome! Lets party!

We cheered and I got on my beach clothes and we went to the swimming pool! It was not just a swimming pool, it was a massive and huge indoor waterpark!

We got to having fun!

Octopunch: Hope you guys don't mind if I relax in the pool.

Vince: Not at all.

Charcoal Grill Org was making awesome burgers by the grill.

Maria was teaching Rena how to swim like she said she would.

Maria: That's it Rena you're doing great.

Rena: This is fun.

Carol, Lori, Carly, Misty and Vypra were sitting on the chairs soaking up some sun. Even though we were 100 miles up the view of the planet makes the Indoor Waterpark at the Estate look amazing.

Lori: Hey can you rub some sunscreen on my back Boo-boo-bear?

Bobby: Sure babe.

He did so.

Me: Hey Nico watch this.

I pulled out an awesome Watergun.

Me: Hey Romeo and Juliet!

Lori and Bobby saw me.

Bobby: Uh oh!

I pointed it at them.

Bobby: Don't you dare!

I fired water at them and drenched them!

Bobby and Lori and the girls laughed.

Bobby: Oh you're gonna get it!

He ran at me and I stepped to the side and he fell into the pool and we all laughed.

Bobby: Oh very funny!

Seaspray: Can I help you with the swimming lessons, Maria?

Maria: Sure Seaspray.

Star Butterfly: Hey guys! Watch this!

She went down a red tube slide with all kinds of crazy turns and loops and it was lit up on the inside. The slide then went through a huge heart and it pumped Star through its aorta and it sent her flying down another slide and she landed into the water with a huge cannonball.

Star Butterfly: YEAH! That was so fun!

Marco came down a blue slide and did a jackknife.

Marco Diaz: That was awesome!

Me: (Laughs) Glad you guys liked my Circulatory Heart Slide. Made that with my Imagination Power.

Nico: That is very creative.

Me: And that is too.

Varie and Vince's kids went down a water slide that looked like the digestive tract and when they hit the water at the bottom we heard a massive fart.

We laughed at that.

Me: That's the Indigestion Buster.

Nico: Funny!

Later we went to watch TV and eat pizza and burgers at the park.

Poromon: Hey, guys. Look at this lottery ticket that nice Murkrow gave me!

We saw a Murkrow nearby.

Me: Is that a Murkrow?

Nico: Without a trainer? Then again that's not uncommon.

Bowser Jr.: (checks the lottery ticket) Sorry, Poromon. This lottery ticket's expired.

Poromon: (glares at the Murkrow) YOU SON OF A BITCH!

UH OH!

Poromon flew at the Murkrow, grabbed him and took him into the air as the two started fighting each other.

POW POW BIFF BIFF BIFF!

Lola: Should we help him?

Ernie: No. This is just like my fights with Peter. It's best to leave them alone.

Me: Your fights with Peter destroyed much of Quahog, Ernie.

Ernie: That is a good point.

Hagurumon: Look at him go! (to Poromon) BEAT THE CRAP OUT OF THAT MURKROW, POROMON!

Poromon and Murkrow were kicking the living fucking shit out of each other with incredible brutality.

Lola: Whoa! Ernie is this how brutal your fights with Peter were?

Ernie: They sure were brutal. Here's what happened.

He told us everything that happened.

In Da Boom

Peter no longer accepts coupons from any chickens after "the incident" with Ernie. During a flashback, the Chicken gave him a coupon, but the coupon was expired. Peter was therefore provoked to attack him. A prolonged fistfight ensued, taking the two combatants all over a downtown metropolis. It appeared that Peter had ultimately defeated the Chicken by slamming his head into a photocopier repeatedly, though the Chicken then did a sneak attack on Peter, putting him in a half-nelson/chokehold, thus resulting in the both of them falling off the office building with Peter landing on him. He was not actually dead, though, as he opens his eye.

In Blind Ambition

He returned to assault Peter when he was defending Quagmire. The fight took place at a train station, a cruise ship, and finally an airport. But again, he was not actually dead, despite his head being chopped up by an airplane's propeller, spoofing the scene from Raiders of the Lost Ark; his leg is shown moving into a fist. This fight also had the introduction of the chicken scream.

In No Chris Left Behind

After they spy each other, their fight took place from the Griffin house, the sewers, a subway, a building site, an airplane and the Ferris wheel. After this, the two have forgotten what they are fighting about. Ernie takes Peter out for dinner to make up for the fights over a silly little expired coupon. And he brings his wife, another chicken named Nicole and Ernie's name is given by his wife over their dinner. Just as Peter and Ernie seemed to have resolved their differences, another fight ensues when both of them insist on footing the bill. Despite having his brains bashed in by a frying pot he was not actually dead, as he again opens his eye.

In Something, Something, Something, Dark Side

Ernie portrays Boba Fett opposite Han Solo, played by Peter. They do not fight.

In It's A Trap!

Ernie reprised his role as Boba Fett. Like his character, he fell off the ship into the Sarlacc, played by Meg Griffin. Prior to that, Luke Skywalker, played by Chris Griffin got a lightsaber swipe on him, the closest any character in either special to be even close to fighting him. Solo was about to fight Fett, but Fett had already fallen off when Solo turned around.

In Internal Affairs

Peter has another run-in with Ernie leading to another epic fight, this time because Peter accidentally backs into Ernie's car. During their struggles they land on Stewie's time pad and fight their way across time itself, eventually ending up in a genetic research lab and in space. Crashing back to earth on an oil rig, they continue to fight. Their struggles destroy the oil rig and Ernie is seemingly roasted by the rocket engines. But as Peter struggles to shore, Ernie shows he continues to live.

In Yug Ylimaf

We get to see a chicken fight played in reverse due to the effects of Stewie's broken time machine. Among other ramifications, Ernie fires a flamethrower at Peter caused in the aftermath of their creating a plane crash that destroys a military surplus store. They crash back into the plane which flies backwards from the crash. Their fight causes a bus on its way to the airport to careen through the streets. At the bus stop, they fight their way back to the surplus store and a grenade is accidentally chucked into a coffee shop window interrupting Seamus as he is about to ask a barista on a date. They continue their fight back through the surplus store window to where Peter hits Ernie on a bicycle by opening his car door in traffic, setting off another chicken fight.

In Fecal Matters

When Peter volunteers to work at the hospital as a nurse, he ends up with Ernie as a patient. He refuses to care for him, but finds out that he's dying, declares himself the victor in their long-running feud. Lois convinces him that he needs the chicken, which leads to a flashback of their fights during some soul-searching. When Ernie actually does die, Peter rushes in and violently administers CPR which brings him back, admitting that the he actually enjoys their battles but also doesn't want to be solely responsible financially for the damages that have accumulated.

---

When he was finished we were shocked!

Me: WHOA MAN! I guess brutal is a total understatement.

Brian: Yeah Peter and Ernie's fights were incredibly destructive. They caused so much death and destruction and property damages.

Me: That's crazy! Lets break them up.

We grabbed Poromon.

Lori: Are you literally proud of yourself, Poromon?

Poromon: That Murkrow started it!

Lynn: And you could've waited for us to bring you two to another planet. What if your fight got into the city?!

Me: Yeah Poromon. Ernie and Peter had a big number of brutal fights.

Poromon: Really?

Ernie: It's true Poromon. Before Quahog was destroyed, we both had brutal fights like you wouldn't believe and it was all because of an expired coupon.

Me: Man that is pathetic.

Laney: No kidding.

We later sat down in front of the TV and Vince and Carol were playing video games.

Oceanus Shenron: BTW, J.D.? It's your turn to lead us today.

Me: I know and I just found the perfect mission for us. It's located in the town of Brightburn, Kansas.

Nico dropped a cup of punch and it spilled onto the floor.

Nico: (GROWLS) I have a feeling I know what the mission is about.

Me: Do you have some kind of history with the town Nico?

Nico: No it's not the town. It's the villain that lives there.

Me: Don't tell me. Is it…

Nico: Yeah. His name is Brandon Breyor A.K.A. Brightburn. You would hate this kid to the Nth degree J.D.

Ryugu Tamatebacco, Pterodactyl Ghost, Samon Shakekisutanchin, Krusty, Zavok, General Schwarz, Metal Sonic, Marionette Shadow, 10,000 Volt Ghost, and Seadramon the appeared.

Zavok: Uh oh. Did something happen between you and this Brightburn fella?

Nico: You could say that Zavok. But before I tell you what happened, I'll tell you all about him. Brightburn is really part of an evil hegemonic warrior race called the Thalionians and they come from the planet Thalios.

Shanan: I know the Thalionians! They were one of the meanest warrior races in the universe and they were said to be destroyed when their parent star went nova!

Nico: That's right. Brightburn is the last of his kind.

Nico told us about him.

---

Brandon Breyer, otherwise better known as Brightburn, is the titular protagonist villain of the 2019 supervillain horror film of the same name.

In a reversal of the typical Superman story, Brandon is an extraterrestrial who is sent to Earth with the sinister intentions of taking it over. He ends up crash landing in Brightburn, Kansas, where he is adopted by a couple unable to have children.

He was portrayed by Jackson A. Dunn in his first villainous role.

The alien baby that would become Brightburn arrived on Earth within a meteor that crash-landed near the home of a couple named Tori and Kyle Breyer in 2006. As the farm couple cannot conceive a child, they adopted the child as one of their own and named him Brandon, oblivious to the alien's dark nature. They also salvaged the remains of the meteor around that time, which turned out to be an alien ship.

As Brandon got older, he started to develop his abilities such as realizing he had superhuman strength. After attempting to return to the ship he arrived in, Brandon's mannerisms start to darken, making his adoptive parents conclude that something was wrong with him.

Tori later finds drawings that depict disturbing imagery. As he got older, Brandon developed a crush on one of his classmates named Caitlyn and he goes to her house and stalks her. Upon discovering that their chickens had been massacred and implicating Brandon as being responsible for it, Brandon began to be ostracized by his fellow classmates for being a creepy stalker. In a trust exercise, Caitlyn initially refuses to catch Brandon on the grounds of seeing him as a disturbed pervert. This culminates in him breaking her hand and he is then suspended for two days. Once more, Brandon tries to return to his spaceship and repeats the words "take the world" in his extraterrestrial language. It's implied that Brandon was sent by an imperialistic and evil alien race (his species) that destroys planets and eradicates peaceful races.

Brandon goes to see Caitlyn again only to realize that he was denied the opportunity by her mother. Angered, Brandon murders her mother at a diner. After her attempts at counseling her nephew failed, Merilee threatens to call the police to handle the situation only to be on the receiving end of these threats by Brandon. Her husband Noah later tries to inform his parents only to be gruesomely murdered in his car by the alien boy. Realizing what he had done, Kyle takes his adoptive son into the woods and shoots him in the back of the head. Unfortunately, Brandon is revealed to be immune to bullets, and he kills his adoptive father with his laser vision. Tori finds multiple drawings of the murders Brandon had committed and calls the police. When the police arrive, they are brutally murdered by the villain.

Tori manages to get to the spaceship, and she takes part of it to act as a shiv rationalizing that it must be her son's weakness. Embracing her son, Brandon picks up on what she attempted to do with a scrap of metal, and he takes her high into the Earth's atmosphere and drops her to her death. He also causes a plane wreck as a means of covering up his crimes. There were no survivors. This concludes with Brandon going on a murderous campaign and slaughtering numerous people worldwide and leveling cities. He was last seen alongside his dead parents looking innocent.

When he was finished we were shocked and horrified!

Me: Whoa! He's really dangerous!

Vince: Oh man! That's terrible!

Me: No kidding!

Zavok: That's horrible Nico.

Ryugu Tamatebacco: Well, me, Pterodactyl Ghost, Samon Shakekisutanchin, Krusty, Zavok, General Schwarz, Metal Sonic, Marionette Shadow, 10,000 Volt Ghost, and Seadramon are going with you guys! (sees Poromon with some bruises) What happened to you?

Poromon: A Murkrow gave me a fake lottery ticket.

Me: They brutally beat the crap out of each other like how Peter and Ernie had one of their fights.

Samon Shakekisutanchin: Whoa man!

Metal Sonic: But before we go with you guys, Nico what is your history with Brightburn?

Nico: Brightburn is my most dangerous archnemesis. It's not just me however. My race, the Saiyans and the Thalionians had a war with each other even long before we took over the planet Vegeta. My ancestors and the Thalionians fought brutally with each other and it came out as a stalemate every time they fought. Even when doing the dirty work of Frieza. Before I joined the team, I got a call about things happening in Brightburn, Kansas and that's when me and Brightburn first met.

FLASHBACK - 10 years ago.

Nico: (Narrating) Before I joined the team and accidentally killed the Digimon Emperor, I got a call from Brightburn and went to investigate. That's when we crossed paths.

Young Nico and Brightburn met and glared ferociously at each other with incredible hatred.

Young Brightburn: Saiyan!

Young Nico: A Thalionian. I thought your race was extinct.

Young Brightburn: Same with the Saiyans. Now I can kill you.

Young Nico: Not if I kill you first!

They went at each other and brutally pulverized and thrashed each other to a brutal and powerful level!

Nico: The fight was so incredibly brutal that it went on for hours and hours and hours. Until we couldn't take it anymore. It was a total stalemate just like with my ancestors.

Young Nico: (Weakly) I will never give up.

Young Brightburn: (Weakly) I will kill you Saiyan!

But then Young Brightburn fell to the ground.

Young Nico: I'll have to get stronger so I can kill you for good.

Young Nico flew off.

FLASHBACK ENDS

Nico: I vowed that I would get stronger so that I could finish Brightburn forever and rid the universe and the world of the terror of the Thalionians.

Me: Whoa! I didn't know you had a terrible history with him!

Eli: That's brutal Nico!

Arrietty: No kidding. Sorry that happened to you Nico.

Nico: It's all right. But now that I've unlocked new powers with all of you, I can finish what I was gonna do a decade ago.

Me: Lets get moving.

We were off to Brightburn, Kansas.

---

BRIGHTBURN, KANSAS

---

We were flying over America's heartland and we arrived in Brightburn and we saw that the whole town was completely reduced to rubble and on fire!

Sandpit: Whoa! Looks like our evil Superman has been here.

We saw the whole town of Brightburn totally on fire and in ruins. It was a mess.

Nico: This is definitely his handiwork all right.

Eli: What's that up there!?

We looked up and we saw that Brightburn had a woman in his hand and he dropped her from 10,000 feet!

Nico: OH NO! J.D. get that woman!

Me: Right!

Nico flew up to Brightburn and punched him in the face with devastating force and sent him crashing into the ground!

I caught the woman.

Me: Are you okay miss?

Tory Breyer: Thanks to you J.D.

Me: Everyone lets fall back and hide so we can come up with a plan!

Eli: Right! There's a cave in that forest over there!

Me: Lets go!

Brightburn got up.

Seadramon: This will put him on ice for a while. (Echoing) ICE BLAST!

Seadramon fired an ice blast and froze him.

Me: That'll hold him for a while. Lets go!

We flew fast and went into the cave.

Me: Okay we'll be safe here till we can come up with a plan.

Tory Breyer: Yeah. Thank you all. I'm Tory Breyer.

Me: Are you Brightburn's mother?

Tory Breyer: Adopted mother. But that monster is not my sun after everything he did.

Nico: I would never want a son like that.

Tory Breyer: Nico? Wow you've grown a lot since the last time I saw you.

Nico: Its been a while Mrs. Breyer.

Tory Breyer: It sure has. Wow. And J.D. Knudson and all of Team Loud Phoenix Storm it's an honor.

Me: Same here.

Tory Breyer: All the town is hiding in this cave. Follow me.

We followed her into the cave and it was beautiful.

Me: Wow this cave is amazing.

Eli: It sure is.

Nicole: It must've taken a really long time to form.

Tory Breyer: It sure did.

Sunny Tennyson: I take it you know Nico from many years ago?

Tory Breyer: Yes and he saved my life before.

Me: Wow.

We arrived in a room and we saw much of the town hiding in a huge room for refuge.

Caitlyn Connor: Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Me: Yes we've come to help you all. We're going to kill Brandon Breyer A.K.A. Brightburn.

Everyone cheered.

Me: SHH!

They quieted.

Me: We don't want him to hear you all.

Caitlyn Connor: Sorry.

Krusty: Okay. I'm gonna ask this only once. What. The Hell. Happened?

Caitlyn Connor: Brandon went totally ballistic and he was killing everyone and destroying everything left and right.

Rock Lee: That is unforgivable!

Me: Looks like we got here just in time. He was trying to kill Tory. The whole town of Brightburn is totally up in flames because of him.

Nico: Brandon and I have some unfinished business. This time I'm going to kill him and free the universe of the terror of the Thalionians.

Caitlyn Connor: What's a Thalionian?

Nico: That's the name of Brandon's race. He is part of a nearly extinct and very dangerous race that my race the Saiyan's have been at war with for many years before Planet Vegeta was destroyed.

Tory Breyer: Wow.

Me: The Thalionians were a dangerous warrior race that rivaled in power to that of the Saiyans and they were one of the most feared races in the galaxy.

Caitlyn Connor: That's bad.

Time Force Dash: Who did that dirtbag kill so far?

Tory Dreyer: These are his victims.

She gave us a list.

---

Twelve Chickens - Slaughtered by Brandon Breyer.

Erica Connor - Glass shard propelled into her eye, later disemboweled off-screen.

Noah McNichol - Dropped from the sky in his car, the impact breaking his lower jaw.

Kyle Breyer - Heat vision shot through his brain.

Sheriff Deever - Split in half.

Deputy Aryes - Continuously thrown and beaten against the ceiling and walls.

Two-hundred and sixty-eight plane occupants - Killed when Brightburn forced a plane to crash

Total: 285.

* * *

We gasped in shock!

Me: What a monster!

Superman: He is REALLY a heartless fiend.

Me: And he's just a kid too. Normally our code goes against killing kids. But this is one of those rare instances and Brandon Breyer is NOT a human.

Caitlyn Connor: He killed my mom.

Marionette Shadow: (to Caitlyn) He had a crush on you and he ended up killing your mom? That's no way of forming a relationship.

Nico: That's cold blooded murder.

Me: We are REALLY going to kill him.

Nico: I'm going to give him the same level of pain he caused to all of you. Guys I need all your support. This isn't just retribution I'm about to dish out on Brightburn.

Me: Nico are you saying?

Nico: Yes. I'm going to get revenge!

We gasped.

Me: Well after everything that Brightburn did and is going to do, I would say that this whole town deserves Vengeance.

Harley Quinn: Well, I guess this is one of the examples of what would happen if Superman goes nuts.

Nico: Yep. And this time there will be no mercy.

Me: No there won't. After everything he did this changes everything. Nico you have your fun first and when the time comes, we'll all join in.

Nico: Fair enough. (To the townsfolk) Everyone you stay here until the fight is over. This is gonna get ugly. Really fast.

Me: Lets get him.

Pterodactyl Ghost: I'll take to the air and see where he is now.

Nico: That won't be necessary. I already know where he's at. Lets go guys.

We followed Nico.

Caitlyn: Good luck guys.

We went out of the cave and we saw Brightburn firing laser blasts at the town.

Me: Here we go.

Nico: This is gonna be big guys.

Nico went to the town and we followed.

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMMMM!

An energy blast hit him square in the back and exploded and Nico was the one that fired it.

Nico: Fight me if you're ready to die.

Brightburn: Saiyan!

Nico: Brandon Breyer. Been a long time.

Brightburn: How do you know my name?

Nico: You may not recognize me but I know you. My name is Nicolas Chan. And I'm the Saiyan that fought you 10 years ago.

Brightburn: You've changed so much! Too bad you have to die.

Nico: You're the one that will die. I will never forgive you for everything you've done.

Brightburn: I wouldn't ask you for your forgiveness!

Nico: I don't expect you to. I expect you to die. Also I'm not the same as I was when we fought the last time. I've gotten far more powerful since then.

Tory Breyer: (cries) This is my fault.

Long John Silver: Come now, lass. All you and your husband wanted was a child to raise. You didn't know what was going to happen.

Tory Breyer: Don't you dare try to make excuses for me! Don't you get it? I wasn't able to teach Brandon right from wrong. Everything that happened is my fault!

Me: Tory none of this is your fault. You didn't know that Brandon was dangerous and evil.

Lana: Yeah Tory. Brandon was born to a terribly dangerous race that rivaled in power to the Saiyans. There's no way you could have known.

Caitlyn Connor: She's right Mrs. Breyor. This is not your fault. Brandon dug his own grave like this.

Me: And now Nico is going to make sure he pays the ultimate price.

Lana: Have hope for Nico. He will make sure that justice is brought to that monster.

Tory perked up.

Nico was facing Brightburn.

Nico: Brandon what you have done is completely reprehensible. Today you die.

Brightburn: Come and try it.

Nico: And for the record, you're about to find out what it's like to fight me as a Super Saiyan.

Brightburn: Super Saiyan?

Nico: Just watch.

Nico then had rocks and pebbles swirl around him and his hair waved around and his energy levels were skyrocketing fast.

Brightburn: What the!?

Nico: AAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAHHHHHHHHHHHH!

The ground shook violently and rock upheaved and then in a massive flash of golden yellow light and energy, Nico turned SUPER SAIYAN!

Brightburn: (GASP)

Tory Breyer: WOW! Nico changed! He has blonde hair now!

Caitlyn Connor: Wow! He looks awesome!

Me: This is his Super Saiyan form. He's more powerful than ever in this form.

Nico: No more! NO MORE!

Nico's power was stronger than ever as his aura fluxuated.

Nico: NOW YOU WILL KNOW THE HORROR! (ECHOING) BRANDON BREYER!

Nico flew at Brandon with incredible speed and punched him in the face with devastating force and sent him smashing into the ground with incredible power and then he kicked him in the back and sent him high into the sky and Nico teleported and dealt him and powerful spinning axe kick and sent him crashing into the ground with devastating force. Then Brightburn exploded out of the ground with incredible power and he flew up to Nico and he was a bloody and mangled up mess!

Brightburn had yellow blood dripping from his mouth and arms and legs and he was infuriated.

Brightburn: YOU FILTHY SAIYAN!

Nico: FUCK YOU!

Nico fired a powerful blue energy blast and Brightburn fired a powerful heat ray blast from his eyes and the blasts collided and a massive explosion shook the area!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

General Schwarz: Nico isn't doing this for revenge. Not for him anyway. He's doing this to avenge this town for what Brandon did.

Me: And he's going to make sure that Brandon pays for every single one of his crimes. Brandon is in deep-fucking-shit trouble!

Nico looked at Brightburn with incredible hatred.

Brightburn: Why do you loathe what I've done so much? Saiyans are just as ruthless as I am. They were killers, all of them! And you have the gall to condemn what I'VE done? You and your bloodthirsty race!

Nico: My race is redeemed after the crimes they did because of Frieza. Your race paid brutally for their crimes in full. You're just a beast with no conscience!

Brightburn: (Laughs) So I'm a beast huh? Oh and what about you Mr. Saiyan-Who-Knows-Everything-About-Nothing? Aren't you just like me?

Nico: Not in the least. I'm avenging the whole town you destroyed.

Brightburn fired a laser ray blast from his eyes and Nico swatted the blast away.

Nico fired a massive Flaming Cannon Blast from his hand and it hit Brightburn and burned him all over as he fired a massive volley of blasts and then Brightburn fell to the ground a burned and charred mess.

Caitlyn Connor: WHOA! That was powerful!

Eli: Nico used Frieza's powers on him.

Brightburn got up covered in soot.

Nico teleported down to him.

Brightburn: Do you even know what this town has done to me? My own father tried to kill me when my back was turned! And everyone at school called me a freak!

Nico: So you justified that with murder?!

Aqua Man (Mega Man): (to Tory) Is this true?

Tory Breyer: Yes because you brought it on yourself Brandon!

Me: And now we're going to finish what your father started!

I went Super Angel-Ebonwu-Phoenix-Harmony Infinity!

Me: (Divine Echoing Cosmic Elemental Voice) Brandon Breyer A.K.A. Brightburn, what you have done is completely

Scourge fired a massive blast of fire and incinerated it to ashes and we threw the Ashes into the sun. Brandon Breyer the last of the Thalionians of Thalius, the 2nd most feared race in the entire galaxy and all the Thalionians are now EXTINCT!

We went to Lynn's Table.

Me: Cargill, Vreedle Brothers, Chalmers, Springfield Mafia, Pete, Wiggum, Control Freak, Kalin, Private HIVE, and Abis Mal

Cargill: You guys sure had a busy day.

Nico: You could say that.

Rhomboid: At least that Brightburn guy got blown up real good!

William: (laughs) He sure was!

Chalmers: Ane now, he won't hurt anyone else.

Me: And he's burning in the fire of eternal forgetfulness.

Wiggum: (to me) Thank goodness. We heard you went to the world of the Little Shop of Horrors.

Me: Yep from the 1986 movie.

Kalin: Did you see that Audrey II plant?

Me: We sure did. Ugly plant with a bloody appetite.

Legs: It had to be pretty easy compared to Brightburn!

Me: It sure was and we saw the giant crocodile from the movie Lake Placid.

Louie: Whoa! That crocodile is massive. It was gruesome and cool how it bit that guy in half.

Fat Tony: It sure was.

Me: But we made all kinds of Crocodile skin bags, wallets and coats out of it. And Lincoln punched it and it got turned into all that for his harem.

Popeye: Kind of likes how I would do to a bull. (Laughs)

We laughed.

Lana: Exactly like how you would do it Popeye.

We laughed.

?: I will make sure that none of you will leave here alive.

Suddenly, the eight large planets and stars orbing around my legs, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs, the eight large crimson red orbs orbiting around Naruto's legs, and the eight large black orbs with the Eye of Horus orbiting around Cody (OC)'s legs were glowing, and that means big trouble.

Kankuro: Oh crap, I was hoping never to hear that voice again.

Me: It's been 150,000 years since I last killed you, Sasori of The Red Sand.

A figure came out, and it was none other than Sasori of The Red Sand, a former ninja of The Hidden Sand Village, and one of the members of The Akatsuki.

Pakura: Sasori, I was hoping I'd never see you again, murderer.

Gaara: You shouldn't have returned, Sasori, you traitor.

Twilight Sparkle: Lincoln, what can you tell us about Sasori? You guys seem to have a history with him.

Lincoln: Yeah, we have a history with him, Twilight Sparkle. But, you guys should brace yourselves, he's got quite a bloodstained history.

Lincoln told the Mane 9 and the new recruits about Sasori's history, and it's indeed bloodstained.

Sasori

Sasori (サソリ, Sasori), renowned as Sasori of the Red Sand (赤砂のサソリ, Akasuna no Sasori), was an S-rank missing-nin from Sunagakure's Puppet Brigade and a member of Akatsuki, where he was partnered with Orochimaru and later Deidara.

Background

When Sasori was young, his father and mother were killed by Sakumo Hatake in battle, leaving him in the care of his grandmother, Chiyo. When Chiyo attempted to cheer him up by teaching him puppetry, Sasori's innate aptitude for the art became apparent, and he began to devise masterful ways of eliminating a puppet master's weaknesses in battle. His skills even allowed him to create two puppets in the image of his parents in an attempt to discard the terrible loneliness he felt. However, as the puppets were unable to give him the real parental love that he desired, Sasori lost interest in them, and they later fell into Chiyo's possession. Sasori created many other ingenious puppets, including Kuroari, Karasu, and Sanshōuo.

During the Third Shinobi World War, the effectiveness of his puppets in spilling his enemies' blood on the sand gave rise to Sasori's moniker "Sasori of the Red Sand". However, motivated by his desire to make works that last forever, Sasori began experimenting to create puppets out of people. In the anime, his only friend, Komushi, lost his right arm during his border control duty, so Sasori gave him a new puppet arm as a prosthetic limb. After Komushi perished, having accidentally ingested some of Sasori's poison, Sasori proceeded to turn him into one of his first human puppets. Twenty years ago, Sasori left Sunagakure; it was around this time he converted his body into a puppet with his core of living flesh remaining as his only human part, thus appearing to maintain the youth of the time of his departure. Over ten years before his own death, Sasori secretly assassinated the Third Kazekage and made him into one of his human puppets. Despite this, Sasori noted the Third Kazekage did not die without giving Sasori a struggle.

Sometime after becoming a missing-nin, Sasori was confronted by Konan and recruited into Akatsuki. Initially declining, Konan opted to fight him, proposing if he lost he would join. Sasori complied and despite using his puppet body, he ultimately lost and joined the organisation, being partnered up with Orochimaru.

After joining the Akatsuki, he utilized his skills to create numerous spies like Yūra and Mukade from Suna as sleeper agents. Sasori was paired with Orochimaru, who shared his desire of an everlasting existence. Later, Sasori joined his group in recruiting Deidara into Akatsuki. After Orochimaru left the Akatsuki following his failed attempt to take Itachi Uchiha's body, Sasori bore a grudge towards his former partner and sent Kabuto Yakushi to be his spy in Otogakure, unaware Kabuto was working for Orochimaru long before he posed as an Akatsuki spy, as he and the rest of the Akatsuki thought that Kabuto joined Orochimaru's side after being dispelled of Sasori's brainwashing. In the anime, Sasori later learned of Orochimaru's whereabouts and joined Deidara to find him. Once tracking him down in the Land of Wind, Sasori unleashed his Third Kazekage puppet. Orochimaru surprised Sasori by countering with a reincarnation of the actual Kazekage. The two missing-nin pitted their respective pawns against each other and the Third Kazekage proved stronger than the puppet. However, the Kazekage soon regained control of himself and forced a release of the technique, prompting Orochimaru to retreat. Deidara unleashed a series of bombs on Orochimaru's hideout, hoping to kill the Konoha-nin. Sasori was left very annoyed that despite a thorough search, they could not find a body.

Personality

Sasori grew up in a sad and lonely environment due to the absence of parental love. When introduced to the art of puppetry by his grandmother, Chiyo, he grew a little happier. He eventually created puppets in the likeness of his parents, but when he realized that the puppets could not give him the actual love that he desired, he became cold, aloof and led to his general disregard for human life. Sasori even went so far as to state that he would feel nothing if Chiyo died, as he claimed that his heart had become like his puppet body: without any emotions. Neither did Sasori have any loyalty for his village, as he defected to pursue personal interests and even kidnapped the Third Kazekage, which caused severe damage for Sunagakure, and then attack the village again twenty years after leaving. Despite his cruel and nihilistic nature, Sasori was also known to possess a very down-to-earth outlook on life, rarely getting worked up over obstacles that impeded his way. He rarely gave way to any strong emotions, and such instances that happened were often short-lived.

Sasori was also known for his impatience, as he repeatedly noted that he did not wish to wait or keep others waiting. Despite this, he took his time in battling Kankurō when they first met due to his interest in fighting his old creations, which were handed down to a puppet master of the next generation.

Sasori and his second partner in Akatsuki, Deidara, both had conflicting views on art, and they frequently argued about their differing perspectives. Deidara maintained his belief that art was something transient that departs quickly, whereas Sasori believed that fine art was everlasting and remained far into the future. This reflected their individual natures; Deidara made clay sculptures which exploded, while Sasori created long-lasting puppets out of humans that never died. Nevertheless, although Deidara outwardly seemed to respect Sasori's beliefs, Sasori never respected Deidara's.

Sasori's ambition was to become an exquisite piece of art himself by turning his body into one of his own puppet works. Sasori adhered so strongly to his belief that true art was ever-lasting that he even went as far as to have his spy retrieve information on the Summoning: Impure World Reincarnation and human experiments. Sasori abandoned this ambition after Kankurō told him that it was his creations that he put his heart and soul into that would last forever. After accepting Kankurō's view on eternal art, he entrusted his Mother and Father puppets to Kankurō and told him to pass them on to the next generation after he dies. In this moment, Sasori is shown to have an emotional side as well.

Sasori was also willing to accept the views of others on certain topics in contrast to Deidara, who stubbornly stood by his beliefs until the end. Sasori spared Kankurō during their first confrontation after the latter made a last attempt to attack him, but he notes that Kankurō's envenomed state would eventually lead to his death.

Possibly stemming from his lonely childhood, Sasori was entirely loyal to Akatsuki, so much that he vowed to kill his former partner, Orochimaru, for betraying the organisation.

Abilities

Sasori was a very powerful shinobi, being able to, with effort, defeat and kill the Third Kazekage, the strongest ninja in Suna's history. His use of his puppets was greatly feared throughout the Third Shinobi World War as he turned the sand red with blood, giving him the nickname, "Sasori of the Red Sand". His legacy was such that Kankurō knew of and feared him despite being born after Sasori already left the village. Deidara himself even admitted that Sasori was the stronger of the two of them.

Puppet Mastery

Trained by his powerful grandmother, Chiyo, in the art of puppetry, Sasori was an extremely powerful puppeteer and had great skill in creating and controlling his puppets. He created a number of ingenious ones including the three main puppets that Kankurō uses, which were made in Sunagakure before he fled. At the time of his final battle with Sakura and Chiyo, Sasori had 298 human puppets in his collection. His status as a puppet master offered him a tremendous advantage against other puppeteer shinobi, especially if the puppets they were using happened to be ones that he created, as seen in his battle against Kankurō. As puppets are usually installed with long-range weapons, Sasori was an expert at fighting at long distances. He had tremendous skill with chakra threads, suppressing them to the point that they became invisible and he could control upwards to 100 puppets - a feat thought impossible for ordinary shinobi. Sasori can also control living people as puppets, even against their will, if they are weakened enough. His usage of puppets was at such a high level that he made mere techniques appear as an artistic performance, what he called his "Red Secret Technique".

Hiruko

Hiruko was Sasori's eleventh puppet, and used as both a weapon and an armour, as well as a means to eliminate the puppeteer's weakness of being a separate and exposed target. As Hiruko was one of his favourite puppets, Sasori adorned it in Akatsuki attire for nearly the entirety of his tenure in the organisation. Because of this, only certain members like Orochimaru, Deidara, or relatives like Chiyo knew Sasori's true face while others like Zetsu and Kabuto had no idea that Hiruko was not his actual body. While within Hiruko, Sasori speaks through his puppet in a deeper and hoarser voice.

Hiruko had a long mechanical, scorpion-like tail (an allusion to Sasori's name meaning "scorpion"), extending from the mouth of what appeared to be a demon mask on its back. Chiyo said this mask was a recent addition by Sasori to act as an extra defence to a weak point in the puppet. The tail worked as Hiruko's main offensive weapon and was laced with Sasori's speciality poison. The tail could also be used defensively by spinning around Hiruko's body at a rapid speed. Hiruko's left arm was also rigged with a projectile launcher capable of firing poisoned shrapnel and needles, and its mouth could also be used to serve a similar function of firing poisoned needles. In the anime, Sasori was also capable of performing the Sand Clone technique through Hiruko. Hiruko is said to have been a human puppet in the anime from a once famous Sunagakure shinobi that Sasori converted upon death. In the manga it was just a regular puppet.

Human Puppetry

Sasori's puppets were unique in that they were made from the still-living bodies of humans. These human puppets were more versatile than regular puppets, since, in addition to having many dangerous devices installed within them (as is common with regular puppets), they were also able to use chakra and perform any techniques or kekkei genkai abilities that they possessed during their life. Being the developer of this form of puppets, Sasori is also the only one who knows how to create them.

Third Kazekage

Sasori's favourite human puppet was the Third Kazekage, which retained its Magnet Release, which in turn grants Sasori access to the Iron Sand techniques. When mixed with Sasori's poison, the Iron Sand was given a more lethal edge. The Iron Sand could also be used to fill up the joints of other puppets, thus immobilizing them. Due to the Iron Sand being derived from the Third's ability to convert chakra to magnetism, this grants Sasori immunity from metallic weapons. The Third's puppet's right arm held several poisoned blades, while the left arm could open up to reveal several summoning seals that summoned thousands of similar arms to attack the target. These arms were capable of crushing an opponent, emitting poisonous gas clouds, and releasing wires that dragged the opponent into the gas cloud. If these arms were cut off, a small buzz-saw took their place.

Puppet Body

Although Sasori was thirty-five years old, he maintained the appearance of a teenage boy. His unnaturally young appearance was a product of the immortalization of his design. Aside from his core, Sasori's body was actually a puppet. In place of his intestines was a thick cable coiled around a pole, allowing him to use it as a stinger and retract it if necessary. Attached to his back was a scroll holder, containing four scrolls that stored extra armament. The first scroll allowed him to expel powerful streams of fire, and the second scroll was used to store numerous puppets for the Red Secret Technique: Performance of a Hundred Puppets. The capabilities of the third and fourth scrolls were not revealed in the manga, though in the anime, the fourth scroll was used to fire jets of water with enough force to cut through rock. Sasori also has a pair of poles attached to the back of his hips, each equipped with five large blades that could spin like a propeller, granting him both an equipage for greater speed and a monstrous close combat weapon. Sasori also had pipes on each of his palms that could spew out intense fire, hot enough to melt rock, or, in the anime, powerful water jets with such pressure that they were capable of cutting through rock. Being a fully-armed puppet himself, Sasori did not suffer the weakness of being vulnerable to close-range combat that other puppeteers suffer.

Despite being loaded with weapons, Sasori kept them (and his true form) hidden within his Akatsuki robes, which were large enough to conceal them without problem. Curiously, when using "himself", Sasori's eyes were always wide open, giving him a somewhat insane look. In contrast, prior to revealing his puppet body, Sasori's eyes were always half-closed, making him appear calmer and more aloof. Sasori had claimed that he had not used "himself" since joining Akatsuki, until his last battle with his grandmother and Sakura Haruno.

Installed in the right part of Sasori's chest was a mechanism that could spin numerous chakra threads, allowing him to exceed his previous capabilities and control well over a hundred puppets. Doing so also allows him to use his Red Secret Technique: Performance of a Hundred Puppets. With it, Sasori was given a drastic advantage over other puppeteers, having once taken down a small nation with it. The left part of Sasori's chest held the lone human part of him and thus, the only necessary part of his body capable of controlling chakra: a cylinder-shaped device containing his 'core' (核, kaku).

Because Sasori's core was the only living part of his body that he still contained, his puppet body was virtually indestructible, allowing him to survive the poison mist Kankurō bombarded him with, as well as the impact from Sakura's punches. He was also able to fight for extended periods of time without hindrances that would normally affect a human's body, such as fatigue, muscle failure, loss of blood, wounds, or pain. His conversion has allowed him to forgo the need for food. When smashed apart, he could simply draw the pieces back together. Additionally, Sasori could transfer his core to other puppets in a split second, allowing him to abandon a body damaged beyond repair or incapacitated. The core was his only weakness, and its destruction would mean his death. After Sasori's death, Kankurō would later take the body and use it as his puppet.

---

When Lincoln was done explaining Sasori's history, The Mane 9 and the new recruits were horrified by what they heard about Sasori.

Rarity: My word, that's horrible.

Pakura: And to make matters worse, that witch, Chiyo, was the one who taught him puppetry. I've had it with you, traitor.

Suddenly, Pakura was surrounded by an orange energy aura, her eyes turned neon orange, and the heat coming from the energy aura was unbelievable, and as she walked towards Sasori, she left lava footprints and fire.

Pakura: I will never forgive you for kidnapping and murdering the Third Kazekage, and turning him into your puppet, Sasori. You've betrayed the Hidden Sand Village, and sided with The Akatsuki to destroy the world, and now, you will pay for what you've done!

Then, Pakura was enveloped in a massive vortex of lava and fire, which has dragons flying around the vortex, and an orange phoenix inside of the vortex. Then, as the vortex of lava and fire faded, Pakura emerged, but she was changed forever.

(IMPERATRIX MUNDI PLAYS AT 1:45 TO 2:14)

Pakura now had the body of a goddess, and she was taller at 5'10 in height. Her green hair had gotten longer, and it was tied in a ponytail, and her orange tips were now glowing. She had a dragon with lava reflecting on it emblazoned on her forehead, she had on a pair of dragon earrings with the Lava Kanji in its claws, and a silver Lava Kanji necklace. She had on a red sleeveless blouse with an orange phoenix, an orange blouse, and black leather combat boots. She had on her Bracelets of The Champions of The Universe on her wrists, the gems are orange, and she had on her Belt of Elemental Bravery on her waist with a large orange gem for the belt buckle, and an Eater of Sins revolver holstered on her right hip. She has a new sword in her hand called Sword of The Lava Dragon, it's a sword with a dragon etched on the 6'0" massive, double-edged, wide blade, orange angel wings for the crossguard, a large lava-colored gem for the hilt, a long black handle, and a large orange sphere pommel with lava-colored gems surrounding the pommel. She has large orange angel wings with lava dripping from the orange feathers, an orange energy aura with flames and lava, and the heat coming from it was immense. She had on a lava-colored trenchcoat with volcanoes on the trenchcoat's coattails, and the symbol of The Hidden Sand Village on the back. There was an orange glowing kanji on the back below the symbol of The Hidden Sand Village that said, "Pakura of The Scorch Style, Emissary of Volcanoes, Master of The Scorch Release, Famed Kunoichi of The Hidden Sand Village, and Amazing Member of Team Loud Phoenix Storm."

Pakura has transformed into SUPER ANGEL 500,000,000,000 VOLCANIC FIRESTORM ANGEL OF HONOR!

We were amazed at Pakura's Super Angel 500,000,000,000 transformation, and to Sasori, it means that he's going to pay dearly for his crimes.

Me: Wow, Pakura, you've transformed.

Nico: Incredible! Wow! the heat coming off of her is unreal!

Me: No kidding! Wow! Pakura looks incredible!

Kankuro: You said it, J.D. (To Pakura) How do you feel, Pakura?

Pakura: (Divine Echoing Volcanic Voice) I feel incredible, Kankuro, and now, I'm going to make that traitor pay for murdering The Third Kazekage and for joining the Akatsuki.

6 figures came out and they were THE BROODALS from Super Mario Odyssey, DEMARO BLACK and LILITHMON!

---

The Broodals

The Broodals are recurring bosses and the secondary antagonists of the video game Super Mario Odyssey . They are a group of anthropomorphic and villainous white rabbits who are wedding planners hired by Bowser to help organize his wedding and marriage to Princess Peach.

The Broodals make their debut in the Cap Kingdom. After Mario first lands in Bonneton and teams up with Cappy post his defeat by King Bowser Koopa, he leaps to the roof of Top Hat Tower where he finds the Broodals waiting for him. Introducing themselves, the Broodal Topper explains that they already have what they came to the Cap Kingdom for (Cappy's sister Tiara) and only stuck around because they were under contract to fight Mario. Topper hops down from the Broodals' airship and attacks with his headwear, but Mario soon defeats him before heading to the next kingdom.

The Broodals, meanwhile, began scouring the globe for treasured items Bowser needs for his wedding. Although Mario and Cappy manage to track down and defeat every member of the villainous group, the Broodals were still successful in stealing a prized possession from each kingdom they visited. Eventually, all four Broodals are forced to battle the heroes using a giant mech called the RoboBrood in Bowser's Kingdom. However, using Cappy's capture ability, Mario destroys the RoboBrood and sends the Broodals flying over the horizon, putting an end to their interruptions during the pair's quest.

After collecting 250 Power Moons and defeating Bowser and rescuing Peach, Mario and Cappy can travel to the Broodals' homeland on the Dark Side of the Moon and battle the now-jobless and vengeful Broodals at Rabbit Ridge. If each rabbit is beaten again and their RoboBrood is destroyed a second time, the heroes are rewarded with a Multi-Moon.

Madame Broode

Madame Broode is the leader and mother of the Broodals. She uses her pet gold Chain Chomp, Chain Chompikins to attack Mario. She is fought in the Cascade Kingdom and in the Underground Moon Caverns of the Moon Kingdom.

Harriet

Hariet is the pyrotechnic and only female member of the group. She can throw bombs using her hair braid, which splits into two in the rematch. She is fought in the Sand Kingdom and Bowser's Kingdom.

Rango

Rango is the bouncer and the oldest Broodal, who can throw his hat like a boomerang with saw blades and a spike, which allows him to bounce in the air for a while, but it also can do the same for Mario if he jumps on Rango's hat. He is fought in the Lake Kingdom and the Snow Kingdom.

Spewart

Spewart is the entertainer of the group, who spews poison from his mouth and hat to damage Mario. His name is a pun on "spew" and the name "Stewart". He is fought in the Wooded Kingdom and the Luncheon Kingdom.

Digimon Fusion

In Digimon Fusion she is referred to as Laylamon. As one of the Three Generals of the Bagra Army, Laylamon first made her existence known to the Fusion Fighters when they arrived at the Lake Zone area she was in the process of conquering. She she used a mirror to manipulate Angie Hinomoto into stealing the Lake Zone Code Crown for her, but it ended with her being scarred by Angie. Losing her cool over it, Laylamon forced a combination of herself, Daipenmon and the frozen IceDevimon to before being driven off by w:c:hero:Shoutmon X4K. Laylamon later confronts them in the Sand Zone, revealing she sent Ebemon to wipe out the Warriors of the Light save Reapmon. Learning the truth behind his sect's destruction he attempted to attack her but was mortally wounded with w:c:hero:Mikey Kudo saving him and allowing him to reformat into Beelzemon to help in the fight against Machinedramon. Laylamon later obtained a traveling companion in Damemon, unaware that he was Team Midnight's Tuwarmon until after Lord Bagra obtained the complete Code Crown with Midnight revealed to be a branch of the Bagra Army.

Being the only active Bagra Army Officer left and despite the hard work she had done Laylamon found herself overshadowed by the Dark Generals as she was transferred to Midnight, now the Twilight Army to be of service to its human general Ewan Amano along with the bodiless Blastmon and his Vilemon minions. Though Ewan's w:c:evil:Darkness Loader Laylamon could fuse with Blastmon and the Vilemon to form Laylamon Combined and aid Twilight in their fights with the Fusion Fighters United Army.

Later on, while the Fusion Fighters were trapped in the Digital Underworld Beelzemon confronts Laylamon and fights her while trying to protect Mervamon. He managed to apparently defeat her but at the price of receiving a fatal wound from the fight.

It turned out that Laylamon and Blastmon survived their fight with Beelzemon and were almost killed (with the Vilemon deleted after the fight) but Apollomon Whispered eventually force Digi-Fused Laylamon and Blastmon to become Evilbeast Laylamon and begins to destroy zones in the underworld in an attempt to keep the Fusion Fighters from leaving and destroy them. She attacked Beelzemon, Mervamon and Cutemon trying to destroy them. But in the end Shoutmon X7 dive-bombed on Laylamon and Beelzemon sacrificed himself to kill her while the Fusion Fighters escaped.

Demaro Black

"Triple-Tongued" Demaro Black, also known as Fake Luffy, is a pirate captain that impersonated Luffy. He was the main antagonist of the Return to Sabaody Archipelago Arc in One Piece .

---

Nicole: WHOA! The Broodals from Super Mario Odyssey!

Luffy: Demaro Black!

Marcus: And Laylamon!

Laylamon: Nice to finally meet you all.

Me: Just joined the Masters of Evil?

Harriet: We sure did y'all.

Demaro Black: It's good pay than what we were doing as pirates.

Ameno: Looks like I get to have you as my archenemy Demaro.

Sonic: It's gonna be awesome to see how I do with you 4.

Lorica: And I get you Laylamon.

Nico: Awesome.

Me: Lets get it on.

We got the battles underway.

---

Battle 1: Girl Jordan, Rarity, Sweetie Belle, Thunder Terror,

Mistmane, Water Skylanders, Liquid Leni, Mollie, Liam, Rusty, Clyde, Zach, Stella, Ronnie Anne, Oceanus Shenron and Paragus VS Cargill

---

Cargil was first.

Cargill: (to Girl Jordan) Did you get Vince anything for his birthday?

Girl Jordan: I sure did. I got him an awesome new friendship bracelet that I made myself.

Rarity: And it was most amazing darling. I helped by adding jewels to it. Also I gave Vince a nice lavish new tuxedo and a beautiful purple dress for Carol.

Sweetie Belle: They will be perfect for when Vince and Carol have an awesome anniversary dance later tonight.

Thunder Terror: Oh right! It's their Birth-aversary! It's not only Vince's birthday but it's also the day that Vince and Carol got married.

Cargill: RIGHT! I forgot about that! Double Whammy Day for him. The one anybody should ever do when they get married is forget their wedding anniversary.

Mistmane: That's right. That is the one thing a married couple should never do is forget their wedding anniversary.

Gill Grunt: Crazy and dark. But yeah.

Liquid Leni: Wow! I had no idea Vince and Carol got married on Vince's birthday.

Mollie: It was a great birthday for him.

Ronnie Anne: It sure was.

Liam: Ooh howdy! It was a great day for him.

Cargill: I'm glad. Lets do it!

They fired waves of water, elements, jewels and lightning and energy and smashed him down.

Girl Jordan: ALL RIGHT!

Rarity: Rapture darling that was grand!

---

Battle 2: Sora Takenouchi, Birdramon, Sunset Shimmer, Pepperdance, Cayenne, Firecracker Burst, Pip-Squeak, Gusty the Great, Fire Skylanders, Fire Lori, W.I.T.C.H., Gargoyle and Sandpit VS Springfield Mafia

---

The Springfield Mafia were next.

Louie: (to Sora Takenouchi) After all Vince has done for you guys, he deserved the best birthday ever.

Legs: And lets not forget that it's also Vince's wedding anniversary. He and Carol got married today as well.

Sora T.: That's right. Vince's birthday is also the day he and Carol got married.

Sunset Shimmer: It's so amazing. What are the odds of that happening?

Pepperdance: Ooowee! Probably astronomical.

Cayenne: But it's awesome for Vince and Carol.

Firecracker Burst: It's an awesome way to celebrate your birthday.

Pip-Squeak: (British Accent) We're all so happy for Vince and Carol.

Gusty: We sure are.

Sunburn: It's awesome that Vince's Birthday is also his wedding anniversary.

Fire Lori: That's amazing!

Will Vandom: We're so happy for them.

Irma Lair: We sure are.

Fat Tony: I'm glad.

Legs: Shall we dance?

Sora T.: Lets.

Legs: Get in my way and I'll whack you in the lobanza.

Sora T.: Get in MY way Legs and I'll kick you in the fucking balls.

They fired waves of fire and energy and sand and darkness and smashed them down.

Sora T.: All right!

Sunset Shimmer: YEAH!

---

Battle 3: Stella, Princess Celestia, Amber Morning, Light Skylanders, Light Lily, Winx Club, Michael Morningstar and Sunny Tennyson VS Chalmers

---

Chalmers was next.

Chalmers: (to Stella) Don't expect to see that Murkrow in the Masters of Evil. He's too much of a loose cannon!

Stella: We won't see that bird in any of our usual battles anytime soon.

Princess Celestia: Yeah he is dangerous.

Amber Morning coos in agreement.

Chalmer: Aww is that your little girl?

Princess Celestia: Yep and J.D. rescued her for me.

Chalmers: She is so adorable.

Spotlight: J.D.'s dream really saved her and he is a hero for her.

Light Lily agreed and she high five Amber.

Bloom: Light Lily and Amber are great friends.

Tecna: (British Accent) They sure are.

Flora: It's so adorable.

Chalmers: I think so too. Lets do it.

They fired waves of light, elements and energy and smashed him down.

Stella: YEAH!

Princess Celestia: That was amazing!

---

Battle 4: Homer, Bart, Pinkie Pie, Maud Pie, Marble Pie, Featherweight, Somnambula, Tech Skylanders, Steel Lynn, Lisa Simpson, Milhouse, Sherri & Terri, Nelson, Martin, Notacon and Dash VS Wiggum

---

Wiggum was next.

Wiggum: (to Homer) The minute I get the chance, that Murkrow's getting arrested!

Homer: You do that chief! Also Ernie told us so much about what happened during those fights he and Peter had.

Bart: They were both awesome and really brutal.

Wiggum: I've heard about those. They were really crazy! I also heard from Comic Book Guy that Peter and you had a Chicken Fight, Homer.

Homer: Yeah we sure did. That was nuts!

Homer told them all about it.

---

Homer looks sadly on the Griffins leaving and looks at the headline of the court decision, he tries to explain his actions. Peter reacts angrily and they start to fight, which causes the usual chicken-fight mayhem all through Springfield, until they crash into the nuclear power plant. As Homer fights with the Emmy Awards he won, they wreck the plant and they both fall into the reactor, giving them super powers to continue their fight. Crashing into Kodos and Kang's spaceship, they wreck it. As it crashes back to earth, they lose their powers. Landing in Springfield Gorge, their final blows nearly finish each other off until the spaceship crushes Homer, at least temporarily.

---

When he was done, Chief Wiggum was shocked!

Wiggum: WHOA! That explains why all of Springfield got ransacked back then. (Family Guy Season 13 Episode 1)

Pinkie Pie: That must've been an amazing battle!

Maud Pie: (Monotonously) If we see it we'll have to watch it on the internet.

Marble Pie: That would be amazing to watch.

Featherweight: It sure would be cool!

Somnambula: (Egyptian Accent) It sure would. But thank goodness that they made up for it in the end.

Sprocket: We're glad that happened.

Steel Lynn: Yeah thank goodness.

Lisa Simpson: That was one amazing fight and I even complimented Meg on her talents even if she is underappreciated.

Milhouse: That was thoughtful Lisa. (Coughing and Wheezing) Sorry! I have Hay Fever. (Sneezes)

Sherri: Poor Millie.

Terri: Yeah.

Wiggum: Yeah allergies are high usually this time of year. But you'll get better. Lets do it!

They fired waves of food, energy, rocks and gears and lightning and smashed him down.

Homer: WOOHOO!

Bart: COWABUNGA!

Pinkie Pie: BEST USUAL BATTLE EVER!

---

Battle 5: Morpheus, Princess Luna, Snowdrop, Children of The Night, Dark Skylanders, Shadow Lucy, Brittney, Lucy Loud, Haiku, Bertrand, Persephone, Dante, Boris, Giganta and Harley Quinn VS Kalin

---

Kalin was next.

Kalin: (to Morpheus) I'll admit I've done some nasty things as a Dark Signer. One of them being attempting to kill J.D. and Yusei. But what Brightburn did crossed the line!

Morpheus: You got that right. What Brightburn did is completely unforgivable. He has been Super Hakaied and the Thalionians are no more.

Princess Luna: Thank goodness. I wish Nico didn't have to eat his heart in front of the town.

Snowdrop: But it was a good form of justice for them.

Gari: Yeah it was. But thank goodness that Brightburn is gone forever.

Blackout: And good riddance. What he did was completely reprehensible and evil.

Shadow Lucy: But thank goodness we destroyed him.

Kalin: Yeah thank goodness. He was the polar opposite of Superman. Hard to imagine that he is essentially Superman growing up on Earth gone bad. They both went through the same backgrounds, lost both their planets and are both polar opposites. One is a hero and the other is a villain.

Brittney: Yeah no kidding! Kal is a Kryptonian and his home planet, Krypton, was destroyed because of an unstable core. Brightburn lost his home planet, Thalius, when its parent star went nova.

Lucy Loud: And the worst part is that the Thalionians were the second most feared race in the galaxy next to the Saiyans.

Kalin: Yeah I stand corrected. And that makes Nico the third member that lost his planet. It was destroyed by Frieza.

Haiku: Yeah that was crazy.

Kalin: No kidding. Wait! Sorry I stand corrected again. Emma Gale's race the Honouians were destroyed too. Darn it! I keep forgeting that. Lets do it!

They fired waves of darkness and rainbow fire and smashed him down.

Morpheus: Darkness wins.

Princess Luna: A victory of the night.

---

Battle 6: Emerald Sustrai, Rainbow Dash, Scootaloo, Magma Gloom, Flash Magnus, Air Skylanders, Air Lincoln, Team J.N.P.R., Barbossa and Long John Silver (Treasure Planet) VS Private H.I.V.E.

---

Private H.I.V.E. was next.

Private H.I.V.E.: (to Emerald) If I were there, I would've court martialed Brightburn for harming his own unit!

Emerald Sustrai: I don't think that would have done any good. Brightburn was born bad and he would have just continued doing more and more damage.

Private H.I.V.E.: Point taken.

Rainbow Dash: Yeah what he did was absolutely not good!

Scootaloo: Yeah! Also Nico had a terrible history with him.

Magma Gloom: Yeah that was terrible! It's hard to imagine that he and Brightburn had such a terrible history together.

Flash Magnus: No kidding. And this time Nico ended the terror of the Thalionians for good.

Whirlwind: Yeah the Thalionians were worse than the Saiyans when they were working for Frieza.

Air Lincoln: It's sick that they can be so evil.

Jaune Arc: But the Thalionians brought it all on themselves.

Nora Valkyrie: Yeah they don't deserve to go to Heaven for annihilating countless people.

Private H.I.V.E.: You said it. Permission to start battle ma'am!

Emerald Sustrai: Granted soldier!

They fired waves of rainbows, wind, lightning, energy and lasers and smashed him down.

Emerald Sustrai: Take that!

Rainbow Dash: That was AWESOME!

---

Battle 7: Weiss, Twilight Sparkle, Luster Dawn, Princess Cadance, Star Swirl, Magic Skylanders, Crystal Laney, Team R.W.B.Y. Grenade Man and Aqua Man (Mega Man) VS Abis Mal

---

Abis Mal was next.

Abis Mal: (to Weiss) Who did J.D. rescue this time?

Weiss: Her name is Lorica and she is a Dark Matter.

Twilight Sparkle: But she is completely different from the Dark Matter that makes up 85% of everything in the universe.

Luster Dawn: Yeah she is what we call an Elemental Spirit.

Princess Cadance: Dark Matter's are really interesting to learn about.

Star Swirl: Indeed they are. I'm glad that J.D. was able to rescue her.

Spyro: But it's cool seeing a Dark Matter in person.

Crystal Laney: It sure is. I like reading about space and science with my sister Lisa and it's amazing that there is so much to learn from the secrets of the universe.

Ruby Rose: It sure is something.

Blake Belladonna: It's complex but really something.

Abis Mal: Wow no kidding. Lets do it!

They fired waves of jewels, magic, energy and elements and smashed him down.

Weiss: ALL RIGHT!

Twilight Sparkle: That was great!

---

Battle 8: Nicole Knudson, Starlight Glimmer, Cozy Glow, Trixie, Clover the Clever, Undead Skylanders, Lightning Lisa, Rainbow Dash, Sunset Shimmer, Lincoln, Lily, Clyde, Energon Scorponok and Tidal Wave VS Control Freak

---

Control Freak: (to Nicole) You think Lorica would get along with Star Sapphire? Also, for this battle, I'm summoning someone Mega Man has faced.

He summoned the Square Machine Boss from Mega Man IV.

Nicole: A Square Machine from Mega Man IV. Good choice. Also yes Lorica would definitely get along great with Star Sapphire. She would get along great with all of the Lantern Corps.

Starlight Glimmer: I agree. She has amazing skills in knowing so much about the universe.

Cozy Glow: But thank goodness she's not like the Dark Matter that Kirby faced.

Trixie: Thank goodness. I remember Zero Two and that was bad.

Clover the Clever: Yeah and facing Zero Two was terrible.

Hex: It sure was. But at least we destroyed him.

Lightning Lisa: But learning from someone like Lorica is most amazing to see.

Rainbow Dash: It's really awesome learning all about space.

Sunset Shimmer: It sure is.

Lincoln: And Astronomy is Nicole's strongest field of science.

Nicole: No arguments there.

Control Freak: You said it. Also I think it's gonna be cool that Sonic gets to have all 4 of the Broodals as his archenemies.

Nicole: I think so too. The Broodals will make great archenemies for Sonic. Even though it's 4 against one, Sonic has gotten out of worse scrapes than that.

Control Freak: I agree. Lets do it!

They fired waves of energy, stars, bones, magic and elements and smashed him down and blew up the Square Machine.

Nicole: Goddess of Video Games wins again.

Starlight Glimmer: That was great!

Trixie: A grand victory for The Great and Powerful Trixie!

---

Battle 9: Applejack, Apple Bloom, Frozen Fright, Rockhoof, Earth Skylanders, Stone Luna, Pear Butter, Big Mac, Bright Mac, Blaster Tron and Sasha VS The Vreedle Brothers

---

The Vreedle Brothers were next.

Octagon: (to Applejack) I think Maya would be a great help around your farm.

Applejack: I think so too. She does have amazing talents in apple harvesting.

Apple Bloom: And she's a great dancer like Tender Taps is.

Frozen Fright: She sure is. I think it's really cool how she dances gracefully like all Bellossom do.

Rockhoof: (Scottish Accent) Aye. She dances amazingly now.

Stone Luna: Rockin dudes.

Pear Butter: She dances as great as me and Bright Mac.

Bright Mac: Yeah she sure does.

Big Mac: Eeyup.

Rhomboid: Yeah. Lets do it!

They fired waves of earth, apples, rock and pears and smashed them down.

Applejack: YEEHAW! That was great!

Apple Bloom: Yeah it was!

---

Battle 10: Penny, Fluttershy, Tree Hugger, Tornado Bolt, Mage Meadowbrook, Life Skylanders, Plant Lola, Bernard, Bianca, Cody, Marahute, Cyclonus and Scourge VS Pete

---

Pete was next.

Pete: (to Penny) Did J.D. really meet a Bellossom Gene Slammer this morning?

Penny: He sure did and her name is Maya Noriko.

Fluttershy: Maya is a graceful dancer and she talks to animals amazingly like I do.

Tree Hugger: It's far out dudes.

Tornado Bolt: Yeah no kidding. Maya knows so much about animals.

Mage Meadowbrook: And she is a great healer like me.

Stealth Elf: Yeah she is.

Plant Lola: I like Maya. She's amazing.

Bernard: She sure is cool.

Bianca: (Hungarian Accent) I think so too.

Cody (RDU): (Australian Accent) You said it mates.

Marahute screeched in agreement.

Pete: I agree. Lets do it!

They fired waves of leaves, energy, diamonds and feathers and smashed him down.

Penny: That was amazing!

Fluttershy: That was fun.

Battle 11: Dino Thunder Rangers, Megaforce Rangers, Nico, Ice Luan, Laney, Lana, Lucy, Lola, Lisa, Lily and Lincoln VS Skortch

Skortch was next.

Skortch: This is gonna be so fun.

Nico: I'm always up for some fun.

Tommy Oliver: Lets do it!

Dino Thunder Rangers: DINO THUNDER! POWER UP! HA!

Trent Fernandez: WHITE RANGER! DINO POWER!

They transformed.

Conner: "Tyranno Power! Red Ranger!"

Ethan: "Tricera Power! Blue Ranger!"

Kira: "Ptera Power! Yellow Ranger!"

Tommy: "Brachio Power! Black Ranger!"

Trent: "Drago Power! White Ranger!"

All: "Dino Power! Dino Rangers! Ha!"

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off behind them and they were ready for action!

Megaforce Rangers: LEGENDARY RANGER MODE! DINO THUNDER!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Dino Thunder Rangers too!

Nico: Time for some action!

Rangers: Z-REX CANNON!

The Rangers formed the Z-Rex Cannon.

Nico: FIRE!

They all fired energy blasts and the blasts all hit Skortch and he exploded in a massive fiery explosion!

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Skortch was dead!

Nico: Skortch you have failed this world.

Troy Burrows: Rangers that's a Super Mega Win.

---

Battle 12: Pakura and Dirt Lana VS Sasori of the Red Sand

---

Sasori was next.

Pakura: I will never forgive you for your crimes Sasori.

Dirt Lana: Me neither!

Dirt Lana splashed mud in his face.

Pakura went after Sasori, who summoned his puppets to attack. Pakura fired powerful blasts of fire and lava at the puppets, and reduced them to ashes. Sasori summoned his Third Kazekage puppet, and fired iron sand at Pakura, but she dodged it, and fired a powerful blast of lava at the puppet, and it reduced the puppet to ashes. Then, Pakura used her Sword of The Lava Dragon, and she'd pierced Sasori's core, and it caused him excruciating pain. Sasori was now on his last legs, thanks to getting his core pierced, and his strength was leaving him.

Pakura: This is the end, Sasori, may you never return to torment anyone ever again. LAVA STYLE NINJA ART: VOLCANIC DRAGON RASENSHURIKEN!

Pakura formed a massive Rasenshuriken made of glowing lava and volcanic rock with a dragon made of pure lava orbiting around the glowing orange core, and she infused some Super Hakai energy into it, as traces of purple Super Hakai energy was seen around it. Pakura then threw the Rasenshuriken, hitting Sasori, and it exploded with incredible power, reducing him to ashes, and it Super Hakaied him. The ashes of Sasori were carried away by the winds, and Sasori of The Red Sand was no more.

Pakura: Goodbye forever, traitor.

---

Battle 14: Ameno VS Demaro Black

Demaro Black was next.

Demaro: This is gonna be good.

Ameno: I'm always up for a fun battle.

Demaro: Me too. Lets get it on.

Ameno kicked him in the face and smashed him down.

Fat Tony: (to Vince): Well, Vince? Was this birthday the best one yet?

Vince: It sure was! You all made this the best Birthday Anniversary ever!

Private HIVE: Glad to hear it, soldier!

Abis Mal: (to Tory) Sorry about what happened to your husband and everyone else Brightburn killed.

Tory Breyer: It's fine. At least they've been avenged.

Me: That's true.

Control Freak: At least you and the survivors can make new lives here.

Pete: But if you want, J.D. can restore Brightburn's victims and your town.

Tory Breyer: Nah. It's best if we move on and forget what happened

Caitlyn Connor: Yeah.

Nico: (To the viewers) Hope you all loved this adventure as much as I have. My unfinished business with Brightburn is done and we never have to worry about the Thalionians again.

Me: You said it buddy. Lets all go home and get some shuteye.

Everyone agreed.

We went back home and got some good sleep.

Meanwhile in Indianapolis, Indiana a certain snail that has helped us many times in the past and his friends were getting ready for an awesome and huge race.

Turbo: This is gonna be so cool! Team Loud Phoenix Storm is gonna help me in the Indianapolis 500 and it's gonna be awesome! I can't wait to rev it up!

Turbo was eager to run down the track!

ZOOOOOMMM!

THE END

---

Another awesome chapter done.

Brightburn was one terrifying movie. It was essentially what I call the Antipode of Superman. I never saw the movie but I heard it was really wicked. It came out in 2019 and it was scary from what I heard. The first part of the chapter is for the movie Little Shop of Horrors from 1986. I don't know if any of you all ever saw that movie but it was creepy. I wasn't born back when it first came out but I heard it was really freaky. The 2nd part is for the 1999 Crocodile Horror movie Lake Placid and that was ONE HUGE CROCODILE! Brutal and gory too. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Nflemingful, Etstheclarencefan, Drako1234658 and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Also Happy Birthday to you Vince. Hope you like the chapter here I made for you as your birthday present. The next girl is gonna be Media the Medusa and me and the Gengar Gene-Slammer are gonna meet her in the world of the TV Series, Ice Twisters. Bundle up as we meet her and a Nihilego Gene-Slammer named Laniya Thorndyke from England and save the world from Tornadoes made of Pure Ice. Also we're going into the world of the TV Movie The Triangle and we're going to bring back all the ships and planes that mysteriously vanished over the eons as well as figure out what causes the Bermuda Triangle to do what it has been doing over the eons. And get ready for an awesome race as we help Turbo the Snail and participate in the Indianapolis 500 and a special guest star will appear in that one. And we're going to face Guy Gagné.

See you all tomorrow.

The World's Fastest Snail

Me and the Gengar Gene-Slammer Vina Tsiolkovsky were in the middle of the city and it was really cold.

Me: Man what a blizzard.

Vina Tsiolkovsky: I hope my Gengar form isn't affected by cold weather.

Vina concentrated and groaned before she involuntary smiled very wide.

Me: (Shivers) Man I should have brought a jacket! It's really cold for the middle of August.

Vina shrunk and turned into Gengar.

Me: Yeah!

I held on to her clothes.

Then we saw tornadoes made of pure snow and ice!

Me: WHOA! Ice Tornadoes!

Vina Gengar: Whoa! That is cold!

We then saw a Medusa and a Nihilego come out.

Me: A Medusa and a Nihilego!

Media: That's right. I'm Media.

Nihilego: (British Accent) And I'm Laniya Thorndyke. It's an honor.

Me: Same here.

We blasted the tornadoes with powerful blasts of fire and destroyed them.

Me: Whew! That was great!

Vina Gengar: Yeah!

Me: Lets get you back to being human Laniya.

I put on my blind man glasses and snapped my fingers and Laniya reverted back. She was naked and Vina reverted back too.

Vina was human again. But naked.

Vina: (covers herself) We should head back to the Estate for some hot chocolate!

Laniya: (Covers herself) Yeah I'm freezing and naked!

I gave Vina her clothes and gave Laniya new clothes.

Media: Boy those were extremely cold tornadoes. Wonder what caused them?

Me: No idea. But lets head home and warm up.

We did so. I then realized that we were in the world of the TV Movie, Ice Twisters and it was a cold TV movie from 2009.

---

After meeting Media the Medusa and Laniya Thorndyke and saving the world from the Ice Twisters, Lincoln, me, Nico, Lana Loud, Eli, Nicole, and Twilight Sparkle were heading out to the world of the 2005 TV movie The Triangle, and not only are we going to rescue twelve girls that were sighted there, but we're also going bring back all of the ships and planes that've vanished over the eons and figure out what causes the Bermuda Triangle to do what it's been doing over the eons. We were also joined by Greenpeace Survivor Meeno Paloma and Shipping Tycoon Eric Benirall for this mission.

Lincoln: Whoa, we're in the movie The Triangle, and I think I know what we're going to do here. We're going to bring back all of the ships and planes that've vanished over the eons and figure out what causes the Bermuda Triangle to do what it's been doing over the eons. Plus, twelve girls have been sighted there that have to be rescued.

Me: Wow, you sure are on track, Linc. Awesome job.

Nico: Plus, Lana's going to help us out with this one, and this is definitely a big mission, and we're going to solve one of the oldest mysteries that've haunted us over the eons.

Lana: Right, so let's get going.

We flew on over to The Bermuda Triangle, and we found the ships that've vanished over the eons. But, we also found out something very fantastic and unbelievable: we found out that the Bermuda Triangle was a wormhole, and it's ultimately linked to the truth about a high-tech underwater facility operated by the United States Navy and its relation to the Philadelphia Experiment.

Nico: Whoa.

Me: So, all those ships that've gone missing over the eons is linked to a high-tech underwater facility operated by the United States Navy.

Eric Benirall: Yes, and it also has a relation to The Philadelphia Experiment.

Nico: That was back in October 28, 1943.

Lincoln: That was 78 years ago, and it'll be 79 years in October of this year.

?: Help!

Suddenly, Lincoln heard the sound of twelve girls calling for help with his superhuman hearing, and with his cyborg eyes and superhuman height, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He saw twelve girls who are on the ships, and they need help. Lincoln made eleven clones of himself, and they went to the ships and rescued the twelve girls.

Lincoln: I've got the girls, but we need to get the ships and planes operational. Lana, can you make a ton of clones to get these planes and ships operational again?

Lana: (smiles) On it, bro. This is going to be the biggest challenge ever!

Lana made a ton of clones, and with her tools in hand, she got to work on what could have been the biggest ship and plane repair in the history of the world. Once she got done with getting the planes and ships working again, we got them and ourselves out of The Bermuda Triangle for good.

We got back home, and we then found out that the twelve girls that Lincoln rescued were Milfeulle Sakuraba, Ranpha Franboise, Mint Blancmanche, Forte Stollen, Vanilla H, and Chitose Karasumaru from Galaxy Angel, Peni Parker from Spider-Man: Into the Spider-Verse (2018), Lynn Minmei from Robotech, Natalie Blackstone, Hannah Whitehouse, and Kujou Hikari from Pretty Cure, and Lucia Morgan from Final Fight.

Nicole: Whoa, the girls that you rescued, Lincoln, are Milfeulle Sakuraba, Ranpha Franboise, Mint Blancmanche, Forte Stollen, Vanilla H, and Chitose Karasumaru from Galaxy Angel, Peni Parker from Spider-Man: Into the Spider-Verse, Lynn Minmei from Robotech, Natalie Blackstone, Hannah Whitehouse, and Kujou Hikari from Pretty Cure, and Lucia Morgan from Final Fight.

Lincoln: Wow, and if I remember correctly, Milfeulle Sakuraba, Ranpha Franboise, Mint Blancmanche, Forte Stollen, Vanilla H, and Chitose Karasumaru were once part of The Moon Angel Troupe, Peni Parker is Peter Parker's genderbent twin from the movie Spider-Man: Into The Spider-Verse, Lynn Minmei was known as a famous singer during the First Robotech War, Natalie Blackstone, Hannah Whitehouse, and Kujou Hikari can transform into legendary warriors, and Lucia Morgan is a cop from the Special Crimes Unit within the Metro City Police Department.

Lucia Morgan: Oh man, thanks for rescuing us, we weren't so sure we weren't going to make it out of there in time.

Then, when Milfeulle Sakuraba, Ranpha Franboise, Mint

Blancmanche, Forte Stollen, Vanilla H, Chitose Karasumaru, Peni Parker, Lynn Minmei, Natalie Blackstone, Hannah Whitehouse, Kujou Hikari, and Lucia Morgan saw who it was that rescued them, their faces lit up like a red Christmas light upon seeing the 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful muscles, eight-pack abs, and deep sapphire blue eyes.

Milfeulle Sakuraba: Oh wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you all.

Lincoln made eleven clones of himself, and he and the clones went up to the girls, and he then picked them up and hugged them in his abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and he kissed them on the lips, which they returned with equally intense passion, as they wrapped their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones. We cheered over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem are going to like their new sisters to their future husband's harem. Also we got the planes and ships that vanished over the eons to the garage for repairs and restoration.

Lucia Morgan: (To Lincoln) You too, handsome, (To the rest of the team) along with everyone here.

Peter Parker: You know, I always wondered what it would be like to have a twin.

Peni Parker: Especially someone who's the genderbent version of you, and has the same powers and personality as you.

Lori: That's also the same thing with Lincoln and Linka, and with us and our genderbent twins.

Later on after our workouts in the gym, Lincoln, Lynn, Laney, me, and Nico were sitting at the table, and we were about to have ourselves a hot pepper eating contest.

Luna Loud: Oh man, this is really going to be intense, dude.

Lana Loud: You said it, Luna, The Loud House's resident spice demons against the two spice demons from Colorado and The Philippines. This is going to get really hot.

Buster Bunny got up front, and he was dressed in a sports announcer's tuxedo.

Buster Bunny: Ladies and Gentlemen, welcome to today's hot pepper eating contest, and it's The Loud House's three resident spice demons, Lincoln, Lynn, and Laney Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm against the nuclear spice demons, J.D. Knudson from Colorado and Nicholas Chan from The Philippines. The air is tense with suspense and charged with action, as these five spice demons face off in this hot-pepper eating challenge, where they must eat the hottest and spiciest peppers known to mankind, the universe, and The Underworld.

Then, Buster Bunny presents the first batch of hot peppers to me, Lincoln, Laney, Lynn, and Nico on a plate.

Buster Bunny: Our first batch of hot peppers are The Ghost Peppers, one of The Seven Deadly Peppers of Sin.

We gasped in shock.

Sunset Shimmer: That's one of The Seven Deadly Peppers of Sin, oh man.

Me: So, you're going to have us eat The Seven Deadly Peppers of Sin, huh, Buster? Well, now, that's interesting.

We ate the plate of Ghost Peppers, and our auras flared up like mad, and we were sweating up quite a storm. Plus, we found out that Lincoln's immense body heat also dramatically increases by eating hot peppers, and he also has Elemental Absorption, regenerating lost or damaged limbs and organs, immense superhuman strength, immense superhuman speed, immense superhuman agility, immense superhuman flexibility, immense superhuman stamina, immense superhuman regeneration factor, immense superhuman healing, senses and reflexes, immense superhuman durability, immense superhuman endurance, immense superhuman intelligence, hardened muscular system, telekinesis, superhuman mind control resistance, energy absorption, immortality, invincibility, immunity to countless poisons, diseases, old age, magic, and endless kinds of harm, along many other gifts he was been endowed with, and he was also endowed with an invincible and indestructible body.

Next was a plate of the second of The Seven Deadly Peppers of Sin: The Trinidad Moruga Scorpion Peppers. We ate them, and our auras flared up, and we belched out actual flames from our mouths.

Next was a plate of The Carolina Reaper Peppers, and we saw that Nico's face was already turning a bright nuclear red, along with Lynn and Laney, but me and Lincoln were still standing strong, but our auras were still flaring up and getting stronger after we ate the Carolina Reaper Peppers.

Next was a plate of The Dragon's Breath Peppers, we ate those, and we were belching out even more flames from our mouths, as our auras were still flaring up and getting stronger, but Nico's eyes were now starting to water, along with Lynn's and Laney's, but they also still stood strong.

Next was a plate of Guatemalan Insanity Peppers, the same peppers that caused Homer Simpson to go crazy, thanks to the capascin extract inside the peppers. We ate those, and we saw Lynn, Laney, and Nico's eyes starting to twitch from the spicy peppers, but they still stood strong, and me and Lincoln were still standing, and our auras were still flaring up like crazy and getting stronger.

Finally, we were given the plate of the last of The Seven Deadly Peppers of Sin: The Tears of Zephos, the peppers grown in The Garden of Eternal Flame, which are said to give those eternal pain to whoever eats these peppers. This was the last challenge in the contest, and we eventually ate The Tears of Zephos. Our auras flared up extremely, thanks to eating The Tears of Zephos. But, then, we saw Lynn, Laney, and Nico scream their heads off, as their faces turn neon red, and they were running around with their mouths full of fire.

The Neptune Crusaders fired blasts of water into their mouths, and steam was coming out from their mouths.

Nico: Oh wow, now that was crazy.

Lynn: Yeah, but look, Lincoln and J.D. are still standing.

The rest of us were cheering wildly that me and Lincoln were still standing, and with raging energy auras flaring up to the extreme. The girls in my harem and the girls in Lincoln's harem went up to us, and as we kissed them, they lit up like red Christmas lights, and red steam came out from their ears, and they tooted like a whistle.

Minerva Mink: (Seductively) Now, that's what I call a red-hot kiss, Linky.

Buster Bunny: I can't believe it, it's a tie between Lincoln Loud and J.D. Knudson. This is a match that will be remembered for a long time to come.

Suddenly, we saw blood trickling down from Lincoln's right shoulder, and he got the same tattoo as me, and he's become a lover of nuclear hot food, just like me.

Lori: Wow, Lincoln, you've got the same tattoo as J.D.

Lynn: Looks like you're now a lover of nuclear hot spicy food, just like him. Nice one, and that kiss you just gave the girls in your harem has got them whistling red-hot steam from their ears.

Then, Lincoln let out a massive belch, and a massive blast of blue flame came out of his mouth, and it went to an abandoned warehouse, which was the hideout of another one of Michigan's dangerous drug gangs, and as it hits, it reduces the warehouse to ashes and kills the members of the drug gang, in a massive explosion.

Lincoln: Whoa, excuse me.

We then had a laugh at what happened, but we also saw that it also destroyed the hideout of another one of Michigan's dangerous drug gangs, and killed the drug cartel hiding out.

Later we were getting ready to watch Lynn's game and root her on.

Pixie: Good luck out there, Lynn!

Lynn: Thanks Pixie.

She went out to the field.

As the game progressed I noticed that the other team that Lynn was facing was playing abnormally well and really throwing strong and running too fast for normal baseball players which was really odd.

Me: (In my head) Hmm. Something is seriously not right. Those players are not normal. After the game is over I better check this out when the time is right.

The tension was getting to Lynn and Luan was sweating in panick.

Luan then fired a blast of light into the opposing pitcher's eyes, blinding him temporarily and letting Lynn score a point.

Mega Man: Luan, what the Hell did you just do?!

Luan: I panicked! I was afraid of what Lynn would do if she lost!

Announcer: And the Roosters win!

Everyone cheered wildly!

Nico: WAY TO GO LYNN!

As the other team went into the Dugout, I went into their dugout.

I then saw something completely unexpected in there.

Back at the Estate, Luan was being reprimanded.

Luan: Nice job out there, Lynn!

Lynn: (not happy) Luan, I really don't know what to think about how you cheated for me.

Luan: But that's just it. I cheated so you would win! The other team was overpowering you and I couldn't let them beat you.

Armada Cyclonus: I know Lynn was losing. But she would've found a way around it without cheating! Now, we may never know what that might've been.

Lynn: I'm still keeping the trophy though.

Me: I think I know what the problem was.

But Lori and Lola were mad at Luan.

Lori: Luan, words can't describe how literally disappointed I am of you.

Luan: But I did it for a good reason!

Lola: Good reason or not, cheating is still wrong. And what if you end up cheating in romantic relationships too?

Powerglide: Really, Lola?

Nico: That's a little low if you ask me.

Lola: Just trying to put a good example out there. (to Eddy) No offense.

Eddy: None taken.

Lola: But Luan what you did was not helping Lynn! How would you like it if people called you a cheater in comedy!

Lana: Lola you shut up!

Lola: Make me filth girl!

They got into a brutal fight cloud!

POW BIFF CRACK BLAM SMASH BANG BAM!

Eli: Excuse me you two but I must discipline the nanny-goats.

Eli grabbed them and bonked their heads!

BONK!

Lana & Lola: OW!

Eli: You two act like little babies!

Me: Nice job Eli.

Eli: Thanks.

Demona: Nico, you do know it's your turn to lead today, right?

Nico: Yes Demona, I know. And I have just the mission for us. First we're going to watch one of my favorite movies.

Then Cargill, Vreedle Brothers, Chalmers, Springfield Mafia, Pete, Wiggum, Control Freak, Kalin, Private HIVE, and Abis Mal appeared.

Cargill: Can we go with you guys?

Nico: You sure can. First we're going to watch one of my favorite movies: Turbo!

Pete: Ooh! That's a good one!

Kalin: One of my favorites and it's perfect for you because of your love for racing.

Nico: Yep.

We got to watching the movie.

---

In a suburban San Fernando Valley tomato garden of Van Nuys in Los Angeles, Theo, self-named "Turbo", is a garden snail who dreams of being the greatest racer in the world, just like his hero, five-time Indy 500 champion Guy Gagné. However, his obsession with speed often makes him an outcast in the slow and cautious snail community, and a constant embarrassment to his older brother, Chet. One night, Theo wanders onto a freeway to admire the traffic and wishes upon a star, later revealed to be an airplane, that he was fast. Suddenly, he is sucked into the supercharger of a Chevrolet Camaro drag racer, fusing his DNA with nitrous oxide. When he wakes up, he possesses superspeed and some characteristics of a real car. However, his first attempt to try out his new powers ends with him crashing a boy's tricycle into the garden in which many other snails work, resulting in him and Chet getting fired from the garden crew.

Chet angrily scolds Theo for his recklessness and ends up being snatched by a crow, but is pursued and rescued by Theo at a run-down strip mall called Starlight Plaza. There, they are captured by Tito Lopez, a Mexican-American taco truck driver, and are brought to a snail race held by him and his co-workers. Theo wins the race in a matter of seconds, astounding both humans and snails alike, earning the respect of the snails, led by Whiplash, and firmly establishing the name "Turbo" as his own. Chet, on the other hand, is not happy with his brother's new ability. Tito dreams of reviving Starlight Plaza, in which his taco business is set up, with Turbo as an attraction, much to his brother and coworker Angelo's annoyance. The snails eventually manage to divert and strand a tour bus, bringing impressive business. At this success, Turbo convinces Tito to enter him in the Indianapolis 500 as a competitor. The neighbors agree to put up the entrance fee and accompany them to Indianapolis.

Tito is initially refused entry into the race due to insulting a race official, but a chance meeting with Gagné gives Turbo a chance to show off his speed, astounding the audience and the racers by qualifying for the race via achieving a speed of 226 mph, becoming a sensation on social media and forcing the CEO of IndyCar to reluctantly let Turbo compete. The night before the race, after a heated argument with Chet, Turbo sneaks out to meet Gagné, who reveals his true colors by demoralizing him. In the race, the racetrack and the more experienced competitors leave him trailing in last place. At a pitstop, Whiplash and the crew give Turbo a vital pep talk, advising him to stop racing like a car. Turbo uses his small size to his advantage and rapidly gains ground, but Gagné resorts to cheating and knocks him against the wall, damaging his shell and weakening his superspeed.

In the final stretch with Turbo in the lead, Gagné, refusing to lose to him, inadvertently causes a pile-up involving most of the competitors, including Turbo, who wakes to find his shell punctured and his superspeed gone, so he falls into deep despair. Alarmed at seeing his brother losing hope, Chet, with a change of heart, braves several dangers to meet with Whiplash's crew. Seeing Chet and the crew arrive on crows to encourage him to continue, Turbo resumes the race. Gagné single-mindedly pursues him, dragging his wrecked car, but Turbo narrowly wins and Gagné is assaulted by one of the strip mall business owners for trying to harm him.

Starlight Plaza thrives from Turbo's fame; all the businesses become spectacular successes and hold elaborate snail races. Whiplash's crew are given special propulsion aids for their shells, while Chet is content with his new job as the track referee and paramedic. As for Turbo, he discovers that his shell has healed, and with it, his superspeed has returned.

In a mid-credits scene, one of the snails from Turbo and Chet's garden is finally able to tuck into his shell, only to realize that he is too big to come out.

---

We saw that Turbo was awesome and how he came to fame and more. When it was done we cheered wildly.

Nico: So awesome!

Me: Love that movie and we owe Turbo big time for helping us in the war with Grandfather.

Numbuh 1: Yeah we sure do.

Nico: All right time to gather everyone. (Takes out Bugle and plays Reville)

We all gathered.

Nico: ATTEN-TION!

We stood in attention.

Nico: All right maggots listen up! We're going to Indianapolis to see Turbo the Snail and we're going to not only thank him for help us in the the war with Grandfather but we're also going to race with him and help him take out his enemy Guy Gagné. Lets get ready everyone. We leave in 5 minutes! Lets head to the garage and get our cars ready for this. Dismissed!

Me: Lets kick the tires and light the fires.

We went to the garage and got into our cars and we were off to Indianapolis.

We were driving down the road with incredible speed.

Fat Tony: I hope Turbo didn't get into any trouble since the last time we saw him.

Legs: Well, he might've fought off some Senior Citizombies.

Louie: And some Heartless as well.

Nico: But he is still an important part of the team and we owe him big time for helping us.

Eli: That's right Commander and he has also been a big help in many of our adventures.

Arrietty: That's right. He's just as important as all of us are to the world.

Eli: Well said Arrietty. How does it feel to ride in a car with me?

Arrietty: It's amazing. Also I didn't know you were able to drive Eli.

Eli: J.D. taught me and also it's fun.

Laney: Luan are you doing all right back there?

Eddy was driving Luan's car for her. She was in a lot of thought and had tears rolling down her face.

Eddy: Luan it's all right.

Luan: I hope so Eddy.

We arrived at Turbo's restaurant Starlight Plaza.

Luminous: So this is where Turbo lives, huh?

Nico: Yep. Starlight Plaza.

Eli: Wow what a restaurant.

Nick F.: Wow! Reminds me of an awesome restaurant that I know in Pittsburgh.

Lori Jimenez: Wow that is cool.

Me: And I love racing theme restaurants. The food is good.

Our stomachs then growled.

Me: Whoa. Getting hungry.

Nico: Lets go see Turbo and get some grub.

We went into the restaurant and sat down. Turbo then arrived.

Chalmers: Hey there, Turbo! Long time no see.

Turbo: Hey guys! Wow! Awesome seeing you all here.

Nico: Glad to see you again. We came to help you out.

Eli: We owe you big time for helping us in the war with Grandfather.

Turbo: Aw it was nothing. You guys here for the big race?

Nico: The Indianapolis 500? You bet we are! We have our cars with us so we can participate ourselves.

Turbo: Awesome! You guys always have fun in great races.

Me: Yeah we sure do. First we're gonna get some grub here. This restaurant looks awesome.

Rainbow Dash: Yeah it sure does!

Later, Turbo was sitting with us as we were eating.

Turbo: So did you guys kill Grandfather?

Buddy Pine: We did. But he had a lot more back up then Senior Citizombies.

Nico: Everyone all over the universe was helping us. Including the Kids Next Door from all over the world.

Turbo: Cool!

We were eating burgers, chicken wings and even sandwiches.

Me: (Eating chicken wings with Carolina Reaper Sauce) Mmm! Wow these wings are delicious.

Eli: (Eating a chicken sandwich) Delicious.

Arrietty: Wow the food is delicious.

Starlight Glimmer: So is the pistachio milkshakes.

Turbo: The food is delicious.

Turbo saw Luan down.

Turbo: What's wrong Luan?

Me: She's learning a very hard lesson. Oh. Speaking of which, Luan your reason for cheating at Lynn's game was totally justified.

Luan: How so?

Me: I know the reason why Lynn's team was being overpowered.

I opened a scroll and unsealed a robot that looked like one of the baseball players and we gasped in shock!

Nico: Whoa.

Eli: Is that a robot?

Me: Yep.

Abis Mal: I didn't know one of the baseball players was a robot.

Me: It's not just this one. ALL the baseball players were. I found out that the coach was cheating the entire time with an all robot baseball team. He was using these robotic baseball players to annihilate the competition and overpower the other team by any means necessary. These robots have super speed, strength, agility and all the plays in baseball programmed into them.

Nico: WHOA! So that's how Lynn was being beaten so mercilessly.

Me: Yep.

Eli: I knew something fishy was happening. The Force told me that something wasn't right with the players. But I didn't want to ruin the game.

Lynn: So my team basically wins by default because of it.

Me: Yep. After you won I exposed the coach of the other team and he was arrested. I wanted to show you guys this but you were too busy reprimanding Luan.

Nico: Now I see why Luan did what she did.

Lori: We're literally sorry Luan.

Turbo: Okay, I'm a little lost. Can someone explain to me what's going on?

Skalor: Sorry. So you understand everything, we'll have to tell you what happened this morning after J.D. and Lincoln's recent rescues.

We told him everything and Turbo was shocked!

Turbo: Whoa man! So Luan's reason for helping Lynn was totally justified.

Me: Yep. Luan had a very good reason to blind the pitcher for the other team with a flash of light. I knew something was up when we came to the baseball game.

Nico: Wow! Well done colonel. Your suspicions were spot on.

Me: Thanks Commander.

Ben: Boy this is a big case of déjà-vu.

Gwen T.: It sure does bring back some memories.

Nico: This happened to you before?

Ben: It sure did.

He told us what happened when the Forever Knights did the same thing with a robot named Coach Finn.

---

Coach Finn was the head coach of the Squires, an all-robot baseball team that was manufactured by the Forever Knights as part of a plot to kidnap the President and replace him with a robot look-alike under their control. It was destroyed by Ben.

The episode begins at a carnival where Ben plays a game, but he loses. Frustrated, Ben wants to transform into an alien form to win. Just then, two criminals on a giant truck drive straight towards Ben.

Max arrives, grabs Ben and pushes him out of the way. The thieves have the Liberty Bell on their truck and Ben tries to transform into XLR8 to stop them, but he transforms into Grey Matter instead and launches onto the truck. Grey Matter starts to take apart the engine, but the truck crashes and launches Grey Matter in a jar of jellybeans for a contest. Grey Matter easily wins and receives a music player. As Ben listened to his music player, Gwen is appalled that Ben cheated with Grey Matter. Max tells Ben that his baseball team from Bellwood is in the Little League World Series and Ben wants to go and Max agrees. They arrive into Philadelphia and are scanned by security. Max says that the President will be appearing and Ben goes off to greet him, but he is stopped by his bullies Cash and J.T. The other team called the Squires arrive and practice with amazing skills. Later, the Cannons and the Squires are playing a game. If the Cannons lose the game, they lose the series. Gwen looks up the Squires with her computer and discovers that they are better than any team in any league in history. Ben secretly transforms into XLR8 to help out the Cannons and humiliate Cash and J.T. After the game has been completed, Ben sees Cash and J.T. getting kidnapped by the Squires.

Ben tries to transform into an alien form, but the Omnitrix is timed out and has to recharge. The Squires knock out Cash and J.T. and take them away. In the Rust Bucket, Gwen slows down footage of the game from a camera to see XLR8. The Squires bring Cash and J.T. to a large building and Ben follows and sneaks in. They tie Cash and J.T. down and create robot duplicates of them. Ben realizes that the Squires are robots as well and Max and Gwen arrive, but they are unable to enter. The coach tells the Squires to dispose of J.T., Cash, and Ben. They attack Ben with super-fast baseballs and bats. After the Omnitrix recharges, Ben transforms into Diamondhead and he fights the Squires and destroys the Cash and J.T. robots. Max and Gwen climb in and free J.T. and Cash. Gwen sees a scan of the President and the Squires leave and lock the group in, setting their machine to explode.

Diamondhead uses the remaining robots to open the door and the building explodes before Ben exits out of it. At the game, Ben joins the Cannons and the Squires ready their robot president while J.T. and Cash have to stay in the Rustbucket. While pretending to be Cash, Ben goes to bat. Ben then hits a ball, runs to second base and transforms into Four Arms to secure a safe. The Squires transform into robots and attack Four Arms and the President. Max and Gwen save the President, but Coach Finn arrives and knocks them out. Four Arms arrives and destroys the robot President. He then battles the robots with a giant bat, but Coach Finn transforms into a robot and attacks. Four Arms defeats him and reverts into Ben, but Coach Finn comes back to life and Ben destroys him for good. Later, the President thanks Cash, the person who he thinks saved his life. Ben is angry that he isn't getting credit for what he did and transforms into XLR8 again. After XLR8 hangs J.T. and Cash from a building, Enoch arrives at the scene of the destroyed robots and vows revenge on the Tennysons.

When he was finished we were shocked!

Nico: Whoa! Major league coincidence.

Laney: No kidding.

Eli: Yeah.

Max Tennyson: This is a big time coincidence and we made sure these robots were destroyed.

Rhomboid: Wait. You don't think these robots are the same ones, do you?

Octagon: Boid, that really is a definitive possibility.

Lisa Loud: Your theory is very much 100% accurate. Based on scientific and technological, analysis these robots are indeed the very same robots that were built by the Forever Knights.

Ben: I had a feeling it was them.

Nico: The coach of the other team wanted to win by any means necessary.

Me: Yep. Now instead of going to the championship, he is in prison.

Eli: Good riddance.

Luan: J.D.?

Luan then hugged me.

Luan: Thanks for believing me.

Me: You're welcome Luan.

Eddy: You're a great friend J.D. Thanks for believing in my girlfriend.

Me: Well I just went with my gut and feelings.

Scavenger: Honestly, when you think about it, cheating is still wrong.

Lynn: That's right! Cheaters never prosper.

Naruto: No they don't Lynn. The Evil Sasuke's that we faced ALL cheated and they wanted everything done easy for them.

Sakura Haruno: That's right Naruto. Ninjas may lie and cheat as Deception is one of our key weapons in battle. But we never do all that when it comes to every day life and education.

Me: That's a fact.

Eli: You said it.

Luan: Oh Lynn I'm sorry I helped your team.

Lynn: It's all right Luan. You were totally justified in helping my team win and J.D. really backed you up on that.

Turbo: Before we continue, let's wait for my friends.

Pete: That's probably a good idea.

Nico: Okay.

Out came Turbo's friends: Chet, Whiplash, Tito Lopez, Angelo Lopez, Smooth Move, Burn, Skidmark and White Shadow.

Chet: Hey bro! Wow so this is the Team Loud Phoenix Storm you told us about.

Turbo: Yep the very same. Guys these are my friends. This is my brother Chet and my friends Whiplash, Tito, Angelo, Smooth Move, Burn, Skidmark and White Shadow.

Burn: Sup guys.

Smooth Move: Yo.

White Shadow: Pleasure.

Whiplash (Turbo): Nice to meet ya.

Tito Lopez: Awesome meeting you guys.

Nico: Pleasure is ours.

Alice Gehabach: It's really nice to meet you guys.

Hydranoid: Turbo's informed us about all of you.

Chet: It's awesome meeting you all.

Angelo Lopez: We love all your adventures on TV.

Me: We get that all the time.

Nico: But we do what we can to keep everyone safe.

Turbo: Luan, you wanna talk about cheating? Let me tell you about one of my opponents in the race.

Wiggum: Guy Gagné, right?

Turbo: That's right. How did you know?

Nico: We watched your movie earlier before we came here. Awesome.

Turbo: Glad you guys like it. But right Guy Gagné. Let me tell you all about him.

He went over his history.

---

Guy Gagné (pronounced GEE gahn-yei) is the main antagonist of DreamWorks' 27th full-length animated feature film Turbo and a minor antagonist of the television series Turbo Fast. He is the archenemy and former idol of Turbo the Snail.

He was voiced by Bill Hader, who also played King Leonard

Mudbeard in The Angry Birds Movie and Angry Birds 2, and Hansel in Hoodwinked Too! Hood vs. Evil.

Guy Gagné was shown being watched on an old garage TV showing a recording of the Indy 500 by Theo (soon known as Turbo); he is shown again in another recording, though it got cut off halfway this time when Turbo had the TV broken by accidentally pushing it to fall off. When Turbo attempted to retrieve a fallen tomato from getting it crushed, Gagné appeared as a figment of the snail's imagination as Turbo reimagined the ordeal as a race.

Gagné did not physically made his appearance until the moment Turbo showed up for the Indy 500; at the time, Gagné was racing a lap and gets interviewed by reporters. A taco man named Tito later introduced Turbo after the latter dragged him to Guy Gagné, much to the racer and the crowd's confusion. However when Turbo shows off his speed and astounding the audience by qualifying for the race via achieving a speed of 226 mph, Guy Gagné was stunned at the snail's ability and later gave Turbo a chance by stirring the crowd when the latter was initially refused entry into the race by the CEO. The snail later sneaks into the storage for Gagné's race car and his trophies, only for Turbo to meet Gagné himself; Turbo them tells the famed racer that he believes in him. However, Gagné reveals his true colors when he tells our hero that dreamers have to wake up and plots to take out Turbo in the Indy 500.

In the final lap of the race as Turbo, though initially struggling in the first one, managed to be in the lead, Gagné (desperate to overtake him) inadvertently causes a crash that snares most of the competitors, including Turbo, who wakes to find his shell punctured and his speed gone. As Turbo resumes the race with the support from Chet, Gagné single-mindedly pursues him, dragging his wrecked car while attempting to step on the snail and crush him, though Turbo eventually wins narrowly and Gagné is disqualified for cheating before getting beaten up by Kim Ly for trying to kill Turbo.

The rest of Guy Gagné's fate was unclear, but the news paper showed him now as the former champion, shamed and being forced to face many Indy Car sanctions, costing him his fame and most likely his car.

Turbo: F.A.S.T.

Guy Gagné returned in the episode, The Snailman. In that episode, many animals will race, including villains. Guy Gagné joined and he will race like a snail by having a machine shell on his back and he will put slime on his belly and slide with it. During the race, all of the villains are competitive to Turbo. Later, Turbo told all the villains that Guy Gagné is the one that should be outcompeted, so they attacked him and Turbo wins.

---

When he was done Luan gasped.

Luan: Whoa man! He was a big time true cheater!

Nico: No kidding. But thank goodness he got what was coming to him.

Eli: And I have a feeling he will do so again.

Luan: So, if I keep on cheating, I'll become just like him?

Tania: Exactly our point.

Valon: (Australian Accent) That's right mate. But you have a good heart in you and we know you would never cheat.

Laney: That's right Luan. You are a good sister, a great comedian even though we don't always laugh at your jokes, and you are a great friend to Maggie and everyone.

Me: There's no Cheating your way out of that. (Laughs)

Luan and everyone laughed.

Luan: (Laughs) Good one J.D.

Lynn Sr.: (Laughs) That was a good one.

Private H.I.V.E.: Luan, you may have cheated but unlike Guy, you won't be court martialed for it.

Me: That's right because your reason for cheating was justified.

Nico: That's right. Your suspicions with the other team were just as powerful as J.D.'s suspicions were. You had the right feeling. But next time don't cheat and tell us what you think is going on with something the next time you think something is going on.

Luan: I will.

Muscle Man: Hey, guys. You know who else thinks cheating's bad?

Laserbeak: (laughs) I know the answer to this one!

Muscle Man: My mom!

We laughed at his joke.

Turbo: I don't get it.

Me: We don't either but his jokes are funny.

Rena: They sure are funny.

Control Freak: Any chance I can use a video game boss in this race?

Nicole: I think I have just the one for a race.

Nicole whispered into his ear.

Control Freak: That's a good one.

Later we were finished eating.

Beastbox: Man, that food was good!

Me: You said it.

Nico: Man I'm stuffed.

Rainbow Dash: Me too. That was awesome.

Eli: Great meal.

Nico: Turbo already knows our Usual Battles but the rest of you don't. Shall we show you all our usual battles?

Chet: We saw you all do them on TV but never in person.

Tito Lopez: It'll be cool to see them in action.

?: Mind if I watch with you guys?

We turned and gasped as we couldn't believe who we saw! We saw famous Indy 500 Racing Champion, Danica Patrick!

Me: WHOA! Danica Patrick!

Eli: Wow! It's an honor to meet you!

Danica Patrick: It's awesome meeting you all. I love all your adventures.

Me: It's awesome meeting you in person.

Maria called the Masters of Evil for the Usual Battles.

Cargill: You here to help take down that sorry excuse for a racer?

Danica Patrick: And restore the rightful glory of the Indy 500.

Me: Awesome!

Nico: We greatly appreciate it. Guy Gag-Me-With-A-Spoon is a disgrace to all racers everywhere.

We laughed at Nico's joke.

Lori: (Laughs) That was literally hilarious!

Webstor, Angel, Red Ghost, Skalamander, Steam Smythe, Black Adam, Robo Roxy, Gizmo, Girder, and Black Manta then appeared.

Nico: Webstor, Angel, Red Ghost, Skalamander, Steam Smythe, Black Adam, Robo Roxy, Gizmo, Girder, and Black Manta.

Webstor: We saw your cars outside.

Me: Yep we all took our cares here.

Angel: Getting ready to race?

Maria: Damn right we are!

Red Ghost: Now that's what we want to hear.

Skalamander: (to me) Heard you went to somewhere with ice this morning.

Me: Well actually it came to us.

Steam Smythe: I hope you weren't too cold.

Me: It was blistering cold and there were these tornadoes made entirely out of snow and ice. It was really freaky seeing them.

Media: No kidding. It was cold and scary.

Laney: No kidding. I wonder how tornadoes made of snow form like that.

Me: It has to be something supernatural like that.

Nico: I think so too.

Vypra and Bluto then came out.

Vypra: I have a new member for us to have Media test herself out on.

A figure came out and it was the Corvicon, JACKNAB!

---

Jacknab is a Corvicon and the brother of Boostwing and Pilfer in Transformers: Robots in Disguise .

Jacknab arrived in Crown City with his brothers and hatched a plan to steal all the gold from the Crown City Gold Depository. He and Pilfer threw off the Bee Team's trail by making it appear Boostwing traveled at impossible speeds.

After Boostwing got taken into custody, Strongarm pondered over the fact that he could be in multiple places at the same time and realized that he'd had to have partners and that the Crown City Gold Depository would be where they would find "the brightest shinies on the planet". She found Jacknab there stealing tons of gold, and she tried to catch him, only for the third brother, Pilfer to show up.

The two brothers overwhelmed Strongarm and subdued her. Jacknab prepared to harvest her optics as trophies to give to Boostwing as soon as they bust the latter out, but when the rest of the Bee Team arrived to foil his plans. Strongarm knocked both of them out with a net of heavy gold. Defeated shortly thereafter, Jacknab found himself cuffed to Pilfer and advised they had the right to run in silent mode.

Jacknab's stasis pod was later brought back to Cybertron aboard Prime Force One by Optimus Prime and Drift.

---

Nico: Jacknab of the Corvicons!

Jacknab: An honor to meet you Nico. I heard so much about you.

Nico: It's mutual. I guess the RID Decepticons are now part of the Masters of Evil.

Vypra: We're still deciding on that. It's not gonna be official until after August 28th.

Nico: Ah a work in progress.

?: Lots of things coming.

A figure came out and it was VINE MONSTER from episode 35 of S.P.D.!

---

The Vine Monster is a vine-themed criminal and is one of the monsters that Mora draws for Emperor Gruumm to attack Earth in the year 2004. The Vine Monster, along with the Green Monster and the Spotty-Eyed Monster, is part of an invasion led by Zeltrax against the combined Dino Thunder and S.P.D. Power Rangers.

He was created by Mora. He was sent to aid Gruumm in his conquest of Earth in 2004. He was led by Zeltrax and fought the rangers. He was defeated by Jack and Conner using their Battlizers (Battlizer Sonic Mode and Battlizer Cannon) formed from Battlizer Cyber Mode and Triassic Ranger respectively

---

Jack Landors: Vine Monster!

Vine Monster: Been a while Ranger.

Me: I remember you! You were made by Mora to be part of an invasion in the year 2004.

Vine Monster: That's right. Good memory on you.

Me: Never missed an episode.

Vypra: I told you he was that sharp.

Vine Monster: And I believe you Mistress.

Vine Monster saw Connor McKnight.

Vine Monster: (to Connor) I remember you! You and the Red Ranger used your Battlizers to fight me before.

Connor McKnight: That's right.

Me: I remember seeing that on TV. That was an epic teamup.

Nico: Boy it sure was.

Eli: I thought it was cool.

Me: Yeah.

?: I will kill you all for destroying Sasori!

Suddenly, Suddenly, the eight large planets and stars orbing around my legs, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs, the eight large crimson red orbs orbiting around Naruto's legs, and the eight large black orbs with the Eye of Horus orbiting around Cody (OC)'s legs were glowing, and that means big trouble.

Me: Oh great, I was hoping that I wouldn't have to hear the fucked up voice of that lunatic again. It's been a long time since I last killed you, Deidara.

A figure came out of the shadows, and it was none other than Deidara, The Mad Bomber, and another member of The Akatsuki, who's returned from the dead.

Naruto: Oh man, not that mad-bombing lunatic again.

Kurotsuchi: Deidara, I should've known you'd return, you traitor. You shouldn't have returned from the dead, you lunatic.

Twilight Sparkle: Lincoln, do you guys know more about this man?

Lincoln: I'm afraid we do, Twilight. That man is Deidara, he's known as The Mad Bomber from The Hidden Rock Village, and like Sasori, he's a member of The Akatsuki. Let me tell you guys about him, and trust me, he's extremely crazy and twisted.

Lincoln proceeded to tell The Mane 9 and the new recruits about Deidara, and like Lincoln said, he's twisted and crazy.

---

Deidara

Deidara (デイダラ, Deidara) was an S-rank missing-nin from Iwagakure. During his time in the village, he was a member of the Explosion Corps. After defecting from the village, he was forced into Akatsuki and was its youngest member. There, Deidara was partnered with Sasori until the latter's death, and later with Tobi before his own death.

Background

During his time as an Iwagakure shinobi, Deidara came to be a pupil under Ōnoki the Third Tsuchikage, and became familiarised with his fighting style. He possessed the Explosion Release kekkei genkai which he used as a member of the Explosion Corps. Though praised highly for his clay sculptures, Deidara's desire to reach even greater heights in his art resulted with him stealing one of his village's kinjutsu that allows one to knead their chakra into substances. Using explosive clay to take out his pursuers, Deidara found the art he had desired: the Art of a Single Moment (一瞬の芸術, Isshun no Geijutsu). Remembering the first moment whenever he detonated his explosive clay, he recalls the process that allowed him to reach this art. Since then, Deidara became a missing-nin and offered his services as a bomber to insurgents in various countries.

Deidara's exploits eventually caught the attention of Akatsuki, and Itachi Uchiha, Kisame Hoshigaki, and Sasori were sent to recruit him. Deidara refused at first until he accepts a challenge from Itachi on the condition that Akatsuki let him be if he won. However, Deidara was easily defeated by Itachi's Sharingan and begrudgingly joined the organisation where he was partnered with Sasori. In the anime, Sasori and Deidara were immediately tasked with eliminating Orochimaru for betraying the organisation. Upon arriving in the Land of Wind and witnessing the Summoning: Impure World Reincarnation by Orochimaru, the Sannin retreated after his technique proved incomplete. After Deidara attempted to kill him by blowing up his base, Deidara and Sasori searched the ruins but were unable to confirm his death as they didn't find his corpse. At some point afterwards, Deidara returned to Iwagakure and left it in destruction after detonating a bomb within the village, as he flew away.

With his ego crushed from his defeat at the hands of Itachi's dōjutsu, Deidara carried a murderous loathing for Itachi and his Sharingan for the rest of his life. Acknowledging that Itachi was a more powerful opponent, Deidara took steps during his time with Akatsuki to ensure he could get revenge on Itachi, such as training his left eye to counter genjutsu, and devising the means to create C4.

Personality

During his partnership with Sasori, Deidara usually showed a cool, and relaxed attitude, never losing his smirk even while fighting an intense battle or when being blamed by his partner. However, his personality seemed to change to some extent after being partnered with Tobi, as he would easily get mad at his partner's childish and sometimes disrespectful behaviour. He also had something of a sadistic arsonist nature, rather he was not above enjoying a good fight, and he often blew up his opponents in a very brutal fashion. Deidara's most distinctive trait, however, was his love of art. He would respect any form of it, even if it disagreed with his own. Deidara also had a habit of ending his sentences with nasal-like grunts (… うん,… un), roughly translated as "yeah" or "hm". The latter of which is used in the VIZ version. Deidara also seemed to respect the ideals of others as he allowed Gaara to move the sand he used to protect his village into the desert before kidnapping him, even going so far as to admiringly call him noble.

Deidara referred to his explosive ninjutsu as art, usually quoting "Art is an Explosion!" (芸術は爆発だ, Geijutsu wa Bakuhatsu da) and seeing each bomb he made to be a significant accomplishment. He referred to his style as superflat (referring to certain types of art), and claimed pop (another art style) is dead.[10] He would often boast about his works of art, even towards his opponents in battle. Deidara's pride as an artist makes him simply unwilling to accept that anything could defeat it, leading to his abandonment of strategy during his battle with Sasuke Uchiha, in favour of tactics that let him show off his art. He was able to recognise stronger opponents like Itachi, although he felt that the Sharingan was inartistic, and despised the fact that he had been enthralled by its genjutsu.

Deidara referred to his partner Sasori as Master Sasori (サソリの旦那, Sasori no Danna, English TV: Sasori, my man), out of respect for him as a fellow artist. He also admitted, at least outwardly, that Sasori was more powerful than he was. In spite of this, Deidara wasn't above goading his partner, and they frequently argued over the nature of true art (Deidara holding that art is what lasts within a moment while Sasori believing fine art is something that lasts for all time). This reflected their individual fighting styles (Deidara made clay sculptures that exploded; Sasori made long-lasting puppets out of humans). Deidara outwardly seemed to respect Sasori's beliefs, but couldn't resist getting a final jab in after Sasori's death.

Deidara's partnership with his second partner, Tobi, however, was very different. Tobi apparently held great respect for Deidara, and frequently called him "senpai" (先輩, senior). The idiotic front Tobi put up greatly irritated Deidara, who believed that all Akatsuki members should be calm, talking less and acting serious. This in turn results in Tobi unintentionally angering Deidara to attack him in a comedic fashion (e.g. blasting him with his explosive clay or strangling him with his legs). But in battle, Deidara puts his issues with Tobi aside to work well with him, telling him to get away when he was about to do a more dangerous attack. Deidara also seemed to have a minor sense of appreciation for Tobi, as shown when he apologised to his partner in his thoughts before he initiated his self-destruction technique.

Appearance

Deidara had slanted blue eyes and long golden blond hair which he wore drawn into a half ponytail with the rest hanging down freely. The bang hanging over his left eye is what concealed his eye scope signifying that he was a long-range fighter, but as shown in his fight with Sasuke, it was not permanently attached to his face. After casting the Iwagakure Kinjutsu on himself, he developed a mouth on both of his palms, and on the left side of his chest he had a large, stitched-up mouth. He used this kinjutsu to supplement his Explosive Release to his clay. Before joining Akatsuki, Deidara wore a blue and grey kimono jacket with a fishnet under-shirt inside and khaki pants with sandals and a belt-like pouch with a chain. His blond hair was also tied into a lower ponytail and an Iwa forehead protector. After joining Akatsuki, he wore their signature cloak, navy blue pants with matching shinobi sandals, and an Akatsuki ring on his right index finger, which bore the kanji for "blue or green" (青, ao) and was teal in colour. He also wore black nail polish on his fingers and toes. Under his cloak, he wore a V-neck, sleeveless, midriff shirt with mesh armour underneath it along with pants, stirrups, and sandals. He also wore a utility belt with two bags on either side, which he used to carry his clay.

Because of a certain turn of events, Deidara suffered damage to his arms. Deidara had his left arm crushed by Gaara's sand, and the elbow of his right arm was blown into another dimension by Kakashi's Kamui. Deidara had his arms restored by having Kakuzu sew what was left of his arms with what appears to be a transplanted arm. His transplant was dark brown and had several wrinkles on it.

After Kabuto reincarnated him, Deidara displayed the black sclerae and darker irides seen in other reincarnated shinobi, due to the talisman placed into his head. Deidara no longer wore his forehead protector resulting in his hair being looser, although it was still kept tied into a ponytail. In place of his previous clothing, Deidara, like the other reincarnated Akatsuki members, wore a red cloak with white lining. During the anime-exclusive Power arc, he originally wore a black robe with red lining before wearing the red cloak for the remaining of his servitude under Kabuto before and during the Fourth Shinobi World War.

Abilities

Deidara was a very powerful S-rank missing-nin whose abilities earned him recognition within Akatsuki. Even the organisation's leader, Pain, praised Deidara's abilities, openly admitting that he was something unique, and that his loss was a major blow to the group. Deidara was able to single-handedly defeat Gaara (Shukaku's jinchūriki and the Fifth Kazekage), and Isobu, despite fighting the both of them in their home territories. He also fought on equal grounds with Sasuke Uchiha, an Uchiha clan prodigy, despite his techniques being at an elemental disadvantage against those of Sasuke.

Intelligence

One of Deidara's strong points was his intelligence, often using tricks, misdirection, and calculated gambles to get his explosives in range of an opponent. He demonstrated these skills in his fight with Gaara, putting clay into Gaara's sand as it destroyed his arm. During his battle against Sasuke, he managed to trick him on a few occasions, such as trapping him between his C2 dragon in the sky and the landmines buried underneath the ground by Tobi, and again when he lured him into his C4 attack at point-blank. In the anime, Deidara managed to deduce a workaround to his weakness to Lightning Release by using a sword as a makeshift ground rod to siphon off the lightning-based attacks his explosive clay was weak against.

Ninjutsu

Deidara had shown some skill with the Shadow Clone Technique, incorporating it into some of his techniques, such as the Suicide Bombing Clone. Deidara was also able to weave one-hand signs.

Nature Transformation and Explosive Clay

Deidara possessed the Explosion Release kekkei genkai. This allowed him - by simultaneously using earth and lightning chakra natures - to give his chakra explosive qualities. Deidara also possessed a special mouth on each palm and on the left side of his chest as a result of stealing and using a powerful kinjutsu from his village on himself. By commonly using these two special abilities in unison, he could create explosive clay: clay infused with his explosive chakra that detonated with the command Katsu (喝) and the seal of confrontation. This clay could be moulded into a wide variety of shapes and forms, growing to large sizes when infused with chakra (with Deidara performing the necessary hand seals), and could be controlled at will. This allowed him to create living explosives to attack opponents at long-range.

Deidara could even create clones from the clay and can detonate them, which will make for a deadly surprise attack, and if need be, create clay minions to control with a cord from a distance. Deidara's clay creations range from microscopic to gigantic in size, allowing him to adapt to any situation from creating dragons to shoot smaller clay bombs, to working in conjunction with Obito to lay explosive clay landmines under ground to limit the opponent's movements. As an ultimate last resort, Deidara could turn himself into a bomb by devouring explosive clay that has a large blast radius in which he calls his "Ultimate Art". Deidara could also use the clay for other purposes, as he was frequently seen creating birds to be used for transportation, which also functioned as a way to easily infiltrate villages on missions. It seemed he also knew standard earth-based techniques, as shown from his Earth Release: Hiding Like a Mole Technique, which he used to avoid damage from one of his mass-scale bombs. Since all of his explosives were earth-based, they were vulnerable to lightning, and most could thereby be defused with lightning-based attacks.

* * *

When Lincoln was finished, The Mane 9 and all the new recruits were horrified by what Deidara has done.

Rarity: My word, that man is a terrorist to the 10,000,000th power!

Applejack: And to claim that causing destruction is art, that's just pure evil!

Ace Bunny: You really are nothing but pure evil, Deidara, and I can't wait to run my blade right through your black heart.

Kurotsuchi: No, Ace, leave him to me. I've had just about enough of this traitor to last an eternity.

Suddenly, Kurotsuchi's black eyes turned neon orange, and she was surrounded by a red aura with lava, and as she approached Deidara, she was leaving behind lava footsteps.

Kurotsuchi: Deidara, I will never forgive you for what you did. You betrayed our village and joined up with The Akatsuki to destroy the world. Now, I will make sure that you never rise again! After everything you did, you are dead to me, brother.

Suddenly, Kurotsuchi was surrounded by a massive vortex of red energy and lava, and it was accompanied by phoenixes flying around the vortex, a ring of fire around the vortex, and a glowing red phoenix inside the vortex. Then, as the vortex faded, Kurotsuchi emerged, but she was changed forever.

(IMPERATRIX MUNDI PLAYS AT 1:45 TO 2:14)

Kurotsuchi was now taller at 5'11 in height, and she had the body of a goddess, her black hair had gotten longer, reaching down to the bottom of her neck, and it was tied in a ponytail, she had neon orange eyes, a neon red energy aura surrounding her, along with flames. She had a pair of volcano earrings with the Lava Kanji on it, and a Lava Kanji necklace on around her neck. She has a volcano with lava spewing out, and a phoenix coming out of the volcano emblazoned on her forehead, and she had on a red sleeveless trenchcoat with the symbol of The Hidden Rock Village on the back, and the sleeveless trenchcoat had volcanoes on it, along with lava, she has on a red blouse with an orange phoenix on it, a red skirt, red leather combat boots, she has on her own Bracelets of The Champions of The Universe on her wrists, but the gems on them are crimson red, she also has on her Belt of Elemental Bravery with a large red gem for the belt buckle, and an Eater of Sins revolver holstered on her right hip. She had large red angel wings with lava dripping from the red feathers on her back, and she had a new sword in her hand called The Volcanic Sword of The Hidden Rock Village, it's a sword with the symbol of the Hidden Rock Village etched on the 6'5" massive, wide, double-edged blade, and it has a dark substance on it resembling hardened lava, large red phoenix wings for the crossguard, a large red gem for the hilt, a long black handle, and a large red sphere pommel with surrounding orange gems. On the back of the sleeveless trench coat below the symbol of The Hidden Rock Village was a kanji that said, "Kurotsuchi, Master of Lava, Emissary of Volcanoes, Loyal Kunoichi of The Hidden Rock Village, Granddaughter of Ōnoki the Third Tsuchikage, Future Fourth Tsuchikage and Amazing Member of Team Loud Phoenix Storm."

Princess Celestia: She is a really gifted artist and she has the power to turn anything into stone with just a glare.

Amber Morning cooed in agreement and made a glare with her eyes.

Minuette: It's really cool how she can do that.

Twinkleshine: Before the game this morning we saw her turn an evil criminal out to destroy the city to stone and then J.D. shattered him into a million pieces.

Lemon Hearts: That was so cool!

Moondancer: The guy had it coming.

Lyra Heartstrings: What he was doing was horrible.

Spotlight: But thank goodness that we stopped him.

Light Lily nodded.

Dino Arch: Thank goodness he was brought down.

Tyler: And we kicked his butt.

Amy: Yeah!

Nico teleported and opened the safe and in it was a bunch of swords.

Nico: These swords look cool.

Vine Monster: Yep they are called The Sword of Suzaku and the Swords of The Avengers.

The Sword of Suzaku - it's a legendary sword with a lightning phoenix etched on the 6'0" massive, double-edged wide blade, purple phoenix wings for the crossguard of the sword, a large purple gem for the hilt, a long black handle, and a large purple sphere pommel with surrounding light purple gems, and only Mollie can wield this blade. Once she gets this blade, she'll get a massive power and energy increase, along with large purple angel wings surging with powerful super lightning, her own Bracelets of The Champions of The Universe on her wrists, her own Belt of Elemental Harmony with a large purple gem for the belt buckle, and a Eater of Sins revolver holstered on her right hip.

The Swords of The Avengers - they're a collection of swords with the symbols of the Avengers etched on the 6'0" massive, double-edged wide blades, long black handles, and the angel wings crossguards, large gems for the hilts, and the large sphere pommels with surrounding gems around the pommels will match the colors of The Avengers. Once in hand, The Avengers will get a massive power and energy increase.

Nico: Cool! Mollie and the Avengers will love these.

Battle 15: Kurotsuchi VS Deidara

---

Kurotsuchi was facing her former best friend and so-called brother.

Kurotsuchi: I will never forgive you for everything you've done.

Kurotsuchi went after Deidara, who sent explosive clay creatures after her, but she fired powerful blasts of lightning, which disabled the C-4 bombs, and she fired powerful blasts of lava, fire, and orange energy blasts at Deidara, which hits and burns him severely, as he suffered from third-degree burns. Then, she sliced off Deidara's arms with her new sword, and Deidara screamed in excruciating pain from having his arms sliced off, and the bloody stumps of his arms were gushing out blood like a fountain. Deidara was on his last legs, and Kurotsuchi snatched his supply of C-4 explosive clay, which can be put to use in our hands.

Kurotsuchi: This is the end for you, Mad Bomber of The Akatsuki, may you never return from the dead. VOLCANO STYLE NINJA ART: LAVA PHOENIX RASENSHURIKEN!

Kurotsuchi made a massive Rasenshuriken made of pure lava with a phoenix orbiting around the core, which was made of lava, and it had some Super Hakai energy infused into it, as some of the lava was glowing purple. Kurotsuchi threw the Lava Rasenshuriken, and once it hits Deidara, it explodes with incredible power, killing him in a second, and it Super Hakaied Deidara forever.

Kurotsuchi powered down and her eyes turned pink again, but her new outfit, body, jewelry, and weapons were permanent. She looked on at the remains of Deidara, as his ashes were carried away by the winds, and The Mad Bomber of The Akatsuki was no more.

Kurotsuchi: Goodbye forever, traitor.

---

We regrouped and everyone cheered for us.

Nico: YEAH!

Chow: Now that the usual battles are out of the way, it's time to race!

Nico: Lets get in our cars everyone!

Lynn: Lets do it!

We got in our cars and went to the track. We arrived at the race track and we zoomed onto it as the race began and we were following Turbo. Many of us had our Duel Runners with us.

Kalin was in his Duel Runner as he rode alongside Turbo.

Kalin: So far so good!

Nico: Keep your eyes peeled for Guy. If he makes a move, blast him.

Me: Yes sir!

Carly Atlas: This is gonna be good.

Then we saw Guy's red car zooming up fast.

Guy Gagné: I'm gonna kill you for beating me, Turbo!

Turbo: Kinda knew you would try something like this.

Guy Gagné pulled up to Turbo.

A massive fiery explosion blasted in front of Guy's car and a phoenix cry was heard and then the spirits of gangsters, criminals and infamous people swirled around the explosion and they converged and we appeared.

Me: Not this time! Slicer Missile FIRE!

Luan: It ends right here, right now for you Guy. Your cheating ways are over and you will never be welcome in the world of racing ever again.

Suddenly a massive flash of light exploded out of Luan and she was envelopted in a vortex of light and rainbow energy and it formed into a fairy in the Sun. When it faded Luan was forever changed!

(IMPERATRIX MUNDI PLAYS AT 1:45 TO 2:14)

Luan looked like she was 21 years old and had the body of a goddess. She had longer brown hair in a ponytail that went down to her lower back and it had rainbow highlights. She had a fairy in the sun emblazoned in the middle of her forehead and she had earrings in the shape of the kanji for light on and she had yellow lipstick on. She didn't have her braces anymore and she now had perfect and beautiful teeth. She had a yellow shirt with flowers, fairies, rainbows and creatures of light on it and she had a yellow plaid skirt with rainbow lines on it and she had rainbow camoflage pants and she had yellow combat boots. She also had a yellow sleeveless trench coat with rainbows, light and fairies on it and her angel wings had rainbow light shining from the tips of the feathers. On the back of the trench coat written in rainbow light was the kanji for "Luan Loud, Champion of Sulis the Goddess of The Sun, Emissary of Light, Great Comedian and Prankster, Master of Jokes and Mischief, A Great Sister and Guiding Light of Laughter and Fun."

ルアンラウド、太陽の女神スリスのチャンピオン、光の使者、偉大なコメディアンといたずら、ジョークといたずらのマスター、偉大な姉妹と笑いと楽しさの導きの光。

She also had a rainbow light aura and had solar flares swirling around her. She had become a SUPER ANGEL 500,000,000,000 SOLAR RAINBOW FLARE!

We were amazed at Luan's new transformation!

Me: WHOA! Luan you look awesome!

Nico: WOW! Luan looks great!

Eddy: Amazing! Wow! Luan how do you feel?

Luan: (Divine Echoing Light Voice) I feel amazing Eddy. This power is going to make sure that Guy pays for his crimes.

Nico: It's buttkicking time!

Guy: First, let me show you my Pit Crew. Chromites, come on out!

An army of Chromites appeared.

T.J.: Chromites!

Me: I remember these guys! They were tough!

Laney: Lets get them guys!

Luan: Let me take care of a few of them.

Luan fired a massive blast of light and obliterated many Chromites in an instant.

Nico: Lets get them!

We went at the Chromites and pulverized and blasted them all over the place.

Turbo, T.J. Johnson, Key, Margo, Sonic, and the Broodals smashed and pulverized the Chromites all over with incredible speed.

Sonic: You guys are too slow!

Sonic moved really fast and slashed and cut many Chromites into pieces.

T.J.: Take this!

He fired waves of lasers.

Justin Stewart, Chet, Flash, Tails and Paula blasted a lot of Chromites all over with lightning and energy. Ashley Hammond, Burn, Knuckles, Tchang Zu, and Muriel blasted and bashed numerous Chromites all over.

Senturion, Sally (Sonic), Whiplash (Turbo), Lisa Loud and Larry 3000 smashed and pulverized many Chromites all over.

A few Chromites were playing kickball with Larry 3000's head.

Larry 3000: Will you stop doing that?!

Blue Centurion: Hang on, Larry!

The Blue Centurion smashed and pulverized the Chromites all over the place.

Sally: Nicole, slash and kill the Chromites.

Her computer did so.

Whiplash smashed and pulverized the Chromites.

Larry 3000: Someone please put my head back on!

Sally grabbed him and put him back on.

Larry 3000: Oh thank you Sally.

We then set our sights on Guy!

Nico: It's over for you Guy! You and your cheating ways end now!

Everyone gasped!

Nico: Listen to this everyone!

Nico pulled out a tape recorder and played his true nature.

Guy Gagné: (On a recording) Well, the sad truth is, underdogs seldom win. And dreamers… let's just say, eventually they have to wake up. I've never talked to a snail before. So small, so amusing. No wonder they want to see you race, eh? Vroom, vroom! Look at him go. Thank you, plucky snail. Because of you, the whole world will be watching this race, and when the checkered flag drops, they'll be watching me win!

All the color drained from Guy's face and the people now saw him for what he REALLY was: An Arrogant Cheater and the worst kind of racer ever! They booed him and they knew he was finished and ruined!

Me: Now it's time for us to show you how we deal with cheaters like you!

Nico: GET HIM!

We went at him and pulverized the living shit out of him!

Enre Hep and Laarina blasted and smashed him all over.

Popeye: You big fat palooka!

Popeye pulled out a can of spinach and popped it open and he ate it.

GULP! DOING! BOING!

He flexed his muscles and they turned into jars of vitamins from A to L and Popeye pulverized and mutilated Guy Gagné all over the place like he does to Bluto.

They combined and formed into a huge robot!

THE END

---

Another Awesome chapter complete.

Turbo from 2013 is amazing! Turbo is an awesome snail with a great racing attitude and Ryan Reynolds did a great job voicing him. The first part of the chapter is for the SyFy TV movie Ice Twisters and that was freaky. The 2nd part is for the 2005 TV movie called The Triangle and that was another freaky one about the Bermuda Triangle. The baseball game is very similar to what happened in the Ben 10 episode The Unnaturals which aired on March 17th, 2007 and that was a crazy one. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Drako1234658, Nflemingful, Etstheclarence fan and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. The next girl is gonna be Memeko the Manticore and we're going to meet her and a Diancie Gene-Slammer named Evelyn Stanley from Minnesota and we're going to meet her in the world of the SyFy movie PIRANHACONDA! Get ready for a fight with a dangerous snake that is also part fish and has an appetite for blood. The next chapter is gonna be made in honor of Cameron Boyce who played Carlos the son of the Infamous Cruella De Vil and we're going to meet him and The Descendants, the children of the infamous Disney Villains that we all have killed over the years. We're going to help them have Audrey listen to reason.

See you all tomorrow.

Island of The Children of Disney

IN MEMORY OF CAMERON BOYCE

---

Over in the Hawaiian Islands, Me, Fluttershy and Lucilla Emerson the Umbreon Gene-Slammer were flying and we landed on an island.

Lucilla Emerson: I think we're about to meet another evil fish.

Lucilla concentrates and groans as her skin darkened.

Me: I think it might be something else too.

She turned into an Umbreon!

Me: YEAH!

Fluttershy: Is there a reason why you had me come along J.D.?

Me: Just to be prepared.

Lucilla: I think for THAT reason!

We heard a scream and then saw a giant snake and it had Piranha teeth! It was a PIRANHACONDA!

---

On a Hawaiian island, Professor Lovegrove, and a group of scientists are researching eggs that belong to two piranha/anaconda hybrids. However, one of the snakes kills all of the scientists except for Lovegrove, who escapes into the jungle. Meanwhile, a film crew on the island is in the middle of filming a slasher movie. Several crew wander off, and are killed by the snakes before director Milo, lead actress Kimmy Weston, scriptwriter Rose, her stuntman boyfriend Jack, and pyro tech expert Gunner are captured by a group of criminals led by Pike, and his girlfriend Talia, and held for ransom in an abandoned mill, along with Lovegrove, whom the criminals had discovered wandering the jungle earlier. Jack, and Gunner manage to escape, and systematically take out a few of the criminals before placing Gunner's explosives around the mill as a diversion to rescue the hostages. During the escape, Milo steals a gun, and stays behind as a distraction so the others can escape.

The group reaches a car, and the smaller green snake soon arrives, and kills Talia. Gunner detonates the explosives, only to be killed by a stray bullet moments later. Jack, Rose, Lovegrove, and Kimmy drive off, and are chased by Pike, who shoots a bazooka at the car, although Jack swerves off the road, causing the rocket to hit one of the snakes instead, blowing off its lower jaw. The larger yellow snake arrives, drawn by the blood, and kills the smaller one in a frenzy. The group soon runs out of gas, and resolves to reach a marina nearby. Meanwhile, Milo escapes the mill, and encounters a girl whose fiancée was previously killed by the snake. They stumble upon its nest, where the girl starts destroying the eggs, angering the snake when it returns and eats them. At the marina, the group finds a working boat, but Jack plans to kill the remaining snake by luring it into the explosive-filled car. However, the criminals soon arrive, although another green snake does too, killing all of the criminals, including Pike. Kimmy runs inside the car to get the detonator for the explosives, but the snake kills her before she can activate it. An injured Jack has Rose, and Lovegrove escape on the boat while he stays behind to distract the snake. On the boat, Rose discovers that Lovegrove is in possession of an egg belonging to the snake, which is why it is chasing them. As the snake pursues them underwater, Rose pushes Lovegrove off the boat, and he is eaten. She reaches land, and reunites with Jack, who attaches an explosive to the egg container before they lure the yellow snake over to a waterfall, throwing the container into its mouth before the explosive detonates, and killing it. Jack, and Rose jump into a waterfall to avoid the explosion, and share a kiss in the water, until the green snake suddenly kills them.

Me: WHOA! That snake looks ferocious! Wait a second! Part snake, part piranha. That's the Piranhaconda!

Fluttershy: That snake looks horrible!

Lucilla Umbreon: No kidding! Lets get it!

Me: Yeah!

?: Let us help!

We saw a Manticore and a Diancie!

Me: Whoa! A manticore from Arabic Myth and a Diancie.

Mameko: My name is Mameko. It's an honor to meet you J.D.

Diancie: (Minnesota Accent) And I'm Evelyn Stanley and it's great to meet ya doncha know.

Me: Pleasure to meet you both. Lets go get this abomination!

We went at the snake and destroyed it and we turned it into a beautiful snake skin coat and bags. Then I put on my blind man glasses and snapped my fingers and reverted Evelyn back to normal and Lucilla reverted back too.

Lucilla was human again. But naked.

Lucilla: (covers herself) At least that Piranhaconda will be a nice meal for us.

Me: I don't think we can eat a snake like that. It would probably taste awful.

Evelyn Stanley: (Covers herself) But I got this amazing snake skin coat doncha know.

Mameko: It looks great on you.

I gave Lucilla her clothes back and I gave Evelyn new clothes.

Me: But whoever made that horrible abomination needs to be taught a lesson about fucking around with mother nature.

Fluttershy: Yes and they must be stopped.

Me: And I'll let the government know about it when we get back. Lets go.

We went back to the Estate.

---

After rescuing Memeko the Manticore and Evelyn Stanley and killing the Piranhaconda, Lincoln, me, Nico, Eli, Leif, and Nicole were heading to the world of The Island of Dr. Moreau, like in the movie and the book and not only is Lincoln going to rescue eight girls that were sighted there, but we're also going to kill the Manimals and that mad lunatic scientist, Dr. Moreau.

Lincoln: Whoa, we're in the world of The Island of Dr. Moreau, and it looks like not only are we going to rescue eight girls that were sighted here, but we're also going to kill Dr. Moreau and the Manimals that inhabit this island.

Me: That's right, Linc.

Nico: I've seen that movie before, and those Manimals sure are terrifying to look at.

Eli: And just what the world needs: another fucked-up mad scientist messing with Mother Nature.

Me: My sentiments exactly Eli. You fuck around with Mother Nature and there will be Horrible Consequences.

Lincoln: Don't worry, Eli, he and the Manimals won't be around for much longer.

Me: Just like Zorndyke isn't around.

?: Help!

Suddenly, Lincoln heard the sound of eight girls calling for help with his superhuman hearing, and with his cyborg eyes and superhuman height, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He saw eight girls, along with Dr. Montgomery, Aissa, and Agent Edward Douglas, and they need help, and they're surrounded by the Manimals and the mad lunatic, Dr. Moreau. We went right to the location, and we saw the Manimals and the mad lunatic, Dr. Moreau.

Dr. Moreau: Team Loud Phoenix Storm, why do you intend to interfere with my experiments?

Lincoln: Your experiments have violated the laws of Mother Nature, and you've subjected innocent people to a fate crueler than death, and now, your sick experiments on innocent people end here and now.

Me: Prepare to die you lunatic!

Lincoln unholstered his Sword of Taranis from his back, and with one swing from his massive sword, he fired powerful neon blue energy swords at the Manimals, and the swords pierced the Manimals in the chest, and they exploded, killing them. Then, he fired a powerful neon blue energy blast at Dr. Moreau, which exploded and killed him.

Nico: Oh, yeah, Dr. Moreau, you have failed this universe!

Me: Big time!

Lincoln went up to the girls to comfort them, and me, Nico, and Eli were tending to Dr. Montgomery, Agent Edward Douglas, and Aissa. Nicole saw who those girls were, they were none other than Miki Onimaru from Ramen Fighter Miki, Eiko Magami from Project A-Ko, Aika Sumeragi and Rion Aida from Agent Aika, Yuuko Asou from the Valis video game series, Sypha Belnades and Maria Renard from Castlevania, and Eva Wei from Oban Star Racers.

Lincoln: Oh wow, it's Miki Onimaru, Eiko Magami, Aika Sumeragi, Rion Aida, Yuuko Asou, Sypha Belnades, Maria Renard, and Eva Wei.

Nicole: From Ramen Fighter Miki, Project A-Ko, Agent Aika, Valis, Castlevania, and Oban Star Racers, that's incredible.

Lincoln: Are you girls alright?

Miki Onimaru: Yeah, we're okay.

Then, when Miki Onimaru, Eiko Magami, Aika Sumeragi, Rion Aida, Yuuko Asou, Sypha Belnades, Maria Renard, and Eva Wei saw who it was that rescued them, their faces lit up like a red Christmas light upon seeing the 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful muscles, eight-pack abs, a lightning bolt cutie mark with the thunderbird and comic books on his right massive pec and was surrounded by the symbols of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness in a circle, a Celtic Cross cutie mark tattoo in the form of the cutie marks of Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Rainbow Dash, Applejack, Rarity, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Starlight Glimmer, and Trixie Lulamoon and in a circle are the other girls in Lincoln's harem with the Earth surrounded by the ring of mermaids, a deep sapphire blue kanji on his wider muscular back that said "Lincoln Landon Loud, Champion of Lightning, Master of Lightning Storms and The Weather, Emissary of Hinon, Golden-Hearted Brother of 16 Siblings, and Golden-Hearted Lover, Father, and Husband".

リンカーンランドンラウド、ライトニングのチャンピオン、ライトニングストームと天気のマスター、ヒノンの使者、16人の兄弟のゴールデンハートの兄弟、ゴールデンハートの恋人、父、そして夫

He had his Sword of Taranis holstered on his wider muscular back, his orange Crystal Saber holstered on his left hip and his Eater of Sins revolver holstered on his right hip, the Pisces constellation and Aquarius Zodiac sign on the back of his neck, weighted orange bands on his large biceps and thighs, deep sapphire blue eyes, larger blue angel wings surging with powerful super lightning and stars and blue nebulae reflecting on them, and he was dressed in an orange version of He Man 2002's loincloth with hanging silver lightning bolts, along with long orange trench coat coattails with hanging silver lightning bolts, blue pants with gold lightning bolts on the thighs, and large white leather combat boots with gold lightning bolts surrounded by a circle of smaller gold lightning bolts and armor on the toe area, silver Thunder Kanji earrings, a large silver Thunder Kanji necklace on his neck and across his permanently bare chest, his large fingerless black gloves with the symbol of The Loud House on it, a large Orange Buffalo Animal Spirit Ring on his left ring finger, a large Blue Lantern ring on his right ring finger, and he had eight large orange orbs orbiting around his legs.

Miki Onimaru: Oh wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you all.

Lincoln made seven clones of himself, and he and the clones walked up to the girls, and then picked them up and hugged them in his abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and he kissed them on the lips, which they returned with equally intense passion, as they wrapped their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones. We cheered over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem are going to like their new sisters to their future husband's harem.

Eiko Magami: You too, handsome.

Then, as we left the island, Lincoln fired a powerful neon blue energy blast, which hits the Island of Dr. Moreau, and destroys it completely in a tremendous and massive explosion!

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The island was completely destroyed, erasing the memory of Dr. Moreau forever. The rest of the team who saw it cheered wildly.

Me: Take that!

We went back to the estate.

After the rescue on The Island of Dr. Moreau, we headed to Manhattan, New York. We were on our way to meet the famed Hanna-Barbera toon cats, Top Cat, Fancy-Fancy, Choo-Choo, Brain, Spook, and Benny the Ball, along with Officer Charlie Dibble. Plus, they also have something very interesting to show us.

Lincoln: I can't believe that we're going to meet Top Cat and his gang.

Me: I know. That's another great cartoon from my past and I've seen their adventures all the time, they're hilarious.

Nico: Plus, from what I've heard from Lincoln, they've got something to show us.

We head for the alley, and we're met by Top Cat, Fancy-Fancy, Choo-Choo, Brain, Spook, Benny the Ball, and Officer Charlie Dibble.

Top Cat: Well, well, Team Loud Phoenix Storm, we've been waiting to meet you.

Lincoln: You too, Top Cat, along with Fancy-Fancy, Choo-Choo, Brain, Spook, Benny the Ball, and Officer Dibble.

Fancy-Fancy: And I've seen that you and J.D. have been rescuing a lot of girls from McWolf, or from other villains.

Lincoln: We've been pretty busy with those action-packed rescues, Fancy.

Me: Yep they sure are and it's awesome to meet you all. I love watching all of you back in my youth.

Choo-Choo: Anyways, we've got something to show you guys, and it pertains to your future wives, Asuka Kazama and Lilli De Rochefort, Lincoln.

This surprised us, but we might've already known who Choo-Choo was talking about. We went into the 12th Precinct Office of The New York Police Department, and headed into the holding cells. Then, we headed to one cell, and we saw a man sitting on the bench. We went inside, and we saw who it was that Top Cat, his gang, and Officer Dibble were talking about. The man inside that holding cell was Asuka's cousin, Jin Kazama.

Lincoln: I don't believe it, it's Jin Kazama!

We were stunned to see Jin Kazama here, but none more so than Lilli de Rochefort and Asuka Kazama.

Me: What happened to him, Officer Dibble?

Officer Dibble: Jin came inside the 12th Precinct, and he looked real tired and drained. He looked like he hadn't gotten a moment's rest.

Me: He looks like he hasn't slept in a long time.

Asuka Kazama: The Devil Gene.

Upon hearing our voices, Jin Kazama picked up his head, and he saw us.

Jin Kazama: Team Loud Phoenix Storm… ,I… was hoping that we'd meet, but not like this.

Asuka Kazama: Jin. I already know the truth of why you were like this, it's because of the Devil Gene. Lincoln told me and Lilli everything, and we now understand what you're going through, please, let us help you destroy the evil within you.

Jin Kazama: You have something inside your blood that can help calm the darkness inside me.

Lincoln: He's right. Asuka, you have the power to calm the Devil inside Jin, because of the Kazama Blood inside your veins, which has been able to calm the Devil inside Jin. And despite having the Devil Gene inside him, Jin also has Kazama blood inside him, too. It's because of it, that he's been able to keep the Devil suppressed.

Asuka Kazama: Yes, but now, it's time to get rid of The Devil within you.

Asuka Kazama placed her hand on Jin's shoulder, and her hand glowed with bright light, and her Kazama Blood was suppressing the Devil inside him.

Lincoln: Now, to head inside to destroy The Devil inside him.

Lincoln heads inside Jin's head, and he went up to Jin Kazama, who was struggling against his Devil side, Devil Jin.

Lincoln transformed into Super Angel-Ebonwu 500,000,000,000 Supercell Lightning Thunderbird Furious Hyperstorm of Justice, and he went after Devil Jin, punching him hard in the face, and sent him flying, until he rebounded.

Jin Kazama: Lincoln?

Lincoln: (Divine Echoing Electrical Voice) Yeah, it's me.

Devil Jin was enraged to see Lincoln here, and he flew into a rage. Jin decided that he's had enough of Devil Jin constantly causing havoc on his life, and he joins Lincoln.

Jin Kazama: (To Lincoln) Lincoln, let's end him once and for all.

Lincoln: Let's do it.

Lincoln and Jin went after Devil Jin, and attacked him with punches, kicks, elemental blasts, neon blue energy blasts, and slashes from Lincoln's Sword of Taranis. Lincoln grabs Devil Jin's horns and rips them off his head, causing him to scream in agonizing pain. Then, he tears off Devil Jin's black wings, and gives them to Jin Kazama, and as they attached themselves to Jin's back, they turned into large black angel wings with orange tips on the large black feathers, and his Devil Gene tattoo turned into a black cross tattoo.

Jin Kazama: I've had it up to here with you, Devil Jin. Lincoln, stand back.

Lincoln stood back, as Jin Kazama walked up to Devil Jin, who's now on his last legs, thanks to getting his horns and wings ripped off.

Jin Kazama: Now, you will disappear forever. HOLY STYLE NINJA ART: DEVIL GENE PURIFICATION!

Jin Kazama fired a massive blast of light, which hits Devil Jin, and destroys him forever, and it Super Hakaied him. The darkness inside Jin Kazama was purified forever.

Jin Kazama: Thanks, Lincoln, see you on the outside.

Lincoln: Right.

Lincoln returned to the outside world and powered down, and Jin Kazama was finally freed from The Devil Gene, and he has those new large black angel wings with orange tips on the large black feathers, and the black cross tattoo on his shoulder, now replacing the Devil Gene tattoo.

Jin Kazama: Thank you all for freeing me, my heart is now lighter and is no longer troubled by the Devil inside me.

Me: You're welcome, Jin.

We cheered happily, Lincoln freed Jin Kazama, who destroyed Devil Jin and got rid of The Devil Gene inside him. Asuka was glad her cousin was saved, and she kissed Lincoln on the lips, as a thank you for what he did, as he hugged her.

Asuka Kazama: Thank you for freeing my cousin, Lincoln.

Lincoln: You're welcome, Asuka.

We went back home to The Estate, and with Top Cat, Fancy-Fancy, Choo-Choo, Benny the Ball, Spook, Brain, Officer Dibble, and Jin Kazama joining the team.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

A massive fiery explosion went off at the mall and we were fighting terrorists yet again.

Shocker: (fires gauntlets at terrorists) Just once, we should be able to go to the mall without terrorists attacking it!

Rhino pulls shocker down before he got hit with bullets.

Rhino: You know what, Herman? I agree with you!

I fired blasts of fire and burned the terrorists.

Me: Look on the bright side. At least it's better than taking out Trump Supporters.

Nico: True to that.

?: Let me help you guys out.

A figure came out and kicked a terrorist in the head and it was Shang-Chi!

Me: Shang-Chi! It's an honor!

Shang-Chi: An honor to meet you too J.D. Thank you so much for taking out my former comrades in the Ten Rings.

Me: You're welcome.

Nico: Wow it's an honor to meet the Master of Kung Fu.

Eli: Same here.

Shang-Chi: Thank you.

Lucy was blasting Terrorists all over.

Lucy: You Terrorists make me sick!

Lucy just unleashed an extremely powerful darkness blast that not only killed all the terrorists but also blasted a hole through the mall and nearly hurt innocent civilians.

Me: WHOA! That was intense!

Lincoln: Lucy, what the Hell did you just do?!

Lynn: Will you ease up on her, Lincoln? She's still recovering from the shock.

Me: Lucy? Are you okay?

Raven: Something must be wrong with her powers.

Shang Chi: I think she's having problems controlling them.

Me: But look at the bright side, at least all the terrorists are dead.

We got all the civilians freed.

Me: Are you all okay?

Woman: We are thanks to you.

We went back to the Estate.

We were talking with Lucy.

Me: You did good Lucy but something must be wrong with your powers.

Lucy: I know. I'm losing control of them.

Laney: It wasn't your fault Lucy.

Lucy: You guys need to stay away from me.

Bomb Burst: Not gonna happen, Lucy! We're gonna help you through this!

Me: That's right Lucy. We can help you.

Lucy: Even if I had a hand in what happened the day Lori and Leni got interested in Vampires of Melancholia?

Maria: What do you mean?

Lucy: Me, Yumi, and the others made a petition and sent in protest letters to get Tristan off the show and to make Lori and Leni lose interest!

Yumi: Don't drag me into this. I told you it was a bad idea!

Lori: Does that literally matter right now?! All that matters is that we help you with controlling your powers!

Nico: Wait Lucy tried to get Tristan off of the show!? Why?

Brittney: Because we thought that he was ruining Vampires of Melancholia.

Haiku: It's true. We didn't like the way he was in the show.

Dante: Yeah it's true.

Laney: Yeah I was against it but I didn't show it.

Leni: Besides something is totes wrong.

Me: Lucy let us all help you.

Tara went up to Lucy.

Tara: Lucy you are not the only one with problems in controlling their powers. I went through the same thing.

Robin: Right I remember that. Except I just figured it out.

Lucy Loud: Right I remember that. Tara do you think you can help me out?

Tara: Darkness is not my power.

Raven: I can try to help you out Lucy.

Nico: Look, if Lucy's powers are becoming out of control, I can just use my contingency plan for her to neutralize them.

Lucy Loud: And if that contingency plan isn't enough?

Beachcomber: Then Nico makes said contingency plan stronger. It's as simple as that.

Me: That's right. Also I think I know what's up.

Beachcomber: What is it?

Me: Lucy's transformation is starting to bloom.

Nico: Lucy's gonna transform soon? Right! Like with what happened when we thought Lincoln lost his powers.

Eli: J.D.'s right. The Force is telling me that Lucy's most powerful transformation is about to come forth.

Me: And we need to get her powers under control so that she can unlock it.

G1 Blitzwing: FYI, J.D, it's your turn to lead us today.

Me: I know.

Lola: First, we need to find ways to get Lucy's powers under control.

Horsea: I think me and Manaphy know a place.

Me: What is it?

Manaphy: We can go to Auradon and have her control her powers there.

Nico: Auradon? The Home of Disney Heroes and Villains from the movies series The Descendants!? Oh wow! I love that series!

Brittney: Me too. How did you know about that place?

Manaphy: Me and Horsea saw Mal and her friends helping us take down Ansem in the world of The Hunchback of Notre Dame as he was about to attack us the second time while the fight with Frollo was raging.

Horsea: Yeah.

Me: Wow! We owe them big time for that. But I wonder how they will take the news about us killing their parents.

Nico: These are actually their parents from another universe.

Me: Oh that's different.

Eli: But I love watching the Disney Descendants Series. These villains are much nicer than the ones we faced.

Me: That's a totally different ballgame.

Steam Smythe, Webstor, Angel, Red Ghost, Skalamander, Black Adam, Robo Roxy, Gizmo, Girder, and Black Manta then appeared.

Steam Smythe: Can me, Webstor, Angel, Red Ghost, Skalamander, Black Adam, Robo Roxy, Gizmo, Girder, and Black Manta come with you all to Auradon?

Me: You all sure can. This is gonna be amazing to meet the children of the villains that we fought in the Disney movies.

Eli: I know. I can't wait to meet Ursula's daughter.

Nico: You mean Uma.

Eli: Yep.

Webstor: This is gonna be interesting.

Webstor saw Lucy down about something and she had tears coming down her face.

Webstor: Lucy what's wrong?

Me: She's upset because she's having problems controlling her powers.

Webstor: Oh man.

Me: It's because her most powerful transformation is starting to bloom.

Webstor: Oh wow.

Me: Lets head out to Auradon.

Eli: This is gonna be so cool!

We were off to Auradon.

---

AURADON, SOUTH PACIFIC OCEAN

---

We arrived at the continent of Auradon and it was beautiful and we landed in the kingdom.

Ace: Here we are at Auradon.

Me: Wow! It's more beautiful than what I've seen in the movie.

Nico: It's magnificent.

Rapunzel: I've heard so much about this place. It's just as beautiful as Corona.

Eli: It sure is breathtaking.

Nico: Lets see if we can find Mal and friends.

Lucy Loud: I'll try to hold on.

Me: Okay Lucy.

Skalamander: Poliwag, why don't you get Mal's attention?

Poliwag: You got it!

Mal felt something touch her foot. She looked down to see Poliwag. Thinking he was a stuffed toy, she picked him up.

Mal: Okay, did anyone drop their stuffed toy on the ground? I'm not mad. I just want to know!

Evie: I don't think that's a stuffed toy.

Carlos: (feels Poliwag) You're right. This doesn't feel like felt. It feels like smooth skin.

Jay: If it's not a stuffed toy, what is it then?

Poliwag: I'm a Pokemon.

Jay: WHOA!

Me: I see you all met Poliwag.

Mal and friends saw us.

Mal: Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Carlos: It's an honor to meet you all.

Evie: Awesome having you all here too.

Me: Same here. It's awesome to meet the children of the Disney

Villains.

Mal: It's an honor too.

Maria: You must be wondering about the fates of your parents on our world. Well, we brought Ollie Williams to summarize all of it in a few words.

May: Ollie, what happened to the versions of Mal and her friends' parents on our world?

Ollie Williams: (comes out of nowhere) They dead!

Poromon: Thank you, Ollie.

Mal: Wow! You guys killed versions of our parents in your world!? That's incredible!

Me: Yeah they were total monsters! The most ruthless villains we've ever seen.

Evie: Yeah no kidding. I heard you all went through a terrible ordeal called the 20 Days of Darkness?

Me: You heard right Evie. From January 23rd to February 11th.

Nico: Yep.

Mal: We also heard you all killed Xehanort.

Me: We all sure did. August 2nd was the ultimate war that would decide the fate of the entire universe. Xehanort was going to destroy the entire universe and remake it in his own image.

Jay: That's terrible!

Me: Yeah it sure was. But we made sure he was destroyed forever. Along with all the pain and suffering he caused to many worlds all over.

Mal: Wow! That explains why many of the worlds we lost suddenly reappeared. You guys saved many people.

Me: We did but we don't let it go to our heads.

?: Well if it isn't the villain losers and Team Loud Phoenix Storm too.

A figure came out and it was Chad Charming, son of Prince Charming and Cinderella.

Me: You must be Chad Charming, Son of Prince Charming and Cinderella.

Chad Charming: That's right pipsqueak.

Me: I'm taller than you dickhead.

He saw former and redeemed villains with us.

Chad Charming: (scoffs at us) And here I thought you knew better than to befriend villainous scumbags.

Me: Oh really? Well for your information you dickwad, not all villains you know are evil!

Webstor scowls and uses his webs to pull down Chad's pants, revealing his underwear and it had fish on it.

Chad: HEY!

Webstor: (laughs) Nice underwear, jerk!

I snapped a photo of it with my iPhone and posted it on Social Media.

Ollie Williams: Racist prick!

Me: You said it Ollie!

Stewie: You know what? I prefer Ollie Williams over Consuela any day.

Me: Me too Stewie.

Brian: (to Mal and her friends) Seriously, you're not curious about Ollie?

Mal: Actually we are.

Me: Ollie is a news reporter from Rhode Island. We gave him a much better job working with us than with Quahog.

Nico: Yep.

Me: And here's what I do with people like Chad.

I smashed my foot on his foot and he screamed in excruciating pain as his foot was smashed to pieces and he was hopping in pain.

Me: Mock villains like that and I'll have my friends give you the worst castration of your life!

He hopped away in pain and we saw that he was peeing his pants and it was dripping from his underwear.

We laughed at him.

Nico: Man that was funny!

Mal: So what brings you guys to Auradon?

Nico: Well, we brought Lucy here so she can control her powers. This morning, she killed an entire group of terrorists with one blast.

Jay: Okay. That's not so bad.

Maria: It blew a huge hole in the wall of the Gotham Royal York Mall.

Evie: Okay. That's a little concerning.

Dead End: And she almost accidentally ended the lives of nearby civilians.

Carlos: Okay! I admit it! That's very worse!

Me: Try not to rub lemon juice in the wound to make her feel worse than she already is.

Dead End: Sorry.

Me: Oh right I forgot. Mal we owe you guys big time for helping us in the world of The Hunchback of Notre Dame from 1996.

Mal: You're welcome. So we were there huh?

Me: Yeah it took place in 16th Century France.

Evie: I accidentally took us there.

Me: It's okay. But you did help us out.

Jay: Think nothing of it.

Me: Okay back to the matter at hand. We think that Lucy's sudden loss of her not controlling her powers might have to do with her most powerful transformation starting to bloom.

Mal: That's probably the case.

Lori: (to the rest of us) Okay. I know some of you guys may have some hard feelings towards Mal and her friends because of who their parents are.

Lynn: But we're not gonna deal with that during this mission.

Lola: If anyone has anything they want to say to the VKs about their parents' actions, let them all out right now!

Lana: I have something to say to Carlos. Your Mother, Cruella De Vil, is my most hated enemy because of how she kills animals and turns them into fur coats.

Fluttershy gasped and then she fainted!

FWOMP!

Rarity caught her.

Nico: Whoa you shouldn't have said that Lana.

Lana: Sorry.

Carlos: It's all right Lana. I understand how you feel. But I am not like my mother thank goodness.

Nico: That's a relief.

Me: Yeah we have a really bad history with your parents in our world.

Eli: Uma's mother Ursula tried to take over all of Atlantica and usurp the throne from King Triton, my sister Ariel's father.

Mal: Ariel's your sister?

Eli: Not by blood. She and I have been so close that we love each other like siblings.

Mal: Wow that's amazing.

Me: Jay your father Jafar tried to take over Agrabah with the power of Genie.

Jay: That's horrible he did that.

Nico: Evie your mother the Evil Queen tried to kill Snow White because she was more beautiful than she was.

Evie: I know. It's sick.

Me: And Mal your mother is one of the most evil villains of them all. She tried to kill Princess Aurora by cursing her with eternal sleep on her 16th birthday.

Varie: Yeah. But we destroyed your parents in our world.

Mal: That's good you did. Me and my mother never saw eye to eye.

Me: Your mother is one of the most iconic Disney villains of all time.

Mal: That's what I hear.

Robo Roxy: Why don't you show us around Auradon while you guys help Lucy control her powers?

Me: Good idea. It'll be cool to see this place all over.

Mal: Right. (to Horsea) By the way, Horsea, we want to thank you and Manaphy for keeping our involvement a secret.

Horsea: You're welcome.

Manaphy: It was our pleasure.

We got to exploring all of Auradon. It was so amazing and beautiful.

The United States of Auradon is the united nation and homeland to all the Heroes and Villains of the Disney Universe, which is the primary setting of the Descendants franchise.

The USA came into existence 20 years prior to the film, when King Beast forwent going on a honeymoon with Queen Belle, in favor of uniting nineteen of the fairy tale kingdoms. All villains were rounded up and booted off the region known as the Isle of the Lost; many were revived to suffer a fate worse than death, by living without magic.

Life in Auradon soon changed after King Beast declared that magic would mostly be retired so the next generation would learn to rely on their own talents instead of magic. Fairy Godmother was placed in charge of overseeing the usage of magic in the USA; the discontent good fairies, Flora, Fauna, and Merryweather wanted to use their magic again since they could not perform mundane tasks without magic.

Isle of the Lost

An island prison off the coast that is inhabited by the most infamous villains ever known. The island is surrounded by a magical barrier that prevents prisoners from escaping and others from entering.

Auradon Prep

A school where the descendants of Disney's most well-known Heroes and Villains attend.

Auradon City

The part of the United States of Auradon that was originally Beast's

Kingdom. The King's palace is located here, as well as Auradon Prep.

Fairy Cottage

The cottage where Flora, Fauna, and Merryweather hid Aurora for sixteen years. It now serves as a sort of vacation home for the family, as Ben mentions they visited Fairy Cottage "every Fairy Godmother's Day".

Evie's Cottage

A cottage serving as the sole location which Evie's clothing line is made for distribution. It also serves as a home to Evie, Jay and Mal after their graduation in Escape from the Isle of the Lost. Carlos and Doug are known to visit. Celia, Dizzy, Squeaky and Squirmy lived here until they can be admitted to Auradon Prep the following semester. Mal will later move out and into the King's palace with Ben.

Museum of Cultural History

A museum that harbors all historical items from across the world, including the Fairy Godmother's Magic Wand, Maleficent's Staff, Spinning Wheel, the Beast's rose, etc. The museum is approximately 2.3 miles from Auradon Prep.

Enchanted Lake

A lake in the woods of Auradon, where Ben takes Mal on their date. It is first mentioned in the prequel book, seen in a dream by Mal. It includes a stone floor with a pillar. The lake is described in the junior novel as having the color of jade.

We saw it all and the Island of Lost Souls was a scary run down place that reminded me of the slums of many cities all over the world.

Eli: Wow this place is so cool. I love it all.

Me: It's amazing that after we killed Xehanort that all the Disney Worlds merged to make this.

Sora: And it was cool seeing Twilight Town, Traverse Town, Scala ad Caelum, the Radiant Garden and the Land of Departure here too.

Me: Especially Neverland. That's awesome.

Peter Pan: I like it being here. It's great.

Me: We should call the United States of Auradon something else to avoid confusion here with the United States of America.

Mal: That's a good idea.

Me: How about Disney's Kingdom of Auradon?

Nico: Ooh not bad.

Mal: I like it.

Belle and Adam's son Ben then appeared.

Descendants Ben: Hey, Mal. Just wanted to check up on you. I know your dad nearly escaping the Isle was a shock to you.

Jungle Fury Camille: You must be Adam and Belle's son.

Descendants Ben: I sure am and it's an honor to meet you all Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: Pleasure is ours Ben. Your mother and father are really awesome friends.

Girl Jordan: They sure are. We helped them kill Gaston.

Me: Yeah that sex offender had it coming to him. What a narcissistic douchebag.

Descendants Ben: (Laughs) You got that right.

Nico: Well said J.D.

Me: Thanks.

Nico: You're welcome.

Girder: So you're about to become Queen of Auradon? Congratulations!

Me: Way to go!

Mal: Thanks. (sighs) But I'm also deciding in light of my dad's escape attempt that the best way to protect the subjects and restore peace is to close the barrier to the Isle of the Lost permanently.

Me: WHAT!?

May: Say what?!

Mal: I know it's crazy. But you should understand making the tough choices to keep people safe.

Me: With great power comes great responsibility. But the Isle of the Lost is where you and your friends all came from. There has to be a much better way than to close off the island you call home.

Mal: You're right.

We went and got to work on helping Lucy control her powers and it was coming along great.

Gyro Man: So, how's Lucy's control over her powers?

Maria: Actually, pretty well.

Me: It's going really well. Lisa says that Lucy's powers are starting to stabilize.

Gyro Man: Good. Because we've got a problem. Someone stole the Queen's Crown and Maleficent's Scepter from the Museum of Cultural History.

Mal: Oh no! It's Audrey!

Me: Uh oh. She must be the daughter of Princess Aurora and Prince Philip.

King Stefan: (Scottish Accent) That makes her me granddaughter.

Me: Yep. Lets go.

Red Ghost: If Audrey uses the crown and Maleficent's scepter, who knows what damage she might cause?

Me: Lets not wait to find out!

We went to face Audrey!

We tried to find her but it was like trying to find a needle in a haystack. But then something happened.

Gemini Man: Guys, two bad things just happened. Audrey's gone. And she just made the first move!

Me: Let me guess? This happened.

We saw Mal turned into an old hag!

Nico: WHOA!

Me: Don't worry I got this.

I snapped my fingers and reverted Mal back.

Mal: Thanks J.D.

Me: You're welcome.

Black Adam: We can't underestimate Audrey. The old Disney heroes might be retired in this world. But their children aren't.

Me: The successor generation always surpasses the previous one.

Jared: That's right dad. But for us it will always be us that surpasses the rest.

Me: Yep. Lets go find Audrey.

?: Maybe I can help you find her.

A figure came out and it was Lonnie, daughter of Shang Li and Mulan.

Lonnie: Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm, it's an honor.

Me: (China Bow) Pleasure to meet the daughter of Mulan and Shang.

Gantu: You must be Lonnie, Shang and Mulan's daughter.

Lonnie: I am. What's going on here? I saw Audrey but she was acting more hostile then normal.

Me: She stole Maleficent's scepter and is wreaking havoc.

Lonnie: I'll help you stop her.

Qin: It's an honor to meet the daughter of my ancestor Mulan.

Lonnie: So I guess we're cousins?

Qin: I don't know the full extent of the family tree. But that sounds appropriate.

Lonnie: It's awesome to meet family.

Nunnally: Eli can you use the Force to find Audrey?

Eli: I can do that.

Eli concentrated.

Eli: She's heading to that house over there! (Points to a house.)

Mal: That's Jane's house!

Nico: She's the daughter of Fairy Godmother from Cinderella.

Angel: I'll get Jane out of there. Right now, we're not ready to confront Audrey head on.

Me: Okay. Be careful Angel.

Angel flew fast and went to the house.

Jane was having her birthday party when suddenly…

CRASH!

Angel flew in.

Jane: Whoa! You're Angel, one of the enemies of the Teen Titans!

Angel: Former enemy and now friend, ally and frenemy. Sorry to drop in like this but I don't have time to explain however! We got to get out of here now! Audrey is on a rampage. She stole Maleficent's Scepter and is coming for you!

Jane: Oh man! Lets go!

Angel brought Jane to us.

Jane: Thanks Angel. (Sees us) Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm! What an honor!

Me: Same here Jane.

Eddie Brock: We're gonna need more allies to win against Audrey.

Mal: (eyes widen) You're not suggesting-?

Venom: We're sorry, Mal. But we need Uma, Gil, and Harry Hook's help for this.

Jay: Are you nuts?!

Evie: No way!

Carlos: I don't care if we need all the help we can get. After what Uma and her pals did, they can fucking stay on the Isle!

Me: Carlos listen! I don't like it either but we don't have a choice. Besides look at my team. Many villains former and current are always helping us.

Webstor: He's right. Me and my friends are all part of the Masters of Evil and we are now Anti-Villains.

Nico: Angel is a villain and she was part of the evil H.I.V.E. Organization.

Eli: We have many villains that are in our frenemies and they help us out all the time.

Rhino: Eli is right. I was a villain myself.

Miranda: Same with me.

Laney: Yeah. We have lots of villains that are redeemed as well.

Me: Long story.

Carlos: That is a good point. You guys must've had to reach down to help them out.

Bai Tza: That's a good way to put it.

Nico: We did so much and affected many people good and bad and helped them so much.

Laney: It's true. And that's just for starters.

Aylene C.: Long story.

Jane: I'll gladly help you all out.

Me: Thanks Jane. Lets head out to the Isle of the Lost.

We went to the Isle of the Lost and it was a strange island. It reminded me of the Slums of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

We then met Harry Hook - Son of the Captain James Hook and Gil - Son of Gaston.

Harry Hook: Well, if it isn't Team Loud Phoenix Storm. You might've killed my father back on your world. But on this world, he's still alive and kicking.

Me: So we have seen. Your father is one of the most ruthless pirates we know next to Davy Jones.

Jay: Look, I can't believe I'm saying this, but (sighs) we need your help.

Gil: (smirks) I'm sorry. Couldn't quite hear you. Can you say that again?

Me: He said we need your help. Whether or not you trust us is up to you but Audrey is on the loose and we need your help to stop her.

Gil: Well what's in it for us?

Me: How about you 3 get put in as possible candidates to our frenemies the Masters of Evil. The pay is really good.

Gil: That does sound reasonable. Also J.D. I heard you hate my father.

Me: Yeah we do have a history with him.

Harry Hook: I see. But you guys got a deal.

Vypra: You look very promising to be in the team.

Gil: Awesome.

Me: Lets go find Uma.

We went to find her and we found Uma - Daughter of Ursula the Sea Witch in the water getting some fish. Also with her was Celia Facilier - Daughter of Voodoo Master Dr. Facilier the Shadow Man.

Eli: So you are Uma, daughter of the sea witch Ursula.

Uma: That's right. What does Team Loud Phoenix Storm want with me?

Me: We came because we need your help.

Uma: Look, I don't know what kind of plan you guys have got to try and trap the two of us. And frankly, I don't care. I still have to find a way to be free of the Isle. Either help me do that or stay out of my way!

Celia Facilier: Besides, if one of Auradon's kids is out of control, that's their problem. Serves them right for throwing me, my dad, and everyone else here out like trash.

Me: Uma your mother was trying to destroy Atlantica and the ocean.

Brittney: And Celia your father was messing around with forces no mere mortal can ever understand.

Leslie: So, that's it, then? Just let Audrey do what she wants to this world?

Uma: Why not? The world was never kind to us.

Celia Facilier: So, why should we do it any favors?

Me: Because if she destroys this world, you die with it.

Uma: Oh man. Since you put it that way, we'll help you. On one condition.

Me: Name it.

Uma: If it's possible we want to join the Masters of Evil you all face.

Me: Vypra here will look into that. But you are definitely anti-villain material.

Vypra: That's right.

Uma: All right.

Me: Okay that should be enough for our forces to help us.

Black Manta: Let's have the usual battles now. Then, we can deal with Audrey.

Me: Good idea. We can have them in the village square.

Harry Hook: I'm gonna enjoy making her walk the plank!

Jack Sparrow: Save seconds for me mate.

Eli: It's her dark side that we have to face. So we're going to kill her.

Arrietty: We have to make sure that she never terrorizes this place again.

Maria: Lets get to the village square and call in the usual battles.

Me: Right. Lets go.

We went to the village square for our usual battles.

Grumblemon, Drakkon, Zzzax, Xaldin, Goliath, Abomination, Vulkanus, Bane, Vulture, and Gator Ghoul then appeared.

Me: Grumblemon, Drakkon, Zzzax, Xaldin, Goliath, Abomination, Vulkanus, Bane, Vulture, and Gator Ghoul.

Vulkanus: Glad we found you all here.

Grumblemon: When we heard that this was a school for the kids of Disney characters, it wasn't exaggerated.

Mal: How do you like it so far?

Drakkon: Pretty good, actually.

Zzzax: Aside from the fact that Audrey's trying to take it over because she's jealous of Mal.

Me: Yeah her jealous knows no limits.

Xaldin: (to me) We heard you had to deal with a Piranhaconda.

Me: Yeah really ugly snake.

Goliath: Please tell me it's dead!

Me: It's more than dead. We made it into a snake skin coat and luggage.

Goliath: Wow!

?: That snake got what was coming to it.

Oculous and Vine Monster then appeared.

Me: Oculous and Vine Monster.

William: Aren't you already in the usual battles?

Oculous: Of course I am. But I'm just testing out fighting with 2 safes.

Maria: That's understandable. I mean, Zamigo Delma's in the Masters of Evil and he has 2 safes and kickass guns.

Me: Nice! Also I take it you want a repeat of our battle on the Skeleton Coast.

Oculous: Yep you got that right. Notice that you're lacking some members.

I saw the Mystic Force Rangers minus Chip and Lincoln gone.

Me: Just like on TV. I never get tired of that episode. It was awesome. But Vine Monster you already had your turn.

Vine Monster: I know but I forgot to challenge my archenemy and it's Levy McGarden.

Levy McGarden: Wow! I'm honored!

?: I will kill you all for destroying us!

Suddenly, the eight large planets and stars orbiting around my legs, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs, the eight large crimson red orbs orbiting around Naruto's legs, and the eight large black orbs with the Eye of Horus orbiting around Cody (OC)'s legs were glowing, and that means big trouble.

Nicole: Oh crap, I was hoping not to hear those fuckers' voices again, it's been a long time since I've last killed you both, RTN Hinata and Menma Uzumaki.

Two figures came out and they were none other than Menma Uzumaki and RTN Hinata, returned from the dead, and are wanting revenge.

Lincoln: Menma and RTN Hinata, I should've known that you two would return from the dead.

Naruto: I was hoping I'd never have to see you again, Menma.

Hinata: Same with you, RTN Hinata.

Twilight Sparkle: Uh oh, I was hoping we'd never have to deal with RTN Hinata ever again, but Lincoln, how much do you know about Menma?

Lincoln: Trust me, Twilight, you'd hate this guy to the 10,000,000th power, he's the opposite of Naruto, he's pure evil.

Lincoln explained the dark history of Menma Uzumaki, and he's right, he's the total opposite of Naruto, and he's pure evil.

Menma Uzumaki

Menma Uzumaki (うずまきメンマ, Uzumaki Menma) is a character that appears in Road to Ninja: Naruto the Movie as the main antagonist. He is the son of Kushina Uzumaki and Minato Namikaze in the alternate universe of Konohagakure, thus making him the "Naruto Uzumaki" of that world. He is also the jinchūriki of Kurama's counterpart the Black Nine-Tails.

Background

Menma was born as the son of his world's version of Minato Namikaze and Kushina Uzumaki. However, unlike Naruto, the events of the Nine-Tailed Demon Fox's Attack didn't result in his parent's deaths and Menma has his parents in his life. He had a stable and loving childhood with his parents. He enrolled into the Academy and became a genin and then a chūnin. At some point, the Black Nine-Tails was safely removed from Kushina without her death and soon after sealed inside Menma, who later mastered its power.

For unknown reasons, Menma became a missing-nin, though this was notably something fairly recent since both Menma's parents and his friends were unaware that he had left the village and that Naruto had taken Menma's place in Konoha. In addition, Menma kidnapped shinobi with unique abilities, which attracted attention from other villages and deemed him as an S-ranked criminal. He soon met Tobi who tells him all about his Eye of the Moon Plan and agreed to help him. From there, targeting the jinchūriki of his world, Menma defeated his reality's Yugito Nii.

Appearance

Menma looks virtually identical to Naruto, though his blond hair has become black having given into hatred, and he wears it in a longer and more shaggy-looking style, similar to his father's. He also has darker and more feral-looking whisker marks, and dark circles under his eyes. He also does not have the Eight Trigrams Seal on his abdomen.

When initially appearing as the mysterious "Masked Man," he wore a white kitsune mask, a dark blue-grey robe with grey lining and a fur collar, and a tattered grey-blue cape emblazoned with his personal emblem: a mandala comprised of nine reddish-brown circles of varying sizes atop a larger green-grey circle. After revealing his identity, he discarded the robe and mask, beneath which he wore no shirt, fingerless opera-length black gloves wrapped in studded red-brown leather straps, baggy black pants, and red-brown sandals.

Abilities

A missing-nin and S-ranked criminal, Menma is considered a highly dangerous ninja, able to effortlessly defeat other jinchūriki like Yugito Nii as well as several of Konohagakure's top-level ninja. As a descendant of the Uzumaki clan, Menma is blessed with remarkable stamina and an equally powerful life-force, granting him tremendous vitality and an immensely long potential lifespan. After being possessed by Tobi, Menma gained a Sharingan in his right eye and access of many of its abilities, including Tobi's Kamui for teleportation and intangibility.

Jinchūriki Powers

As the jinchūruki of the Black Nine-Tails, Menma possesses vast reserves of especially strong chakra. Unlike Naruto, he lacks the seal that restrains the Black Nine-Tails, allowing it to greatly augment his power. Although he doesn't display any kind of tailed beast transformations, he is able to completely unleash the fox, using it in a manner similar to a summon. Menma's hatred has allowed him to bond with and better control the Black Nine-Tails, and he is able to create and control living entities composed of its chakra, which are known as the Nine Masked Beasts. Menma also shows the ability to sense negative emotions, able to detect the strong hatred of Kurama inside Naruto.

Ninjutsu

Menma's abilities are essentially the same as Naruto's, and he has developed dark versions of Naruto's signature techniques called Spiraling Ring and Great Spiraling Ring, but unlike his counterpart, Menma can perform them without the use of shadow clones. He also has an ability to blast away targets and repel enemy attacks. He was able to counter a Sage Mode-powered punch through the use of a mysterious technique that created a dark aura that increased his strength to obscurity. He can also fly about freely in the sky.

Taijutsu

Menma has showcased tremendous skill in taijutsu. Menma even when out numbered by multiple enemies such as Naruto's shadow clones, remained calm and easily defeated all of them, easily dodging and counter-attacking simultaneously. Menma's strength was augmented by the chakra of the Black Nine-Tails inside of him, plus he lacked Eight Trigrams Seals which meant the Black Nine-Tails' chakra could be easily accessed immediately.

Plot Overview

After meeting Tobi, Menma enters Konoha and attack the Hokage's office with his Nine Masked Beasts and asks for the Red Moon Scroll. Naruto and Sakura then arrived and realized that he was the masked man Tsunade was talking about, and that he is plotting with Tobi. He overpowers Naruto and Sakura, kidnapping the latter to exchange for the scroll. He then uses Great Spiraling Ring, destroying the area of Konoha and leaves.

As Naruto arrives, he attacks him and asked for the Red Moon Scroll once again. He then summoned up his Nine Masked Beasts and tries to kill Naruto but is stopped by the Akatsuki. He then starts to fight Naruto himself and clashes his Spiraling Ring with Naruto's Wind Release: Rasenshuriken. Upon doing so destroys his mask and reveals himself to be Naruto's counterpart and the real Menma. He then called forth his defeated Nine Masked Beasts and merges them to summon the Black Nine-Tails. As Menma overwhelms Naruto, the Nine-Tails berates Naruto for being defeated by a fake, however, not wanting to be trapped into a world controlled by Tobi, it offered a truce to fight their adversaries together, to which Naruto complies. As the fight comes to an end, Naruto and Menma exchange their final blows and Naruto knocks Menma out.

Tobi then takes control of Menma's body and personally begins to extract the Nine-Tails out of Naruto. Naruto then tries to use the Red Moon Scroll but fails as Tobi cuts the scroll, causing Naruto to look into Tobi's Sharingan. As the Nine-Tails was beginning to be extracted, Sakura steps in and stops the extraction. Naruto then gets up and defeats the controlled Menma, similar to how Minato defeated Tobi. Tobi leaves Menma's body and proceeds to fight Naruto and Sakura before falling back into their reality. Minato and Kushina then arrived and quickly checks upon Menma, who reverts back to his original state. Naruto and Sakura then transport back to their original world after saying their goodbyes.

When Lincoln was done explaining the dark history of Menma Uzumaki, The Mane 9 and the rest of the new recruits were horrified.

Ace Bunny: This guy really is nothing more than pure evil, and he's the Jinchuriki of The Black Nine-Tails.

Nicole Knudson: I've had just about enough of you two fuckers to last an eternity.

Hinata: Same here.

Suddenly, Nicole was surrounded by a purple energy aura and it was surrounded with stars, and Hinata was surrounded by a light blue energy aura and it was surrounded by ocean waves, and as they walked to Menma and RTN Hinata, they left behind stars and ocean waves with every step.

Hinata: Menma Uzumaki, you are nothing more than an evil and sadistic monster who enjoys causing pain and suffering to those who stand in your way, and you are nothing compared to Naruto.

Nicole: And RTN Hinata, you're nothing but a psychopath devoted to a complete monster who wants to destroy everything in his path.

Nicole and Hinata: And now, you will both pay the ultimate price for your crimes!

Then, Nicole was surrounded by a massive vortex of purple energy and beautiful stars, a star dragon was flying around the vortex and a purple phoenix was inside the vortex. Hinata was surrounded by a massive vortex of light blue energy and ocean waves, mermaids were swimming around the vortex, and inside the vortex was a light blue phoenix. When the two massive vortexes faded, both Nicole and Hinata emerged, but they were changed forever.

Hinata has transformed into SUPER ANGEL 500,000,000,000 OCEAN MAELSTROM MERMAID ANGEL OF LOVE!

We were amazed by Nicole and Hinata's transformations, and Naruto was blushing after seeing what's happened to Hinata.

Naruto: Wow, Hinata, you and Sis look amazing, how do you both feel?

Hinata: (Divine Echoing Maelstrom Voice) We feel incredible, Naruto, and now, we're going to make those monsters pay with their lives.

Nicole: (Divine Echoing Cosmic Stellar Voice) You want to help out with these two, bro?

Naruto's eyes turned crimson red and as his red aura flared up, he'd transformed into his Super Angel 500,000,000,000 Inferno Firestorm Fox Angel form, and he unholstered his Sword of The Jinchuriki from his wider muscular back, and spreads his large crimson red angel wings, and he still had his crimson red fox ears and large, massive, long nine red fox tails, even in normal form.

Naruto: (Divine Echoing Inferno Feral Voice) Let's get those monsters.

Kushina: I can't believe that this version of our son would become like this.

Minato: Kushina that version of our son is a monster and is not our son. He is a monster that needs to be put down like a mad dog.

Me: I agree. Lets get these battles done. But first I have something I want to do for Tara.

Tara: What is it?

Me: You're going to see now. (Snaps fingers)

Suddenly a massive flash of light shined down onto the center of the village square and the divine singing of angels was heard and a figure came down and it was a woman with beautiful blond hair and blue eyes and she had beautiful golden yellow angel wings and had a smile that can make anyone happy. She was dressed in a beautiful blue dress and had a butterfly baret in her hair. It was Tara, Geoforce and Gloria's long deceased mother Queen Selene Markov of Markovia.

She landed and Tara, Geoforce and Gloria could not believe it. I had brought their own mother back from the dead!

Tara: (Voice Breaking) Mom? Is that you?

Geoforce: (Voice Breaking) Mom?

Gloria: (Voice Breaking) It has to be you.

Queen Selene: Oh my dear children, it's great to see you all again after all this time.

Tara: MOM!

Geoforce: MOM!

Gloria: MOM!

They went and hugged their own mother for the first time in over 40 years.

Tara: (Crying) Oh mom! We missed you so much!

Queen Selene: I missed you too Tara. My gosh look how much you all have grown.

Tara: (Crying) We have so much to tell you mom.

Queen Selene: I can't wait to hear all about it.

Tara: Oh mom this is my amazing husband Garfield Logan A.K.A. Beast Boy.

Beast Boy: (Bows) It's an honor to meet you your majesty.

Queen Selene: An honor too Garfield. Thank you all so much for looking out for my children.

Me: You're welcome your majesty. I figured that Tara and Garfield can have some family with them. So I brought you back to have you be with them.

Queen Selene: I'm honored. I heard what happened with my husband and everything.

Me: Yeah he got what was coming to him.

Queen Selene then took off her ring and she came up to me and gave it to me.

Queen Selene: You can give it to someone you love.

Me: Thank you your majesty.

?: Let me get some action too.

A figure came out and it was BOOSTWING OF THE CORVICONS!

Nico: Boostwing of the Corvicons!

Boostwing: Honor to meet you Nico.

Nico: Same here. Are you here to challenge one of us?

Boostwing: Yep. I picked Mameko.

Mameko: Awesome!

We got ready for action and the battles were underway.

Battle 1: Earth, Applejack, Apple Bloom, Frozen Fright, Rockhoof, Earth Skylanders, Stone Luna, Dino Tricera, Lynn, Tara, Sam S.L., Bobby, Geoforce, Blitzwing and Astrotrain VS Grumblemon

Grumblemon was first.

Grumblemon: (to Earth) Did J.D. really meet a Diancie Gene Slammer this morning?

Earth: He sure did. And Evelyn is beautiful both as a human and as a Diancie.

Applejack: She sure is. She's as beautiful as Rarity's dresses.

Apple Bloom: I agree sis. And she would make a great partner for helping Rarity out.

Frozen Fright: You bet she would. Rarity makes amazing clothes and Evelyn would make a great partner at one of Rarity's boutiques.

Rockhoof: (Scottish Accent) Aye. That she would lads.

Flashwing: Evelyn is amazing and Diancie is one of my favorite Pokemon.

Stone Luna: She is amazing dudes.

Dino Tricera: I think it's really cool how she is the legendary Jewel Pokemon and they do say that diamonds are a girls best friend.

Grumblemon: That's true. Tara I'm so happy you have your mom back. What happened with you and your father was horrible.

Tara: I know and I'm happy to have her back. Me, Brion and Gloria have so much to tell her.

Geoforce: We sure do sis.

Lynn: But thank goodness she is back. What King Markov did was unforgivable.

Sam S.L.: No kidding dudes.

Bobby: You said it. But thank goodness we never have to see that tyrant again.

Grumblemon: Amen to that. Lets do it!

Dino Tricera: YEAH! DINO TRICERA! POWER OF THE ANCIENTS! TRICERA SPEARS OF JADE! BEAUTIFUL! THIS DINO KNIGHT IS READY!

They fired waves of Earth, rock, energy, crystal and apples and smashed him down.

Earth: ALL RIGHT!

Applejack: YEEHAW! That was great!

---

Battle 2: J.D. Knudson, Twilight Sparkle, Luster Dawn, Princess Cadance, Flurry Heart, Star Swirl the Bearded, Magic Skylanders, Crystal Laney, Dino Tyranno, Varie, Misty Tredwell, Rachel S.D., Celica, Breach and Ace VS Lord Drakkon

---

Lord Drakkon was next.

Drakkon: (to me) You think Evelyn would get along with Crystal Laney?

Me: I think she definitely would. As well as Rarity and all the Crystal users. Diancie is known as the Jewel Pokemon after all.

Twilight Sparkle: They do say that Diamonds Are a Girls Best Friend after all and they are beautiful.

Luster Dawn: They sure are. Diamonds and jewels are really beautiful.

Princess Cadance: And I should know because I am the Princess of the Crystal Empire. Every part of the empire is made of jewels.

Flurry Heart: Where did that saying come from? Diamonds are A Girls Best Friend.

Me: It was from Marilyn Monroe's 1950's movie Gentlemen Prefer Blondes.

Star Swirl: Interesting. That sounds like a movie I would see.

Spyro: I do like that saying however.

Crystal Laney: Me too. And yes I would definitely get along with Evelyn both as a Diancie and as a human.

Drakkon: Good to know. And J.D. I'm happy for Tara. Now she, Gloria and Brion can heal their wounded family after everything they went through with King Markov.

Me: I am happy too. What King Markov did was unforgivable.

Dino Tyranno: Yeah what happened during that time was awful.

Varie: You are not kidding on that.

Misty Tredwell: Yeah it was horrible that Tara and her family went through all that.

Celica: It sure was. But thank goodness we destroyed King Markov forever.

Rachel S.D.: Yeah what a heartless fiend and a ruthless tyrant.

Lord Drakkon: You aren't kidding on that. Lets do it!

Dino Tyranno: DINO TYRANNO! POWER OF THE ANCIENTS! SILVER SWORD! DINO KNIGHT READY!

We went at him and I clashed powerfully with him all over the place and then we fired waves of energy, elements and magic and smashed him down.

Me: A Victory worthy of awesome!

Twilight Sparkle: That was amazing!

---

Battle 3: Mollie, Rainbow Dash, Scootaloo, Magma Gloom, Flash Magnus, Air Skylanders, Air Lincoln, Dino Ptera, Lincoln, Linka, Paula, Rita, Elena, Stormy Weather, Wildrider and Dead End VS Zzzax

---

Zzzax was next.

Zzzax: (to Mollie) I like how Auradon and the Isle of the Lost are home to the 2nd generation of Disney heroes and villains.

Mollie: I do too. And it's all amazing that it's all right here on Earth.

Rainbow Dash: Yeah it sure is awesome! After we destroyed Xehanort, all the worlds we went to during all of Sora's adventures merged and formed into Auradon.

Scootaloo: It's so cool! I think the castles and kingdoms of the Disney movies look amazing here.

Magma Gloom: They sure are cool. I think it's amazing that all this happened to the kingdoms.

Flash Magnus: I just hope we don't have to kill all the same villains over and over again.

Whirlwind: Yeah we don't want to go through that ever again.

Air Lincoln: That must've been really intense to go through all that.

Zzzax: It sure was. But it's really cool seeing all the worlds of Disney all here like this. And with no Xehanort, Heartless, Nobodies, Dream Eaters and Unversed to ruin it.

Dino Ptera: I agree. That was intense that you all went through that.

Lincoln: It sure was.

Xaldin: (to Beast Boy) I hope Xehanort doesn't have a kid here. Then again, I doubt it considering that J.D. probably smashed his groin in the final fight.

Beast Boy: Yeah that's possible!

They laughed!

Fluttershy: That is funny. But I agree.

Tree Hugger: Xehanort having a kid here would not be cool dudes.

Tornado Bolt: No it won't especially after everything Xehanort did that nearly destroyed the entire universe.

Mage Meadowbrook: Yeah what Xehanort did was horrible.

Stealth Elf: But we still have his evil mess to clean up.

Plant Lola: And we'll never see his ugly face again.

Dino Mammoth: I heard so much about Xehanort and what he did over the years and that was terrible. But thank goodness you all were able to stop him before he could wipe everything out.

Xaldin: Thank goodness for that. Also Tara, I'm so happy for you and your family to have your mom back.

Rarity: It was awful that all that happened to her and that was when you know who was terrorizing the world.

Sweetie Belle: You mean Slade?

Rarity: Yes that's right.

Thunder Terror: Yeah. But thank goodness Tara can control her power completely now.

Mistmane: Yeah thank goodness. Lucy not being able to control her power is a result of her going to transform shortly.

Zap: (Gurgling Voice) It will be cool to see her transform.

Liquid Leni: I can't wait to see what she does.

Dino Ichthy: It will be amazing to see what she turns into.

Goliath: So her losing control of her powers is a result of her being ready to transform? Wow! That's like what happened with Lincoln when we met the Data Squad Digidestined.

Vakama: Yeah that is something. Except we thought that Lincoln was losing his powers.

Nokama: Lucy was experiencing a supercharge here.

She formed the word Bullet and it fired a massive barrage of energy bullets and they hit the Vine Monster all over and knocked him down.

---

Battle 15: Mameko the Manticore VS Boostwing

---

Boostwing was next.

Mameko: It's gonna be an honor to have one of the Corvicons as my archenemy.

Boostwing: I won't disappoint you.

Mameko went at him and kicked him and smashed him down.

---

Battle 16: Sea VS Bluto

---

Bluto was next.

Bluto: Hard to imagine that Nicole, Naruto and Hinata all have a bad history with that bad version of Hinata and Naruto.

Sea: No kidding. All their adventures in 150,000 years were really something in that time.

Bluto: You are not kidding. Lets do it!

Sea punched and pulverized Bluto all over with incredible fury and smashed him down.

---

Battle 17: Hinata VS Menma & RTN Hinata

---

Menma Uzumaki and RTN Hinata were next.

Nicole: You 2 make me sick!

Naruto: Yeah you give me a real bad name!

Nicole, Naruto, and Hinata went after RTN Hinata and Menma Uzumaki, and they fired powerful blasts of stars, water, and fire at Menma and RTN Hinata, which exploded with incredible power, and really damaged them. They were really letting those fucked-up monsters have it. Menma tried to use his Black Nine-Tailed Fox powers to attack, but Naruto put a powerful Eight Trigrams seal on his stomach, and this seal forever restrained the Black Nine-Tailed Fox inside him, and Naruto slashed off Menma's arms with his Sword of The Jinchuriki, and Menma screamed in excruciating pain, as blood gushed from his arms.

RTN Hinata, in a furious rage, tried to help Menma, but Hinata and Nicole sliced off RTN Hinata's arms, and slashed her eyes out, destroying her Byakugan forever, and she screamed in excruciating pain, as blood gushed from the bloody stumps of her arms. Both of them were on their last legs, and they no longer have the strength to fight.

Naruto: They're on their last legs, now's our chance. Let's wipe them off the face of the Earth forever.

Nicole: (To Naruto and Hinata) Let's do it, bro and sis. (To Menma and RTN Hinata) This is the end for the both of you. STAR STYLE NINJA ART: STAR DRAGON RASENSHURIKEN!

Nicole formed a massive dark purple Rasenshuriken with dark purple nebulae and stars with a star dragon orbiting around the light purple core.

Naruto: Time to die, Menma. FIRE STYLE NINJA ART: NINE-TAILED FOX RASENSHURIKEN!

Naruto formed a crimson red Rasenshuriken with the eyes of Kurama glaring at Menma and RTN Hinata with hatred at them for their crimes.

Hinata: WATER STYLE NINJA ART: OCEAN MAELSTROM RASENSHURIKEN!

Hinata formed a massive ocean blue Rasenshuriken with mermaids swimming in the ocean waves, and orbiting around the light blue core.

Naruto, Hinata, and Nicole infused their Rasenshurikens with Super Hakai energy, as there was traces of purple inside, and as they threw the Rasenshurikens at Menma and RTN Hinata, they exploded with incredible power, and destroyed Menma and RTN Hinata, and it Super Hakaied those monsters.

Nicole and Hinata powered down, and their eyes change back to normal, but their new clothes, bodies, angel wings, jewelry, and weapons were permanent, same with Naruto.

Nicole: Goodbye forever, monsters.

We regrouped and everyone all over the place cheered wildly for us.

Me: YEAH!

Majar: Usual battles are done.

Borth: Now, to find Audrey.

Me: Finding her in a big place like this is not gonna be easy.

Laney: But Eli can help with that.

Eli: Let me see here.

Eli concentrated.

Eli: She's coming this way!

Me: Stand ready!

We stood ready and a figure came out and it was AUDREY!

---

She is the daughter of Princess Aurora and Prince Phillip, the former arch-rival of Mal and appeared as one of the two secondary antagonists in the first movie (along with Chad Charming), as well as a recurring antagonist of Descendants: Wicked World, an unseen character in Descendants 2 and the main antagonist of Descendants 3 .

She is portrayed and voiced by Sarah Jeffery.

Descendants

In the first film, Audrey is seemingly a sweet, bubbly, vivacious and kindhearted girl on the surface, but in reality she is incredibly vain, selfish and narcissistic, as well as vituperative, xenophobic and resentful towards the VKs. Audrey becomes even worse after Prince Ben (the son of Queen Belle and King Beast, the rulers of Auradon) leaves her for Mal, who happens to be the daughter of her mother's enemy Maleficent. Audrey tries to fix this by dating Chad as she is still incredibly hurt by Ben leaving her and only dated him in an attempt to make him jealous, but it doesn't work. Since Audrey grew up in royalty, she does have a reason to be very elegant. She was the most popular student in Auradon Prep before Mal arrived with her friends (Evie, Jay and Carlos De Vil).

At the Auradon Prep Family Day celebration, Audrey takes her chance along with her grandmother to ridicule and bully the VKs, and eventually, the two completely abandon Ben since he is the only remaining AK who treats them with respect. However, she is impressed to see Mal and the others defeating Maleficent during Ben's coronation as King before dancing with Jay in the closing number.

Wicked World

As shown throughout the series she still remains envious of Mal and the other VKs. In general, Audrey is shown to get very exasperated at Mal's antics, and is often victim to magic-related incidents. In season one of Wicked World she constantly accuses and blames Mal for everything bad that's happening in Auradon and convinces most of the other AKs to do the same.

After CJ is revealed as the true culprit she admits that she will never understand the VKs. The same thing happens in the next season when Mal is possessed by her cursed jewel however she does end up finally redeeming herself for good and assisted everyone in helping defeat Zevon. She also appears to be rather easily scared and despite attempting to fight her battles, she is very weak, frail and incompetent, so she doesn't do much harm to many opponents with the exception of the Puppet Army.

Descendants 2

Audrey doesn't appear in the second film, but she is mentioned by

Chad and Jane, who stated that she went on a spa vacation with the Three Good Fairies. Shortly prior to the Royal Cotillion, Audrey was heading back home when her carriage broke down, resulting in her calling Chad into the scene to guide her home.

Descendants 3

In the third and final film, Audrey was shown watching Ben's proposal to Mal to become the new queen of Auradon as a reward for her heroics against Maleficent and Uma, to which Mal happily accepts. Audrey completely protested this as she wanted to be queen herself, but the entire audience ignored her by instantly cheering for Mal when she accepts the proposal. After being scolded by Queen Leah for her failure to have Ben by her side, a jealous Audrey sarcastically congratulates Mal before accusing her of stealing Ben, causing Mal to run off with Ben.

Back in her dorm room, Audrey cries over her failure to become queen of Auradon, feeling so upset that her lifelong dream is gone, her grandmother making her feel like a failure, and that everyone actually supports Mal as their new queen of Auradon. Unable to let go of her jealousy against Mal, Audrey decides to become a villain herself, intending to make all of Auradon pay for their supposed betrayal against her. To that end, she broke into the Museum of Cultural History, where she stole the Queen's Crown and Maleficent's scepter, branding a dark wardrobe and dark makeup, and turning her hair pink and blue. Using the scepter, Audrey confronted Mal, blaming her for ruining her life and using the scepter to turn Mal into an old hag. She later crashed Jane's birthday party by casting a sleeping spell on everyone (except for Chad, who instantly allies with her, and Jane, who escapes by hiding in the Enchanted Lake). Upon hearing from Jane of what happened, Ben was confronted by Audrey, who issued an ultimatum: he must marry her and make her his queen in exchange for freeing everyone from her spells. However, Ben is outraged by this and refuses by ordering Audrey to hand over the scepter and he will forgive her in return. With Ben not realizing that he dumped her without so much as a reason, this incites an angry Audrey to turn Ben into a Beast (just like his father) before turning everyone else in Auradon into stone statues.

Fortunately, Mal and her friends were able to escape to the Isle, where Mal is turned back to normal and learned that a certain ember held by Hades (who happens to be Mal's father) can be used to break the spell. After convincing Hades to hand over the ember, Mal and her friends formed a deal with Uma and her pirate crew to help take down Audrey in exchange for free passage to Auradon. Witnessing the VKs' return to Auradon, Audrey casts another spell to bring knight armor suits to life to fight against them, but the VKs defeated the suits of armor together, much to Audrey's outrage. She is even more outraged to see that Jane has turned Ben back to normal and reunited with the other VKs.

Declaring this to be the last straw, Audrey furiously betrays Chad by locking him up in a closet before turning everyone else (except for Mal, Uma, Harry Hook and Celia Facilier) into stone. Taking Celia hostage, Audrey calls Mal out to fight her, provoking an angry Mal to transform into her dragon form. Seeing that Mal was in danger, Uma used her powers and combined them with the ember's, leading to Audrey being knocked out and placed in a deep sleep, resulting in her evil spells being undone for good. Though everyone in Auradon is finally freed from Audrey's spells for good, Queen Leah is completely distraught of the fact that Audrey just suffered the same curse that Maleficent inflicted on Aurora and that she has yet to find true love that could awaken her from it. Fortunately, Mal brings in Hades, who uses the ember to revive Audrey from her curse.

Being revived back to life, Audrey reflects on her actions and apologizes to both Mal and Ben, admitting that she wanted to make them pay for her loss. However, Mal and Ben forgive Audrey by apologizing to her for their actions against her; even Leah admits that she was wrong to teach Audrey to hate VKs and gratefully bows down to Mal as an apology for her previous behavior. Deciding to support Ben and Mal's new reign in Auradon out of gratitude for saving her life, Audrey is last seen happily celebrating with the other AKs and VKs before dancing with Chad and Harry.

Me: Audrey, daughter of Princess Aurora and Prince Philip.

Audrey: That's right. It's an honor to meet the famous Team Loud

Phoenix Storm.

Me: Same here. Also one of your family relatives is here.

King Stefan: Don't do this lass.

Audrey: You're my grandfather in a way, right?

King Stefan: That is correct.

Audrey: Well, aren't you proud of me? I'm about to use Maleficent's scepter to erase all evil in this world! (sees Gizmo) Including that pipsqueak over there!

Gizmo: Pipsqueak?! That's it, barf brain! You're going down hard!

Me: Gizmo stand down! Audrey do you really think you can achieve the power to do such a thing? Evil is an eternal force and it will always find a way to come back stronger.

Audrey: How would you know!?

Me: Because we have faced the that the forces of evil have sent us over the course of 5 years. Many of us have faced the forces of evil longer than anyone else we know. Evil is an eternal force and will always present new threats and obstacles. If you wipe out all the evil here, a new threat will arise and it will be stronger than ever. Do you want to face that?

Audrey: No.

Uma: Wow I didn't know that.

Me: It's true. Audrey your mother and father would not want this from you. It's not who you are and it's not what your grandfather would not want either.

King Stefan: He's right Audrey. I once thought like you lass. I wanted nothing more than to kill Maleficent all for my own selfish goals until I had a huge wake up call from J.D. about the error of my ways. It took a huge war to help me realize what a fool I was.

Audrey: Why should I believe you all? You don't know how much pain Mal's mother caused me.

Me: If it were the one we killed I would understand but Mal's mother here is totally different. She hates her mother. Also there are things you should know that can overcome the great threats of evil. They are Honesty, Generosity, Kindness, Laughter, Loyalty, Forgiveness, Hope, Justice, Love, Empathy, Humility, Compassion and Valor as well as another kind of magic that is within everyone…

Twilight and her friends, Eli, Nico and Varie all glowed and then I transformed into DAYDREAM J.D.!

Me: The Magic of Friendship! Friendship is more powerful than you think Audrey. Mal and her friends all may be the offspring of the most dangerous villains ever known but there is one thing they have that sets them apart from the ones that we destroyed in our world and that's Bonds of Friendship. Just like I have bonds with my friends. Audrey you can have great friends and more if you show them love and compassion. You don't have to follow the same path of evil that Maleficent did to make people love you. There's no honor in that.

Audrey then broke down crying.

Mal then hugged her and then suddenly a blob of darkness formed out of Audrey and it formed into DARK AUDREY!

Me: Looks like her dark side has surfaced!

I reverted back and we stood ready for a fight.

Lucy Loud: Can I transform with you guys?

Nick Russell: Go right ahead, Lucy.

Lucy went up to Dark Audrey and her eyes turned pitch black and darkness swirled around her and it formed into crows, dark dragons, bats and creatures of darkness.

Lucy: Dark Audrey, you will never terrorize the kingdom of Auradon as long as I have anything to say about it. Your darkness may be as powerful as Maleficent's, but you will never amount to the level of power that the darkness can bring when you are born from it.

Suddenly a massive flash of light exploded out of Lucy and a massive vortex of darkness erupted out and enveloped her and it formed into a crow and a phoenix of darkness. When it faded, Lucy emerged from the vortex forever changed.

(IMPERATRIX MUNDI PLAYS AT 1:45 TO 2:14)

Lucy looked like she was 21 and had the body of a goddess! She had longer pitch black hair in a ponytail that went down to her lower back and she had a bat head band on her head. She had a dark phoenix with bat wings made of pure black fire with a vampire in one of its talons and the kanji for dark in the other. She had earrings in the shape of the kanji for Dark. Her eyes were glowing neon blood red. She had black lipstick on and she had longer vampire fangs that were visible. She had a black shirt with bats, vampires, werewolves and crows on it and the full moon was on it. She had a black leather skirt with the phases of the moon on it. She had pitch black leather pants and black combat boots on. She also had a black sleeveless trench coat on that had the night sky and creatures of horror and the dark on it. She had pitch black angel wings radiating with a black fire aura and written in purple on the back of her coat was the kanji for "Lucy Loud, Champion of Nótt the Norse Goddess of The Night, Emissary of Total Darkness, Exorcism Master of Demons, 2nd in Command of the Goths of Darkness, President of The Young Mortician's Club, Dark Phoenix of Team Loud Phoenix Storm, A Loving Sister and a true Mistress of The Night."

ルーシー・ラウド、夜の北欧の女神ノットのチャンピオン、完全な闇の使者、悪魔の悪魔払いのマスター、闇のゴート族の指揮官、ヤング・モルティシャンズ・クラブの会長、チーム・ラウド・フェニックス・ストームのダーク・フェニックス、愛する姉妹そして真の夜の女神。

Lucy also had a pitch black aura and the creatures of the night and souls of the damned were swirling around it. Lucy had turned into a SUPER ANGEL 500,000,000,000 DARKNESS PHOENIX OF THE NIGHT!

We were amazed!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Dark Audrey was dead!

Mystic Force Rangers: Checkmate!

Nico: Dark Audrey you have failed this universe!

Me: Yeah she has!

Nico: Awesome job J.D.

Me: You ALL did a great job!

We all powered down and we saw Audrey not moving.

Abomination: Why is Audrey not moving?

Vulkanus: I think she went into a coma when her dark side separated from her.

Maria: (to Mal) Does Auradon have an infirmary?

Mal: Yes follow me!

I put Audrey on my back and we went to the castle infirmary.

Mal's father came in and we saw that it was HADES!

Mal: Thank you for coming.

Descendants Hades: Didn't have much choice.

Bane: Don't make this any harder than it has to be.

Me: You are much different than the Disney Version of Hades we know and love.

Descendants Hades: I do act differently huh?

Anna K.: But your 1997 Hercules version of you that we know is awesome and funny. And is a great archenemy for me.

Descendants Ben: Can you wake her?

Descendants Hades: Since when do heroes care about villains? She's- One of your own? (chuckles) Right. When you guys try to destroy the world, it's an error in judgment. But when it's one of us, lock 'em up, throw away the key. Right, Beast?

Maria: What about us?

Descendants Hades: You guys are fine. I mean, all of you know an actual villain and an actual hero when you see one. Auradon should really follow your example. Now, why don't you let me help Audrey and save the mushy talk afterwards? Before Ben's old man over there changes his mind and beats my ass out?

Me: Good idea.

Descendants Hades revived Audrey and she was weak but she was gonna be all right.

Audrey: Oh Mal I'm so sorry. Sorry for everything.

Mal: It's okay Audrey.

We then saw Mal address her subjects.

Vulture: I think Mal has something to say.

Mal: Thank you, Adrien. (to the crowd) I can't be queen of Auradon. I can't turn my back on the Isle. We made a decision to close the barrier forever. And it was my idea. But it's wrong. I've learned that you can't live in fear. Because it doesn't actually protect you from anything. You never know where the bad is gonna come from. And you never know where the heroes are gonna come from either. Without Uma and her pirates, Auradon would be gone. And without Hades… my father- Audrey would be gone. And the Masters of Evil and the Redemption Squad helped out as well. We are all capable of good and bad, no matter which side of the barrier we come from. And that's why I can't be queen of just Auradon. I have to be queen of the Isle, too, and it's time that we take the barrier down forever.

Gator Ghoul: I second this idea!

Me: Me too! It's time for you all to put aside your differences and work together with those of the Isle of The Lost.

Nico: That's right!

Everyone cheered in agreement.

We had the wedding in progress and we all were in our special clothes. It was a beautiful moment.

Another awesome fanfic done.

The Descendant of Disney was a great series! I loved watching it and the songs were awesome in the movies. The first part of the chapter was for the bloody and scary snake hybrid monster movie Piranhaconda and that was freaky! And the second part was for the movie based on the book The Island of Dr. Moreau. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Nflemingful, Etstheclarencefan, Drako1234658 and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys.

This chapter was also made in honor of the late Cameron Boyce who played as Carlos in the Descendants and he died of Epilepsy Complications.

R.I.P. Cameron Boyce: May 28, 1999 - July 6, 2019

The next girl is gonna be Mai the Kamaitachi from Japanese Myth and me and the Espeon Gene-Slammer are gonna meet her in the world of the 1999. Also it's the one of the moments you've all been waiting for. Get ready for an awesome and explosive adventure as we go into the world of RID Transformers from 2015 and we're going to meet Optimus and his team and I'll get a brutal reprimanding in the process. We're going to face the evil RID Starscream and make that monster pay for his crimes.

See you all tomorrow.

Into The World of Aligned Transformers

Over in the Pacific Ocean, Me and Moira Emerson the Espeon Gene-Slammer were flying over the sea and we were going through a powerfully strong typhoon and we then arrived in the Eye of the Storm.

Me: Wow! That was brutal!

Moira Emerson: J.D., I'm finding it very strange that we didn't see Nico before we left.

Moira concentrated and groaned as her skin turned pink.

Me: I find it strange too.

Moira shrank and turned into ESPEON!

Me: YEAH!

We went into further into the eye of a Typhoon and it was amazingly calm.

Me: Wow. Look at this. It's so calm in the Eye.

Moira Leafeon: Yeah.

We then saw a research station called the Volkov.

Me: The Volkov? (Gasp) OH NO! We're in the world of the 1999 movie Virus!

---

Akademik Vladislav Volkov, a Russian research vessel in the South Pacific, communicates with the orbiting space station Mir . A large energy source traveling through space strikes Mir, killing the cosmonauts and beaming itself down to Volkov . The electrical surge takes over the ship and attacks the crew.

Seven days later, the tugboat Sea Star, captained by alcoholic Robert Everton (Donald Sutherland), loses its uninsured cargo while sailing through a typhoon. Sea Star' s crew, led by navigator and ex-Navy officer Kelly Foster (Jamie Lee Curtis) and engineer Steve Baker (William Baldwin), discover the engine room taking on water. When Sea Star takes refuge in the eye of the storm to make repairs, Volkov appears on their radar. Realizing that it could be worth millions in salvage, Everton orders his crew aboard.

On Volkov, most of the electronics have been destroyed and the Russian crew are seemingly missing. Everton orders Steve to help a fellow crewman, Squeaky (Julio Oscar Mechoso), restore power to the ship. Immediately afterward, the ship's anchor drops on its own, sinking Sea Star with deckhand Hiko (Cliff Curtis) and first mate J.W. Woods, Jr. (Marshall Bell) on board. Steve leaves Squeaky to guard the engine room, where he is lured to his death by a robotic, spider-like creature. Steve rescues an injured Hiko, while Woods comes out unscathed.

As Foster treats Hiko in the sick bay, Chief Science Officer Nadia Vinogradova (Joanna Pacuła)-the sole surviving member of Volkov' s crew-shoots at the crew and is subdued by Steve. Nadia is hysterical about "it" needing power to travel through the ship and implores the crew to shut down the generators. She attacks Everton and Foster, who subdues her and takes her to the bridge. Steve, Woods, and crewman Richie Mason (Sherman Augustus) go to the engine room to look for Squeaky, but instead stumble upon an automated workshop producing more of the strange robots.

The three are attacked by the robots and what appears to be a gun-wielding Russian crew member. The Russian is revealed to be a cyborg, but the three bring it down with salvaged munitions from the ship's small arms locker and take its seemingly dead body to the bridge. Nadia explains that the sentient electrical energy beamed from the Mir took over the ship eight days prior, scanned the ship's computers to find information on killing humans, then used the automated workshops to convert Volkov' s crew into cyborgs; the one brought to the bridge was the ship's captain and Nadia's husband.

As the storm resumes, the crew head for the computer room. On the way, they are ambushed by a converted Squeaky and a giant robot that kills Woods. The survivors barricade themselves in the communications room, where Richie sends out a mayday; however, Everton shoots out the radio, unwilling to give up his salvage. Foster punches Everton and removes him from command. Richie uses the computers to talk to the alien (credited as The Intelligence); it tells them that it is "aware" and sees mankind as a "virus" which it plans to use as "spare parts." This drives Richie insane, causing him to gun down Squeaky and flee. When the remaining crew leave the room, Everton takes the opportunity to talk to the Intelligence, which recognizes him as the "dominant lifeform."

The crew discovers that the Intelligence has moved Volkov's computer elsewhere in the ship. Realizing that the ship is moving, they return to the bridge by going outside, where Hiko is lost to the typhoon. Meanwhile, Everton is guided to one of the workshops, where he makes a bargain with the Intelligence. Foster identifies Lord Howe Island as Volkov's destination, with Nadia surmising that the Intelligence wishes to seize a British intelligence station from which it could seize control of the world's military forces. As they decide to sink Volkov, the survivors are confronted by the now-cyborg Everton, which they defeat with a thermite hand grenade. They empty the ship's fuel tanks and set explosive charges.

Foster, Steve and Nadia run into Richie. A giant robot (piloted by the Intelligence) suddenly appears and attacks Nadia, Richie and Steve. The Intelligence captures Foster and tortures her for the location of the detonator. A mortally wounded Richie informs Steve that he prepared a jury-rigged ejection seat that can be used for escape. Nadia and Steve rescue Foster, and Nadia sacrifices herself by shooting a flaregun at nearby gas tanks to kill the Intelligence. Foster and Steve make it out safely by using Richie's ejection seat, which triggers an explosion and sinks Volkov, causing the sentient electricity to disperse in the seawater. Foster and Steve are rescued by a U.S. naval ship.

---

Moira Espeon: Wow that was a brutal movie.

Me: It sure was. LEts go.

We went into the Volkov and we saw THE INTELLIGENCE!

The Intelligence is the main antagonist of the 1992 science-fiction horror comic book Virus by Dark Horse Comics, and its 1999 film adaptation. It is a malevolent energetic alien entity that travels to Earth to destroy humanity and purge the "virus" they spread, while also using their bodies as "spare parts" to expand itself and build an army of cyborgs.

A mysterious alien energy source in space hijacks a space station before beaming itself down to Earth at a Chinese Navy research vessel. The source reconstructs the vessel, using the various electronics to transform the crew into cyborg monsters, which it plans to unleash across the world once it reaches shore.

Later, when a salvage ship spot and board the vessel, the alien uses the cyborgs to fight against the crew. Although they are slowly killed off one by one, the salvage crew detonate an explosion that sinks the ship and destroys the alien and its cyborgs.

Film

A large electrical energy source flies by the Earth, infecting the space station Mir . The source infects the station with a powerful electric blast, killing the cosmonauts, before using one of the antennae to beam itself down to Earth at the Russian research vessel Akademik Vladislav Volkov, which was communicating with the Mir . An electrical surge takes over the ship and attacks the crew.

A week passes when another vessel, the tugboat Sea Star, locates the Volkov following her silence. The crew, consisting of captain Robert Everton, navigator Kelly Foster, engineer Steve Baker, first mate J.W. Woods Jr., deckhand Hiko, and crewmen Squeaky and Richie Mason, climb aboard the ship to salvage any cargo. On the Volkov, most of the electronics have been destroyed and her crew is missing. Steve and Squeaky restore the power, but notice all machines still active on the ship immediately activate and function independently without human input. The security cameras also silently watch them. The anchor suddenly drops on its own and sinks the Sea Star, leaving the crew isolated on the lifeless Volkov .

Steve leaves Squeaky to guard the engine room while he goes and find the others. Squeaky spots a spider-like robot crawl down a vent, which drags him down as well when his neck gets caught in loose wires. As the others tend to Hiko's wounds, having been injured when the anchor crushed the Sea Star, they are attacked by the sole survivor of the Volkov, Nadia Vinogradova, who has gone hysterical over "it" needing power to travel and implores the group to shut down the generators. Steve, Woods, and Richie search for the engine room, coming across one of the 42 labs of the ship on the way, building more of the robotic spiders.

The three are attacked by the robots and a gun-wielding Russian, revealed to be a cyborg who the three bring down and take his seemingly dead body to the bridge. It breaks free to reveal an endoskeleton made of the skull and spine, but is shot by Richie. Nadia explains that the energy that beamed down scanned the ship's computers for information on killing people, then used the workshops to convert the crew into hostile cyborgs. The crew decide to head for the computer room, coming across Squeaky, only to discover that he has been converted by the Intelligence. A second robot, the Goliath Machine, shows up and kills Woods, causing the survivors to barricade themselves in the communication room. Richie uses the computers to ask the Intelligence what it is; it tells him that it is aware and sees mankind as a "virus" which it plans to use as "spare parts". This drives Richie paranoid, gunning down Squeaky when he breaks in and runs off, leading the others to chase after him.

Meanwhile, Everton was stripped from his command after destroying the radio since he was unwilling to abort his salvage, so he announces himself as the "dominant lifeform" to the Intelligence, and offers to help the entity navigate to its destination in exchange for disposing his crew. Discovering the ship is moving, the crew return to the bridge from outside, losing Hiko to the typhoon. Foster identifies Lord Howe Island as the ship's destination, with Nadia assuming that the Intelligence plans to seize a British military station located on the island and control the world's military forces. Goliath ambushes them but they manage to escape it. As they plan a way to sink the Volkov, a converted Everton attacks them, which they defeat by planting a grenade in-between his wired body. As the group find Richie and spill flammable fluid in the ship's bilge, Goliath, now twice in size from before, shows up again and attacks them, knocking out Foster.

Foster is tortured by Goliath for the whereabouts of the crew's detonator, though the others are able to save her. Richie is killed, while Nadia and Foster are separated from Steve. As they are cornered in front of a sealed door, Goliath obtains the crew's detonator and crushes it, sarcastically declaring checkmate. It grabs Nadia and demands if there are any more detonators on the ship, but Nadia responds that there was just one and shoots a flare gun at nearby gas tanks to destroy the robot. However, her sacrifice was in vain as Goliath withstood the blast. Steve and Foster manage to avoid Goliath and escape from the Volkov by using Richie's ejection seat. The mechanism also activates a group of grenades, triggering an explosion that sinks the Volkov . The energy substance disperses in the seawater, ending the Intelligence for good.

Me: Whoa so you are The Intelligence.

Intelligence: THAT IS CORRECT JAMES DEAN KNUDSON. YOU WILL BE THE FIRST I REPLACE.

Me: Don't count on it.

Moira: We will stop you!

?: Let us help you!

We saw a Kamaitachi and a Rapidash.

Me: Whoa a Kamaitachi and a Rapidash.

Rapidash: Its good we found you J.D.

Me: That voice. Lara? Is that you?

Lara Rapidash: That's right. I was turned into this by those scientist sidewinders.

Me: Those dirtbags must be in hiding.

Mai the Kamaitachi: By the way my name is Mai. It's awesome to meet you J.D.

Me: Same here. Lets get this monster!

We fired waves of energy and fire and destroyed The Intelligence forever. I put on my blind man glasses and snapped my fingers and reverted Lara back and she was naked. Moira reverted back too.

Moira was human again. But naked.

Moira: (covers herself) Thank God that virus is dealt with!

Lara Laramie: (Covers herself) No kidding. But thank y'all for helping me out. I didn't expect to become a Rapidash.

I gave them clothes.

Me: You're welcome Lara. But thank goodness you're all right. We were worried about you.

Lara Laramie: Sorry about that.

Me: Now you and I are BOTH Rapidash Gene-Slammers.

Lara Laramie: We sure are.

Mai the Kamaitachi: Yeah that is amazing.

We later went back home.

After meeting Mai the Kamaitachi, Lincoln, me, Varie, Eli, Aquaman, Lily the Mermaid, and Ariel's sisters were in the world of Kindergarten Cop, and not only is Lincoln going to rescue the ten girls who were sighted there, but we're also going to help Detective John Kimble deal with Cullen Crisp and Eleanor Crisp.

---

Cullen Crisp

Cullen Crisp, Sr. is the main antagonist in the 1990 live action film Kindergarten Cop .

He was portrayed by Richard Tyson, who also played Buddy Revell in Three O'Clock High .

Crisp is a drug dealer who has been on the run from police detective John Kimble for five years. He has an ex-wife named Rachel Myatt Crisp, who works at Astoria Elementary School under the name of Joyce Palmieri, and has a son named Dominic who he no longer sees. Crisp also has a devious mother named Eleanor Crisp.

Crisp is constantly searching for Rachel and Dominic, who left him long ago after discovering his true nature as a devious criminal. It is believed that when Rachel left Crisp, she stole millions of dollars from him but this is later revealed to be a lie spread by Crisp to incite the underworld to find her for him. Crisp receives information regarding Rachel's whereabouts from an informant before murdering him. A young female drug addict named Cindy is the only witness to the crime, but she refuses to testify, and so John is sent to find Rachel and persuade her to testify instead in order for Crisp to receive a full prison sentence.

John and his new partner Detective Phoebe O'Hara go to Astoria to search for Rachel, with O'Hara planning to act as a substitute teacher in Astoria Elementary School's kindergarten class. After she falls ill, John is forced to take her place and meets the young pupils in the class, including Dominic. He also meets Rachel since she is also a teacher at the school, and although he is at first unaware of her true identity, they quickly become very fond of each other. Meanwhile, Crisp's mother Eleanor provides Cindy with spiked cocaine that kills her, and the case against Crisp is then dismissed since no other evidence exists. Crisp is then released from prison and then he and Eleanor then go straight to Astoria Elementary School using the information he received from the informant, under the alias Mr. Green, eventually locating Rachel, Dominic, and John in one of the classrooms. Crisp sets the school library on fire and while everyone is fleeing, he abducts Dominic and escapes with him. He is spotted though by John's students and the detective gives chase, while Crisp attempts to convince Dominic that he is his father. As John arrives, Crisp uses his own son as a hostage, but the class' pet ferret that Dominic had rescued during the fire alarm bites his father in the neck. In pain, Crisp shoots John in the knee, but John instantly grabs his gun and fires three shots into Crisp's chest, ending his life forever.

Eleanor Crisp

Eleanor Crisp is the secondary yet final antagonist in the 1990 film Kindergarten Cop .

She was portrayed by Carroll Baker.

Biography

Eleanor is the mother of Cullen Crisp, the film's main antagonist, and helps him in his efforts to find his ex-wife Rachel and his son Dominic. Eleanor is very close to her son and is prepared to do anything he requires of her. She kills the only witness to a murder committed by Crisp using spiked cocaine, and she accompanies Crisp to Astoria Elementary School to help search for Dominic.

When undercover cop Detective Phoebe O'Hara attempts to pursue Crisp after he abducts Dominic during a fire alarm, Eleanor runs her over with her car. She then attempts to kill Detective John Kimble after he shoots and kills Crisp, but an injured O'Hara appears and knocks her out with a baseball bat.

Eleanor is then arrested by the police for attempted murder of a police officer accesory to murder and murder in the first degree and accessory to murder and sent to prison for life.

Lincoln: Wow, we're in the world of Kindergarten Cop, and I think I know why we came here. Not only am I going to rescue the ten girls who were sighted here, but we're also going to help Detective John Kimble deal with Cullen Crisp and Eleanor Crisp.

Me: That's right, big guy, and I watched Kindergarten Cop long ago with my Dad, and I really hate that Cullen Crisp and Eleanor Crisp.

Varie: Yeah, Cullen Crisp isn't only an infamous drug dealer, but he's also a child abuser, and Eleanor was also helping out her bastard husband.

We headed for the Astoria Elementary School, and we saw ten girls, along with Detective John Kimble, who are shielding Cullen Jr., and they're facing Cullen Crisp and Eleanor Crisp.

Cullen Crisp: You… you have interfered with my attempts to reclaim my son for the last time. And now, I will kill every last one of you, including that filthy brat and you ten bitches for getting in my way!

Cullen Crisp tried to get out a gun to shoot, but Lincoln fired a magnetic blast using Magneto's powers and magnetized the gun, and it was magnetized to a nearby pipe. When Cullen Crisp and Eleanor Crisp saw who it was that interfered, they were enraged beyond belief.

Cullen Crisp: (Enraged screaming) TEAM LOUD PHOENIX STORM, HERE?! DAMN YOU, DAMN YOU ALL!

Lincoln: I can't believe how low you'd stoop, Cullen. Attempting to shoot a child, who happens to be your son, along with ten unarmed girls, and Detective Kimble, that just proves how much of a lowlife you and Eleanor really are, and now, I'm going to make sure that the both of you pay. But Cullen, the price you're going to pay is about to be fatal. J.D., Varie, Eli, you guys make sure that Eleanor doesn't escape. Lily, you, me, Aquaman, and Ariel's sisters, we're going to make this lowlife bastard pay with his life.

Lily the Mermaid: You said it.

Me: You're scum in every sense of the world Crisp. I should just kill your fucking ass and send you off to Hell. But that would be too easy.

Suddenly, an army of Unversed appeared, and then, our Dark Orb detectors went off, and it showed us that Cullen Crisp had a Dark

Orb with him.

Lincoln: I should've known, with the army of Unversed appearing, that meant you had a Dark Orb with you. But, this is the perfect opportunity for this.

Lincoln's deep sapphire blue eyes turned neon deep sapphire blue, and the sclera of his eyes turned into the infinite reaches of space with stars, and his massive neon blue energy aura flared up, as he went Super Angel-Ebonwu 500,000,000,000,000 Supercell Lightning Thunderbird Furious Hyperstorm of Justice, but we were in for a surprise. Suddenly, we saw something appear around Lincoln's neon blue energy aura, it was the thirteen elements, flames for fire, water drops for water, snowflakes for ice, wind gusts for wind, lightning bolts for lightning, leaves for nature, clocks for time, gravity lightning for gravity, shadow wisps for darkness, molten lava dripping from his wings and rock fragments for Earth, crystal fragments for crystal, gleaming stars for cosmic, and gleaming suns for light.

This was due to the acquiring and permanent merging of The Thirteen Stones of The Elements that he found in that lockbox in McWolf's castle in The Hidden Sand Village, and his Sword of Taranis had changed, the 6'0" massive, double-edged blade had grown to 6'5", and the blade got a bit wider, the long brown handle got a little longer, and the large curved-upward pointing orange horns and orange sphere pommel got a little bigger, along with the blue gems. We were amazed by what'd happened, Lincoln has transformed into SUPER ANGEL-EBONWU 500,000,000,000,000 ELEMENTAL SUPERCELL LIGHTNING THUNDERBIRD FURIOUS HYPERSTORM OF JUSTICE!

Me: Incredible, so this was your surprise, big guy?

Lincoln: (Divine Echoing Elemental Voice of Justice) Oh, yeah, and this was from when I found The Thirteen Stones of The Elements, and they merged with my Sword of Taranis, and you saw the other symbols appear around my cutie mark.

Varie: Oh man, that's right. Show that son of a bitch no mercy and send those Unversed back to the darkness.

Lincoln: My pleasure, Varie.

Lincoln unholstered his Sword of Taranis, and he, Lily the Mermaid, Aquaman, and Ariel's sisters unholstered their Swords of Poseidon, and went after Cullen Crisp and the army of Unversed, while me, Varie, and Eli were going after Eleanor Crisp, who was trying to flee, but Eli used The Force, and locked the doors, preventing her from escaping.

Lily the Mermaid, Aquaman, and Ariel's sisters fire powerful blasts of water at one group of Unversed, and they slashed them with incredible power, destroying them, and we got a massive power boost from the negative energy. Then, Lincoln fired powerful waves of fire, water, ice, lightning, wind, earth and lava, crystals, stars, vines, light, darkness, gravity lightning, and time energy at the remaining Unversed, and he destroyed them all, and we gained a really massive power boost from the negative energy of the slain Unversed. Lincoln grabbed the Dark Orb Cullen Crisp had in his pocket, and threw it into the portal to The Warp, and it shattered completely.

Cullen Crisp tried to make a run and grab Cullen Jr., but Lincoln grabbed Cullen Crisp, and threw him into a wall, and knocked him out. Lincoln then tied Cullen Crisp up with neon blue energy ropes, and we already got finished with Eleanor Crisp, when Eli knocked her out with a baseball bat, and she was tied up in neon energy ropes fired by me. We got Cullen Jr. to safety, and Lincoln powered down, as his neon deep sapphire blue eyes turn back to deep sapphire blue, the sclera of his eyes turned back to white, and holstered his Sword of Taranis on his wider muscular back.

Nicole saw who the ten girls were, they were Wendy Garret from Gun X Sword, Garnet MacLaine from Dragonaut the Resonance, Ikumi Mito from Food Wars, Tohru Honda from Fruits Baskets, Rias Gremory and Xenovia Quarta from High School DxD, Misaki Ayuzawa from Maid-Sama, Cecily Campbell from The Sacred Blacksmith, LaLa Satalin Deviluke from to Love Ru and Masane Amaha from Lori's favorite anime WitchBlade.

Nicole: Oh wow, it's Wendy Garret from Gun X Sword, Garnet MacLaine from Dragonaut the Resonance, Ikumi Mito from Food

Wars, Tohru Honda from Fruits Baskets, Rias Gremory and Xenovia Quarta from High School DxD, Misaki Ayuzawa from Maid-Sama, Cecily Campbell from The Sacred Blacksmith, another version of Masane Amaha from Witchblade and LaLa Satalin Deviluke from to Love Ru

Lincoln: That's incredible. Are you girls okay?

Wendy Garret: Yeah, we're okay, is the kid alright?

Lincoln: He's safe.

Then, when Wendy Garret, Garnet MacLaine, Ikumi Mito, Tohru Honda, Rias Gremory, Xenovia Quarta, Misaki Ayuzawa, Cecily Campbell, LaLa Satalin Deviluke, and Masane Amaha saw who it was that rescued them and gave Cullen Crisp the beatdown, their faces lit up like a red Christmas light upon seeing the 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful muscles, eight-pack abs, a lightning bolt cutie mark with the thunderbird and comic books on his right massive pec and was surrounded by the symbols of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness in a circle, a Celtic Cross cutie mark tattoo in the form of the cutie marks of Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Rainbow Dash, Applejack, Rarity, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Starlight Glimmer, and Trixie Lulamoon and in a circle are the other girls in Lincoln's harem with the Earth surrounded by the ring of mermaids, a deep sapphire blue kanji on his wider muscular back that said "Lincoln Landon Loud, Champion of Lightning, Master of Lightning Storms and The Weather, Emissary of Hinon, Golden-Hearted Brother of 16 Siblings, and Golden-Hearted Lover, Father, and Husband".

He had his Sword of Taranis holstered on his wider muscular back, his orange Crystal Saber holstered on his left hip and his Eater of Sins revolver holstered on his right hip, the Pisces constellation and Aquarius Zodiac sign on the back of his neck, weighted orange bands on his large biceps and thighs, deep sapphire blue eyes, larger blue angel wings surging with powerful super lightning and stars and blue nebulae reflecting on them, and he was dressed in an orange version of He Man 2002's loincloth with hanging silver lightning bolts, long orange trenchcoat coattails with hanging silver lightning bolts, blue pants with gold lightning bolts on the thighs, and large white leather combat boots with gold lightning bolts surrounded by a circle of smaller gold lightning bolts and armor on the toe area, silver Thunder Kanji earrings, a large silver Thunder Kanji necklace on his neck and across his permanently bare chest, his large fingerless black gloves with the symbol of The Loud House on it, a large Orange Buffalo Animal Spirit Ring on his left ring finger, a large Blue Lantern ring on his right ring finger, and he had eight large orange orbs orbiting around his legs.

LaLa Satalin Deviluke: Oh wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you all.

Lincoln made nine clones of himself, and he and the nine clones went up to the girls, and then picked them up and hugged them in his abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and he kissed them on the lips, which they returned with equally intense passion, as they wrapped their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones. We cheered over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem are going to like their new sisters to their future husband's harem.

LaLa Satalin Deviluke: Same here, handsome.

We went back home to the Estate, and everyone cheered wildly at what Lincoln did to Cullen Crisp. Thanks to the evidence presented by the witness, Cullen Crisp was convicted of drug dealing, murder, and child abuse, and Eleanor Crisp was also convicted of child abuse, attempted murder of a federal agent, and aiding and abetting a wanted fugitive, and they got their penalties. Cullen Crisp Sr. was sentenced to death via firing squad, he was executed the next day, his body was burned and we then tossed the ashes into the sun, and he was banished to The Warp. Eleanor Crisp was sentenced to Life in Prison Without Possibility for Parole, and Cullen Jr. was now living with Agent Kimble and Joyce.

---

After Cullen Crisp's execution and banishment to The Warp, we headed down to Great Lakes City to meet a group of friends that

Ronnie Anne and Syd Chang know.

Lincoln: I can't wait to meet this group of friends you met in Great Lakes City, Ronnie Anne.

Ronnie Anne: You'll love meeting them, Lincoln, they're also awesome skateboarders, just like you, me, Syd, The Bolton Siblings, and Max Goof.

Max Goof: Skateboarders, too, huh? This should be interesting.

We headed to the skate park in Great Lakes City, and we met with Nikki, Casey, Sameer, and Laird, who came on over.

Nikki: Hey, guys, glad you could make it.

Casey: It's an awesome pleasure to meet you guys.

Sameer: Yeah, Ronnie Anne and Syd have been telling us about your adventures.

Laird: And you've been beating a lot of villains.

Me: You too, guys.

Eli: And there's something you guys should know, it turns out that Nikki, Casey, Sameer, and Laird are now part of The Crusaders of The Thunderbird. Me and Father saw the marks appear on their left shoulders.

Atem: Eli's right, J.D. Nikki, Casey, Sameer, Laird, show them the marks on your shoulders.

Nikki, Casey, Sameer, and Laird showed us the symbol of The Crusaders of The Thunderbird: the thunderbird emblazoned on their left shoulders.

Sameer: And we'd like to join the team, if that's okay with you guys.

Me: Of course, Sameer. Plus, we heard from Ronnie Anne that you guys like to skateboard.

Casey: Oh yeah. Would you like to see?

Lincoln: Of course, and I don't know if Ronnie Anne told you this, but I'm also a skateboarder, too.

That caused The Great Lakes City Shredders to gasp in shock.

Nikki: You also skateboard?

Lincoln: Yeah, first, let me do a demonstration first. Then, we'll see your skills on the skateboard.

Lincoln had on a large orange helmet with lightning bolts, the Thunderbird, and elemental forces on his head, and knee and elbow pads, and he had his new large orange skateboard in hand called Ramp Shredder, it's decorated with lightning bolts and elemental forces, and it has the Thunderbird on it.

Lincoln: Alright, let's do this.

Lincoln got on, and he did some awesome skateboarding tricks on the ramp, and we cheered wildly for him, and it also impressed The Great Lakes City Shredders. After Lincoln finished, he got off his skateboard, and took off his helmet.

Max Goof: Awesome job, Lincoln.

Lincoln: Thanks, Max.

The two of them high-fived with lightning and light coming from their hands.

Then, The Great Lakes City Shredders did their skateboarding tricks, and we were impressed by their skills.

Syd Chang: That always gets awesome every time, and Laird, I was impressed that you didn't have any mishaps.

Eli: That's because I helped Laird with that.

Laird: And because of it, there's been no kinds of mishaps of any kind.

Suddenly, we heard the familiar sound of yowling in the air, and we saw The Great Lakes City Gatos heading this way.

Nico: Ugh, not those mangy gatos again, don't they have someone else to pester here?

Ronnie Anne: Nope, and they always attack me and my familia. You have no idea of how many of my skateboards those cats have shredded.

Top Cat: At least me and my friends know how to respect people, and I'm surprised Animal Control hasn't been called.

Choo-Choo: They may be a nuisance, but they can be of help, if we spray a villain with pickle juice and cover them in catnip, like Ronnie Anne said.

Brain: Uh, but, won't we get affected too?

That stunned us, we know Brain can be not too bright, but he does have his smart moments.

Lincoln: Don't worry, guys, I got this. Alright, scram, Great Lakes City Gatos.

Lincoln fired a powerful blast of water, and sprayed the Great Lakes City Gatos, which caused them to disperse, and run back to their territory in the alley. We breathed a sigh of relief from what Lincoln did.

Nikki: Wow, an awesome fighter, a skilled skateboarder, and he saved us from those mangy gatos, Ronnie Anne, you are one lucky girl.

Ronnie Anne: I'm not the only one.

Ronnie Anne showed Nikki, Casey, Sameer, and Laird the list of girls who are in Lincoln's harem, and who are also future wives that Lincoln's going to marry in the future, along with Lily the Mermaid, whom Lincoln promised to marry once he gets older. That stunned the Shredders, they know that the man Ronnie Anne is with also has many future lovers.

Laird: And we'll also protect you guys from getting brutally reprimanded, that way, Eli won't use that death glare.

We went back home, and Nikki, Casey, Sameer, and Laird are now our new members to the team.

---

We were having breakfast and then we saw that Nico wasn't with us.

Vademon: That's weird. Nico's not in his room.

Me: He's not outside either.

Laney: Weird. Wonder where he went.

Eli: I don't know either.

Mindwipe: Where could Nico be?

Lola: Guys, I think I know where Nico is.

Me: Don't tell me. In the Aligned Universe?

Lola: Yeah.

Me: Oh man. It's been 3 days already.

Eli: We better get going then.

Lincoln: We need to bring Nico back here! Now!

Lola: I don't know, guys. Maybe we shouldn't force Nico into coming back with us.

Cosmos: Lola has a point.

Me: I agree. But we better go check on him just to be on the safe side. And I better be ready for a big reprimanding. (Gulps) you guys better defend me if it gets out of hand.

Varie: We will J.D.

Tarantulas: I hope we find Nico soon. It's his turn today.

Me: It sure is Tarantulas.

Laney: I think he'll be okay.

Gator Ghoul, Grumblemon, Drakkon, Zzzax, Xaldin, Goliath, Abomination, Vulkanus, Bane, and Vulture then appeared.

Gator Ghoul: Can me, Grumblemon, Drakkon, Zzzax, Xaldin, Goliath, Abomination, Vulkanus, Bane, and Vulture go with you guys?

Me: You all sure can. We're going to the Aligned Transformers world.

Drakkon: Awesome!

Me: Lets go!

Lucy slashed the air and opened a portal that took us to the Aligned Universe.

ALIGNED TRANSFORMERS UNIVERSE

We arrived in the Aligned Universe.

Me: Wow! So this is the Aligned Transformers world. It looks very much like the Earth we all know.

Discord: May. Maria. You two have been here before. Where are we?

May: We're in Crown City.

Maria: The Aligned Autobots, when not in battle, are usually in the Scrapyard. Lana would love that place.

Me: Since you and Maria know this world better than we do May, you lead the way.

May: Okay.

We then saw explosions.

Me: Looks like we got here just in time! Lets go!

We went and we saw Nico and the Aligned Autobots fighting AIRACHNIA!

Nico: (to Airachnid) Geez, Airachnid. When Knock Out said that you were a Terrorcon Vampire now, he wasn't kidding!

Airachnid: That's soon to be the least of your worries Saiyan.

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off above the Terrorcons and energy lasers blasted them all over and the spirits of those that are organic and inorganic appeared and they converged and out came us.

Nico: About time you all showed up.

Me: That any way to greet the welcome wagon?

Airachnid: Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Me: That's right! You must be Airachnid. Now begone!

I fired a wave of energy and sent her flying with the blast far away.

Miko: Well, well, well. If it isn't Nico's so called best friend.

Aligned Bumblebee: Miko, save the reprimanding when we get to the Scrapyard.

Miko: Okay.

Drakkon: Well said, Bumblebee. Also, you sound just like Terry and Ron.

Aligned Bumblebee: I do don't I? Very coincidental. But J.D. it's an honor to meet you all. Nico told us so much about you.

Me: It's mutual but I am ready to take the beating or reprimanding you all have for me and the Loud Kids.

Lincoln: We're ready for it!

Laney: Yeah!

Lana: HIT US WITH YOUR BEST SHOT!

Aligned Bumblebee: First lets head back to the Scrapyard. You'll like it there.

We went back to the Scrapyard and we saw that it was a cool place.

Me: Wow! The Scrapyard you guys live at is amazing.

Nico: It sure is.

Lana: I'll say.

We saw tons of Stasis Pods too.

Spring Man: You've got a lot of stasis pods here.

Aligned Strongarm: During the war, it's true that Autobots killed Decepticons. But after the war ended, we decided to use Stasis Pods to hold Decepticons. Kind of like your prisons.

Me: Very genius.

Nico: Kind of like how we use DISKS now.

Akira Akatsuki: That's right.

Laney: That's really cool.

Aligned Bumblebee: Thanks for keeping us a secret as best as you could, Poliwag.

Poliwag: You're welcome Bumblebee.

Grumblemon: You guys really have kicked a lot of Decepticon aft.

Aligned Sideswipe: (laughs) I know, right?

Aligned Strongarm: Although, Sideswipe just loves showing off most of the time.

Aligned Sideswipe: You're not so better yourself, Ms. Bossy Pants!

Eli: Excuse me but I must discipline the nanny goats.

Aligned Smokescreen: I think you guys have done enough!

Eli: You know what? Say the word and I'm out of here!

Aligned Smokescreen: Word's already been given! The whole reason Nico started visiting us after that 3 Musketeers world is because of your angry and reckless methods in battle!

Me: Hey back off! He's my brother.

Nico: Besides guys it's J.D. you want to yell at not Eli.

Aligned Smokescreen: Oh yeah. Sorry.

Eli: No worries.

Me: Okay guys I'm ready. Hit me with your best shot.

I braced for their yelling.

Miko: You know what your problem is?

Me: Besides bad guys like the Starscream of your world making everyone's lives miserable?

Jack Darby: Exactly our point! You're so focused on punishing irredeemable scumbags that you sometimes ignore Nico's suggestions. And that really hurts his feelings!

Drill Man: I have to agree with them on this one, J.D.

Raf: Meanwhile, whenever Nico visits us, we treat him as one of us!

Me: And I appreciate that. Thank you. I've been a terrible friend lately because of what happened over the last 7 months.

Nico: We went through a horrible event called the 20 Days of Darkness.

Miko: Oh wow! I heard about that. I'm sorry you went through that Nico.

Nico: It's okay.

Me: (Crying) And it was all my fault.

Miko: And let's not forget the time Nico disciplined Girl Jordan and you threatened to cut his tail off!

Abomination: I still remember that.

Raf: Only the Joker and Lex Luthor treat their own teammates like that!

Me: What are you saying? That I'm just like Joker and Luthor?

Jack Darby: NO! We're not trying to say that. But all we're saying is that there's room for improvement.

Nico: Guys don't compare him to the Joker or Lex Luthor.

Jack Darby: He threatened you!

Nico: I know but he was just playing around with me. He would never do that for real.

Me: He's right. I was being too harsh.

Lola: What about me, Lana, Lori, Leni, Lynn, and Lucy?

Bulkhead: You guys are fine. Ever since that new leadership system started, the 6 of you have actually been supportive of Nico.

Lola: (sighs in relief) Oh, thank God!

Me: Unlike me. (Crying hard) I wish I could just go away!

Everyone gasped!

Varie: J.D. don't say that!

Aylene C.: Yeah what you said to Nico is not your fault.

Me: (Crying) YES IT IS! I blame myself for everything I did! I wish I was never born!

Laney: J.D. don't say stuff like that!

Nico: Yeah it's not your fault!

Denny closed the gate to the Scrapyard.

Denny: (to me) Don't even think about trying to leave the Scrapyard. We can't afford to put you into Starscream's clutches.

Armada Starscream: I'm standing right here!

Yondu: He was talking about the Starscream of this world.

Armada Starascream: Oh. Nevermind then.

Me: (Crying) It's all my fault.

Lincoln: Not it's not J.D.

Laney: J.D. you are not to blame for Nico wanting this.

Me: Yes I am! I was a horrible friend. I can;t even look at myself anymore!

Aligned Bumblebee: Look, J.D. No team leader is perfect. Like me for example. It took me so many weeks to find a rallying cry. But the important thing is that you learn from your mistakes.

Me: Name one good thing I've done!

Xaldin: Well, you saved Audrey from herself. Does that count?

Me: It does. (Crying) But that doesn't make me a good friend! I couldn't stop the 20 Days of Darkness from happening! I couldn't stop Nico from doing all those things because of the Digimon Emperor! I couldn't stop the Sullen 6 from escaping and wreaking havoc! It's all my fault! I'm a failure! (Crying hard)

Nico: J.D. no you are not a failure!

Eli: Don't say stuff like that bro! This was all not your fault.

Sora: You're wrong, J.D.! You ARE a good friend! You helped me get married to Kairi!

Misty Tredwell: You helped bring back my brother.

Maria: And you helped make several of us into better people. And those are only 3 examples. Sure, you've made mistakes. But you're only humans. So, tell me. Do those mistakes make you a bad person?

Me: (Sniffles) I don't know what to think anymore guys! Maybe the whole world is better off without me.

Lincoln: Don't say that!

Eli: No it's not bro! We love you!

Arrietty: Yeah you've done so much! Don't throw it all away just because you messed up on those 20 days.

Eli: Believe me bro, I hate the 20 days of Darkness just as much as you do and I wish we could have stopped them.

Shanan: Yeah dad and we were warned about that remember? It was a totally unavoidable event. Sure we could have done something to stop it but we were told that it was for Nico to stop.

Princess Celestia: Besides, without you, I wouldn't have gotten my daughter back.

Princess Luna: Or save all Equestria from the Doomsday 23.

I was still crying.

Me: But I still couldn't stop Nico from getting hurt during those 20 days!

I was crying hard.

Nico: Lets give him some space everyone.

Everyone went to give me some space and Misty and Eli stayed to comfort me.

Outside everyone was thinking about me.

Nico: Poor J.D.

May: I've never seen him this broken. It's like he wants to give up on everything that we worked so hard for.

Laney: Yeah.

Aligned Grimlock: Aw man. I didn't think J.D. was ever capable of crying.

Runabout: So what if he's made a few mistakes. Like Maria said, no one's perfect.

Varie: Poor J.D.

?: You think J.D. has made mistakes?

We saw Aligned Megatron and Aligned Shockwave there.

Aligned Megatron: Then I guess none of you have ever met me yet.

Nico: The Megatron and Shockwave of this universe!

Aligned Megatron: I see you heard of me. You must be the famous Nico Chan, Second In Command of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Nico: That's right. And the Leader of The Decepticons.

Nico showed his Leadership Medal.

Nico: The war with the Autobots and Decepticons in my universe ended after we killed Unicron.

Aylene C.: It's true.

Aligned Megatron: So the rumors I heard are true. I'm proud of you for leading the Decepticons to redemption Nico.

Nico: I'm glad you think that.

Aligned Shockwave: It really is nice to meet you all. But we didn't come just for pleasantries.

Zzzax: You're right. There are a few unredeemed Decepticons on this world that we need to kill.

Nico: You're right about that.

May: But we can worry about that later. Right now we first need to figure out if J.D. can still fight after that horrible yell that broke him.

Nico: Yeah. Poor J.D.

Aligned Megatron came in.

Threatpack: Alright, J.D. It's time to stop crying. We've got work to do!

Me: What's the point? I'm no good to anyone anymore!

Aligned Megatron: You have not made mistakes. Unlike me. Let me explain some of the bad decisions that I've made during the war.

Me: (Surprised) Megatron of this universe!? I didn't expect you of all the Cybertronians to be here.

Aligned Megatron: Yes that is a surprise isn't it? But let me tell you some of the things that I've made.

Me: I'm all ears.

Aligned Megatron: You claim to be a terrible leader and friend. But at least you have not corrupted Cybertron in the past with Dark Energon.

Bane: (Spanish Accent) That really happened?

Aligned Megatron: Yes. And I sliced off a Deceased Prime's arm and made it my own. I even made the mistake of killing Dreadwing to save that coward Starscream! (to me) By the way, after the usual battles, I would like to do my part in giving that traitor a thrashing. Primus knows it's long overdue!

Lana: Besides J.D. there's one thing that you are really good at where many other people aren't?

Me: What's that?

Lana: You give people hope. You are sulking like this because you lost hope because of what happened to Nico. You shouldn't give up on yourself because of everything that happened with Nico. You've done so much good. (Hops on the table) Your hope that you have comes from here. (Places hand on my chest)

I realized that I was such a fool! I realized that I was giving my hopes up over something that happened 7 months ago.

Me: (Perks up) YOU'RE RIGHT!

I got up.

Me: I was such an idiot! I can't believe I was letting what happened in the past affect me and Nico is NOT a terrible friend! He is the best friend I've ever had next to all of you guys! I love you all like my family and I will never give it up for anything!

Nico: Welcome back bro!

Eli: YEAH! Good to have you back!

Everyone cheered for me!

Later Nico made a decision.

Terrorsaur: Wait. You're planning to stay with the Aligned Autobots?

Nico: Yes! Maybe. I don't know! I love you guys like family too! But I've grown close to Bee and the others. Especially during my vacation!

Lynn: Hey, don't force it. You can make your decision at the end of the main battle. But whatever you choose, we'll support it.

?: You ding-dang diddily can decide on that.

We saw Ned Flanders and with him was an alien we never met.

Me: Ned Flanders?

Max Tennyson: Xylene? I didn't expect you and Ned to come.

Xylene: It's great to see you again Max.

Shanan: Wow I didn't know Xylene was an Uxorite from the planet Ringa Morr.

Xylene: That's right Shanan and it's a great pleasure to meet you all.

Me: Same here. Max told us so much about you in his days as a Plumber.

Ben: It's really cool.

Xylene: It sure is and wow Ben you sure grew from the last time we saw each other.

Ben: Feels like forever huh?

Xylene: It sure has.

Ned and Xylene came to Nico.

Xylene: Nico, I just heard that you want to stay with Bumblebee and his team.

Nico: I do. But doing that will mean leaving J.D. and the others.

Ned Flanders: Look, I know you and the Autobots here have gotten close. But J.D. and the others are your real family. There's no replacing that.

Vulkanus: But just take your time on your decision.

Nico realized that Ned was right. Of course what did you expect from the God following saint of The Simpsons that has been so devoted to God over the last 32+ Years? Ned is just that gifted in giving great advice.

Nico: Oh you're right Ned. I can't leave everyone that has loved me like my family and has done so much for me ever since I joined the team.

Me: But it's your decision Nico.

Knock Out: I'm surprised you're still willing to bring back the Cliffjumper and Breakdown we know considering J.D. crying and the fact that Nico might be leaving you guys.

Wind Man: We're not ones to hold a grudge against fellow heroes.

Lori: We're literally not mad at you guys. You were just being honest.

Lola: Besides, if this really is Nico's last day on the team, we'll make it the best one yet he's gonna drown in it!

Me: Now guys lets not rush these things. Also yes I'll bring him back. I can't wait to see the look on Starscream's face when he sees him.

Nico: Go for it.

I snapped my fingers and then in a flash of lightning and energy arose CLIFFJUMPER and BREAKDOWN! Back from the dead!

Aligned Cliffjumper: I'm back.

Aligned Breakdown: We're back.

Aligned Arcee: CLIFFJUMPER! BREAKDOWN!

She hugged them.

Aligned Cliffjumper: Arcee!

Aligned Breakdown: It's great to be back.

Vulture: You guys have the usual battles now. I'm gonna find out where Aligned Starscream is.

Nico: Okay be careful.

Arbormon, Tala, See More, Robo Blaze, Whiger, Plastique, El Oso, Dark Turtles, Puff, and Wrecking Crew then appeared.

Nico: Arbormon, Tala, See More, Robo Blaze, Whiger, Plastique, El Oso, Dark Turtles, Puff, and Wrecking Crew

Arbormon: Nice to see you guys here.

See-More then saw tear residue on my face.

See-More: Oh man J.D. are you okay?

Nico: He was crying his eyes out for 45 minutes because he blamed himself for what happened to me.

They gasped.

Me: Yeah sorry.

Arbormon: It really is nice to meet another group of Autobots.

Aligned Bumblebee: Thank you, Arbormon.

Tala: Jacknab and Boostwing are already in our ranks.

Aligned Drift: As long as they do not cause trouble, we have no problem with it.

See More: Glad to hear it.

Robo Blaze: (to me) Heard you dealt with a virus this morning.

Me: It wasn't a disease virus it was an Alien Virus. It was more like a computer virus from another planet. It was called The Intelligence.

Whiger: Was it deadly like the last one?

Me: Yes but this was the one from the 1999 movie called Virus.

Nico: Whoa man! I know that movie. That was a crazy one.

Eli: It sure was. Even though I never saw it.

?: That was crazy huh?

A figure came out and it was BENGLO, the 2nd in Command of The Fearcats!

---

Benglo was a Bengal tiger-themed monster who was second-in-command of the Fearcats under Mig. Benglo, alongside Mig, was one of two quartenary antagonists of Power Rangers Operation Overdrive.

Many years ago Mig was the leader of Fearcats and they were sworn enemies of Tyzonn and his team and they also kidnapped Vella.

When Mig and Cheetar captured Ronny, they stole her Overdrive Tracker and used it to release Benglo from the Prison Mirror and appeared to be stronger than them. The Rangers thought they had seen the last of them when they defeated them with the DriveMax Ultrazord. Norg took the bodies of Mig and Benglo to Flurious who used his Gyros to revive the two Fearcats, and make them his servants. However, Mig and Benglo were not ones to follow and defected. Now Mig and Benglo use their incredible new powers to search for the Corona Aurora. After Agrios was defeated, he fought the five main Rangers while Mig battled Tyzonn. After witnessing the demise of Mig, he vowed vengeance, but before he could do anything, he was destroyed by the Red Sentinel Ranger.

---

Mack Hartford: Benglo!

Benglo: Been a while rangers.

Me: I remember you! You were 2nd in Command of the Fearcats and you and Mig defected from Flurious.

Benglo: That's right J.D. Good memory on you.

Me: Never missed an episode.

Benglo: Look, Nico. Whatever you decide, you should let your heart tell you what's right.

Nico: Thanks, Benglo. Surprised to hear that coming from you.

Benglo: Unlike Moltor and Flurious, I've learned from my mistakes.

Me: That's good you did and I remember that.

Eli: Awesome.

Another figure appeared and it was JACKNAB of the Corvicons!

Nico: Jacknab!

Jacknab: You're lucky I was able to get here. Starscream's gonna notice I'm gone any minute.

Nico: Considering his ego, I doubt he'll notice even one of you missing.

Strongarm: I've got my eye on you, Jacknab.

Jacknab: (sarcastically) I'm shaking in my servos, Autobot.

Nico: Better watch yourself buster.

Aligned Megatron came out from behind Nico and Jacknab then saw him and he crapped transmission fluid!

Me: OOPS!

Nico: That's funny.

Aligned Megatron: I'm not the leader of the Decepticons anymore Jacknab.

Jacknab: Oh.

?: Let me have some fun too.

Another figure came out and it was Maynard Tiboldt A.K.A. RINGMASTER!

Me: Maynard Tiboldt A.K.A. Ringmaster!

Ringmaster: It's an honor to meet you J.D.

Me: Same here. You are part of the Masters of Evil?

Ringmaster: Indeed I am. I'm now Ed's archenemy.

Ed: Uh I already got Number 7.

Ringmaster: I meant Ed from the 41st Century.

Ed (Get Ed): Wow! I'm honored!

Nico: Awesome!

Ed the Protector: So you're my new archenemy?

Ringmaster: Of course I am, young man. And don't worry. I'm not like that Freakshow buffoon.

Ed the Protector: That's good.

Jacknab: And I chose Mai the Kamaitachi.

Mai the Kamaitachi: I'm honored.

Me: Awesome. Lets do it.

?: I will destroy all of you for ruining The Hidden Sand Village!

Suddenly, the eight large planets and stars orbing around my legs, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs, the eight large crimson red orbs orbiting around Naruto's legs, and the eight large black orbs with the Eye of Horus orbiting around Cody (OC)'s legs were glowing, and that means big trouble.

Karura: (Growls) I should've known you'd show up here, Chiyo, you witch!

A figure came out, and it was none other than Chiyo, the one responsible for poisoning Karura, and for turning Gaara into a weapon. Gaara, Kankuro, and Temari were really enraged once they saw Chiyo, who's returned from the dead.

Gaara: Chiyo, I will never forgive you for poisoning our mother and for turning me into a weapon for your own selfish purpose.

Twilight Sparkle: Lincoln, can you tell us about Chiyo? It seems like Gaara, Temari, Kankuro, and Kurara have quite a nasty history with her.

Lincoln: You won't like what I'm going to tell you about her, Twilight. Chiyo was the one responsible for poisoning Gaara's mother, Karura, and for turning Gaara into a weapon, and she's got a nasty history.

Lincoln went over the history about Chiyo, and it was definitely horrible, and Kurara, Gaara, Kankuro, and Temari have quite a nasty history with her.

Chiyo

Chiyo (チヨ, Chiyo) was a retired counsellor of Sunagakure. She was also a famed puppeteer, the leader of Sunagakure's Puppet Brigade, and a medical-nin.

Background

Chiyo, often called Honoured Grandmother Chiyo (チヨバア様, Chiyo-baasama) by the Sunagakure villagers, was the village's poison, and puppet expert. She and her brother Ebizō were highly revered in Sunagakure and were known as the Honoured Siblings (御姉弟, Gokyōdai). Chiyo was very knowledgeable when it came to handling poisons and used her skills often during the Second Shinobi World War, only to be countered numerous times by Tsunade's medical expertise. This caused Chiyo to hold a grudge against Tsunade, who she came to call "that slug-girl" (あのナメクジ娘, Ano Namekuji-musume), or the "Slug Queen" in the English dub. During the war, she also fought Hanzō and his salamander numerous times, learning how frequently it can use its venom and eventually developing an antidote against it.

Chiyo was responsible for sealing the One-Tailed Shukaku inside of Gaara under the orders of the Fourth Kazekage, noting that of the Kazekage's three children, Gaara was the only compatible one. Some time after this, Chiyo and her brother removed themselves from the affairs of Sunagakure and spent their time fishing together, where Chiyo would play jokes on her brother by pretending she had died just to scare him.

Chiyo also expressed a desire to kill Sakumo Hatake to avenge the killing of her son and daughter-in-law, which left her grandson Sasori orphaned. After that, Chiyo tried to help Sasori ease the pain by caring for him and teaching him the Puppet Technique. Chiyo would later watch Sasori create his first puppets that would resemble his own parents. This was meant to fill the void of his parents dying. In the anime, while still a child, Sasori became very instrumental in the development of puppets and poisons for the village, regularly filling orders from Chiyo herself. As Chiyo watched Sasori continue to immerse himself in puppets, Chiyo became increasingly concerned for her grandson. However, she instead chose to remain indifferent, focusing most of her attention on helping the village. One day, Komushi, a young shinobi and one of Sasori's only friends, was badly injured during a mission, costing him his right arm. Demonstrating a new style of puppet ninjutsu, Sasori replaced Komushi's arm with a fully movable puppet arm as a prosthetic limb, coated with Sasori's newest poison. Later, Komushi died from accidentally ingesting that poison. As Chiyo's concerns continued to grow, she began noticing a pattern with Sasori and decided to investigate. To her horror, she discovered that Sasori had taken Komushi's corpse and turned it into a human puppet.

Later, to Chiyo's dismay, Sasori left Sunagakure and abandoned his parent puppets, showing that he gave up on them.

Eventually, Chiyo and her brother retired, disconnecting themselves from the outside world as they sat in their residence fishing all day, while remaining apathetic to all the happenings beyond their quiet lives. Chiyo's only wish was to see her grandson one more time.

Personality

As a veteran, Chiyo and her brother Ebizō possess great wisdom, such that Baki requested their assistance in the village's greatest danger. However, they had little motivation to serve Sunagakure any longer, as they retired and felt that the next generation should look out for themselves. The siblings were rather disappointed when the village was showing to be so reliant on others. She was also pessimistic because she believed Konoha would send a lower-class medical shinobi to heal Kankurō's poison, only to be proven wrong when Sakura, one of the top-notch medical shinobi in Konoha was sent. After spending time with Team 7, her views quickly changed and with her last breath, she prayed Naruto and Gaara could lead their villages to a better relationship with a true alliance, not one for show.

Chiyo could be very mischievous, as she enjoyed playing dead or acting senile to fool others. Chiyo would often also jump to conclusions as seen when she attacked Kakashi Hatake because she mistook him for his father Sakumo.

Chiyo loved her grandson, Sasori, a great deal despite how much he had fallen, and was fully willing to grant life to the puppets that he created, at the cost of her own; this was said to be her dream. In fact, it was only because of Sasori's involvement in Akatsuki that she was willing to grant Baki's request for assistance. This love also led her to bear a grudge against Sakumo Hatake for killing Sasori's parents, and as such, she initially tried to kill his son Kakashi, mistaking him for his father. However, in the anime, it was shown that Chiyo's love for her family was also split between it as well as her devotion to the village and her views as a ninja being detached. This was seen from her hesitance to take a simple family picture.

Chiyo showed care and respect for Sakura Haruno, despite the latter being a disciple of Chiyo's rival. She also showed regret and remorse for sealing the One-Tailed Shukaku into Gaara, and gave her life to revive the latter as a way of repentance. While retirement led Chiyo to become detached from the outside world, she admitted to Sasori she had too many regrets in life to die in peace.

Appearance

Chiyo was an elderly woman with black eyes and greyed hair tied in a bun; in her fight with Sasori, she let her hair loose. She wore the traditional Sunagakure outfit which consisted of a dark-coloured, loose fitting outfit with a poncho-like top.

Abilities

Despite her old age, Chiyo was still a very powerful kunoichi, being well-respected throughout Suna. Even her rival, Tsunade, held great respect for her. With Sakura's assistance, she could defeat Sasori, a powerful member of Akatsuki. Her skills were great enough to be chosen for reincarnation by Kabuto Yakushi for the Fourth Shinobi World War. Chiyo was also one of the few reincarnations that was never sealed by the enemy, only being stopped after Itachi Uchiha had Kabuto release the Impure World Reincarnation.

Ninjutsu

Puppet Mastery

Chiyo was a renowned master of the Puppet Technique, famous for her abilities in both creating and controlling puppets, to the point of being an invaluable icon for Sunagakure. She passed these skills onto her grandson, Sasori, claiming that the technique was traditional in their family. She modified two normal unarmed puppets to have intense battle capabilities, to the point where they were capable of standing up against the Third Kazekage (known as the strongest Kage in the history of Sunagakure) who was converted into a Human Puppet by Sasori. These puppets were equipped with wire strings that extend from both of the puppets hands. When connected they have the ability to cut through most things, including Sasori's Thousand Hands Manipulation Force. She also could use the Puppet Performance: Skilful Achievement with a Human Body technique, which allowed her to effectively control a human if she had no puppets left in her arsenal; she was highly skilled with this tactic, as she was able to fight effectively during the Fourth Shinobi War using only samurai as a substitute for puppets. In the anime, she also showed the ability to control up to ten living people at once with this skill, each of them with only one finger per puppet - a skill which signified her as a master puppeteer. She had great skill with chakra threads, as she could place them onto other puppets without her opponent noticing and suppressing them to the point that they became invisible, as well as using them to control and fire weapons.

Like Sasori, Chiyo modified a part of her body and turned her right arm into a mechanical one. She normally kept it outfitted with a chakra shield, and could replace it with any puppet arm if something were to happen to it. She also installed this shield on the Mother and Father puppets.

Her strongest puppets, however, were the full set of 10 puppets known as the Chikamatsu Collection, created by the first puppet user, Monzaemon Chikamatsu, and that she could control at the same time. These puppets were extremely powerful, using teamwork to perform powerful attacks, and were equipped with powerful techniques such as the Three Jewels Suction Crushing and the Sealing Technique: Lion Closing Roar. With the assistance of Sakura, Chiyo's ten puppets were able to overpower Sasori's one hundred puppets, though in the anime, most of the Chikamatsu Collection was destroyed in the process.

Medical Ninjutsu

Chiyo was a highly capable medical-nin, and while having some healing skills, she mainly used her medical knowledge as a poison expert, which allowed her to create powerful poisons that in her entire life have only been countered by Tsunade, who is herself renowned as the world's greatest medical-nin. Likewise, she has stated that she used to fight with Hanzō all the time; allowing her to know the time it takes for his salamander to produce its poison, and the antidote to counter the poisonous gas. She also created a life-giving technique, one that would result in her own death if it were used, that she wanted to use for Sasori in order to give life to his puppet parents.

Other Skills

While preferring to use her puppets in battle, Chiyo has shown to be skilled in taijutsu, as seen during her brief scuffle with Naruto and his clone, and during her battle against Kankurō and his puppet in the anime. She possessed advanced knowledge of fūinjutsu, being the one responsible for sealing Shukaku into Gaara. She also has some skill in countering genjutsu, having faced members of the Uchiha clan in the past.

---

When Lincoln was done explaining Chiyo's history, The Mane 9 and the rest of the new recruits were horrified.

Rarity: My word, that was horrible.

Fluttershy: I can't believe that you went through all of that, Gaara.

Gaara: I know, Fluttershy, and what your future husband, Lincoln, told you all about Chiyo is true, and I will never forgive her for what she did to our mother.

This also horrified Jack Darby, June Darby, Miko, Raf, and The RID Transformers after what Lincoln told everyone about Chiyo.

Miko: That witch. I can't believe she did that to Karura, Gaara, Temari, and Kankuro.

Me: It was because of the corruption of the Council in the Sand.

Karura: I've had about enough of you to last an eternity, you old witch.

Suddenly, Karura was surrounded by a gold energy aura, and it was accompanied by sand, as she walked to Chiyo, and her eyes turned neon indigo.

Karura: Chiyo, I will never forgive you for poisoning me and putting that faulty seal on my son. You turned him into a weapon for your own selfish purposes, but I was thankful for J.D. and Team Loud Phoenix Storm saving Gaara. But, now, I will make you pay for everything you did to Gaara, Temari, and Kankuro, you bitter, conniving, old witch!

Then, Karura was surrounded by a massive vortex of gold energy, and it was accompanied by waves of sand, along with angels made of sand, and a gold phoenix inside the vortex. When the massive vortex faded, and the sand fell to the ground, Karura emerged, but she was changed forever.

(IMPERATRIX MUNDI PLAYS AT 1:45 TO 2:14)

Karura was much taller at 5'10" in height, and she had the body of a goddess, she has a gold energy aura surrounding her, her indigo eyes turned neon indigo, she has an angel emblazoned on her forehead, she has angel earrings with the Sand Kanji, and she has a Sand Kanji necklace. Karura's brown hair had gotten longer, reaching the bottom of her neck, and it was tied in a ponytail, she has on a sleeveless white blouse with sand dunes and a gold phoenix, a white skirt with sand dunes, black combat boots, she has on a Belt of Elemental Bravery with a large gold gem for the belt buckle, she has on her Bracelets of The Champions of the Universe with gold gems on her wrist, she has an Eater of Sins revolver holstered on her right hip, she has gold angel wings on her back, and she has a new sword in her hand called The Guardian Angel of The Siblings, it's a sword with the Hidden Sand Village etched on the 6'5" massive, double-edged blade, gold angel wings for the crossguard, a large gold gem for the hilt, a long black handle, and a large gold sphere pommel with yellow gems surrounding the pommel. Karura has on a white sleeveless trenchcoat with sand dunes and angels, and on the back is the symbol of The Hidden Sand Village, and there's a gold kanji below the symbol that says, "Karura, Loving Mother of Gaara, Temari, and Kankuro, Master of The Sand and Light, Previous Jinchuriki of Shukaku the 1-Tailed Sand Tanuki, Best Friend and Sister of Mikoto Uchiha and Kushina Uzumaki and Righteous Slayer of Chiyo."

我愛羅、テマリ、カンクロウの愛情深い母、カルラ、砂と光の達人、守鶴の前の人柱力、片尾の砂のタヌキ、内葉美琴とうずまきクシナの親友であり姉妹、千代の正義の殺し屋。

Karura has transformed into SUPER ANGEL 500,000,000,000 SANDSTORM GOLDEN ANGEL OF LOVE!

We were amazed upon seeing Karura's Super Angel

500,000,000,000 transformation, and Chiyo was already in big trouble.

Gaara: Mother, you look incredible, how do you feel?

Karura: (Divine Echoing Angelic Voice) I feel incredible, my son, and now, I'm going to make that old witch pay for what she did to you and your siblings, and for poisoning me.

Me: Show no mercy on that fucking ugly old hag! After everything she did, she has no place in the world or the Hidden Sand!

Karura: With pleasure.

Chiyo tried to summon more of her puppets, but Karura used her new sword, and slashed off Chiyo's arms, and she screamed in excruciating pain, as blood was gushing from the bloody stumps of her arms. Chiyo was now on her last legs, and her strength was fading fast.

Karura: This is the end for you, Chiyo. HOLY SANDSTORM STYLE NINJA ART: HOLY SANDSTORM RASENSHURIKEN!

In a cave, there was a laboratory and in it was none other than Aligned Starscream!

---

Starscream is the second-in-command of the Decepticons and the secondary antagonist of the Transformers "Aligned" universe. He initially seeks to usurp control of the Decepticons from Megatron, but eventually learns his place and becomes content with being second in the Decepticon hierarchy until vowing revenge on a redeemed Megatron in Robots in Disguise

He appears as the secondary antagonist of both the Transformers: War for Cybertron games and the 2010 animated series, Transformers: Prime, serving as the main antagonist of the Darkness Rising arc of Season 1 until Megatron returns and re-assumes leadership of the Decepticons. In Season 2, he goes rogue and competes against both the Autobots and Decepticons in the hunt for Iacon Relics before rejoining the Decepticons towards the end of the season and becoming the secondary antagonist at the end of Season 2 and for the entirety of Season 3, as well as the series finale, Predacons Rising . He later reappears as a major antagonist of Transformers Robots in Disguise, the sequel to the Transformers Prime series, serving as the main antagonist of it's third season.

He was voiced by Steve Blum on TV who also played Vilgax from the Ben 10 series, Smytus from My Life as a Teenage Robot, Wade Wilson in the X-Men Origins: Wolverine video game, Green Goblin in The Spectacular Spider-Man and Dehaka from StarCraft 2 and Makucha in The Lion Guard .

In the "Cybertron" games, he was voiced by Sam Reigel.

War for Cybertron

At some point, Sky Commander Starscream was demoted, and forced to guard the ancient Trypticon station, capable of producing Dark Energon. He served as a neutral when the Great War broke out, though he was forced to answer to Zeta Prime. After a thousand years of servitude, the station was attacked by Megatron and the Decepticons, seeking the Dark Energon. The station's force of neutrals were no match for Megatron's forces, and Starscream and Jetfire's repeated warnings that no one could control Dark Energon fell on deaf ears. Instead, Megatron tempted Starscream with knowledge of his past, reminding him of his demotion, and offered to let him join the Decepticons, something Starscream initially scoffed at.

Starscream attempted to destroy the station's stock of Dark Energon before Megatron could reach it, but failed, and watched, mocking Megatron when he entered the storage chamber, and was shocked when Megatron infused himself with the substance and gained control of it. Starcream quickly volunteered to join the Decepticons, causing Jetfire to label him a traitor, and went to warn Zeta Prime. Megatron sent Starscream, Thundercracker and Skywarp to reconnect the Energon Bridge to generate more Dark Energon. During the mission Starscream fought his way through legions of Autobots, annoyed at Megatron's impatience, and bickered with the cautious Thundercracker, and the unintelligent Skywarp.

Starscream led the Decepticons aerial squadrons during the Battle of Iacon City. When Megatron's squad met with Brawl, leading the ground assault, Starscream refused to send in Dark Energon Bombers, as he did not want Brawl to waste his ships, to which Megatron swiftly overrode his refusal. Later, when Starscream believed Megatron to have been killed by Omega Supreme, he immediately declared himself to be Decepticon leader. Shortly after, Megatron managed to communicate with Starscream, ordering him to attack Omega Supreme as a distraction. When Megatron's group headed for the Autobot turrets, Starscream was ready to retreat, to which Megatron overrode by threatening execution to any deserter. After Megatron defeated Omega Supreme, Starscream witnessed the corruption of Cybertron's Core.

As the Battle of Iacon continued, Starscream fought Jetfire, now having officially joined the Autobots, and Silverbolt, and attacked Optimus's group in the Decagon. However, the Air Commander was injured by Optimus's Energon-axe and forced to retreat.

Fall of Cybertron

During the Deception assault on the Autobots Ark, Starscream executed an Autobot squad, taunting anyone in range of comms. Under Megatron's orders, Starscream and the Combaticons ambushed and captured Optimus Prime under the ruins of Iacon. However, Megatron was soon crushed by Metroplex, leaving Starscream the new leader of the Decepticons. At the urging of Prime and Metroplex, Starscream ordered the Decepticons to retreat.

Starscream's used most of the Decepticon energon and supplies to further his own ego and cover the Decepticon bases with effigies of himself and constantly broadcasted self glorifying speeches to his troops. Anyone who wasn't on board with Starscream's reign was thrown into the prisons of Kaon. The prisons were full as few Decepticons had any faith in their new leader. When the Autobots acquired the entire energon supply the Decepticons kept in the Sea of Rust, Starscream sent the Combaticons to stop the transport. When the transport was out in the open, Starscream ordered an assault on it, despite the fact the anti-aircraft gun were still functional. As the Decepticons suffered heavy losses, Starscream aborted the mission and ordered a full retreat. The Combaticons ignored the order and brought the transport down, at the cost of half the energon on board. Despite the fact that the Combaticons had saved the mission he had abandoned, Starscream accused them of failing and had them arrested.

Later, Starscream decided to have a coronation for himself. However, the newly rebuilt Megatron crashed the event and took his crown back from the would-be king. He escaped Megatron's wrath, swearing revenge. Seeking the means to get back at Megatron, Starscream made his way to Shockwave's lab, killing a pair of guards. He came across Grimlock and promised to free him and his team if they would serve him. The Dinobot refused the offer by throwing him into the control panel, freeing himself. This apparently knocked Starscream out as he didn't get back up. Presumably at some point after, Starscream apologised to Megatron and rejoined the Decepticons, since most of Decepticons that might have arrested him were cut to pieces by a rampaging Grimlock.

Transformers: Prime

Note: the offical prequel to Transfomers Prime, and Out of the Past seem to be two different tellings of the same story. Thus, this article will try and align them as much as possible. The Prime prequel will be in italics.

When the Decepticons arrived of Earth, Starscream was with them, but was ordered to scour the galaxy for remnants of space bridge technology. Starscream and some Vehicons returned to their dead homeworld and Starscream allied with Shockwave to construct a space bridge.

In Out of the Past Starscream intercepted a coded Autobot transmission and managed to trap Arcee and Cliffjumper. When his interrogation methods failed to extract anything he could use to decode the transmission, he took them to Shockwave, who used a cortical psychic patch on Arcee and revealed the transmission to be from Optimus Prime on Earth. Upon being questioned by Cliffjumper of his lack of bravery, Starscream tried to kill the Autobot only to be captured by Arcee. Upon being threatened by Arcee, he cracked and revealed Shockwave's plan; to build a space bridge under Kaon. Starscream was then knocked out but regained contentiousness and pursued the two Autobots to the space bridge.

Following them through the space bridge moments before it was destroyed, the dazed Starscream initially confused a bunny rabbit for a human. Scanning a fleet of jets flying overhead, he found Cliffjumper and Arcee driving on a road and launched a missile at them. He picked up Arcee's blown off arm and started battering Cliffjumper with it, but the Autobot blew up the rock formation above them and crushed Starscream with the rubble. Having received Starscream's signal, Breakdown came to his rescue, and the duo pursued and overwhelmed the Autobots. Just as Starscream was about to send them back to the AllSpark, Optimus jumped and landed on him, while gunning Breakdown away. As Starscream greeted his opponent, Bumblebee tapped him on the shoulder and sent him flying. Optimus opted not to finish the job, allowing Starscream to escape as he got Cliffjumper and Arcee to base.

Season 1

Starscream was first seen aboard the Nemesis gazing at energon when, two Vehicons came aboard the ship, with Cliffjumper in hand. When Cliffjumper asked where his master was, Starscream angrily struck his hand into Cliffjumper's chest, causing the Autobot to bleed to death. Starscream continued to send the Vehicons of capture Arcee when reporting the air commander of Arcee being accompanied with a human youth (Jack) causing Starscream shout "DESTROY THEM BOTH!".

Soundwave then reported to Starscream and played a recording of Arcee's voice to inform him of the other Autobots. Starscream instantly knew it was her and expressed interest in killing her as well. Starscream later received another report from Soundwave informing him of Megatron's return. In response, Starscream had him to open a Space Bridge for their leader.

Starscream assisted Megatron in his quest revive an army of Terrorcons on Cybertron using Dark Energon and bring them to Earth using a Space Bridge. After Megatron's apparent death, however, Starscream gleefully took up leadership of the Decepticons.

Seeing that his underlings had become ill-motivated after Megatron's death, Starscream sought to find stronger warriors to serve the Decepticons, eventually finding Skyquake. However, Skyquake chose to continue following the orders Megatron had given him rather than accept Starscream's leadership, and the Decepticon was later killed by Bumblebee.

Starscream later recovered Megatron's body from space, removing a shard of Dark Energon from Megatron's chest to make his condition worsen. However, when the Nemesis Crew Members began to fear for Megatron's life, Starscream summoned his fellow Decepticons, Knock Out and Breakdown, as the former was a medic.

Megatron later managed to return and reclaimed leadership over the Decepticons, though not without giving a Starscream a beating for his treachery. Soon after Starscream decided to use some of the leftover dark energon on both himself and the deceased Skyquake, making him (apparently) invulnerable (directly before one of his arms is blown off) and bringing Skyquake back from the dead. Starscream flee's and tells the vehicon operator of the Ground bridge to keep his mouth shut before yanking the dark energon out of his torso. He goes to Knock Out, covering that his arm "Just fell off." Knock Out is unsucessful in persuading him to try a new weapon arm, Starscream angrily exclaiming he just wants his old arm back.

Starscream was later paired up with Airachnid, though after the spider-like Decepticon betrayed him, Starscream formed a temporary alliance with the Autobots. However, the alliance soured when Starscream unintentionally let slip that he had killed Cliffjumper. After this, Starscream chose to become rogue.

Season 2

Starscream mostly acted as a wild card in Season Two, competing against both the Autobots and Decepticons for Iacon Relics. In the first episode, his T-Cog (The organ allowing Cybertronians to transform.) is removed from him, preventing him from flying. Starscream succeeded in recovering the Apex Armor which he later used to fight against the Autobots for Red Energon. Though Starscream lost the Armor, he succeeded in recovering a chunk of Red Energon, blasting the rest to prevent the Autobots from using it. Starscream later radioed the Autobots requesting a deal. However, when the Autobots opened up a ground bridge to his location, Starscream, infused with Red Energon, rushed into the Autobot base and stole the four Omega Keys, without the Autobots noticing until too late. Starscream then used the Omega Keys to bargain his way back into the Decepticons. At the same time, he replaced his T-Cog.

After the army of Vehicons Megatron brought with him to Cybertron was defeated, Starscream appeared alongside Soundwave and Knock Out holding the Autobot's human allies hostage, threatening to kill them unless the Autobots handed over the Omega Keys. Starscream and the others placed the Keys into the Omega Lock, with Megatron announcing his intention to use the lock, not just to revive Cybertron, but to cyberform Earth. However, Optimus used the Star Saber to destroy the lock and cut off Megatron's arm.

Season 3

After the destruction of the Autobot's base, Starscream was put in charge of hunting the scattered Autobots. Starscream became envious of Shockwave when he was also given the position of second-in-command after rejoining the Decepticons.

When the Autobots succeeded in destroying the Decepticon's base, Darkmount, Starscream retreated alongside the other Decepticons. Megatron then announced that they would be reviving Project Predacon, a plan by the Decepticons to assemble an army comprised of clones of the ancient Predacons. Starscream was put in charge of caring for Shockwave's first Predacon clone, Predaking.

However, after discovering Predaking's intelligence and capability to transform, Megatron cancelled the project and questioned what they should do with the Predacon clones they were already developing. Starscream suggested they trick the Autobots into doing the job for them. Taking Starscream's advice, the Decepticons lured Autobots Ultra Magnus and Wheeljack to Shockwave's underground laboratory, where the two destroyed the Predacon clones in stasis.

Also as a result of Starscream's plan was the Decepticons discovering the formula for pure cybermatter, which they used to rebuild the Omega Lock.

When Predaking discovered the Decepticons' role in the destruction of his brethren, Starscream aided Megatron in fighting the beast, opening the airlock so Megatron could kick him out.

Starscream later participated in the final battle with Autobots, who were seeking to stop the Decepticons from using the Omega Lock to cyberform Earth. After Megatron was killed by Bumblebee, Starscream attempted to avenge his master, but was dragged away by Shockwave. The two abandoned the ship in an escape pod, with Starscream complaining about the lack of space in the pod.

Predacons Rising

Starscream assisted Shockwave in his second attempt at Project Predacon, retrieving Predacon bones that Shockwave used to clone the Predacons Skylynx and Darksteel. Starscream later came across the Predacon burial grounds and called Shockwave to see his discovery. However, Unicron in Megatron's upgraded body also arrived. When Unicron revived the whole burial ground using Dark Energon, Starscream fled, leaving Shockwave to defend himself against the zombie Predacon hoards. Starscream boarded the Nemesis and freed Knock Out and several Vehicons, announcing to them that they were to take the ship. Starscream and the Decepticons then stormed the bridge and held the Autobots hostage with the Immobilizer at them. However, his attempt failed and Starscream was knocked out by Knock Out using the Phase Shifter. Starscream was then thrown in a prison cell. However, Starscream escaped his prison cell when the undead Predacons attacked the ship and made it crash. After Megatron was freed from Unicron's control, Starscream rushed over to him and claimed that his new body armor would "take things to the next level." However, Megatron announced to Starscream that he was disbanding the Decepticons before flying away, leaving Starscream briefly shocked.

Starscream flew to Darkmount and stated that he would rebuild the Decepticons in his name. However, he was confronted by Predaking, Darksteel and Skylynx, who were seeking to get revenge on Starscream for his abuse of them. As the three Predacons approached him, Starscream cowered in fear.

Transformers: Robots in Disguise

Starscream returns in season 3 of Transformers Robots in Disguise as the main antagonist, leading a new team of Decepticons composed of Roughedge (a former Autobot), Razorhorn and Shadelock.

When the Predacon trio confronted him, Starscream fled deeper into Darkmount and came across a cache of weapons which he triggered into killing Skylynx and Darksteel. Starscream later discovered a group of Minicons in stasis. Discovering that the Minicons could grant him power greater than that of a Prime, Starscream freed them and vowed to take revenge on Megatron for abandoning him and the Decepticon cause. However, when he freed them, the Minicons escaped, and thus, Starscream hired a team of bounty hunters to assist him in capturing them.

Starscream later encountered Clawtrap and the Scavengers, taking possession of the Dark Star Saber from them and using to knock them off the boat they were on.

Starscream later united all seven Minicons and became immensely powerful before dueling Optimus Prime and losing, being taken back to Cybertron to stand trial.

Aligned Starscream: Almost complete.

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off in the cave as it blasted a hole through the ceiling and spirits of the Gods and Goddesses of Strength and flight appeared and converged and we landed on the cave and we were ready to fight!

Nico: Starscream! You will pay for every single one of your crimes.

Aligned Starscream: You've really been a thorn in my side ever since you came to this world.

Nico: I aim to please.

Lola: (sees a machine) What's that machine?

Aligned Starscream: Oh, it's a power siphoner. It sucks out the abilities of anyone it's used on while giving said abilities to me. Originally, I had planned to use this on you and your siblings while predicting that you'd have an argument with Bumblebee and his annoying friends. But the 12 of you chose to remain united with them. So I went to Kameo's world and drained the elemental abilities of 5 trolls from Kameo's world before killing them.

Lola: Elemental abilities? You don't mean-

Aligned Starscream: Allow me to demonstrate!

Aligned Starscream threw a fireball at Lola but Nico used Hydro Man's water powers to extinguish it.

Nico: We need to destroy that machine. Without it, Starscream can't siphon anymore powers!

Aligned Megatron: (Offscreen) You always were a pathetic fool Starscream.

Megatron came out and Starscream was shocked! And that shock quickly turned into rage!

Aligned Starscream: (Enraged) MEGATRON!

Aligned Megatron: It's payback time you traitor!

Aligned Starscream: You will pay for everything you did to me Megatron!

Nico: (Imitating Megatron) You never learn, Starscream. Your arrogance will trump your wits every time.

Aligned Megatron: Very good imitation.

Nico: Thanks.

?: He's not the only one.

A figure came out and it was MEGATRONUS PRIME!

---

Megatronus Prime is the main antagonist of the Prime wars trilogy, he is the unseen overarching antagonist of Transformers: Combiner Wars and the overarching antagonist of Transformers: Titans Return . He is a member of the original Thirteen Primes of Cybertron, as well as Megatron's namesake. He later returns as the main antagonist of the sequel series, Transformers: Power of the Primes .

He is voiced by Mark Hamill, who is also known for portraying the Joker in Batman: The Animated Series and the Batman Arkham games.

Past

Originally one of the Thirteen Primes, Megatronus was the one who defeated Unicron using the Requiem Blaster forged by Solus Prime. He and Solus at some point entered a relationship, something which Megatronus cherished thanks to the scrutiny of his fellow Primes due to his dark nature. One day, he and Solus got into a fight over whether or not they should decommission the Blaster, with Megatronus wanting to keep it around while Solus deemed it too dangerous should it fall into the wrong hands. Solus attempted to grab the Blaster from Megatronus but Megatronus refused to hand it over, with the scuffle resulting in him accidentally activating the Blaster and killing Solus. Horrified at what he'd done, Megatronus fled before anyone could discover what had happened. And for the next millenia, Megatronus attempted to search for ways to bring Solus back but only in the modern day learned that through the Requiem Blaster, Matrix of Leadership and Enigma of Combination, Megatronus could drain the lifeforce of ever Cybertronian in existence and use them to resurrect Solus. Uncaring of the consquences, Megatronus set out in his task.

Titans Return

After Starscream was defeated by the combined forces of Windblage, Metroplex, Optimus and Megatron, Megatronus found his spark and placed it in the body of Trypticon.

After Trypticon was defeated by the power of the Matrix of Leadership and the Enigma of Combination was freed, Megatronus appeared and claimed the two artifacts. Megatron attempted to stall and distract Megatronus by praising him while Optimus and Fortress Maximus sneak attacked him, but Megatronus avoided both attacks, killing Optimus and tearing off Maximus's arm.

With the Matrix of Leadership and Enigma of Combination in his grasp, Megatronus bid farewell to the Transformers before teleporting away.

Power of the Primes

Megatronus' next move was to send his henchmen Overlord and Rodimus Cron to go retrieve the Requiem Blaster. However, a group of Transformers comprised of Windblade, Megatron, Perceptor, Victorion, Grimlock and Optimus Primal claimed the Blaster first. After a fight at the Athenian Sanctorum, the Transformers managed to fight off Rodimus Cron and kill Overlord with the Blaster. Megatronus then showed up and took the Blaster from the Transformers before heading off, pursued by Rodimus Cron, who was now being possessed by Unicron.

Returning to his hideout, Megatronus placed the Requiem Blaster next to the Matrix of Leadership and Enigma of Combination and attempted to revive Solus Prime by using the three artifacts to absorb the sparks of all Transformers in the universe. However, Windblade and co. soon showed up to stop him. Unicron also showed up and, altering Rodimus Cron's body to more resemble his own, announced his intention of destroying the Matrix of Leadership to eradicate the last of Primus. During the process, the spirit of Solus Prime begged her beloved to not go through with it, pleading with him that she wasn't worth the lives of the entire Cybertronian species, but Megatronus, too far gone and desperate to reunite with her, ignored her cries and continued battling the other Transformers.

Megatronus' plans were ultimately foiled when Optimus Primal claimed the Matrix of Leadership and used it to become the Prime Optimal Optimus. Megatronus was then grabbed and absorbed by the spirit of Solus Prime, who accepted that her beloved was too far gone to see reason, she pulled him into the portal and permanently destroyed them both, physically and spiritually, ending his madness for good.

---

Dark Leo: So you're the mastermind behind this!

Nico: I heard about you. Megatronus Prime, right?

Fallen: I no longer go by that name. From now on, I am… the Fallen! (laughs evilly)

Eddy: (Shrugs) Seems approrpiate.

RID Optimus: You give us primes a really bad name Megatronus. That's why you were exiled from Cybertron in the first place.

Fallen: You will pay for everything you did to me Optimus.

Nico: You are no Prime, you're just a pathetic sad robot with no love for anyone other than yourself.

Eli: Yeah you jerk!

Steeljaw then came out.

Nico: Back for round 2 I see Steeljaw.

Steeljaw: It won't last Nico!

Piledriver: (to the Alchemor Decepticons except Steeljaw) How about showing everyone your new allegiance?

Aligned Starscream: What are you talking about?

Crazybolt turned and breathed fire at Aligned Starscream but he used water to extinguish it.

Crazybolt: (scowls) You got lucky that time!

Crazybolt and the Decepticons all came out.

Nico: Looks like your friends all have sided with me.

Aligned Starscream: (ENRAGED) YOU TRAITORS!

He fired a blast of fire at Nico and Nico used Hydro Man's water powers and blasted the water and the blasts collided and a cloud of steam came out.

Aligned Starscream: You all will pay for your crimes against me!

Nico: Quite the contrary! It's you who will pay for your crimes against us and Cybertron!

Lola: Carter, can I transform with you guys?

Carter: Go right ahead, Lola.

Lightspeed Rescue Rangers: Lightspeed Rescue!

Ryan: Titanium Power!

The Lightspeed Rescue Rangers transformed.

Carter: "Red Ranger Rescue ready!"

Chad: "Blue Ranger Rescue ready!"

Joel: "Green Ranger Rescue ready!"

Kelsey: "Yellow Ranger Rescue ready!"

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off behind them and they were ready for action and buttkicking!

Lola then had her eyes glow neon pink and fire swirled around her.

Lola: You make me sick Starscream! What you have done to not only this world's version of Megatron but also to all the Minicons and the Decepticons makes you nothing more than a heartless and remorseless monster! I will never forgive you for everything you have done!

Suddenly a massive flash of light erupted out of her and then a massive explosion of fire blasted out of her and a vortex of fire enveloped her. It exploded out and fireballs rained down and destroyed the Power Siphoner. When the vortex of fire faded, Lola emerged forever changed!

(IMPERATRIX MUNDI PLAYS AT 1:45 TO 2:14)

Lola looked like she was 21 years old and had the body of a goddess. She had longer blonde hair that went down to her lower back and it had red, neon pink and orange highlights in it that made it look like fire and she had a flame with a phoenix in it emblazoned in the middle of her forehead and she had earrings in the shape of the kanji of fire and she had a longer pink dress that had fire all over it and she had pink combat boots and under her dress was pink pants with flames on them. She had a sleeveless fire trench coat and a sash of fire that said Ms. Firestorm Pageant Champion on it. Her Angel wings were now neon pink, red and orange and the feathers were made of pure fire. On the back of her trench coat written in fire was the kanji for "Lola Loud, Beauty Pageant Champion of The World, Champion of Gabija the Lithuanian Goddess of Fire, Firehearted Sister of the Loud House, Master of Fire and a great master of Pageants and Beauty."

We all went at him and clashed with him in a massive fiery explosion!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

We blasted and pulverized the Batlings, Fallen and Starscream to an incredible level!

RID Optimus: Kelsey, take this! (throws her a Decepticon hunter) Fixit made these for some of you!

Kelsey: Thanks Optimus!

She formed it into a deadly yellow energy sword and slashed numerous Batlings all over.

Grimlock: (jumps into the air) Cannonball!

He smashed into a bunch of Batlings with the force of a meteor and smashed them into a bloody mess.

Nico: YEAH!

Lola kicked Aligned Starscream in the face and smashed him down!

Chad Lee: Mega Battle Armor!

Chad donned his awesome Blue Megabattle Armor and blasted the Batlings all over.

Pinkie Pie: And I know just the thing to show these jerks all over!

She pulled out a Yovidaphone.

Applejack: UH OH! Put in Earplugs everyone!

Me: Why?

Pinkie Pie played it and it was REALLY CACOPHONOUS! It sounded like a bunch of bagpipes being played by a monkey! It was causing many of the Batlings heads to explode.

Me: GEEZ! Twilight what is that?

Twilight Sparkle: It's called a Yovidaphone. It's from Yakyakistan and it's very popular there.

Me: It looks like a mixture of the bagpipes and the tuba.

Eli: That's really cool.

Joel: Don't leave me out! Mega Battle Armor!

Joel donned his awesome Mega Battle Armor.

Nico blasted the Batlings all over and obliterated them.

Nico: Joel! Add this to your fun.

Nico gave Joel a really cool specially made Decepticon Hunter.

Nico: You'll like it. It's called a Decepticon Hunter Jet Pack. Figure it would go great with your Ranger powers since you are known as the Sky Cowboy.

Joel Rawling: Cool! Thanks Nico.

Joel put it on and it got onto his backpack and turned into a really awesome Jet Pack!

Joel Rawling: WOW! This is great!

He flew and slashed and sliced and diced many Batlings all over.

Carter: Trans Armor Cycle!

He summoned his Trans Armor Cycle.

Carter: Transform!

He donned his Red Lightspeed Battlizer!

He fired laser blasts and blew the Batlings apart.

Knock Out: Just like old times, eh, Lord Megatron?

Megatron: You were always a fan of the obvious, Knock Out. But no more calling me Lord. It's just Megatron now.

Knock Out: Okay.

Nico: Awesome!

Laney fired waves of energy and leaves and slashed numerous Batlings all over.

Spiderman used his webs to pull Aligned Shockwave out of the way of Riotgear's blast.

Aligned Shockwave: Your action was illogical. But you have my thanks anyway.

Spiderman: We already lost one version of you. We're not losing another!

Aligned Shockwave: It must've been bad.

Nico: It was.

I fired a blast of energy and blew Riotgear's head off.

Carter Grayson, Toyman, Sailor Mars, Aligned Bumblebee, Ed the Protector, and Ringmaster blasted many Batlings all over with fire and energy and lasers, Kelsey Winslow, Optimus Prime, Deets, and Sailor Venus blasted the Batlings all over with light, energy and lasers, Chad Lee, Strongarm, Burn, and Sailor Mercury blasted the Batlings all over with water, energy, powerful rocks and energy, Joel Rawlings, Sideswipe, Fizz, and Sailor Mercury blasted the Batlings and slashed them all over with water, energy and lasers, Dana Mitchell, Windblade, Loogie and Sailor Moon blasted the Batlings all over with lasers, light and energy and Ryan Mitchell, RID Grimlock, Torch and Girl Jordan smashed and blasted the Batlings all over with incredible energy and water blasts.

Aligned Arcee had her legs trapped in vines and ice.

Aligned Starscream: Look at it this way. At least you'll finally be reunited with Cliffjumper in the All Spark. (about to throw boulder at her) But at least your body will still be useful to me.

Aligned Arcee: (chuckles) Funny you should mention Cliffjumper.

Aligned Cliffjumper then punched Starscream in the face and knocked him down.

Starscream saw Cliffjumper alive and well!

Aligned Starscream: BUT HOW!? I KILLED YOU! YOU MUST BE A GHOST!

Aligned Cliffjumper: Can a ghost do this?

He kicked him in the face and punched him the stomach!

Nico and Bumblebee kicked Steeljaw down.

Aligned Steeljaw: Go on, Lieutenant. End me.

Aligned Bumblebee: Nah. Compared to Starscream, you're not really dangerous.

POW!

Aligned Bumblebee punched Steeljaw, knocking him out.

Nico: You are looking at Stasis for life.

Megatron knocked Aligned Soundwave down.

Aligned Megatron: Forgive me, Soundwave.

Aligned Megatron punched Aligned Soundwave, knocking him out.

Nico: You've had this coming for a long time, Starscream. (holds out hand) HAK-

Fallen: (knocks Nico to the ground) I'll be taking those spirits, thank you very much!

Aligned Starscream: Master? What are you doing?!

Fallen: Apologies, Starscream. But you've served your purpose.

Aligned Starscream screamed as he, Aligned Cyclonus, Skyjack, Treadshock, and Riotgear's spirits were sucked into the Fallen. The Fallen then got bigger!

Nico: UH OH!

Me: OH MAN!

Me: (Offscreen) Let me help out with you guys.

I was piloting an awesome and incredibly huge purple Space Station Rescue Zord!

Me: Say hello to my new zord: Space Rescue.

Carter Grayson: Whoa! That is amazing!

Me: Watch what it can do.

I fired powerful lasers and they hit the Fallen and blew them down with incredible power.

Me: And watch this. SPACE RESCUE MEGAZORD ONLINE!

I had the Space Rescue Zord transform into the SPACE RESCUE MEGAZORD!

Dana Mitchell: WOW! J.D. that is cool!

Sideswipe: Yeah!

Nico went up to the spark of the Fallen.

Nico: You brought all this on yourselves. (Holds hand out) HAKAI!

He super hakaied them and destroyed Starscream, Megatronous Prime and the Fallen forever.

Everyone all cheered wildly!

Airachnid and her Terrorcons were watching us.

Airachnid: (To her Terrorcon Insecticons) Patience, my loyal subjects. Sooner or later, we'll have another opportunity to get even with those Autobots and Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Airachnid then heard a zooming sound behind her.

?: Oh, that's going to be sooner than you think.

Airachnid turned to see Reverse Flash there.

Airachnid: You and your friends back for more? Don't think a color change will help you here.

Reverse Flash: (laughs) You have me confused for Barry Allen.

?: Trust me. He isn't.

Tommy and Mr. Mind, in the IronWarhawk armor, stepped out of the shadows. Mr. Mind was the one who spoke.

Airachnid: Who are you two?

Tommy: Name's Tommy.

Mr. Mind: And I am Mr. Mind. We've come to recruit you for our group.

Airachnid: What's in it for me?

Tommy: You get to take revenge on those Autobots. And we can use one of our Dark Orbs to keep your thirst for Energon under control.

Airachnid: Tell me more.

She was recruited.

Aligned Steeljaw: So let me get this straight. My only punishment from this is that I get locked up in Stasis.?

Aligned Bumblebee: Well, you might be called upon by Vypra if she ever needs you as a new member.

Aligned Steeljaw: I wouldn't bet on that, Bumblebee. Because when I eventually get out, I'm going to claw your optics out!

Aligned Bumblebee: (smirks) Good luck with that.

Nico: (to Aligned Soundwave) Anything you want to say, Soundwave?

Aligned Soundwave: Decepticons superior. Autobots inferior.

Soundwave: HEY! That's MY Line!

Aligned Sideswipe: That statement is only half right, pal!

Nico: Both Autobots and Decepticons are superior.

We put them into stasis.

We powered down.

Nico: That's the last we'll see of those Decepticons.

Laney: Yep. Good riddance.

Nico: Guys, I have an announcement to make.

Me: (Quietly) Here it comes.

Plastique: What would that be?

Nico: I've decided which team to stay on.

El Oso: Really? That's great, amigo!

Nico: Bumblebee, I enjoyed all the good times I had with you guys. But my place is with J.D. and the others. Like Kairi Yano said, there's no replacing family. I'm sorry.

Dark Raph: But you guys can still join Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Aligned Bumblebee: We would be honored. Team Loud Phoenix Storm is like our family too since Nico came here.

Eli: Awesome.

Megatron: Nico, if it's okay with you. I'd like to join the Redemption Squad.

Puff: Fine by us.

Bulldozer: We've gotta face facts. No Decepticon group is complete without a Megatron and Starscream together.

Me: That's right.

Nico: And it will be awesome having Megatron with us.

Me: And you are right about Megatron and Starscream together. Without one another there will never be a good team for the Decepticons.

Laney: Thanks right.

Nico: Lets go home guys. You all did a great job today and I'm sorry I left you all without saying anything.

Me: Don't be Nico. You had a good reason. Besides we took down 6 of the most dangerous enemies ever known to Cybertron.

Laney: Yeah they brought all that on themselves.

Lana: That's right.

Me: Miko?

Miko: Yeah J.D.?

Me: If you still want to beat my face in, you can.

I knelt down and closed my eyes.

Me: Hit me with all your strength.

Miko: Okay!

POW!

She slugged me right in the face with incredible force and sent me smashing into the wall.

Miko: That's for being a bad friend to Nico!

Me: (Dizzily) I had that coming.

Miko: But all is forgiven.

I got up and had a huge black eye.

Me: Thank you Miko. Ow.

Nico: Lets go home. ALL of us.

Aligned Bumblebee: (To the viewers) This was an amazing adventure. Sorry about all the drama but it was coming. But now we have seen the last of Starscream, Megatronus Prime and the Fallen.

Nico: We sure have. And Earth in our universe is just as awesome here.

Nico snapped his fingers and the Aligned Transformers Earth merged with our world and the Aligned Transformers were now members of the team. We had a nice dinner and went to sleep.

Meanwhile over in Japan, Its been 4 years since the fall of the evil Shin Ginis and the Deathgaliensm and Tokyo and Zyuland have merged together into one and unified the world. Now humans and Zyumans are living together in peace and harmony. The Zyuohger Rangers have become the great enforcers of that peace and soon they will be having a lot of help from us.

Yamato Kazakiri: It's gonna be so awesome having Team Loud Phoenix Storm helping us out.

Sela: You said it Yamato. It will be amazing to be officially part of the team.

Leo: It's gonna be amazing.

Tusk: Yeah it will be! I can't wait to see what they do against one of our enemies.

Amu: Yeah it will be awesome.

Misao: I hope they are as awesome as they are in all their battles.

Yamato: They will be Misao. Don't worry. You have friends now. Lets get ready for their arrival.

Zyuohger Rangers: WILD INSTINCT! AWAKEN!

AAHHHAAHHHAHAH!

In a flash of light, the Zyuohger Rangers transformed!

The Wild Power of the Zyuohger

Over in a small village, me and Taylor Emerson the Leafeon Gene-Slammer were flying up alongside a huge and REALLY tall beanstalk and it went REALLY high up to the sky!

Me: Wow! This Beanstalk goes on forever!

Taylor Emerson: No kidding. Wow! Just like in my favorite story Jack and The Beanstalk.

We arrived in a land that was way up in the sky and it was full of huge things.

Taylor Emerson: Why do I get the feeling that we're about to meet some giants?

Taylor concentrated and groaned as her skin turned green.

Me: I get that same feeling too.

She turned into LEAFEON!

Me: YEAH!

We walked around and then we heard thunderous footfalls and then we saw A GIANT! But it was the Giant from Jack The Giant Slayer!

---

In the Kingdom of Cloister, Jack, a young farm boy, is fascinated by the legend of Erik, an ancient king who defeated an army of invading giants from a realm in the sky by controlling them with a magical crown. At the same time, Princess Isabelle becomes fascinated with the same legend.

Ten years later, Jack goes into town to sell his horse to support his uncle's farm. There, Jack spots Isabelle and becomes enamored with her after defending her honor from a group of hooligans. Meanwhile, Lord Roderick returns to his study, only to find that a monk has robbed him. The monk offers Jack some magic beans he stole from Roderick as collateral for Jack's horse. Back at the castle, Isabelle quarrels with her father King Brahmwell as she wants to explore the kingdom, but he wants her to stay and marry Roderick. Likewise, Jack's uncle scolds him for being foolish before throwing the beans on the floor and leaving the house.

Determined to be free, Isabelle sneaks out of the castle and seeks shelter from the rain in Jack's house. As it rains, one of the beans takes root and grows into a massive beanstalk that carries the house and Isabelle into the sky as Jack falls to the ground.

Jack, Roderick, and Roderick's attendant Wicke volunteer to join the king's knights, led by Elmont and his second in-command, Crawe, and climb the beanstalk in search of Isabelle. As they climb, Roderick and Wicke cut the safety rope, intentionally killing some of the knights. At the top, they discover the giants' realm and decide to split into two groups: one with Jack, Elmont, and Crawe, and the other including Roderick and Wicke, but not before Roderick forcibly takes the remaining beans from Jack (although Jack manages to save one for himself).

Jack's group is trapped by a giant, who takes Elmont and Crawe prisoner while Jack escapes. Meanwhile, Roderick's group encounters two other giants; one eats Wicke, but before the other can do the same to Roderick, Roderick dons the magical crown.

Jack follows the giant to their stronghold, where the two-headed giant leader, Fallon, has killed Crawe. Jack finds Isabelle and Elmont imprisoned there. As the giants prepare to kill their remaining prisoners, Roderick walks in and enslaves the giants with the crown. He tells the giants they will attack Cloister at dawn and gives them permission to eat Isabelle and Elmont. Jack rescues Isabelle and Elmont as one of the giants prepares to cook Elmont as a pig-in-a-blanket. The trio makes for the beanstalk, where Jack causes the giant guarding the beanstalk to fall off the realm's edge. Seeing the giant's body, Brahmwell orders the beanstalk cut down to avoid an invasion by the giants.

Jack and Isabelle head down the beanstalk, while Elmont stays to confront Roderick. Elmont kills Roderick, but Fallon takes the crown before Elmont can claim it, and Elmont is forced to escape down the beanstalk. Jack, Isabelle, and Elmont all survive the fall after the beanstalk is cut down. As everyone returns home, Jack warns that the giants are using Roderick's beans to create beanstalks to descend down to Earth and attack Cloister.

The giants chase Jack, Isabelle, and Brahmwell into the castle, where Elmont fills the moat with oil and sets it on fire. Fallon falls in the moat and breaks into the castle from below. As the siege continues, Fallon captures Jack and Isabelle, but Jack throws the final bean down Fallon's throat before the giant can eat the princess, causing a beanstalk to rip apart his body. Jack takes the crown and sends the giants back to their realm.

Jack and Isabelle marry, and tell the story of the giants to their children. As time passes, the magic crown is crafted into St Edward's Crown and is secured in the Tower of London.

---

Me: WHOA! That is one huge giant! But just like in the story we're not going to let him get in our way of getting the treasure.

Leafeon: Lets go!

?: Let us help too.

2 figures came out and one was a Melusine and the other was a Xurkitree.

Me: Whoa! Another Melusine and a Xurkitree.

Gina: My name is Gina and it's an honor to meet you J.D.

Xurkitree: (Myanmar Accent) Same here J.D. I'm Haymar.

Me: Pleasure to meet you both.

Taylor Leafeon: Same here.

Me: Lets go!

We flew fast past the giants and stormed their castle and we got their treasure and it was bags of gold, an enchanted goose that lays golden eggs and a golden harp that plays and sings by itself. We even killed the giants too. We then chopped down the beanstalk and made sure the Giants didn't come after us.

Me: That was awesome! Just like living my favorite story from my youth.

Taylor Emerson: Yeah! And it was great.

I put on my blind man glasses and snapped my fingers and Haymar reverted back and Taylor reverted back too.

Taylor was human again. But naked.

Taylor: (covers herself) Next time we encounter giant people, we'll bring one of our combiner teams!

Me: Noted.

Haymar: (Covers herself) It was really amazing being a Pokemon.

I gave Haymar clothes from Myanmar and I gave Taylor her clothes too.

They put them on.

Gina: Those giants were huge and ugly though. And we also got a special bonus too: The Goose that Lays the Golden Eggs and this treasure and this awesome and beautiful harp.

Me: We sure did and it was worth it all.

We gave Jack's treasure back to his family and we went back to the estate.

After meeting Gina the Melusine and the Leafeon Gene-Slammer, Lincoln, me, Nico, Mera, Rita Loud, Nicole, and Varie were heading into the world of the 2001 movie Pearl Harbor, and not only is Lincoln going to rescue the five girls sighted there, but we're going to help the American forces deal with the Japanese soldiers in Pearl Harbor. It took place in Pearl Harbor on the Island of Oahu in Hawaii on December 7th, 1941.

---

In 1923 Tennessee, two best friends, Rafe McCawley and Danny Walker, play together in the back of an old biplane, pretending to be soldiers fighting the German Empire in World War I.

In January 1941, with World War II raging, Danny and Rafe are both first lieutenants under the command of Major Jimmy Doolittle. Doolittle informs Rafe that he has been accepted into the Eagle Squadron (an RAF outfit for American pilots during the Battle of Britain). A nurse named Evelyn Johnson passes Rafe's medical exam despite his dyslexia, and the two strike up a relationship. Four weeks later, Rafe and Evelyn, now deeply in love, enjoy an evening of dancing at a nightclub and later a jaunt in the New York harbor in a borrowed police boat. Rafe shocks Evelyn by saying that he has joined the Eagle Squadron and is leaving the next day. During a mission to intercept a Luftwaffe bombing raid, Rafe is shot down over the English Channel and is presumed killed in action. Evelyn mourns his death and turns to Danny, which spurs a new romance between the two. Meanwhile, Japan prepares to attack the US fleet for cutting off their oil supply.

On the night of December 6, Evelyn is shocked to discover Rafe standing outside her door, having survived his downing and spending the ensuing months trapped in Nazi-occupied France. Rafe, in turn, discovers Danny's romance with Evelyn and leaves for the Hula bar, where he is welcomed back by his overjoyed fellow pilots. Danny finds a drunken Rafe in the bar with the intention of making things right, but the two get into a fight. They drive away, avoiding being put in the brig when the military police arrive at the bar. The two later fall asleep in Danny's car.

Next morning, on December 7, the Imperial Japanese Navy begins its attack on Pearl Harbor. The US Pacific Fleet suffers severe damage in the surprise attack, and most of the defending airfields are obliterated before they are able to launch fighters to defend the harbor. Rafe and Danny manage to take off in P-40 fighter planes, and are able to shoot down several of the attacking planes. They later assist in the rescue of the crew of the capsized USS Oklahoma, but are too late to save the crew of the sinking USS Arizona .

The next day, President Franklin Delano Roosevelt delivers his Day of Infamy Speech to the nation and requests the US Congress declare a state of war with the Empire of Japan. The survivors attend a memorial service to honor the numerous dead. Later, Danny and Rafe are both assigned to travel stateside under newly promoted Lt. Colonel Doolittle for a secret mission. Before they leave, Evelyn reveals to Rafe that she is pregnant with Danny's child and intends to stay with Danny for the child's sake, but she reassures him that he is the one she will always truly love.

Upon their arrival in California, Danny and Rafe are both promoted to captain and awarded the Silver Star, and volunteer for a secret mission under Doolittle. During the next three months, Rafe, Danny and other pilots train with specially modified B-25 Mitchell bombers. In April, the raiders are sent toward Japan on board USS Hornet . Their mission is to bomb Tokyo, after which they will land in allied China. The mission is successful, but Rafe's and Danny's planes crash at the end. They are held at gunpoint by Japanese soldiers. A gunfight ensues, and Danny is mortally wounded shielding Rafe before the group are rescued by Chinese soldiers. Rafe tearfully reveals to Danny that Evelyn is pregnant with Danny's child; with his dying breaths, Danny tells Rafe that it is his child now.

After the war, Rafe and Evelyn, now married, visit Danny's grave with Evelyn's son, named Danny after his biological father. Rafe then asks his stepson if he would like to go flying, and they fly off into the sunset in the old biplane that Rafe's father once owned.

Lincoln: Wow, we're in the world of the 2001 movie, Pearl Harbor, and I know what we're going to in this world, not only am I going to rescue the five girls sighted here, but we're going to help the American soldiers deal with the Japanese soldiers.

Me: Oh yeah, and we've dealt with them before, remember our adventure last year?

Nico: That's right, we sure dealt those Japanese troops quite a deathblow.

Me: We sure did. Also in 4 months it makes the 80th Anniversary of Pearl Harbor. This movie here took place 79 years ago on December 7th, 1941.

Just then, the large orange gem on Lincoln's Bracelet of The Champion of The Universe shined, and the holographic images of Jack Darby, Miko, and Raf came on.

Miko: Yeah, Nico told us about what you guys did on that adventure last year. And in case you were about to ask, we were given Smart Watches by Devon Daniels, and it's also linked to your Bracelets of The Champions of The Universe, because your left-arm Cyber Planet Keys devices and Smart Watches, along with any other devices you have on your wrists have merged with your Bracelets of The Champions of The Universe.

Me: That's really cool.

Lincoln: That's right. Sorry, you guys couldn't come along.

Jack Darby: I know, but you can tell us when you get back.

Lincoln: Alright, see you then.

The holographic image disappears, and then, we headed out to help First Lieutenant Rafe McCawley, First Lieutenant Daniel "Danny" Walker, and Lieutenant Evelyn Johnson, who are busy tending to the injured soldiers.

?: Help!

Suddenly, Lincoln heard the sound of four girls calling for help with his superhuman hearing, and with his cyborg eyes and superhuman height, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He saw five girls who were helping some injured American soldiers, but they were being attacked by the Japanese soldiers. Lincoln also saw a couple of Japanese planes in the air, and they were ready to start attacking.

Lincoln: This isn't good. Mom, can you board that P-40 Fighter Plane and take those planes down?

Rita Loud: Leave it to me, sweetie.

Lincoln: Thanks, Mom. Alright, J.D., Nico, Nicole, Mera, you all come with me.

Rita Loud then got onboard a P-40 Fighter Plane, and she took off into the air, and began firing on the Japanese Planes, which hit them, and sent them crashing into the sea. Then, we right headed for the location of the five girls, and we saw one of the girls summon what looks like a demonic limb made of black hair, and sent some of the Japanese soldiers flying. Nicole had recognized the girls immediately. They were Princess Allura from Voltron: Legendary Defender, Reika from Time Gal, Yumi from Senran Kagura, Elena from Grandia 2, and the woman who summoned the demonic limb made from black hair was Bayonetta from Bayonetta, who was dressed in her primary outfit from Bayonetta 2, and was wielding her Love is Blue firearms.

Nicole: Oh man, it's Princess Allura from Voltron: Legendary Defender, Reika from Time Gal, Yumi from Senran Kagura, Elena from Grandia 2, and the woman who summoned that demonic limb made from black hair was Bayonetta from the Bayonetta games.

Me: Wow! We haven't met Bayonetta yet.

Nico: She is amazing and deadly.

Lincoln: Oh wow, that's incredible. Come on, let's give them a hand.

Lincoln transformed into Super Angel-Ebonwu 500,000,000,000,000 Elemental Supercell Lightning Thunderbird Furious Hyperstorm of Justice and he unholstered his Sword of Taranis, and went after the Japanese troops, and he swung his massive blade at them, cutting their arms off, and he fired powerful blasts of fire, wind, water, ice, earth, lava, crystals, lightning, vines, light, darkness, gravity, time, and stars at them, killing them all.

We cheered for what Lincoln did, including Rita Loud, who landed the plane after dealing with the planes flown by the Japanese. Lincoln powered down, and he went up to the girls who were tending to the soldiers, and Varie headed for the injured soldiers, and was tending to their wounds.

Me: Alright.

Lincoln: Are you all okay?

Bayonetta: (British Accent) We're okay, darling, thanks to you.

Nicole: It's awesome to meet you Bayonetta.

Bayonetta: Same to you Nicole and it's an honor to meet the great Goddess of Video Games.

Nicole: I get that a lot. Also Lincoln here is now part of the Super Smash Brothers Roster.

Bayonetta: Wow! That's right I heard that an awesome kid named Lincoln Loud is now part of the roster.

Me: And that's him right here. We were absolutely floored when we found out that Lincoln and his sisters are now part of the Super Smash Bros. Roster. Shigeru Miyamoto is a genius when it comes to video games.

Bayonetta: He sure is.

But, when Bayonetta saw who it was that rescued them, she, along with Princess Allura, Reika, Yumi, and Elena's faces lit up like red Christmas lights upon seeing the 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful muscles, eight-pack abs, a lightning bolt cutie mark with the thunderbird and comic books on his right massive pec and surrounded by the symbols of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness in a circle, a Celtic Cross cutie mark tattoo in the form of the cutie marks of Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Rainbow Dash, Applejack, Rarity, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Starlight Glimmer, and Trixie Lulamoon and in a circle are the other girls in Lincoln's harem with the Earth surrounded by the ring of mermaids, a deep sapphire blue kanji on his wider muscular back that said "Lincoln Landon Loud, Champion of Lightning, Master of Lightning Storms and The Weather, Emissary of Hinon, Golden-Hearted Brother of 16 Siblings, and Golden-Hearted Lover, Father, and Husband"

He had his Sword of Taranis holstered on his wider muscular back, his orange Crystal Saber holstered on his left hip and his Eater of Sins revolver holstered on his right hip, the Pisces constellation and Aquarius Zodiac sign on the back of his neck, weighted orange bands on his large biceps and thighs, deep sapphire blue eyes, larger blue angel wings surging with powerful super lightning and stars and blue nebulae reflecting on them, and he was dressed in an orange version of He Man 2002's loincloth with hanging silver lightning bolts, long orange trench coat coattails with hanging silver lightning bolts, blue pants with gold lightning bolts on the thighs, and large white leather combat boots with gold lightning bolts surrounded by a circle of smaller gold lightning bolts and armor on the toe area, silver Thunder Kanji earrings, a large silver Thunder Kanji necklace on his neck and across his permanently bare chest, his large fingerless black gloves with the symbol of The Loud House on it, a large Orange Buffalo Animal Spirit Ring on his left ring finger, a large Blue Lantern ring on his right ring finger, and he had eight large orange orbs orbiting around his legs.

Bayonetta easily recognized the white hair from anywhere, when she was in Super Smash Brothers Ultimate.

Bayonetta: Lincoln Loud?

Princess Allura: (Surprised) Wait, as in, Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm?

Me: That's him.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you all.

Lincoln made four clones of himself, and they went up to Princess Allura, Reika, Yumi, and Elena, and Lincoln went up to Bayonetta, and they picked them up and hugged them in his abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and he kissed them on the lips, which they've returned with equally intense passion, as they wrapped their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones. We cheered over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem are going to like their new sisters to their future husband's harem. Bayonetta was both intrigued and impressed by what happened to Lincoln.

Bayonetta: (Seductively) Same here, handsome. But, you've changed from the cute little boy to this tall, handsome, and very muscular man, and I really like this sudden change.

Me: He has become a man.

We then went back home, and Lincoln showed our friends what happened, and they cheered wildly at what Lincoln did.

---

After the rescue at Pearl Harbor, we were all training intensely in the gym doing 100,000,000 reps of crunches, wing push-ups and regular push-ups, pull-ups, bicep curls, leg curls, and chest presses with 9,000-lb barbells, squats, and going a few rounds with the punching bags, and we were really sweating like crazy, and we then got a shower after that.

Miko: Wow, we were really training like crazy back in the gym.

Me: Whew! No kidding. We've got to be ready for anything, Miko. Since we're heroes, we've got to be in shape, and we've got to be ready for anything.

Nico: That's right.

Lori: (snickers) Plus, all of the girls in Lincoln's harem were blushing like crazy when they saw him working out.

Nico: Even Bayonetta was blushing when she saw Lincoln working out like that. But, he's got to be very careful around her, she can be a tease.

Luan: And not the teasing kind that means making fun of people, if you know what I mean, Nico.

Nico: (Realizing what Luan meant and blushed) Oh. Man, Lincoln's going to be blushing like a mad volcano around Bayonetta.

Luna Loud: (giggling) Don't worry, we'll keep an eye on her, dude.

Then, we got a call from Vypra and The Masters of Evil to come to McWolf's castle in West City, and it was important.

Vypra: Glad you guys could make it. We've got a surprise for you.

We got into the room, and we saw four talisman cards in the room, and wrapped in McWolf's Chains of Torment was none other than Norm The Genie, the bastard who brought The Sullen 6 back, and made The 20 Days of Darkness even worse.

Timmy Turner: Norm!

Me: If it isn't the bastard responsible for bringing back The Sullen 6 and making The 20 Days of Darkness even worse.

Miko: So, that guy was the one who brought The Sullen 6 back, and made The 20 Days of Darkness worse for you guys?

Nico: (To Miko) That's right, Miko. (To McWolf) McWolf, did you have a hand in this? As if I didn't already know.

McWolf: Yeah, Vypra told me about it, and let's just say, I was beyond pissed off that I was literally seeing red. After building the castle in West City and putting up the talisman cards, it pulled in Norm the Genie, and once he was in, the talisman cards closed the portal forever, and it also destroyed his powers forever. But, as much as I wanted to cleave him in two, I resisted and chained him up, so that way, you guys can brutally pummel him, consider it payback for what he did.

We were surprised that McWolf did this, and it meant that we were going to get payback on the genie who brought The Sullen 6 back, thanks to The Digimon Emperor.

Me: (Smirks) Well, then, who are we to refuse the offer?

We were smirking, and we were already cracking our knuckles, and it meant big trouble for Norm for what he did.

Timmy Turner: And to make it even more interesting, let me be the one to finish him off. I've had enough of him to last an eternity.

Suddenly, Timmy unholstered his Defender of Fairy World staff blaster from his back, and approached Norm the Genie with pure anger and rage at the genie for what he's done in the past, and for what he did bringing back The Sullen 6, as his sapphire blue eyes turned neon sapphire blue, and he was surrounded by a pink energy aura, and his large white angel wings spread out.

Timmy Turner: Norm, I will never forgive you for all of the rotten things you did in the past, but what you did in bringing back The Sullen 6 for The Digimon Emperor, you've crossed the line and for that, you will die by my hands!

Then, Timmy Turner was surrounded by a massive vortex of pink energy and light, and there was a massive ring of fairies and angels flying around the vortex, and there was a blue phoenix inside of the vortex. Then, when the vortex faded, Timmy Turner emerged, but he was changed forever.

Timmy Turner's physical appearance when he got his Defender of Fairy World blaster had remained the same, but he now had on a pair of pink and blue angel earrings with the Magic Kanji, he now has on a silver necklace with the Magic Kanji on his neck, and he had a fairy and angel emblazoned on his forehead. His sapphire blue eyes turned neon blue, and he had a pink energy aura with fairies and angels, his large white angel wings had golden tips on the white feathers, and his red trench coat had stars and fairies on it, and it had a gold fairy crown on the back. He also had on his Bracelets of The Champions of The Universe with large pink gems on his wrists, and a Belt of Elemental Bravery with a large pink gem for the belt buckle around his waist, and an Eater of Sins revolver holstered on his right hip. There was a gold kanji right below the gold fairy crown that said, "Timmy Turner, Chosen Defender of Fairy World and Dimmsdale, Emissary of Magic and Light, Ambassador of Fairies, and Amazing Brother of Team Loud Phoenix Storm."

Timmy Turner has transformed into SUPER ANGEL 500,000,000,000,000 CELESTIAL MAGIC FAIRY ANGEL OF LIGHT!

We were in awe over what just happened to Timmy Turner when he acquired his new Super Angel 500,000,000,000,000 form, even Trixie Tang was blushing when she saw what happened to him.

Me: Holy crap, Timmy, you've transformed!

Nico: Incredible.

Eli: Awesome!

Danny Phantom: No kidding, Nico. Timmy, how do you feel?

Timmy Turner: (Divine Echoing Angelic Voice of Light) I feel incredible, Danny. Now, I'm going to make that freak pay for everything he's done.

Danny Phantom: Don't forget the rest of us. We've got a score to settle with your old enemy for what he did.

Timmy Turner: I didn't forget, Danny. Alright, guys, let's rip him apart!

Me: LETS GET HIM!

We charged after Norm the Genie, and without his powers, he couldn't get away, as we brutally pummeled him with fists and kicks, even Lincoln displayed some awesome wrestler moves, and we blasted him with powerful elemental blasts and colored energy blasts, hitting him, and they exploded with incredible power. Then, Lincoln cut off Norm's arms, and he screamed in excruciating pain as blood gushed out from the bloody stumps of his arms. Norm was now on his last legs.

Me: Alright, Timmy, he's all yours.

Timmy Turner: Thanks, J.D. (To Norm) Alright, Norm, this is the end for you and the permanent end to the darkness that's plagued J.D., Nico, and the Louds that you, The Sullen 6, Organization XIII, and The Digimon Emperor caused. CELESTIAL STYLE NINJA ART: HEAVENLY FAIRY RASENSHURIKEN!

Timmy Turner formed a massive Rasenshuriken made from pink energy, and inside were fairies and angels orbiting around the core made of pure light. Timmy Turner also infused it with Super Hakai energy, as traces of purple were seen. Timmy threw the Rasenshuriken, and once it hits Norm, it exploded with incredible power, and it Super Hakaied Norm the Genie forever.

Timmy Turner powered down, and his neon sapphire blue eyes changed back to sapphire blue, but his new jewelry and Eater of Sins revolver were now part of his attire, and holstered his Defender of Fairy World staff blaster on his back.

Nico: Oh yeah, Norm the Genie, you have failed this world.

Timmy Turner: Reap what you have sown, deceiver of man.

Me: And burn in oblivion!

Suddenly, our hearts were now finally feeling lighter than ever before. This was due to Timmy Turner getting rid of Norm the Genie that the last of the darkness that plagued us during The 20 Days of Darkness has finally been purged, and we're no longer going to be weighed down by that darkness anymore, and we hugged Timmy Turner for what he did.

Me: Another huge weight has been lifted off of us.

Wanda: Timmy, that was an amazing thing that you did.

Timmy Turner: Thanks, Wanda, and I wasn't going to let you guys go through something like that, I love you guys so much.

Suddenly, our auras flared up to the extreme, as we gained a massive power boost because of what Timmy said.

Nico: Whoa, did we just get stronger because of…?!

Lincoln: We do get stronger by absorbing the negative energy born from the hatred of villains, but, we do remember that there's an emotion stronger than hate, and it's love born from the strong and powerful bonds that we have with one another and, let's not forget that we've also been repairing the hearts and souls of those broken by tragedy, and we've also touched the hearts of those we've met, along with the people of Earth, and all across the universe. Those bonds are those that transcend lifetimes.

Lincoln 2: Those are indeed powerful words, Lincoln, and ones that'll be etched in our hearts forever.

Me: That's right.

We left the castle, and we returned back home. Timmy Turner had unlocked his new Super Angel 500,000,000,000,000 form, and with it, he ended Norm the Genie, and the darkness that plagued our hearts due to The 20 Days of Darkness has finally been purged, and we unlocked that new power.

Sabrina of the Saffron City Gym was walking by the graveyard.

Pokemon Sabrina: (notices Sheila on her knees in shock) Sheila? Are you okay? (sees an empty grave) Oh Dear God. What happened here?!

Sheila: (Crying) My mothers grave! It's empty!

I was walking down the street and I saw Sheila and Sabrina.

Me: Uh oh.

I went over.

Me: What's wrong girls?

I saw the empty grave.

Me: (Gasp) Graverobbers!

Sheila: This is my mother's grave.

Me: Hmm.

I looked at the gravestone.

Me: Marideth Castille. Oh man! I better call Eric over here.

I did so and he came fast.

Eric Loud: Sheila!

Eric went up to Sheila.

Eric Loud: Sheila what's wrong?

Sheila: My mother's body was taken from this grave!

Eric Loud: What!? Who would do such a thing?

Me; Graverobbers. Also Eric you probably don't know about this but Sheila's mother was murdered by her own father.

Eric Loud gasped in shock!

Eric Loud: Why would he do that!?

Me: He hated her guts.

Everyone else came.

Nico: What happened?

Me: Sheila's mothers body was stolen from her grave.

Everyone gasped.

Mindy Chan: Sheila, I know this is hard for you. But I need you to be strong. Do your job as a police officer and mark this area as a crime scene!

Eli: That's right Sheila. You are a great cop and you can do this.

Sheila Castille: You're right!

I handed her some crime scene tape and she marked it off.

Fred Jones: Lets see if there are clues.

Me: Took the words right out of my mouth Fred.

Eric Loud: First I got to ask this. Sheila, I know this is a rough subject but what happened to your mother?

Sheila: Oh right many of you don't know about this.

Sheila told everyone what happened when she told us in chapter 782 and when she was done we were shocked and horrified!

Twilight Sparkle: Your own father killed her!?

Lynn: Yeah what a heartless fiend!

Eli: He's a monster!

Me: Yeah he has no right to call himself a father after what happened.

Eric Loud: Wait a second, was her father named Terrence Castille?

Me: I think so.

Sheila: That's my father's name yes.

Eric Loud: I had a feeling.

Nico: How did you know him Eric?

Eric Loud: Because I'm the one that got him sent to the Gas Chamber.

We gasped in shock! Eric Loud was the one that got Sheila's father arrested, convicted and executed!

Eli: Whoa! That's big time justice!

Arrietty: Wow!

Nico: Wow! That is amazing. Justice thanked you big time.

Bitstream: I want to know who the Hell did this!

Eli: Lets see here.

Eli looked around the grave and saw some strange purple residue.

Eli: What's this?

Eli picked it up with tweezers and put it in a dish.

Eli: Lisa I think I found something.

Lisa Loud: Lets see.

Lisa analyzed it and it was Aparoid Skin!

Lisa Loud: It's Aparoid Skin.

Nico: The Aparoids did this?

Me: But how can that be? The Aparoids can't use shovels to do this.

Ets: They probably are working with someone.

Me: That's could be the case Ets.

Larry Loud: Whoever did this is probably long gone. We probably have no way of tracking him or her.

Outback: Never say never, dude

Nico: Yeah.

Laney: That's right my twin. Whoever did this while working with the Aparoids will pay.

Nico: Big time.

Me: Lets head back to the estate and get ready for our next mission.

We went back to the estate.

We were getting ready.

Nitro Man: By the way, J.D.? It's your turn to lead today. That is, if you're up for it.

Me: Yes I'm up for it. I'm fully recovered after what happened in the Aligned world. Oh right I have a guest with us.

Nico: Who is it?

Me: You can come out.

Out came the Houou Soldier - Tsurugi Ohtori!

Nico: Whoa! Tsurugi Ohtori.

Tsurugi: It's awesome to be here.

Eli: How did you get him here J.D.?

Me: Actually he came here through a teleporter. I got a call earlier today from Lucky in Universe 19. He and the Kyurangers sent Tsurugi over to us as an ambassador of the Kyurangers till we officially meet them on August 31st.

Nico: That is so cool!

Laney: Wow it sure is. Just like Bud is the Ambassador to the Zyuohger Rangers.

Me: Yep and speaking of them. Today is August 29th and we're going to Japan to meet them and officially have them join the team.

Ets: Awesome! This is gonna be so cool!

Robo-Blaze, Arbormon, Tala, See More, Whiger, Plastique, El Oso, Dark Turtles, Puff, and Wrecking Crew then appeared.

Robo-Blaze: Can me, Arbormon, Tala, See More, Whiger, Plastique, El Oso, Dark Turtles, Puff, and Wrecking Crew go with you guys?

Me: You all sure can. We're going to Japan to meet the Zyuohger Rangers.

Dark Leo: So awesome!

Dark Raph: (Sees Tsurugi) Whoa! Is that The Houou Soldier Tsurugi Ohtori?

Me: That's right. He's the Ambassador of The Kyurangers till we meet them on August 31st.

Dark Donny: Wow that is amazing!

Tsurugi: It's gonna be most legendary to work with you all.

Bud: Same here Tsurugi.

Me: Lets head out to Japan.

We were off to Japan.

---

TOKYO, JAPAN

---

We arrived in Tokyo, Japan and to our amazement we saw that it was now one with Zyuland and we saw numerous people and the people of Zyuland who are Anthropomorphic Animals working and living together in peace and harmony. It was really amazing and we saw that there were numerous cube buildings, ships and more all over the place.

Me: Wow! This is incredible!

Éclair: It's amazing that the people of Earth and Zyuland are living together like this.

Laney: It sure is amazing.

Dreamcatcher: I see the Zyuoghers!

Dark Mikey: And they're fighting some sort of squid.

Dark Raph: More like a pirate.

We looked and we saw that they were fighting the evil MEGABEAST HUNTER BANGRAY!

---

Megabeast Hunter Bangray (巨獣ハンターバングレイ Kyojū Hantā Bangurei ) is a hunter and had already hunted 99 Megabeasts for fun, and he targeted Earth for his 100th hunt, which in fact turned out to be Cube Whale. Later he was recruited by Ginis to join the Space Outlaws Deathgalien, but refused.

He is a galactic hunter who came to earth. He later joins the Deathgalien.

Bangray attacks Yamato Kazakiri and "revives" his mother by scanning his memory of her. He later kills Yamato's mother to make a fool out of him and put him into a deep despair. Later, Yamato actually realizes that his memory of his mother is a moment that he will never forget and then, as Zyuoh Eagle, charges at Bangray for messing with his memory. After that, Bangray takes his leave but not before "reviving" and enlarging Amigard and Trumpus by scanning Zyuoh Shark's memory of them.

After "impressing" Genis with his abilities, Bangray refused to join Deathgalien. He later interrupted Quval's Blood Game and fought him. During the fight, Bangray reveals to Quval that he knows a little about his past. As they engaged, Bangray offers to help Quval kill Ginis for destroying the latter's planet only if he helps him search for what he's looking for.

Bangray targeted Yamato's old friend Daichi Hayashi and his now-wife Yui as reassurance that Yamato will fall into despair if he killed them. The rest of the Zyuohgers tried to keep him away but he defeated them all before Yamato finds out his plan and fights him as Zyuoh Gorilla. Bangray later escapes the fight and gets to Daichi and Yui but not before "reviving" Yabiker by scanning Leo's memory of him. After Zyuoh Gorilla defeats Yabiker, he changes to Zyuoh Eagle Instinct Awakened to fight Bangray and save Daichi and Yui. Bangray takes his leave but not before "reviving" and enlarging Halbergoi by scanning Zyuoh Eagle's memory of him.

Having failed again to break Yamato, Bangray enacted a sadistic game to challenge the Zyuohger team as a whole. Ambushing Sela and Tusk on their way home from shopping, Bangray easily defeated the two Zyuohgers, knocking them unconscious before proceeding to create a copy of the pair from their own memories. With the others catching up to them, the Zyuohgers were faced with two pairs of Sela and Tusk who had all been fitted with irremovable chest braces. Before taking his leave, Bangray explained that the braces were bombs that could not be physically removed without detonating, with the only way to save the real ones being to terminate the imposters lest the bombs detonate in half an hour. Bangray figured that the Zyuohgers would be able to catch the fakes, but this was all part of his plan as that would be when the "real hell" came. Sure enough, the fake pair, who were well aware of their true nature, were eventually found out due to their memory being too precise, but the Zyuohgers revealed that they were stalling to find a way to save both pairs due to being unwilling to hurt their friends even if they were fake. Ultimately, as detonation approached, the fake Sela and Tusk chose to sacrifice their own existence to save their original counterparts. Realizing that the imposters still had feelings and a right to live, the Zyuohgers were deeply disgusted by this game which made them all the more determined to take down Bangray.

While he was attacking people, he noticed a bowl of curry on a table and was about to dig in, but was stopped by none other than Captain Marvelous. Marvelous transformed into Gokai Red and fought him just as the Zyuohgers join in the fight. He quickly retreats but not before scanning Amu's memory to create a copy of Dorobozu to follow the heroes without being noticed. He followed them to the Link Cube where they discovered the Great King's Credential where a hologram of the Zyuman's Ancestor, Cetus told them the history of Zyuland and Cube Whale. Bangrary appears revealing that he came to Earth to hunt for Cube Whale and intends to steal the Great King's Credential to summon it. He later engages in fighting the Zyuohger with Marvelous intending to take the Great King Credential for himself. After Marvelous flew away with it with Yamato chasing after him, Bangrary summons Bowguns from Amu's memory to keep the Zyuohger distracted while he goes after them.

Catching up with Yamato and Marvelous, Bangrary fought the two red heroes and summons copies of past Super Sentai enemies from Marvelous' memory blowing them off the cliff. Bangray and the past Super Sentai enemies fought the Zyuohger and Gokaiger. After his copies were defeated, Bangray scans GokaiSilver's memory to create a copy of Gokdos Gill and leaves.

Bangray eventually found the location of Cube Whale after scanning the memories of a TV crew. He later encountered the Zyuohgers who were also there to search for Cube Whale and overwhelms them. When Yamato transforms into ZyuohWhale, water shot from the ocean revealing it to be Cube Whale. Bangray jumps into the ocean to go after it with Yamato following. Upon getting near it, Cube Whale swats both Yamato and Bangray into the air. He was later met by Quval who came up with the plan dump poison into the ocean to lure Cube Whale by using Bangray's ship. While Sela and Misao were searching for Cube Whale and were infected by the poison, Bangray summons copies of Gaburio, Hanayaida and a giant sized Illusion to prevent the Zyuohgers from interfering. Leo, Tusk and Amu fought Illusion with Zyuohwild Special while Yamato fought Bangray and the two copies. After destroying the 3 players, Cube Whale comes out purifying the poison. Suddenly, an army of Triangulars ordered by Ginis to capture Cube Whale launches a surprise attack on the Zyuohgers, Bangray and Cube Whale with Naria arriving blasting a tracker on the Cube Whale. After destorying all the Triangulars, Cube Whale attacks both the Zyuohger and Bangray with Naria quickly retreating.

Meeting up with Quval, Bangray scolds him for not knowing Ginis' plan to capture his prey, but Quval reveals the location of Cube Whale. Bangray later found Cube Whale along with Yamato who was talking to Cube Whale. He later engages against Yamato while the other Zyuohgers fought Gift Custom plotted by Naria. After seeing Yamato's desire to protect him, Cube Whale accepted him and grants him the Kai-Oh Spear to overpower Bangray send him flying.

Having recovered from his injuries after his last fight with Yamato, Bangray later created giant copies of Quval's players in an attempt to lure Cube Whale, but was disappointed when it didn't come as the Zyuohgers knew of his plan. He later met up with Quval that night discussing their next plan to capture Cube Whale. Bangray returns the next day and fought the Zyuohgers who are wearing animal models on their heads to prevent him from creating a copy of a Deathgalian player. During the fight, the Zyuohgers had a fake Cube Whale with them to fool him and lure him to where Zyuoh the World was waiting to deliver a finishing blow. However, knowing they would come up with a plan to fool him, Bangray created evil copies of the Zyuohgers from Quval's memory to keep Misao and the Zyumans busy from helping Yamato. Although Yamato was able to defeat four of the copies, the evil ZyuohGorilla's strength proved too be to much for him and was defeated. The Zyumans and Misao arrived to late to save Yamato who was then kidnapped by Bangray and Quval.

Bangray held Yamato captive at a warehouse with Zyuoh Gorilla brutally assualting him. He called his friends for a deal to trade Yamato for Cube Whale at Mutsume Valley. Bangray and Zyuoh Gorilla went to the valley with Yamato tied up and his mouth tied so he wouldn't reveal his plan to his friends. When they arrived bringing Cube Whale with them, Bangray ordered them to toss their Zyuoh Changers and Zyuoh the Light. Amu walks up to Bangray and gives Cube Whale which the latter knocks her off. However, Bangray had no intention on giving Yamato back and Quval blasts a laser from space annihilating them in front of Yamato who screams in horror having witnessed the death of his friends. Before Bangray can kill both Yamato and Cube Whale, the Zyuohgers came out through the mountains fighting Bangray and freeing their friends as they knew Bangray wouldn't keep his promise and had Cube Mogura drill them a hole to escape from the blast when they notice Quval's absence. Bangray later fights them with an army of Moebas and Zyuoh Gorilla to aid him but they were both defeated. When he requested Quval's assistance, but Quval severs his right hand off, handed Bangray a Continue coin, and left. Bangray enlarged himself, but the Zyuohgers formed the final combination, Doubutsu Dai Gattai Wild Tousai Dodeka King, and destroyed him with its Wild Tousai Dodeka King's Zyuoh Dynamite Stream.

Post-mortem

Following Bangray's death, Quval would make use of his hand that he had taken for himself. Initially testing its power by making use of memory constructs in his mind games with the Zyuohgers, TV STORY- Ep. 39: Calories and Necklace TV STORY- Ep. 40: Men's Aesthetics Quval exploited its powers of replication to their full potential in his final plan to use the Zyuohgers to betray and destroy Ginis, who was responsible for the destruction of his home planet. Ultimately, however, the plan shattered when Ginis, seeing through Quval, stepped in personally and revealed his immensely intimidating true power. TV STORY- Ep. 41: The First and The Last Chance In a final bid for survival by earning Ginis' mercy, Quval proceeded on a final offensive to destroy all life on Earth only to be stopped by the Zyuohgers who destroyed Quval and the hand of Bangray along with him.

Zyuohger vs. Ninninger

Bangray was one of five villains who were revived by Gillmarda to fight the Zyuohgers and Ninningers. He engaged and was destroyed by the four heroines, ShiroNinger & MomoNinger as well as Zyuoh Shark & Zyuoh Tiger.

Kikai Sentai Zenkaiger The Movie: Red Battle! All Sentai Rally!

Bangray was one of four villains who were revived by Super Warumono World to capture the Zenkaigers. Later, he is among the villains led by Super Warumono World to fight the Zenkaigers and Sentai Red.

---

Me: Oh wow! That's Bangray! I remember him! He has this awesome power to bring memories from anything that he touches to life.

Nico: Wow! That is so cool!

Eli: That is a very nifty and amazing power to have.

Arrietty: It will be cool to see what it can do.

Nico: I'm gonna go face him.

Me: Go get him Nico.

Nico flew in and went up to him.

Bangray: You must be Nico Chan.

Nico: Damn right I am! Here's how I say hello to jerks like you!

Nico tried to punch Bangray but he grabbed his head and slammed him into the ground before walking away.

Nico: (gets up) Oh, c'mon! Aren't you gonna fight me?

Bangray: (looks at his hand and chuckles) No. I have everything I need now. (walks away)

Me: What a coward!

Dark Leo: You know he's gonna be able to use your own memories against you, right?

Nico: It was worth it to copy that ability for myself.

Dark Don: Really? That's actually clever.

Me: Yeah! But this I got to see.

Nico: Sure thing. And I know just who to have appear as a test.

Nico made a clone of Ginis appear.

Me: WHOA! That is cool!

Eli: Whoa it's Shin Ginis!

Me: Lets see how he likes this.

I fired an energy blast and it hit Ginis and he exploded into nothing and was banished to the Warp.

Nico: YEAH!

The Zyuohger Rangers came.

Yamato: Hey guys!

Me: Yamato!

We shook hands.

Nico: Sela, Tusk, Leo, Amu, Misao.

Amu: Awesome seeing you guys here.

Sela: Yeah it's great!

Me: Glad we came. I did say that we would be coming on August 29th.

Yamato: You sure did.

Bludgeon: We want to thank you guys for holding off Terranort back in the Grid.

Yamato: No problem. Did you guys kill him?

Maria: Yep. Me, Nico, and May killed him together.

Me: It was a brutal battle. Not only that but thank you guys for helping us out in the usual battles with our frenemies when we met the Animated Transformers.

Amu: Think nothing of it.

Me: Bud has also been a really big help to all of us since you guys sent him as your Ambassador.

Bud: It's true.

Yamato: We're glad you like having him around.

Nico: We sure do.

Arbormon: How exactly did you guys get into the Grid anyway?

Yamato: We accidentally got teleported there when we were about to face one of the Deathgaliens.

Me: Well you guys getting there turned out to be a blessing in disguise because you helped us out there.

Sela: That's a good thing.

Me: Yep. Also I take it you guys heard that I'm also a Zyuohger?

Amu: That's what we heard.

I pulled out my Zyuohger Morpher Cube.

Me: I'm the Zyuohger for The Wolf.

Natilee: Dad got it when we were in the Dream World.

Yamato: That is so amazing!

Tsurugi: It sure is.

Yamato: Lets show you all around.

We walked around.

Headstrong: This is a nice place you guys got.

Leo: It sure is. Also Zyuland and Earth are now one.

Me: We saw that and it's incredible that humans and Jyuman are coexisting with each other.

Laney: Yeah it's incredible that you all are helping humans and Jyuman work together.

Sela: Thanks Laney.

Misao: It's amazing isn't it.

Nico: It sure is.

I then saw that Misao had a lot of sadness and pain in his eyes just like how Nico used to.

Me: Misao are you okay? You look like you're sad because of a secret past.

Misao: How did you know about that?

Me: I saw into your eyes. They say that the eyes are the window into the soul.

Nico: You know, Misao, me and J.D. aren't perfect. The both of us tend to beat ourselves up when things are too stressful.

See More: It's true. Like the other day.

Misao: What?! You shouldn't do that! That's my job!

Leo: Yeah, we've already got one of those.

Me: Misao don't talk like that. I watched what happened to you on TV and I noticed a bunch of similarities between you and Nico.

Misao: What king of similarities?

Me: Like you Nico had a lot of self-loathing issues because of what happened in his past. He was in a lot of pain because he accidentally killed Ken Ichijouji and he felt REALLY bad about it because Ken's mom and dad blamed him for it and called him a murderer. We also had numerous incidents happen to us that caused Nico a lot of harm.

Lori: We thought Nico was a traitor when Talon tried to kill us with his contingency plans he made in case we went supposedly rogue like the Royal Defenders did.

Lynn: We thought Nico was hurting people on purpose when Rotwood poured water onto the floor at school.

Me: And 7 months ago we went through a terrible ordeal called the 20 Days of Darkness and we had to deal with the horrible calamities of a douchebag psycho from Nico's past called The Digimon Emperor and when Oogie Boogie opened his big ugly fuckhole mouth Nico blamed himself for releasing the Sullen 6, A Group of bad guys we worked hard to put away and he wouldn't come out of his room for 2 days. I beat myself up too because of it and thought it was all my fault when clearly it was all because of the Digimon Emperor.

Misao: Whoa. Nico has had it rough.

Me: Worse than you did. But you shouldn't beat yourself up over stuff that wasn't your fault. It was because of Ginis that he made you do all the things you did and it was all against your will. So don't blame yourself for stuff that happened when it clearly wasn't your fault to begin with.

Misao: Oh you're right.

We arrived at Yamato's uncle Mario Mori's house. It was a really cute place in the middle of the forest.

Me: Your uncle's house is really cool.

Yamato: Thanks J.D. It sure is.

We saw the Cube Zords and they were awesome and we saw the Cube Whale.

Cindersaur: (sees Cube Whale) So this is what Cube Whale looks like when it's tiny.

Yamato: That's him.

Me: Cute little fella. Also we saw the power of the Whale Cannon on TV. It was powerful. And it was amazing how it had so much power and how it blew a good size chunk of the moon off.

Luna Loud: Yeah that was intense dudes.

Sela: No kidding.

Me: But at least you guys never have to see that monster Ginis ever again.

Laney: Yeah what he did was absolutely terrible.

Nico: He is a monster with no heart.

Me: Yeah. Thank goodness you all destroyed that wretched monster.

Sela: Yeah he was a freak of nature.

Rena: Who is Ginis?

Me: Oh right some of you don't know him. He was the main enemy of the Zyuohger Rangers.

I went over everything about Ginis.

---

Ginis is the main villain of Doubutsu Sentai Zyuohger . As well Ginis is the ultimate villain of Ultra Super Hero Taisen . He is the Deathgalien's owner who oversees the Team Leaders directing their Players to attack Earth while he awards a prize to the winner of his Blood Game

He was voiced by Kazuhiko Inoue (who also voiced Kars) and physically portrayed by suit actors Naoko Kamio and Hideaki Kusaka (as Shin Ginis).

Discovering Earth's brimming with life, Ginis decided to introduced himself to Earth and created a barrier which would erase anything on contact.

He sent Naria in search for Bangray's actions on Earth intriguing, and decided to stop his commanders from sending more Players for the time being. Once Bangray was able to locate and lure out his prey, Cube Whale, Ginis launched an all out assault, attacking Bangray, the Zyuohgers, and Cube Whale. This drives Cube Whale into a berserk state, attacking everyone and escaping.

Ginis embarked on his hunt against Bud on Earth. Ginis noted that his seal had been broken. Azald later confronts Ginis, breaking his ties to the Deathgaliens despite indirectly support Azald.

Ginis killed her while attempting to kill the Zyuohgers to keep his secret. Though Zyuoh Eagle he loses Gift Custom's black box, Ginis reverts to his original form while enlarging himself, only to be easily defeated and obliterated by Wild Tousai Dodeka King at a cellular level. A pack of Moebas was among the Shocker army of the Game World led by Shocker Leader III, the boss of the Chou Shocker Taisen bonus stage. This army was ultimately wiped out by a combined force of Sentai Rangers and Kamen Riders; Ginis was destroyed alongside Raimein by Super Red Rangers.

Legacy

Even though Ginis died and his Deathgalien contestants on Earth are destroyed, it does not mean that the universe is safe from Deathgalien: it is hinted that there are still surviving members of Deathgalien in other parts of universe and they continue to wreak havoc across the galaxy. Eventually other Deathgalien members will reach Earth and Zyuohger must be ready for them.

---

When I was done everyone was shocked and horrified.

Rena: Oh man! That's terrible!

Lola: Yeah they are dangerous.

Nico: Ginis is the 2nd most evil villain I've seen next to Radiquet of the Jetman rangers from 1991.

Eli: Yeah that's crazy.

Me: But thank goodness you all killed him.

Yamato: Yeah.

Puff: Those Deathgalien guys seemed to be based off of different video game genres.

Nicole: I was just about to point that out and the way they were turned giant reminded me of how they were given extra lives in video games.

Eli: Very unique characteristic.

Laney: That is really cool.

Lily: I think it's really something.

Nico: That is cool. Now that Ginis is dead and gone, his Deathgaliens would make great monsters for our frenemies in the Masters of Evil.

Yamato: They sure would. We saw all your adventures on TV before and after we started helping you out.

Nico: That reminds me. J.D. how did you travel back to meet the Zyuohger Rangers?

Me: That's a really complicated story. After we got back from our adventure in the Dream World I was testing out a time travel watch for Lisa and I accidentally went back in time to 2017 and I met the Zyuohger Rangers as they were fighting one of the Deathgaliens and I helped destroy him.

Eli: Wow!

Nico: That explains a lot.

Me: Yes it does.

Wrecker: Can we ask you guys a hypothetical question?

Amu: Did something happen?

Thunderball: Oh, nothing happened.

Piledriver: Say that someone dug up the body of a deceased friend or relative that you guys know.

Bulldozer: How angry would you guys be?

Leo: We'd be very angry, of course.

Tusk: I really don't like how casual you guys are being about this. It's very unnatural. And-

Sela: What. Happened?

Me: Well it's a weird story. The grave of Sheila's mother Marideth was opened and the body was stolen and we think that one of the Deathgaliens is responsible for it.

Eli: They are having some help by an evil insectoid race called the Aparoids.

Leo: What are the Aparoids?

Me: A very dangerous parasitic insectoid race that wants to enslave everything in the entire universe. They are very much like the Borg from Star Trek.

Yamato: Whoa man.

Irma: Did I mention that Sheila's asshole of a father had his body dug up as well?!

Inque: How do you know this?

Irma: I just got off the phone with Dad.

Me: Oh great! Now we have to face Sheila's so-called dad and save her mom.

Eric Loud: I'll face her dad. I have a few surprises in store for him after everything he did.

Larry Loud: Wow this is gonna be huge.

Divebomb: Do we have video footage of the incident?

Irma: As a matter of fact dad sent it.

We saw a video of a crematorium and we saw 3 figures breaking into it in the middle of the night. We saw them breaking open the vault where Terrence Castille's ashes were and they took out an urn and just as they turned to the camera we saw his appearance become clear.

Me: Wait freeze there.

I looked closer and saw that it was DOMIDOLL!

Me: WHOA That's Domidoll!

Yamato: What!? I thought he was destroyed!

Me: Looks like he was brought back somehow.

Nico: I remember Domidoll. He was the ringmaster of that evil circus.

Eli: That was an intense one.

Me: Yeah.

Lola: What can you tell us about him?

I pulled up his history.

---

Domidoll is the evil alien ringmaster of the whimsically menacing Space Circus Troupe aboard their fantastic Spaceship Flying Tent, and he is the main antagonist of the 2016 movie Doubutsu Sentai Zyuohger the Movie: The Heart Pounding Circus Panic. His goal is to recreate the entire universe as a circus stage by destroying unnecessary planets. In order to achieve this goal of his he used the Zyuman circus to gather the energy of the children's cries to create a powerful energy, and attempts to destroy Earth with its powerful energy.

He was portrayed and voiced by Takashi Yoshimura.

In the present, he makes his first appearance piloting Cube Condor as he attacks Zyuoh King once he acquires the other two Zymen and their vehicles he combines them with the Cube Condor to become Condor Wild which he now pilots with the restrained Amu and Tusk. Once he knocks Yamato out of the mecha he captures Sela and Leo to take them towards his base of operation.

During the flashback leading up to this event he revealed his true form as he captured the children who are watching the performance while sending the adults out of his base not before long he sends out a couple of Moeba to prevent the team from entering his base. Speaking of back inside his base he'd took Perle Cube Condor so he can pilot it.

According to Naria, Domidoll has been wreaking havoc across the cosmos by turning several planets into circus balls and rearranging stars into rings of fire.

Back to the present, he was marveling at the children's job to produce more crying to power up his machine to destroy planet earth however when he sees Zyuoh Eagle attempting to break into his hideout he demonstrates the energy that he collected by having them fired at the flier which he did sending Zyuoh Eagle crashing down to the ground.

Back inside when he heard the children laughing he jumps back down to the dungeon to force them to cry some more, but Perle does not like that idea so she wants him to give her Cube Condor back, but to his response she'd be killed immediately. So the disguised Zyumen tried to prevent him from killing Perle, but he stops them in their tracks by tying them up with the chains as they dangle from the ceiling.

Once that was done he is then about to finish Perle off once and for all, but he was stopped by the arrival of Zyuoh Eagle as he used his vehicle to blast a hole in the Space Circus right where the dungeon is at. So with that said Domidoll starts attacking Zyuoh Eagle as he manage to knock him out of his transformation state and he pins him to the floor with his foot, but thanks to Perle's determination to stop crying she'd cheered on to the Zyuohgers making the Zyumen Performers and the children to cheer them on too thus causing the base to lose the crying energy it needs which makes Domidoll very worried.

So in retaliation Domidoll he sends Yamato towards the crates, but he was knocked back by a rolling ball giving Yamato the time to free his friends, so they can take back their cubes from and as for Cube Condor in Domidoll's possession it was knocked out of his hands and back to the rightful owner.

Once that was done, Domidoll was so mad at them for what they did to ruin his plans, but to their response was to never messed with this planet. So they transformed and sent Domidoll flying out of his base giving Zyuoh The World enough time to bring the Space Circus back down. So he has the Moeba to get them, but they were wipe out by the team and the space circus crashed to the ground freeing everyone inside and the children be reunited with their parents.

This made Domidoll very angry so he had battled the team himself, but he was taken out by the team with instincts Awakened and Beast Unleashed as Zyuoh Gorilla suckered punch Domidoll to the destroyed base.

However he fused himself with his spaceship to become this giant Complete form as he battle Wild Tousai King. However he used his hand whip to bind the mech and sends jolts of electricity at the same time, but due to Zyuoh Condor's illusion to create Zyuland giving the team and the mech enough energy to free themselves from Domidoll's grasp and continue the fight and equipped Cube Condor as a sword. After that Domidoll was then destroyed by this finisher called Condor Zyuoh Infinity.

---

When I was finished we were shocked!

Lincoln: That is sick! Using crying energy to destroy the Earth is wrong on so many levels!

Laney: No kidding!

Lana: What a heartless monster!

Yamato: I… actually can see Domidoll doing something like this.

Tala: Me too. After all, every ringmaster needs a freakshow.

Me: And from the looks of things, he made Sheila's mother and so-called father into the freakshow.

Nico: That really boils me.

Me: Yeah no kidding.

Our dark orb detector then beeped and on the radar it showed a moving Dark Orb in a circular object floating over Tokyo.

Me: A dark orb must've brought him back to life. And his circus is over Tokyo.

Eli: Then we have to go after.

Me: After we have our usual battles.

Nico: Just what I was thinking.

Aria Blaze: Who are the other two figures?

Me: Hmm.

We looked and we couldn't get a good look.

Me: I can't tell. The image is too obscured.

Sasuke: Wait! The second one looks familiar.

Lisa Loud: Let me see.

Lisa hooked up the phone to a hologram computer.

Lisa Loud: Let me enhance the lighting and take away the shadows and enhance the resolution.

She did all that and we saw the Domidoll had DANZŌ SHIMURA and a Genesect with him!

We gasped!

Me: Danzō Shimura!

Eli: And he has a Genosect with him!

Plastique: So that asshole Danzo's back?!

Me: That fucker just drives me nuts!

May: And he has a Genesect under his control as well!

Me: Wow! I heard that Pokemon has been around since the Carboniferous Period over 300,000,000 years ago.

Laney: That's cool.

Me: It sure is. We better get the usual battles done before we make our move.

Whiger: I'm actually going to be the one for the Power Rangers battle.

Maria: Really?

Whiger: It's to test out my new safe. But if you want, I can call another one of my fellow Rinshi.

Me: We would like that Whiger.

Whiger: Great! It wouldn't be fair for me to go twice since I already had my turn with Dante.

Me: Good point.

Nico: Yeah.

Larry Loud: Guys, what if we can't rescue Sheila's mom? I mean, who knows what else Domidoll did to her.

Shockwave: Larry, chances are, he might not have gotten the chance to do anything worse to her yet.

Me: We'll. Never give up on her. After all we did save many people from the Aparoids many times before.

Nico: That's right we did and we gave so many people their relatives and family back.

Laney: We sure did.

Larry Loud: Oh you're right.

Me: Maria call the battles in.

Maria: Okay.

She did so and then Duff Killigan, Brain Freezer, Trickster, Mojo Jojo, Cluemaster, Ebon, Radioactive Man, Evil Lyn, Zs'Skayr, and Manta Bayarsh appeared.

Me: Duff Killigan, Brain Freezer, Trickster, Mojo Jojo, Cluemaster, Ebon, Radioactive Man, Evil Lyn, Zs'Skayr, and Manta Bayarsh.

Ebon: Looks like we got here just in time.

Duff Killigan: (to the Zyuoghers) (Scottish Accent) It's an honor to see you again, lads.

Yamato: Same here, Duff.

Brain Freezer: Oh yeah. That's right. You were there when they first appeared.

Trapster: You guys are gonna love being part of the team.

Mojo: (to me) We heard you met some giants this morning.

Me: Not just any giants Mojo. They were from Jack the Giant Slayer from 2013.

Cluemaster: I think it's safe to say they weren't friendly.

Me: No they weren't. But we got quite a treasure from them.

Nico: It was awesome.

?: (Arabic Acccent) This is gonna be good.

A figure came out and it was CURARÉ!

---

Curaré is a deadly assassin and a villainess in DC comics. She is a member of a deadly guild of ninja assassins known as the League of Assassins and is one of their best members. She was sent on a mission to kill Sam Young. She appeared in the episodes A Touch of Curaré and Final Cut of Batman Beyond .

Nobody knows Curaré's true identity nor has seen her face (apart from Batman II). But everybody knows she's deadly, and possessed an unending knowledge of killer tactics. She was an excellent martial artist, and was designed to kill. She possessed a scimitar that has an edge no thicker than a molecule. It could cut through anything and she often used it to deflect gunfire.

In the Society of Assassins, the price of failure was death, and Curaré was the first to run afoul of that rule when she finally met her match in the form of Batman II and Commissioner Barbara Gordon. Both of them, working together, managed to capture Curaré and saved district attorney Sam Young from her lethal blade. Curaré managed to escape, but then had to face the fatal consequences of her failure.

She, however, managed to turn the tables on the Society of Assassins, hunting every one of them down, erasing their minds, before they had a chance to kill her. She eventually destroyed the entire Society one at a time and can thus be inferred to be the best assassin left in the world. She was soon captured by Batman.

---

Batman 2039: Curaré.

Eli: This one is deadly.

Curaré: It's an honor to face you all again.

Me: Last time we faced you was during when we took down the Brain Trust.

Curaré: Yes that's right.

Gina: Looks like I'm gonna face you.

Me: Go get her.

?: As long as you all get to face me.

A figure came out and it was RANTIPEDE from episode 4 of Jungle Fury.

---

Rantipede and the other four Fingers of Poison were called up by Camille, to destroy the Rangers. Rantipede was the master of the centipede fighting style, which emphasizes rapid punching. He always wore a brown paper sack with an X on it on his head, as well as similar paper coverings on his arms and legs. He had the ability to attack his opponents with one hundred punches. After first battle with the Rangers, Rantipede decided to fight them on his own and challenged Casey for a duel. But Lily came instead of Casey. Lily, the Yellow Ranger, used her speed and defeated Rantipede in the duel. When the other Rangers came, Rantipede showed his true face, made of a centipede's coiled tail and after absorbing enough fear he enlarged himself. During the battle with Jungle Pride Megazord, Rantipede uncoiled the tail from his head and wrapped it around the Megazord. But the Megazord twisted around and freed itself. Rantipede was finally destroyed by Megazord's Savage Spin Attack.

---

Casey Rhodes: Rantipede!

Rantipede: Been a while rangers.

Me: I remember you! You're one of the 5 Fingers of Poison and you were sent to destroy the rangers with your rapid-punching Centipede Style Fighting Form.

Rantipede: That's right. Good memory on you J.D.

Me: Never missed an episode.

Lola: What exactly is under your hood anyway?

Rantipede: Um… you probably don't want to know.

Lynn: Oh, c'mon. It's probably not that bad.

As soon as Lynn took off Rantipede's hood, we all screamed! Our hair even stood up! HIS HEAD WAS MADE ENTIRELY OF FUCKING CENTIPEDES!

Lana: Cool!

Lori: Lynn, literally put that hood back on right now!

Me: That is horrible! I think I'm gonna need some serious therapy after today!

Nico: Yeah!

Me: And I thought what was under Double D's hat was horrible!

Rantipede: Sorry. Being the Centipede Rinshi, it's part of who I am.

Me: True.

Pumbaa: But your head would be really tasty!

Timon: We eat bugs.

Rantipede: Oh boy. That's what I'm afraid of.

Lana: I wasn't scared of it. I like it. I also like eating bugs.

Me: It's true. Lana ate all of Oogie Boogie's bugs twice and during the Lion King World she ate A LOT of Bugs.

Rantipede: WHOA!

Uma and Bluto then appeared.

Me: Uma and Bluto too. This is gonna be fun.

Rena: I'll face Uma. This is gonna be fun to test myself out.

Me: Awesome.

?: Don't forget me.

A figure came out and it was PED THE WORM ALCHEMOR DECEPTICON!

---

The hulking Decepticon Ped would be a loyal and effective foot soldier in the Decepticon army… if not for his crippling inferiority complex. Seen as figuratively and literally beneath other Decepticons, Ped stews in his resentment and makes plans to finally come out on top one day. Luckily for his enemies, Ped isn't terribly bright, and is easily goaded.

It's not that he doesn't have some skills. There are few who can tunnel through the ground as fast and efficiently as Ped, a skill he uses to conduct sneak attacks and avoid direct conflict. If he really needs to fight, he can sting foes with his mandibles, or simply smash them apart with his claws. But up-close combat isn't really his thing, so he sticks with keeping his foes disoriented, or at least at the bottom of a deep pit, so he can work uninterrupted and escape easily.

Ped was one of the many Decepticons imprisoned aboard the Alchemor . When the ship crash-landed on Earth, he was freed from his stasis pod. He set up a network of tunnels and begun scrounging energon cubes scattered by the ship's crash, hoping to monopolize the precious resource so that he could negotiate with other Decepticons. He eventually attacked a human construction site to recover an energon cube. Not long afterwards, he raided Denny Clay's scrapyard and stole most of their stockpiled energon. Bumblebee and his team - along with Jazz- travelled into the tunnels to recover their energon. Bumblebee and Strongarm encountered him digging, and realized that his constant tunneling had undermined part of Crown City. Ped escaped after he realized that Sideswipe and Jazz had found his Energon stash. Ped attacked Sideswipe and disabled him; Jazz's sonic weapons collapsed the tunnel, and Ped escaped with the energon in the confusion.

The Autobots later set up a trap to lure Ped aboveground and recapture him. However, they did not allow for the possibility that Ped would attack Denny and Russell Clay instead of beelining for the energon, and Ped incapacitated the other Autobots by dropping them into a sinkhole. Sideswipe managed to escape the pit and goaded Ped into attacking him. He was joined by Jazz, and together the two managed to bait the enraged Decepticon back into his stasis pod, at which point Denny dropped an electromagnet on his head.

* * *

Ped: This is gonna be so awesome facing all of you.

Nico: Ped the Worm Alchemor Decepticon. Looks like one of the Beast Wars Transformers is gonna have the honor to face you.

Ped: That's right and it will be an honor to face one of my descendants.

Brittney: Your voice sounds so much like Mandark's voice.

Ped: (Laughs) It kind of does doesn't it.

Brittney: It sure does.

Retrax: I will face you. It will be cool to face you Ped.

Me: YEAH!

Larry Loud: Now it's my turn.

His eyes glowed neon green and he walked up to Domidoll and had flowers, leaves, grass and flower petals swirling around him.

Larry Loud: You have tormented all these kids for the last time Domidoll! Feeding off of kids crying to destroy the world, you make me sick! This time you will die!

A massive flash of light exploded out of him and then he was enveloped in a massive vortex of flowers and when he emerged from the vortex he was forever changed!

(IMPERATRIX MUNDI PLATS AT 1:45 TO 2:14)

Larry now had the body of a 21-year-old and he looked like a hunk. He had longer brown hair in a cronmage and had green highlights in it and he had a flower with a beautiful fairy on it emblazoned on his forehead and had earrings in the shape of the kanji for flower. He had a black shirt with a bunch of flowers and dragons on it and he had black camouflage pants on and he had brown combat boots and he had green fingerless gloves and flower arm bands and his scarf was wrapped around his waist and it had flowers around it. He had a sleeveless trench coat with flowers on it and he had angel wings with green grass at the tips of the feathers and flowers were on the wings too. Written in flowers he had the kanji for "Larry Loud, Voice of Reason for The Loud Brothers, Master of the powers of Gaia the Goddess of The Earth, A loving brother to his Siblings, Gifted in many things and Master of the Forces of Nature, Fruit, Vegetables, Plants and Trees."

ラリー・ラウド、ラウド・ブラザーズの理由の声、地球の女神ガイアの力のマスター、彼の兄弟への愛情のある兄弟、多くの才能と自然、果物、野菜、植物、木の力のマスター。

He also had a neon green aura with flowers and grass swirling around him. He had transformed into a SUPER ANGEL 500,000,000,000 FLOWER FURY OF GAIA!

We gasped in amazement!

Me: WHOA! Larry you look incredible!

Loki: Way to go little bro!

Loni: You totes look amazing!

Luke Loud: Yeah! How do you feel little bro?

Larry Loud: (Divine Echoing Flower Voice) Incredible bros. Now I'm going to make sure that this monster never feeds on the crying of kids anymore.

Me: We all will help!

?: I will make sure that none of you leave here alive.

Suddenly, the eight large planets and stars orbing around my legs, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs, the eight large crimson red orbs orbiting around Naruto's legs, and the eight large black orbs with the Eye of Horus orbiting around Cody (OC)'s legs were glowing, and that means big trouble.

Lincoln: I was hoping we wouldn't to that voice again. It's been a long time since J.D. killed you long ago, Danzō Shimura.

A figure came out, and it was none other than Danzō Shimura, the corrupt warmonger of The Hidden Leaf Village, who's returned from the dead, and everyone in The Hidden Leaf Village were indeed very furious that Danzō Shimura has returned from the dead.

Sasuke: You bastard, I should've known you'd return from the dead.

Itachi: Your crimes are indeed unforgivable, Danzō. You claim that your actions are for the good of The Hidden Leaf Village, but in reality, you've always been a power-hungry, cold, heartless demon, just like the demonic members of my family.

Ace Bunny: Lincoln, I know The Mane 9 found about Danzō Shimura when you met Nanami Simpson, but can you tell me and the team about that corrupt warmonger?

Lincoln: Sure, Ace, but trust me, you're not going to like what I'm going to have to tell you guys.

Me: Danzō is the most notorious traitor in the entirety of the Five Great Nations.

Lincoln proceeded to tell Ace Bunny, The Loonatics, and the rest of the new recruits about Danzo Shimura, and like he said, they weren't going to like it.

---

Danzō Shimura is a member of the Hidden Leaf's council and a major antagonist in the manga and anime series Naruto . His unbridled jealousy of Hiruzen Sarutobi, caused Danzō to do despicable acts in pursuit of the position of Hokage, Danzō's militant and archaic views made him a danger to the village he professed to love and protect as he created the hatred in some of Konoha's greatest attackers and major villains (Kabuto Yakushi, Orochimaru, Nagato, and Sasuke Uchiha) due to his harsh and cruel indifference to human suffering. Strangely, despite Danzō's views that ninja should always be ready to sacrifice their lives, he was afraid of death, much to his own shame. He is Sasuke Uchiha's arch-nemesis.

In the Japanese version, he was voiced by Hiroshi Ito, and Masayuki Katō as a young adult. In the English version, he was voiced by William Frederick Knight, and Peter Lurie as a young adult.

In his youth, Danzō was good friends with Hiruzen Sarutobi, having felt the need to upstart him. During the First Shinobi World War, Danzō and Hiruzen, along with the latter's team-mates Koharu Utatane and Homura Mitokado, were placed together in a squad under the Second Hokage Tobirama. When being late pursued by the Kinkaku Squad of the Village Hidden in the Clouds, Danzō attempted to volunteer in sacrificing himself as a decoy to ensure the others' safety. However, paralyzed with fear as Hiruzen volunteered for the task, Tobirama sacrificed himself instead while naming Hiruzen as his successor much to the shock of both Hiruzen and Danzō.

With Hiruzen as the Third Hokage, with him, Koharu, and Homura appointed roles as his advisors, a grudge filled Danzō resolved to become Hokage someday and formed the ANBU subsidiary named Root. Though the group was later officially disbanded, Root remained secretly active as Danzō executed shady dealing. The group became even more mindlessly devoted to Danzō, who started branding them with cursed seals, even attempting to assassinate Hiruzen on one occasion.

One such event was aiding Hanzo in his attempt to wipe out the but the men he sent to the Village Hidden in Rain were all wiped out by Nagato. Danzō also played a role in Kabuto Yakushibecoming a rogue ninja under his former subordinate Orochimaru, whom Danzō had implanting the DNA of Hashirama Senju to use his Wood Style.

In the aftermath of Kurama's attack on Konoha, Danzō suspected the Uchiha clan to have involvement and supported their relocation for better observation, which led to the Uchiha becoming more isolated and discontent, and thus eventually plotting to rebel. Years later, learning of the planned coup d'état by the Uchiha clan and playing on Itachi Uchiha's pacifist tendencies to provide him and the other elders with information of the clan's actions, Danzō secretly killed Shisui Uchiha, despite the fact that Shisui was actually already planning to use a genjutsu to prevent the Uchiha rebellion. He kills Shisui in order to obtain his Sharingan eyes. However, Danzo then secretly ordered Itachi to slaughter his clan in return that his younger brother Sasuke Uchiha would be spared death. Though Itachi committed the deed, he left Danzō with a warning to not harm Sasuke or he would expose the circumstances of the Uchiha Clan's demise to the other ninja villages. Hiruzen, however, guesses much of what had happened, although he had no proof, and becomes even more suspicious of Danzō, and demands that Root be disbanded.

Part II

When Team Kakashi decides to meet with the spy Sasori installed in Orochimaru's camp, Danzō took advantage of Kakashi's absence to assign Sai to the group as part of a plan to secretly assassinate Sasuke. To achieve that goal, Danzō had Sai trick Orochimaru into thinking he wants to join forces with him to destroy Konoha. Though Sai failed his mission, Danzō allowed him to remain with Team Kakashi, as Danzō had become worried about Naruto becoming a problem, and Sai would be in a perfect place to watch him.

During the events of Pain invading Konoha, Danzō was against Tsunade calling Naruto back to the village in fear that they would lose Kurama. To that end, Danzō not only killed the messenger toad Kōsuke but also ordered his subordinates not to come to the Hidden Leaf's aid with the expectation that Tsunade would be killed off not caring about the deaths of the other villages. Most of the villagers were killed in the attack. However, despite Danzō's action, Naruto arrived none the less with everyone Nagato killed revived while Tsunade ended up in a coma. Following the invasion, the Hidden Leaf are summoned before the Lord of Fire over what occurred, with Danzo convincing the feudal lord to name him the new acting Hokage. Danzō becomes the leader of the armed forces by influencing Mifune's mind but is caught.

Soon after, Danzō uses his power to mark Sasuke as a criminal to be killed before leaving for the Kage Summit in the Land of Iron to discuss dealing with the Akatsuki. Before leaving, seeing that he cannot confine Naruto due to his reputation as a hero, Danzō ordered Sai to spy on the boy while sending his men to track down Kabuto for his medical knowledge. With Torune and Fuu as his bodyguards, Danzō arrives at the Kage Summit and attempts to name himself the leader of the alliance that would fight the Akatsuki. However, the abrupt appearance of Taka and White Zetsu forces Danzō to flee.

However, Danzō and his men were halted by Tobi at the Samurai Bridge. By that time his men were defeated by Tobi and Sasuke, who then challenged Danzo to personal combat, Danzō unsealed his arm and revealed it to have been embedded with multiple Sharingan eye as he admits his role in the Uchiha Clan Massacre. Sasuke pretends to attack in anger with his Susanoo, Danzō uses Izanagi to evade the fatal attack, until it becomes evident that Sasuke was actually just making Danzō lose track of how many Sharingan he had in his arm, and in the end Sasuke is able to overcome Danzō by using a simple genjutsu making Danzō think he has one extra. With the powers of both Senju and Uchiha at his disposal, causing Tobi to realize that Danzō is targeting Naruto, Danzō clashes with Sasuke before being forced to sever his right arm as he was overwhelmed by the Senju DNA.

Refusing to accept defeat, Danzō takes Karin as a hostage so he can use Shisui's eye on Sasuke. However, Danzō was shocked that Sasuke had his attack pierce through Karin to kill him. On the verge of death, seeing that he can never surpass Hiruzen, Danzō decided to use the last of his life to take both Sasuke and Tobi down with him with the Reverse Four Symbols Seal. Though both were able to get out of range, Danzō destroyed Shisui's Sharingan to prevent Tobi from obtaining it.

---

When Lincoln was finished, Ace Bunny, The Loonatics, and the new recruits were indeed horrified by the crimes of Danzō Shimura, and no one could hold their tongues anymore.

Ace Bunny: (Growls) Danzō Shimura, you fucking snake! I can't believe just how evil you are, all your actions proves just how black your heart really is, and that's something I can never forgive!

Tech E Coyote: Ace's right, you implanted your arm and part of your face with Senju DNA, along with the eyes of the slain Uchiha members, you really make me sick.

Danger Duck: And you, along with Orochimaru, both had a hand in Nono's death, and you left Kabuto Yakushi traumatized for life.

Lexi Bunny: And there's no telling how many lives you've sacrificed all for your selfish ambitions.

Rev Runner: I hope that the demons of Hell tear your soul in two for what you did.

Jared Knudson: Actually, Rev, there's one place where he's going, and trust me, I've had just about enough of this corrupt warmonger to last an eternity.

Suddenly, Jared Knudson's eyes had turned neon orange, and he was surrounded by a fiery orange energy aura, and as he began walking to Danzō, he left behind fiery footsteps.

Jared Knudson: Danzō, I will never forgive you for what you've done. Your crimes have darkened the annuls of Hidden Leaf history, and I will make sure that you pay for your crimes infinite-fold!

Danzō: Everything I did was for the good of the village!

Jared: Bull-fucking-shit! You weren't making things better for the Leaf Village, you were only making things worse! You are nothing but a stain on the village and an absolutely despicable warhawk that would rather destroy than help out! Now it ends!

Then, Jared was surrounded by a massive vortex of orange energy and fire, there was a phoenix flying around the vortex, and there was a crimson red phoenix inside the vortex. Then, when the vortex faded, Jared Knudson emerged, but he was changed forever.

Jared Knudson looked like he was 21 years old, he was now much taller at 6'11" in height, he now had large and very powerful muscles with eight-pack abs, he had a crimson red phoenix emblazoned on his forehead, his black hair had gotten longer reaching the bottom of his neck, and it was tied in a ponytail, he had an orange energy aura with flames, he had neon orange eyes, and he had large crimson red angel wings with orange tips on the crimson red feathers. He had phoenix earrings with the Fire Kanji in its claws and a silver necklace with the Fire Kanji on his neck. Jared Knudson was dressed in a sleeveless crimson red trenchcoat with orange flames and a phoenix on the back, an orange shirt with crimson red flames and a crimson red phoenix, black pants with orange flames on the pants legs, and black leather combat boots. He had on his Bracelets of The Champions of The Universe with orange gems on his wrists, a Belt of Elemental Bravery with a large orange gem for the belt buckle on his waist, and an Eater of Sins revolver holstered on his left hip. The Eternity Sword had merged with his new sword, and it was now known as The Sword of The Eternal Phoenix, the massive, wide, double-edged blade was now 6'5" in length and it had a phoenix etched on the blade, crimson red angel wings for the crossguard, a large orange gem for the hilt, a longer black handle, and a large crimson red sphere pommel with surrounding orange gems. There was an orange kanji below the phoenix that said, "Jared Knudson, Son of James Dean Knudson, Emissary of The Phoenix, Master of The Eternity Sword, Loving Husband of Allenby Knudson, and Loving Brother to Many Siblings."

ジェームズ・ディーン・クヌッドソンの息子、フェニックスの使者、永遠の剣の達人、アレンビー・ナドソンの愛する夫、そして多くの兄弟への愛する兄弟

Jared Knudson has transformed into SUPER ANGEL 750,000,000,000 INFERNO FIRESTORM PHOENIX OF DIVINE JUSTICE!

We were amazed by Jared's transformation, and it meant big trouble for Danzo Shimura, and he was about to pay dearly for his crimes.

Me: Wow, Jared, you've transformed, awesome!

Nico: You said it, man. Jared, how do you feel?

Jared Knudson: (Divine Echoing Fiery Voice of Justice) I feel incredible, Nico, and now, I'm going to rip through that corrupt warmonger, and put an end to the darkness that haunts The Hidden Leaf.

Ace Bunny: Rip that bastard apart, Jared.

Jared Knudson: Got it, Ace.

Then we saw 2 figures come out and they were Sheila's mom Marideth and her so-called father Terrence!

Nico: Oh no!

Eli: Hang on Marideth!

Eli fired a wave of Force Lightning and freed Marideth from the Aparoids and Eli brought her over to us.

Eric Loud: And you Terrence deserve nothing more than spending the rest of eternity in prison.

Eric fired a wave of lightning and freed him and knocked him down and Nico sent him to the Neptune Cryo-Prison.

Domidoll: Moebas, come forth!

An army of Moebas appeared.

Me: Moebas!

Nico: The Footsoldiers of the Deathgaliens!

Lincoln: This is gonna be good!

Eli: Lets tear these fuckers apart!

Yamato: Don't underestimate this planet!

Me: It will be the last thing you ever do!

Nico: Lets get him! CHARGE!

We went at them!

Zazz: You're going home in a box!

Zazz slashed and cut the Moebas all over and splattered their blood everywhere!

Me: Take this!

I fired powerful energy blasts and blew many Moebas apart.

Wily Kit and Wily Kat threw bombs and blew many Moebas apart in fiery explosions!

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOMMMM!

Amu: Unleash the beast!

She fired blades of energy from her claws with a powerful swipe and slashed many Moebas in half and killing them.

Tsurugi: Lets do it!

HOUOU KYUTAMA! SEIZA CHANGE!

Tsurugi: STAR CHANGE!

He turned into the Phoenix The Firebird Kyuranger!

Tsurugi: Space Bu-Star! Houou Soldier!

Me: We'll help you take back the galaxy!

We fired blasts of fire and energy and blew the Moebas apart!

Zomom: Looks like dinner is served!

Zomom was eating Moebas all over and he was loving them!

Leo: Unleash the beast!

THUNDERCLAP!

Lightning struck all over and Leo fired waves of lightning and electrocuted the Moebas all over.

Larry Loud: Take this you fiend!

He fired waves of flowers and they hit Domidoll all over and he was sneezing?

Domidoll: (SNEEZES UNCONTROLLABLY) I'm allergic to all flowers! (SNEEZE)

Larry then kicked him in the stomach and Domidoll belched up a tremendous amount of black blood.

Master Zik: Your lesson begins now!

He slashed a bunch of Moebas all over the place.

Yamato: Unleash the beast!

He spread his arm wings and flew into the air and smashed a bunch of Moebas down.

Me: UNLEASH THE BEAST!

My hands turned into deadly sword claws and I fired powerful moon blade blasts at the Moebas and slashed them to pieces.

Tsurugi fired blades of fire and incinerated many Moebas all over!

Zeena: You wouldn't hurt a lady, would you?

The Moebas came at her and she smashed and lashed them all over.

Tusk: They would.

Tusk picked a bunch of Moebas.

Tusk: Unleash the beast!

His legs turned into Elephant hooves and he smashed the ground and sent a bunch of Moebas with a deadly earthquake.

Zor: Another pointless conflict is about to begin.

He blasted them with darkness blasts.

Nico: YEAH! Take this! NUOVA STAR!

The 4-Star Dragonball on his bracelet glowed and he fired a fireball and it blew the Moebas all over in an incredible pillar of fire.

Sela: Unleash the beast!

Sela spun around in a powerful cartwheel and formed into a deadly sawblade and she slashed many Moebas apart.

Luna Loud: ROCKIN!

Eli and Luna fired waves of water and Force Lightning and blasted the Moebas all over.

Zavok: Playtime is over!

Nico: And here's what Kyle did to Chucky when she roasted him.

Nico flipped the bird at Domidoll!

Domidoll did not like that one bit!

Nico then fired waves of lightning and electrocuted Domidoll all over the place!

Misao: Unleash the beast!

He used the power of the Crocodile and used a powerful Crocodile Tail and smashed the Moebas down.

Me: YEAH!

Carol: Take this Domidoll!

She fired Godzilla's Atomic Ray and it hit Domidoll and exploded and sent him crashing into the stands.

POW! BLAM!

Jared punched Danzo and sent him flying.

Jared: That was for all the lives you've ruined and destroyed!

Jared Knudson flew after Danzo Shimura, who unwrapped the bandages from his arm and his face, and he revealed the Sharingan eyes he stole from the slain Uchiha members. He fired a powerful blast of fire at Jared, but Jared dodged his attacks and absorbed the fire from the attack, and fired powerful blasts of fire and orange and crimson red energy blasts at Danzo, which hits him and they exploded with incredible power. Then, with some powerful slashes from his new Sword of The Eternal Phoenix, Jared Knudson destroyed the Sharingan eyes on Danzo's arm and the Sharingan eye that's implanted in Danzo's left eye, and he cut off Danzo's arm, and he'd screamed in excruciating pain.

Me: Whoa, Jared's got Danzo on the ropes, and he destroyed all the Sharingan eyes on Danzo's arm and the one implanted in Danzo's left eye.

Naruto: Danzo's lost his secret weapons, and now, he's on his last legs.

Jared Knudson: And now, you will disappear into the darkness forever, Danzo, and you will never return to plague us again. FIRESTORM STYLE NINJA ART: PHOENIX INFERNO RASENSHURIKEN!

Jared Knudson formed a massive Rasenshuriken made of orange energy and crimson red flames, and it had a phoenix flying around the fiery orange core, and he infused it with Super Hakai energy, as it had traces of purple around it. Jared throws it, and as it hits Danzo Shimura, it exploded with incredible power, incinerating Danzo Shimura, and it Super Hakaied his spirit forever.

Jared powered down, and his neon orange eyes changed back to normal, but his new body, clothes, jewelry, and weapons were permanent. He looked on as the ashes of Danzo Shimura were swept away by the winds. Danzo Shimura, The Darkness of the Shinobi and The Biggest Traitor of The Hidden Leaf Village next to the Evil Uchiha, was silenced forever.

Jared Knudson: You who live in darkness shall be banished into darkness eternally, Rest in Eternal Oblivion, Danzo Shimura.

We then set our sights on Domidoll!

Nico: Get ready to face our wrath!

Yamato: Champion of the Jungle! Zyuoh Gorilla!

Yamato was now in his GORILLA ZYUOH FORM!

Yamato: Monarch of the Jungle! Zyuoh Gorilla!

We went at Domidoll and viciously punched and pulverized him all over the place.

Yamato: King of the Kings! Zyuoh Whale!

Me: YEAH! The Biggest creature in the world! The Whale!

Nico: Lets get them! And Domidoll this is for you!

Nico used Bangray's powers and formed the a massive army of Deathgaliens ready for action! And he also formed his own army of Moebas!

Nico: ATTACK!

The Deathgaliens and Moebas all went at Domidoll and smashed and pulverized him all over.

Bangray watched the battle from afar.

Bangray: The memories I got from Chan are unlike anything I've ever seen before. I can't wait to use them!

?: If I were you, I'd wait to use those memories.

Bangray turned to see Scarecrow, Airachnid, and Mr. Mind, in the IronWarHawk armor, there. Scarecrow was the one who spoke.

Bangray: Who are you 3?

Scarecrow: I am the Scarecrow.

Airachnid: I'm Airachnid.

Mr. Mind: And I am Mr. Mind.

Bangray: What brings you 3 here?

Mr. Mind: We've come to recruit you into our group, of course.

Airachnid: How would you like a chance to get even with the Zyuoghers?

Bangray: I'm in.

Zomom: No way! It's mine!

Manta Bayarsh: Come on, Zomom, Sharing is caring.

Zomom: Oh okay.

He gave half of his sandwich to Leo.

Leo: Thanks.

Yamato: (To the viewers) This was an awesome adventure! It looks like we've seen the last of Ginis and his Deathgaliens but Bangray is still out there. But we'll be ready for him. It's gonna be awesome to be part of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Nico: Yes it sure will be. Lets go home.

Me: I got to make a report to Lady Hokage. I'll meet you there.

Nico: Okay.

I went to the Leaf and everyone went back home. After I told Lady Hokage everything she gave me Quadruple Z Rank Mission Credit. We then had dinner and went to sleep.

Meanwhile in Chinatown, San Francisco, California at a dojo, two rabbits were training hard. they were Yin and Yang and they were getting ready for when they help us take down one of their enemies.

Yin: This is gonna be so cool and Team Loud Phoenix Storm is gonna be awesome to help.

Yang: You said it sis! We're going to kick some butt!

Yin: Lets do it!

They flared up auras and a flash of light was seen.

Another awesome fanfic done.

Zyuohger is one of my favorite Japanese Power Rangers series and it was amazing! It was 2017's Japanese Power Rangers series. The first part of the chapter is for the movie Jack and The Giant Slayer from 2013. It was so cool. The 2nd part is for the movie Pearl Harbor from 2001. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Drako1234658, Nflemingful, Etstheclarencefan and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. The next girl we're going to meet is Kura the Kraken and we're going to meet her and a Stakataka gene-slammer named Alana Vongphachanh and she is from Laos. We're going to meet them in the movie The 6th Day. Me and the Sylveon Gene-Slammer are gonna stop cloning. Also the next chapter as you saw is Yin-Yang-Yo and we're going to REALLY kick some butt in that one as we lay the kibosh on one of Yin and Yang's enemies.

See you all tomorrow.

Martial Arts Bunnies VS Evil Bat Tyrant

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion blasted into the sky and a phoenix cry was hurt and the spirits of evil geniuses swirled around and they converged and me and Birdie Emerson the Sylveon Gene-Slammer came out and we were flying over the city of Vancouver, British Columbia in Canada.

Me: British Columbia is so beautiful.

Birdie Emerson: It sure is.

We were flying.

Birdie Emerson: I get the feeling we're gonna be dealing with some clones.

Birdie concentrated and groaned as she fell to all fours.

Me: I got that same feeling too Birdie.

She turned into SYLVEON!

Me: YEAH!

I held on to her clothes for her and then we went into a building and it was Replacement Technologies and we saw clones in a giant tank.

Me: Wow! Look at this.

Birdie Sylveon: Looks like they're making human clones.

Me: This is wrong on so many levels. It's REALLY playing with fire. Wait a second. Wow! This is the world of one of my favorite movies: The 6th Day.

At some point in the indeterminate near future, the cloning of animals and human organs has become routine. Cloning entire humans, however, is prohibited by what are known as "Sixth Day" laws.

Billionaire Michael Drucker, owner of cloning corporation Replacement Technologies, hires charter pilot Adam Gibson and partner Hank Morgan for a ski trip. Due to Drucker's prominence, the two must first undergo blood and eye tests to verify their aptitude. On the day of Drucker's arrival, Adam finds that his family dog Oliver has died, and Hank offers to pose as him to fly Drucker instead to allow Adam time to have the pet cloned by RePet. After visiting a "RePet" shop, he remains unconvinced and purchases an animatronic doll, a SimPal, named Cindy instead. On the ski trip, however, Drucker and Hank are shot by one of the skiers.

Adam returns home and discovers that not only has Oliver already been cloned, but a purported clone of himself is with his family, along with another SimPal Cindy. Replacement Technologies security agents Marshall, Talia, Vincent and Wiley arrive with the intention of killing Adam. Adam kills Talia and Wiley in the ensuing chase and escapes, but both are later cloned. Adam goes to the police, but they do not believe his story, as the clone already reported his car stolen, and deem him insane. They call the security agents, but he escapes and seeks refuge at an alive Hank's apartment. Hank hardly believes his story, but when he shows him the clone Adam he helps him. Adam contemplates killing his clone but finds himself unable to do it and they return to Hank's apartment, where they are ambushed by Tripp, the skier who shot Drucker and Hank. Tripp shoots and kills Hank, but is mortally injured by Adam. Revealed as a religious anti-cloning extremist, Tripp informs Adam that Hank was a clone, since he killed the original one on the mountaintop earlier that day, to be able to kill Drucker, who was also a clone, and there is now a new Drucker clone. Marshall and the other agents arrive on the scene and Tripp informs Adam that he gained his information from informants that work in the cloning laboratory and that he knows their identities. Tripp then commits suicide by shooting himself in the head to avoid being captured by Marshall and the others in order to prevent his memory from being scanned. The agents begin to attack Adam but he is able to disable

Marshall and Talia again and steals Talia's thumb.

Seeking answers, Adam sneaks into Replacement Technologies with Talia's thumb and finds Dr. Griffin Weir, the scientist behind Drucker's illegal human-cloning technology. Weir confirms Tripp's information about the cloning, adding that to resurrect Drucker, the incident had to be covered up and Adam was cloned because they mistakenly believed he had been killed when he and Hank switched places, which they discovered only later and had Hank cloned as well, which is also why the agents are trying to kill Adam. Weir explains that Drucker - who already died years before - could lose all of his assets if the revelation became public, since clones are devoid of all rights. Sympathetic with Adam's plight, Weir gives him a memory disk (syncording) of the Drucker clone but warns him that Drucker may go after the other Adam instead, putting Adam's family in danger. Weir also discovers that Drucker has been engineering cloned humans with fatal diseases as an insurance policy against betrayal. Upon finding out that his own wife was one such victim, Weir confronts Drucker and resigns. Drucker reluctantly shoots him dead after promising to clone both him and his wife.

Drucker's agents abduct the Gibson family during Adam's daughters school recital and Adam comes face-to-face with his clone. The two reluctantly team up and devise a plan to destroy Drucker's facility. While Adam wrecks the security system and gets himself captured, the clone sneaks in, plants a bomb and rescues his family. Drucker, however, tells Adam that he himself is the clone; the other Adam is the original one. Initially doubtful, Drucker proves that Adam is the clone by showing hidden physical changes below the eye, marking how many times somebody has been cloned. Enraged, Adam fights off Drucker's agents and Drucker is mortally wounded while Talia, Wiley, Vincent and Marshall are killed for the final time. Drucker manages to clone himself before he dies but the malfunctioning equipment causes the new Drucker clone to be incomplete and extremely deformed. As the cloned Adam fights his way to the rooftop, he is rescued via helicopter by the real Adam as Drucker falls to his death before the facility explodes.

Now having a more moderate view of cloning, the real Adam arranges for his clone to move to Argentina to start a satellite office of their charter business. The clone's existence is kept a secret, especially upon discovering that his DNA has no embedded illnesses, giving him a chance at a full life, since he was of no political value to Drucker. As a parting gift to the Gibson family, the clone gives them Hank's RePet cat, Sadie. The real Adam gives the clone a flying send-off.

Birdie Sylveon: That movie was intense! Can you imagine what would happen if you encountered a perfect clone of yourself?

Me: That would be really freaky. It would be like I'm looking at myself in the mirror.

Birdie Sylveon: It sure would. But what these guys are doing here is REALLY wrong.

Me: No kidding and it's playing with fire.

We walked around and then I got onto the computer to find out what the clones were for.

Me: Wow! They sure know how to make perfect clones. They are totally clean of any disease and genetic abnormalities.

Birdie Sylveon: That is amazing.

Me: Yeah. But if I remember the movie, it said that here that Michael Drucker is incomplete and deformed. Looks like he's IMPERFECT.

Birdie Sylveon: Then we'll put him out of his misery.

?: I would like to see you try.

We turned and we saw the clone of Michael Drucker!

Michael Drucker is the main antagonist in the 2000 sci-fi/action film The 6th Day .

He was portrayed by Tony Goldwyn, who also played Carl Bruner in Ghost, The Gentleman Caller in Kiss The Girls, Colonel Bagley in The Last Samurai, and Samuel Braithwhite in Lovecraft Country .

Original Michael Drucker

Drucker is the CEO of a cloning company named Replacement Technologies. He was eventually killed and secretly cloned.

First Clone of Michael Drucker

hires a pilot named Adam Gibson and his partner Hank Morgan for a ski trip. However, Morgan poses as Gibson so that Gibson can clone his pet dog, who had died earlier that day, at a RePet shop. While Morgan is piloting Drucker on a mountaintop, they are both shot and killed by an anti-cloning fundamentalist named Tripp.

Second Clone of Michael Drucker

At Replacement Technologies, a clone of Drucker is created by his team without anyone else's knowledge. At the same time, a clone of Gibson is created since he was also believed to be dead, and takes his place amongst his family. When the real Gibson discovers this, Drucker sends his agents to kill him to erase any evidence of the illegal human cloning. Gibson avoids the agents and manages to kill a few of them, only for Drucker to have them cloned. Later, Gibson comes in contact with Tripp, who reveals to him that the new Drucker is a clone and that the incident was covered up. Gibson heads to Replacement Technologies and confronts the scientist behind Drucker's human-cloning technology, Dr. Griffin Weir. Weir informs him that Drucker would lose all of his power and assets if the incident was ever made public, since clones have no human rights, and he gives Gibson a memory disk for the new Drucker. Weir himself learns that Drucker has been implementing a fatal disease into all of his human clones as insurance against betrayal, and after his cloned wife dies of the disease, Weir confronts Drucker and quits his job. Knowing that he cannot afford to lose Weir, Drucker kills him with the intention of cloning both him and his wife (despite her having told Weir she did not want to be cloned again).

When Drucker realizes that Gibson has his memory disk, he kidnaps his family with the intention of luring Gibson to him. Gibson meets up with his clone and the pair decides to help each other take down Drucker and his cloning facility. Inside, the real Gibson destroys the security equipment and intentionally gets himself captured so that his clone can plant a bomb and rescue his family. Gibson is then taken to see Drucker, who tells him his plan to make human cloning legal in the near future. Gibson also discovers from Drucker that he is in fact the clone. Shocked by this news, Gibson fights off Drucker's agents and uses Drucker as a human shield, who is shot in the stomach with a ray gun by one of his men.

Final Clone of Michael Drucker

Mortally wounded, Drucker manages to clone himself but due to the malfunctioning equipment caused by Gibson, the new Drucker is hideously disfigured. After a brief confrontation with Gibson, the dying Drucker sends the new Drucker to kill him before succumbing to his wound. Gibson and his clone battle Drucker's remaining agents as the new Drucker pursues them to the roof, continuously shooting at them as they try to escape in a helicopter. Gibson uses a remote control to maneuver the helicopter behind Drucker in an attempt to kill him with its rotor blades, but Drucker manages to leap onto a glass roof to avoid them. However, his weight causes the glass to crack beneath his feet and sends Drucker falling to his death.

Me: Michael Drucker, I presume?

Michael Drucker: That's right J.D. It's an honor to meet you in person.

Me: Same here. Quite a setup you have here. It's amazing how you were able to come up with human clones that have no disease or genetic abnormalities. Despite half of the world being out for your head.

Michael Drucker: So I have seen.

Me: But what you're doing here is REALLY playing with fire and tampering with the laws of Mother Nature.

Michael Drucker: I'm trying to save us from disease! By legalizing human cloning, I can rid the world of disease and imperfection.

Me: Your intentions may be good. But your ambitions are not. Some things must be kept the way they are.

Michael Drucker: Well you may not like it but I do.

He went for his ray gun but he saw that it was in my hands.

Me: Looking for this?

I had it pointed at him.

Me: The laser guns you use here are amazing. Neutronic laser blasters. Very impressive.

Then we saw a tentacle grab Drucker and lift him up and we saw the Tentacle belonging to a Kraken Girl.

Kura: It is impressive. My name is Kura.

Me: Wow! You're a Kraken, the legendary sea monster from Nautical Folklore.

Kura: Yep.

Then a Stakataka came out.

Me: Whoa! A Stakataka.

Stakataka: (Lao Accent) It's good we came. Sorry I'm Alana Vongphachanh and yes I'm a Stakataka.

Me: Pleasure to meet you both.

Kura: What do you say we throw this monster in jail?

Me: Nah. He's a clone and he's genetically unstable. He should be reduced to mush in 3… 2… 1…

Then Drucker disintegrated into a pile of bloody slop and matter.

Kura; YUCK!

Stakataka: That was a horrible way to die.

Birdie Sylveon: No kidding.

Me: Lets get you back to human Alana.

I put on my blind man glasses and snapped my fingers and Alana reverted back and she was naked. Birdie reverted back too.

Birdie was human again. But naked.

Birdie: (covers herself) Maybe this cloning technology can be useful to us.

Me: It could. But this is all really playing with fire. We would probably stoop to Orochimaru's level if we got technology like this. But I'll have to see if any of our scientists could look into it.

Alana: (Covers herself) It would be interesting to see what would happen if we can use this technology to help cure cancer and all kinds of diseases.

I gave Alana new clothes and gave Birdie her clothes.

Kura: But it's very interesting how they made such amazingly perfect and accurate clones with no disease at all.

Me: It sure is. In the future this all may be possible to have no disease at all. But lets get all this back to the estate for debate on use.

Kura: Good idea.

We got all the equipment and teleported the computers and everything to the estate and put it in our laboratory.

* * *

After meeting Kura the Kraken and Alana Vongphachanh, Lincoln, me, Nico, Scarlet (Total Drama), Jack Darby, Raf, Miko, Nicole, Litchi Faye Ling, Makoto Nanaya, Celica, Aligned Arcee, Aligned Bulkhead, and Aligned Bumblebee were heading into the world of Maximum Overdrive, and not only is Lincoln going to rescue the eight girls who were sighted here, but we're also going to get the survivors to safety when we found out that a comet's tail had brought previously inanimate objects to life, and they're attacking people.

Lincoln: Whoa, we're in the world of Maximum Overdrive, and it looks like we've not only got to rescue the eight girls who are here, but we've got to rescue survivors and deal with the machines, which were brought to life by the comet's tail.

Me: That's right, big guy.

Litchi Faye Ling: But, why do we have the feeling that the next eight girls Lincoln's going to rescue are those we've known?

Celica: I was just thinking the same thing.

Makoto Nanaya: Me too.

?: Help!

Suddenly, Lincoln heard the sound of eight girls calling for help with his superhuman hearing, and with his cyborg eyes and superhuman height, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He saw eight girls who were helping the survivors, but they were attacked by a Caterpillar D7G bulldozer and an M274 Mule, brought to life by the comet's tail.

Lincoln: There they are, but they're being attacked by a Caterpillar D7G Bulldozer and an M274 Mule, which was brought to life by the comet's tail. Come on, guys.

Lincoln transformed into Super Angel-Ebonwu 500,000,000,000 Elemental Supercell Lightning Thunderbird Furious Hyperstorm of Justice and he unholstered his Sword of Taranis, and went after the animated Caterpillar D7G Bulldozer and the M274 Mule, and he fired powerful blasts of fire, wind, water, ice, earth, lava, crystals, lightning, vines, light, darkness, gravity, time, and stars at them, and blew them up to shreds.

Scarlet (Total Drama): Now, it's our turn. Lincoln, let's use a combo on the remaining animated objects.

Lincoln: (Divine Echoing Elemental Voice of Justice) Let's do it!

Lincoln and Scarlet (Total Drama): ELECTROMAGNETIC BOMB BARRAGE!

Scarlet (Total Drama) and Lincoln fired powerful electromagnetic blasts at the other animated machines, and the electromagnetic blasts hit the animated objects, and shut them down forever. We cheered wildly for another mission accomplished, and Lincoln powered down after it was over.

Lincoln: We did it.

Then, Nicole saw who those girls were, they were Lucina from Fire Emblem, Medaka Kurokami from Medaka Box, Natsumi Hinata from Sgt. Frog, Rachel Alucard from BlazBlue, Noel Vermillion from BlazBlue, Yuzuriha from Under Night In-Birth, Heart Aino from Arcana Heart, and Chitoge Kirisaki from Nisekoi.

Nicole: On wow, it's Lucina from Fire Emblem, Medaka Kurokami from Medaka Box, Natsumi Hinata from Sgt. Frog, Rachel Alucard from BlazBlue, Noel Vermillion from BlazBlue, Yuzuriha from Under Night In-Birth, Heart Aino from Arcana Heart, and Chitoge Kirisaki from Nisekoi.

Me: Wow, we haven't met Lucina yet.

Celica: And I'm surprised to see Lucina here.

Litchi Faye Ling: Along with Rachel Alucard and Noel Vermillion.

Lincoln: Wow, that's incredible.

Lincoln went over to the girls to see how they're doing.

Lincoln: Are you girls okay?

Lucina: Yes, we're okay.

Then, Lucina noticed the white hair from anywhere, and she recognized him from anywhere.

Lucina: Wait a second, are you Lincoln Loud?

That stunned the seven other girls when they found out about the identity of their rescuer.

Rachel Alucard: Wait a second, as in Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm?!

Then, when the girls saw him, their faces lit up like red Christmas lights upon seeing the 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful muscles, eight-pack abs, a lightning bolt cutie mark with the thunderbird and comic books on his right massive pec and surrounded by the symbols of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness in a circle, a Celtic Cross cutie mark tattoo in the form of the cutie marks of Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Rainbow Dash, Applejack, Rarity, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Starlight Glimmer, and Trixie Lulamoon and in a circle are the other girls in Lincoln's harem with the Earth surrounded by the ring of mermaids, a deep sapphire blue kanji on his wider muscular back that said "Lincoln Landon Loud, Champion of Lightning, Master of Lightning Storms and The Weather, Emissary of Hinon, Golden-Hearted Brother of 16 Siblings, and Golden-Hearted Lover, Father, and Husband"

He had his Sword of Taranis holstered on his wider muscular back, his orange Crystal Saber holstered on his left hip and his Eater of Sins revolver holstered on his right hip, the Pisces constellation and Aquarius Zodiac sign on the back of his neck, weighted orange bands on his large biceps and thighs, deep sapphire blue eyes, larger blue angel wings surging with powerful super lightning and stars and blue nebulae reflecting on them, and he was dressed in an orange version of He Man 2002's loincloth with hanging silver lightning bolts, long orange trenchcoat coattails with hanging silver lightning bolts, blue pants with gold lightning bolts on the thighs, and large white leather combat boots with gold lightning bolts surrounded by a circle of smaller gold lightning bolts and armor on the toe area, silver Thunder Kanji earrings, a large silver Thunder Kanji necklace on his neck and across his permanently bare chest, his large fingerless black gloves with the symbol of The Loud House on it, a large Orange Buffalo Animal Spirit Ring on his left ring finger, a large Blue Lantern ring on his right ring finger, and he had eight large orange orbs orbiting around his legs.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you all.

Then, Lincoln made seven clones of himself, and the seven clones went up the seven girls, while Lincoln went up to Lucina, and they picked them up and hugged them in his abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and he kissed them on the lips, which they've returned with equally intense passion, as they wrapped their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones. We cheered over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem are going to like their new sisters to their future husband's harem.

Lucina: Same here, Lincoln, we heard you were in the Super Smash Brothers Ultimate roster, along with your sisters, but that was your Cyborg self. But, meeting you here, this is indeed a surprise.

We went home, and the rest of the team back home cheered wildly.

---

After the rescue and another intense workout in the gym, we were heading outside for a walk in the city. Suddenly, we heard an explosion at the bank, and saw two robbers escaping with bags of cash.

Lincoln: Yikes, it's a 211 in progress.

Me: Let's get those thugs.

We flew after them, and as soon as the thugs saw we were coming, they were already panicking.

Thug 1: Agh, it's Team Loud Phoenix Storm! Come on, get your asses moving, you morons!

Suddenly, the thugs got ambushed by Swindle and Carl

Casagrande, who swiped the money from the thugs, and returned to our side.

Thug 2: Agh, our loot! That's it, get them!

The thugs got out their guns, but before they could fire, they were ambushed by a group of figures, as the thugs had their guns snatched, and they were being slashed and pummeled by the weapons of the figures, and they were eventually knocked out, and Nico and Lincoln tied them up with energy ropes.

Then, we saw the figures land in front of us, and to our surprise, the figures were none other than The Phantom Thieves of Hearts from Persona 5, Ren Amamiya A.K.A. Joker, Morgana A.K.A. Mona, Ryuji Sakamoto A.K.A. Skull, Ann Takamaki A.K.A. Panther, Yusuke Kitagawa A.K.A. Fox, Makoto Niijima A.K.A. Queen, Futaba Sakura A.K.A. Oracle, Haru Okumura A.K.A. Noir, Sophia A.K.A. Sophie, and Zenkichi Hasegawa A.K.A. Wolf.

Nicole: Oh wow, it's The Phantom Thieves of Hearts from Persona 5.

Ren Amamiya: That's right, Nicole, and it's a pleasure to meet you, Goddess of Video Games, along with all of you. We've heard about you in Japan, and I don't know if Nicole told you this, J.D., but, I'm also among the roster for Super Smash Brothers Ultimate.

That stunned the rest of us, and after we got the thugs arrested and the stolen money returned to the bank, Nicole put in the disc for Super Smash Brothers Ultimate, and she saw the roster, and she did see Ren Amamiya A.K.A. Joker in the roster, and we were surprised.

Morgana: That's right, Ren's also among the roster, along with Lincoln and his sisters. Plus, when we saw Lincoln among the roster, we were stunned ourselves.

Lincoln: We were stunned too, Morgana.

Lori: And we've heard from Nicole about the things you've done.

Yusuke Kitagawa: That's right, Lori, we've been saving and changing the hearts of those who've been corrupted by their selfish desires, and in reality, once they've had a change of heart, they'll confess their crimes to the world.

Ren Amamiya: And we've also awakened these.

Ren Amamiya summoned his Persona, Arsene, and we saw that his Joker mask is that of Arsene. We were stunned when we saw his Persona. But, we were also told about his Ultimate Persona known as Santanael. Arsene vanished, and his Joker mask reappeared on his face.

Me: Whoa, so is that a Persona?

Makoto Niijima: That's right, our Personas are a manifestation of our personalities, and our masks are the physical manifestations of our Personas.

Morgana: Most of us have only one Persona, but Ren has multiple Personas, and that's quite rare.

Nicole: I've heard about the Personas, not only are they a manifestation of their personality, but each of these Personas have powerful elemental powers, and they have special abilities that are effective in damaging enemies and helping out The Phantom Thieves of Hearts in combat against the Shadows.

Ren Amamiya: And we're also skilled with weapons and firearms. For me, it's a knife, for Ryuji, it's a club, for Ann, it's a whip, for Morgana, it's a sword, for Yusuke, it's a katana, for Haru, it's an axe, for Sophia, it's a pair of yo-yos, and for Zenkichi, it's a zweihander.

Nico: That's incredible.

We not only put a stop to the thugs and stopped another robbery, but we've also got The Phantom Thieves of Hearts as new members of Team Loud Phoenix Storm, and they were also made aware of Mr. Mind and his group, and we're going to war with them in the future, it'll be great having The Phantom Thieves of Hearts with us.

---

Later we were going to a new museum.

Cynder: We haven't gone to a museum in so long.

Me: No we sure haven't Cynder.

Nico: I've always wanted to see this kind of museum. It's a history museum about all the wars we've had over the eons.

May: I heard it's loaded with all kinds of amazing exhibits and artifacts on all the wars that happened over the years.

Twilight Sparkle: I love museums as much as I love studying in books.

Laney: So do I Twilight.

Lisa Loud: This kind of museum will be just as enjoyable as any adventure we go on.

Nico: It sure will.

We arrived and we were at the awesome new History of War Museum. It displays all kinds of educational info about all the wars dating back from the War Between Sumer and Elam from 2700 BC to today.

We saw many kinds of wars all from over the course of history and more.

We left and had lots of stuff from the gift shop.

But then we heard gunshots and that meant that a robbery was in progress!

Brittney Knudson: Great! Robbers are attacking the museum next to here!

Nico: Lets get them!

We went next door and coincidentally the robbers were hitting the Jewel Museum which was home to some of the most valuable and most priceless jewels known to the world.

Me: Figured they would target this museum.

Eli: I've always had a curiosity for this one.

Nico: Well we're not going to stop those robbers just by sitting here! Lets get them!

We went in. The robbers were pilfering the jewels.

Robber 1: Lets go before Team Loud Phoenix Storm gets here!

Nico: NOT SO FAST DOUCHEBAGS!

The robber spoke too soon as we were ready to fight them!

Eli: You got 3 seconds to give back those jewels!

Robber 2: Come and take them!

The second robber fired his machine gun at us and Nico, Gine, Goku and Vegeta grabbed all his bullets out of thin air and dropped the slugs onto the floor.

Nico: I believe these belong to you.

We punched and pulverized and smashed the robbers all over.

Headstrong just punched a robber, knocking him to the ground.

Headstrong: Now, I want you to lay there and think about what you did.

Lars: Will you guys take this seriously?!

Lynn: Well, someone's grumpy today!

Lars punched and pulverized another robber and brutally pulverized him and knocked him out.

I punched a 4th Robber and knocked him out and Eli punched a 5th Robber and knocked him out.

Pipes: Lars, any reason why you seem to be more serious even by our standards?

Lars: I just feel that we can't afford to goof off against bad guys. That's all.

Nico: Well that's understandable.

Spiderman: (To another robber) Now you guys know that stealing is…

Lars: Spiderman, Focus!

Lars brutally pulverized the robber.

We had all the robbers tied up and arrested.

Nico: These guys are looking at some hard time.

Me: Yep. But we got the jewels back. They picked some really beautiful ones.

We saw that the robbers were about to steal some good jewels: The Emerald of The Luck of The Irish, the Blue Thunderbird Sapphire, The Red Vampire Ruby, The Sun Flare Topaz, The Yellow Daffodil Diamond, The Black Hole Black Diamond - the Largest Black Diamond in The World, The Purple Fireball Amethyst, The Icelandic Heart Diamond the Largest Blue Diamond in the world and many more.

Me: (Whistles) These are beautiful.

Lola looked at one through a jewelers scope.

Lola: They sure are.

Rarity: They are most amazing darling.

Eli: They sure almost got away with a bunch of priceless jewels.

Spike the Dragon: And I'll bet they are tasty.

Twilight Sparkle: Spike these are not for eating.

Me: Lets put them back where they belong.

We did so. But after we put them back we got word that a tremendous crime wave was taking place. We were in for a lot of work around the city.

It was one crime after another as a tremendous crime wave was sweeping across the city. Jewelry store robberies, bank robberies, gold bullion heists, muggings in dark allies, attempted kidnappings, attempted murders, carjackings, purse snatchings, everything and it was all happening over the course of 12 hours. We saw Lars REALLY smashing criminals skulls in during the course of that timeframe and it was brutal as he was REALLY taking everything we were doing in beating up the criminals very seriously.

At the police station we were booking all the criminals we busted.

Nico: And that's the last of them in this tremendous crime wave. This group of criminals was running a huge drug smuggling operation.

Tom Lair: Wow! That makes 834,323 criminals busted in one day. I think that sets a record.

Me: In many different types of crimes. Criminals have been appearing all over the city like wildfire and they were keeping us busy throughout the day.

Sheila: No kidding guys! Wow! Great job!

Eli: Book them guys.

Sheila: With pleasure.

Me: By the way Sheila how is your mother doing?

Sheila: Getting better and she's really proud of me for becoming a cop.

Me: That's great Sheila.

We later went back to the estate to get ready for our next mission.

Alucard: FYI, Nico? It's your turn to lead today. Now, if only we could find a mission.

Horsea: I think I know what that mission could be.

Nico: What is it Horsea?

Horsea: We're gonna go meet Yin and Yang. I met them when we were in the world of Fantasia and they helped hold off Evil Saïx.

Nico: Wow! We owe them big time. Lets see.

Nico pulled up the scanners and it showed that they were in Chinatown in San Francisco, California.

Nico: Looks like we're heading to Chinatown.

Stella Zhau: WOW! I love Chinatown. It's one of my favorite places I loved to visit when I lived in San Francisco.

Nico: Cool! It will be awesome to meet Yin and Yang.

Duff Killigan, Brain Freezer, Trickster, Mojo Jojo, Cluemaster, Ebon, Radioactive Man, Evil Lyn, Zs'Skayr, and Manta Bayarsh then appeared.

Duff Killigan: (Scottish Accent) Can me, Brain Freezer, Trickster, Mojo Jojo, Cluemaster, Ebon, Radioactive Man, Evil Lyn, Zs'Skayr, and Manta Bayarsh go with you lads?

Nico: You all sure can.

Aylene C.: Hey Brainy.

Brain Freezer: Hey babe. I heard you all went after a huge number of criminals in a huge crime wave.

Nico: We sure have.

Trickster: We saw it all over the news and you guys were REALLY busy.

Ebon: Yeah no kidding.

Nico: We sure have been busy. It was the most criminals we've ever busted in one day.

Eli: 843,323 criminals.

Radioactive Man: WOW! That's amazing!

Nico: It sure is. Lets get everyone together. (Takes out Bugle and plays Reville)

We gathered.

Nico: ATTEN-TION!

We stood in attention.

Nico: All right maggots listen up! We're going to San Francisco, California and we're gonna head to Chinatown to meet Yin and Yang. They helped us out in the world of Fantasia by holding off Evil Saïx. We owe them for that and we're going to help them take down one or more of their enemies. So we're going to see how they do it. This is gonna be interesting. Before we leave, I have one rule. This is for all of you that have joined the team recently. It's my one rule. Everyone does their job and no one quits. You don't do your job you will be sent back here for the remainder of the mission. Do you get me!?

Everyone: WE GET YOU SIR!

Nico: Welcome to the Roughnecks!

Me: NICO'S ROUGHNECKS!

Everyone: (SPARTAN GRUNT!)

Nico: At ease everyone. We leave in 5 minutes so gather everything you might need for this. Lets be ready for anything. Dismissed!

We went and got ready.

Rena: That was so cool Nico!

Nico: Oh for when I'm in charge you call me Commander Nico.

Rena: Sorry commander.

Nico: No worries.

We then headed out.

---

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA

---

We arrived in Chinatown in San Francisco.

Nico: I always love going to this part of San Francisco.

We then saw Yin and Yang and they were fighting someone and it looked like a Griffin.

Tayuya: There they are. And they're fighting- Dammit! I don't know who the fuck they're fighting!

Nico: Colonel do you know who that is?

Me: As a matter of fact yes I do commander. That's Eradicus.

I went over his history.

---

Eradicus is the main antagonist in season 2 of Yin Yang Yo!. He is the original Night Master and one of the many villains in Yin Yang Yo!. He is a huge and very powerful armored griffin, he was a Nightmaster in the past; he was defeated by the greatest Woo-Foo masters in history.

Still remains alive and forms the Eradicorp, a company in which all the villains of the series excluded Carl, who being a cockroach, made customers disgusted. To add onto his hamminess, he has a bizarre habit of starting off his sentences in a flat and calm tone until randomly shouting at the top of his lungs by the end.

He was voiced by Jonathan Wilson.

Old Times

Eradicus is the original Night Master, and responsible for eliminating Ti and Chai and destroying Woo Foo and has a very moving childhood. He has a massive army made of stone, and took over the world; however, he was later destroyed by unknown means.

Posthumous Presence

Has appeared a few times before his resurrection as simple cameos or little very importance roles:

From the first season seen in "Doomed to Repeat It" which Yin and Yang are taken back in time to learn about the shortcomings of the previous Woo-Foo warriors, Ti and Chai in the fighting with Eradicus, but by a simple dispute they were petrified by it until they were killed.

In the episodes before the number 25 of the second season, he appeared in two especially; the first was briefly in "The Pecking Order" where they tell about how many Nightmasters there were at different epochs. In "Slumber Party of Doooom", Yang searches inside his drawer for something to spoil his sister Yin's sleepover, among so many objects he finds, there is "Woo Foo Book of Forbidden Evil" with the Eradicus hologram that shooting lightning from his eyes.

Revival

His deceased minions posed as the ghosts of the Woo Foo Elders to manipulate Yang into collecting the items of power needed to revive him. Tricking Yang into throwing the items into the Night Master's fireplace at the stroke of midnight, Eradicus was instantly resurrected. Upon his revival, Eradicus revived his minions and started the Dark Tomorrow (turning everyone good evil and everyone evil good). With the combined abilities of Yin, Yang (empowered with the items given to him by the League of Evil), and Yo, Eradicus was defeated and the Dark Tomorrow was reversed.

After being brought back to life by Yang in "Welcome To The Dark Tomorrow", he took up the title of Night Master again, and continues to threaten the world.

Despite the destruction of the Night Master's lair during the battle, Eradicus was revealed to still be alive in "The Howl Of The Weenie", where he still plans the destruction of the Woo Foo. In "Creeping With the Enemy," he has established Eradicorp, where most of the villain community is working.

---

When I was done we were shocked.

Nico: He is bad news. Lars, go get him.

Lars: With pleasure sir!

Lars flew in and started brutally pulverizing Eradicus all over to the point where he was crying like a baby and he had his wings ripped off and he was mangled up!

Eradicus just used a Dark Orb to regenerate his wings.

Eradicus: Don't think this is over! (runs away)

Zs'Skayr: Just let him go for now, Lars. Something tells me we'll see him again very soon.

Lars: I'm gonna get him!

Nico: That's enough soldier! Stand down. He'll be back.

Lars: (Groans) Yes sir.

Nico: Good.

Yin: Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Yang: Awesome! It's an honor.

Horsea: It's good to see you guys again.

Yin: Same here Horsea.

Nico: We owe you guys big time for helping us in the world of Fantasia.

Yang: It was no problem.

Yin: Horsea, we want to thank you for keeping our involvement a secret.

Horsea: You're welcome.

Exhaust: And to think that happened while we were fighting Chernabog.

Nico: No kidding. But we owe you guys big time for helping us.

Yang: No problem. Lets take you all to our dojo so we can talk.

Nico: Sure thing.

Eli: Lead the way.

We went to the Dojo they lived at and we saw that it was a really nice place.

Brain Freezer: This dojo is really nice.

Nico: Wow. Just like many dojos we've been to.

We then saw the lazy panda sensei of Yin and Yang, Master Yo.

Master Yo: (Japanese Accent) Team Loud Phoenix Storm! It's an honor to have you grace my dojo.

We bowed.

Nico: (Bows) It's an honor to be here Yo-Sensei.

Eli: (Bows) Yin and Yang told us so much about you and how you taught them so much in the arts of Woo Foo.

Master Yo: It's a big technique to master.

Skunk (Skunk Fu): You look a lot like my master Panda.

Master Yo: I do show resemblance don't I?

Nico: What style do you guys use?

Yang: Yin does all the spells. I do all the melee stuff.

Sly (Ty): (Australian Accent) I know. Just like my bro's boomerang. And now, we have 2 Yangs!

Nico: That's very similar and really something.

Laney: That's really something.

Eli: It sure is. Very confusing.

Optimus Prime: That is confusing.

Yang: That's interesting.

Yang Xiao Long: But it's amazing that we both have the same name.

Yang: It sure is.

Nico: Yeah it is. Sounds confusing though.

Yin: Want to see one of my spells?

Evil Lyn: Sure. I'm a magic user myself.

Nico: Go for it.

Yin stood up and fired an energy ray from her hands like a Kamehameha Wave and it hit a training dummy and exploded.

Me: WHOA!

Nico: Wow! That was powerful!

Yin: It sure was.

Nico: Do you think we can teach you some of our techniques?

Yin: What kind of techniques do you have?

Me: We have many kinds of techniques.

Nico: Would you like to see some of them?

Yin: Sure.

Nico: Okay here's one of mine. (Cups hands to side) KAAA MEEE HAAA MEEE HAAAAAAAA!

Nico fired a Kamehameha Wave and it hit a training dummy and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Yin and Yang and Yo were floored.

Me: Watch this one. PHOENIX FLAME STYLE NINJA ART: FURIOUS PHOENIX FIRESTORM!

I fired a massive wave of fire and it formed into Phoenix Feathers and they rained down and incinerated many dummies on contact.

Yin: OH WOW!

Yang: That was so awesome!

Rainbow Dash: Pretty cool huh?

Me: That was only a small sample of what we can do. We know many kinds of powers and have a massive plethora of techniques.

Yin: Wow!

Yang: That was so cool!

Yin: Now, let me show you a spell that transforms items.

Fellbat: This I gotta see.

Naruto: Go for it.

She fired a wave of energy and it hit a chair and turned it into a giant priceless red diamond!

Nico: WHOA! That is cool!

Laney: Wow!

Lola: That is amazing!

Me: That's like a transfiguration spell. Like this.

I fired a beam of red energy and it hit another chair and turned it into a huge watermelon.

Yin: Whoa! That is cool!

Yang: Awesome!

Lars: (to Master Yo) So, you just sit around being lazy when you're not teaching Yin and Yang?

Master Yo: Hey, don't let my lazy appearence fool you. I AM a good teacher.

Radioactive Man: Don't mind Lars. He's taking things way too seriously these days.

Nico: It's true. But it was during a huge crime wave that we had earlier that Lars REALLY was serious. He smashed numerous criminals left and right. Many of them landed in the hospital.

Yin: Wow! That must've been nuts.

Nico: It sure was.

Yin: Look, Lars. There's a time to be serious and a time to have fun.

Beelzemon: Exactly! Even Drift here knows how to lighten up even in serious situations.

Drift: It actually is true.

Lars realized what a harsh fool he was.

Lars: Oh you're right guys. I'm sorry I was taking all this so seriously. I hope I wasn't too rough to you all.

Nico: You weren't Lars. You got the mission through to the very end and that makes you a good soldier. Just don't take things too far.

Lars: Thanks Nico.

CRASH!

We saw a gray rabbit and it was YUCK!

---

Yuck is an antagonist in Yin Yang Yo!. He is an Evil Level 5 Woo Foo Warrior who originally was an entity formed from Yin's obsession with control and Yang's aggression. Yuck wants nothing more than to become the most powerful Woo Foo Knight ever, and to do that, he needs to eliminate Yin & Yang plus Master Yo.

He was voiced by Scott McCord.

He first appears in "Yin, Yang, Yuck", where Yin and Yang accidentally created him by splitting their personalities up, causing it to create an evil rabbit named Yuck. Later in "Falling Yin Love", where he pretended to be Brett, Yin's boyfriend where she went to go on a date with him.

In the episode "Upstanding Yuck", he became good, but Yin and Yang didn't believe him. In the end, Yuck turned evil again after Yin and Yang attacked him many times. Despite being half female, Yuck is often considered a "he" and lacks eyelashes, much like Yin and Yang's combined Aura. It was listed that Yuck is a bedwetter.

His last appearance was in the episode "Personality Problem", where he feeds on the aura of Yin and Yang to have more power, but in the end, Yin and Yang manage to combine their auras to fight. Yuck has no choice but to escape them but is finally defeated when Yin and Yang beat him by pulling up a mountain. It is unknown what happened to him, because after this episode he did not reappear in the series.

Nico: Whoa!

Yuck: Now I can kill you all!

Then my stomach was growling!

Me: (Groans) I shouldn't have had those 4 bowls of Chief Wiggum's chili for lunch! I have really bad gas!

Nico: Oh great!

Me: Wait! Commander I got an idea! Pick me up and use me like a gun.

Nico: I think I see where you're going with this. Okay.

Nico picked me up and Yuck came at us and Nico aimed my butt at him.

Me: Here we go Commander! This is gonna be big! And it has a powerful recoil!

Nico: I'm ready! (Cocks my legs like a gun) Give it everything you got colonel!

I strained and groaned and then just as Yuck was close…

FFFFFFFFFAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA

I fired a massive blast of blue fire from my butt like a flamethrower and the blue fire incinerated Yuck in an instant and killed him in an instant!

Nico: WHOA! WOW!

Yin: That was amazing!

Yang: AWE-SOME! Take that Yuck!

Cluemaster: Obviously, someone sent Yuck here to kill us.

Yang: Nah he works alone and he wants to defeat us to be the most powerful Woo Foo master ever.

Nico: Well he'll never have that opportunity now that he is dead and burning in the Warp.

RD Sam Sharp: Okay, are there any other enemies besides Eradicus and Yuck that you guys have?!

Yin: Lots of them. But the worst of them all is the Night Master.

Nico: What can you tell us about him?

Yin: It's not pretty.

She told us all about him. He was a bat of pure evil.

---

Night Master, billed as a "Dark Overlord in an Evil Class All By Himself", is the main antagonist in season one of Jetix cartoon show Yin, Yang, Yo!. Appears to be a demonic sorcerer bat (as such, he hates light) of some description and has a liking for ostentatious outfits.

The Night Master communicates frequently with his servants using a hologram. Is very intelligent, though his plans typically fail because of the stupidity of his minions.

He was voiced by the late David Hemblen.

Past

His real name is unknown, because Nightmaster is just the title he takes on a being after becoming a dark gentleman.

In the past is responsible for the extinction of Woo Foo and most of the knights Woo Foo (with the exception of Master Yo). He has erased the memory of everyone in the city where Yin and Yang live, so everyone finds Woo-Foo to be idiots, but Master Yo has turned his powerful army into stone, and the only thing that can make the army come back is Power Woo-Foo.

Season 1

At the beginning of the season the Night Master remained in the shadows while using other villains to fulfill his agenda. In "Dojo, Oh No!", he used Ultimoose to split Yin and Yang up so they couldn't interfere in his plans. After he failed, Ultimoose was punished by having his antlers removed. In "Falling Yin Love", Yuck was revived by the Night Master and was tasked with pretending to be a person named Brett and make Yin infatuated with him. In "A Toy's Story" Yang wins a doll for Yin, but it turns out to be controlled by Zarnot who was working for the Night Master.

The episode "The Return of the Night Master" was the first episode where the Night Master was the main antagonist. After reminiscing about his evil actions in the past, the Night Master plans to free his army. To do this, he sets up a dodge ball tournament. Yin and Yang sign up against Master Yo's wishes and lose. Afterwards, the Night Master reveals himself and offers to help them and they agree. He teaches them how to control their anger and use it to their advantage. Thanks to the Night Master's help, Yin and Yang managed to reach the finals and faced off against Ultimoose and his team(which was part of the Night Master's plan). Yin and Yang win and release the Night Master's army was released. Before he could destroy Yin, Yang, and Yo, he was stunned by light and was trapped while the three escapes. At the end of the episode, it is revealed that Coop was working for the Night Master.

In "Shopping Sprawl", the Night Master and Ultimoose trick Yin and Yang into owing them money and having to serve him to pay it off. They find a loophole and manage to return everything they bought. In "Wubble in Paradise", the Night Master acquires Yang's comic book and enters it as a villain named Dr. Scaryface. He sends hawks to attack Yin Yang and Mr. Fluzzlepants, the later of whom was then kidnapped. The Night Master then reveals himself and starts to erase Yang's world. Yang uses his imagination to become a superhero and defeat the Night Master. In "Destination Danger", the Night Master sends two henchmen named Dank and Dire to retrieve the Woo Foo Knuckles of Ultimate Smackdown, but the two failed their mission. In "Pros and Cons" the Night Master holds an evil convention and reveals to everyone attending his master plan. His goal was to block out the three suns and bring eternal darkness to the world and allowing him to be all powerful. At the end of his presentation, he told the other villains to join him or be destroyed. Everyone except Carl and "Death Donkey"(who was Yin and Yang in a donkey costume). The Night Master ordered the villains to kill Yin, Yang, and Carl but when it was revealed that "Death Donkey" was Yin and Yang, he used the Amnesulet to erase their memories of his plan.

In "Voyage to the Center of Yo", the Night Master learns that Master Yo is about to retrieve the Toilet Brush of Illumination and sends Yuck to retrieve it. In the process, the brush breaks in half becoming useless. In "Shadows and Light", Herman failed to use the Geo-Demosoic Device, the Night Master arrived and stole it from him. In "Who Knows What Evil Lurks", the Night Master attempted to destroy Yin and Yang after he was insulted. This lead Yin and Yang to believe that they were being spied on. The two used the Chronologicum to figure out who the spy is. The two view past events of their friends and get no answers(except for Coop who in every scenario ends up meeting the Night Master in some fashion). In the present, the Night Master sends Zarnot to stop them. After he failed, Zarnot was locked in a chest for his failure.

The Night Master's final appearance as the main villain was in "Night Fall". The Night Master captured Master Yo and he used Yo's Woo Foo to power the Geo-Demosoic Device. This would allow the Night Master to block the world's three suns with the world's three moons. Believing that Yin and Yang are going to rescue Yo, he sends Coop and his army to stop them. Yin and Yang recruit Roger Jr. and Carl and the group fixed the Toilet Brush of Illumination. During this time, the Night Master managed to block two of the three suns. Soon the Yin, Yang, Roger Jr., and Carl were captured. After learning how to break free from their cages, Carl and Roger fought the Night Master's armies while Yin and Yang fought against the Night Master and Coop. Yo was freed and Yin, Yang, and Yo combined their auras to fight the Night Master. They were defeated, but Yin managed to convince Coop to turn good. Coop temporarily sacrificed himself to defeat the Night Master permanently.

Season 2

While not appearing as a main antagonist in season 2, the Night Master has a small presence. In "The Pecking Order", Coop returns and tries to warn Yin and Yang about the Night Master's energy. It has escaped and is corrupting anything it touches. Coop absorbs the energy becoming half good and half energy. Finally, in the episode "Shadowcluck", Eradicus bought the Night Master's army from the Night Master while commenting that he looked familiar. At the end of the episode, Eradicus attempted return the army but failed. He then asked if he knew the Night Master from somewhere, to which he replies "Let's say I work in the field of Evil!"

---

When she was finished we were shocked and horrified!

Nico: Whoa! So he's a bat that wants to destroy Woo Foo and kill you three and plunge the world into eternal darkness!

Eli: What a monster!

Lucy Loud: He gives bats everywhere a really bad name.

Brittney: This really makes me mad. As the Empress of Darkness, I make like things dark and all that but what the Night Master is gonna do is taking things too far.

Nico: Looks like we need to make him see the light and kill him.

Mojo: Maybe we can recruit that Carl guy we've heard about.

Nico: First what can you tell us about him?

Yin: He's a dumb villain that lives with his mom.

Yin told us about him.

---

Carl the Evil Cockroach Wizard is the secondary antagonist in the TV animated series Yin Yang Yo!.

He was voiced by Jamie Watson.

Carl continuously schemes to defeat Yin, Yang, Master Yo and the power of the Woo Foo with his insecure genius. He also lives with his overbearing mother Edna, who is a dragon. Carl is always trying to find a way to impress his face and out-do his brother Herman. Despite the differences between Carl and Herman, they have worked together on occasion, making a deadly force against Yin and Yang. It was shown in the episode "Mission Yinpossible" that his heart's desire was for his mother to love him more than Herman (even though he himself believed that it was to rule the world), but after realizing how she was suffocating him with love, he no longer yearns for it. A bit of a priss, it was shown in "Get Off My Back" that he is an excellent cook, and a great groomer.

Carl seems to have a thing for blocking out a Sun anywhere as shown is Episodes like An Inconvenient Tooth, Too Much Yangformation and Yin Yang You! (which is accurate for a cockroach, as most cockroaches hate the sunlight). His idea was stolen from Herman and the Night Master himself, which still irritates him to this day. In "Cat Smash Fever", Carl seems to have created an Ad that reads "Deseprate Cockroach Seeks Soulmate", in which he even admits was desperate.

When she was done we were shocked.

Me: So he's a Cockroach Wizard? I HATE COCKROACHES!

Nico: I do too. But recruiting him is a bad idea.

Manta Bayarsh: I have an idea for how we can get inside the Night Master's lair.

Nico: What is it?

Manta Bayarsh: This plan I just came up with involves my body swapping power.

Master Yo: I've actually swapped bodies with Carl before.

Nico: Really? Wow that's cool.

Manta Bayarsh: That's amazing.

Eli: Very clever.

Catzi: Okay, Manta. Tell us your plan.

Manta Bayarsh: Okay here's what we do.

Manta was gonna swap Carl and Master Yo's bodies so we can have Master Yo in Carl's body lull the Night Master into a false sense of security and then we'll ambush the Night Master with an entrance that is as bright as the Sun and under the cover of the light we'll pulverize him all over the place.

Nico: Ooh! That's perfect! A perfect ambush fit for taking down a vampire.

Eli: Very clever.

Nico: Lets go find him.

We went to find him and we found him near his home and then Manta swaped Master Yo and Carl's bodies.

Carl (in Master Yo's body): Am I in your Master's body again?! At least the colors are the same.

Yin: Carl, I can't believe I'm saying this. (sighs) But we need your help.

Carl: (in Master Yo's body) And what's so important that you had to body swap me?

RD Lincoln: For one, we really don't want to have to listen to your mom and brother.

Nico: That's right.

Carl (In Master Yo's Body): Team Loud Phoenix Storm!? Why the heck would I help you do-gooders?

Nico: Because we need to get rid of the Night Master. He will kill you too.

Trickster: If you help us, we'll let you be in the Masters of Evil.

Carl: What's in it for me?

Nico: You won't have to listen to your mother again?

Carl liked the idea.

Carl: You got a deal.

Nico: Lets get back to the Dojo so we can have our usual battles before we go after Nightmaster.

We went back to the dojo.

When we got back, Count Nocturne, Hydrax, Puppetmon, BlackWarGreymon, Mortal Kombat Scorpion, Stratos, Ice Demon, Machinedramon, New Wave, and Electropede appeared.

Nico: Count Nocturne, Hydrax, Puppetmon, BlackWarGreymon, Mortal Kombat Scorpion, Stratos, Ice Demon, Machinedramon, New Wave, and Electropede.

Yang: Oh wow!

Count Nocturne: It's an honor to meet you 2.

Yin: The honor's all ours.

Hydrax: (to Carl in Master Yo's body) Trust me. You'll love it in the Masters of Evil.

Carl (in Master Yo's body) I'm sure I will. But after Night Master's dead, I'll need to get my stuff first.

Puppetmon: That's perfectly reasonable.

Me: It's much better than living with your mother that's for sure.

BlackWarGreymon: (to me) Heard you had to deal with clones earlier.

Me: We sure did. They were from The 6th Day and the company that made them was REALLY playing with fire. Pissing a lot of people off about it.

Mortal Kombat Scorpion: Did you keep the cloning technology?

Me: We have it in our laboratory for future use but only for dire circumstances.

Nico: Yeah cloning is dangerous and it's really playing with fire.

?: No kidding there.

We saw 2 figures come out and one was Generation 5 Attack Bot back for round 2 and the second was STOCKADE!

Nico: Generation 5 Attack Bot. Back for Round 2.

Generation 5 Attack Bot: Yep.

Nico: And Stockade. Looks like you are gonna get your shot against one of us.

Stockade: Yep. It's gonna be great.

Generation 5 Attack Bot: Good thing we're not in Monstro this time.

Nico: You're telling me! I don't think I'll ever get the smell of Whale out of my nose after what happened in there.

Lana: I still liked it. It was great.

Lola: Speak for yourself.

?: I will kill you all for destroying me!

Suddenly, the eight large planets and stars orbing around my legs, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs, the eight large crimson red orbs orbiting around Naruto's legs, and the eight large black orbs with the Eye of Horus orbiting around Cody (OC)'s legs were glowing, and that means big trouble.

Me: Oh crap, I was hoping not to hear that voice ever again, it's been a long time since I last killed you, Hidan of Jashin.

A figure came out of the shadows, and it was none other than Hidan of Jashin, another member of the Akatsuki.

Shikamaru: I was hoping that we wouldn't see or hear from you ever again, you twisted sadist!

Naruto: But, now he's back for more, but this time, it'll end with him dying again.

Twilight Sparkle: Lincoln, what can you tell us about Hidan?

Lincoln: Trust me, Twilight, you won't like what I'm going to tell you about Hidan.

Me: He's a twisted sadist and a religious fanatic of a cult that wants death and destruction.

Hidan

Hidan (飛段, Hidan) is an S-rank missing-nin who defected from Yugakure and later joined the Akatsuki. There, he was partnered with Kakuzu, despite the two's somewhat mutual dislike of each other. He was also the second newest member of Akatsuki at the time of Tobi's introduction. Kisame Hoshigaki laughingly referred to Hidan and Kakuzu as the Zombie Combo (ゾンビコンビ, Zonbi Konbi, English TV: Zombie Pair).

Background

During his childhood, after hearing rumours about the Valley of Hell, Hidan went and found it out of curiosity. There, he was disgusted by the smell of sulphur, and discovered corpses all over the area. After returning and telling others of the corpses, they weren't surprised that the Chinoike Clan couldn't survive living in the valley, prompting Hidan to correct their assumptions and informing them that the bodies weren't skeletons but actual bodies, with their blood not dry. His story lead to people suspecting Hidan of murdering them, as well as Yugakure ninja being dispatched to the area to investigate, during which they determined the slaughter to be a clan act.

After Yugakure deteriorated from a shinobi village to a tourist site, Hidan became infuriated with how things were turning out. He believed that the shinobi that resided there were meant to kill, and thus slaughtered his neighbors before leaving Yugakure, and joining the cult-like faith known as Jashin, a religion that worshipped a deity of the same name. The primary teaching of this faith appears to be outright slaughter, where anything less than utter destruction is considered a sin. Through experiments with Jashin's secret technique, Hidan was granted immortality.

In the anime, Yugakure requested that Akatsuki eliminate Hidan for his homicidal acts, leading to Pain dispatching Itachi Uchiha, Konan and Kakuzu to handle the matter. Upon Hidan encountering the organisation, he attempted to kill Kakuzu, and managed to destroy one of his hearts. The confrontation lead to Konan offering Hidan the chance to join their organisation, which he accepted, mainly because he took an interest in Kakuzu since he was a pioneer in immortality as well. After joining, he was partnered with Kakuzu, and tasked with capturing the Two-Tails jinchūriki.

Some time later, Hidan and Kakuzu met with Sasori and Deidara to discuss their new missions assigned by Akatsuki. After Kakuzu said they had a choice between a money-making mission and a war-mission, he chose the money mission after Sasori and Deidara showed no interest in it, much to Hidan's annoyance. Having been tasked with capturing the Seven-Tails jinchūriki, Hidan accompanied Kakuzu with tracking his target down. Upon encountering Fū, Hidan was baffled as she wanted to befriend Kakuzu, despite knowing the rogue shinobi's history.

Hidan hailed from Yugakure, the Village Hidden in Hot Water. After it deteriorated from a shinobi village to a tourist site, Hidan became infuriated with how things were turning out. He believed that the shinobi that resided there were meant to kill, and thus slaughtered his neighbors before leaving Yugakure, and joining the cult-like faith known as Jashin, a religion that worshiped a deity of the same name. The primary teaching of this faith appears to be kill thy neighbor, where anything less than utter destruction is considered a sin. Through experiments with Jashin's secret technique, Hidan was also granted immortality.

Eventually, he joined the Akatsuki after seeing Kakuzu, a man who he saw as a pioneer in immortality and eventually was partnered with.

Part II

After he and Kakuzu defeat Kumogakure's Yugito Nii, the Jinchūriki of Matatabi the Two-Tails, and handed her to Zetsu, Hidan makes his way to the Land of Fire to capture Naruto. However, Hidan begrudgingly joined Kakuzu in attacking a temple so his partner could the bounty on the head monk, Chiriku. While he waited for Kakuzu to collect the money, Hidan was ambushed by a ninja group led by Asuma Sarutobi and his apprentice Shikamaru. In the battle that ensued, Hidan manages to get his hands on Asuma's blood and creates out the ritual to kill his opponent by stabbing himself in the heart despite Shikamaru's attempt to stop him. When reinforcements from Konoha arrived as Shikamaru collapsed, Hidan is reluctantly called back by Pain to aid in the extraction of Matatabi.

Once the sealing was over, Hidan and Kakuzu headed for Konoha, eager to continue their battle before being jumped by Shikamaru with the rest of Team Asuma and Kakashi Hatake. But with Kakuzu aiding him, Hidan overpowers Team Asuma, until Shikamaru leads him away from the battle and engages him one-on-one. Once led to the Nara Clan Forest, Shikamaru's shadow possession wears off, and Hidan takes the opportunity to draw his blood and kill him. However, Shikamaru tricks Hidan into unwittingly harming Kakuzu using a vial of his blood that Kakashi had filled earlier. Soon after, Hidan finds himself covered in explosive tags as Shikamaru detonates them all to literally blow Hidan to bits as what remained of his still living body parts are buried. Hidan curses his opponent, telling him he will eventually escape and kill Shikamaru, but he denies this, telling him that the deer guarding the forest will prevent his escape.

During the Fourth Great Ninja War, a reanimated Kakuzu reveals that Hidan still lives but slowly dying from lack of nutrition.

When Lincoln was finished, The Mane 9 were horrified by the acts of Hidan, and the new recruits were already throwing up like crazy.

Ace Bunny: Ugh, that guy is really sick.

Tech E Coyote: I'm going to be sick for weeks, he's even worse than some of the worst psychopaths that you guys have killed.

Yugito Nii: I've had just about enough of this sick bastard to last for all eternity.

Suddenly, Yugito's dark eyes turned neon yellow, and she was surrounded by a neon blue aura, and Matatabi's two tails and cat ears manifested.

Yugito Nii: Hidan, I will never forgive you for your cold-blooded massacre of so many innocent people, and now, I will destroy you and the Cult of Jashin once and for all!

Then, Yugito Nii was surrounded by a massive vortex of blue energy and blue flames, accompanied by cats running around the vortex, and a blue phoenix inside the vortex. Then, as soon as the vortex fades away, Yugito Nii emerged, but she was changed forever.

(IMPERATRIX MUNDI PLAYS AT 1:45 TO 2:14)

Yugito Nii looked like she was 21 years old, she had the body of a goddess, her long blond hair was tied in a ponytail, she had a cat emblazoned on her forehead, her dark eyes turned neon yellow, she had a blue energy aura surrounded by blue flames and she had large blue angel wings. She had on a black blouse with blue flames and a blue phoenix, a purple skirt with blue flames, and black leather combat boots. She had on a pair of silver cat earrings with the Wraith Kanji in its claws, and a silver necklace with the Wraith Kanji across her neck. She had on her Bracelets of The Champions of The Universe with blue gems on her wrists and a Belt of Elemental Bravery with large blue gem for the belt buckle on her waist, and an Eater of Sins revolver holstered on her right hip, and she had out her Sword of The Jinchuriki. She has on a purple sleeveless trenchcoat with blue flames and cats, and the symbol of the Hidden Cloud Village on the back, and there was a blue kanji on the back that says, "Yugito Nii, Jinchuriki of The Two-Tailed Wraith Cat, Master of The Blue Flames, and Dear Friend of Kushina Uzumaki."

二位ユギト、両尾レイスキャットの人柱力、青い炎の達人、うずまきクシナの親愛なる友人

She had two large and long blue fire cat tails and two cat ears on top of her head. Yugito Nii has transformed into SUPER ANGEL 500,000,000,000 WRAITH FIRESTORM FELINE ANGEL OF LIGHT!

We were amazed by Yugito Nii's transformation, and that meant big trouble for Hidan.

Me: Wow, Yugito's transformed.

Nico: You said it, man.

Kushina Uzumaki: That's incredible, how do you feel, Yugito?

Yugito Nii: (Divine Echoing Fiery Voice of Light) I feel incredible, Kushina, and now, I'm going to make this sadist pay dearly with his life.

Shikamaru: Rip that fucking sadist apart.

Yugito Nii: With pleasure.

Me: Lets give them a good show.

He tried again to attack Yugito, but she disarmed him by brutally cutting off his arms, which caused him to scream in excruciating pain, as blood began gushing from the bloody stumps of his arms.

Hidan: But, how… , I'm… immortal.

Yugito Nii: You may have made yourself immortal by extensive use of those accursed Jashinist techniques, but I'd found a way to fix that, I asked J.D. to put a very powerful spell on my blade, which'll render you mortal, as soon as I cut off your arms.

Ace Bunny: In other words, you're now screwed, Hidan.

Yugito Nii: My thoughts exactly. Now, to finally get rid of you for good, Hidan. WRAITH CAT STYLE NINJA ART: WRAITH CAT RASENSHURIKEN!

Yugito Nii formed a massive Rasenshuriken made of blue wraith fire, which had the eyes of Matatabi glaring at Hidan with extreme hate, and the wraith cat was running around the blue flame core, and there were traces of purple around it, a sign that Yugito infused it with Super Hakai energy. Yugito threw the Rasenshuriken, and once it hits Hidan, it exploded with incredible power, and not only did it completely incinerate Hidan into nothing, but it also Super Hakaied his evil spirit.

Yugito Nii powered down, and her eyes changed back to normal, but her new cat ears, tails, clothes, jewelry, body, and new weapons remained.

Nightmaster: It isn't?

Master Yo (in Carl's body): Nope. Anyway, my new friends are gonna be here any minute. Just as soon as they get me back in my body.

Another awesome fanfiction done.

Yin-Yang-Yo was a really funny and really awesome cartoon from Canada and it was a really awesome Martial Arts cartoon series! It was so funny! It aired from August 26, 2006 - April 18, 2009 and it was so funny! And REALLY action packed. The first part of the chapter was for the awesome movie with Arnold Schwarzenegger called The 6th Day and that movie was really freaky about human cloning. Also the second part was for the Stephen King book and movie from the 1980s called Maximum Overdrive. That was a freaky movie! I never saw it but I heard it was amazing. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Drako1234658, Nflemingful, Etstheclarencefan and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys and good job leading today Nico! YOU ARE AWESOME! The next girl we're going to rescue takes place in the year 2154 and we're going to the world of the awesome 2013 movie Elysium with Jodie Foster and that's one of my favorites because me and the Stakataka Gene-Slammer are gonna see what it's like on the Stanford Torus Space Colony that was proposed back in the 1970's and see what it's like and also help people on the surface of the planet get the medical care they need on the colony. The next girl is gonna be Qukul and she will have a Vanilluxe Gene-Slammer with her named Jemal Niyazova and she's from Turkmenistan. Also the next chapter as you saw is gonna be for the Kyurangers and we're gonna go to universe 19 to help them destroy the last remnants of the Space Shogunate Jark Matter once and for all. We're in for an awesome out of this world adventure as we use th powers of the 88 constellations to help the Kyurangers take back their galaxy.

See you all tomorrow.

The Rangers of the 88 Constellations

In space, me and Alana the Stakataka Gene-Slammer were on some king of really cool Space Colony.

Alana Vongphachanh: (Lao Accent) Where are we now?

Alana Vongphachanh concentrated and groaned as her skin got rocky.

Me: Believe it or not. I know this place. This is the Stanford Torus Space Colony. It was a proposed colony made back in the 1970s.

She turned into STAKATAKA!

Alana Stakataka: Wow! This is amazing! I didn't know a colony like this was possible.

Me: I know it's really something and if we're here then we must be in the awesome 2013 movie Elysium.

---

In 2154, the Earth has become overpopulated with much of its citizens in poverty. Meanwhile, the rich and powerful live on Elysium, a man-made space station in Earth's orbit that is technologically advanced, with devices called Med-Bays that can cure all diseases and injuries.

Max Da Costa, a laborer in Los Angeles, is exposed to a lethal dose of radiation at work. He is rescued and informed that he has only five days to live, but he is only given medication to mitigate the symptoms until his death. Desperate, Max and his friend Julio seek help from a human smuggler named Spider to get him to Elysium in order to use a Med-Bay.

When ships carrying immigrants from Earth attempt to reach Elysium, Defense Secretary Delacourt orders security agent Kruger to intercept them, leading to the deaths of several immigrants and the deportation of the survivors. Elysian President Patel reprimands Delacourt for her response and threatens to fire her unless she tones down her actions; Kruger is dismissed from service. Delacourt then makes a multimillion dollar contract with John Carlyle, the designer of Elysium, to create a program that can override Elysium's computer to give her the Presidency. Carlyle stores the program in his brain and encrypts it with a program that would kill him in case of any attempt to manipulate or extract the data.

Spider agrees to take Max to Elysium if he can steal the data from Carlyle, and Spider's men surgically attach a powered exoskeleton to Max. With Julio and Spider's men, Max shoots down Carlyle's ship, killing him when they download the data. Alerted to the data theft, Delacourt reinstates Kruger and deploys him to recover the program.

When Kruger confronts them, Julio is killed and Max is wounded, but manages to escape. He then contacts his childhood friend Frey for help. Frey begs Max to take her daughter Matilda to Elysium to be cured of her leukemia, but Max refuses in order to protect them. Kruger and his team then arrive and interrogate Frey; when Kruger realizes that Matilda is sick, he takes the two aboard his ship while his drones hunt for Max. Meanwhile, Delacourt orders an airspace lockdown over Los Angeles.

Max delivers the program to Spider, who discovers that it can be used to make Earth's residents Elysian citizens. The lockdown makes it impossible to leave the city however, so Max bargains with Kruger to be taken to Elysium. As Kruger's ship leaves Earth, Spider and his men take advantage of the lifting of the lockdown and head towards Elysium. Meanwhile, in Kruger's ship, a fight erupts and Kruger is gravely wounded by a grenade, which also disables the ship's engines.

After the ship crashes on Elysium, Max, Frey, and Matilda are knocked out, and are taken to Delacourt, who orders the decryption of the program despite the fact that it will kill Max. She then orders Frey and Matilda to be taken away, and they are locked in a room by Kruger's men.

After being restored in a Med-Bay, Kruger kills Delacourt after she insults him, and has his team assassinate Elysian political officers in order to seize control. Having escaped his confinement, Max, knowing that Med-Bays only work for Elysian citizens, resolves to use the program and give everyone on Earth Elysian citizenship. He then kills Kruger's men and frees Frey and Matilda.

Max meets up with Spider, who has Frey and Matilda escorted to a Med-Bay. They head for Elysium's computer core but are ambushed by Kruger. After a brutal fight, Max rips out Kruger's neural implant, rendering his exoskeleton immobile before throwing him off the ledge to his death. Spider and Max then reach Elysium's core, where Spider realizes that the program's activation will kill Max.

After sharing some final words with Frey, Max activates the program. As he dies, Elysium's core reboots and registers every Earth resident as an Elysian citizen. President Patel arrives, but his robot guards refuse to arrest Spider, whom they now recognize as a citizen. Matilda is cured by a Med-Bay and Elysium's computer dispatches a fleet of medical ships to treat the people of Earth.

Alana Stakataka: I love that movie! Wow! It was amazing.

Me: I know and it really lead me to read all about this kind of colony.

We saw how high up we were above the Earth.

Me: We're 500 miles up above the planet.

Alana Stakataka: Wow! The view of Earth is amazing.

Me: It sure is something.

We walked around the colony and it was beautiful and amazing.

Me: Wow! I've always wanted to see what this whole colony was like ever since I read about in books and on the internet.

Alana Stakataka: It sure is something. It's like the people here can live without a single fear of anything.

Me: I know.

Alana Stakataka: What do you know about this amazing colony?

Me: It's really cool.

I went over what the Stanford Torus is for.

---

The Stanford torus is a proposed NASA design for a space habitat capable of housing 10,000 to 140,000 permanent residents.

The Stanford torus was proposed during the 1975 NASA Summer Study, conducted at Stanford University, with the purpose of exploring and speculating on designs for future space colonies (Gerard O'Neill later proposed his Island One or Bernal sphere as an alternative to the torus). "Stanford torus" refers only to this particular version of the design, as the concept of a ring-shaped rotating space station was previously proposed by Wernher von Braun and Herman Potočnik.

It consists of a torus, or doughnut-shaped ring, that is 1.8 km in diameter (for the proposed 10,000 person habitat described in the 1975 Summer Study) and rotates once per minute to provide between 0.9g and 1.0g of artificial gravity on the inside of the outer ring via centrifugal force.

Sunlight is provided to the interior of the torus by a system of mirrors, including a large non-rotating primary solar mirror.

The ring is connected to a hub via a number of "spokes", which serve as conduits for people and materials travelling to and from the hub. Since the hub is at the rotational axis of the station, it experiences the least artificial gravity and is the easiest location for spacecraft to dock. Zero-gravity industry is performed in a non-rotating module attached to the hub's axis.

The interior space of the torus itself is used as living space, and is large enough that a "natural" environment can be simulated; the torus appears similar to a long, narrow, straight glacial valley whose ends curve upward and eventually meet overhead to form a complete circle. The population density is similar to a dense suburb, with part of the ring dedicated to agriculture and part to housing.

Alana Stakataka: Wow! That's incredible!

Me: Yeah. And we're here to help all the people get the help they need to get better.

Alana Stakataka: Then lets do it.

?: Let us help too.

We saw a Quetzalcoatl and a Vanilluxe.

Me: Wow! A Quetzalcoatl and a Vanilluxe.

Qukul: My name is Qukul.

Vanilluxe: (Turkmen Accent) I'm Jemel Niyazova and I'm from Turkmenistan.

Me: Pleasure to meet you both.

Qukul: Same here. Lets get those people up here.

We got to work and disabled the security systems and got all the people that needed help up to the colony. Medvac units went down to Earth to help the people. Later I put on my blind man glasses and snapped my fingers and Jemel reverted back and she was naked and then Alana reverted back too.

Alana was human again. But naked.

Alana: (covers herself) All this Vanillite talk is making me hungry for ice cream.

Qukul: I would be too if that happened to me.

We laughed.

Jemal Niyazova: (Covers herself) I am craving ice cream too.

Me: Same here. And I know what we can do with this amazing colony. But first.

I gave Alana and Jemal new clothes.

Alana: Thanks J.D.

Me: You're welcome. Also I'm going to beam this colony to Earth so we can update it and upgrade it to further help all of humanity.

Qukul: That's a good idea.

We got the colony to our Earth and made a lot of upgrades.

After getting the medical care to the Stanford Torus Space Colony, Lincoln, me, Nico, Nicole, Emerald Goldenbraid, and Cassandra Alexandra were in the world of the 2011 movie Roadkill, and not only is Lincoln going to rescue the eleven girls who were sighted here, but we're also here to rescue Katie, Ryan, her brother Joel, and her friends, Hailey, Chuck, Tommy, and Anita from The Roc, the mystical bird that was summoned to take vengeance on them by an old woman they accidentally ran over, who casted a curse on them, and they're being held hostage by Luca.

Lincoln: Whoa, we're in the world of the 2011 movie, Roadkill, and not only are we going to rescue the eleven girls who are here in this world, but we're also going to rescue Katie, Ryan, Joel, Hailey, Chuck, Tommy, and Anita from The Roc that was called upon to take vengeance on them by the woman they accidentally ran over, undo the curse she put on them, and we're also going to kill Luca.

Me: That's right, big guy.

Nicole: I know that spell all too well, but I'm going to need the medallion from Luca.

Cassandra Alexandra: And I don't know why, but one of the eleven girls here is someone that I know all too well.

Nico: There's only one way to find out, Cassandra.

?: Help!

Suddenly, Lincoln heard the sound of eight girls calling for help with his superhuman hearing, and with his cyborg eyes and superhuman height, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He saw eleven girls, along with Katie, Ryan, Joel, Hailey, Chuck, Tommy, and Anita, and they were tied up by Luca, Seamus, and Drina, and The Roc was coming right for them.

Lincoln: That bastard, come on, guys, we've got to rescue the girls, along with Katie, Ryan, Joel, Hailey, Chuck, Tommy, and Anita, and then, I'm going to kill Luca for what he did.

Emerald Goldenbraid: Leave Drina for me, Lincoln.

Me: And leave Seamus for me and Nico.

We rushed over, and Lincoln transformed into Super Angel-Ebonwu 500,000,000,000 Elemental Supercell Lightning Thunderbird Furious Hyperstorm of Justice and he'd unholstered his Sword of Taranis, and went after Luca, and Emerald Goldenbraid went after Drina. Lincoln punched Luca hard in the face, and got the medallion, and gave it to Nicole. Nicole said an incantation, and she undid the curse, and that caused The Roc to fly away back to where it belongs. Luca, Seamus, and Drina were enraged that their sacrifice was foiled.

Luca: What the fuck did you do?!

Lincoln: (Divine Echoing Elemental Voice of Justice) Stopped your sacrifice, and now, you three are going to pay for what you did.

Lincoln went after Luca, Emerald Goldenbraid went after Drina, and me and Nico went after Seamus, and we viciously pummeled and slashed them badly, and then, we'd fired powerful blasts of energy at Seamus, Luca, and Drina, killing them and banished their spirits to The Warp.

Lincoln holstered his Sword of Taranis, and powered down. Then, we freed Katie, Ryan, Joel, Hailey, Chuck, Tommy, and Anita, along with the eleven girls. Nicole saw just who those eleven girls were, they were Min-Min from the Arms video game, Linn Kurosawa from Alien VS Predator, Akira from Rival Schools, Athena Asamiya, Yuri Sakazaki, and Kula Diamond from King of Fighters, Nakoruru, Iroha, and Cham-Cham from Samurai Showdown, Clawdia from Fighting Foodons, and Taki from Soul Calibur.

Nicole: Oh wow, it's Min-Min from the Arms video game, Linn Kurosawa from Alien VS Predator, Akira from Rival Schools, Athena Asamiya, Yuri Sakazaki, and Kula Diamond from King of Fighters, Nakoruru, Iroha, and Cham-Cham from Samurai Showdown, Clawdia from Fighting Foodons, and Taki from Soul Calibur.

Cassandra Alexandra: Taki? Wow, so she's here, too.

Lincoln went up to the eleven girls to check on them.

Lincoln: Are you girls alright?

Linn Kurosawa: Yeah, we're okay, but what about those three assholes who tried to sacrifice us to that bird?

Lincoln: They're dead, and The Roc is gone, now that Nicole got rid of the curse.

Then, when the eleven girls saw who it was that rescued them, their faces lit up like red Christmas lights upon seeing the 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful muscles, eight-pack abs, a lightning bolt cutie mark with the thunderbird and comic books on his right massive pec and surrounded by the symbols of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness in a circle, a Celtic Cross cutie mark tattoo in the form of the cutie marks of Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Rainbow Dash, Applejack, Rarity, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Starlight Glimmer, and Trixie Lulamoon and in a circle are the other girls in Lincoln's harem with the Earth surrounded by the ring of mermaids, a deep sapphire blue kanji on his wider muscular back that said "Lincoln Landon Loud, Champion of Lightning, Master of Lightning Storms and The Weather, Emissary of Hinon, Golden-Hearted Brother of 16 Siblings, and Golden-Hearted Lover, Father, and Husband"

Taki: Oh wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you all.

Lincoln made ten clones of himself, and they went up to the eleven girls, and they picked them up and hugged them in his abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and he kissed them on the lips, which they've returned with equally intense passion, as they wrapped their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones. We cheered over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem are going to like their new sisters to their future husband's harem. Katie, Ryan, Joel, Hailey, Chuck, Tommy, and Anita were going to be okay, and they're going through therapy after being chased by The Roc, and being pursued and almost sacrificed by Luca, Drina, and Seamus.

* * *

After the rescue in the world of the 2011 movie, Roadkill, we were all training intensely in the gym doing 100,000,000 reps of crunches, wing push-ups and regular push-ups, pull-ups, bicep curls, leg curls, and chest presses with 9,000-lb barbells, squats, and going a few rounds with the punching bags, and we were really sweating like crazy.

Suddenly, a bright light hits the Estate, and it knocked out Lori Loud, Leni Loud, Luna Loud, Luan Loud, Lynn Loud, Laney Loud, Lucy Loud, Lana Loud, Lola Loud, Lisa Loud, and Lily Loud, and that caused massive neon colored vortexes to form around them, Lori Loud: Turquoise, Leni Loud: Sea Foam Green: Luna Loud: Purple, Luan Loud: Yellow, Lynn Loud: Red, Laney Loud: Green, Lucy Loud: Black, Lana Loud: Ice Blue, Lola Loud: Pink, Lisa Loud: Bright Green, and Lily Loud: Lavender. Me, Nico, Lincoln, and the rest of us saw it.

Lori Loud, Leni Loud, Luna Loud, Luan Loud, Lynn Loud, Laney Loud, Lucy Loud, Lana Loud, Lola Loud, Lisa Loud, and Lily Loud woke up, and they were inside their separate mindscapes, and they had the elements of wind, fire, gravity, water, nature, light, darkness, and earth and volcanoes.

Lori Loud, Leni Loud, Luna Loud, Luan Loud, Lynn Loud, Laney Loud, Lucy Loud, Lana Loud, Lola Loud, Lisa Loud, and Lily Loud: Whoa, what's happening?

?: Our worlds are merging together as one.

Then, Lori Loud, Leni Loud, Luna Loud, Luan Loud, Lynn Loud, Laney Loud, Lucy Loud, Lana Loud, Lola Loud, Lisa Loud, and Lily Loud turned around, and they saw their counterparts/ancestors. They were 21 years old, they were 6'0" in height and they had the bodies of goddesses, which were also strengthened by 250,000,000,000,000 years of training and battles. They had larger angel wings in their favorite colors, Sky Blue, Purple, Ocean Blue, Yellow, Black, Ice Blue, Red, and Green. They had large swords with 6'5" massive, double-edged wide blades, the large upward facing curved horns for the crossguard and large sphere pommel are gold, and the gems on the crossguard and around the large gold sphere pommel are red, and they were similar in appearance to Lincoln's Sword of Taranis and Lincoln 2's Storms of Justice, and they were dressed in sleeveless blouses and skirts in the favorite colors of the sisters with silvered armored breastplates, and large black leather combat boots.

Lori and the sisters saw their counterparts/ancestors, and they were stunned and in shock.

Lori: Wait, you're us.

Lori's counterpart/ancestor lightly chuckled.

Lori 2: Yes, and it's a pleasure to meet you, Lori. I'm Lori 2, and these are my sisters, Leni 2, Luna 2, Luan 2, Lynn 2, Laney 2, Lucy 2, Lana 2, Lola 2, Lisa 2, and Lily 2.

Luna Loud remembered what Lincoln 2 told them long ago when he merged with Lincoln.

Luna Loud: Wait, are you dudes…?

Luna 2: Yeah, we're Lincoln 2's sisters, the ones who died in the horrible siege when we told Lincoln 2 to get out before it's too late, and we died when the castle burned down.

That also stunned them, and they knew these were Lincoln 2's sisters from 250,000,000,000,000 years ago.

Lola Loud: And there's something you should know, Lincoln 2 merged with Lincoln.

Lola 2: Yeah, we know, and Lincoln 2 wasn't the only one who got hit by cosmic radiation, and his body was flooded with such infinite power, changing him into the person Lincoln saw, along with the sword holstered on his back, and became immortal and invincible because of that. The cosmic radiation also hit us, and it took time for our bodies to be restored when we were burned alive by the flames.

Lana Loud: Whoa.

Laney 2: And after our resurrections and transformations, we eventually developed a more powerful purpose in my life: we would fight and defend those in need from those who seek to harm others, it was a powerful drive that kept us going on, and we'd push past our limits and grow even stronger and more powerful in the process.

Lynn Loud: Same with Lincoln 2, and we were heartbroken by what he told us.

Lynn 2: Trust us, the chaotic times we grew up in, along with the constant wars, caused the innocent to suffer, and we wanted to put an end to it, but we eventually fell victim to the chaotic times, and we were killed, but our Lincoln survived, but he lost all of us, and I can't tell how heartbroken he was.

Lori 2: And there's a reason why we came here. We're here to merge with you all to help you out on your journeys, and boy, is Lincoln 2 going to be in for a big surprise.

Lori Loud: He'll definitely be happy to see you all again, and he'll have a piece of his heart restored.

Lori 2, Leni 2, Luna 2, Luan 2, Lynn 2, Laney 2, Lucy 2, Lana 2, Lola 2, Lisa 2, and Lily 2 changed into spirits, and once they entered the bodies of Lori Loud, Leni Loud, Luna Loud, Luan Loud, Lynn Loud, Laney Loud, Lucy Loud, Lana Loud, Lola Loud, Lisa Loud, and Lily Loud, they merged with Lori Loud, Leni Loud, Luna Loud, Luan Loud, Lynn Loud, Laney Loud, Lucy Loud, Lana Loud, Lola Loud, Lisa Loud, and Lily Loud as bright lights bathed their mindscapes.

Outside, everyone saw the bright lights coming out of the massive neon colored vortexes, and as they faded, Lori Lori Loud, Leni Loud, Luna Loud, Luan Loud, Lynn Loud, Laney Loud, Lucy Loud, Lana Loud, Lola Loud, Lisa Loud, and Lily Loud emerged. But, they now had angel wings emblazoned in the middle of the animals emblazoned on their foreheads, and they were now taller at 6'0" in height.

Lincoln: Whoa, Lori, are you and the rest of our sisters okay? Me and Lincoln 2 felt ten astronomical power boosts coming from you.

Lori Loud: (Smiles) We're okay, bro, and speaking of Lincoln 2, we've got a big surprise for him.

Lori Loud, Leni Loud, Luna Loud, Luan Loud, Lynn Loud, Laney Loud, Lucy Loud, Lana Loud, Lola Loud, Lisa Loud, and Lily Loud told Lincoln everything, and when they told him of their meetings with their counterparts/ancestors from 250,000,000,000,000 years ago, that got Lincoln 2's attention.

Lincoln 2: Then, that means…?

Lori 2 spoke to Lincoln 2 through the sun emblazoned on her forehead.

Lori 2: That's right, bro, we're back and now, after 250,000,000,000,000 years of being separated, we are now reunited.

Lincoln 2: (Voice breaking with a smile) I missed you all, it's so good to see you all again.

Lori 2: (Voice breaking with a smile) You too, Linc.

It was indeed a happy 250,000,000,000,000 reunion for the counterparts/ancestors of The Louds, and we eventually finished our intense workouts, and we got a shower after.

Later the next day, the sun rose and Lane was asleep and the sunlight hit him and he woke up groggily.

Lane Loud: (Groggily) Huh?

He looked at his clock and he saw that it was 8:15 AM.

Lane Loud: (SCREAMS) I'M SO LATE! OH MAN! I GOT TO GET GOING! I AM GONNA BE SO LATE AND I HAVE A HUGE MATH TEST!

Lane got dressed and had to hurry!

Lane then ran to the stairs and then he tripped and fell down the stairs.

Lane just fell down the stairs.

Lane: Ow.

Lindsey Sweetwater: You okay, Lane?

Me: Oh man! Lane are you okay?

Lane: I'm fine. Just in a hurry.

Me: Oh man did you forget to set your alarm clock again?

Lane: Yeah it's broken.

Me: Oh man.

Naruto: You aren't the only one man. My Alarm Clock is broken too.

Me: I remember seeing that clock bro. I think we need to take it to a clock shop and have it looked at.

Nico: That is a wise idea.

Me: Your breakfast is on the table Lane. I made sure that no one touched it for you.

Lane: Thanks J.D.

Lane had his breakfast and then he went to the bus stop and the bus left without him!

Lane: NO COME BACK!

Lane: Aw nuts!

Sideswipe: Need a lift to School Lane?

Lane: Sure Sideswipe.

Sideswipe: Hop in.

He hopped in and they went to the school.

But they got stuck in traffic and Lane arrived 10 minutes late. There was a wreck and me and Nico rescued a woman that was in a wreck after she hit a fuel tanker and we got her out of there just in time as the tanker exploded into a raging fireball.

Lane passed his test thank goodness.

Later we were having lunch.

Lane just had disgusting food for lunch.

Lane: This is just gross.

Iris: (Pokemon) Good thing I brought lunch from the Estate.

Me: Thank goodness I brought emergency provisions for us.

I used my imagination powers and formed a whole roast turkey tree.

Lane: ALL RIGHT!

I then saw who was behind the counter for the cafeteria. It was Lunch Lady Doris.

Me: What the?

I went over.

Me: Lunch Lady Doris?

Lunch Lady Doris: Didn't expect to see me at the school cafeteria huh?

Me: Yeah I was surprised myself.

Lunch Lady Doris: I'm filling in for the current lunch lady for the week because your current lunch lady had a family emergency. Her dad had to be rushed into surgery.

Me: Oh man. I hope he gets better.

Lunch Lady Doris: Me too. Also I haven't found a good job here ever since Springfield got destroyed.

Me: I take it you heard about everything that Springfield was?

Lunch Lady Doris: Yeah what a terrible place.

Me: No kidding on that.

Lunch Lady Doris: J.D. can I tell you something?

Me: What is it?

Lunch Lady Doris: I've been working at Springfield Elementary and in a cafeteria for as long as I can remember and I've been hiding this from everyone. The truth is I am not a good chef. I don't know how to cook at all.

Me: Oh man. But hey no sweat. Lincoln's dad can teach you. He's a great chef and he has his own restaurant.

Lunch Lady Doris: Wow thanks J.D.

Me: You're welcome.

Later we were walking back to the estate when suddenly a Bank Robbery was in progress!

Me: Uh oh! Looks like we got a 2-11 in Progress! Lets go!

We went after the robbers.

Lane's light blast just missed the robbers by an inch.

Robber: You need to work on your aim. Let's get out of here, boys!

The robbers fled.

Eddy: Could that have been any more embarassing?

Maria: Don't think we've lost just yet.

The robbers just got into a car.

Robber: Alright, let's get out of here.

Swerve: Sorry. I don't drive for criminals!

It turns out that the car they were in was Swerve in his vehicle mode!

Robber: What the!?

Me: Caught you right in our trap!

Eli grabbed the robbers and pinned them onto the ground and pile drove them.

We slapped the cuffs on them.

Me: You blockheads just never learn do you? When are people like you gonna learn that crime doesn't pay?

Nico: No it doesn't.

Sheila: Thanks guys. We'll take it from here.

Tom Lair: These guys robbed 4 banks all over the city in just under 2 hours. That's a fast record.

Me: No kidding. Get em outta here.

They took the robbers away.

I gave the money back to the bank.

Me: This is the 7th time this week that the bank was robbed.

Eli: No kidding.

Me: We'll worry about it later. We need to have a talk with Lane.

We went back to the estate and talked to Lane. He has been having a terrible amount of bad luck lately.

May: Lane, we really need to do something about this string of bad luck of yours!

Slog: No kidding. If it weren't for Swerve, those robbers would've gotten away!

Lane: I know. But I don't think it's bad luck.

Me: It's not. He's going through what's called a Tardiness Syndrome. I've seen this many times before. And usually it's because of a broken alarm clock.

Sailor Moon: It's true. Lane you aren't the only one going through all that. I am practically late to school every day because of a bad alarm clock.

Sailor Venus: Same here. I go through same thing.

Lane: Right I forgot about that.

Me: Yeah. Crazy huh? Naruto even knows this too.

Naruto: Yep because I have a broken alarm clock.

Eli: That is nuts.

Arrietty: But we'll figure something out for them.

Me: Yeah. Right now it's time for our next mission.

Shego: J.D., it's your turn to lead today. And I think there's only one team of heroes who can help with Lane's bad luck streak.

Me: You got that right Shego and also today is the day. We're going to Universe 19 and meet the Kyurangers.

Nico: Oh wow! It's August 31st already?

Eli: Wow! Time sure flew by fast huh?

Arrietty: No kidding. That's amazing.

Laney: It sure is. And it's also really cool how they have the powers of each of the 88 Constellations.

Nicole: It sure is amazing. And the constellations are all amazing. We all know that dad and Tsurugi represent Phoenix The Firebird in the Southern Hemisphere.

Lana: What do each of the other Kyurangers represent?

Me: They have their own constellations. Lucky is Leo the Lion, Garo is Lupus the Wolf, Hammie is Chamaeleon the Chameleon, Stinger is Scorpius the Scorpion, Balance is Libra the Scale, Champ is Taurus the Bull, Raptor 283 is Aquila the Eagle, Spada is Dorado the Swordfish, Naga is Ophiuchus the Serpent Bearer, Shou Ronpo is Draco the Drago, Kotoro is Ursa Major & Ursa Minor the Great Bear and Little Bear, And Tsurugi is Phoenix the Firebird as you already know.

Aylene C.: Wow! That's amazing.

Me: It sure is. And it's gonna be so awesome helping them out. We owe them big time for helping us in the world of Hercules from 1997.

Nico: We sure do.

Electropede, Count Nocturne, Hydrax, Puppetmon, BlackWarGreymon, Mortal Kombat Scorpion, Stratos, Ice Demon, Machinedramon, and New Wave then appeared.

Electropede: Can me, Count Nocturne, Hydrax, Puppetmon, BlackWarGreymon, Mortal Kombat Scorpion, Stratos, Ice Demon, Machinedramon, and New Wave go with you guys?

Me: You all sure can. It's my turn to lead today and tomorrow. So we're gonna go to Universe 19 to help the Kyurangers.

Ice Demon: (Shivering Voice) Wow! They helped you guys in the world of Hercules.

Me: Yep. Lisa, deploy the U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix!

Lisa Loud: Affirmative.

Me: Universe 19 here we come. And get ready Jark Matter, (Eyes Glow Red) You may be defeated but we're going to destroy every last trace of you.

We went to the U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix and we were off. We cut through the Warp and we arrived in Universe 19.

---

UNIVERSE 19 - MILKY WAY GALAXY

---

We were flying through space in Universe 19.

Me: Captain's Log, Stardate 3013.5: Team Loud Phoenix Storm is en route to meet the Kyurangers and help them out to kill the remnants of the evil Jark Matter. This is gonna be one amazing adventure.

Nico: It's gonna be awesome to help them after how they helped us.

Tsurugi: And it will be awesome having them part of the team.

Me: It sure will.

Laney: The Kyurangers are amazing.

Me: I wonder if we'll be able to get birthmarks like mine from the 88 Constellations.

Nico: It's possible.

Vince: But it will be so cool.

Lisa Loud: We have arrived at Earth in this universe.

Me: On screen.

We saw Earth in Universe 19 and we saw one of the Jark Matter ships in its orbit.

Me: Fu charge superlaser and fire.

Fu: Right! Commence Primary Ignition.

She pressed 2 buttons and pulled some levers and then we fired the Superlaser and it hit the Jark Matter Ship and it exploded in a massive explosion!

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: BULLSEYE!

Razor: BINGO!

On the planet, Lucky and the Kyurangers saw the Jark Matter ship explode from what seemed to be of unknown origin!

We then landed the ship and came out And we saw the Kyurangers. And they were fighting ERIEDRONE!

---

Facing the Kyurangers

Eriedrone oversaw Jark Matter's subjugation of the planet Crotus. His forces, however, were unable to prevent the initial three Kyurangers from allowing numerous civilians to escape Jark Matter's grip. This was realized by the Shogun, Don Armage, who blasted Eriedrone back when the Karo contacted him to announce the joyous news of the conquest. Ordered by Don Armage to eliminate the insurgents, Eriedrone had his Big Moraimarz go to hunt the Kyurangers down on Jagjag. Ultimately, however, Eriedrone only succeeded in providing the trial by fire which caused a further two Kyurangers to emerge, making a combination of five Voyagers to form KyurenOh which destroyed the Tsuyoindaver that Eriedrone sent against them on Jagjag's moon.

Zigama

On Zigama, Eriedrone engaged Oushi Black, Kajiki Yellow, Chameleon Green, and Ookami Blue, easily overwhelming the incomplete team whom were forced to fall back in their Kyutama.

Stinger

Discovering the presence of a new Kyuranger attacking the others on Needle, Eriedrone realized that he could be made to serve Jark Matter. Appearing before this Stinger, Eriedrone recruited him to the Shogunate. Though the seven-man Kyuranger team would later depart the preserved Needle having destroyed the Moraimarz draining its Planet Jume, Eriedrone was assured by Stinger that they would not escape him this time. Fantasizing about fighting against Jark Matter herself, Raptor 283 envisioned saving the Kyurangers from Eriedrone. Learning that the Kyurangers had arrived on Earth, Eriedrone and Stinger were ordered by Don Armage to eliminate the rebels at any cost lest they discover the planet's secret.

Death

Post-mortem

Shortly after Eriedrone's death, a wounded Tsuyoindaver, aspiring to take his place as Karo of the Ite System, challenged Sasori Orange to a duel only to be soundly defeated.

Attempting to turn key I on planet Toki in the Tokei System, Lucky was engaged by an illusion of Eriedrone, whom he defeated with the new power of Taiyou Shishi Red.

Kikai Sentai Zenkaiger The Movie: Red Battle! All Sentai Rally!

Eriedrone was among the villains who were revived by Super Warumono World to fight the Zenkaigers and Sentai Red

---

Tso Lan: There they are. And they're fighting someone.

Tsurugi: That's Eriedrone. Lucky told me about him but I never helped fight him personally.

Me: I remember him. He tried to conquer the Sagittarius Constellation System.

Keiichiro took out Siren Striker.

Keiichiro: Okay. We've got two options. Option 1 is Tsurugi and Lola helping to drive Eriedrone off. Option 2 is me using Siren Striker's Keisatsu Boost from here to give Lucky Siren Strike's armor. But we need to vote on which option to use.

Me: Okay all for option one?

95% of us raised our hands.

Me: Okay. That's 95% of us. Option 2?

Only Leni raised her hand.

Me: Okay motion carries for number 1. Go get him Tsurugi and Lola.

Lola: With pleasure.

Tsurugi and Lola went and landed in front of the Kyurangers.

Champ: Tsurugi! You came just in time!

Tsurugi: Of course I did.

Stinger: (to Lola not recognizing her) You need to get somewhere safe. It's dangerous out here.

Lola: Don't worry Stinger, we got this.

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off in the sky and a phoenix cry was heard and then the spirits of the 88 Constellations appeared and swirled around the explosion and they converged and we came.

Me: That's an entrance for the 88 Constellations. Thought you all might like some help.

Lucky: LUCKY! Team Loud Phoenix Storm! It's awesome you're here!

Tsurugi: Lets send this guy packing!

Lola: Yeah!

Me, Lola and Tsurugi fired a massive blast of fire and it slammed into Eriedrone and sent him flying far!

Nico: TAKE THAT!

Qukul: YEAH!

Sea: That was awesome!

Keiichiro: Long time no see Lucky!

Lucky: (shakes Keiichiro's hand) Keiichiro! Good to see you again!

Keiichiro: (laughs) You too, Lucky!

Balance: (to Kairi Yano) Good to see you and your fellow thieves again, Kairi.

Kairi Yano: Same here Balance.

Count Nocturne: Oh yeah. That's right. You guys met the Lupinrangers and Patrangers before.

Me: I remember that! That was amazing!

Nico: It sure was.

Lucky: LUCKY! J.D. Knudson it's awesome to see you again.

Me: Same here Lucky. We owe you guys big time for helping us in the world of Hercules from 1997.

Lucky: It sure was amazing.

Me: It was. And it looks like you guys are having problems with the remnants of Jark Matter.

Raptor 283: Yeah we sure are. They are still causing problems even after Don Armage was destroyed.

Hammie: But we're going to make sure they are all destroyed forever.

Me: We'll gladly help you all out with that. And we'll make sure they never harm the galaxy again.

Raptor 283: All right!

Yamato: (to Stinger) Good to see you again, Stinger.

Kagura: Team Oddball is back together!

Stinger: Not quite. We're still missing Marvelous and Takaharu.

Brody: You're talking about the Japanese Counterparts of me and Troy, right?

Stinger: That's right.

Me: I remember that. That's cool.

Troy: Me and Brody can take the place of them on Team Oddball. After all, we do have the same suits.

Discord: Oh yeah. From the tournament you guys took part in, right?

Stinger: That's correct.

Me: I remember that. That was amazing.

Lucky: You guys have many Ranger teams with you all.

Me: From Japan and America. Lots of things have been happening with the rangers of both countries over the last 46+ years. Also we're going to meet another ranger team coming up some time later: The Dino Fury Rangers.

Nico: Yep. But it's gonna be about a year and a half to 2 years before we meet them.

Me: Yeah.

Lucky: That's amazing.

Twilight Sparkle: We heard you guys went through a lot of events because of the Jark Matter.

Fluttershy: Yeah that must've been awful.

Hammie: Yeah it sure was.

Me: Lets head onto the ship and have your ship brought on board so we can get to know you all more.

We agreed.

We had the Kyurangers Ship brought on board and it was amazing.

BlackWarGreymon: This is a really nice ship.

Lucky: It sure is huh?

Me: Your ship is really something. Just like what we saw on TV.

Laney: It sure is something.

Lana: Yeah. Stinger we're so sorry about what happened with your brother Scorpio.

Sasuke: Believe it or not Stinger, I know exactly how you feel. My brother killed my entire clan because of the village's corruption and I was the only one that lived. Ever since that terrible day I was consumed with nothing but vengeance and powerlust. I wanted nothing more than to have revenge and kill my brother.

Me: It's true Stinger. You and Sasuke are absolutely alike because you both went through losing members of those that are precious to you.

Stinger: Wow. That's awful.

Lola: It was.

Me: The reason Sasuke lost his clan was because they were going to launch a revolt on the Hidden Leaf and take over the Leaf Government and take the title of Hokage by force. After all the peace talks with them failed, there was only one available option and that was Genocide. BUT the Hokage only wanted those that were going to launch the revolt to be killed.

Sasuke: That's right.

Stinger: That's terrible. I didn't know that happened and that we are so alike Sasuke.

Sasuke: Yeah. It was bad.

Desoto: We want to thank you guys for holding off Evil Xigbar.

Kotaro: No problem.

Champ: Did that coward get killed?

Roscoe: Yep. But believe it or not, he didn't go into the Warp.

Champ: The Warp?

Me: It's an Interdimensional Plane made of an incredibly powerful psychic energy. This energy is so strong and powerful the anything sent there will never escape.

Nico: It's true. For over a year we have been sending some of our most dangerous enemies there and it was working really well.

Eli: Yep. It was something.

Me: And Hunter knows all about it. He saw it in a video game called Warhammer 40,000.

Hunter: (German Accent) Ja und it's really amazing. But it's a very dangerous place.

Me: We had to cut through the warp with Faster Than Light travel in order to get here. We did the same thing when we went to Universe 23 to face the Royal Defenders.

Garo: That's incredible.

Spada: It sure is.

Shou Ronpo: It sure is something and you guys have a lot of experiences with lots of different bad guys.

Me: We sure do. For over 5 years we have dealt with some of the most dangerous and most formidable villains in the entire universe.

Kotaro: That's incredible!

Mortal Kombat Scorpion: Believe it or not, the RPM Rangers' home went through the same thing as this world.

Champ: Really?

Me: Yep and it was a bittersweet story in their world. Their version of Earth was totally ravaged by an evil super computer artificial intelligence named Venjix and it turned the whole world into an Apocalyptic Wasteland and annihilated all the cities around the world and killed many of the humans. It was a horrible sight.

Balance: Wow. That's awful.

Scott Truman: Yeah it sure was.

Lucky: What enemies of the rangers did you all destroy?

Me: Oh gosh. With 27+ Years of Rangers in America and 46+ Years in Japan it's hard to keep track. But lets see. We killed Queen Bansheera of Lightspeed Rescue, Recruited Ransik of Time Force here because he was redeemable, Killed Master Org, Destroyed Venjix twice in 2 forms, killed Xandred, Annihilated the entire Armada and Warstar and that's pretty much it for America. We also took down remnants of Ginis, Destroyed the remnants of The Shadow Line, Took down the Remnants of Interdimensional Crime Group Ganglar, Emperor Of Darkness Z is in the Masters of Evil who are our frenemies and I think that's it.

Lucky: Wow! That's amazing.

Shou Ronpo: What did you mean by Venjix in 2 forms?

Me: Oh right. That still has us reeling. After the RPM Rangers defeated Venjix on their world, he somehow resurfaced in the Beast Morpher Rangers world in the form of a computer virus named Evox. Venjix and Evox were both one in the same.

Nico: Yeah that was crazy.

Raptor 283: Wow!

Me: I know. It's shocking.

Battletrap: (to Balance, Raptor and Champ) Always nice to meet fellow robots.

Champ: Same here. And it's awesome meeting Cybertronians.

Raptor 283: It sure is amazing.

Balance: I'll say.

Hammie saw Lane down.

Hammie: Is something wrong with Lane?

New Wave: He's been having a lot of bad luck today.

William: We didn't pay it any mind at first. Until that bad luck almost caused some robber to get away!

Me: William don't be rash. We got to help him in any way we can.

William: Sorry.

Lucky: There is no such thing as bad luck.

Me: Ha. Try telling that to an evil version of Lynn here.

Lynn: Yeah that was crazy. This evil version of me came from another universe and she lost her baseball game and blamed it all on Lincoln. Well J.D. can tell you.

Me: It's not pretty.

I went over what we found out in chapter 1131.

I revealed that she accused Lincoln of being bad luck and that she was the chosen one that was chosen to be the greatest champion of all and that she would win every sport and be the best. But she forced her version of Lincoln to go against his will by threatening to beat his face in with a baseball bat and because of that, karma got her and she falsely accused Lincoln of being bad luck. But Lincoln's sisters and parents stood up for him and gave him a few days off. When his days off were done they were gonna go see a movie. But evil Lynn was gonna make sure that he didn't do anything fun with them and she claimed he was bad luck all the way. She was grounded from the movie and locked in her room. When they got back, Evil Lynn was suggesting that they kick Lincoln out of the house and when the rest of the family rejected that, they said that there was no such thing as bad luck and Evil Lynn refused to believe that and because of that, Rita called the coach and removed her from all her sports teams forever and Lana melted all her trophies down and made Lincoln a Best Brother Ever trophy and Lincoln punched Evil Lynn in the face. The following day Lynn was sent to her Aunt Ruth while everyone went to the beach to have fun. But Lynn then went ballistic and psycho and she nearly killed Aunt Ruth and hurt her cats and she was going to kill Lincoln in cold blood by stabbing him with a knife that she took and Rita called the police on her. She was disowned by her whole family and brought to trial for her crimes. Lynn Jr. was found guilty of assault and battery, animal cruelty, menacing, destruction of personal property and attempted 1st degree murder. She was also found to be criminally insane because of her egomaniacal nature. She was also diagnosed by a panel of psychiatrists and psychologists and was declared criminally insane. They diagnosed her with Borderline, Egomaniacal and Anti-Social Personality Disorders. The coach even testified at her trial and called Lynn's actions and rituals all extremely delusional and the worst kind of sportsmanship and the most embarrassing and most unprofessional and most unsportsmanlike he had ever seen. He kicked her off of all the teams and banned her from all sports for life. Lynn's friends even testified against her and called her an extremely paranoid, unsportsmanlike, delusional, insane and overzealously superstitious monster that tortures others to get what she wants. She tortures her friends with crazy rituals and won't even let them go to the bathroom during a game, putting all their health in jeopardy. Lynn's friends all abandoned her and told her that they never wanted to see her again. The doctors even testified against her and showed the court that Lynn was the most stubborn girl they had ever seen. Lynn Sr. and Rita came to the conclusion in their minds that they were spoiling Lynn too much and letting her get away with all sorts of things for far too long. No more. They will not make the same mistakes again. Lynn was disgraced and forever banned from all sports. She was now an outcast from all of humanity. She was a totally psychotic, delusional, arrogant, egotistical, prideful, sociopathic freak. Lynn was a total sociopath and she was pure evil. The judge called Lynn a truly, evil person with absolutely no soul and no conscience. Because of Lynn, she nearly killed Lincoln in cold blood and nearly tore her family apart forever. She was sentenced to 65 years in the Alaska Maximum Security Psychiatric Institute in Nome for the criminally insane without any chance for parole or release. Because of the severity of her crimes, she was to be sent out of state. She was declared an absolute danger to everyone around her including herself. She had to be watched and guarded 24/7 to make sure she doesn't escape or do anything bad because of how dangerous she is. She had lost everything. Her athleticism, her pride, her reputation, her friends, her family, her home, her freedom and now her mind. Because of that, she swore to get revenge and will stop at nothing to get it!

When I was done they were shocked and horrified!

Shou Ronpo: That is not good sportsmanship!

Lucky: All because of a baseball game and she thought it was bad luck? Not cool.

Me: It wasn't bad luck. It was karma. All because she threatened to beat her version of Lincoln's face in with a baseball bat.

Lynn: Thank goodness that didn't happen to me.

Laney: Yeah or we would be in trouble.

CRASH!

A bookshelf just fell on Lane.

Rage Mage: See what we mean?!

Lane: A little help?

Me and Nico lifted the bookshelf off of him.

Me: Geez! That must've really hurt.

Laney: No kidding. You okay Lane?

Lane: I think so.

Me: Sorry about the mess.

Twilight Sparkle: I got this.

Twilight Sparkle used her magic and put all the books back in their right place.

Spada: Wow! That was amazing!

Me: One of our many powers.

Bombshell (Skylanders): (British Accent) Jolly good. But we have to do something to help the chap.

We got Lane to the table and sat him down and Varie healed him.

Lucky: Lane, me and Garu were in your position before.

Lane: You were?

Garu: Yep. Me and Lucky, on seperate occasions, were having some bad luck of our own. But we believed in our good luck and turned things around!

Lucky: That's right! I always believe in my luck so things work out in the end. And you should do the same!

Me: I remember all that. You have a really hopeful spirit Lucky.

Ice Demon: (laughs) I knew meeting you guys today was the right choice!

Lana: Lucky is just like me because I am hopeful too.

Lori: You literally are Lana.

Me: Also Trip, I remember you had the same problems right?

Trip: I sure did. This is very coincidental to when I was having bad luck.

Me: Yeah I remember.

Nico: That is very coincidental.

Me: Yep.

Wildfly: So, what are the remnants of Jark Matter you guys need help with?

May: Also, many of them are now going to be with Vypra and the others.

Garo: Vypra?

Me: She is Vypra's former second in command and is now the leader of the Masters of Evil, Our Frenemies. Queen Bansheera double-crossed her and had her merge with her to become hole.

Eli: Yeah that was horrible!

Luan: But now she is the leader of the Masters of Evil and she is amazing at leading them. And she's my archenemy.

Laney: Our original enemies before them were the Legion Of Doom. But after the Battle with Thanos on December 26th, 2019 they disbanded and the Masters of Evil took their place.

Lana: It was a big adventure.

Me: The Battle with Thanos was one of our most devastating battles. Because we suffered 2 casualties on that day.

Ra's Al Ghul: And I am one of those casualties.

Lucky: Oh man.

Me: Yeah.

Lucky: Thank goodness you all stopped Thanos. But back to the Remnants of Jark Matter. We're going after Don Arkage.

Me: I remember him! He was the one you all took down when you, the LupinRangers and PatRangers all teamed up.

Lucky: That's right.

Me: He was after some kind of treasure that was in the guitar of Hoshi Minato. Lets see here.

I pulled up his history.

---

Don Arkage (ドン・アルカゲ Don Arukage) is the new shogun of the Space Shogunate Jark Matter, succeeding the late Don Armage and the main antagonist of Lupinranger VS Patranger VS Kyuranger, who sought to take hold of Jark Matter's Hidden Treasure, concealed within the guitar of Hoshi Minato. In order to do so, he joined forces with Rirus Lippig of the Interdimensional Crime Group Gangler and revived the Vice Shoguns.

---

Me: Whoa and I remember this. He teamed uup with Rirus Lippig and revived the Vice Shoguns.

Nico: Whoa! This is gonna be big and awesome.

Laney: Yeah!

Shou Ronpo: And he also has henchmen as well. And no. They're not the Vice Shoguns.

Stratos: Who are they then?

Shou Ronpo: Geth Indaver, Ommo Indaver, and Kaal Indaver

Me: I remember them! They were former members of the Rebellion and they went to get the Kerberos Voyager for the Geth Star. Lets see here.

I pulled up their history.

---

Geth Indaver

Geth Indaver (ゲース・インダベー Gēsu Indabē), also known as Hoi Korol (ホイ・コウロー Hoi Kōrō) is one of the main antagonists of Uchu Sentai Kyuranger The Movie: The Geth Indaver's Counterattack.

A former member of the Rebellion and Shou Ronpo's colleague, he cooperates with him to research the Kerberos Voyager until his banishment for attempting to use it for his malicious desires. After that, he seeks to obtain the Kerberos Voyager and also destroy Earth with his planet-sized superweapon Geth Star. While he managed to revive the Kerberos Voyager, Geth Indaver is destroyed by Ryu Commander and then the Geth Star is destroyed by Kerberios.

Ommo Indaver

Ommo Indaver (オーモ・インダベー Ōmo Indabē) is one of the main antagonist of Uchu Sentai Kyuranger The Movie: The Geth Indaver's Counterattack. He is physically the strongest of the Indaver brothers.

Kaal Indaver

Kaal Indaver (カール・インダベー Kāru Indabē) is one of the main antagonists of Uchu Sentai Kyuranger The Movie: The Ghess Indavers Counterattack.

---

When I was finished reading about them I was shocked.

Me: Whoa! These guys are really tough too.

Nico: They sure are.

Me: But it's nothing we can't handle. Our power is more than enough to tear them apart. You guys heard about many of our adventures right?

Lucky: We sure have and it's amazing that you all do so much good all over the universe.

Roy Koopa: Raptor, before we discuss anything else, J.D. has something for you.

Me: Oh right. Raptor how would you like to be human like us?

Raptor 283: Wow! Be like one of you? That would be amazing!

Me: And you will have your Pink Ranger Powers of Aquila the Eagle in both Ranger and human form.

Raptor 283: Wow!

Me: Okay. Watch this. (Snaps fingers)

Raptor 283 then was enveloped in a flash of pink light and she had beautiful neon pink hair, blue eyes and had a beautiful pink sailor dress and white socks and pink shoes and she had pink angel wings on her back.

Nico: Wow!

Lucky: Oh Lucky! You look amazing Raptor.

Naga Ray: Wow. J.D. that was amazing.

Garo: Wow! How did you do that J.D.?

Me: Many of the things I do can be done with a snap of my fingers.

Nico: We are gods among man and we have the power to do anything.

Laney: It's true. But with great power comes great responsibility.

Me: But here Raptor. See for yourself.

I formed a mirror and Raptor looked amazing!

Raptor 283: Wow! I look incredible! Wow! It's amazing that I can be so beautiful as a human.

Eli: You look amazing Raptor.

Stinger: She sure does.

Me: Yep.

Then our stomachs growled.

Me: Whoa getting hungry.

Puppetmon (to Champ and Balance): What about you guys?

Champ: We're fine the way we are.

Balance: Yep. Nothing wrong with robot Rangers.

Maria: I agree. Just because certain people aren't humans doesn't mean they're not people.

Nico: Yep.

Spada: Lunch is ready!

We saw that Spada made a lot of awesome food!

Nico: Oh boy!

Eli: I'm starving!

Arrietty: That all looks amazing.

Me: I remember you make really good food Spada.

Spada: Come and get it!

We went and got some grub.

We went to eat and the food was awesome. Spada is a great cook and his food was awesome.

We were stuffed.

Me: Ahh! Man Spada your food is awesome!

Nico: Boy I'll say! That was great!

Eli: Yeah I'm stuffed.

Nico: Okay now we can have the usual battles.

Vypra, Dai Gui, Aqueduct, Evil Seed, Mirror Master, Mole Man, Mumbo Jumbo, Silver Samurai, Felix Faust, and Ben Ravencroft then appeared.

Me: Vypra, Dai Gui, Aqueduct, Evil Seed, Mirror Master, Mole Man, Mumbo Jumbo, Silver Samurai, Felix Faust, and Ben Ravencroft.

Vypra: Hey guys.

Lucky: So you're Vypra, leader of the Masters of Evil.

Vypra: Of course I am.

Garu: It's a real honor to meet you.

Dai Gui: Trust me. She's a damn good boss.

Bai Tza: You got that right brother.

Aqueduct: Unlike the previous big bads like Joker and Luthor

Me: Those two can suck my ass.

Evilseed: (to me) Heard you went to a space colony this morning

Me: Yeah we sure did.

Mirror Master: What was it like?

Me: It was amazing! It was a Stanford Torus Space Colony. I read about it in books. Also we were in the 2013 movie Elysium.

Mirror Master: Wow! I know that movie! That was a cool one.

Me: One of my favorites. Before we have the battles lets head to our ships special training yard. Don't want to damage the Kyuranger's ship.

Vypra: Good idea.

We went to the training yard on the ship.

Me: Okay here we are.

?: Good thinking.

A figure came out and it was SCORPIONIC and he was back for round 2.

Me: Scorpionic, back for round 2.

Scorpionic: Yep.

Nico: Awesome.

Scorpionic: Looks like you guys have about 26 teams of Rangers now!

Me: We sure do. And it will be 27 when the Dino Fury Rangers join us. But there's a possibility that there will be more later on.

Scorpionic: Wow! That will be cool.

Then we heard a witch cackle and then in a flash of lightning came Shannan's Ancestors, THE SANDERSON SISTERS!

---

The Sanderson Sisters are the main antagonists in the 1993 live-action film Hocus Pocus. They are a trio of witch sisters who were accidentally revived by Max Dennison in modern-day Salem and attempt to become immortal by sucking the life force of children (and some teens) using their life potion.

Role in the film

In 1693 Salem, Massachusetts, Thackery Binx is awakened and notices that his little sister, Emily, is being lured into the woods by an old woman while his best friend, Elijah, shows that the witches in the woods are conjuring. He gives chase, arriving at a cottage as Emily is led inside by one of the three women. It is home of the Sanderson sisters. Inside, they are brewing a potion with which to suck the life force out of young children to use as their own. Thackery is too late, however and Emily drinks the potion. After subduing him with her powers, Winifred, along with Mary and Sarah, shares the life force from Emily making them younger. When he calls her a hag, she decides not to kill him as punishment and to their amusement they transform him into a black cat who must live forever with the guilt of letting Emily die. The townspeople, led by their parents come and capture the sisters to hang them; however Winifred casts a spell that on Halloween night when the Moon is full a virgin will summon them back from the dead so they can claim all the lives of the children in Salem.

In 1993, a teenager named Max Dennison, his sister, Dani, and crush, Allison, visit the Sanderson Sisters' cottage, now a former museum, on Halloween night. While there, Max finds the Black Flame Candle and lights it, which causes the house to suddenly come to life; this culminates in the sisters reentering the front door for the first time in 300 years. Mary quickly finds Dani with her power to sniff out children, but Max interrupts before they can partake on a long overdue dinner. He tricks them into thinking he is a wizard using a lighter to summon the "Burning Rain of Death" (the fire alarm system) in the house. Before he can leave, however, Thackery, who can now talk as a cat, makes him grab the spellbook so the sisters can't create their life stealing potion. They soon give chase and Thackery leads them to a graveyard, telling them stories of the sisters, Allison deduces who he is. As the sisters can't set foot on hallowed ground, and air assaults are useless to the quickly moving children, Winifred summons her old lover, Billy Butcherson, a zombie whose mouth was sewn shut with a dull needle so he can't divulge her secrets, to chase them. They escape through the sewers and Max knocks Billy's head off.

The sisters encounter a bus and Sarah is driving it when Thackery emerges from the sewers. Max and the others witness his death and resurrection due to the curse that he can't die. Meanwhile, unable to track Max and the others, the sisters encounter trick-or-treaters furthering their confusion of Halloween night. After an encounter with a man dressed as Satan and mistaking him for their true master who is wed to Medusa (a woman with snakes for hair), Winifred realizes the truth of Halloween, while their broomsticks are stolen by children dressed as them. Max and the others try to tell the police, but find a man dressed as a police officer instead. They go to warn their parents, but the sisters arrive and in a big song and dance number, discredit their claims and curse the adults to dance until they die.

The kids lure the sisters to the high school and into a kiln where they are apparently burned to death. They are resurrected and return home defeated, Winifred is unable to remember the ingredients to the potion and they fall into despair as it was earlier established that the candle only brought them back to life for that night, and unless they can use the potion on children by sunrise, they are dust and cease to exist. As Dani and Thackery rest, Allison and Max, despite the warnings that nothing good can come from the book, open it to find a cure for his immortality. It signals the sisters who use a corn broom, a mop, and a Hoover vacuum cleaner to fly to its location. They secretly invade the house and grab the book, Thackery and Dani before violently exploding from the house, but not before Winifred reveals the nature of the spell that brought them back to Allison. Sarah uses her power, a siren song to lure the children of Salem to the house.

Max and Allison give chase and Max manages to trick the sisters again using the headlights of his parents' car to simulate sunrise. In the confusion, he frees Dani and Thackery and they return to the graveyard to hold out against the sisters. They encounter Billy and after using a knife to cut the stitches on his mouth, he apparently breaks the control Winifred has over him and joins the kids against them. They hold out well to start with, but Dani exits her protected grave plot when Winifred kicks off Billy's head and uses it to her advantage, swooping down and taking Dani. Thackery saves her by knocking the last vial of the potion out of Winifred's hand, which Max catches and drinks it to take her place. Winifred drops Dani and picks up Max to drain his life force, but Allison, Dani and Billy cause a distraction using Sarah and Mary which gives Max the opportunity to knock both himself and Winifred to the ground as Sarah and Mary fly up into the sky out of control. Winifred recovers and tries to steal Max's life force, but because she is standing on hallowed ground, she turns to stone. As the sun comes up, Mary and Sarah bid their goodbyes dramatically before exploding, followed shortly after by Winifred's statue exploding. With the sisters gone, the spell over Thackery is broken, and his soul reunites with Emily's spirit in the afterlife.

Meanwhile, back at the Sanderson's cottage, the eye of Winifred's spellbook opens up and looks around, hinting that perhaps the sisters aren't completely gone after all.

---

Me: The Sanderson Sisters!

Shannon: My ancestors!

Ben Ravencroft: Oh great!

Twilight Sparkle: Who are the Sanderson Sisters?

Me: They were the 3 most feared witches in all of Salem, Massachusetts back in the late 17th century. During the Salem Witch Trials, one of the darkest events in all of Colonial America, they were the terrors of Salem.

Shannon: And they are also my ancestors. I am a direct descendant of Winifred, Mary and Sarah Sanderson.

Winifred: That's right my dear and you are looking well.

Shannon: Thanks Winifred. I didn't destroy you 3 years ago because I love you like family.

Mary Sanderson: We're glad you didn't.

Sarah Sanderson: Thank you.

?: Don't forget about me to have some fun.

A figure came out and it was the Decepticon leader of the Skunticons, MALODOR!

Nico: Malodor!

Malodor: Looks like I'm gonna have some fun with this.

Stinkbomb: Skunk VS Skunk. I like it. This is gonna be fun.

?: We will destroy you all for ruining everything!

Suddenly, the eight large planets and stars orbing around my legs, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs, the eight large crimson red orbs orbiting around Naruto's legs, and the eight large black orbs with the Eye of Horus orbiting around Cody (OC)'s legs were glowing, and that means big trouble.

Lori: (Gasps) I should've known you'd be here, Evil Xaldin.

Me: Along with you, Kakuzu.

Then, two figures came out, and it was none other than Evil Xaldin, who was destroyed after we dealt with Chernabog, and Kakuzu, a member of the Akatsuki and Hidan's partner.

Lincoln: So, Evil Xaldin along with Kakuzu, have returned from the dead. We got rid of Evil Xaldin after we got rid of Chernabog in the world of Fantasia.

Twilight Sparkle: We know about Evil Xaldin, Lincoln, but what can you tell us about Kakuzu?

Lincoln: You won't like what I tell you, the Mane 9, and the rest of the new recruits about him, Twilight.

Itachi Uchiha: Kisame jokingly refers to them as The Zombie Combo.

Lincoln told The Mane 9 and the rest of the new recruits about the history of Kakuzu, and they weren't going to like what he's going to tell them.

---

Kakuzu

Kakuzu (角都, Kakuzu) was an S-rank missing-nin from Takigakure and a member of Akatsuki who was partnered with Hidan. Kisame Hoshigaki jokingly referred to them as the Zombie Combo (ゾンビコンビ, Zonbi Konbi, English TV: Zombie Pair), due to the fact that, in differing senses, they could not die.

Background

When under the servitude of Takigakure as an elite ninja, Kakuzu took on a mission to assassinate Hashirama Senju, the First Hokage. This mission, however, ended in failure against the God of Shinobi. Despite the insurmountable danger faced on the mission, what awaited his return to his village was the stigma and harsh punishment associated with the failure of his objective. In response to this treatment, a wrong levied against a shinobi who had put life and limb on the line for his village, Kakuzu came to hold a violent hatred for Takigakure as he escaped from imprisonment. In his flight from the village, Kakuzu killed the village elders, took their hearts, and fled with knowledge of the village's most prized forbidden techniques. He made a living off bounty hunting on the black market, and tearing out the still-beating hearts of powerful shinobi to extend his own lifespan and arsenal. At some time in the past, he apparently encountered the Gold and Silver Brothers and witnessed Kinkaku's jinchūriki transformation.

Some time after his defection, he became affiliated with, and joined, the criminal organisation, Akatsuki. During his early years in Akatsuki, he had at least four partners that he eventually ended up killing due to his short temper, and would come to use their hearts for his Earth Grudge Fear. In the anime, he, Itachi and Konan were tasked with killing an apparent immortal, who turned out to be Hidan. He managed to destroy one of Kakuzu's heart. Taking an interest in his abilities, Akatsuki recruited Hidan instead. Kakuzu was eventually paired with Hidan, who took an interest in Kakuzu after thinking of him as a pioneer for immortality, despite a mutual dislike. He was deemed a fitting partner for Kakuzu as he could not be killed because of his own, similar immortality.

Personality

Kakuzu was greedy and miserly individual. He would arrange goals in terms of the highest profit he could gain from them, and was often unwilling to involve himself in something if there was nothing to gain from it, as well as claiming that he tended to forget opponents who were not worth any money after he was done with them. He even remarked that money is the only dependable thing in the world. Due to this end, he referred to himself as the "Treasurer of Akatsuki". Given his friendly relationship with Zangei, his bounty officer, it would seem he collected bounties rather frequently to earn cash, and did so (or at least tried) during his missions on several occasions. The frequent side-tasks and devotion to money were both major points of contention between Hidan and Kakuzu. He also seemed to respect an opponent who thinks well, as shown with his reaction to Kakashi's counters to Kakuzu's masks, and Shikamaru's quick analysis of Hidan's curse, even mentioning Shikamaru would have been a good bounty in the future.

Out of all the Akatsuki members, Hidan and Kakuzu displayed the most animosity towards each other, since neither of them were very fond of each other's interests. The two often traded barbs with one another, Kakuzu's usually having better timing than Hidan's. Hidan had shown great annoyance with Kakuzu's greed and occasional habit of doing or saying blasphemous things, such as attacking a temple and killing the head monk for the bounty on the monk's head. Kakuzu, in turn, disliked Hidan's religion, believing the rituals associated with it to be a waste of time. Kakuzu was also rather impatient with Hidan's drawn-out speeches and battle style. Despite their mutual dislike of each other, their teamwork was almost flawless, because they complemented each other's abilities extremely well. Also, Kakuzu seems to care to an extent about Hidan, as he picked up and gave back his partner's forehead protector after he lost it during his fight with Asuma, a feat that made Hidan admit that Kakuzu is not as hostile as he appeared to be, although Kakuzu did note that he only did so because he could not stand the sight of the scar on Hidan's neck.

The only reason that Kakuzu put up with Hidan was because he couldn't get rid of him. Due to his violent temper, Kakuzu often killed anyone close by when enraged, having killed his previous partners and even took their hearts to extend his own life. Hidan, therefore, was the perfect partner for Kakuzu, because of Hidan's inability to die. Kakuzu's somewhat indiscriminate attack style also made Hidan an ideal partner, since Kakuzu didn't need to worry about catching his partner in the crossfire.

Despite his obsessive personality and violent rages, Kakuzu was much more cautious than his partner, and was not as arrogant, never mindlessly rushing into battle like Hidan. Kakuzu frequently warned Hidan not to let his guard down, and then teased Hidan when he inevitably did. Kakuzu also seemed quite willing to follow orders. When ordered to retreat by the Akatsuki leader, Kakuzu complied immediately (while Hidan attempted to argue), despite the rather large bounty he could have received by taking Asuma. He seemed to forget the greater goals of the organisation when enraged, as he attempted to kill Naruto, in spite of Akatsuki's need to capture all the jinchūriki alive.

Kakuzu held a violent hatred for his village, as despite his loyalty and willingness to risk life and limb on a dangerous mission, his failure was repaid with uncharacteristically harsh punishment. He responded in kind by brutally betraying Takigakure-committing jailbreak, taking knowledge of their most valuable kinjutsu and killing all of the elders before departing.

---

When Lincoln was finished, The Mane 9 were disgusted by the crimes of Kakuzu, along with the rest of the new recruits.

Twilight Sparkle: I can't believe Kakuzu would do those kinds of violent crimes.

Sly Cooper: And he's obsessed over money, he's truly a greedy individual even worse than some of the greediest scumbags we've known.

Roshi: You will pay dearly for your crimes, Kakuzu.

Lori Loud: Along with you, Evil Xaldin.

Suddenly, Lori's eyes turned neon sky blue, and she was surrounded by a sky blue energy aura, and she had unholstered her Sword of Ga-Oh from her back, and Roshi was surrounded by a red aura, and his eyes turned neon orange.

Lori Loud: We've already gotten rid of Xehanort and the rest of The True Organization XIII, but now, I'm going to get rid of you once and for all!

Roshi: Same with you, Kakuzu, we will never forgive you for the crimes that the both of you have committed, and now, you will both die for your crimes!

Then Lori was surrounded by a massive vortex of sky blue energy, there were eagles flying around the vortex and deer running around the vortex, and inside the vortex was a sky blue phoenix. Then, as soon as the vortex faded, Lori Loud emerged, but she was changed forever. Roshi was surrounded by a massive vortex of orange energy and lava with monkeys running around the vortex, and an orange phoenix inside the vortex. When the vortex faded, Roshi emerged, but he was changed forever.

Then, Lori Loud and Roshi slashed off the arms of Evil Xaldin and Kakuzu, and they screamed in excruciating pain, as blood was seeping from the bloody stumps of their arms.

Kakuzu: But, how…? I'm immortal.

Lori Loud: J.D. used the same tactic when Yugito faced off against Hidan, and that means you're no longer immortal, Kakuzu, and like Ace Bunny said, you're screwed, same with you, Evil Xaldin .

Roshi: Lori, why don't we use a combo to finish those two off for good?

Lori Loud: Let's do it.

Roshi and Lori Loud: VOLCANIC HURRICANE STYLE NINJA ART: DIVNE VOLCANIC HURRICANE RASENSHURIKEN!

Lori Loud and Roshi formed a massive Rasenshuriken made of wind, lava, and sky blue and orange energy, inside was a volcano spewing out lava, and it was surrounded by a hurricane. There was also traces of purple around it, a sign that they infused Super Hakai energy into it. Lori Loud and Roshi threw the Rasenshuriken, and once it hits Evil Xaldin and Kakuzu, it exploded with incredible power, and it Super Hakaied them forever.

Lori Loud and Roshi powered down, and their eyes changed back to normal, but their new bodies, clothes, weapons, and jewelry were permanent.

Roshi: Goodbye forever, Kakuzu.

Kaal Indaver: But this time, things will be different. All 20 of you will be dying here today!

Shou Ronpo: No. It won't be just 20 of us.

Geth Indaver: What are you talking about?

Tsurugi: Come now, Geth Indaver. I thought you were the smart one. Surely, you noticed my absence during the past few days.

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off behind them and they were ready to kick some Jark Matter Butt!

Lane's eyes were full of determination and then they glowed neon yellow and a rainbow light aura enveloped him and light creatures swirled around him.

Lane: I may have been having a terrible day because of bad luck, but Lucky and his team have all taught me one thing and that is to never give up hope in the face of danger and times of darkness and I will not let the times of darkness affect me anymore!

Suddenly a massive flash of light exploded out and Lane was enveloped in a massive vortex of rainbow light and it formed into a Sun and Fairy. When the vortex faded, Lane emerged forever changed.

(IMPERATRIX MUNDI PLAYS AT 1:45 TO 2:14)

Lane looked like he was 21 years old and had the body of a hunk. He had longer brown hair that was in a cronmage and it had rainbow highlights in his hair. He had a sun with a fairy and mermaid emblazoned in the middle of his forehead and it had the kanji for light in the middle of it and he had earrings on in the shape of the kanji of light. He had a rainbow shirt and it had a sun on it and he had rainbow pants on and black combat boots and he had a rainbow sleeveless trench coat and it had a sunset with a rainbow over it and it had fairies, rainbows, dragons, griffins and more flying around it. His wings were now rainbow color and he had rainbow light coming out of the tips of the feathers and he had a sword with a rainbow light blade in his hands. His aura was rainbow color and he had beams of light swirling around him. On his trench coat in rainbow light was the kanji for "Lane Loud, Emissary of Sulis the Celtic Goddess of The Sun, Master of Light, A great Comedian and loving brother to his family and master of Laughter."

レーン・ラウド、スリスの使者、太陽のケルトの女神、光の達人、偉大なコメディアンであり、彼の家族の愛情深い兄弟であり、笑いの達人。

I snapped my fingers and merged all of Universe 19 with our universe and Earth of 19 and our Earth were one. It was an awesome adventure and we had a great dinner and then went to sleep.

Meanwhile in another world light-years away from Earth, a young boy and his friends were walking around the forests of the Naroom Moonland and it was Tony Jones of Earth and his friend Edyn and his Underground Moonland friend Strag the Shadow Stalker were excited to meet us.

Tony Jones: This is gonna be awesome to meet Team Loud Phoenix Storm when they come here to help us take down Agram.

Edyn: Yeah he will pay for his crimes against us and all of the Moonlands.

Strag: And he will never know what hit him with the power they have.

Tony Jones: This is gonna be awesome! Lets MAGI UP!

In a flash of light they released their power!

THE END

Another awesome chapter done.

Kyuranger of the Japanese Power Rangers is one of my all time favorites in the Japanese series because I loved how it focuses around the 88 Constellations of the stars and the universe. It was so cool! The series aired in Japan from February 12, 2017 - February 4, 2018 and it was awesome for our friends in Japan to make one amazing series. The first part of the chapter was for the awesome 2013 movie with Jodie Foster called Elysium and that was a really cool movie about the Stanford Torus Space Colony. That was amazing. The 2nd Part was for the 2011 movie from the Maneater series called Roadkill about the monster being the legendary Roc from Arabic myth. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Nflemingful, Etstheclarencefan, Drako1234658 and ninjakingofhearts gave me the ideas for this one. Thanks guys. The next rescue is for Death the Shinigami and me and the Glaceon Gene-Slammer will find her in the movie Eraser with Arnold Schwarzenegger and we're going to stop a corrupt lawyer from giving railguns to terrorists and have him indicted on Treason Charges. Also Lincoln's next rescue is gonna be in the movie The Meg and we're going to face a ginormous shark that is really the ancient ancestor of the Great White Shark, the MEGALODON! Also next up is the awesome series Magi-Nation and we're going to meet Tony and his friends and help them destroy the ultimate evil of the Moonlands: AGRAM! And we're going to make that evil monster pay for all the crimes he has committed over the years and it will end badly for him.

See you all tomorrow.

Into the World of Magi-Nation

In the Wharf by Annapolis in Maryland me and Laura Emerson the Glaceon Gene-Slammer were flying over the docks.

Me: Wow look at this place. Annapolis Wharf is amazing.

Laura Emerson: J.D., you should probably know that the Agreste Mansion was broken into earlier today.

Laura concentrated and groaned as she got cold.

Me: BRR! Man every time you change it gets really cold. But yeah I heard about that Laura and Gabriel is not happy about it.

Laura turned into Glaceon!

Me: Yeah!

I held on to Laura's clothes for her and we flew and saw that we were at a shipping port and we saw a bunch of guys loading railguns.

Me: Those are railguns they're loading.

Laura Glaceon: What are railguns?

Me: Powerful energy weapons. Wait a second. This is the world of the 1996 movie Eraser!

---

John Kruger (Arnold Schwarzenegger) - a top U.S. Marshal for the Witness Security Protection Program (WITSEC) - specializes in "erasing" high-profile witnesses: faking their deaths to protect them from anyone that might silence them. After erasing mob witness Johnny Casteleone (Robert Pastorelli), John is given a new assignment by his boss, Chief Arthur Beller (James Coburn), to protect Lee Cullen (Vanessa Williams), a senior executive at Cyrez Corporation, a defense contractor. Lee warned the FBI that top-level

Cyrez executives covered up the creation of a top secret electromagnetic rifle and plan to sell the weapon on the black market.

In an FBI sting operation, Lee accesses the Cyrez mainframe and downloads data on the EM rifle onto two discs: one for the FBI and one for her own protection. Vice President William Donohue (James Cromwell), her boss, detects Lee's intrusion and orders her into his office. After finding Lee's hidden camera and threatening her with a pistol, Donohue commits suicide in front of her. Lee delivers the disc to the FBI but, disillusioned by their broken promise to guarantee her safety, refuses John's protection offer. The FBI's disc is replaced with a fake by a mole working for Deputy Secretary of Defense Daniel Harper (Andy Romano), the conspiracy's mastermind.

That night, Lee's house is attacked by a mercenary team led by J. Scar (Mark Rolston) sent by Cyrez' corrupt CEO, Eugene Morehart (Gerry Becker). John rescues Lee and hides her in New York City, keeping her location secret even from WITSEC. John learns from his mentor, Marshal Robert DeGuerin (James Caan), that several witnesses have been murdered because a mole in WITSEC is leaking information and they must relocate their witnesses. Along with agents Calderon (Nick Chinlund), Schiff (Michael Papajohn) and newcomer Deputy Monroe (Danny Nucci), they raid a remote cabin and kill mercenaries holding DeGuerin's witness hostage, but DeGuerin discreetly kills her when the mercenary leader reveals the marshal as the mole. Flying back to DC, DeGuerin drugs an increasingly suspicious John who manages to warn Lee to relocate before losing consciousness. The warning call is traced to NYC and DeGuerin kills Monroe using John's gun, framing him as the mole. Revealing he, Calderon, and Schiff are corrupt, DeGuerin explains he is the go-between for the black market buyer, and John escapes from the plane to rescue Lee from DeGuerin's mercenaries. John saves Lee from J. Scar at Central Park Zoo, who pursues them; John releases several crocodiles that devour Scar and his mercenaries.

DeGuerin has John and Lee branded as fugitives. The two enlist Johnny's help, and using a mainframe backdoor in Donohue's terminal, they decrypt Lee's second disc. It reveals that a huge shipment of EM rifles is at the Baltimore docks and will be delivered to Russian Mafia boss Sergei Ivanovich Petrofsky (Olek Krupa), who plans to sell the weapons overseas to terrorists. A Cyrez operative pinpoints their whereabouts and remotely destroys the disc; DeGuerin kidnaps Lee and takes her to the docks as the shipment is being loaded onto Petrofsky's Russian freighter.

Johnny contacts his mobster cousin Tony Two-Toes (Joe Viterelli) and associates to help John raid the docks. They kill Petrofsky, his henchmen, and DeGuerin's mercenaries. In a struggle atop a shipping container, DeGuerin holds Lee hostage, but John frees her and destroys the pulley system on the container crane, dropping DeGuerin and the container to the ground and exposing the presence of the EM rifles. John rescues the critically wounded DeGuerin, leaving him to be detained by Beller and the authorities and proving his and Lee's innocence.

Weeks later, John brings Lee to a hearing for DeGuerin, Harper, and Morehart, who are indicted for treason. With little confidence that her testimony could secure their convictions, John and Lee publicly fake their deaths in a van explosion. In the back of their limousine, DeGuerin congratulates Harper on their deaths and says that they should go back into black-market business as soon as possible, but is surprised when Harper says that he assumed DeGuerin had killed them. The men are confused, then shocked as their limo stops on a train track and the driver - a disguised Johnny - locks the doors and exits the vehicle. Kruger calls DeGuerin and tells him, "You've just been erased" as they see a train heading right for them. They can't escape, and the train slams into the limo, killing all three. Driving away Johnny waves goodbye to John, as he walks over to Lee in a waiting car. When Lee asks Kruger what happened he responds by telling her "they caught a train."

Laura Glaceon: Wow! I love that movie!

Me: And we're here to help kill these guys and bring down DeGuerin, Harper, and Morehart for treason.

Laura Glaceon: And maybe we can use these Railguns for our own use.

Me: Good idea. Lets go.

?: Let us help you all.

We saw a Grim Reaper and a Houndoom.

Me: Whoa! You're a Grim Reaper.

Death: That's right. I'm Death and yes I'm a girl and also a Grim Reaper.

Houndoom: (Uzbek Accent) Pleasure to meet you. Aisara Yusupova.

Me: Pleasure to meet you both. Lets get them!

We went after them and blasted the men and arrested them all over and even killed some of them.

I put on my blind man glasses and snapped my fingers and Aisara reverted back and she was naked and Laura reverted back too.

Laura was human again. But naked.

Laura: (covers herself) We should keep those weapons. Never know when they could come in handy.

Aisara: (Covers herself) I agree with you there.

I gsve Laura her clothes and gave Aisara new clothes.

Death: Looks like these guys souls are mine forever. They deserve it and deserve everlasting damnation for their sins.

Me: Well said Death. Now we have 2 Grim Reapers with us.

Death: That's cool. The one that Billy and Mandy know.

Me: That's right. Lets get these douchebags to the proper authorities. And by that I mean us.

We had them arrested and for treason and DeGuerin, Harper and Morehart were arrested for treason and found guilty of their crimes and sent to the Neptune Prison for all eternity and then we decided to keep the railguns for our own use later on.

After dealing with corrupt lawyer Daniel Harper, Lincoln, me, Nico, Nicole, Qin, Nikki, Casey, Sameer, Laird, and Atem were heading to the world of the 2018 movie, The Meg, and not only are we going to rescue the ten girls who were sighted here, but we're going to face off against the giant shark, The Megalodon, the ancient ancestor of The Great White Shark.

Me: WHOA! That's a Megalodon! The Ancient Ancestor of the Great White Shark!

Nico: But those huge sharks have been extinct for over 30 million years.

Lincoln: Oh wow, we're in the world of the 2018 movie, The Meg, and I know what we're going to do here: not only am I going to rescue the ten girls who were sighted here, but we're going to get the people to safety and face off against The Megalodon.

Me: That's right, and I've heard about the Megalodon, and this beast is the ancient ancestor of The Great White Shark.

Nico: How big is the Megalodon supposed to be?

Lincoln: The Megalodon is said to be 65 feet in length and weigh up to 70 tons.

Nico: Wow, that's huge!

Me: I wonder how tasty it would be for dinner.

We head into the underwater facility, Mana One, and it was already being attacked by The Megalodon, and it was on the rampage. Atem, Eli, Nikki, Casey, Sameer, and Laird began evacuating the people in the facility, and getting them out of here.

?: Help!

Suddenly, Lincoln heard the sound of ten girls calling for help with his superhuman hearing, and with his cyborg eyes and superhuman sight, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He saw ten girls, and they were right in the path of The Megalodon, and it was hungry.

Lincoln: Not on my watch, you overgrown fish-stick!

Lincoln transformed into Super Angel-Ebonwu 500,000,000,000 Elemental Supercell Lightning Thunderbird Furious Hyperstorm of Justice and he'd unholstered his Sword of Taranis, and went after the Megalodon, and he fired powerful blasts of water at it, which forced it up into the outside air, and he went underneath, and unleashed a powerful storm of slashes from his blade, and turned the beast into massive cuts of shark meat. We were going to have ourselves quite a feast for dinner later on after our next mission. Lincoln got the girls out, and as soon as they rendezvoused with us on the surface, he holstered his Sword of Taranis and powered down. We were tending to everyone that we evacuated from the facility.

Me: Alright, way to go, Linc!

Nico: You sure showed that beast who's boss.

Eli went up to Lincoln and hugged him.

Eli: Awesome job, bro.

Lincoln: Thanks, Eli.

Then, Lincoln and Nicole went up to the girls, and saw who the girls were, they were none other than Estellise "Estelle" Sido Heurassein, Rita Mordio, Judith, and Patty Fleur from Tales of Vesperia, Anise Tatlin from Tales of the Abyss, Velvet Crowe and Eleanor Hume from Tales of Berseria, Unchou Kan-u, Shinmei Ryomou, and Hakufu Sonsaku from Ikkitousen.

Lincoln: Oh wow, it's Estellise "Estelle" Sido Heurassein, Rita Mordio, Judith, Patty Fleur, Anise Tatlin, Velvet Crowe, Eleanor

Hume, Unchou Kan-u, Shinmei Ryomou, and Hakufu Sonsaku.

Nicole: From Tales of Vesperia, Tales of The Abyss, Tales of Berseria, and Ikkitousen, awesome.

Lincoln: Are you girls okay?

Hakufu Sonsaku: Yeah, we're okay, but what about that huge shark?

Lincoln: It's gone, and turned into shark meat for dinner.

Then, when the ten girls saw who it was that rescued them, their faces lit up like red Christmas lights upon seeing the 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful muscles, eight-pack abs, a lightning bolt cutie mark with the thunderbird and comic books on his right massive pec and surrounded by the symbols of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness in a circle, a Celtic Cross cutie mark tattoo in the form of the cutie marks of Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Rainbow Dash, Applejack, Rarity, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Starlight Glimmer, and Trixie Lulamoon and in a circle are the other girls in Lincoln's harem with the Earth surrounded by the ring of mermaids, a deep sapphire blue kanji on his wider muscular back that said "Lincoln Landon Loud, Champion of Lightning, Master of Lightning Storms and The Weather, Emissary of Hinon, Golden-Hearted Brother of 16 Siblings, and Golden-Hearted Lover, Father, and Husband", and he had deep sapphire blue eyes.

Hakufu Sonsaku: Oh man, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you all.

Lincoln made nine clones of himself, and they went up to the nine other girls, while Lincoln was still with Hakufu Sonsaku, and they they picked them up and hugged them in his abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and he kissed them on the lips, which they've returned with equally intense passion, as they wrapped their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones. We cheered over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem are going to like their new sisters to their future husband's harem.

Hakufu Sonsaku: You too, handsome.

We went back home, and we got some shark meat that we're going to enjoy for dinner tonight after our mission.

After the rescue in the world of The Meg and another intense workout, Carl Casagrande, along with CJ, Carlitos, Carlota, Ronnie Anne, Bobby, Nikki, Casey, Sameer, Laird, and Syd Chang were checking the footage from before we went to meet the Medabots. Something was bothering him about those pigeons that were sighted on the front yard.

Me: Hey, Carl, what are you guys doing?

Carl Casagrande: We're checking out the footage from before we met the Medabots, there was something familiar about those pigeons that were on the front yard.

Suddenly, Ronnie Anne saw something in the footage, and Carl zoomed in and enhanced the image, it was a pigeon in the corner, but he was horribly deformed. They suddenly gasped in shock, and they'd recognized the deformed pigeon as Sancho, and like Sergio, he's a non-stop party animal.

Carlota: Hey, that's Sancho.

Ronnie Anne: Then, that means, those pigeons we saw on the front yard a year ago before we met the Medabots were from Great Lakes City, and they're part of Sancho's gang.

Me: But, what were they doing here from Great Lakes City, shouldn't they be off partying somewhere in the city?

Then, we saw something else that appeared in the image, and it was Sergio, and he was whispering something into Sancho's ear, and he was laughing evilly, and rubbing his wings together. He was up to something, and it wasn't good.

Me: Looks like Sergio is one helluva party animal

Ronnie Anne: Why, that little party animal! If Abuela finds out that Sergio was behind this, Abuela is going to get the Chancla on him.

Applejack: Chancla?

Me: That's means her sandal in Spanish and Ms. Rosa's sandals are as bad as getting hit with a spanking paddle.

Lincoln made a viewing mirror with his powers, and he saw Sergio was flying back to Great Lakes City, and he was sweating like crazy. That's the sign that Sergio's plan has gone bust, and he was now busted.

Lincoln: Guys, Sergio's flying back to Great Lakes City. I think he knows Carl's busted him. If we can tell Abuela Rosa about this, Sergio is going to get it. We'll spring a trap on Sergio when he gets back to the apartment, and I can sense that Sancho's already feeling guilt over going along with Sergio's scheme, and he wants to help us.

Me: Good idea, Lincoln. Let's head to Great Lakes City, meet up with Sancho, and wait for that smart-beaked parrot to fly back home, and then, we spring the trap.

CJ Casagrande: But, we got to watch ourselves, Sergio is tricky, and he'll try anything to escape from us.

Me: He may be tricky, but so are we.

We got back to Great Lakes City, and when we showed Rosa the footage, she, Hector, Frida, Carlos, Arturo, and Maria agreed to help spring the trap on Sergio, even Lalo, Syd Chang and her mom are going to help trap Sergio.

Then, Sergio got back to the apartment, where we sprung our trap, and shackled Sergio's feet to a golden perch on the living room table, and we shined the light on him. We were going to interrogate him through the methods used in hard-boiled cop shows in the 1990s. Lalo was already watching that smart-beaked parrot, in case he tried any of his tricks, and was growling at Sergio.

Me and Nico were dressed in long grey trenchcoats, white dress shirts, ties, black vests, black pants, and black dress shoes, and we looked like detectives from the 1990s cop shows. And the famous whistleblower, Deep Throat.

DUN DUNDUNDUN DUUUUUUNNNN!

Nico: Alright, you feathered stool-parrot, time for you to spill the beans. What were you plotting with Sancho?

Sergio: Rrawk, I'm not spilling, copper. I demand a lawyer.

But, it was too late for Sergio, in Ronne Anne's room, Lincoln, his sisters, Ronnie Anne, Carlota, Carl, CJ, Carlitos, Syd Chang, Nikki, Casey, Sameer, and Laird had already got to Sancho, and the pigeon decided to turn witness, turn on Sergio, and he decides to come clean and tell us what he and Sergio were planning. Lincoln, his sisters, Ronnie Anne, Carlota, Carl, CJ, Carlitos, Syd Chang, Nikki, Casey, Sameer, and Laird came into the living room, and with Sancho, who's standing with him.

Me: It's already too late, Sancho's confessed and he's going to tell

Rosa about what you and Sancho were planning, and why you involved Sancho's gang.

We got into the living room, and Sancho sang like the stoolpigeon he is, and told Rosa that Sergio was planning a takeover of The Estate, so they can throw wild parties all the time. That shocked Rosa, Hector, Frida, and Carlos, Sergio's scheme has gotten him busted, and thanks to Sancho, it meant Sergio was busted. Sergio got out of the chain, and he tried to get away, but Rosa grabbed him by his tail, and she had a strong grip on Sergio, making sure he couldn't get away.

Rosa: (Spanish Accent) Not so fast, trying to take over The Estate, so you can throw wild parties all the time, shame on you, Sergio.

Ronnie Anne: I think I know some punishments for Sergio, in addition to what punishments you have in store for him, Abuela.

We had a smile on our faces, and Sergio gulped nervously, and that meant he was in huge trouble for his scheme.

Our investigation and Lincoln's trap worked, Sergio Casagrande was busted, and his scheme to turn The Estate into his own personal party pad for him and his party bird friends went bust. As for Sergio, he got hit with the Chancla, and he wasn't allowed to go to or throw any wild parties for three weeks, and he has got to do a lot of chores in the apartment, and tend to the family during breakfast, lunch, and dinner. As for Sancho, he got off easy, thanks to telling Rosa about what Sergio was planning, but he and the party pigeons weren't allowed near The Casagrandes' apartment or The World Tree Estate for three days.

Later Lynn was playing catch with her baseball in the gym and then…

Fat Student: I will and thanks J.D.

Me: You're welcome.

Squidward: I'm warning you, Double D! This is only going to end very badly for you!

Sunstorm: C'mon, Squidward. What's the worst that can happen?

Lily: You shouldn't have asked that question.

Crowd: [cheers] Handsome! Handsome! Handsome! Handsome! Handsome! Handsome! Handsome! [night time and crowd still keeps on cheering for Double D until dawn]

Edd: Huh? Well, better go greet the commoners.[heads outside to receive the cheering crowd, and is stunned to see numerous citizens surrounding him]

Crowd: Handsome! Handsome! Handsome!

Edd: Good morning my people! I'm sorry to have kept you waiting, but even I [laughs] strange as it seems, need my beauty sleep.

Thaddeus: I got the clarinet! [crowd rips the shirt off the fish who got Edd's clarinet and breaks his clarinet]

Edd: [smells the liquid soap] There's nothing a little foaming herbal bath can't cure. [a female takes his soap] Hey, my grandmother gave me that soap! Well, no one ever said it'd be

Big Woman: Hi, Handsome.

Double D: Okay, Squidward! You were right about things ending badly for me!

Squidward: Of course I was right!

Tailgate: Forget that! We've got an even bigger problem.

We saw a massive and wild and crazy fan group out for Double D!

Linka: No one but me touches Double D!

Me: Looks like someone is jealous.

Nico: Oh boy! Hell Hath No Fury Like A Woman Scorned.

Laney: Yep.

Naruto: No kidding.

Me: I know that saying all too well.

We got into the World Tree Estate.

Laney: They're not going to climb up here are they?

Me: No they would have to be stupid to climb a huge 100 mile high tree.

Sid Arkale: Believe it or not, J.D., it's your turn to lead again.

Me: I know and I said that it was my turn to lead twice in a row.

Rubanoid: Now we just need to find a place to hide from those crazy fans!

Tentacool: I think I know where to hide.

Me: Where Tentacool?

Tentacool: We can go to the Moonlands of Magi-Nation. When we were fighting in the world of Tangled, I had a run in with Tony Jones and his friends from Magi-Nation.

Me: Oh wow! They must've helped hold off Evil Marluxia while we were fighting Gothel.

Eli: That's amazing! We owe them big time for that.

Arrietty: We sure do. But what are the Moonlands?

Me: They are a land where creatures of dreams live. But I know why we're going there. We're going to kill the evil Shadow Magi, Agram.

Nico: Whoa!

Me: Yeah. Let me tell you what happened there.

I went over the history of the world of Magi-Nation.

---

Three thousand years ago in the Moonlands, the evil Shadow Magi Agram was sealed inside the planet's Core by the Core Glyph and the Dreamstones which provided its power. Now he plans to escape by using his Shadow Geysers to weaken his prison in order to bring the Moonlands under his control, and only a Magi known as the "Final Dreamer" can stop him. A young boy from Earth, Tony Jones, is summoned into the Moonlands as he is believed to be this Final Dreamer. He joins forces with the apprentice Magi, Edyn, and the Shadow Stalker, Strag, on a mission to gather the Dreamstones before Agram is set free. Using the Book of Elders, the three travel through the Moonlands while combatting the forces of Agram and gaining an ever-growing collection of Dream Creatures from the Moonlands that they visit.

---

When I was finished with that everyone was shocked.

Nico: WHOA!

Me: And here's Agram's story.

---

Agram is the primary villain in all the major portrayals of the Magi-Nation franchise which began with a card game and includes a video game and TV series. He is notably the mastermind behind the appearance of Shadow Geysers, gates to the Core region of the Moonlands that allow for the Core's influence to spread to the other, previously peaceful areas. Despite being the final boss of the GBC game, Agram isn't necessarily considered to be the archenemy of the protagonist, Tony Jones, due to his late appearance, and the fact that Tony is more often opposed by Agram's second in command, Morag, who better fits this description.

Agram's goal is to exterminate all life in the world in which he lives, which is formally called the Moonlands, a world populated by humanlike people referred to as "magi" with the ability to summon and control somewhat animalian entities called Dream Creatures for use in battle, as well as for convenience. His reason for wanting to commit genocide on these people is because they possess this said ability, the "power of the magi," which he considers as "stolen" from his original race, the people from whom this power originated, known as the "Ancients."

Agram is always seen wearing a blindfold over his apparently blind eyes, which is reportedly worn as a penalty for "seeing the secrets of darkness," likely having to do with his deep affiliation with the power of the Core.

History

Agram was originally one of a civillization of Ancients, a powerful race living in a hidden city who possessed that "power of the magi," an ability that allows its users to summon entities of varying strength called Dream Creatures to do their bidding. When a wandering tribesman named Agadon discovered the City of the Ancients, he was gifted with this power by the city's inhabitants.

One of the Ancients, however, opposed the prospect of a mortal receiving this power, and in retaliation for the refusal of the others to listen to him, utilizing the power of the Core, a region of the Moonlands hidden away from the others that contained a dark influence and shadowlike Dream Creatures, he waged a war against Agadon's tribe in an effort to ensure that the power of the magi remained soley in the hands of the Ancient race. In the end, Agadon defeated Agram, sealing him in the Core permanently, but at the cost of his own life.

As time went on, the inhabitants of Magi-Nation, eventually came to be known as all being descendants of Agadon's tribe, and as a result of all of them possessing the "power of the magi," these people came to be known as magi.

Over time, a rift between the Core and the other Moonlands caused by an unknown source allowed Agram to escape the Core and resume his mission in eradicating the people of Agadon's tribe. However, since by then, the entire population of Magi-Nation had come to be known as magi, Agram was now resolved to execute every last one of the people who now walked the Moonlands, and he began to once again gather his army, which was composed of magi with an affinity for summoning and commanding Dream Creatures native to the Core region.

Unknowest to Agram, however, the rift that had allowed him to return to the other Moonlands was caused by the arrival of a human from another world entirely, Tony Jones, a teenager from the modern United States. Eventually, Tony Jones was taught the ways of the magi by the locals, and possessing a far greater affinity for the "power of the magi" than any of the Moonland's locals, he eventually fought back at Agram's army and defeated Agram in a Duel before returning to the world from which he had came, and Agram was once again sealed within the Core, and the Moonlands kept safe from his influence.

When I was done, everyone was shocked and horrified that Agram is that dangerous and that evil!

Eli: What a monster!

Arrietty: Then it must've been him that stole Gabriel's Akuma.

Me: We don't have any proof on that Arrietty. But I have a feeling you might be right.

Vypra, Dai Gui, Aqueduct, Evil Seed, Mirror Master, Mole Man, Mumbo Jumbo, Silver Samurai, Felix Faust, and Ben Ravencroft then appeared.

Vypra: Me, Dai Gui, Aqueduct, Evil Seed, Mirror Master, Mole Man, Mumbo Jumbo, Silver Samurai, Felix Faust, and Ben Ravencroft will come with you guys.

Me: Great. Lets get moving before that mad fan club that Double D got comes up here.

Linka: (Growls) If anyone has touched Double D, I will rip their fucking heads off!

Nico: (Gulps)

Me: Oh boy. Lets get moving.

Lucy opened a portal and we went through it.

MOONLANDS - WORLD OF MAGI-NATION

We arrived at the Moonlands and it was REALLY beautiful. We were in the land of Naroom and it was a forest land that was amazing.

Me: Wow! So this is the Moonlands. It's magnificent.

Nico: I've heard so much about this place. And there's also a card game for Magi-Nation. So awesome.

Tentacool: You guys are gonna like meeting Tony Jones and his friends. They are the true heroes of the Moonlands.

Skallox: I see them! And it looks like they're fighting one of those Shadow Magi!

We saw that they were fighting Chur of the Shadow Lands!

Chur attacked Tony Jones, Edyn, and Strag with rocks and powerful spells when they arrived in Kybar's Teeth. When the three saved his life after a misfired spell, Chur lost the Dreamstone to them.

He later tried to burn the Book of Elders while in Bograth, not realizing that the book had magically teleported to Kybar's Teeth.

Chur was one of the many Shadow Magi under the command of Orwin. After training alongside Tony, Edyn, and Strag, who were undercover as Shadow Magi, Chur and the other Shadow Magi tried and failed to defeat the Swamp Hyren, Mist Hyren, and Fog Hyren to take the Paradwyn Dreamstone.

Following the defeat of Agram, Chur happened upon the Book of Elders, complete with the twelve Dreamstones.

Chur later kidnapped Tony to use as a bargaining tool to claim the Book of Elders. However, he failed as Tony managed to escape. Chur also lost the book to the Final Dreamers.

---

Me: That's Chur! He's a formidable foe.

Linka: Let me and Tentacool send him packing.

Me: Go for it.

Tentacool: Lets do it!

Ugger sent vines out and grabbed Chur.

Linka and Tentacool then stepped in.

Linka: Hope you don't mind us dropping in like this!

Edyn: Tentacool and Linka Loud!

Tony Jones: Team Loud Phoenix Storm must be here too!

Linka: Yep. Let us send this guy packing.

Linka fired a massive blast of lightning and Tentacool fired a powerful energy blast from the red jewel on her head and the blasts combined and slammed into Chur and sent him flying far from the Moonlands!

TING!

We appeared.

Strag: We should probably go after him.

Mirror Master: No. Something tells me this won't be the last we'll see of him.

Me: That's right.

Tony Jones: Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm! It's awesome meeting you guys.

Me: Same here Tony. We owe you big time for helping us with Evil Marluxia.

Tony Jones: Think nothing of it.

Edyn: We're glad we can help out.

Strag: Yeah it was cool helping you all out.

Me: We greatly appreciate it though.

Furok: Thanks for keeping our involvement a secret, Tentacool.

Sugarcoat: How did you guys get to Rapunzel's world anyway?

Edyn: We accidentally got teleported there as we were finding the next dream stone to stop Agram.

Me: Oops. But thankfully you guys helped us out. Also we came here to help you guys kill Agram.

Tony Jones: Oh wow! But why do you guys want to kill him?

Me: Well he will just keep coming back and continue to cause more and more problems. And we don't want that.

Tony Jones: That is a good point.

Stram: We do need to stop him for good.

Me: And the only way to do that is to kill him.

Tony Jones: Yeah I'm fed up with Agram too.

Me: I think all of the Moonlands are.

Aqueduct: How about you guys show us around the Moonlands?

Tony Jones: Sure thing.

We walked around the Moonlands and they were magnificent.

Arderial

Arderial is a Moonland located in the skies above the continent which is characterized primarily by clouds and a few high-reaching mountains. The Arderian Magi often possess wings, and Arderian Dream Creatures often resemble birds and clouds. The Moonland is ruled by the Regis, Jaela.

Bograth

Bograth is a region made up of thick swampland and is covered by slime and mosses. The Magi and Dream Creatures from this region, likewise, tend to be more akin to swamp creatures and enjoy being filthy.

Cald

Cald is a volcanic Moonland located on the far southern tip of the main continent. The region is characterized by active volcanoes. The Calder Magi focus their abilities on fire and are tend to be eccentric, responsible, and rude to outsiders. Due to the environment, the Cald is populated by Dream Creatures made of fire, lava, and volcanic rocks.

D'Resh

D'Resh is a sandy desert Moonland located between the Weave and Cald. The d'Reshi Magi dress similarly to ancient Middle Eastern societies and incorporate aspects of the desert into their clothing. The Dream Creatures closely resemble desert cacti and animals.

Kybar's Teeth

Kybar's Teeth is a Moonland which is dominated by mountainous terrain full of jagged cliffs and rocks. Located in the southeastern end of the continent, Kybar's Teeth houses the entrance to the Underneath. The Kybarite Magi are hunters and dress in furs and leather while the Kybarite Creatures resemble mountain-dwelling animals and stones.

Nar

Nar is the northernmost Moonland and consists of ice and snow. Naran Magi tend to have blue skin and white hair. The region's Dream Creatures often resemble arctic animals or have bodies made of ice and snow.

Naroom

Naroom is a region composed of plains and forests and includes the prominent city of Vash Naroom. Naroomese Magi have fair skin and pointed ears and wear clothing made of plant matter. The Dream Creatures of the region represent the flora and fauna of a woodlands ecosystem

Orothe

The deeps of Orothe is a marine Moonland containing an underwater city known as Oscent Mar. The Orothean Magi often have fins and gills to survive underwater, and the Dream Creatures resemble marine flora and fauna including fish, shells, corals, and seaweed. In particular, the Parathin species are used as transports and as supporting platforms for the city Oscent Mar. The region's Elder is Mobis.

Paradwyn

Paradwyn is a Moonland that consists of an exotic jungle landscape. The Magi of the region have lime green skin and exotic hair colors, and their culture revolves around hunting. The native dress is somewhat primitive and is accented by furs and leaves. Paradwynian Dream Creatures are oversized and exotically colored flora and fauna.

Underneath

The Underneath is a subterranean region of the Moonlands containing a network of tunnels and a diverse selection of giant mushrooms and other fungi, some of which comprise the diet of the Underlings and others of which are used as building supplies. The region's primary entrance is located under Kybar's Teeth, though several other entry points exist. The Underling Magi have a symbiotic relationship with the mushrooms that take the place of their hair. The native Dream Creatures comprise burrowing animals, fungi, and crystals and are often bioluminescent.

Weave

The Weave is a Moonland characterized by wide plains covered by extremely tall grasses. The Weaver Magi often wear clothes made of grass. Unlike the Naroomi, the Weavers lack pointed ears. The Dream Creatures of the region resemble plains creatures and grassy plants.

---

It was all incredible!

Me: Wow! The Moonlands are absolutely magnificent.

Laney: Yeah no kidding. It's like a paradise for creatures of the Elemental Forces of Nature.

Rainbow Dash: Me and the Pegasi would do great in the world of Arderial.

Fluttershy: Naroom and Paradwyn for me because it's full of so many amazing creatures.

Me: All the Moonlands are beautiful and magnificent.

Edyn: Sorry if the Moonlands isn't technologically advanced as Earth.

Ashi: That's perfectly fine. Me and Jack's home isn't that technologically advanced either.

Me: But it's all really amazing and it's awesome that this world is all filled with magic from the power of the imagination.

Nico: It sure is and we are very familiar with that kind of power.

Edyn: Are you really?

Me: Yep. Watch.

I fired a pink Imagination beam and it hit the ground and formed beautiful crystal clusters made of strawberry rock candy.

Nico: Whoa!

Tony smelled one and licked it and he liked it!

Tony Jones: Whoa! Strawberry flavor!

Edyn: Wow! That was amazing!

Nico: It sure is. The Power of Imagination has endless and infinite possibilities.

Eli: It sure does.

Evilseed: (to Tony) So, how did it feel to be the only human from Earth in the Moonlands before today?

Tony Jones: It was really scary at first but I found out that my Grandfather was here long before me.

Me: So your grandfather was here long ago?

Tony Jones: He sure was and he gave me this ring and it took me here to the Moonlands.

We saw a ring with a green gem on his finger and we saw that it was Animite.

Me: Wow that stone is a green Animite Stone.

I pulled out my sky blue Animite.

Me: You aren't the only one that has the same power you do.

Edyn: How did you find an Animite stone?

Me: I just found it when I was near a river on Earth. I didn't know what it was for until I heard about the Moonlands and what power they have.

Lola: Wow! So that's how you know a lot about Magi and everything.

Me: Yep.

Strag: It's possible for all of you guys to get Dream Creatures.

Jinx: It is?

Strag: Just remember to send them to the Dream Plane whenever they get tired.

Me: I do have my own Dream Creature. Her name is Aula and she's from Arderial.

Edyn: Wow!

Nico: That's right I remember you have your own Dream Creature, J.D.

Me: Yep. Now we have to decide on which dream creatures we can get.

Laney: That's gonna be tough because there are so many of them.

Eli: Yeah I know but if I were to choose one it would be from Orothe.

Arrietty: I would pick one from Paradwyn.

Me: Looks like some of us have good choices planned.

Rainbow Dash: You know I would use Arderial.

Sunset Shimmer: Cald for me.

Applejack: Weave for me.

Twilight Sparkle: I would go for Arderial too.

Rarity: Underground for me darling.

Me: We have many good choices.

Tony Jones: (to Iron Boy) I noticed that you've been in your armor the entire time.

Iron Boy: That's because I can't remove my armor right now.

Edyn: Why? Is it stuck?

May: No. But it's best if if he doesn't show his face.

Me: Long and ugly story on that.

Strag: I'm sure it's not not that bad.

Mole Man: Don't say we didn't warn you.

Double D removed his helmet.

Strag: I'm sorry, Double D. But I see nothing wrong with your face.

Tony: Yeah. It looks fine to me. (sees Edyn with hearts in her eyes) Edyn? You okay?

Me: UH OH.

Nico: (Whispers to me) Ever since he got that operation, Double D turned into quite a babe magnet.

Me: (Whispers to Nico) You are not kidding on that buddy.

Linka knew that Edyn was fawning over Double D and she growled ferociously at her and her face turned red and glowed with red-hot atomic fury and steam came out of her ears!

Jessie (Pokemon): Linka just calm down will you.

Linka: YOU SHUT UP YOU FUCKING OLD HAG!

We gasped at what Linka said!

Me: UH OH! Linka crossed the line on that one!

Linka: Get the fuck away from my man, you bitch! (tackles Edyn to the ground)

Tony Jones: Hey! Are you nuts, Linka?! Get away from Edyn right now!

Protoboy: We were afraid of this!

Me: Jealousy is a dangerous monster! Lets separate them!

I grabbed Linka and Tony grabbed Edyn.

Edyn: What's wrong with her?!

Me: She's jealous! Double D had an accident this morning and he had a surgery on his face. As you can see he is quite the looker for all women everywhere.

Nico: Yeah.

Tony Jones: Geez!

Eli: Yeah it's dangerous.

Me: Yeah it sure is.

Strag: I thought Linka wasn't part of the Trinity of Violence!

Dai Gui: She isn't. But Linka is very protective of Double D.

Lynn: It's my fault. I was the one who threw the baseball at Double

D's face by accident.

Me: Yeah and I bonked Lynn on the head for it.

Lynn showed that she had a huge lump on her head. Ouch.

Eli: I would have given her a wedgie.

Nico: That would have been more appropriate.

Me: Not helping.

Eli: Sorry.

Skarr: Linka, don't you think you're taking this jealousy thing a bit too far?

Me: That's right Linka. I've seen what happens to people who are jealous. Jealousy is a dangerous and deadly force and also one of the cardinal sins.

Nico: That's right Linka.

Me: And I've seen what happens to people when jealousy consumes them to beyond the point of no return. Look what happened to Queen Beryl, she became the way she was because of jealously and it only lead to her destruction, same with Jarrod, Ling and many people we all know. And look what happened to some of them. They all either died or were sent to prison.

Jarrod: Thank goodness that didn't happen to us.

Ling Aeung: Yeah that was bad.

Me: Yep. Linka do you want that to happen to you?

Linka was in deep thought and she realized what a fool she was.

Linka: I'm sorry, guys. I just don't want Double D to be taken away from me. Not after what Marie's former sisters did to him!

Ben Ravencroft: That's very understandable.

Me: What the Kanker's did is unforgivable. But we completely understand your reason why you are protecting him like a mad dog.

Edyn: What do you mean by Marie's former sisters?

Marie K.L.: My stupid sisters Lee and May were monsters.

She went over what happened during the events of chapter 727 and what we found out and it was NOT PRETTY!

They gasped when they heard it.

Eli: Man that still is awful.

Aylene C.: No kidding. It sure was.

Nico: Yeah.

Edyn: That's terrible!

Strag: We don't have any cases of rape here!

Rothar: Perim doesn't have any rape cases either.

Lily: If there is one thing I don't like at all it's Rapists and you know what I do to a rapist? I would snap his fucking neck!

Rita: Lily!

Lily: Sorry mom but it's true. Ebon doesn't like it either.

Me: No one likes it. I call rape a fate worse than death because people have their childhood ruined and destroyed as well as their virginity. It's inhuman that people defile others like that.

Nico: Yeah it's sick!

Eli: Horrible!

Me: I wish we could just kill those monsters for hurting people like that. But May and Lee are still kids and our code won't allow us doing it. So we got to let nature run its course.

Linka: Yeah.

Silver Samurai: Linka, don't you have something to say to Edyn and Jessie?

Linka: I'm sorry guys. I was so overprotective and jealous.

Jessie: Oh it's all right Linka.

Edyn: You didn't mean it Linka.

Gabriel: Also, Agram sent two of his goons to steal some items that I used during my time as a villain.

Hornet Man: Here's the security footage. See if you can identify who's there.

He showed the footage and they were Agram's minions Korag and Zed!

Tony Jones: That's Korag and Zeg.

Me: Those stupid buffoons!? They are still working for him even after how stupid they are and how they fail every time?

Edyn: It's a mystery.

Mumbo Jumbo: You think Agram might use those Akumas the same way Gabriel did before?

Maria: I think it's gonna be much worse then that.

Me: I have a feeling that Agram has something far more sinister planned for them.

Eli: The Force is telling me that he's going to use the powers of all the Akuma's for his own purpose.

Me: Whoa man! But how does he plan to do that? The Akuma Powers were made by Hawk Moth. I don't think he knows anything about what happened when we faced the Akuma on Earth.

Edyn: Sounds like these Akuma were nothing but trouble.

Me: Not entirely Edyn. It was a strange story on that.

I went over what happened during the events of chapter 901.

When I was finished everyone that hadn't heard it was horrified.

Tony Jones: Man that's nuts! But thank goodness you saved all those people.

Strag: But that Lila Rossi has a lot of problems.

Me: Yeah she sure does. Now she's the most hated girl in all of France. She tried to kill the Mayor and Marinette's mom and she got 46 people Akumatized as a result.

Edyn: That's nuts!

Me: Yeah. But thank goodness we were able to save them all. Now Lila is in the Saturn Insane Asylum and Gabriel and Nathalie are redeemed and healed.

Tony Jones: Thank goodness no one got killed.

Me: Yeah we had every ounce of our will power to not go ballistic in that adventure.

Laney: Yeah it was nuts.

Stormy Weather: Bonnie saved me.

Style Queen: And Fire did too.

Me: We have had many awesome adventures.

Eli: We sure did.

Me: Would you all like to see a demonstration of our power with our usual battles?

Tony Jones: We sure would!

Maria: Cool!

Then Swordsman, Cavalier, Shiva, Dark Laser, Deker, Hydros, Dumbbeltron, Black Knight Ghost, Key, and Salami Swami appeared.

Me: Swordsman, Cavalier, Shiva, Dark Laser, Deker, Hydros, Dumbbeltron, Black Knight Ghost, Key, and Salami Swami.

Deker: Looks like we found you guys here.

Me: Yep.

Swordsman: The Moonlands really are beautiful.

Tony Jones: Glad you think so.

Deker: Is Double D's face back to normal?

William: What do you think?

Cavalier: I'm guessing that's a no.

Me: Actually it's a yes. We reversed it back to normal when Linka apologized.

Lady Shiva: (to me) We heard you took down some guys with weapons.

Me: Yep and the guys were really terrorists that were buying powerful railguns from a corrupt group of lawyers.

Dark Laser: Tell me you kept the guns!

Me: We did keep them. The lawyers are all in the Neptune Prison. Sentenced to prison for eternity.

Dark Laser: Good riddance.

Me: Yep.

Then a raven appeared and changed into a woman in black and it was the Grand Banshee!

Me: The Grand Banshee.

Grand Banshee: Its been a long time J.D. You sure have grown into a fine young man.

Me: Its been 15 years.

Grand Banshee: It has been a while. I have a good archenemy for Edyn here.

She snapped her fingers and out came Count Grogan, my old enemy from The Great Ireland Fairy-Leprechaun War.

---

An American businessman, Jack Woods (Randy Quaid), ostensibly wants to spend a calm holiday in the sleepy Irish town Kerry and rents a cottage there. During a hike, he sees Irish beauty Kathleen Fitzpatrick (Orla Brady) swimming naked. Kathleen catches him and chases him off, but Jack is smitten with her beauty. That evening, Jack tries to drown his sorrows in Irish poitín, when he has an encounter with an invisible leprechaun. They struggle for the bottle of poitín, and Jack falls, knocking himself unconscious. The next morning, he sees the little man again and chases him to a nearby river, where the leprechaun falls in. Jack jumps in after him, saving his life (because water is the only thing that can kill the immortal leprechauns), then Seamus Muldoon (Colm Meaney), the saved leprechaun, becomes Jack's new friend. Seamus introduces Jack to his wife Mary (Zoë Wanamaker) and his son, Mickey (Daniel Betts), and shows him the mystical world of the leprechauns.

The "solitary fairies" (which includes leprechauns) love to play tricks on others, especially on the snobbish "trooping" fairies. The leprechauns and the trooping fairies have been enemies for ages, but the Grand Banshee (Whoopi Goldberg) has decreed that they must stop fighting each other. Jack gets used to the little people he shares the house with, because they help him to get to know Kathleen.

Jack offers to drive Kathleen's cart for her in a beach race because she's not allowed to on account of her gender. He wins and convinces Kathleen to take him on a tour of the local environs. While on their walk together, they kiss.

Meanwhile, Mickey, along with his friends Sean Devine (Tony Curran) and the brothers Jericho (Kevin McKidd) and Barney O'Grady (Kieran Culkin) sneak into a masked party in the flying castle of the trooping fairies. There Mickey sees the fairy-princess, Jessica (Caroline Carver), the daughter of the fairy-king Boric (Roger Daltrey) and queen Morag (Harriet Walter). Jessica eventually finds out that Mickey is a leprechaun, but they have already fallen in love. Jessica's hot-headed cousin, Count Grogan (Jonathan Firth), discovers their presence, and the leprechauns flee.

Later Count Grogan seeks out Mickey and attempts to fight with him, but Mickey declines. Sean steps in and battles Count Grogan, eventually losing. The Grand Banshee appears and takes Sean's life as punishment for breaking her decree. Mickey attacks Count Grogan, killing him, too. After Jessica's parents learn that Mickey has killed Count Grogan, they send her with her governess, Lady Margaret (Phyllida Law), to a hidden underwater-castle. Mickey eventually finds her, rescues her, and flies with her to his uncle Sir Aloysius Jantee (Stephen Moore), the butter-fairy. Jessica's parents think Mickey kidnapped her and they start a war with the leprechauns. The Grand Banshee continues to take their lives.

Jack and Kathleen have a problem too, because she finds out that he is in Ireland to buy up homes in Carrick for his company to build a holiday-park. Jack does not want to do that any more (and loses his job because of it), but Kathleen does not believe a word he says.

In the human-world nature starts to collapse: in the summer it starts snowing and there is torrential rain. This happens because the fairies aren't taking care of nature any more because of the war. Jack and Kathleen decide to help Jessica and Mickey to seek out the Grand Banshee and ask her to help them end the war. The Grand Banshee reveals to them that Nature is dying because of the war and if it doesn't stop, soon, everything will be destroyed. She also says she cannot stop the leprechauns and trooping fairies from doing what they really wanted to do.

As the war escalates, Mickey and Jessica decide to do something radical: they obtain a poison from the butter-fairies and threaten to take it if their parents won't stop the war. Their parents took them seriously but were unable to make peace, so they take the poison.

Their bodies are brought before their parents who immediately become distraught. Jack convinces the warring parties to make peace. Both Muldoon and Boric agree. Kathleen immediately rushes to give an antidote to the lovers but an attack-tunnel dug by general Bulstrode (Frank Finlay) collapses. Kathleen brakes her carriage to avoid the pit. The vial with the antidote flies from her hands and breaks. Jack runs to help and falls into the pit, knocking himself out. Kathleen panics until she learns that he's alright. The Grand Banshee says she can still save them, but only if everyone agrees to peace. Eventually they all do. The Grand Banshee then brings back not only Jessica and Mickey, but all of the lost leprechauns and fairies (with the exception of Count Grogan, whom the Grand Banshee decides to keep for a few hundred more years so there wouldn't be trouble caused because of him). In the end Mickey and Jessica marry, Jack and Kathleen are reconciled, and the long-lasting war is finally over.

Me: Count Grogan!

Count Grogan: (British Accent) J.D. Knudson? I that really you?

Me: Yeah it sure is. Last time we faced each other was when I was only 3. It has been 15 years since we last fought.

Nico: How do you know Count Grogan J.D.?

Me: That's a really strange story. I remember it all too well like I was there yesterday. My family and I were on vacation in Ireland back in 2004. And during that time I was caught in the middle of a terrible war between Leprechauns and Fairies. The Grand Banshee warned that if they didn't stop this terrible feud, there would be terrible consequences.

Eli: What kind of consequences?

Me: The Grand Banshee took away their immortality and the feud erupted into a terrible war that nearly shattered the balance of nature. And I know who was to blame for it too. It was all Count Grogan's fault. After the war was over, I told the leaders of the Fairies and Leprechauns that Count Grogan was the driving force behind the bitter battles with fairies and leprechauns. King Boric decided after that, that Count Grogan would be exiled for his crimes and causing war crimes against the Leprechauns that nearly brought both sides to extinction.

Naruto: Man that makes him no better than Danzō.

Me: No kidding there bro. But thank goodness it's over.

Varie: How did the war stop?

Me: With me bringing both sides together in holy matrimony. Seamus Muldoon's son Mickey of the Leprechauns and King Boric's daughter Princess Jessica of the Fairies were married and I told both sides that they love each other and it was thanks to me and bringing both sides together that we ended a war that would've destroyed the delicate balance of nature.

Nico: Wow that's incredible!

Laney: Yeah no kidding! Who would've thought that one fairy's superiority would have lead to both sides nearly being totally destroyed.

Me: I know.

Count Grogan: It would have been fairies to triumph if you hadn't butted in J.D.

Me: Grogan you got to let go of the past. 15 years have passed since then and you got to learn to let things go. The past is the past.

Nico: That's right Grogan. You need to learn from the past and move on.

Me: That's right. The war between Fairies and Leprechauns is over and both sides are now at peace and working together. It took some intense negotiations through me, Mickey and Jessica that we were able to bring the war to an end. Sure we may have been enemies in the past but none of that matters anymore. What's important is to let it go and not make the same mistakes again. Sure it might have been you that started the war, but you need to let it go. The wounds of war may be healed, but the scars will always remain. And we all should know. Because we went through wars too. It's not good and nothing good ever comes from war.

Eli: That's right Grogan. You need to let go of this superiority complex of yours and put aside your differences and work with Leprechauns instead of wanting to kill them.

Varie: Learn how to work together with former enemies and help them out.

Me: Because friendship is one of the key things to get people to work together. Friendship can help many people and bring everyone together.

Grogan realized that I was right and for someone that managed to beat him so easily back all those years ago, he realized that I was wise beyond my years.

Grogan: Oh you are right J.D. I can't believe what a fool I was. I was a total idiot. I let my own superiority cloud my mind to the point of no return. I'm sorry I did all those things J.D.

Me: That's a step in the right direction Grogan.

Grand Banshee: I'm glad you all helped him out J.D. You have come a really long way in just 15 years.

Me: It's not just me. It's all of us. We all have come a long way.

Eli: We sure have.

?: Boy lots of things happened huh?

A figure came out and it was YUZEIKUSU OF ICE AND SNOW from episode 3 of Goseiger!

---

Yuzeikusu was sent down by Mons Drake to freeze Earth; when the Goseiger initially attack him, Mounetries to prove herself to the team by using a special Rockrush combo she had been developing, only to get herself hurt in the attack. Angered, Agri slices a part of Yuzeikusu's wing with his Landick Axe before it gets away, only to reappear to freeze a greater expanse. When the Goseiger appears again, he tries to freeze them until Alata uses a Twistornado card to blow away his ice attacks, opening him to direct attacks. With Agri and Moune working together, they pummel Yuzeikusu with a proper combo prior to the team defeating him with the Gosei Buster.

After Buredoran revives him with Bibi Bugs, the Goseiger send out Gosei Great and withstand more ice attacks. Gosei Black and Gosei Yellow use their Snake and Snake Headders to pummel Yuzeikusu with kicks until destroying him with the Great Strike.

---

Eli: Yuzeikusu of the Japanese Megaforce Rangers!

Yuzeikusu: That's right young Eli.

Eli: You were sent to freeze the Earth.

Yuzeikusu: That's right. You do have a good memory as good as J.D. and Nico.

Eli: It's the Japanese Rangers that I am most familiar with and I too never missed an episode.

Vypra: That's interesting. Your brother sure has been taught well J.D.

Me: Yeah he sure has.

Yuzeikusu saw the Megaforce Rangers.

Yuzeikusu: You guys really do remind of the Goseigers.

Jake: We should! It really was a shame that you weren't adapted.

Me: Yeah what a ripoff! But it looks like you're gonna get your first fight in with the American Version of the Goseiger.

Yuzeikusu: I sure am.

Laney: This is gonna be awesome!

Me: It sure will.

?: YEEHAW ! It sure will.

Another figure came out and it was Drew Daniels A.K.A. TEXAS TWISTER!

---

Drew Daniels was born in Amarillo, Texas. He was working at a cattle ranch when a tornado and radiation from a nearby nuclear reactor affected him at the same time. The net effect was to give him the power to generate tornadoes at will.

Calling himself Texas Twister, he answered a newspaper ad placed by The Wizard to fill a vacancy in the Frightful Four. When he discovered they would not pay him to join, Twister declined membership and instead accepted the offer to join the Super-Agent program being developed by S.H.I.E.L.D. However, two of the four super-agent trainees (Blue Streak and the Vamp) turned out to be traitors and the program was disbanded. Twister decided to use his powers to earn a living and joined Cody's Rodeo Extravaganza. There he met Shooting Star, who became his partner both professionally and personally. Trying to garner publicity for themselves, Star and Twister answered a summons from Rick Jones, seeking the help of The Avengers in containing a rampage by the Hulk. The pair met up with Firebird, Night Rider and Red Wolf, and the five decided to continue to work together as The Rangers. However, because of the geographical separation among the members, the Rangers did not last long.

Shooting Star's identity was at some point taken over by an unnamed demon in the employ of Master Pandemonium, who believed Firebird to be one of the possessors of his fragmented soul. To keep the Rangers from meeting regularly and perhaps posing a threat to him before he had completed his study of Firebird, Pandemonium dispatched the demon to take Shooting Star's place.

Firebird nevertheless believed the demon to be hiding among the Avengers' West Coast branch and with her guidance the Rangers confronted the heroes. This served to bring the demon out of hiding. The demon claimed that Shooting Star was a human guise it had taken long before, that there never was a Victoria Star. The Avengers imprisoned the demon at their Compound and began an investigation of Master Pandemonium. For his own unrevealed reasons, the Texas Twister did not accompany them.

Soon, however, Texas Twister returned to the Avengers Compound at a time when Hawkeye was alone, demanding to see the captive demon. Twister declared his love for the demon, which turned back into Shooting Star. Texas Twister went on to explain that the demon had come to him months ago when Twister's powers seemed to be fading, making him afraid that he'd lose Shooting Star if their rodeo act broke up on account of his lost powers. The demon offered to augment the Twister's powers in exchange for his soul, and the Twister agreed, but after his powers were restored he begged to be spared. The demon then took over Shooting Star instead. The demon proceeded to cast a spell that prevented Twister from telling anyone about this. The spell did not prevent Twister from researching the occult on his own; this is how he found a way to break the demon's original spell.

The demon then possessed Twister himself and battled Hawkeye and Shooting Star. Ultimately, Star threatened to kill the demon rather than allow the possession to continue, and the demon reluctantly imprisoned itself in a statue. Texas Twister and Shooting Star were finally reunited.

Civil War/The Initiative

During the Civil War, Texas Twister was recruited by the Thunderbolts to help round up unregistered superheroes as a way of working off his fines for the public properties he accidentally destroyed when he was drunk.

Weeks after the end of the Civil War, Texas Twister was seen as a member of Texas' new government-sponsored superhero team, the revived Rangers, as part of the 50 States Initiative Program.

Using a floating base called a "Terrorcarrier", HYDRA attacked Crawford, Texas, a vacation spot for the President of the United States. He and his fellow Rangers joined a large group of heroes in attacking the carrier. Texas Twister was injured in the firefight.

Secret Empire

After Steve Rogers revealed himself to be a Hydra sleeper agent and overthrew the United States of America to establish a Hydra Empire, Texas Twister joined the Underground.

---

Me: Drew Daniels A.K.A. Texas Twister!

Texas Twister: That's right pardner. An honor to meet the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: Same here. I take it you joined the Masters of Evil?

Texas Twister: Yes I did. And I chose Joe Shimamura as my archenemy.

Joe Shimamura: Wow! I'm honored.

Then another figure came out and it was THE GRIM REAPER (BCSD)!

Shaggy: ZOINKS! It's the Grim Reaper!

Qin: But it's not the one we know. This is the one from a huge and major international spy ring.

Twilight Sparkle: What happened in that?

Qin: A bunch of spies from all over the world that were after a super top secret computer chip and they dressed up as monsters from their native lands to scare off the passengers of a train so they can search for the chip that was hidden in an artificial flower.

Twilight Sparkle: Man that's crazy!

Qin: Yep and the spies were all arrested and deported back to their own home countries to face trial for their crimes. And They were given sentences ranging from 25 years to Life in Prison and Death.

Twilight Sparkle: Whoa!

Fluttershy: Goodness.

Death: I'll face this version of the Grim Reaper.

Then another figure came out and it was SCOWL!

Nico: Scowl!

Scowl: Nice to see you again Nico.

Nico: I guess you are here for one of us.

Scowl: Yep and I chose Rhinox.

Rhinox: I'm honored.

Eccentro and Bluto then appeared.

Sea: Looks like Eccentro is here for Linka and you are here for me Bluto.

Bluto: Yep.

Suddenly, we heard crazed laughter in the air, and the eight large planets and stars orbing around my legs, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs, the eight large crimson red orbs orbiting around Naruto's legs, and the eight large black orbs with the Eye of Horus orbiting around Cody (OC)'s legs were glowing, and that means big trouble.

Nikiya: I was hoping not to hear that insane cackling again, it's been a long time since we last killed you and The Death Eaters, Bellatrix Lestrange.

Then, a snake made of dark magic descended onto the ground, and the figure that emerged was none other than Bellatrix Lestrange, one of The Death Eaters.

Me: So, you've come back for Round 2, Bellatrix Lestrange. But, now that you're here, I hope you're ready to die again.

Twilight Sparkle: So, that's one of The Death Eaters, one of the followers of Voldemort's followers.

Lincoln: Yep, Bellatrix Lestrange, a dark witch who was sent to Azkaban for her crimes, and she was driven insane, thanks to the Dementors, and she was one of the fanatical followers of Voldemort, and she's a threat to both the Human World and The Wizarding World.

Haiku: I've had enough of you to last an eternity, Bellatrix Lestrange.

Suddenly, Haiku's eyes turned neon crimson red with slits, and she was surrounded by a dark energy aura with vampire bats flying around her, as she approached Bellatrix Lestrange.

Haiku: Bellatrix Lestrange, your crimes against both the human world and The Wizarding World have gone unpunished for far too long. Now, I shall destroy you once and for all, you psychotic deranged witch!

Suddenly, Haiku was surrounded by a massive vortex of dark energy with vampire bats flying around the vortex, dark flames, and a crimson red phoenix was inside the vortex. Then, as the dark energy vortex faded, Haiku emerged, but she was changed forever.

(IMPERATRIX MUNDI PLAYS AT 1:45 TO 2:14)

She had on her Bracelets of The Champions of The Universe with crimson red gems on her wrists and a Belt of Elemental Bravery with large black gem for the belt buckle on her waist, and an Eater of Sins holstered on her right hip. She had a new sword in her hand called The Sword of The Goths of Darkness, it's a sword with the symbol of The Goths of Darkness etched on the 6'5" massive, wide, double-edged black blade, black angel wings for the crossguard, a large red gem for the hilt, a longer black handle, and a large black sphere with surrounding red gems. We were amazed.

Me: WHOA! Linka you look incredible!

Nico: WOW! Linka transformed!

Edd: Oh my lord!

Edd had blood dripping from his nose at the sight of how awesome her transformation looked.

Me: How do you feel Linka?

Linka: (Divine Echoing Cosmic Electrical Voice) I feel amazing guys. This power is more than enough to make Agmar Pay for his crimes.

Nico: It sure will. Wow!

Agram: Cogs, attack!

An army of Cogs appeared.

Tommy Oliver: Cogs!

Linka: Let me reduce their numbers.

Linka fired a massive blast of lightning and electrocuted many of the Cogs all over and then they exploded.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

Nico: WHOA!

Lola: Unbelievable!

Laney: Wow! Way to go Linka!

Me: I'll have my fun with Agram while you guys face the Cogs. I wonder how my Super Angel-Ebonwu-Phoenix-Harmony Infinity Powers affected my Wolf Moon Transformation.

I then combined my Super Angel-Ebonwu-Phoenix-Harmony Infinity Powers with my Wolf Moon Miraculous Powers and they unlocked a new transformation for me! I looked like Wolf Moon but with 10 Wolf Tails and had a dark blue fire aura and had dark blue eyes that were slit. And My scythe had a blue fire blade and I had blue angel wings made entirely out of dark blue fire! I had the kanji for "James Dean Knudson, Leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm, Warrior of Justice and Master of the 12 Elements of Harmony, Master of the 88 Constellations, Fury of the Wolf Moon and Great Friend, Loving Father and awesome Man of Honor and Family."

ジェームズ・ディーン・クヌッドソン、チーム・ラウド・フェニックス・ストームのリーダー、正義の戦士、ハーモニーの12の要素のマスター、88の星座のマスター、ウルフ・ムーンとグレート・フレンドの怒り、愛情深い父と素晴らしい名誉と家族の男。

I had turned into a SUPER ANGEL-EBONWU-PHOENIX-HARMONY INFINITY WOLF MOON ANGEL OF MOONLIGHT JUSTICE!

Nico: WHOA! Look at you J.D. You look awesome!

Me: (Divine Echoing Cosmic Moonlight Voice) I sure do Nico. This power is incredible.

Nico: Amazing! This is gonna be one helluva battle.

Eli: Lets get him guys!

Me: Lets go!

We went at Agram and the Cogs and it was a brutal battle!

Edyn: Ugger, Rootreach!

Ugger sent a bunch of vines and grabbed a bunch of Cogs all over the place and smashed them all over.

I fired blades of moonlight and slashed Agmar all over and he growled and used Bubbler's powers to send bubbles at me and I slashed and popped the bubbles and then I fired blasts of blue fire and burned him all over.

Me: You make me sick Agram! You have tormented so many people here!

Agram: I don't care! I will make everyone suffer here! Including you!

Me: Not if you die first!

I slashed him all over and he used Evillustrators powers and sent a massive barrage of bombs at me and I dodged them and the bombs exploded!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

I fired blasts of blue fire and they hit Agram and exploded all over the place.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMMM!

Strag: Freep, Shell Saw!

Freep spun in a deadly saw blade and slashed numerous Cogs and blew them apart.

Me and Agram clashed powerfully all over and then I kicked him in the face and then Agram used Horrificator's powers and formed a horrifying abomination! IT WAS THE CLOUD NINE MONSTER FROM THE THING!

I slashed it and it bursted into a massive column of blue fire.

Me: That was not cool! Kate Lloyd went through a horrible ordeal with that monster!

I slashed him all over.

He then went invisible with Vanisher's powers.

Me: Nice try Agram.

I activated my infrared vision and found his heat signal.

Me: Peek-a-boo!

I kicked him in the face.

He then fired hate arrows at me with Dark Cupid's powers and they hit me an then my aura flared up with incredible fury and it was like that of an infinite number of Kisenian Blossoms making me more powerful.

Me: Nice try Agram. But I get stronger from hatred. But now I discovered another thing that makes me more powerful than that.

Agram: And what's that?

Me: It's Love.

When I said that word he screamed in pain as if the power of Love was killing him from the inside.

Me: (In my head) WHOA! He's like the Devil!

Tony: Furok, Energy Blast!

Furok fired an energy blast and it hit a bunch of Cogs and blew them apart in a fiery explosion!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

I slashed him in his chest and it caused him to burst into blue fire and he screamed in pain.

He used Timebreaker's powers and fired a time ray and I dodged it and it hit a building and disintegrated it into dust.

Cat Noir: Cataclysm!

Cat Noir fired a wave of black energy and blew many Cogs apart in a massive explosion!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Korg and Zet were shocked by the shear magnitude of our power and they were running away.

Spiderman just webbed up Korg and Zet.

Spiderman: Stick around.

Korg: You can't just leave us here!

Spiderman: You're right. When we're done with your boss, it's off to jail with you two.

Nico: You don't deserve a boss like him.

I slashed Agram and he used Lady Wifi's powers and fired a beam of energy and I spun my scythe fast and deflected the blast back at him and it hit him and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: The Signal reception here is terrible!

Agram: Maybe so but you will still die!

He used Stoneheart's powers and enveloped himself in an armor of rock!

Me: So that's how you want to go. WOLF MOON KAMEHAMEHA!

I fired a Kamehameha Wave made of blue fire and it hit Agram and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion blew the rock armor he had on into dust.

Ladybug: Lucky Charm!

Ladybug used her Lucky Charm and it gave her an Animite.

Ladybug: My own Animite?

Nico: COOL! Go for it Marinette!

Ladybug: WITH THIS ANIMITE, I MAGINE… SQWIK!

She summoned Sqwik, A Paradwyn Magi!

Sqwik: Looks like we're in for some fun!

He was down.

Me: It's over Agram, now it's time for you to face up to your crimes!

I had my scythe ready to slash his head off and end him.

Agram: I'm not done yet. There are still two Akumas left!

Agram grabbed the Akumas, gained Gorizilla and Gigantitan's powers, and grew giant.

He was HUGE!

Nico: OH MAN! We need Zeo Megazord Power!

Tommy Oliver: Lets do it!

They summoned the zords!

Zeo Rangers: Zeo Megazord!

Tony Jones: You are dead Agram!

Far away, Chur was watching.

Chur: Enjoy your victory, Final Dreamers. Because I vow to make you pay for Agram's demise!

?: Music to my ears.

Chur turned and saw Metallo, Eriedrone, and Mr. Mind, in the IronWarHawk armor, there. Eriedrone was the one who spoke.

Chur: Who are you three?

Metallo: Call me Metallo.

Eriedrone: I'm Eriedrone.

Mr. Mind: And I am Mr. Mind.

Chur: Why are you three here?

Mr. Mind: To help you in your revenge against the Final Dreamers.

Metallo: And you can bring any Dream Creatures you have with you.

Chur: Good. Lets go.

Chur was now part of Mr. Mind's team.

---

We regrouped and powered down.

Hydros: Looks like Agram's gone for good.

Ladybug: (looks at her Animite) This is the first time my Lucky Charm has given me an item that stays after the battle.

Dumbbeltron: You should keep that Animite.

Black Knight Ghost: After the battle, you've earned it.

Key: Now we just have to tell Double D's adoring public the bad news.

Salami Swami: (laughs) Bad news for them. But good news for Double D.

Me: Yeah.

We laughed.

Eli: But J.D. socked it to Agram.

Nico: He sure did. Good riddance to that monster.

Me: Yeah. You all did great! Lets head home.

Tony Jones: (To the viewers) This was an awesome and amazingly epic battle and adventure. We now have the power of Magi with all of us and the adventures with Team Loud Phoenix Storm for me and the Moonlands are gonna get more awesome.

Me: They sure are.

We went home and we had a great dinner and went to sleep.

Meanwhile in the year 2108, 87 years into the future, in the floating city of Metro City, we see an awesome robot and his professor dad getting ready for our arrival. It was Toby Tenma A.K.A. Astro Boy and he and his father Dr. Tenma were going to be ready for our arrival to help out with dealing with one of their enemies.

Astro Boy: Dad, I am really excited to have Team Loud Phoenix Storm here.

Dr. Tenma: I am too son. It's gonna be amazing to have them here to help us out in our time of need.

Astro Boy: It sure will be cool and I can't wait for them to meet my friends.

Dr. Tenma: And they can help us out with our problems.

Astro Boy: Yep. Lets fly!

Astro Boy Flew off as a blue flash of light illuminated the room.

THE END!

Another awesome fanfiction done.

This chapter was for the awesome show and card game called Magi-Nation and it was so awesome! I remember the card and it was amazing. The show aired from September 22, 2007 - November 15, 2010 and it was so awesome! I hope you all liked this. The first part of the chapter was for the Arnold Schwarzenegger movie Eraser and that was awesome. The next part was for the 2018 movie The Meg and that was a wicked shark movie. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Drako1234658, Etstheclarencefan, Nflemingful and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas. Thanks guys. The next rescue is gonna be for Sya Hu the White Tiger and me and the Diancie Gene-Slammer are gonna meet her and a Tentacruel Gene-Slammer named Jane Lewis from Australia in the world of I Robot.

Also the next chapter is for the movie from 2009 called Astro Boy and we're going to meet Astro Boy and help him and his dad destroy one of his enemies.

See you all tomorrow.

The Future Robot Hero

Me and Evelyn Stanley the Diancie Gene-Slammer were flying over a future city and it was advanced.

Evelyn Stanley: Wow! This whole city is advanced.

Me: It sure is. Wow.

We flew over it and it was incredible.

Evelyn Stanley: I have a feeling today's going to be very… robotic.

Evelyn concentrated and groaned as a small pink diamond emerged on the back of her head.

Me: I have that same feeling too.

Evelyn turned into Diancie!

Me: YEAH!

We saw that we were in the future and we saw numerous robots. But they all looked really familiar.

Me: Wait a second, I know these robots. They were the very robots from the movie I, Robot!

---

In the year 2035, humanoid robots serve humanity, which is protected by the Three Laws of Robotics. Del Spooner, a homicide detective in the Chicago Police Department, has come to hate and distrust robots after a robot rescued him from a car crash while allowing a 12-year-old girl to drown, based purely on cold logic and odds of survival. When Dr. Alfred Lanning, co-founder of U.S. Robotics (USR), falls to his death from his office window, a message he left behind requests Spooner be assigned to the case. The police declare the death a suicide, but Spooner is skeptical, and Lawrence Robertson, the CEO and other co-founder of USR, reluctantly allows him to investigate.

Accompanied by robopsychologist Dr. Susan Calvin, Spooner consults USR's central artificial intelligence computer, VIKI (Virtual Interactive Kinetic Intelligence). They find that the security footage from inside the office is corrupted, but the exterior footage shows no one entering or exiting since Lanning's death. However, Spooner points out that the window, made of security glass, could not have been broken by the elderly Lanning, and hypothesizes a robot was responsible and may still be in the lab. Suddenly, an NS-5 robot, USR's latest model, attacks them before being apprehended by the police. The robot, Sonny, is a specially built NS-5 with higher-grade materials as well as a secondary processing system that allows him to ignore the Three Laws. Sonny also appears to show emotion and claims to have "dreams". During Spooner's further investigations, he is attacked by a USR demolition robot and two truckloads of hostile NS-5 robots. However, he cannot produce evidence of these, and Spooner's boss Lieutenant Bergin, removes him from active duty, considering him mentally unstable.

Suspecting Robertson is behind everything, Spooner and Calvin sneak into the USR headquarters and interview Sonny. Sonny draws a sketch of what he claims to be a recurring dream: a leader, Spooner, standing atop a small hill before a large group of robots near a decaying Mackinac Bridge. Meanwhile, Spooner finds the area in Sonny's drawing, a dry lake bed formerly Lake Michigan, now being used as a storage area for decommissioned robots. Spooner discovers NS-5 robots destroying the older models, as other NS-5s simultaneously flood the streets of major U.S cities and begin enforcing a curfew and lockdown of the human population.

Spooner and Calvin enter the USR headquarters again and reunite with Sonny while the humans (led by a teenager named Farber) lay out an all-out war against the NS-5s. After the three find Robertson strangled in his office, Spooner suddenly realizes VIKI has been controlling the NS-5s via their persistent network uplink and confronts her. VIKI states that she has determined that humans, if left unchecked, will eventually cause their own extinction, and that her evolved interpretation of the Three Laws requires her to control humanity, and to sacrifice some for the good of the entire race.

Spooner realizes that Lanning anticipated VIKI's plan and, with VIKI keeping him under tight control, had no other solution but to create Sonny, arrange his own death, and leave clues for Spooner to find.

Spooner and Calvin fight the robots inside VIKI's core. Spooner destroys her by injecting nanites Sonny retrieved from Calvin's laboratory into her. All NS-5 robots immediately revert to their default programming and are decommissioned and put into storage. Spooner finally gets Sonny to confess that he killed Lanning, at Lanning's direction. He points out that Sonny, as a machine, could not legally have committed "murder". Sonny, now looking for a new purpose, goes to Lake Michigan. As he stands atop a hill, all the decommissioned robots turn towards him, fulfilling the image in his dream.

Evelyn Diancie: WOW! I love that movie! So we have to destroy that super computer V.I.K.I. What does that stand for again?

Me: It stands for V irtual I nteractive K inetic I ntelligence. This whole city is set in the year 2035. That's 14 years from now. Very awesome. Lets go get her!

We went to face V.I.K.I.!

We busted into a building.

?: Let us help you all out.

We saw a Tiger Girl and a Tentacruel.

Me: Wow! You're a White Tiger.

Sya Hu: I'm Sya Hu and that's right and it's an honor to meet you J.D.

Tentacruel: (Australian Accent) Name's Jane Lewis. Pleasure to meet you mate.

Me: Same here. Pleasure to meet one of our friends in Australia.

Tentacruel: Likewise.

Me: Lets get that bad computer.

We went after VIKI and I uploaded a computer virus into her that destroyed her programming and destroyed her and the Robots she poisoned with her programming were back to normal.

Next I put on my Blind Man glasses and snapped my fingers and reverted Jane back to human and she was naked and Evelyn Diancie reverted back.

Evelyn was human again. But naked.

Evelyn: (covers herself) Jane, wait until you meet Tentacool!

Jane: (Covers herself) I'm sure she is amazing mate.

Sya Hu: But man this was one crazy adventure.

Me: It sure was.

I gave Evelyn her clothes and gave Jane new clothes.

Sya Hu: What are we gonna do with all these robots? They will be locked up and put in storage now that it's all over.

Me: I think I know just what to do with them all.

We decided to put them under our employ and have them work for many of our services in Gotham Royal York and we upgraded them with anti-supercomputer program blockers that prevent them from doing hostile and terrible things to humanity like in many robot movies we know that have them do that.

We went back to the World Tree Estate and Tentacool met Jane.

Tentacool: (to Jane) I sense something inside you. Are you part Tentacruel?

Jane: That's right mate. Got turned into a Tentacruel by those Team Rocket asswipes.

Me: Those dirtbags need to be destroyed.

Tentacool: YAY! I have a friend.

Jane: Glad you think so mate.

After meeting Sya Hu the White Tiger and the two Gene-Slammers, Lincoln, me, Nico, Nicole, Sheila Castille, and Eric Loud were heading into the world of the 2012 movie, Zero Dark Thirty, and not only is Lincoln going to rescue fourteen girls who were sighted there, but we're also going to deal with Osama bin Laden.

Lincoln: Wow, we're in the world of Zero Dark Thirty, and I think I know what we're going to do here: not only are we going to rescue the fourteen girls who were sighted here, but we're also going to deal with Osama bin Laden, and the Taliban extremists here.

Me: That's right, Linc.

Eric Loud: I still can't believe that they made a movie based on Operation: Neptune Spear, the very operation that I was part of.

Sheila Castille: And where you also killed Osama bin Laden, and avenged those souls whose lives were lost on 9/11.

?: Help!

Suddenly, Lincoln heard the sound of fourteen girls calling for help with his superhuman hearing, and with his cyborg eyes and superhuman sight, he saw and heard where the call for help was coming from. He saw fourteen girls, and they were surrounded Osama bin Laden and the Taliban agents, and they had their guns out and were going to kill them.

Lincoln: Those heartless bastards, come on, guys, let's rip them apart.

Lincoln transformed into Super Angel-Ebonwu 500,000,000,000,000 Elemental Supercell Lightning Thunderbird Furious Hyperstorm of Justice and he'd unholstered his Sword of Taranis, and we went after Osama bin Laden and the Taliban agents. Me, Nico, Nicole, Eric Loud, and Sheila Castille were pummeling the Taliban agents, and Lincoln was also pummeling Osama bin Laden, and he slashed off Osama bin Laden's arms with his Sword of Taranis, and he screamed in pain. The terrorists were on their last legs, and they couldn't take it anymore.

Lincoln: (Divine Echoing Elemental Voice of Justice) This is for all those souls who lost their lives on 9/11. TALIBAN GENOCIDE BLAST!

Lincoln used his own version of Majin Buu's Human Genocide Blast, and he fired powerful blasts of neon blue energy, and they hit Osama bin Laden and the Taliban agents, and they were obliterated and Super Hakaied for their crimes. Lincoln holstered his Sword of Taranis, and powered down, and we cheered wildly.

Eric Loud: That was so awesome, Linc.

Lincoln: Thanks, Cousin Eric.

Then, Lincoln and Nicole went up to the girls, and he recognized who they were, they were Alice Tsukagami, Jenny Burtory, and Shina Marvel from Bloody Roar, Sakura Shinguji, Erica Fontaine, and Gemini Sunrise from Sakura Wars, June Lin Milliam from Star Gladiator, Meru from Legend of Dragoon, Regina from Dino Crisis, Morrigan Aensland from Darkstalkers, Pai Chan, Sarah Bryant, Aoi Umenokoji, and Eileen from Virtua Fighter.

Lincoln: Oh wow, it's Alice Tsukagami, Jenny Burtory, Shina Marvel, Sakura Shinguji, Erica Fontaine, Gemini Sunrise, June Lin Milliam, Meru, Regina, Morrigan Aensland, Pai Chan, Sarah Bryant, Aou Umenokoji, and Eileen.

Nicole: From Bloody Roar, Sakura Wars, Star Gladiator, Legend of Dragoon, Dino Crisis, and Virtua Fighter, and Morrigan is also from Darkstalkers, awesome.

Hsien-Ko and Felicia were surprised to find out that Morrigan Aensland was also here.

Hsien-Ko: Morrigan's also here? This is a surprise.

Felicia: Incredible.

Lincoln: Are you girls okay?

Morrigan Aensland: (Scottish Accent) We're okay, lad. Thank you for rescuing us from those terrorists.

But, when Morrigan Aensland and the other thirteen girls saw who it was that rescued them from Osama bin Laden and the Taliban agents, their faces lit up like red Christmas lights upon seeing the 7'0" tall, handsome, white-haired, bare-chested hunk with abnormally large and powerful muscles, eight-pack abs, a lightning bolt cutie mark with the thunderbird and comic books on his right massive pec and surrounded by the symbols of Fire, Water, Ice, Wind, Earth, Nature, Light, and Darkness in a circle, a Celtic Cross cutie mark tattoo in the form of the cutie marks of Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer, Rainbow Dash, Applejack, Rarity, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy, Starlight Glimmer, and Trixie Lulamoon and in a circle are the other girls in Lincoln's harem with the Earth surrounded by the ring of mermaids, a deep sapphire blue kanji on his wider muscular back that said "Lincoln Landon Loud, Champion of Lightning, Master of Lightning Storms and The Weather, Emissary of Hinon, Golden-Hearted Brother of 16 Siblings, and Golden-Hearted Lover, Father, and Husband", and he had deep sapphire blue eyes.

Morrigan Aensland: (Scottish Accent) Oh wow, you're Lincoln Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Lincoln: That's right, and it's a pleasure to meet you all.

Lincoln made thirteen clones of himself, and they went up to the other thirteen girls, while Lincoln was with Morrigan Aensland, and they picked them up and hugged them in his abnormally large and powerful muscular arms, and he kissed them on the lips, which they've returned with equally intense passion, as they wrapped their arms around the necks of Lincoln and his clones. We cheered over the scene, and the girls in Lincoln's harem are going to like their new sisters to their future husband's harem.

Morrigan Aensland: (Scottish Accent) You too, handsome, and it's also good to see you and Felicia here, Hsien-Ko.

Hsien-Ko: Yeah, we were kidnapped by McWolf on two separate occasions, and Lincoln rescued us from McWolf.

Felicia: And now, we're part of his harem of future wives, and you'll like meeting your new sisters, Morrigan.

We went back home, and the rest of us cheered because of what Lincoln did, and Natilee was honored to meet someone of Scottish descent.

---

After the rescue and another intense workout, we were on our way to McWolf's castle in Paris, France. We got a call from Vypra, and we knew right then and there, it was serious. We arrived in Paris, and we were greeted by Vypra.

Vypra: Glad you guys could make it, come on inside.

We went inside the castle, and we saw rows of talisman cards all over the four walls of the castle, and this was strange. But, when McWolf turned on the lights, we saw who were beaten really badly and shackled by McWolf's Chains of Torment, and it's a group of villains who we haven't faced off against and some who we've killed, but cheated death.

The villains were none other than Praxina, Mephisto, The Sound Four, The TTG Titans, Gigano Dragon, The Caped Cod and The Seal of Approval, Cooler, Night Master, Nui Harime, Samukai, and Azald. We were also shocked to see Praxina, Mephisto, The Sound Four, Night Master, and Gigano Dragon were now back from the dead, and The TTG Titans were busted out from prison.

Me: Praxina, Mephisto, and Gigano Dragon!

Tayuya: The Sound Four!

Robin: The TTG Titans!

Yin and Yang: And Night Master!

Me: These are villains that we haven't faced before, and some of them are villains that we've killed, and were either banished to The Warp, Super Hakaied, and/or thrown in prison.

Vypra: We found out that Praxina and Mephisto had survived their deaths, along with The Sound Four, Night Master, and Gigano Dragon, and they busted the TTG Titans out of prison. So, McWolf built a massive castle here in Paris, France, and we'd put up a massive number of talisman cards on the walls, and once they activated, they pulled Praxina, Mephisto, The Sound Four, The TTG Titans and Gigano Dragon and Night Master, closed the massive portal, destroyed all of their powers, and we brutally pummeled them, and McWolf chained them up with his Chains of Torment, and when he'd injected a powerful truth serum into Mephisto's neck, we found out something very disturbing.

McWolf: We found out they've allied with another villain you guys destroyed long ago, who's planning to make his move after we pummel Mr. Mind and his group.

Nico: Whoa, who is it?

McWolf: It's Zero, Ash Ketcham's old enemy. We found out that he survived being Super Hakaied, and a part of his soul survived inside the IronWarHawk armor, the desire to destroy everything. We found out from Mephisto that Zero's planning to open a dimensional rift, so he and the rest of those villains here in this castle can destroy the omniverse. But, to do so, he needs to merge 23 pure evil souls with the IronWarHawk armor, in order to do so, which'll transform him into a gigantic 23-headed demonic dragon.

We gasped in horror and shock after what McWolf told us. Lincoln found out who those 23 pure evil souls are.

Lincoln: By 23 pure evil souls, that's Mr. Mind and his group.

McWolf: Exactly.

Leni: But, if we get rid of Zero's group here and now, we'll have more of an advantage when we go to war against Mr. Mind and his group. And I've had it up to hear with Praxina and Mephisto to last an eternity.

Suddenly, Leni's eyes turned neon purple, and she was surrounded by a purple energy aura with stars and gravity lightning, as she unholstered her Sword of King Ghidorah from her back.

Leni: Praxina, you and your equally vengeance-crazed brother just couldn't stay dead, could you? But, to make matters worse, the both of you and the other villains we killed cheated death, and that's an unforgivable sin. This time, we're going to put you all down, once and for all!

Then, Leni was surrounded by a massive vortex of purple energy with purple gravity lightning and stars with King Ghidorah flying around the vortex, and a purple phoenix in the vortex. Then, as the vortex faded, Leni emerged, but she was changed forever.

Leni's 6'0" physical appearance was still the same, but her long blond hair was tied up in a ponytail, her eyes were neon purple, she had a purple energy aura with stars and gravity lightning, she had on a pair of King Ghidorah earrings with the Star Kanji in its claws, and she also had on a King Ghidorah necklace with the Star Kanji in its claws on her neck, she now has King Ghidorah with the angel wings on its stomach emblazoned on her forehead, she has on a sleeveless dark purple blouse with stars and a light purple phoenix, a purple skirt with stars, and black leather combat boots. She has on her Bracelets of The Champions of The Universe with purple gems on her wrists and her Belt of Elemental Bravery with large purple gem for the belt buckle on her waist, she has her Eater of Sins revolver holstered on her right hip, and the blade of her Sword of King Ghidorah grew to 6'5" in length. She has on a pair of weighted purple bands on her biceps and thighs, just like Lincoln, and she has on a dark purple sleeveless trenchcoat with King Ghidorah on the back and stars and gravity lightning. There was a kanji on the back that says, "Leni Loud, Second Eldest Sister of Lincoln Loud, Golden-Hearted Fashionista Expert of Michigan, Emissary of King Ghidorah, and Master of Gravity and The Stars" Leni has now transformed into SUPER ANGEL 500,000,000,000,000 STELLAR STORM DIVINE GRAVITY ANGEL OF LOVE!

We were definitely amazed by Leni's transformation, and even Ed was blushing when he saw Leni's transformation, and that also angered the chained-up villains to no end.

Me: Whoa, Leni's transformed, awesome.

Ed: Yeah. Leni, how do you feel?

Leni: (Divine Echoing Stellar Voice of Love) I feel incredible, Ed, and now, let's tear those bastards apart, and that'll really piss Zero off.

Lori: (Cracks Knuckles and Smiles) Oh, I like that idea already, Leni.

We transformed and got out our weapons and we went after the chained-up Praxina, Mephisto, The Sound Four, The TTG Titans, Gigano Dragon, Night Master, and we fired powerful elemental blasts and energy blasts at them, and we slashed them badly with our sharp weapons, and even disemboweled some of them, and we slashed off their arms, causing them to scream in excruciating pain, and blood to gush out.

Lincoln fired an electromagnetic blast at them, which caused them to come together, and they couldn't move.

Leni: (Divine Echoing Stellar Voice of Love) Nice one, Linky, now to put an end to them once and for all. STELLAR STYLE NINJA ART: DIVINE STELLAR DRAGON RASENSHURIKEN!

Leni formed a massive Rasenshuriken made of purple energy with stars and flying around the white core is King Ghidorah. Leni threw the massive Rasenshuriken at the trapped villains, and as it hits the chained-up Praxina, Mephisto, The Sound Four, The TTG Titans and Gigano Dragon and it exploded with such incredible power, and not only were they killed once again, their spirits were Super Hakaied forever.

Leni powered down, and her eyes changed back to normal, but her new body, jewelry, clothes, and weapons were permanent, and she holstered her new and improved Sword of King Ghidorah on her back.

Leni: Good riddance.

We left the castle, and we're now aware that Zero is still alive, and is inhabiting the IronWarHawk suit, and he's waiting to make his move. But, we'll be ready for him, but this time, we'll make sure he never cheats death again, and his crazed desire to destroy the omniverse will be reduced to ashes.

* * *

Later we were in Jasper, Nevada.

Nico: Welcome to Jasper, Nevada, guys.

Knight Man: So this is where the Cybertronian Wars on this Earth took place.

Nico: Yep and it was a brutal and incredibly merciless battle. Hard to imagine that it all went down here.

Aligned Bumblebee: Yeah it was a terrible series of battles.

Aligned Bulkhead: But thank goodness we stopped Unicron from destroying the world.

Me: It's hard to imagine that the Aligned version of Unicron was in the core of Earth and the one we faced was floating through space.

Then a sports car pulled up and out came Aligned Vince!

Nico: Oh great.

Aligned Vince: Hey, Chan! You and your robot freak friends cost me my car!

Nico: Hey, you only have yourself to blame for that, Vince. I didn't do a thing.

Aligned Vince: Like hell you didn't! You destroyed my car, made me loose the best hobby I've ever had, and then you got me arrested with community service!

Olive: Nico, who the Hell is this?

Nico: His name is Vince and he's a total fucking asshole that hates Jack Darby with a vengeance. I smashed up his car in the race and Jack won it fair and square.

Eli: What a freak!

Vince: So this is the Vince you told us about.

Me: What a fuckpot lunatic!

Aligned Vince took out a gun and aimed it at the Aligned Autobots and the mascots.

Overbite: Okay, Vince! You've completely gone too far this time!

Aligned Vince: No! I haven't gone far enough! The Earth is for humans only. Robotic tin cans like you aren't welcome here (to the mascots) Neither are you puny freaks!

Leif: Hey, jerk! Just because they're not human doesn't mean they're not people like you and me!

Aligned Vince: (points gun at him) Tough words, kid. Maybe you'd like to die first and I'll put them on your tombstone! (pulls trigger)

Eli used the Force and had the gun come out of his hand and then…

BANG!

Eli shot Aligned Vince in the leg and he was screaming in pain!

Eli then had the gun come to him so he could use it for his own.

Nico: You have no honor Vince and for that we should just kill you right now. But we won't. Show no mercy on him guys.

Me: Start praying. (Cracks knuckles)

Aligned Vince then went up to Lori.

Vince: (to Lori) Maybe you'd like to hang with me instead of these losers! (slaps Lori on the ass)

SLAP!

Lori: WHOA! In your fucking dreams fuckwad! I'm already married!

POW!

Lori punched him in the face and sent him crashing into the side of his car.

Nico: YEAH!

Eli: Nice one Lori.

Nico: (to Aligned Vince) I warned you what was going to happen the next time you tried anything with J.D. here, Vince. Your fate's completely out of my hands now.

Broadside: And we're proud of you for being the better man.

Nico: Thanks Broadside.

Me: Lets get him guys.

Eli: Leave this to me. Sea can I have a can of spinach?

Sea: You got it Eli.

Sea pulled out a can of spinach and gave it to him and Eli popped it open and ate the spinache.

GULP! BOING! DING!

Eli flexed his muscles and in his biceps was the Death Star Exploding!

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Eli went and pulverized the living shit out of Aligned Vince and really mangled him up and smashed him to pulp.

Olive: GIVE IT TO HIM ELI! GIVE HIM THE TWISTER PUNCH!

Eli twisted his arm.

Eli: Coming right up Olive.

He punched Aligned Vince and spun him around and gave him a nasty friction burn in the ground and his back was bleeding bad. Then Eli kicked Aligned Vince in the crotch and he let out a high pitched girl scream as we winced and then Eli punched him and sent him flying and Aligned Vince crashed through the roof window of a hospital and he landed in a bed in a full body cast!

Aligned Vince: (Crying) WHY ME!?

Miko: Woohoo! Vince finally got his just desserts!

Aligned Bulkhead: (annoyed) And it only took so many years for it to happen.

Me: But the bastard had it coming.

Miko: Yeah. Where did Eli learn how to fight like that though?

Me: Who do you think taught him everything he knows?

Miko: Wow! You taught him all that?

Me: My caveman self did before our universes merged.

J.D. 3: Yep it's true. I have over 75,000 years of experiences in me and he knows all my moves and more.

Miko: Wow!

Jack Darby: Lori, are you okay? I understand if you're shaken up after Vince sexually harassed you.

Lori: I'm all right. But thanks for your concern Jack.

Jack Darby: You're welcome.

Laney: That monster had it coming. I think Eli broke practically every single bone in his body.

Nico: That would be nice. Huh?

Me: What is it Nico?

Nico: I see a small and strange purple light coming from that room.

We saw it and it was ominous looking.

Eli: Wonder what it is.

Me: Lets go see.

We walked into the room and we saw a sword with a strange glowing purple blade.

Me: Whoa what is that!?

Nico: Oh man! That must be the Dark Star Saber!

Me: Whoa and it has a blade made of pure Dark Energon.

Eli: Scary.

Lola: Wow! That sword looks dangerous!

Nico: I heard that Starscream used it before after Megatron left.

Aligned Megatron was about to reach for the Dark Star Saber but then pulled his hand back.

Aligned Breakdown: You're not going to use the Dark Star Saber again, Megatron? Knock Out told me about how you liked wielding it.

Aligned Megatron: I've had my fun with the Dark Star Saber. Someone else can wield it. Besides, it killed me the first time.

Nico: I heard about that and I think I know just the right person for it.

Nico called in Dark Spicer.

Dark Spicer: So you want me to be the wielder of the Dark Star Saber?

Nico: Yep and since I'm the leader of the Decepticons for Team Loud Phoenix Storm, the Dark Star Saber and the honor of being Leader for the Decepticons should go to you Dark.

Dark Spicer: Wow! I would be honored.

Dark went up to the Dark Star Saber and he grabbed the handle and pulled it out and he had the sword!

Nico: WHOA!

Eddy: YEAH! Way to go Dark!

Dark Spicer: (to Eddy) I may or may not use this the next time I'm in the usual battles.

Eddy: That's fine with me. But you can still kick some butt with it in our big adventures.

Me: That's right Dark. The Dark Star Saber will slaughter your enemies with it.

Dark Spicer: Thanks man. Also Eli way to sock it to that Vince jerk.

Eli: Thanks Dark.

We later went back home.

---

We were getting ready for our next mission.

2D Man: Nico, with everything that happened today so far, I hope you haven't forgotten that it's your turn to lead today. Assuming that we have a mission.

Nico: Don't worry I haven't.

Poromon: I think I know the perfect one.

Nico: What is it Poromon?

Poromon: Lets go to the world of Astro Boy.

Me: Wow! That's one of the iconic Japanese Superhero Comics from the 1960's.

Nico: I know the movie and those comics all too well. They were awesome!

Eli: I love Astro Boy.

Arrietty: I heard about Astro Boy when we lived in Japan. It was amazing.

Nico: Yep. Poromon did you meet Astro Boy a while back?

Poromon: I sure did. It was back when we were fighting the King of Toys in the world of Toy Story. Astro Boy thrashed Young Xehanort and held him off for us while you all were facing the King of Toys Heartless.

Nico: Wow! That explains what Young Xehanort meant in the war. He was defeated by Astro Boy the first time.

Me: Wow! We owe Astro Boy big time for helping us out.

Eli: Boy we sure do.

Varie: This is gonna be amazing.

Salami Swami, Swordsman, Cavalier, Shiva, Dark Laser, Deker, Hydros, Dumbbeltron, Black Knight Ghost, and Key then appeared.

Salami Swami: (Hindu Accent) Can me, Swordsman, Cavalier, Shiva, Dark Laser, Deker, Hydros, Dumbbeltron, Black Knight Ghost, and Key go with you guys?

Nico: You all sure can and it's my turn to lead. Better call everyone in. (Pulls out bugle and plays Reville)

Everyone gathered and we stood in lines.

Nico: ATTEN-TION!

We stood in attention.

Nico: ALL RIGHT MAGGOTS LISTEN UP! We're going into the world of Astro Boy from 2009. We're gonna go into the year 2108 and meet one of the most iconic heroes of Japanese Comics. I have a feeling I know what we're going there for and it's gonna be big. Before we leave, I have one rule for all you new people. Everyone does their jobs and no one quits. You don't do your job, you will be sent back here to the estate for the remainder of the mission. Do you get me!?

Everyone: WE GET YOU SIR!

Nico: Welcome to the Roughnecks!

Me: NICO'S ROUGHNECKS!

Everyone: (SPARTAN GRUNT)

Nico: At ease everyone! We leave in 5 minutes so gather all you can for the mission. Dismissed!

Me: Lets kick the tires and light the fires Commander.

We got ready and we opened a portal and we were off to the year 2108.

METRO CITY - 2108.

We arrived in Metro City and we were in the year 2108.

Sea Clamp: So, this is where Astro Boy lives?

Nico: Yep. Welcome to Metro City in the year 2108.

Eli: 87 years into the future.

Arrietty: Wow! Everything is so technologically advanced.

Laney: It sure is. This whole place is really amazing.

Me: You should've seen what it was like in the world of I, Robot. Not nearly as advanced as this.

Lola: Or in the world of Lost in Space. That was something.

Nico: Both those worlds were advanced. But there are MANY movies that have technology that's far more advanced than this. Lets find Astro Boy.

We followed Nico.

Arrietty: J.D. what's the most technologically advanced world you've ever seen?

Me: Oh that's a tough one. But I would have to say the world of Treasure Planet. That one took place 34,000 years into the future.

Arrietty: Wow! That's incredible!

Eli: I remember seeing that. That was so awesome.

We then saw Astro Boy.

Me: That's him.

Swordsman: Poromon, why don't you greet Astro Boy first?

Poromon: Good idea.

Poromon flew over and pretended to be a toy.

Astro Boy saw him and recognized him immediately.

Astro Boy: Poromon, is that you?

Poromon: I was hoping I would be a toy first.

Astro Boy: Wow! It's awesome to have you here.

We came out.

Nico: Nice that you met Poromon.

Astro Boy: Team Loud Phoenix Storm! Wow! It's awesome having you all here.

Nico: An honor to meet you Astro Boy. Or do you prefer being called Toby?

Astro Boy: Either one is good.

Me: It's an honor to meet the famous iconic Japanese Comic Hero.

Nico: You are a huge hit over in Japan.

Astro Boy: I'm honored.

Me: Yep.

Astro Boy: Thanks for keeping my involvement a secret, Poromon.

Poromon: Anytime.

Ramjet: How did it feel being in a world of toys?

Astro Boy: It was really cool.

Nico: It sure was. Also we owe you one for warding off Young Xehanort.

Astro Boy: You're welcome Nico. Did you guys destroy him?

Nico: We sure did. There was a huge war on August 2nd and it was massive.

Eli: One of the most epic battles we've ever had.

Varie: Yeah.

Cavalier: Perhaps you can show us around your home.

Astro Boy: Sure thing.

We walked around Metro City and even Astro Boy's lab where his dad Dr. Tenma works and it was amazing.

We met his dad Dr. Tenma.

Seawing: You must be Astro Boy's dad.

Dr. Tenma: That's right. Dr. Tenma at your service and it's an honor to have the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm here.

Nico: Pleasure is ours doctor. It's amazing how you did all this for so many people here.

Dr. Tenma: I just do what I can for the greater good.

Deker: Astro Boy, if you don't mind us asking, how did you become the way you are today?

Astro Boy: My body was destroyed when the Peacekeeper accidentally ran amok and dad made me into an awesome robot.

Nico: Oh man that's terrible. But you look even more amazing as a robot.

Mega Man: I agree with Nico on that. You and I have a lot of amazing qualities. I gave up my humanity to be the robot defender of the world.

Roll: Same with me.

Nicole: It's true.

Astro Boy: Wow!

Flywheels: Peacekeeper? Is that supposed to be a robotic cop?

Astro Boy: It's actually a military android.

He told us all about it.

---

The Peacekeeper is a military android powered by the mysterious "Red Core" energy orb. It was commissioned by President Stone, and built by the Metro City Ministry of Science under Dr. Tenma's direction. Peacekeeper is an extremely powerful experimental robot, containing "Adaptive Technology" that lets it absorb other objects. However, it is highly unpredictable, and its malfunctioning power kills Toby Tenma. Peacekeeper appears in the 2009 Astro Boy film.

At the beginning of Astro Boy (2009), Peacekeeper is being completed at the Ministry of Science. President Stone and his bodyguards meet with Dr. Tenma to discuss the Peacekeeper's progress. Stone approves of the Peacekeeper, but rejects Dr. Elefun's suggestion that it run on the Blue Core's positive energy. Instead, Stone chooses the Red Core, albeit for ridiculous reasons; he describes how "women voters are partial to the colour red" and how he wants "a lover, not a fighter."

Against the Ministry's scientists' objections, the Red Core is placed into the Peacekeeper. The Peacekeeper immediately begins to rampage until it is trapped in a force field. It takes no notice of the fact that Toby Tenma is also trapped in the force field, and Peacekeeper instinctively fires its arm cannon at the field. The ensuing blast knocks out Peacekeeper but incinerates Toby. Peacekeeper is set aside for repairs while Dr. Tenma builds a robot version of his late son.

Peacekeeper remains dormant until President Stone reactivates it, hoping to use it to apprehend Astro. Peacekeeper still contains the Red Core, and it still refuses to take orders. Stone attempts to force the robot to listen to him, but it absorbs him instead. Stone and Peacekeeper merge into one entity with Stone taking control of its body. The megalomanical "Stonekeeper" begins to absorb the Ministry equipment around him, before bursting out of the building and terrorizing a political press conference.

Stonekeeper rampages through Metro City. He searches for Astro so they can fight, and attempts to leave to go down to the surface world. Astro tries to battle Stonekeeper, but the only thing that can stop Peacekeeper for good is to bring the Blue Core near his Red Core. Astro is willing to give his life to save the inhabitants of Metro City, so he flies directly into Stonekeeper, and overloads its systems with the Blue Core. Astro and President Stone both survived the ordeal with the latter being arrested for the destruction he had caused.

Video game

In the video game adaptation of the Astro Boy film, Peacekeeper appears as a reoccurring boss throughout the game. He is the boss of World 4, a slightly larger mini-boss in World 5, and the game's final boss in his mechanical monster form.

---

When he was finished we were shocked.

Nico: Whoa man! That is one powerful robot.

Eli: I didn't think a robot like that could have that much power.

Laney: Yeah.

Key: So, the Blue Core ended up inside of you?

Astro Boy: That's right.

Nico: What is this Blue Core?

Astro Boy showed us his power core and it was a Blue Energy Core.

Me: (Whistles) That is a powerful energy source.

Nico: What exactly was it designed for?

Astro Boy: It was to replace nuclear energy.

He told us all about it.

---

Blue Core is one of the two cores that appeared in Astro boy (2009 movie). The Blue Core contains stable and positive energy that could potentially restore Earth's damaged ecosystems. The energy produced by the core is seemingly infinite, and is both stronger and cleaner than nuclear energy. Due to it's nature for containing positive energy, The Peacekeeper would become a peaceful robot if it had the Blue Core loaded into its body (a fact that indirectly confirmed when it loaded on Astro's body instead that made him a peaceful individual). It is what powers Astro in the 2009 film.

Blue Core, along with the Red Core, are created from the fragment of a star that located millions of Light-years away from planet Earth that no longer exists in the present. It's not mentioned how the cores' material acquired, either gained through expedition to the outer space or the material itself fell on Earth as a meteor before the scientist examined it and discovered it's nature as star fragment. Either way, the energy that gained from the star fragment has properly harnessed and encased within spherical cores.

During the extraction process, it's revealed that the energy within the star fragment consists of bluish white positive energy and the reddish jet-black negative energy. Both energies have negative reactions to one another due to their opposing properties, the blue energy being stable and revitalizing and the red energy being volatile and destructive. This was discovered when the positive energy extracted completely from the star fragment, left the fragment nothing but highly unstable and corruptive red energy. Due to the opposing nature of both types of energy, they were extracted into two separate cores to prevent a potentially hazardous reaction.

As seen from Dr. Elefun's presentation, the Blue Core has the potential to revive the already collapsed ecosystems on earth. Though it's exact potential was unknown, it's also revealed that Blue Core Energy can not only power up inactive machines, but also repair both internal and external damage done to them: this rejuvenating effect was demonstrated when Astro revived Zog, a huge robot that has been deactivated for years. The Blue Core energy also the only thing that can stop anything that empowered by it's corruptive counterpart, the Red Core, due to it's opposing properties.

---

When he was done we were shocked and amazed.

Nico: Wow that's incredible!

Dexter: That is in every way like the energies of the Neurotomic Protocore.

Nico: Just what I was thinking. It's very similar to it except without the neurological energy empowering capabilities.

Me: Yeah so amazing.

Nico: Sorry your body got destroyed.

Leif: You might be a robot now but you're still a person.

Sunny Flare: (smiles) Those are very warm words, Leif.

Me: They sure are and we agree with him.

Nico: You got that right Colonel. Even though you are a robot Astro Boy, you are still human on the inside. Just like Mega Man and Roll are still human too.

Eli: That's right.

Dark Laser: Earlier this morning, Leif was very brave standing up for non human people against this bully named Vince. And he has the right idea. I mean, look at Flipsy. He's not human and yet, he still counts as a person. (To Flipsy) Right, Flipsy?

Flipsy barked and flipped.

Nico: It's true and that shows that like his female counterpart, Leif is full of hope.

Livewire: But there are other people that hate others who aren't human.

Astro Boy: Like who?

Me: Many people. And many monsters that we despise.

Nico: Yeah. Xenophobic monsters and beings that want to exile people different from Human.

Hydros: Heck, there were these mutant hunting robots called Sentinels which are probably similar to the Peacekeeper.

Nico: That's right and they were built by Trask. He hated all Mutants with a vengeance and now he's locked up in prison for good.

Laney: Good riddance.

Eli: Yeah what a fiend.

Hook: What about you, Astro Boy? Do you have any people who hate you for being a robot?

Astro Boy: No I don't. They are my friends down on the surface. Zane, Sludge, Widget, Cora, Sparx, Robotsky, and Mike the Fridge. They are my friends in the Robot Revolutionary Front.

Nico: Wow!

Black Knight Ghost: But I can tell you still have some enemies.

Astro: Yes we do. The worst of them all is President Stone.

Me: What can you tell us about him?

Astro Boy: Well it's not pretty.

He told us about him and it wasn't good.

President Dufus Stone is the main antagonist of the 2009 sci-fi animated film Astro Boy.

He is the corrupt president of Metro City who seeks to get re-elected by threatening a war against the Surface-Dwellers to stay in power. In doing so, he commissioned a powerful robot called the Peacekeeper to "protect" the city from a possible attack from the surface world.

He was voiced by Donald Sutherland, who also portrayed President Coriolanus Snow in the The Hunger Games franchise and Donald McClintock in Outbreak. In the videogame adaptation of the film, he was voiced by Fred Tatasciore and Corey Burton.

Plans for Re-election

Throughout the film, Stone is shown to be concerned with only one thing: to win the upcoming Presidential Election. He is even willing to wage a war against the Surface Dwellers to boost his popularity.

Toby's Death and Astro's Birth

During a demonstration of the Peacekeeper, a new robot designed to protect Metro City, Stone becomes intrigued by the space components, the Blue and Red Energy Cores. He shows a degree of disgust with Doctor Packadermus Elefun's idea in restoring the surface world as he only prefers the life of those in Metro City. He demands the Red Core (the negative one) be placed in the Peacekeeper for the demonstration, which inadvertently results in the death of Toby Tenma by the robot attempting to destroy the barrier through disintegration.

Following Toby's death, Stone believes that the Cores were destroyed while he giving cold shoulder over the consequence of actions (or at least that has seemed). However, one night he discovers that Doctor Bill Tenma made an AI robot replacement of Toby, powered by the Blue Core. Stone then ordered the robot boy's capture with flying shuttles utilizing suction tubes, leading to a chase around Metro City which resulted in property damage and accidentally capturing a dog and a woman about to propose; despite trying to fight back, the new Toby (later renamed "Astro") is ejected from the floating Metro City down to the Surface by the "Spirit of Freedom" flagship blasting missiles onto him.

However, seeing the robot falling with the Blue Core, Stone goes to Tenma's home and demands his guards arrest Tenma and his assistant Dr. Elefun for creating Astro and hiding the Core's existence from him. However, Tenma promises to give the Core to Stone after he retrieves Astro.

Rediscovering Astro

Later in the film, Stone arrives in his shuttle at the Robot Fighting Ring run by Hamegg, where he and his troops capture Astro. On the way back to Metro City, Stone mockingly offers Astro a "drink" of motor oil and brags of his plans to use the Peacekeeper to wage a war against the Surface to win the Election, wanting to boost up his ratings after losing ground to his political opponent, Robert Logan.

Tenma's Betrayal and Merging with the Peacekeeper

Astro agrees to be shut down, apologizing to Tenma. As Tenma gives up the core to Stone, he tells him that he'll have the funding to build toys once the former is re-elected. However, Tenma, tells Stone that he will have to be killed once Stone has the Blue Core; as soldiers prepare to kill Tenma, Elefun protests that he created the core so he will be killed instead. As Stone demands Elefun to hand over the Blue Core, Tenma, realizing that Astro is still his son, reactivates him, allowing him to escape. Enraged, Stone orders Tenma and Elefun arrested and shot for treason before loading the Red Core into the Peacekeeper, reactivating it. However, the Peacekeeper absorbs Stone, allowing Stone to take control of the Peacekeeper's body and releases his true, diabolical self. After scaring off most of the personnel at the Ministry of Science, Stone accidentally scares off an entire press conference he was supposed to go to. Stone proceeded to rampage through the city, growing in size, as he absorbed weapons and entire buildings to lure Astro out. Astro was prompted to engage Stone in battle upon sees his rampage. During the battle, Astro Boy used arm cannons to attack him, before managing to lift and throw him to a nearby building like a judo wrestler. Angered, Stone began to become more powerful as he clung on two buildings. However, Astro tricks Stone by having him destroy a building, only for the building to crush Stone instead. He still survives, though, as he grabs Astro by the hand in an attempt to kill him after the latter thanked the people for being saved.

As Stone began to eat him, guns begin to activate from Astro's behind and damage one of the eyes of the robot, resulting in him throwing off Astro in pain. Astro began to recover and discovered he had "machine guns in my butt?!" However, Stone lifts a building and flings off Astro like a baseball bat, causing him to crash into several other buildings before landing on the road, weakened. As Stone continued to rampage the city, he attempted to crush Astro. However, Cora, Zane, Sludge, Widget, and Trashcan (who have known about the attack) come to the rescue and save Astro. Stone then attempted to kill them, but ran over and destroyed a power station causing Metro City to fall and resulting Astro attempting to save it. Just as Metro City was saved, Stone was distracted by the presence of the Robot Revolutionary Front (a robot liberating group that Astro met earlier in the movie), who demands him to cease attacking Astro as the laws of robotics say that a robot can't harm a human.

Battle and Defeat

Stone then taunted Astro, telling him to come out since he knows the latter is alive. As Astro came out of the rubble, he then put a metal barrier in the robot's face. Astro then proceeded to punch the robot's face before attempting to escape. In the battle that ensued, Stone was briefly able to detain Astro and attempted to absorb him, but the resulting merging causes both of them agony. Tenma explains to Astro that the merging of the two Cores would destroy both of them. Stone captures Astro's friends and threatens to kill them unless they tell him the location of Astro,. As Tenma is about to take Astro away to their limousine, Astro tells Tenma his destiny; he was created to save Metro City and bids another goodbye to Tenma, saying "onward and upward". Stone prepares for battle, but realizes that Astro intends to sacrifice himself by merging with the Red Core. Before Stone can stop him, Astro flies into the Red Core, destroying the Peacekeeper and seemingly himself in the process.

However, Stone survived the battle, though he was returned to his human form. After awakening from a pile of rubble following the destruction of the Peacekeeper, Stone, apparently has gone insane due to the effect of the core, tries to shoot the the out-lookers in a childish manner with imaginative guns. However, Grace, a little girl from the Surface, kicks President Stone in the leg (presumably as payback for him endangering her friends). Angered, Stone complains that he got kicked by her, but his former troops arrest him for his crimes. As Stone and Heckler are taken away for their crimes, he protests that they can't do that to him because he has an election to win, but is arrested regardless. This action simply ends his rule in Metro City for good, and because of this, it is heavily implied that Stone was sent to prison and relieved of presidential duty for the crimes he caused at Metro City, which would likely result in his political opponent Logan winning the election by default. Nevertheless, despite Astro's sacrifice, he is successfully revived by ZOG, a one hundred-year old construction robot that Astro brought back to life earlier.

---

When he was done we were shocked!

Miranda: (sarcastically) Alright, everyone! Who wants to vote for Stone being President?! Raise your hand!

None of us raised our hands because of what he did.

Miranda: No one?! Good! Me neither!

Nico: It's time to put an end to his presidency once and for all. And bring in a new president to this world that can lead Earth back to what it was. How about we elect Dr. Tenma?

Everyone: YEAH!

Dr. Tenma: You think I have what it takes to be president?

Leif: I know you do doctor. You can lead the world back to what it was.

Dumbbeltron: I have a feeling we might see that Peacekeeper robot.

Nico: And we'll be ready for it when we face it. Astro Boy, Dr. Tenma, how would you and your friends like to see a demonstration of our power in our usual battles before we take down Stone?

Astro Boy: That would be awesome!

Eli: You're in for quite a show.

Maria: I'll call them in.

Maria did so and then Gentleman Ghost, Whiplash, Electrocutioner, Biowulf, Shade, Speed Demon, Weather Wizard, INSTIGATOR, Roman Goodwin and Count Spankulot appeared.

Nico: Gentleman Ghost, Whiplash, Electrocutioner, Biowulf, Shade, Speed Demon, Weather Wizard, INSTIGATOR, Roman Goodwin and Count Spankulot.

Weather Wizard: Yep it's us.

Whiplash: Now we just need a president. A better one than Stone.

May: Astro Boy's dad will be that president.

William: Trust me. He's earned it.

Electrocutioner: Fair enough.

Me: After everything that happened, this whole place needs a fresh start.

Biowulf: (to me) I agree with you. Also I heard you faced the might of an army of robots this morning.

Me: You aren't kidding on that. These were all the robots of I, Robot.

Shade: That's actually fitting considering you guys just met Astro Boy today.

Me: It sure is. But these robots aren't nearly as powerful as Astro Boy, Mega Man and Roll or the Robot Masters.

Shade: Wow.

?: It sure is neat huh?

A figure came out and it was Skatana! Back for round 2!

Nico: Skatana, back for round 2 I see.

Skatana: Yep and it's gonna be good.

Nico: Cool.

Skatana: (sighs) Fine. If you guys insist on fighting me as a team, I'll allow it.

Jake: Sorry, dude. I know you prefer one on one. But fighting as a team is just how we roll.

Me: Yeah I know you want to face Noah one on one but it's how we roll.

Laney: Yeah sorry.

Skatana: That's all right.

Suddenly, the eight large planets and stars orbing around my legs, the eight large orange orbs orbiting around Lincoln's legs, the eight large crimson red orbs orbiting around Naruto's legs, and the eight large black orbs with the Eye of Horus orbiting around Cody (OC)'s legs were glowing, and that means big trouble was coming.

Goku saw something barreling towards us, it was a bus, and he fired an energy blast and destroyed it. Then, we saw three figures come out and when we heard the familiar cackling, the three figures that came out were none other than The Kanker Sisters, Lee, May, and Evil Marie.

Goku: The Kanker Sisters.

The Eds, Sarah, Jimmy, Johnny 2x4, Rolf, Kevin, Nazz, and Marie Kanker-Loud saw them, and they were none too pleased to see them here, least of all out of The Venus Prison.

Nico: Nice job blasting the bus, Kakarot, but I can't believe The Kankers are here again.

Edd: That goes for the rest of us, Nico, and we've had it up to hear with them.

Lee: You guys are gonna pay for stealing our boyfriends!

Me: For you your information you 3-eyed red-headed mom, they hated your guts the moment they saw your fucking asses!

Nico: And the last person Ed wants to be with is a Sadistic Bully that's blond and is a buck-toothed bimbo!

Eli: And a blue-haired freak of nature! (To Marie K.L.) No offense.

Marie K.L.: None taken.

Suddenly, Ed was surrounded by a green energy aura and monsters, Edd was surrounded by a dark blue energy aura with lightning and dragons, and Eddy was surrounded by a rainbow energy aura with light animals, as the Eds unholstered their new swords.

Eddy: We're tired of you Stupid Kankers always trying to hurt us for your own sadistic, love-sick pleasure.

Edd: You destroyed all of Peach Creek, all for reclaiming your Ship-In-A-Bottle, and you left nothing but physical and mental scars on all of us! And now, we're going to put a stop to this nonsense once and for all!

Ed: DOWN WITH THE KANKERS!

Then, Ed was surrounded by a massive vortex of green energy with comic-book monsters and a green phoenix inside the vortex, Double

?: Don't forget me.

We saw a figure come out and it was DAGNINO THE TIGER!

---

Dagnino is the main antagonist from the 2007 Argentine-Italian animated film El Arca (released internationally as Noah's Ark ).

He was voiced by Wayne LeGette in the English dubbed version.

Dagnino and his minions first appear at the beginning of the film when the king of the Animal Kingdom, Sabu, tells everyone about their incoming fate from the flood and how they must trust humanity in order to survive. Dagnino, knowing that the king is too weak to make it to the ship, secretly plans to overthrow Sabu's son and successor as king, Xiro, in order to become the ruler of the Animal Kingdom once the flood has passed.

When the human Noah builds a Ark for his family and two by two animals for a month, Xiro is uncertain how to handle animal consumption on the Ark, allowing Dagnino to gain the animals' respect by declaring that he will personally punish any act of violence on the voyage, much to Xiro's chagrin. He then tells the lioness Kariel, who was the aide of Queen Oriana, that there may be a problem with discipline on the voyage.

Xiro then finds himself infatuated with the panther Panthy, who is secretly working with Dagnino in order to overthrow Xiro. Dagnino then reveals to his minions in the bar that his true plan is that once he becomes king, he will enslave the herbivores and forcefully fatten them so the carnivores will have a higher survival rate in the new world.

Meanwhile, two greedy merchants named Farfan and Ester secretly board the Ark after Noah sells his house to them, and disguise themselves as animals called "grasswhoppers". They only get into bad situations until they accidentally anger Dagnino, who then rips off Farfan's "hide". Using Panthy to lure Xiro away from Kairel, Dagnino and his minions trick the other animals into believing Xiro killed the grasswhoppers by using the torn hide and covering him with tomato juice and imprison him for breaking the consumption law.

Xiro's herbivore friends quickly unravel the deceit and convince Kairel of the truth, but Dagnino intercepts the message and imprisons most of the herbivores, while Kairel and Xiro's other pals break Xiro out of his jail cell. Xiro and his friends race to confront Dagnino, where Xiro's group challenges Dagnino's group with a war dance known as a haka while Xiro and Dagnino engage in a fistfight. Their fight suddenly comes to a halt when the Ark, wandered off-course into the Arctic, crashes into a ice floe, causing Dagnino and his minions to be thrown into a wall by the force of the sudden halt, with their heads getting stuck. Their wall is then toppled down by the herbivores as they panic for their lives, only to be stopped when Xiro resumes control and ensures the animals' survival, which Dagnino's minions also agree to, much to Dagnino's chagrin.

Despite being still stuck in the wall while Panty is caged, Dagnino and his minions are last seen celebrating in a wonderful party on the deck of the Ark for Xiro's correlation as king of the Animal Kingdom. While still angered by his loss of power to Xiro, Dagnino is satisfied that his rival succeeded in their survival.

Battle 15: Ed, Edd N Eddy and Luan, Linka N Leni VS Lee, Dark Marie and May Kanker

---

The Kankers were next.

Leni, Luan, and Linka transformed and went with the Eds, as they went after The Kanker Sisters, and they fired powerful blasts of lightning, atomic energy, light, and gravity lightning at The Kankers, and they exploded with incredible power. Then, thanks to strong punches to the eyes by The Eds, Leni, Luan, and Linka, The Kanker Sisters were knocked out.

Eddy: Alright, now, let's tie those Kankers up.

The Eds tied the Kankers up with powerful neon energy ropes, so they couldn't get loose, but instead of taking them back to prison but they were taken to The Neptune Cryo -Prison, where they're eventually cryogenically frozen forever, and were thrown into separate cells in Solitary Confinement.

The Eds powered down, and their eyes changed back to normal, but their new bodies, clothes, jewelry, and weapons were permanent. Finally, we were now rid of The Kanker Sisters, and they will never return to cause havoc and chaos. the whole world can now rest easy now that the terror of the Kankers has been silenced forever.

---

We regrouped and cheered wildly.

Laxus: Now that the usual battles are done, let's go pay our not so good president a visit.

Nico: I agree. Lets go get him!

We were off to find President Stone.

We got to finding him and we were searching far and wide all over the city for him.

We searched around and we found President Stone but no Peacekeeper.

Nico: There he is. But there's no Peacekeeper.

Shiva: We haven't run into the Peacekeeper yet. Something's wrong.

Nico: He must be saving it as a secret weapon.

Astro Boy: I'll go on ahead and you guys do your entrance when I confront him.

Astro Boy and Maria went at him and faced him.

President Stone: I hope you all voted before you got here. Because I doubt any of you are going to be leaving.

Astro Boy: No way anyone's going to reelect you, Stone!

President Stone: Oh yes, they will! I'll cover up this incident by saying I bravely took down the rampaging Peacekeeper robot. Sorry you won't bet here, Astro Boy. But I'll make sure to build you a statue in your honor.

Maria: (scoffs) Oh please. We all know you won't build Astro Boy a statue.

President Stone: You're right about that. But you won't be alive to call me out on it.

KRABBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off in the air and a Giant Saiyan Ape roar was heard and then swords flew out and slashed Stone all over the place and then they converged and we landed.

Nico: President Stone you are under arrest.

President Stone: Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Nico: That's right and we're taking you in. So are you gonna come quietly or do we have to do this the hard way?

President Stone: You will never take me alive!

Nico: All right then, we do this the hard way.

Leif: You don't care about anyone but yourself and your own pathetic Xenophobic beliefs. You are so threatened by people that are different than you that you don't care if they lived or died. You should have never been made president and now I'm going to make sure you pay for your crimes when you unleashed the Peacemaker.

Suddenly, Leif was enveloped in a massive flash of light and then a massive vortex of ice and snow and it formed into a snow woman and she was beautiful. When it faded, Leif emerged forever changed.

Nico then pulled out handcuffs and he took his hands and cuffed him.

Nico: You're going to one of our prisons for the rest of your miserable life.

Stone: You can't do this to me! I'm what this city needs!

Nico: Not anymore. Your election campaign has officially been terminated.

Nico beamed him to the Neptune prison forever.

Speed Demon: Looks like Stone won't be reelected now.

Weather Wizard: (to Astro Boy) But we'll still build you a statue in your honor.

Meanwhile in Ocean Shores in Southern California, 4 awesome friends were together at the skate park for some fun. They were Otto and his sister Reggie, Twist and Sam and they were ready to shred the ramps and rails.

Otto: This is gonna be awesome dudes! I can't wait for Team Loud Phoenix Storm to get here so we can show them our stuff.

Twist: You bet dudes! And it will be great to have the Lightning Shark shred with us again!

Sam (RP): You said it! She is a goddess when it comes to skating and shredding.

Otto: You bet Squid. Lets shred!

ROCKET POWER!

They got to shredding.

THE END

Another awesome fanfic done.

Astro Boy from 2009 was an awesome movie! I can't believe those blockhead critics ruined it! Those buffoons wouldn't know what a good movie is if it came and kicked their butts. But it was a great movie for the awesome Japanese Comic Hero. The first part of the chapter was for the awesome 2004 movie I, Robot and that was a wicked awesome movie about how robots would rise up against humanity to keep it from causing harm and all because of a supercomputer that was thinking that it was doing the right thing. The second part was for the 2012 movie Zero Dark Thirty and that was about how we had the decade long search for the most dangerous man ever known to the world: Osama bin Laden and how we found him in Abbottabad, Pakistan and how we killed him and avenged the 3,000 lives he killed on 9/11. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Drako1234658, Darkhai, vinjedi1995, Nflemingful, Etstheclarencefan and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. The next girl me, Nico and Eli and the Magmortar Gene-Slammer are going into the world of Dark Cloud 2 and we're going to meet Maxamillian and Monica and we're going to help them destroy the Star of Oblivion and take down Griffin and The Dark Element and destroy them both as well as meet Nayori the Trumpart and a Lugia Gene-Slammer from Jamaica named Angelia Campbell. Then as you saw we're going into the world of another great cartoon from my past called Rocket Power and we're going to have Stacy reunite with her friends and shred the rails and ramps and even shred the waves as well as play street hockey. Also we're going to teach Twist's Brother and big time Jerk of all Jerks Lars Rodriguez a lesson he will never forget.

See you all tomorrow.

Skateboard and Surfing Friends

In an amazing world of Fantasy, me, Nico and Eli and the Magmortar Gene-Slammer, Victoria Mora were flying over a magical world and it was beautiful.

Nico: Wow!

Me: This place is beautiful.

Victoria Mora: Is this a video game you're familiar with, J.D.?

Victoria concentrated and groaned as her temperature rose.

Me: Whew! Man that is hot! And actually yes it is very familiar to me.

She turned into Magmortar!

Me: Yeah!

Nico: Which game is it?

Me: It's Dark Cloud 2. I haven't played that game in forever.

Nico: Me neither. It's been a while.

Eli: What's that one about?
